On January 20 at approximately 11:23am The Clinton Fire Department received a mutual aid request for the aerial platform truck to respond to Osceola for a commercial structure fire on their downtown square. Several other agencies have responded to requests for assistance from the Osceola Fire Department as well. "We ask that you please pray for the safety of all first responders on scene as they battle this fire in extreme cold temperatures." said Matt Willings of the Clinton FD. An update from Clinton Fire Chief Mark Manuel, on scene at the commercial fire in downtown Osceola approximately 3 hours into the fire stated "two large commercial buildings are involved in the fire with four separate business occupants displaced. Fire crews are still actively fighting fire and are working hard to prevent fire spread to separate attached building. Due to the extent of fire damage, building construction, and other building features, fire crews are unable to make entry into the building to reach the seat of the fire. A coordinated defensive fire attack is in progress with all agencies on scene. Osceola Fire Continued Page 3

Coach Gavin Makes His Way To The Hall Of Fame

Coach Jim Gavin was nominated in 2020, but now it is official, he was inducted into the Missouri High School Baseball Coaches Hall of Fame (MHSBB-CA) Class of 2021. He is the 75th member of the HOF that was formed in 1991. Coach Gavin was the Head CHS Baseball Coach from 1991-2017. His win-loss record was 385-269. He led the Cardinals to 5 Conference Championships, 10 District Championships, 7 Sectional and 8 Elite 8 appearances, and four 3rd place finishes. Personally, I remember Coach Garvin's evolution as a coach. He coached our sons, Tony and Andy, early in his career and we knew he was going to be a very good coach. Coach Garvin developed a solid approach to his practices and how to help players develop their skills. Obviously, it worked. Mr. Garvin coached many outstanding players including Chris Spangler (Armstrong State University), Jordan Mendenhall (Pitt State), Nick Petree (Mo. State, St. Louis Cardinals), and many others. He was also blessed with outstanding assistant coaches, including Mike Mc-

Coy, Glen Mays, and Eric Silkwood. I am sure the whole community is proud of Coach Garvin. He retired in 2018 and has moved from the area. Coach Garvin was born and raised in Cherokee, IA. He graduated from Washington HS in 1982. He attended Waldorf Lutheran JUCO and graduated from NW Missouri State (Maryville) in 1986.

Henry County Covid Cases Hit All Time High As Omicron Fuels Wave

Amy Gifford

This week marks two years that have been dominated by the Covid-19 pandemic. On Jan. 21 2020, the first US case of Covid was confirmed in Washington. Also on that date, China confirmed that the virus is spread from human to human transmission. Two years, three major variants, and vaccinations into this pandemic the United States has lost a staggering 868K people since the onset of Covid-19. In Missouri, the totals are slightly higher than the national average of 1.2122% death rate. Missouri has experienced 1.29 million cases since the onset, with 17,270 deaths, or an average of 1.338%. Henry County is experiencing a surge in Covid positives. In the last two weeks, beginning January 10, the county has reported 805 new cases, with two days, Jan 16 and Jan 17 not having a report generated. From the Henry County Health Centers Situational report on Jan 24, Henry County is currently at a 36.65% positivity rate. Form the New York Times Covid-19 Tracker, which relies on data submitted from state and county health departments, hospitals and clinics, "An average of 54 cases per day were reported in Henry County, a 78 percent increase from the average two weeks ago. Since the beginning of the pandemic, at least 1 in 4 residents have been infected, a total of 5,005 reported cases. Right now, Henry County is at an extremely high risk for unvaccinated people. So far, January has been the month with the highest average cases in Henry County". "Nearby counties are also at an extremely high risk level. Only 44.6% of the Henry County is fully vaccinated, according to the Health Center. The state average is 54.1%, a whole 10% higher. Cases have increased recently in Cass, Johnson, Pettis, Benton, Bates and St. Clair Counties". The hospitaliza- Covid Cases Rise Continued Page 4

Have I Got A Line For You!
By James Mahlon White

Watching a movie last night the main character said, "What in the Sam Hill is that?" Wondered where this expression came from and decided to look it up. Found out it's a minced oath and was a way of not cussing in front of ladies. This was the short answer. The long one said there really was a Col. Sam Hill of Guildford, Connecticut. He ran for public office every time there was an election. (This is from the Encyclopedia of American Politics which added nothing more is known about him.) Our ancestors who didn't want to swear often used this "Sam Hill" euphemism for the word Hell. Other words used for Hell were Halifax and heck. One of my great aunts, who picked up this expression in her early years in Ohio sometimes said, "H-E-Double-Stocks" instead of an unladylike Hell. I wouldn't bet on the word Hell never passing her lips, however.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS! A pair of limestone sphinxes were discovered at the temple of Amenhotep III, located in Luxor Egypt. He was the grandfather of King Tut and ruled about 3300 years ago. The sphinxes show the pharaoh wearing a mongoose shaped headdress, a royal beard and a wide necklace. There's also the inscription, "The beloved Amun-Re." Where are the protests against old Amenhotep's statues? His complex was built with slave labor or doesn't it count if it was thousands of years ago? In the meantime, the New York Museum of Natural History has taken down President Teddy Roosevelt's statue. Critics said it signifies racial hierarchy because the President stands higher than a Native American and an African American who are alongside him. Not sure how this is racist. For centuries the leader of a country was shown on horseback. If the sculpture had all three men on the horse, they'd still take it down, citing animal cruelty. How much longer will we continue this Communist style of rewriting history and eliminate those who don't fit the ideology?

President Biden's press conference was a barn burner. He said we wouldn't respond if Russia had a minor incursion into Ukraine. Well, the minor incursion is going to give Russia everything from the border to the Dnieper River with Kiev. If this spins out of control, the globe will get warmed in a way that electric cars won't fix.

The President warned us that the 2022 mid-term elections won't be legitimate if his Voting Rights Bill doesn't pass. What does that say about the last election? This syndicate picks and chooses the laws it wants to abide by, if any. They also make new ones we should all obey, even when they haven't been passed. Only socialist countries don't require voter id because they already know the outcome. Are we on that path? This isn't the first time in history that elites have plotted and installed an emperor. Elagabalus comes to mind.

It's time to stop this rant before Mr. and Mrs. Rankin do a tap dance on my forehead.

The weekend is wandering in. Greet it with open arms and make the best of it. We might as well, for I have a disturbing feeling that what's coming is ugly. Take good care of yourself.

