OPINION

Have I Got A Line For You!

By James Mahlon White

Ran across a book about Edgar Cayce who was called "The of Virginia Beach." He apparently had an psychic ability and founded the Cayce Foundation. Edgar said that some dreams are caused by indigestion, some by things that have happened during the day, but when you dream in color you're having a prophetic dream. Think about it, do you ever dream in color? Cavce also predicted that someday the world would be visited by a number of natural disasters.. One prediction that Japan will disappear into the sea in the twinkling of an eye and that New York City and the Carolinas would be flooded. But take heart, he said the Midwest would be a safe place. Also read that there might be a shift in the location of the North and South poles, "With the skin of the earth slipping around like the loose skin of an orange." Some scientists says polar shifts have happened in the dim past and they believe one was once located in the Sahara desert. Nothing we can do about these things if they do ever in the Midwest, just to play it safe.

Luke Edwards says Henry County was once home to a U.S. Senator. He was Senator Elkins of West Virginia and his family once owned acreage on which Huntingdale was located. Luke also told me a story about the whistle on the old White Swan Flour Mill in Clinton. Luke said it came off a steamboat that docked in Warsaw before it was transported to Clinton. The whistle was blown to mark the start of the working day (6 AM) and other routine occasions. It also was blown to announce the official opening of the New Year and could be hear clear out in the country.

Let's switch to the present, which I'm sure your gunning for. Who are these 5,000 Americans stuck in Afghanistan with 6,000 troops there? Several airlines have been ordered to help with the evacuation and many Afghani's are saying "There's no help here." Really? We've been helping for 20 years with great expense which could have been spent on our own country. When the smoke clears China will have mineral rights in Afghanistan, refugees will flood the U.S and the military industrial complex will be back in Middle East conflict. Bet this will pale in comparison when China invades Taiwan. .In the meantime some cave men are running around with our abandoned military equipment.

Have a buster of a day old buddy. We never know what's coming around the bend. In spite of the chaos though. I'd say we have a good chance.

Lord help us.

came up with the idea of promoting exclusive breastfeeding for the first six months of life. These organizations as well as the American Academy of Pediatrics emphasize the value of breastfeeding which yields many health benefits. Henry County promotes the value of breastfeeding all year long

"No special events are being scheduled at Golden Valley Memorial Hospital (GVMH), in Clinton, to celebrate the month," said Miranda Curnutte, Lactation Specialist at GVMH. "But we offer services to breastfeeding mothers all during the year. I do one-onone consult visits for those who want to see questions with me about breastfeeding before or after their babies are born. They may ask about feeding problems such as a low supply of milk, or need to know what is normal and not normal. I want them to be aware of, what to expect, and to be comfortable. I breastfed my own children and had a few problems, so I understand what some of the mothers are experiencing."

Curnutte meets with women in their prenatal stage, and at the birthing center as well as after their babies are born. She gets a lot of texts from nursing women who want to schedule a one-onone appointment, and she travels to Warsaw and Windsor to meet some of her clients. She services any member of the public who needs to meet with her, and often will coordinate visits with an already-scheduled doctor's appointment to address any transportation problems. Curnutte has been a Certified Lactation Specialist for three years and is close to meeting qualifications to move up to the next certification as a Lactation Consultant.

"One thing we are working on at GVMH is to bring back birthing classes that used to be held before COVID came along," said Curnutte. "During the classes, I will do a piece on breastfeeding. We don't have scheduled dates for those classes at this time."

Hannah Clark, Henry County Health Center Breastfeeding Peer Counselor, currently sees 39 breastfeeding moms ranging in age from 16 to 42 years. She says the average at a time for WIC clients is 30 to 37.

"When women are pregnant, we offer one-on-one visits every two months," said Clark. "We also offer four classes a month. I have been doing this service for four years, and get together with Marketing to get advertising about our services on the WIC reports that during the early 20th century, breastfeeding started to be viewed negatively, especially in Canada and the United States, where it was regarded as a low class and uncultured practice. The use of infant formulas increased, which after accelerated World War II. From the 1960s onwards, breastfeeding experienced a revival which continued into the 2000s, though negative attitudes towards breastfeeding were still entrenched up to 1990s. Though the debate about whether or not to breastfeed is very old, the health benefits cannot be denied. According to the World Health Organization, universal breastfeeding could save about 820,000 infant lives each year.

https://nationaltoday.com reported that "Breast milk has always held great cultural significance. Ancient Greeks believed that the Milky Way galaxy was formed by a swirl of the goddess Hera's breastmilk (and that the breastmilk of a goddess could make a mortal invincible)."

Babyology.com ports about breastfeeding around the world. For instance, in Mongolia breastfeeding is celebrated and public breastfeeding encouraged with 65 percent of babies being exclusively breastfed for the first six months of life. Breastfeeding also tends to continue until after isn't unheard of either for 'mother's milk' to be enjoyed by dads, chugging down a glass with their breakfast that their partner has expressed for them. In poor neighborhoods, breast milk is considered valuable and is traded for necessities like bread and eggs.

In Kenya, up until recently, mothers have not been supported in their right to breastfeed their babies. In 2003 only 13 percent of mothers were breastfeeding exclusively for the first six months. Nowadays, thanks to a strong public health campaign, 61 percent of mums with babies this age are breastfeeding exclusively.

tion even though the up-front cost is more; the first option, according to her calculations, would actually cost more because of the limitations on the warranty for the paint. The second option, although almost twice as high ($400,000) is warrantied for 25 years. City Administrator Christy Maggi clarified some of the Parks and Rec fund balances, in particular noting how low the fund reserve would get if, for instance, only the cheaper option was paid for with that money. "It would run the cash reserves low for a low-end repair at the pool," she said.

Councilman Cameron Jackson wondered what would happen if the voters did not approve the tax once presented it at the ballot. "What if it is rejected by the voters?" he asked. City Administrator Maggi said if that happened then options would be presented to the council at that time. She proposed using a design-build process, much like what was used for the Inclusive Playground Project, for the pool house design. Recall, the proposed tax would be limited to a five year sunset and is estimated to generate about $500,000 for the redesign and repair of the pool house. Councilman Daniel Wilson remained opposed to any measures to put a tax on the ballot: he pointed out that he thought the paint for the pool would outlast the warranty, and that he still believed something could be worked out where money could be "borrowed" from General Revenue and paid back over time. Councilman Cameron Jackson also stated something similar. It is unclear whether the city would actually have the funds to do that, however. Mayor Greg Lowe asked Councilman Wilson if his aim was to "just do a bandaid job," to which Councilman Wilson said: "no." Councilwomthe second birthday. It an Moberly said she thought it was more prudent to give the be fair if the council "shut it down" and did not let the voters even have a choice. Councilwoman Becky Raysik echoed Councilwoman Moberly's sentiment: "Let's put it before the people; let them decide," she said. The bill did pass; the two "no" votes were Councilmen Cameron Jackson and Daniel Wilson. Councilman Gene Henry was absent.

Councilman Cameron Jackson gave the Public Works committee report: the application to rezone the property at 812 E. Augusta Street (to build a garage to house classic cars) was approved. Both readings were held so as to not delay construction any longer for the person who applied. Also from Public Works: the Rhino 17 foot finish mower was declared surplus and the council approved the placement of a Lending Library at the Inclusive Playground location. The Lending Library was proposed by Girl Scout Troop 3503 and that troop will be responsible for maintaining it. Parks and Rec will install the unit to ensure it matches the theme of the Inclusive Playground. Councilman Jackson concluded his report for Public Works by giving an update on the caboose at the Katy Trail head (the First Baptist Church will be power washing the caboose and also working on the landscaping; the labor for it will be paid for out of Clinton Tourism), and an update about ished, but it is asked of the community to stay off of the playground until it officially open; the concrete will need to set.