Audara L. Lutjen
Birthplace: Sedalia, Missouri.
Years in Clinton: I officially moved to Clinton in 2003, however I have been a Henry County resident my entire life.
Family: Randy, Dylan (13) and Ethan (11).
Occupation: Attorney at Cason, Edgett, Mahan & Lutjen, LLC
Education: Warsaw High School (1994); Missouri State University (1998, Bachelor of Science in Political Science, summa cum laude); University of Missouri-Columbia School of Law (2001, Juris Doctorate).
Favorite Childhood Memory: While it is almost impossible to pick just one favorite memory, there is one event that will stand out forever in my mind: the moment the buzzer rang at the end of the first round of the 1994 Final Four basketball games my senior year of high school. Celebrating with my team after we had easily won our first game and would be playing the next day for the State Championship was a moment of pure adrenaline and a feeling of literally being on top of the world.
First Job: waitressing at Long Shoal Marina.
Favorite Band: I don't know that I can pick just one! I was raised in the 1980's so it would be a toss-up between Bon Jovi, Def Leppard, Aerosmith, and Journey.

Get to Know Clinton, MO

What do you value most in your friends? A great sense of humor!
Hobbies: When I have free time I love to read and scrapbook. Most of my time away from work, however, is spent driving my boys from one event or another.
I hope I never have to: outlive my children.
I have never been able to: juggle or do anything that requires coordination.
Most embarrassing moment? In biology class in high school, my teacher was also my basketball coach. Before class started, he told me that he was behind me pulling into school that morning and noticed that my blinker was out. I told him that I must be out of blinker fluid and I would ask my dad to put some in the "blinkerfluid unit" when I got home that night. The entire class went silent. After class one of the boys pulled me aside and told me that there was no such thing as blinker fluid.
If I won the lottery I would: Invest the money for my children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.
Future Goal: to help my boys grow into responsible and caring men who hopefully have families of their own. Then I plan to spoil their children rotten!!!

What is the best thing about living in Clinton? Definitely the friends that I have made and the friends that my children have made.
What is your greatest fear? Anything bad happening to my children!
Which person do you admire the most? My mother, Shirley Swanson. She had an incredibly hard childhood. As a young child she lost her own mother. She sacrificed so much to make sure my brother and I had a better childhood and life that she had.
Words to live by: "Enjoy the little things, for one day you will look back and realize they were the big things." This is my motto while living the day-to-day life with my family. I know that someday I will miss the mounds of laundry, the always-empty pantry and refrigerator, the constant pile of teenaged-boy shoes blocking my front door and the never-ending yelling that the boys and their friends do when they are at our house.

Clinton Family Gets Accident Settlement

A Clinton woman settled a civil suit for a vehicle crash, on January 18 at the Henry County Courthouse in Clinton.

Samantha Osterloh, accompanied by her attorney Michael Wyatt of Hutchinson Kansas, stood before Circuit Judge M. Brandon Baker.

Representing the other driver Ashley A. Allen of Collins and Farm Bureau

Insurance, was attorney J. Christopher Spangler of Sedalia.

Testimony in court stated that Allen was allegedly negligent, in that her vehicle did rear-end Osterloh's vehicle. Court statements stated the accident caused injuries to Osterloh's children, aged 3 and 8 years old.

"Aliya had a concussion," said Osterloh. "Lily had bruises on her legs."

The mother stated that there were lasting effects from the accident.

"Aliya had headaches and ear problems," Osterloh said. "There was a series of issues from the bruising (Lily)."

The children also suffered trauma from the accident.

"My daughter did not want to get into the car," Osterloh said. "She did not want to leave my side."

Attorneys for both sides had reached a settlement, which was presented by Wyatt (Osterloh's attorney) for approval by Judge Baker.

"Aliya will receive $35,000," said Wyatt.

"My fee of 25 percent will come out of that." "Lily will receive $35,000 minus the 25 percent fee," Wyatt said.

Outstanding medical bills from Golden Valley Hospital, were also deducted from the settlement.

Net settlement amounts, after attorney fees and outstanding medical bills left just over $24,900 for Aleah and $25,000 for Lily, according to court statements.

Wyatt will receive a total of $17,500, for his attorney fee portion.

Additional information presented, showed that the money will be invested through Pacific Life Company. It will pay out at the ages of 18 for both girls, beginning in 2034 and 2038. Wyatt stated that this would be during their college years.

Baker went over the settlement decision, and waivers for further litigation against Farm Bureau or Ashley Allen.

"You realize you give up your rights for a trial," Judge Baker said, "and you accept the amounts of the settlement."

The young mother answered the judge.

"Yes," she said. "I understand the agreement."

With that, Baker signed the documents and the case was closed.

Information approximating the worth of the settlements, with accrued interest in the years of 2034-2038, were not made available in court argument.

numbers have decreased, while the number of Covid deaths has stayed the same with the onset of the Omicron variant, according to The New York Times, however the page also states that hospitalization rates tend to have lag in reporting.

Clinton, Windsor, and several surrounding school districts have been pushed to use Alternative Method Instruction (AMI) learning hours because too many staff members were Covid positive. The Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education (DESE) reports that 62 Missouri School districts have had to use AMI hours in the past two weeks, which are limited to a mere 36 hours without make-up hours being required. Clinton Schools were not in person learning from Jan. 18-21, returning on Jan. 24 to class.

A parent in the district relayed her experience in trying to get booster vaccinations on Saturday for her 3 children over 12, as is recommended by the CDC. "We made our appointments online at Walgreens and when we arrived for that appointment, there was a sign on the door saying the pharmacy and all testing was closed until further notice". We had to reschedule our appointment and needed to move it to next weekend".

Finding a rapid test in the area is nearly impossible. Nurse Kristy at The Clinton Middle School stated that "they are only testing people who "had noticeable symptoms" because tests are running very low in the district".

Golden Valley Memorial Hospital has opened up more testing availability however, now running tests in the Clinton Clinic Monday through Friday from 8 am- 5 pm. They also offer curbside testing in Clinton on Monday and Friday from 7-8 am. In Osceola Monday-Friday from 2-3 pm, and in Windsor Monday -Friday from 7-8 am.

While the area experiences a surge in positive cases higher than we have seen during the pandemic as a whole, the Henry County Health Center is encouraging Henry Countians that "the best way to protect yourself from COVID-19 is by wearing a mask, getting vaccinated and following up with a booster shot".

The Way It Was, January 26, 2012

Article Submitted by Jim Smitka "What's Your Story?"

Happy Thursday to you all! This week's story is one that I found to be very touching, both during my visit and when I sat down to start putting it all together. It's about the most precious of all precious things that there could possibly ever be in any of our lives. Our children.

Imagine for a moment if you will what it would be like if all of our children came to us with an owner's manual. And inside that manual was everything in the world that we would ever need to know in order to raise our children to all be happy, healthy, fun, loving, and to the rim full of an exuberant zest for life. A pretty novel ideology don't you think? But unfortunately, they do not. There are more children out there, many from right here in the very community that we all call our home, that you can even begin to imagine, for whatever reason, just do not receive the love, attention, patience, and TLC they need. Instead, they are neglected, overlooked, verbally abused, sometimes even considered as a nuisance by their very own parents. They are undernourished, abandoned, not kept clean, warm, dry, and safe, and sometimes even physically abused.... God bless their little souls. And that is the sad reality of it folks.

Just as I am sure the vast majority of all you parents out there would feel about your own children, my children mean more than the world itself to me and I unconditionally love them all with everything that I am worth. And I don't think that there is any accurate way out there to even come close to beginning to try and measure the joy, the enrichment, the pride, and the wonderful times and memories our children add to our lives. The way I see it, being a parent, a father in particular, is by far the most important, gratifying, rewarding, and fulfilling role I have ever experienced in my life.

Children give you the perfect opportunity to share your love. And when you do, the love which comes right back to you is the sweetest and most tender kind there could possibly be. All children need to be loved. They also need security, protection, someone to hug, and someone to tuck them in at night. I'm sure that all of these things and so much more would have to be found in that owner's manual. The little things that any young child needs are so easy to give them. But unfortunately for many children, those things are nowhere to be found for them.

The silver lining in the cloud, if there could possibly be one pertaining to this subject, is there are some very special people out there who have opened up their hearts and their homes to try and help fill some of those missing pieces for some of those children who need it the most. And it's one of these families that this week's story is about. I consider it a true honor and privilege to write a story about Larry and Carolyn Mendenhall of Clinton.

All for the love of children.....

Larry Mendenhall was born right here in Clinton in 1943. His parents are Charles and Anna Mendenhall. Charles was a farmer, and Anna was a farmer's wife and a mother. Larry also has a deceased brother, Mr. Harold Mendenhall. For those people who know Larry the best, they all have a nickname for him, "Gutter Baby". I know that nickname sounds to be a bit on the odd side, but there is actually a pretty good explanation for it. Now I'm not sure about it, but Larry just might possibly be the only baby ever born right there on the sidewalk of our city square, hence the nickname. The Mendenhall family doctor's office was upstairs there on the square back in 1943. And when his mother went into labor, she was rushed into the doctor's office. But unfortunately, the doctor was out. A short time later, Larry was born right there on the square. Larry graduated from Urich High School in 1961.

Miss Carolyn Dalton was also born here in Clinton in 1943 as well. Her parents are Gene and Jewell Dalton. Gene was a general handyman, and Jewell was a homemaker who had also worked at Rival and JC Penney at one time. Carolyn has three siblings. Her brother Richard is deceased, brother Jim Dalton lives here in Clinton, and sister Linda Bailey resides in Clinton as well. Carolyn graduated from Clinton High School in 1961.

Larry and Carolyn talked about how, back in their teenage years, cruising around the Clinton square was what everyone always did on Friday and Saturday nights. And it was on the square they first met through some mutual friends. In 1962, it was actually Carolyn who first asked Larry out. She hoped that he would join her for an upcoming dance. All I can figure is Carolyn must have been a terrific dancer, because they have been together ever since that night.

Larry and Carolyn were married in 1963. They have four biological children, son Rick is deceased, son Ronnie resides here in Clinton with his wife Jean, daughter Renee Garrison also lives here in Clinton with her husband Larry, and son Ryan resides here in Clinton as well with his wife Laura. There are also three adopted children, daughter Michelle is here in Clinton, daughter Krystle Wolfe and her husband Dave are from over in Sedalia, and son Randy, who is a student here in Clinton, is still at home. The family pets are two friendly little critters named Sophie and Sasha. To round out the Mendenhall family, there are also twelve grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Both Larry and Carolyn told me that they love all of their children very dearly. And judging by all of the many pictures that I noticed in the living room, it was very easy for me to assume that they love their grandchildren just as much

IN JULY OF 2010, the Mendenhall family lost one of their sons Mr. Rick Mendenhall. Carolyn says that they all love and miss him every day.

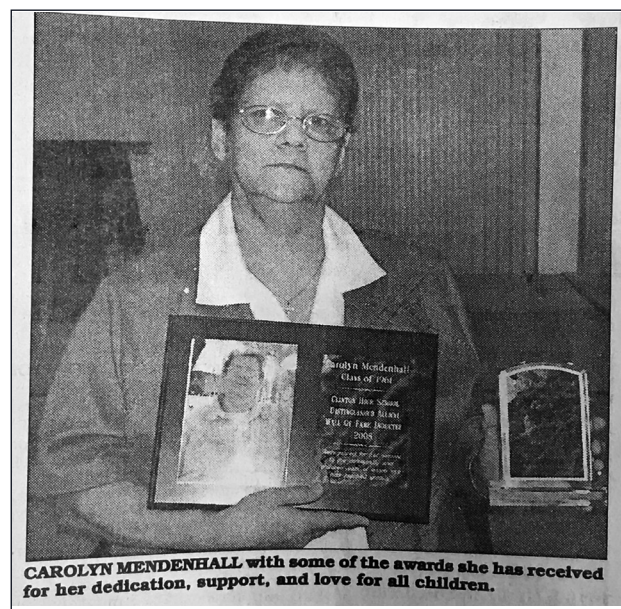

Larry works out at the Golden Valley Memorial Hospital. Carolyn is a full-time housewife and mother. Carolyn also talked about how she has been a babysitter from nearly as far back as she can remember, and that she has always loved children. In 1973, ten years after they were married and after they had already started their own family, Carolyn said that she heard something on the radio that really sunk right into her. It had to do with foster children and foster parenting. Later, when she and Larry talked about it, they both immediately understood this was exactly what God had intended for them to do. A short time later, after contacting the proper agency, receiving some required education training, and passing a number of inspections, which included a home study, criminal background checks, finger printing, and an overall assessment screening, the first child came their way. And since that time, they guesstimate they have opened their door to well over four hundred children thus far. Carolyn even kept a scrapbook for many years of all her children. She sort of just let it go back when they were at around the three hundred and sixty something. That folks, is an amazing amount of love to be shared!

Some of the children that have come to them were only with them for a very short while, others for a much longer time. Some have come back to them on more than one occasion, and three of them were eventually adopted. Larry says that once they got started in foster care and were able to actually see they were making a big difference in these children's lives, he just knew that it was his calling to do everything he possibly could to help them. And he has assumed the role of a father figure with a great exuberance. For those children that were old enough, he began getting them involved with Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Little League, and any group activities that he could find for them. He taught many of these children to ride a bike, and for those near to driving age, he even taught them to drive. He also coached a number of sporting teams for his children. For the younger kids, there was potty training, Christmas, all family-oriented holidays and daily activities, and he even took them all to church. The Mendenhall's attend services at Drake's Chapel. Larry said there were times they had so many children with them that they nearly took up an entire row of seats. And Carolyn added there have been times during an emergency situation where they have tucked in as many as fifteen children in the same night. For both Larry and Carolyn, they have always felt they were doing exactly what God intended for them to be doing, and they both have always done the very best at it they could. On more than one occasion, they have even built onto their home in order to provide more room for the kids.