The Public Safety report was given by Councilwoman Debbie Smith: the council accepted (regretfully) the resignation of fireman Scott Hutcherson and the Clinton Fire Department was given the green light to begin advertising to fill the vacancy immediately. Also from Public Works, prices for the new pumper truck came in about 4% higher than what it cost for the previous pumper truck. There is a discount available to the city for paying a down payment as there has been for the previous trucks. After this purchase the city's fire truck inventory will finally be modern: all trucks will be 2018 or newer (and much safer).

There was no finance committee report.

The City Administrator's report (Christy Maggi) included an update about the airport's Apron Project and that she will be bringing some suggestions for the personnel board modifications back to the next council meeting. At previous council sessions it has been suggested that the personnel board be used primarily for the hiring of department heads and to review disciplinary measures for employees. The process of using the board for hiring everyone has become complicated and cumbersome, the progress at the and more importantly, Inclusive Playground very slow. ployment might be better handled by the department heads and would certainly speed up the hiring process. There is at least one example where a potential employee would have been hired but took employment elsewhere because of the delay within the city's hiring process.

Unfinished business for the city included the passing of two bills: both were time sensitive and the rules were suspended and both readings held to expedite the process. The first was Bill No. regarding 2021-12 levying taxes for the 2021 year; the second was Bill No. 2021-13 which brings the city's code regarding liquor licenses in line with state regulation chang-

Annual Labor Day Picnic

Immaculate Conception Church in Montrose is pleased to once again celebrate the Annual Labor Day Picnic featuring our famous fried chicken dinner on Monday, September 6th. The picnic was cancelled last year due to the Covid pandemic, but we are happy to be back this year with a few changes. For the health and safety of visitors and workers, we will not be able to offer our family-style dine-in meal in the school basement, but we will offer two other options for enjoying a great chicken dinner.

As always, our carry out dinners will be available on the church grounds. This has been a very popular option in past years, so there will be two serving lines set up to shorten the wait time for guests. There will be outdoor tent seating and drinks available for those who would like to stay to enjoy their meal.

New this year will be a drive-thru option for purchasing dinners. Drivers will be asked to line up on Kansas Ave starting at the Montrose fire station and proceed north towards the front of church and school. Workers will take your meal order and deliver car-side for your convenience. Dinner will be served from 11am to 2:30 pm. The menu for the dinner is: Fried Chicken, Mashed Potatoes and Gravy, Dressing, Green Beans, Bread & Butter Pickles, Slaw, and Homemade Pie. Prices for the dinner are $12 for adults, and $6 for children 10 and under.

In addition to the dinner, guests can enjoy a huge country store, bingo, corn hole and a dunk tank. There is a large cash raffle, and a quilt raffle for a beautiful quilt made by talented ladies of the parish. A homemade pie auction will take place at 3:30, followed by the raffle drawings.

This historical picnic is an end-of-summer highlight enjoyed by many in the area and beyond. Former parishioners and extended family often drive many miles to join with local guests to enjoy the delicious food, entertainment, and fellowship in a beautiful country setting.

He was born on September 10, 1971, at the Baptist Hospital in Miami, Florida; the son of Richard Ward Fatherley and Judith R. Neibarger and step-dad John "Gene" Neigarger. The family moved from Florioda to Tonganoxie, KS. He attended school in Tonganoxie where was Homecoming King, then graduated from Central Methodist College in Fayette, MO with a B.S. in Education, where again he was named Homecoming King. He received his Masters in Education from Lincoln University, Jefferson City, MO. Rob worked as a beloved teacher and coach in several school districts including Grandview, MO, Camdenton, MO and with most years in Jefferson City, MO. He was nominated for Teacher of the Year many times.

He was united in marriage to Susan (Pennington) Starr on January 1, 2019, in Warrensburg, MO. He retired from teaching and began a short career working at Menards, where he loved going in and helping people. He was nationally recognized by Menards, and awarded Service Hero for making a special boy feel important.

He was interested in live music, playing the drums, riding motorcycles, watching the Chiefs, Mizzou, and high school football, and the band, Rush, specifically drummer Neal Peart, coaching football and wrestling, and staying busy with any task he could find. As many know, he loved making his daily schedule, or in his words, "Plan the work, then work the plan". As a child, he had the nickname "White Tornado" which was still fitting as an adult as he lived life with great force. He loved singing, dancing, and breaking out an impromptu rap to make people smile. He mostly loved being a husband to his soul mate and best friend, Sue, and being a father to his four children.

Rob is survived by Susan Fatherwife. ley; son, Sam Fatherley and daughter, Layne Fatherley (from previous marriage to Bran-Glawson-Benz); di step-daughter, Josie Starr; and step-son, Jenson Starr; mother, Judith R. Neibarger; brothers Doug (wife Jodi), Charlie (wife Jennifer), William, and Richard; sisters Carol McDaniel (husband CJ McDaniel) and Kathryn Fatherley; in-laws Paul and Sharon Pennington; and several nieces and nephews. Robert was preceded in death by his father, Richard W. Fatherley; Step-father, John "Gene" Neibarger; Grandparents, Robert E and Emiline W. Fatherley, and Eugene Carroll Reed and Edna J Russell Reed.

CHURCH NEWS

Clinton Church of the Nazarene

8-15-21

Rev. Tom Waller, Pastor

Pastor opened the service with prayer. What a beautiful day to be in the house of the Lord. Special prayer was offered for teachers and children of all ages, beginning fall classes. We pray especially for their safety and well being.

The poem was titled, "If my People."

Pastor's sermon was titled, "Making Some Noise For Jesus." Communion was served. Our song service was outstanding, holding up our hearts and minds to god in humble adoration. The new testament is full of people who were willing to serve God.

Paul and Peter were willing disciples, able to serve and tell others of the wondrous God they served. Jesus sets us free from our sins. So, Live holy lives, get excited over what Jesus has done for you. Pray, Lord, get me out of your way so you can use me in your kingdom. Give Jesus the praise He so richly deserves. Verses from Isaiah and Acts show us God always knows what He is doing. Psalm 46 reminds us; Be joyful in the Lord. He is so worthy of our praise.

We thank each person for coming to worship here. We pray that you received a rich blessing from the message and that you will come again. See you in church?

First Baptist Church

Dave Walden, Deacon of the week, offered the opening prayer for the Sunday morning worship service and Pastor Randy Shipman welcomed the congregation. On behalf of the Trustees, Patty Bancroft recognized and congratulated Dawn Wiseman for her one year of service at First Baptist Church. Joey Conway, our Student Pastor, led the scripture reading, John 6:56-69 and Kevin Griffey led the scripture reading for Psalm 84. Pastor Randy announced that this was Disaster Relief Sunday and invited all who were interested to participate in the training which is to be held October 8-9 at First Baptist Church in Blue Springs, MO.

In the message, Pastor Randy used Luke 13:18-21 to remind us, we have "Indisputable Hope" that is based on what the Lord Has done in the past and continues to do now and in the future.

Anyone who is grieving the loss of a loved one is invited to "Grief Share", a ministry where comfort and support can be found. They meet Sunday, through November 14, from 6-8 p.m. at the Vansant Road location. For more information go to the website www. griefshare.org or telephone the church office.

"The ActsOne8 Celebration' will be held at First Baptist Church this year, October 20-24 with daily daytime and evening events. Kick Off will be on October 20th at 6:30 p.m. at the Vansant Road location. "Our mission is to inform and inspire followers of Jesus to engage His mission until everyone confesses Jesus is Lord."