Larry and Carolyn also said that over the years, some of the children that had years before spent time as part of the Mendenhall family have returned back to them to say thank you and have even brought along their own families to introduce them. What a touching experience that must have been! And even to this very day, there are others who continue to call and stay in touch with them, and even some who feel comfortable enough to ask them for advice on life issues. I think this speaks volumes about the character of the Mendenhall family!

In 2008, Carolyn received the Clinton High School Distinguished Alumni Wall of Fame Award. It was presented to her at the annual City Awards Banquet by the Clinton Chamber of Commerce for her many years of loving, caring, and having such a tremendous impact on the lives of so many children. She says that she was really flattered by the standing ovation she received from the large crowd. In 2005, Larry and Carolyn received the "Heart of Gold Honor Award" which was also presented to them by the City of Clinton. Both Larry and Carolyn say that they never could have done this without the support of each other, as well as their own children. The Mendenhall family has all played a huge role in the foster parent program.

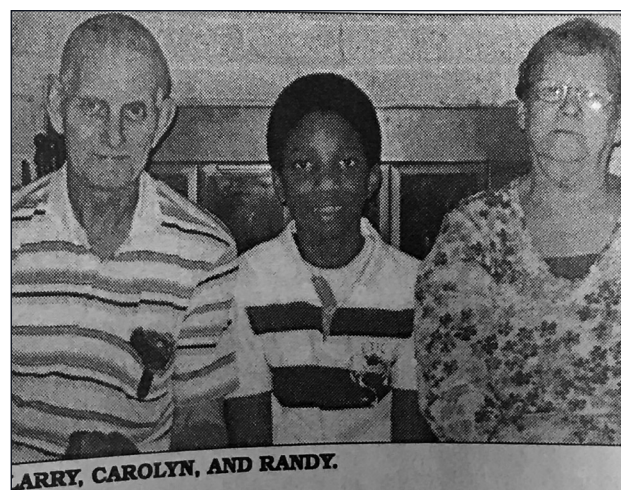

CAROLYN MENDEHALL with some of the awards she has received for her dedication, support, and love for all children.

Here in Clinton, The DFS/Family Services office is where you can go for information pertaining to the foster care program. There are many different classifications of foster care to consider, and the State of Missouri also has specific guidelines and restrictions which must be followed, all pertaining to the privacy, protection, and welfare rights of the children. For additional facts and information, you can also go online and find an endless number of resources and research sites as well.

Near the end of the interview, I asked Larry and Carolyn what the future holds for them as foster parents. Larry says that kids are his life, and as long as their health allows them to and God has the will for them, they will never say no to a child in need.

After my initial visit and interview with Mr. and Mrs. Mendenhall, when I sat down to start preparing this story for print, I quickly realized that there are not even close to enough pages in the entire Democrat to mention all of the things that I feel really need to be said on this matter. I only hope that I have been able to come close to giving it the justice it so rightfully deserves. Also, I can tell you that there is far more to Larry and Carolyn's story that I could ever cover in one column. During my first visit with Larry and Carolyn, I also met their son Randy. On my second visit, I met the rest of their family and a few of the grandchildren as well. In Larry and Carolyn Mendenhall, I see a couple who has worked together as a team to open up their hearts and their home, and sacrificed of themselves, all for the love of children. They are some very amazing folks! What they bring to the table as a part of our community is tremendous!

There is also one other thing that I heard Carolyn say to me during my visit which I must mention here because I think it is a true indication of what is inside this lady's heart. I noticed that right when she said it, she also sat up straight and then started using her hands to help me feel and understand exactly what it was she was trying to explain. She said although she has always found it very easy to love every child that has ever come through her door, it's the little babies which get to her the most. She said, considering the condition some of those babies were in when they were first handed over to her, and with all that some of them had been through before they even got to her, that just by giving them some love and attention she has seen some dramatic differences and changes in them in just a short period of time. The way they look at her, respond to her, interact with her, and the way they love her right back. Everything about them just changes. She compared all of this to something very beautiful, such as a rosebud opening up, blooming, and really coming to life. Rather well said I thought! And she added it has never been easy to say goodbye when it came time for a child to leave her home.

To the entire Larry and Carolyn Mendenhall Family, the most fitting word that I can think of to describe you all would be "Special". You folks should all feel very good inside by knowing what you have unselfishly offered and given to so many children that you did not even know is indeed a truly wonderful thing! God bless you all!

It was an email that I received from Mrs. Bessie Thomas that led me to the Larry and Carolyn interview. Thank you Bessie!

This was a morning of worship in our church to praise & honor God for who He is!

Pastor Randy Shipman welcomed the congregation & Dan Asbill Deacon of the week, offered the morning prayer. The church will be hosting "If Gathering 2022 Livestream Event" that will be held on March 4th 6-9 & 5th (9am-4 pm) at First Baptist Church, Clinton, MO. The cost will be $10.00 per person. The Scripture for the morning worship services was Luke 4: 14- 21. Kevin Griffey led the congregation in the reading of Psalm 19.

Pastor Randy used 1 Corinthians 1: 10-17 to remind us that the Spirit of God will equip us to do His will just as Paul's appeal to the church in Corinth to have no divisions among them & to be united in the same mind & the same purpose.

Worship services are on KDKD 95 :3 @1 0:00 AM Sunday mornings. We also invite those in the Clinton area who don't have a church home to join us in worship of our Lord & Savior, Jesus Christ. ### Golden Valley Christian

For the majority of churches, singing hymns is a big part of the worship service. Hymns today are different from the older hymns that have been the stalwarts of church music. However, it is doubtful if anyone will ever be able to duplicate a lady, born in the 1800's, that wrote many hymns. Fannie Crosby wrote over eight thousand hymns, many still sung today. The most amazing thing about this lady is the fact that she became blind before the age of ten. Even with this major handicap, Fannie was involved in many humanitarian activities, including her song-writing skills. Having a physical disability does not necessarily hinder people in heroic actions. The Bible tells us of a number of physically-challenged people that did heroic deeds, notably Moses, with a speech impediment (Exodus 4:10) and Samson, after being blinded by the Philistines (Judges 16:23-30).

Bible study has resumed on Wednesdays at 7:00 PM. The GV Crafters meet on Tuesday mornings at 10:00. All are welcome to join these activities. This Sunday, Bro James McFarland will bring our morning message.

Bro Elmer's message focused on the nature of the church and its leadership. Acts 1:12-26 was the scripture, giving examples from the early church. Ephesians 4:11-13 tells us of the different types of leaders in the church. The leaders were to prepare God's people for work to be done. This is part of God's plan to expand and make disciples. The term "prepare," in this Biblical setting, is to fully qualify people for a specific purpose. As a church family, we must be united and love one another. Bro Elmer used an analogy of bricks and people, as each needs to bind together to be solid and strong. Jesus is the cornerstone of our Church, and the Bible is our authority.