For those who are shut-in we invite you to hear the worship service on KDKD 95.3 at 10 a.m. Sunday mornings. We also invite those in the Clinton area who don't have a church home to join us in worship of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. For more information on the activities of FBC, please telephone the church office at 660-885-2211 or check out our website at www.fbcclinton.org

First Presbyterian Church

God has given us this day to praise him. He has given us his Son so that we might learn ways of peace and mercy. Remember to let your songs, your words, and thoughts reflect God's love. Rev. Nancy Gillard brought the message Numbering Our Days using Psalm 90 as her text. Organist Gay Smith played a beautiful rendition of "Come Sing, O Church, In Joy!" arranged by George Miles.

Our mission project to support the Festival Of Sharing is off to a good start. A variety of school supplies are being collected as well as discarded eye glasses that will benefit people in need in Mexico. Left over garden seed from 2021 can be put to good use for Community Gardens next spring. A list of needed supplies is available on the table display in the foyer. Collection of these items will continue through Sunday, September 26th.

The First Presbyterian Church has become a designated Cooling Center. When a heat advisory is in effect for Henry County, our doors will be open from 1 pm to 5 pm Monday through Friday. Please help spread the word.

You are invited to join us in worship each week. We are worshiping inside and on live stream. If unable to attend in person, please find us online at: You tube Nancy Gillard, fpcclintonmo.com or Facebook First Presbyterian Clinton MO. You will find Sunday sermons, worshipful music, church updates and prayer times there. Our Sunday service is also broadcast on FM radio 87.9 at 10:30 am.

Golden Valley Christian Church

Accidents happen each and every day. We tend to think of an accident as being bad, but there have been some accidental inventions that have changed lives for the better. A pacemaker is one of these accidents. In 1956, while tinkering with an oscilloscope, Dr. Wilson Greatbatch installed the wrong-sized resistor and realized he had stumbled onto an amazing discovery. The first test of this new pacemaker was on a dog. Since the initial discovery, there have been numerous changes by other scientists to this lifesaving product that regulates the heart and has helped millions of people. The antibiotic, penicillin, was another accidental invention by Dr. Alexander Fleming; this "wonder drug" helped revolutionize the medical field. As great as these inventions were, nothing can equal the miracles Jesus did (Matt 8:1-3; 14-15).

It's the workers behind the scene that help make things go smoothly. Steven and Rosanna Cross run the sound system most Sundays at GVCC. In their absence, Alex Jones or Austin Jones fill in. Thanks go to these folks who ask not for recognition, but stay faithful, doing a great job. Please remember next Sunday, August 29th, when the young people of our church will lead the worship service. These youth are the next generation of our church leaders; let's support them!

Bro Elmer's message was from Mark, chapter 8. The question is: What Is the Evidence? Evidence is proof of situations that we all need at times. In these verses, Jesus tells His disciples that He is the Christ and of his approaching death (8:31). (Even John 8:25 confirms the need of the people to know who Jesus was.) He tells them to take up their cross and follow Him. What does it mean to take up our cross? We are not executed in the manner of Jesus, during the Roman occupation. What we are to do is follow and obey Jesus' teachings. We should be active Christians, living our belief in Jesus and sharing it with others.

Golden Valley Christian Church meets at 611 South Third Street in Clinton. Sunday School classes begin at 9:30 AM, and the morning worship service is at 10:30. Our interim minister is Elmer Fuller, and our website is www.goldenvalleycc.org, where you will also find links to access our Facebook page and You-Tube sermons. We are happy to invite you to attend our services, where you will always receive a warm welcome.

"A Friend To The End"

John 5:1-8: After this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches. In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water. For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had. And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years. When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole? The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me. Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk. (KJV)

In rough times we see who our friends are. This man in this story couldn't walk. He sat at the gate for thirty-eight years waiting for his opportunity to get in the pool when the water was troubled.

When Jesus came to him, he already knew who this man was. He's God he knew everything there was to know about this man. Can you imagine all the people who were around this man who could have helped him?

It wasn't a lack of faith that kept him from receiving his healing, it was a lack of opportunity and barriers that were in his way. When God does bring us out of our situation be careful of those who come to steal your joy. Some people can be judgmental when they don't know your situation.

God will bless us when we help other people. Think about all of those who are around you who could offer a helping hand. Think about those you have been around that you could have helped.

Learn to speak a word in someone's life or situation. This man had people questioning him about who helped him. They knew it was Jesus, but they were mad at what he did. Jesus didn't care, he came to save the world and he went out and did that.

When God helps you and brings you out of a situation, let somebody know what He has done for you. Then go and live right, just as Jesus told this man to do so worse wouldn't come upon him.

Friends are true, not fair weathered. They make sacrifices, love at all times. We are disciples of Christ but we must allow our behavior to reflect that too. Some of us have been waiting a long time for God to bring us out of a situation.

He will stick closer than a brother, if we want to see him we have to be like him. If we want to be friends with others we can start by telling them about Jesus. We can have an encounter with Jesus so he can tell us to pick up our bed and walk.

He has given us a spirit to live holy and righteously. All we have to do is reach out to him and ask Jesus into our life, and our heart. God Bless.

Mt. Zion United Methodist Church

We were blessed to have Jerry Johannigmeier with us as he brought the message; "Don't Forget His Benefits". The readings for his message were Psalm 103:1-8, and Deuteronomy 9:3. The book of Deuteronomy is a call to remembrance—not just on the past, but on the future. It reminds us what God has done for the people of Israel. He is telling them that they could start over and have good things in their future. The Israelites did not have to focus on their past, and neither do we. We have so much to be thankful for, and when we put God first, we can be hopeful and have a fantastic life and a great future. Just like the Israelites, we may tend to stray from listening and obeying. And, also--just like the Israelites—God wants the best for us and our future. God's provision for our lives is boundless. Even though God sent his people into the wilderness for forty years, He still provided for their daily needs—keeping their clothing from wearing out and sending them food for every

But God warned them—as He warns us—not to be corrupt by worshipping idols. Idols come in many forms. Idols are anything, or anyone, that we 'worship' more than God. We must remember that every day each of us is influencing someone else's life by the way we live in the world. So, let us always hold fast to God and live for Him. But even when we fail—and we will fail at times—God will always be faithful and help us renew our faith and confidence in Him.

God promised the Israelite that He would go before them and be with them. He does the same thing for us today. So let us get out of the wasteland of our lives and head for the Promise Land. Amen!

Northeast Baptist Church

There are times when our concerns can outweigh our praises. This is one of those times, when so many in our world are suffering trials and tribulations. There are many Bible verses that can provide us with strength and guidance as we struggle to understand, heal and again find hope.

James 1:12 says "Blessed is the man who remains steadfast under trial for when he has stood the test, he will receive the crown of life, which God has promised to those who love Him."

"More than that, we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope (Romans 3:4)."

As compassionate Christians, we offer our prayers, volunteer services and funds to those experiencing health issues, hurricanes, earthquakes and war. "Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our troubles, so we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves receive from God (2 Corinthians 1:3-4)."

NEB welcomes home our Mission to Montana group this week. We're excited to hear their report and are praying for their safe return.

"Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you (1 Thessalonians 5:16-18)."

Did you know, some 150,000 people throughout the world die every day? No one knows what day is the day before the day they die. Therefore, we should endeavor to live each day to the fullest, to the glory of God, and His son, Jesus Christ. Remember, "...the wages of Sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Jesus Christ, our Lord." (Romans 6:23).

Urich Baptist Church

Blessings warmed our hearts as we gathered for worship service. Today, Clint Keeney rang the church bell. Mrs. Julia Klinefelter led in the congregational singing with Mrs. Dixie Collins playing piano. We rejoiced with Shelby and Norma Fellhauer on their 66th wedding anniversary and also rejoiced with Randy and Sherry Vogt on their wedding anniversary. Gary Vass and Clint Keeney collected the offering. The scripture passage from Pastor Chad Pollett's sermon was from Ephesians 6: 7-8.

This passage describes the relationship between slaves and their masters. Just as slaves are to obey their masters with respect and sincerity we are to obey Christ. Our heavenly Father is our master and we should live wholeheartedly in a Godly manner, living unto the Lord and not unto men. When our attention is full and sincerely on the Lord our work and quality of life is influenced for the better. Following Christ raises our spirits and we are so blessed when we follow the Lord's path. Have a great week.

Valley Center United Church of Christ

We pray for all of the people in Afghanistan and for our leaders of this world. We pray for our children and teachers as they go back to school soon. We pray for Matt Dupec who is in Afghanistan with the state department security team helping to get people out of the country safely.

We gather in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost. On this Sabbath Day we look around us and see the love and beauty of God's work. Happy anniversary to David and Susan Hilty and to Ted and Cindy McDaniel. Church services will again be online next week. Our church Consistory Board will meet and discuss when we will meet again safely in-person for worship.

It says in the Bible that Paul knew that his passion of teaching and preaching would end with his death. But he understood what was important to do and to deliver the most important message of all, the message of Jesus Christ. As he preached, he called for Christians to put on their armor to combat the negativity and evil that surrounds them in the world. He wasn't talking about full physical armor, he was talking about protecting things of the heart, mind and soul. It was about surrounding ourselves with the power of God, salvation, righteousness and purity so we can protect our faith.

Today, just as in Paul's time, there are so many distractions and problems that continue to come into our lives. We may struggle to find what is really important and to understand what is just or unjust or what is right or what is wrong. In these hard times, we need to speak out for those injustices and armor ourselves to go live a life of faith.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPE ≈ * ↑ ♥ 8 ± ® 1 m = ™ WEEK OF AUGUST 26TH * * PB I O N n 2 M

Aries 3/21-4/19: The first one on the bus gets the seat of their choice. Although whatever bus you get on at the start of the week may take a circuitous route. Adventure is in the air. Tuesday and Wednesday, the detours pay off: Everything the world puts in your path is useful to you in some way. Your reputation at work is top-of-mind, and nothing satisfies you more than coming into a whole bunch of sudden success on Thursday and Friday. But as you know, what goes up also comes down: This weekend is the comedown. Do as little as possible.

Taurus 4/20-5/19: Someone may be devising a scheme to separate you from your money at the start of the week. You are too smart for that. Your charming ways have a sort of steamroller effect, and you may be able to convince someone to bark up another tree by your sheer likeability. Midweek, your thoughts are on travel -- that's one area in which you're willing to be separated from your money, what with all the places you haven't been. Friday finds you trying not to read too much into everyone else's idiosyncrasies. Saturday and Sunday, your friends are as present and supportive as ever.

Gemini 5/21 - 6/21: You and your partner in crime (or in love) are on a different level on Monday -- a higher plane than everyone else. It's golden. Let yourself bask in it. You can do anything. You're in charge of your destiny. Tuesday and Wednesday, control of your destiny seems a bit more elusive, but an anecdote on Thursday makes you realize you don't even know what you want. (So it's a good thing you're not in charge of the future.) Your opinions have never been as up in the air as they are on Friday. Saturday and Sunday are deep, dreamy days. Cancer 6/22 - 7/22: Energy sources are hard to come by on Monday -- all the fossil fuels on the planet couldn't get your engine going. There is a problem in your social or private life, and it may take a few days for you to realize just what it is. Tuesday and Wednesday you're basically hibernating. You require alone time. Thursday and Friday, when you're in conversation with someone else, go for an intellectual connection over an emotional connection. And on Saturday and Sunday, give yourself full license to stare out the window, go butterfly hunting, read -- really, whatever strikes you. Leo 7/23 - 8/22: You're getting ahead of yourself on Monday. If you're single, you'll imagine going on a honeymoon with someone you've just met. If you're married, you'll impulsively want to book a flight to the Bahamas -- even though that's totally impractical right now. Tuesday and Wednesday, happiness is in paying attention to your health and making your services available to any friend in need. Thursday is an exercise in patience. Friday is a day of solutions -- they just float out of your brain -- but Saturday and Sunday present a stunning array of new conundrums. Virgo 8/23 - 9/22: You'd like to be at the head of the pack at the start of the week, but nothing you do seems to give you any advantage. You pump your legs and you move an inch. It's almost like you're walking on a conveyor belt in the wrong direction. Tuesday and Wednesday, you'll throw up your hands and let the conveyor belt carry you where it will -- blissfully, into the arms of someone super cute -- but Thursday and Friday bring about an insight into taking control of your life again. This weekend, happily on your way, you'll see a few of your friends in the same situation you were in on Monday.

Libra 9/23 - 10/22: You have the balance of a seal on Monday and a lot more skills than a seal in the communication realm. Your ideas are well received, and the responses you get inspire still bigger ideas. Nevertheless, Tuesday and Wednesday are a letdown. You are very much in your head, but your thoughts tend in a looking-into-your-past direction -- in particular, parts of your past that you feel weird about. Thursday and Friday lack weirdness altogether -- except the jumpy, jittery weirdness of romance (a happy weirdness) -- and Saturday and Sunday are so busy you'll be lucky to have a second to think at all.

Scorpio 10/24 - 11/22: The most abstract concepts have a direct correspondence with your day-to-day life at the start of the week. You may feel very influenced by philosophy. You may also have the sense that something is too good to be true. The truth is, things are simply good right now. Midweek, you manage to broker an agreement between two coworkers who normally can't even agree on the time. The upshot of Thursday and Friday, days defined by an emotional outburst on the home front, is an illuminating discovery. Saturday and Sunday, play a game (or just sit around and talk) in someone's yard.

Sagittarius 11/22 - 12/21: Your group of friends provides you with everything you need at the outset of the week: respect, confidence, comic relief. Find a way to let them know how you feel. Notes are nice. Tuesday and Wednesday, you may find yourself writing a flurry of them: short, sweet, maybe on a typewriter, maybe on Post-its - just little letters of admiration. Thursday and Friday, your attention to others extends to the world of strangers. You love knowing what music other people like and what they think about at night as they're falling asleep. Your curiosity is endless. The weekend is mind-expanding.

Capricorn 12/22 - 1/19: Sometimes inventing a structure -- imposing limitations on yourself -- is paradoxically freeing. It clarifies your goals and defines a means to achieve them. Your goals, high-minded as they are, might not seem achievable as you set out this week, but by Wednesday you'll be farther along than you imagined. Thursday and Friday, the future remains your primary interest. You may even babble on about it to people you barely know. You'd be wise to get out of the house -- and out of your head -- on Saturday with a concert or a movie, but Sunday finds you being, yet again, extremely productive.

Aquarius 1/20 - 2/18: You are not alone on Monday. You have your troops behind you at every juncture. You are powerful, although you are choosing to exert your power in benevolent, beneficent ways. Tuesday and Wednesday are unexpectedly complicated days, and you get a bit disoriented in the maelstrom, but by Thursday you'll be sailing toward smoother waters and clearer skies. Friday is also sunny -- metaphorically and perhaps literally -- which everyone seems to interpret as a reflection on you. Saturday and Sunday, you may be sidetracked by someone else's needs, but you're happy to exercise compassion.

Pisces 2/19 – 3/20: The hyperawareness you experience at the start of the week may be a bit exhausting, but it's extremely useful too. Subjects to be sensitive of: your boss, the way you come across when expressing your opinions, the difference between right and wrong. It's a very mixed bag. What you can do to relieve yourself of anxiety is confide in friends on Wednesday and do some kind of volunteer work (or even just help someone else with their bags at the grocery store) on Thursday. Friday might be frustrating because you won't be able to focus on anything, but Sunday is covered in sprinkles.