Golden Valley Christian Church meets at 611 South Third Street in Clinton. Sunday School classes begin at 9:30 AM, and the morning worship service is at 10:30. Our interim minister is Elmer Fuller, and our website is www.goldenvalleycc.org, where you will also find links to access our Facebook page and YouTube sermons. We are happy to invite you to attend our services, where you will always receive a warm welcome.

Mt. Calvary Apostolic Pentecostal

"Getting It Done Right"

Joel 2:28-29, (KJV).

As Christians we have a goal to get to heaven, but we have to do things right in order to get there. It's not enough to hear your preacher preach the message, you have to go home and study the scriptures yourself and meditate on the word.

The Apostolic doctrine is from Matthew to Revelations. Being Apostolic, we focus on doctrine. However, don't discount the Old Testament because God speaking about the Holy Spirit didn't start and stop in the book of Acts.

God, through the Old Testament is letting us know what is coming. His spirit that he pours out will be for the gentiles and the Jews. He tells us both sons and daughters shall prophesy. This statement he made in the Old Testament clearly disputes what people think about women speaking in the church.

Ezekiel 39:29 Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have poured out my spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD. (KJV)

Zechariah 12:10 (KJV).

God is telling us that we will look upon one who was pierced. God is speaking about himself, though it happens in the New Testament when he came down here as Jesus. We all know Jesus was pierced.

God's spirit that he will pour out is Holy Spirit, the comforter that is promised in Acts 1:4 And, being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me. (KJV)

Acts 1:5 For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence. (KJV)

It says in John 16:7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. (KJV)

John 16:8, (KJV).

That promise of God's spirit was foretold in Ezekiel, Zechariah, Joel, and many other chapters of the Old Testament. In the New Testament Jesus told his disciples about Holy Spirit, the comforter and what he would do for them.

(John 14:15-19 KJV)

Jesus spent 40 days with the disciples teaching them. After Holy Spirit came, Peter taught those who asked, that they needed to repent for the remission of sins, be baptized (born of water and spirit) in the name of Jesus.

Repentance and remission of sins should be preached in Jesus name among all nations. (Luke 24:47 KJV)

As Christians need to remain steadfast in the Apostle's doctrine (Jesus's teaching) just as the disciples did. If our goal is to make it to heaven, we need to get the job done of studying God's word, sharing his word, and living right. God Bless.

Mt. Zion United Methodist

Pastor David's message, "One Body", was prefaced by a New Testament reading from 1 Cor. 12:12-31a, and a Gospel reading from Luke 4:14-21. Have you ever walked into a really tough situation—something you felt like you could do, but probably not do very well. The Gospel reading from Luke tells about Jesus going through this when he was asked to preach in his hometown of Nazareth. Everything was going great until he did something kind of radical. He opened the scroll from Isaiah and began to read; "the Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captive and recovery of sight to the blind, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." Then he rolls up the scroll and declares: "today this scripture has been fulfilled."

Jesus was proclaiming that he is the Messiah—the one the prophet Isaiah was telling them about. He was God's anointed. To be anointed means to give authority to rule, to interpret, make decisions, have power over. This is the point at which Jesus lost the crowd. They considered him as someone who had stepped way out of line. As far as his hometown was concerned, Jesus would always just be Jesus, son of Joseph and Mary, not the most-high God.

But Nazareth is the place where Jesus chose to announce his ministry to the world. He was telling them he was starting his ministry right there—but he was rejected. Jesus' story was bigger than Nazareth. He came to change everything. His name would ring forth, not just from the old synagogue of Nazareth, but throughout all the lands of the world—the Roman Empire—the Far East—the New World. Everywhere and every person would come to know this Jesus who had read the Isaiah scroll in his hometown. Jesus shook the dust off his feet and took his message and gifts beyond this group of nice, but close-minded people.

So, never let small thinking stand in the way of a big vision. When the world discourages you—when the Nazarites of the world do not believe in your vision or ministry or ideas, do not listen. Paul tells us that we are made one body—united in Christ—and that we each have our special gifts. Do not stifle the ministry of Jesus because your vision is too small and do not be like the people of Nazareth and remain complacent when some novel and wonderful vision of God is revealed. Embrace the vision and be supportive of those other members of Christ's body, cherishing the mission of God in communal unity. Amen

Trinity Lutheran Church

Law and Gospel. Lutheran pastors are trained to preach both Law and Gospel in every sermon. Why? Because before people can believe and fully appreciate the gospel...the good news of Jesus' death and resurrection for the forgiveness of their sins...they first must understand God's Law... which teaches ALL people are sinners in need of a Savior.

Despite 2,000 years of Christian teaching, the world is full of people who go through life believing they are good. They believe good people go to heaven, and bad people go to hell, based on their actions here on earth throughout their lives. God is just a celestial scorekeeper, the referee. Of course, given our human tendencies, we all tend to think we're pretty good most of the time, and certainly better than most people all of the time. How could we not be good in God's eyes?

Christians understand that everyone is a sinner in need of a Savior. "No one does good. Not even one" (Romans 3:12). Every single one of us is deserving only of God's wrath and judgment. Our goodness is an illusion. Our good works outside faith in Christ are worthless in God's sight. Our only hope is not in our inherent goodness or good works, but our faith in Jesus Christ and in His good work of death on the cross for the forgiveness of our sins and the salvation of the entire world.

Trinity Lutheran Church preaches Christ crucified. Why? Because Jesus' death and resurrection, not our good works, is our ONLY hope for salvation. Praise God!

This year's Valentine Day Dinner to help raise funds for the youth to attend the National Youth Gathering this summer in Houston, TX is Saturday evening, February 12th, at 6 pm. Everyone is encouraged to reserve this date and time on their calendars and plan to attend!

Divine Service: 10 am; Sunday School 9 am. Ch. ph. 660-885-4728; Pastor Kueker 573-768-5752.

Urich Baptist Church

Joyful hearts gathered to worship and praise the Lord. Pastor Chad rang the church bell. Mrs. Julia Klinefelter led in the congregational singing with Mrs. Dixie Collins playing piano. We rejoiced and celebrated with Fern Kelsay on her 102 birthday and with Helen McWilliams on her 92 birthday. Gary Vass and Clint Keeney collected the offering.

The scripture passage from Pastor Chad Pollett's sermon was from 1Timothy6:1-10. Paul is again giving advice to Timothy on how the church should be. God is working through us wherever we are. We are to honor God and be steadfast in our faith. Through Godliness we receive joy, contentment, and purpose. We are not to be corrupted by worldly things such as money or false teachers. We should read the Bible ourselves to know the truth it teaches.

Reading the Bible through would be a good New Year resolution. Have a great week.

Valley Center United

We give Him thanks for the opportunity to be his people and one body. We bring thanks and praise for the presence of Jesus in our lives.

We send our prayers of love and peace for the family of Harold Russell. We pray that their great faith and strength will help them during this sad time with this loss of their brother, father, husband and friend. We send prayers of love and healing for many of our church family members who are facing health issues.