This I Remember

(Angie Wishard): Sports memory... I definitely remember the first home run each of my girls hit. Gentry hit her first home run at the Buffalo Tournament and Briley hit hers at Adair Park in KC. The excitement and joy they had for themselves and each other is something I will

(Nina Southers): "I have a lot of sports memories, I played a lot of softball for Sherwood (back then I was Nina Payne). And I held some records. But my neatest memory is meeting my husband Doug at a CoEd softball game played in Garden City in 1997. It was a 'blind date' softball game. We had never met and he was on the other team. We just said a quick awkward "Hi" before the game started. I think the neatest part is that at the end of the game Doug hit a tall fly ball and guess who caught it for the last out? (Me). We set up a date for after the game and have been dating ever since. We married in 2005."

See folks, sports can bring people together even if they are on opposite teams. Nina and Doug now have two active girls, Sadie and Whitley.

Hey Ava Bears!

Getting to know our first 2021 football opponent: Ava is SE of Springfield in Douglas County. It is approximately 2.5 hours away. It is a town of approximately 3,000. The census bureau says it is not growing. The town has one high school, they are the Bears. Ava was in our Class 3 District last year. We lost to Mt. Grove in the first round. Ava lost to Mt. Grove 28-14 in the second round. Ava's football team was 5-5 last school year, but they were 68-18 the seven seasons prior. They are coached by Daniel Swofford with six assistants and they have 52 players out for the 21-22 season. Armchair QBs should remember the Bears obviously have a strong program but they generally play smaller schools. So, that record may be a little misleading. The Bears were second in the Class 2 State Championships in 2019-20. They lost to Lutheran North 46-0 in the State Championship game. It has been eight years since the Bears had a losing record going 4-6 in 2012. They were moved to Class 3 last year. This appears to be a good match up, a good test for them and for the Cardinals. I am looking forward to the game. I am sure the Cardinals are too. Go Cards.

Just chatted with the Ava's coach Dan Swofford. He is excited to have the challenge to play someone outside their conference. Coach Swofford said they usually play Willard's JV right after their Buffalo game but Willard does not have a JV this year. He said this was his eleventh year as the Bear's head coach, fifteenth over all.

KC Chiefs Update

The Chiefs are now 2-0 in the preseason after beating the Arizona Cardinals 17-10 on Friday, Aug. 20. It was a different game. The Chiefs looked like they were wanting to run the ball more than ever. I am sure a run/pass balance is on their minds. Their new offensive line is getting a lot of praise. It was a typical preseason game in the sense that the Chiefs used four QBs, nine rushers and 17 receivers. The score was 10-0 at the half. The Chiefs take on the Vikings in their last preseason game Friday, Aug. 27 before hosting the Cleveland Browns in regular season play on Sunday, Sept. 12. Of course I want the Chiefs to win that game, but I am pulling for the Browns to have a good year.

Marathon Medal

WILLIE TICHENOR showing off his Ultra Marathon Medal he won in the Pikes Pike 50 mile race. 50 miles, that is not a type-o. Take time to read his story.

I enjoyed meeting Willie Tichenor at the Clinton Community Center. Willie, age 44, grew up and lives in Lowry City. After learning about his 'hobbie' I thought, with his permission, I would share it with you. What else do you call running 50 mile races in the Colorado mountains. Some people would call it a Sport, maybe a crazy sport. Willie calls it therapy. You see, in 2014, Willie suffered a severe head injury falling from a tree stand. His brain injuries have been hard to overcome. Willie found that long distance endurance walks helped him deal with his injuries, including depression. He was inspired to try 'walking' by one of his Uncles. His 'walks' overtime turned into runs. The runs turned into Ultra runs. I learned that an Ultra is any race longer than a marathon (a marathon is 26.2 miles). Willie's last two races have been 50

In the picture above Willie is wearing his most recent medal for running in the Pikes Peak Ultra. It is an endurance race at altitude that covered three sister peaks near Pikes Peak. He reported the weather was great when the race began but turned bad quickly. He said it was scary bad, in fact the organizers stopped the race after 45 miles. (I would have been relieved.) Not Willie, he said he was upset because the last five miles were downhill. 100 people started the race, 52 completed it, which Willie said is common in Ultras. Willie came in 29th. If you use the fitness area upstairs at the Community Center you may see Willie working out. Before a mountain race he will use an 'altitude' mask. This helps him acclimate for the lack of oxygen. His goal is to completely heal from his injuries but another goal is to run in the Leadville 100. Yes, that is 100 miles.

Side Note: Leadville, Colorado is already at 10,151 feet. My wife, Irene, and I spent the night there once. The following day we hiked Mount Elbert with our friend Russ Carney. Elbert is the tallest peak in the lower 48 states at 14,440 ft. Maybe that adventure was therapy for me. I have three main memories of that hike/climb up Mount Elbert: One, I got sick at the top, two it rained on us most of the way down and three the hot bowl of chili we ate after we got back to Leadville.

Willie, thanks for sharing your journey, we wish you well. I have often said "movement" is the best medicine (along with laughter). Be careful out there and stay in touch.

Tichenor Wins Ultra Women's Volleyball League Registration

Registration is open for the Parks and Rec women's recreational and power volleyball leagues. The deadline for signing up is Sept. 15. The league meetings take place on Sept. 16. The Recreational teams meet at 5:30 p.m. and the Power teams meet at 6 p.m. You must have a representative present. The Rec league plays on T & Th and the Power league plays on M and W. If you are an individual call to have you name put on a list. Call 885-2181 with questions.

OK Wins 2 Softball Titles, Missouri Goes 13-4

A group of 10-12 years old girls from Muskogee, Oklahoma won the Little League Softball World Series on Aug. 18 in Grennville, NC. The OK girls beat Virginia 9-1 for the title. Cool, right? To make it even more cool Oklahoma University had earlier won the College D1 World Series. Oklahoma University won the National title in June by beating Florida State in a best of three format, winning the third game 5-1.

Some may not realize the Little League organization has both baseball and softball divisions and different levels in each. The most popular is the 10-12 years old in both baseball and softball. The boys play their World Series in Williamsport, PA annually and the girls World Series is hosted by different cities.

How did the Missouri girls do? A team from the Columbia area won the Little League Softball Central region going 4-0 earning their way to the World Series Tournament. They went 5-2 in the tournament to claim third. Not bad. Columbia area team lost to Oklahoma 7-0 in the semi-finals on Aug. 18, but beat Texas the next day 10-1 to get third.

In the NCAA Tournament the MU softball team won the Regional Tournament winning games by the scores of 8-0, 4-0 and 5-0. They went to the Super Regional to play James Madison in a best of three format. The Lady Tigers lost two games to one. (Just short of the College World Series.) If you add up the Missouri games for both the Little League team and the MU team their post-season record would be 13-4. Also not

Lakeland Archery On Target

The Lakeland Archery Club had a fundraiser on Saturday, Aug. 21. It was an outdoor event to raise money for the 'wish list' that new clubs often have. This will be the third year for the school's archery team that is coached by Tia West and assisted by Kathy Dealy. I was informed the Skidmore Foundation recently helped the team buy several 3D targets. Other donations have helped them get several bullseye targets. Coach West said they are hoping to get more targets so they can more easily hold their own tournaments. They were able to host their first tourney last February and, even with inclement weather, they had 126 archers compete. She is hoping to host two tournaments this year. Coach West's enthusiasm for the sport was fun to witness. She wants to get the kids outside and to do things with their families. (Amen to that.) During the event on Saturday the parents were allowed to shoot with their children. She said everybody had to use the standard NASP equipment. (NASP -National Archery in the Schools Program.) Good luck Coach.

allow us to move the JV start times to give the parents more time to get to the games.

Here are some general comments after the announcement: Brandon Goth said it clearly, "It's not just about this year but the future of Clinton Cardinal Football! It needs to be done."

Mat Thornton said, "I am very proud of the administration for making decisions that will protect students. Student activities were so important to me. I know the district will continue to provide incredible opportunities for students to learn and grow."