The Scriptures tell us that Jesus went back to his hometown of Nazareth and to the synagogue where he read to the people. He made a proclamation that would impact all those listening and beyond. Jesus broke all traditions as he told them that he had been anointed, baptized and that he was the Messiah who brings the gift of salvation and eternal life. He proclaimed that he would help all those afflicted and broken, so they would become whole again. He said, "This is the year of the Lord's favor."

Let's all take a moment to understand who God is. He is our teacher, healer and our Savior. He gives us life and our eternal life. He brings a powerful message for those who want righteousness and healing into their lives; it is a message for all who want to hear. Amen

Haidursek And Parker Win Crappie USA

The Crappie USA Winter Series Tournament was held January 14-15 on St. Johns River at Deland Florida. This tournament is part of the Crappie USA Tournament Trail. There are two main divisions amateur and pro. There were 50 boats from 15 states competing. The pro-division was won by Missourians Frank Haidursek Jr. and his partner Mike Parker. This Missouri team weighed in at 27.86, second place came in with 26.68. The winning big fish was 2.68. Charlie Bunting and Mike Baker, from the Jeff City area, placed ninth. The amateur division won with 23.69 lbs. Haidursek and Parker won the CUSA National Title in 2021. The Winter Series tournament had over $17,000 in prize money with the winners claiming $5,000. It is not unusual for Missourians to do well in these National Tournaments and most of these "trails" stop at Truman Lake sometime during their season. Clintonians, TJ and Alex Palmer, won the Crappie Master National Tournament last fall.

She was born March 14, 1951 in Mexico, MO the daughter of Bill Evan Matthews and Georgia Jane Erdel. While in high school, Cathy was an active member of the International Order of the Rainbow Girls organization. She met her husband, Gary, on the first weekend of October in 1967. Cathy was driving around with friends, and came upon Gary and his friends in their own car. Despite the boys best efforts, they were outraced until the girls allowed them to catch up. From there, Gary and Cathy became high school sweethearts. After graduating high school, they were united in marriage to Gary Lowe on May 31, 1969.

Gary joined the airforce soon after they were married and they spent about three and a half years enjoying Sacramento, California. When they moved back to Missouri, Cathy worked for Unitog, while Gary worked and completed two degrees at Central Missouri State University in Warrensburg.

Cathy gave birth to their daughter, Amanda on November 1, 1984. It was said that Cathy refused to have a Halloween baby, so she made sure that Amanda did not enter the world until after midnight Cathy was a very devoted mother. She was able to quit her job, and stay home full time when Amanda entered kindergarten. Cathy was active in PTO, and enjoyed baking and planning parties for the kids. She and Gary ensured that they never missed a tennis match, winter guard performance, or band competition as Amanda moved through high school. Cathy was known to have snacks ready for any and all friends who came through the front door.

Cathy became a grandmother to Jackson in 2015 and again to Patrick in 2019. She adored her grandsons, and would often have puzzles or games ready to play when they came over. She delighted in the stories they shared and would often giggle when they were being ornery.

Gary and Cathy moved to Clinton, Missouri in 2018. They found a home that gave them the room they desired, had land they could garden, and overlooked a beautiful pond at sunset. In her last few years, Cathy enjoyed traveling to new restaurants, and finding unique flowers to accentuate their flower beds.

WENDELL GARRETT KAISER

Wendell Garrett Kaiser, Sr was called home to Our LORD & Savior on Sunday, January 23, 2022, he was 98 years young. Wendell was born on September 11, 1923 to Mary Grace Garrett and Marvin Adolf Kaiser of Clinton, Missouri. He always said, "If the Lord woke me up today, then it is a good day."

Wendell was raised in Clinton, Missouri attending school there. He was always fascinated with how things worked. He rebuilt and repaired bicycles as a young boy earning pocket change during the depression. His first official job was as a Printer's Devil at the Clinton Eye Newspaper as a teenager. In 1942, he and his father traveled to the Fairfax Plant in Kansas City, Missouri where they helped build B25 Mitchell Bombers. During the week they lived with William and Blanche Funk in Kansas City renting out a room. This is where Wendell met his wife to be, Marion. He then joined the United States Army Air Corps in 1943 as an Aviation Cadet training to be a B-29 Flight Engineer. Wendell married Ethel Marion Funk on March 27, 1944 in Kansas City at her parents home. Upon being discharged from the Army Air Corps in 1945 Wendell attended the University of Kansas. He and Marion moved to Lawrence, Kansas while he attended school. He also worked for Smith's Electric rebuilding starters and generators during that time. In 1950 he graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in Mechanical Engineering.

Wendell and Marion were blessed with three sons, Wendell Garrett Jr, Philip Marvin and David Lawrence. The family made their home in Overland Park, Kansas then later moved to Kansas City, Missouri. Wendell was an extremely hard worker, dedicated and determined to provide for his family the best he knew how. He taught his sons how to work on vehicles, fix their bicycles, do plumbing, electrical work, woodworking and how to play pool. He would take them camping, hiking, fishing, boating & enjoyed the Boy Scouts with them. Wendell was hired at Bendix around 1950 as an Mechanical Engineer and later became a Supervisor. He worked on many Top Secret projects for the government during that time. He always said about his work that he was just making "nuts and bolts" for Atomic bombs. Some of this work (now declassified) involved designing and manufacturing improved concentric spheres used in atomic bombs. These spheres compress the fissionable material to critical mass and cause the nuclear explosion. These improved concentric spheres achieved supercritical mass and higher yields with less fissionable material for the atomic bombs that used them.

Wendell retired from Bendix in 1978, which was later acquired by Honeywell. During his retirement he enjoyed travelling, hiking and camping. He enjoyed visiting with family and also travelled just for fun to places such as Germany, all throughout Missouri, Kansas, Arizona, Colorado, California as well as travelling to Thailand for a year. He especially enjoyed bicycling. He joined several groups but really enjoyed Bicycling Across Kansas the most. Once he included his two oldest grandchildren on one of these excursions. As the years passed Wendell enjoyed skiing with several friends of a Singles Group. They made numerous trips to Colorado and other areas. In 1979 he began buying property off T Road close to Osceola, Missouri, which he would later half-jokingly refer to as the Bar Nuthin' Ranch. Wendell then moved to Osceola, Missouri in 1997. He even tried his hand at cattle raising for a year stating that, "it was too much work." He especially enjoyed attending the Walnut Valley Music Festival in midwest Kansas, every year.

As Wendell turned 92 he moved in with his youngest son, David Lawrence & his wife Lillith Anne in Lees Summit, Missouri. Each morning Wendell began his day with "This is the day that God has given us, rejoice and be glad in it." If Lillith brought him coffee he would say, "I have been a good boy. I have a nice lady to take care of me, good coffee and God treats me well." After breakfast it was a daily ritual that he would state, "I need to go upstairs and help the President. He needs me." His way of stating he was going to watch the news on television. His daily life brought him reading car magazines, reading an assortment of genre in books from scientific to biographies of Presidents, watching politics and news on television to watching and discussing birds at the bird feeder. Wendell did not believe in corporate religion but had a love for Christ.

Wendell is survived by his brother Donald Robert Kaiser of Clinton, Missouri; his elder son's wife Christina Eismann of Phoenix, Arizona; his son Philip Marvin (Tamara Jo Guess) of Peoria, Arizona and David Lawrence (Lillith Anne Stematz) of Lees Summit, Missouri. His grandchildren are Sirscha Christina (Colin) of Londonberry, Northern Ireland; Christoph Garret of Phoenix, Arizona; Ashley Elaine of Glendale, Arizona; Elyssa Marion of El Mirage, Arizona; Jeremy Philip and Nathan Joel of Peoria, Arizona; Jessica Lee of Olathe, Kansas; Holly Marie of Kansas City, Missouri and Patrick David of Lees Summit, Missouri. His great-grandchildren are Gabriella and Evangelina of Londonberry, Northern Ireland; Caleb Bradley and Cameron Lea, both of Olathe, Kansas. Wendell was blessed with many neices, nephews a great-niece and great-nephew most located throughout Missouri and one in Oklahoma.

Those gone on ahead of Wendell are his wife Ethel Marion, his son Wendell Garrett Jr, (Garry), his granddaughter Abigail Grace, his parents Marvin Adolf Kaiser and Mary Grace Garrett, his brother Kenneth Marvin, his sister Doris Ann, his brother-in-law Jack Pittman Ikenberry and his sister-in-law Betty Lou Swabby.

Lady Cards Ground the Blackhawks

The #5 seed, 7-8, Lady Cards took on the #4 seed, 9-4, Adrian Blackhawks in the first round of the Clinton Tournament. This is the 44th year for the local tournament. The Cards took the early lead 19-8 after the first quarter. The Cards had the hot hand with four players finishing in double figures. It was 37-21 at the break. The Blackhawks tried to make a third-quarter run but the Lady Cards bent but did not break. It was 46-33 after the third. The final score was 58-41. The Cards were led by Paige Gillund and Mercedes Brown with 15 each. Briley Wishard got 13 in-the-paint points and the slashing Cardinal point guard, Skyte Wilson, added 11. The Lady Cards made two 3-pointers and went 10 of 15 from the line. They committed 16 fouls. The Blackhawks were led by #40 Lauren Sams with 13. They did not sink any 3's and went 10 of 17 from the line. They also committed 16 fouls. The Cards will now take on the #1 seed, 14-3, Tipton Lady Cardinals on Tuesday, Jan. 25th.

This I Remember

I ran into Mike Posey at a Cardinal wrestling Tri and we talked about the good ole days. Mike graduated in 1985 and was a big part of the Cardinal wrestling team's learning how to compete at a higher level. Mike reminded me his senior year he had just finished football on a bad note, arguing with his coach and not playing the last game of the season. He said it was a tough situation and he felt he was done with school sports. But, Coach Ray Niles talked Mike into staying out for wrestling.

Mike Posey: "Niles reminded me that I should avoid having any regrets later in life about my decisions. For some reason, I listened to him. Coach Niles had a way of making you understand things."

Mike paused and said, "I loved that guy, he really believed in me."

Mike's memory was not only making it to the 1985 State Wrestling Championships in Columbia, but earning a medal.

Mike said, "I will always remember Coach Niles putting that medal around my neck, Coach Niles had a big smile on his face and so did I."

Editor's Notes: The Clinton wrestling program was started in 1965. Twenty years later the program had only six State medalists: Joey Haynes was the first in 1972, Mike was the sixth in 1985. CHS now has a total of 94 State medals. The latest was Matt Balke in 2021. The wrestling program has had 16 different coaches. To put it in perspective, fifty-seven of the 94 Cardinal medals came from the 'Niles era'. Thanks for sharing Mike. Yes, I have heard similar powerful memories about Coach Niles. Coach Niles moved to Branson in 2000 and is now retired.

Cards Fall to Pirates

The Cards hosted the 3-9 Boonville Pirates on Friday, Jan. 21. The first quarter was neck and neck at 12-12, but the Pirates grab the momentum in the second quarter 22-11 making it 34-23 Pirates at the break. Sometimes it is hard to understand momentum but it is obviously a real thing. The Cards matched their intensity in the third (16-14) and fourth (21-23). Even with a fourth-quarter surge, led by Braydon Ethridge with 14 points, the Cards could not close the gap and lost 71-60. Tyler Gardner had to leave the game with a knee injury right before the half. The Pirates

Ethan Ethridge had a great game getting 23 points, with 14 coming in the fourth quarter. The Cards fell 71-60 to the Boonville Pirates. Tim Komer/Clinton Democrat were led by #10 Luke Green with 18 points. The Pirates sank four 3-pointers and went 17/21 from the line. They committed 15 fouls and had one player foul out. The Cards were led by Ethridge with 23 points, Keaton Townsend 14, and Gage Mantonya with 10. The Cards sank one 3-pointer, and went 13/14 from the line. They committed 18 fouls.

The CHS Coaching staff and high school team put on a skills camp for the local kids (Henry, CIS, and CMS). It was held at CHS on Monday, Jan. 17. They conducted 3 hour-long skills sessions. It was well attended. It is always good to see student-athletes giving back. Learning the value of giving back is one of those life lessons we always talk about. The pictures above are of the Clinton Intermediate School group.

Donation to Baseball And Softball Programs Purchases Pitching Machines

The CHS baseball and softball programs have received a donation from two sources to help the teams purchase new pitching machines. The donations came from the Tony Komer Foundation and the Sieger family (Dennis and Debbie). Debbie is a retired Clinton teacher. Shown above are Tim Komer, Dennis Sieger, Coach John Lersch, Coach Krista Adams, Coach Sydney Snyder, and A.D. Alex Johnson. The machines are state-of-the-art multi-wheeled machines that can throw a variety of pitches. The coaches commented they are very grateful for this donation from the community. Photo submission

Vikings Hold Off Skyline Tigers

Logan Crowder trying to cut through the lane in the Thursday night Skyline game. It was a classic battle between two very good teams. The Vikings prevailed 63-61. Tim Komer/Clinton Democrat