David Lee announced CHS football forever. David commented, "I just can't believe all the people with supportive comments concerning this situation. With a tear in my eye, I salute you. Monday Night Football now belongs to Clinton High School. Go Cardinals!!"

Coach LaFavor pointed out that the practices since the announcement have been very positive and productive. The Cardinal MS Coach Dana Banks also noticed how upbeat practices have been. Banks commented, "Sure it was a tough decision, but it was the right decision."

Looking at the talent in the younger grades the future looks bright for the Cardinal football program. The coaching staff is in place with a head coach that is working hard and staying positive. The players seem to have bought into the gap year idea. The younger players seem to understand that they have serious potential, they just need a little more time. When the whistle blows, and the game starts it will be the Cardinals vs the Bears. Nobody will worry about JV or Varsity. Details will be worked out and games will be played.

Coach LaFavor was interviewed right before practice on Monday, Aug. 23. His response to, "How are things going?", since the JV only football schedule was nounced a week ago: "It has gone well, we did have to more fully explain a few points but generally there was a ton of positive comments. In fact, I have really been overwhelmed by how supportive the community has been."

Coach LaFavor talked about how the team reacted to the announcement of a JV only schedule: "For the most part they understood. Most are excited to play at a level where they can be competitive. Let's face it, some are relieved to play against oppo- while." Go Cards.

nents closer to their age and size." Coach went on to say, "Some juniors had mixed feelings. Some needed time to accept it. That is very understandable. The coaches and I spent extra time with those guys answering their questions."

Coach LaFavor's input on unexpected challenges: We (coaches and administrators) spent a lot of time trying to anticipate the challenges. The schedule itself may still have a change or two. We lost the California JV game but picked up the Ava game on the same date. Yes, there are a lot of challenges but nothing we can't handle, and of course, it is all about helping rebuild the program. We knew it wouldn't be easy, but it will be worth it."

Coach's Final Thoughts were: "Like I said, I was ready for anything, but I am so appreciative of the folks that spoke up in support of me and the decision."

Coach LaFavor went into some detail about how using a JV only schedule will help the coaches and the players learn more about their skill development. The players will play in more appropriate positions instead of being thrown into situations that will not benefit them down the road. "With a JV schedule we will have depth, something we have not had for a

You Go Girl! Girls In LLWS

Oak Grove

The Little League Baseball World Series is being played Aug. 19-29. It is played each fall in Williamsport, PA. (Covid canceled the event in 2020.) The LLWS is back, but with two major changes: 1) No public tickets sold, just family and friends in the stands and 2) No International teams. I hope these changes are only needed for

Historically 20 Girls have played in the LLWS. The first girl to play Little League was in 1950. She pretended to be a boy until she made the team. Later LL ruled she could not play. This "no girls" rule stood until 1973 when 'NOW' (National Organization of Women) took the league to court when Maria Pepe was forced to

Back to this year. Eight of the 20 WS girls have gotten hits in the tournaments. Three girls have had multiple hits, including this years' Ella Bruning on the Wylie Little League, Abilene, Texas team. Ella is not hiding on the bench, she is a catcher and also pitches. Probably the LLWS' most famous girl has been Mo'ne Davis in 2014. Are you curious about what Mo'ne Davis is doing today? Mo'ne Davis is a 20 year old college student trying to live a quiet (normal) life even though she still gets considerable attention from her Little League celebrity. Remember, she was a pitcher and a good one. She attends Hampton University in Virginia. She played high school basketball, soccer and softball. She is now the starting 2nd basemen for the D1 softball Pirates. Yes, she is doing well, that is not a surprise. When asked, she is quick to say she has no desire to be a softball pitcher.

(It will be nice when one day a girl playing in the LLWS is no longer a news story.)

supply by delaying how early you start feeding hay plus reduce your harvesting costs. Miller says, "Think of it as letting the cows do their own harvesting." Fall fescue pastures have excellent forage quality, running 15 to 18% protein. If you want to get fall grazing or winter stockpiling from your fescue stands, fertilizing needs to be done in late summer. preferably just before a rain. Much of the late growth of fescue is made during August and September. So for the fertilizer to benefit the fall growth it needs to be applied in August. Miller says that forty to sixty pounds of nitrogen would be plenty. Apply phosphorus, potash and lime according to soil test recommendations to get the benefit of all the nitrogen you apply. If the stand is primarily fescue, it can also be stockpiled for winter use. Because of its cell wall structure, the fall growth of fescue can be stockpiled for winter grazing. For this use, Miller recommends that cattle should be removed by August and returned after the first of the year so that the endophyte level is reduced in high endophyte varieties. On novel entophyte varieties, grazing can begin in October. Other grasses and legumes do not work as well for stockpiling. The best way to utilize this stockpiled fescue is to strip graze or limit graze.

An electric fence can be moved each day to give them one day's worth of grazing. This way the cattle will not trample the grass before they are able to eat it. Miller says, "They'll probably be there waiting for you to move the fence." For more information see guide sheet G4646, Tall Fescue.

Further, the CDC recommends a COVID-19 vaccination for everyone over 12, especially as cases are on the rise. Walmart pharmacies across the country offer both vaccines, and customers can receive a low-cost flu and free COVID-19 vaccine at the same time, if they choose.

"It's important we don't let our guard down with our health this fall. Between COVID-19 vaccines and the annual flu shot, we know people may be experiencing 'vaccine fatigue,' but these preventative measures have never been more vital to keeping our communities healthy," Del Sloneker, senior vice president and chief operating officer, Health and Wellness said. "It's on all of us to do our part and is just another way we're making it simple to live better, healthier lives."

Walmart's flu shots are administered by certified pharmacists and healthcare professionals who understand local health needs. In addition to walk-in availability, Walmart offers a variety of initiatives, making it easy to get vaccinated while following COVID-19 safety protocols. These events will make it quick and convenient for customers to get flu shots in stores throughout Missouri.

Walmart is a center of well-being in the communities it serves and has everything busy families need to live better, healthier, lives this flu season. This includes a team of pharmacists who can answer any medication related questions, COVID-19 tests, prescription and over-the-counter medication, as well as a variety of immunizations, including COVID-19, flu, measles, mumps, rubella (MMR), varicella (chicken pox), HPV, tetanus, whooping cough (TDAP) and more.

Stores also offer low-cost grocery items, ranging from immunity boosting foods, to soup and comfort foods. Walmart customers with a Walmart+ membership can also get free shipping on store purchases and reduced prices on select prescriptions. Finally, Walmart continues to offer everyday low prices on household essentials like cleaning supplies, tissues, thermometers and more, to help keep everyone safe and healthy.

Courage2Report Introduces Safe New CROSSWORD SOLUTION Way Report School Safety Concerns

Colonel Eric T. Olson, superintendent of the Missouri State Highway Patrol, reminds school personnel, parents, and students the Courage2ReportMO program provides a safe and confidential way to report any concerns regarding their safety or the safety of others. These concerns may include: assault, bullying/repeated harassment, cyber bullying, fighting, guns, homicide, human trafficking, knife, planned school attack, imminent school shooting, school shooting threat, sexual offense, suicide-other person (3rd party), or a terrorism threat (extremism). Those reporting their concerns may remain anonymous by not providing their name.

Courage2Report Missouri empowers adults and children to be the solution in addressing community and school safety. C2R provides a "sooner is safer" tool to report real time concerns 24 hours a day. There are several ways concerned persons may submit a C2R report:

- · through an Apple or Google Play Courage2Report mobile app,
- · by making an online report via http://www.mshp.dps.missouri.gov/ MSHPWeb/Courage2ReportMO/index.html, or

· by speaking confidentially to a trained professional at 866-748-7047. C2R Missouri calls and tips (web and mobile app) are answered 24 hours a day, 365 days per year by trained communications professionals and include two-way dialogue. Reports are sent to the appropriate school and/ or law enforcement agency for investigation and follow-up. Information in C2R reports allows schools and their community partners to proactively manage potential risks and increases school safety.

C2R Missouri requires a disposition report be returned on each tip report, notifying the Missouri State Highway Patrol of the outcome.

Schools are urged to verify their administrative contact information is up-to-date and available to C2R staff. This ensures the correct individuals are notified in the event a C2R report involves their school. Any schools that are not currently participating in the C2R program may request a C2R Missouri School Contact Form from the administrative office by calling 866-362-6422.

For more information about C2R Missouri awareness and education resources, call the C2R Missouri Administrative Office at 866-362-6422.

This bill provides that, in addition to current requirements for licensure, peace officers must submit to being fingerprinted on or before January 1, 2022, for the purposes of a criminal history background check (including FBI records) and enrollment in the state and federal Rap Back Program. If you would like to know more about this production, be sure to look for my interview with Rob Hills, AKA Justin Thyme the Tightwad Station Master, on the Chamber's Facebook page.

On Thursday, I attended the weekly Rotary Club meeting as a guest of club member Scott Bernard. The speakers included Clinton Head Football Coach Kevin LaFavor, two of his assistants and three administrators of the School District. Most of the discussion centered on the decision this week to only play a Junior Varsity schedule in 2021. All of the school officials in attendance said that this decision for the 2021 football season was the correct one for this year and seasons to come. Personally, I like the idea of putting a "reset" on Clinton football for a year. I think we will all see more competitive games this year with Clinton playing Junior Varsity teams and those competitive and more evenlymatched games will prepare our Cardinals for Varsity action in the future.

Thursday afternoon, I was on a Zoom meeting with folks from Equus Workforce Solutions, CDI Head Start, WCMCAA, MO Job Center and others as we started planning for an employment and resource event in Clinton, probably taking place in mid-Oct. The purpose of this event will be to get information out to the public about available jobs, resources for workers and/or parents and more. You will hear more about this event as we continue to work on it and as we get closer to the date.

I'm looking forward to going to the State Fair on Sat. I will be representing the Olde Glory Days Committee as Sat. is Missouri Fairs and Festivals Day at the Fair. Communities that hold events for the public throughout the year and belong to the MO Assoc. of Fairs and Festivals are invited to share ideas, hear what's available in 2022, voice any concerns they may have and more. Free admission, food and drinks and a chance to win prizes: I'm there!!

Stock Market Insights By Dr. Richard L. Baker, AIF

The last few days the stock market has been looking like me on roller skates, a little shaky. Let's look at why that is.

Investors seem to be concerned about higher Covid numbers and the potential for more restrictions that could affect the companies they are investing in. There is a potential that as more cities and organizations require masks or proof of vaccination that customers may think "it's not worth the hassle" and slow down their activities and spending.

Americans have more money in the bank than they've had in a while but they might be getting a little stingy with it. For some reason, Americans spent a lot less in July than in June and especially with online shopping.

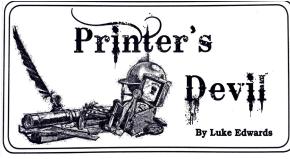

The Commerce Department released its July Retail Sales on Tuesday, August 17th, and it were much lower than expected. They were down -1.1% but was expected to only be down -0.3%. In the economic world, that is a big difference.

There's been a clear slowing down in spending in home improvement, vehicles, and travel spending. Don't misunderstand me, consumer spending is still good, but it is slowing. This is only one report; however, it might be signaling a more general slowdown.

The companies reporting their earnings for the first half of the year are mostly doing great, over 80% of the top 500 are beating estimates, but it seems investors think the stock market prices are already "baked into the price."

As an example, Home Depot (HD) reported their earnings on Tuesday, August 17th, and beat earnings and revenues but their stock price dropped -4.29% that same day. Walmart (WMT) reported earnings the same day and beat estimates but their stock price stayed flat. Investors seem hard to please these days.

When I was learning how to roller skate sometimes my wobbles turned into faceplants. The bigger than expected dip in Retail Sales is worth watching to see if it's an off month or an early indication of something negative, but overall, I don't see anything that makes this current market wobbliness look like the start of something bigger. The market is wobbling a little but I think it will skate ok the rest of the year, no cool tricks but will get around the rink. Have a blessed week!

In late July of 1974 a festival was held in Sedalia. Dubbed, the Ozark Music Festival, it was expected to be full of blue grass bands and music, fun-filled family activities, and sure good time for everyone. Except, it wasn't: it wasn't even close.

The music festival turned out to be something of a chaotic three-day event that allowed about 1/2 a million people, mostly young adults, to run roughshod through the town of Sedalia, get high, drunk and, in general, disrupt life for a lot of folks living in Pettis County. The whole event was approved by the then Ag Commissioner for the State Fair, who, to be fair, did recognize one name on the list of bands scheduled to perform: Earl Scruggs. He had no idea who Aerosmith, The Eagles, Ted Nugent, Lynard Skynard, Marshall Tucker, The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band or a host full of other bands/performers even were. If he had, my guess he wouldn't have signed the contract. In the central area of Sedalia, people thought little of the event, but advertising for it on the West Coast, East Coast, and north and south of Missouri, looked a little different: Wolfman Jack prominently took to the radio and invited people to come to it - and come to it they did - from as far afield as Canada. Basically, it was being billed as another Woodstock. If it didn't exceed it, it certainly gave the original music festival a run for its money.

There were a few warning signs that the event was going to get out of hand: the first was traffic. Highway 65 was choked up for miles as young people drove in, often with mattresses strapped on their vans (sometimes with people riding on them), making their way to the music event. The chains to the parking at the fair grounds had to be cut because the event "planners" (it was a pretty hastily planned event) anticipated opening it up two hours before it started: in a last ditch effort to take the pressure of the traffic backing up, the Highway Patrol cut the chains to the fence to the parking area. It may have took the pressure off the highways, but the pressure was now just displaced to the community: at the Ag dinner for the fair, a guy came running in and pronounced that people had just killed a steer and were cooking it in the parking lot: sure enough, a $25,000 prize steer – and several prize hogs, had been butchered and were being cooked. Security consisted of Wells Fargo hiring people who attended the music festival from the crowd and giving them a tee shirt which had "security" printed on the front. Yep – things went downhill from there, too.

M wife and I watched a documentary (of limited release) over the weekend about it. The event is largely forgotten; but a few people remember it vividly. One guy on his way out of the theater said he remembered that when The Eagles played, a helicopter flew over the crowd (it was in excess of 100 degrees) and dumped water on them. So many people were high on LSD, they freaked out when the "water from heaven" hit them. One story, not in the documentary, tells of how people would get so stoned they would pass out with their eyes open staring at the sun – and go blind, at least for a while. Yet another consequence of running around naked for three days in the hot Missouri July sunshine was sunburns – especially around the, uh, nether regions of the human anatomy. The hospital was overwhelmed with drug overdoses, the supermarkets were completely overrun, the "visiting" people would walk into people's houses and just take what they wanted from refrigerators, and, in general, chaos ensued.

One of the event planners had to fake a heart attack so he could leave the facilities with the stacks of cash that had piled up: they took him (so the story goes) out with all the money via hearse.

It is a real story that is largely forgotten: of course, the rules for scheduling entertainment at the State Fair changed considerably afterwards – in fact, it was banned for a while.

But, for a few days in July of 1974, Sedalia was home to one of the largest music events ever held in the country. And, you probably never heard of it.

Gov. Parson Announces $400 Improvement Plan

Today, during a press conference at the Missouri State Fair hosted by the Missouri Farm Bureau, Governor Mike Parson announced plans to deploy more than $400 million in American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) funds to increase broadband internet access, adoption, and assistance statewide.

"Investing in our broadband infrastructure is critical to unlocking our full economic potential in this state and will serve Missourians for generations to come," Governor Parson said. "We expect this investment to increase broadband internet connectivity and access in every corner of the state for hundreds of thousands of Missourians. Quality internet supports learning, health care, business, and agriculture in today's economy, and we are excited to capitalize on this opportunity to truly make a difference and improve lives.'

The plan was developed through a multi-agency effort designed to address a diverse range of broadband connectivity challenges and is expected to impact hundreds of thousands of Missouri families. The plan will be presented to the Missouri General Assembly in January for appropriation.

In addition to the $400 million plan, the Department of Economic Development also submitted an application to the U.S. Department of Commerce's National Telecommunications and Information Administration (NTIA) Broadband Infrastructure Program requesting an additional $56 million for broadband deployment. If approved by NTIA, this funding could support up to 19 projects, connecting more than 17,000 households, businesses, and other institutions.

"In combination, these investments would be a game changer for broadband in Missouri," said Tim Arbeiter, Director of Broadband Development for the Department of Economic Development. "This unprecedented level of funding could unlock incredible new potential as we shape the strategy for broadband development in our state."

According to the Federal Communications Commission, more than 147,000 households or almost 400,000 Missourians don't have access to high-speed Internet (25mpbs/3mbps). The majority of those citizens reside in rural communities.

"Broadband availability and job creation go hand in hand," said Department of Economic Development Director Rob Dixon. "Having access to this critical infrastructure is essential for employers of all shapes and sizes across our state. Connecting more Missouri communities will help level the playing field for rural and urban communities alike."

"Students depend on the internet to further their education and to better prepare for the jobs of the future," said Department of Elementary and Secondary Education Commissioner Margie Vandeven. "We are grateful for this state-level commitment to addressing the digital divide and its impact on students across our state."

"We've made great strides in bringing broadband to Missouri's farmers, ranchers, and agribusinesses, but there is more work to do," said Department of Agriculture Director Chris Chinn. "It is important that every last mile is connected to high-speed internet. This funding is another step to help ensure that all parts of the state have access to the technology they need."

"This plan is a significant investment in Missouri's broadband infrastructure," said Missouri Farm Bureau President Garrett Hawkins. "Missouri thrives when its rural communities are strong, and Governor Parson's plan will help bridge the digital divide between cities and rural areas. It will provide enormous progress toward linking all parts of our state with the modern economy, precision agriculture, and telemedicine."

Liberty Files To Adjust Natural Gas Rates

The Empire District Gas Company (d/b/a "Liberty") filed a request with the Missouri Public Service Commission (MPSC) to adjust natural gas base rates. The new rates would take effect in 2022 and reflect Liberty's efforts to maintain a safe, reliable natural gas system, enhance the customer experience, and expand support for limited income customers. The last rate update for Liberty natural gas customers went into effect more than 11 years ago in April 2010.

"Our customers depend on reliable energy for their daily activities and in times of emergency," said Mike Beatty, Liberty Central Region Vice President. "They also expect a convenient, effortless service experience. To meet our customers' needs and to ensure the ongoing delivery of safe, reliable energy, it's critical that we invest in our natural gas system."

If approved by regulators, the rate adjustment for Liberty's investments would cost average residential Liberty natural gas customers approximately $2.71 per month or 5.6% of the total bill, based on approximately 54 Ccf of usage per

Key initiatives included in the rate request Investments in the natural gas distribution system since the last rate update in 2010 to ensure the ongoing delivery of safe, reliable energy

Protection from high bills following harsh temperatures through a Weather Normalization Adjustment Rider (WNAR) for Missouri gas customers. The purpose of the WNAR is to mitigate fluctuations in customer bills due to abnormal weather conditions. For weather periods that are milder than normal, a WNAR charge will be applied to the bill. For weather periods that are harsher than normal, a credit will be applied to the bill.

The rate request process can take up to 11 months as the MPSC and other stakeholders carefully review Liberty's request. If approved, new rates would go into effect in 2022.

Missouri Adds 15,000 Jobs Over The Month

Missouri non-farm payroll employment increased from June 2021 to July 2021, and the seasonally adjusted unemployment rate decreased by a tenth of a percentage point. Employment, seasonally adjusted, increased by 15,000 jobs over the month, with job gains in both goods-producing and service-providing industries. The state's seasonally adjusted unemployment rate was 4.2 percent in July 2021, down from 4.3 percent in June 2021. Recovery from COVID-19-related layoffs continued with an increase of more than 83,900 jobs from July 2020 to July 2021. Short-term shortages of semiconductor chips may hold down employment in manufacturing in the next few months and the emergence of the delta variant of COVID-19 may impact longer-term growth.

Missouri's smoothed seasonally adjusted unemployment rate decreased by a tenth of a percentage point in July 2021, dropping to 4.2 percent from the June 2021 rate of 4.3 percent. With the start of the COVID-19 pandemic now more than a year in the past, the July 2021 rate was 2.6 percentage points lower than the July 2020 rate. The rate had reached a low of 3.1 percent starting in July 2018, before gradually edging up to 3.5 percent by the end of 2019, and then to 3.7 percent in March 2020. The COVID-19 effect hit in April 2020, spiking the rate to 12.5 percent for that month. The rate decreased monthly for the rest of 2020, reaching 4.4 percent in December, and continued gradually downward through the first four months of 2021. The increase of twotenths of a percentage point from April 2021 to June 2021 over the last two months appeared to be related to a temporary shortage in the supply of semiconductor chips, which caused production slowdowns in some manufacturing industries.

Due to benchmark revisions, Missouri's unemployment rate rose a tenth of a percentage point higher than the national rate in January and February of 2020, but has been below the national rate for every month since February 2020. The national unemployment rate decreased from 5.9 percent in June 2021 to 5.4 percent in July 2021. The estimated number of unemployed Missourians was 128,685 in July 2021, down by 4,639 from June's 133,324.

The state's not-seasonally-adjusted unemployment rate also decreased in July 2021, dropping by 1.2 percentage points to 3.9 percent from the June 2021 not-seasonally-adjusted rate of 5.1 percent. The decrease resulted from the recall of manufacturing workers from short-term layoff. The corresponding not-seasonally-adjusted national rate for July 2021 was 5.7 percent.

A year ago, the state's seasonally adjusted rate was 6.8 percent, and the not-adjusted rate was 7.3 percent.

place over the rally weekend, "there's live music on Friday and Saturday, we do games that we all call 'people games', we camp, drink, there's a few bike games we have, there food vendors, our food is actually really good, we have vendors all throughout the place who sell motorcycle goods and accessories etc. and this year we brought something new to the rally, dyno drag, a safer way for motorcycles to drag race which was provided by All Out Dyno Drags in Wabash, Indiana, we also end the rally out with a remembrance ceremony where we read all the namespace those that have passed in the past year and we remember each biker. The rally is honestly just an all-around good time for all of us to get together and enjoy each other's company and forget about our everyday stress". Karr said "the Dyno Drag was something new that was brought in this year, and it really got people talking! Everyone's time was really good, and this group happens to be competitive! Joplin President of Freedom of Riders Right, Shaulene Capps, happened to be the only female to win her race, she also beat me". Karr also said "I hope our rally gains more riders in the future! I'd really love to see 1000 or more riders come out!" I asked Karr how the organization figures out what to do every year for the rally and he said "we have a state meeting usually soon after the rally is over, the meeting for next year's rally is actually this weekend, where we talk about the good and what could have been better and what we want to see come out of next year's rally, we don't like doing the same repetitive rally every year we like to mix things up". It was amazing to learn about this rally and everything that goes into making it happen and what the organization stands for! If you haven't heard of the Missouri Bikers Homecoming ly and you happen to ride, I would go check out next year's rally!