We knew this was going to be a ballgame. Even with only one game on the slate, there was a good sized crowd in attendance. The 14-1 Vikings were hosting the 12-3 Skyline Tigers. It started off with the Tigers having the hot hand but the Vikings slowly got going and the first quarter ended 21-20 Skyline. The pace of the game was fast (no surprise) with the Vikings building a small lead in the third quarter 49-42. The battle raged on as the Vikings, even with just a small lead, decided to slow things down and make the Tigers chase them. It worked for a while but a couple of stops put the Tigers within four. With 15 seconds left it was a two-possession ballgame. The Tigers went into a full press/foul mode. The Viking fans were definitely on the edge of their seats. The seconds ticked away and the Viking super tight defense made it nearly impossible for the Tigers to get off a clean shot. The Vikings made a free throw and in desperation the Tigers' #12 put up a long 3-pointer to make the final score 63-61. A heck of a game. The Tigers were led by #12 Lawson Beem with 23. They had five 3-pointers and went 18/22 from the line. The Tigers' #1 Zach William fouled out of the game. The Vikings were led by Garrett Strange with 19, Corbin Meeker with 16, and Blake Munsterman with 15. The Vikings made six 3's and went 11/19 from the line. The Vikings lost two players, Kaiden Ketterman and Corbin Meeker, to fouls. The Vikings will be playing in the Clinton Tournament next week. They will play Harrisonville on Monday, Jan. 24 at 7:30 p.m. and Adrian on Wednesday at 6 p.m. The finals are played on Sat. Jan. 29. The Lady Vikings are not in the Clinton Tourney.

One of the traditions of the Elks Lodge is to conduct the annual "Hoop Shoot" free throw contest. This is the 50th year for the event. The local level was held at CMS on Jan. 8. The numbers were down but local kids still participated and the winners move on vying for Regional and State Championships. The National Championships are held in Chicago in April. Some fantastic prizes are awarded. Good luck to all.

Lady Cards Best The Bears

Skyte Wilson had a great game scoring 23 points to lead her team over the Lady Bears 61-43. Tim Komer/Clinton Democrat

The CHS Lady Cards traveled to Butler on Tuesday, Jan. 18 to play the 6-8 Lady Bears. Both teams started slowly with the Bears up 8-7 after five minutes of play. The Cards made a run and pulled ahead 15-10 at the end of the first quarter. The Cardinal run was helped by Skyte Wilson's nine points. The Bears would not go away, it was 23-17 Cards at the break. The Cardinals pushed their lead to 19 (43-24) in the third quarter, led by Wilson's eight points. The Bears fought hard and won the fourth quarter 19-18, but Wilson made six straight free-throws to keep the Bears at bay. The final score was 61-43 Cards. The Lady Bears were led by Blaire Miller with 17 points. Miller made 15 fourth-quarter points to give her team a chance. She fouled out with 1:40 left in the game. The Cards were led by Wilson's 23 points. The Lady Cards record goes to 6-8. The Bears made three 3-pointers, and were 2 of 7 from the line. They committed 15 team fouls. The Cards had 7-3's, going 16 of 20 from the line. They committed seven team fouls. Individual Stats (Pts., 3's, FT, F): Heerdink (6,0,0,4), Gillund (10,2,0,0), Cardwell (2,0,0,1), Brown (3,0,1/2,1), Wilson (23,1,8/10,1), Potter (4,0,2/2,0), Wishard (13,0,5/6,0). The Cards travel to play the 9-7 Sacred Heart Lady Gremlins on Thursday, Jan. 20.

Vikings Beat Wildcats In Clinton Invitational

Kaiden Ketterman with a steal and a bucket in the Lakeland win over the Harrisonville Wildcats in the first round of the 97th annual Clinton Invitational Tournament. Tim Komer/Democrat

The #1 seed, 16-1, Lakeland Vikings took on the #5 seed, 4-12, Harrisonville Wildcats in the 97th annual Clinton Invitational Tournament. The Vikings won the tournament in 2021. The Vikings are presently ranked 7th in the State in Class 2. They lived up to their billing and beat the Wildcats 66-49. Harrisonville did manage to stay close (27-21) at the break, but the Vikings put on a run in the third and went up by 20 (49-29). The Vikings were led by Garrett Strange with 23 and Logan Crowder with 16. They are a very good outside shooting team, and with the combination of Strange and Crowder in the paint makes them even more dangerous. Lakeland will take on the #4 seed, 11-2, Adrian Blackhawks, on Wednesday, Jan. 26 at 6 p.m. The Cards will take on the #2 seed, 12-5, Odessa Bulldogs in the 7:30 p.m. game.

Cardinal Grapplers Updates

Oak Grove Tri

The Cardinal Grapplers battled in the Oak Grove Tri on Tuesday, Jan. 18. The Cards are gaining valuable experience and no doubt are improving one step at a time, but the wins are hard to come by. The Cards got two wins vs Center: Triston Switzer by fall and Will Golder by fall. Going against the always tough Oak Grove Panthers Lucas McMenemy was our only victor, also by pin.

Excelsior Springs Dual

The Cards took six grapplers to take on the Excelsior Spring Tigers on Thursday, Jan. 20. The lone win for the Cards came from Lucas McMenemy at 106 pounds by a 7-4 decision. Triston Switzer in an exciting match fell 6-4. The Cardinal wrestlers will participate in the Missouri Military Academy Rookie Tournament on Saturday, Jan. 22. Fight Cards Fight.

Cards Fall to Gremlins

The Cards are struggling to get in the win column, but the team bonding and overall effort is there. Tim Komer/Clinton Democrat

The Cards lost on Thursday night, Jan. 20, but it was a very competitive game. They traveled to Sedalia to play the 12-3 Sacred Heart Gremlins. The Cards led after one, 18-17, but the surging Gremlins went up 41-31 at the break. The Cards recaptured the momentum and won the third quarter 18-11. The Cards were within three going into the fourth quarter and their chances looked good. But, after a flurry of turnovers that the Gremlins scored on the Cards were back into a deeper hole. They battled to the end but the final score was 72-64 Gremlins. The Gremlins were led by Coen Brown with 30 points. They made six 3-pointers and went 15/22 from the line. The Cards were led by Gage Mantonya with 23 points, Dom Jackson with 18, and Tyler Gardner with 16. The Cards sank nine 3's and went 11/18 from the line. This loss puts the struggling Cards at 3-10. The Cards host the 3-9 Boonville Pirates on Friday, Jan. 21. The Clinton Tournament starts on Monday, Jan. 24. The Cards play Odessa on Wednesday, Jan. 26, and Hogan Prep on Thursday, the 27. The final games are played on Saturday, Jan. 29.

Jane Froman, former resident of Clinton

Jane Froman was born in 1907 – her parents separated when she was five. She spent her childhood in Clinton and attended the Holy Rosary School. She was musically gifted and her talent for music appeared early (by age three). When she was five years old, she was sent to live with her grandparents (in Clinton) – Thad and Ellender Barcafer. When her mother arrived in Clinton after her, it was without her husband.

Jane sang in school concerts, at various churches, and even landed the role of Snow White in the school play. And, although it never surfaced when she sang, she experienced a problem stuttering which had surfaced at the age of five.

In 1919 she attended the Christian College in Columbia, Mo., and then the University of Missouri eventually studying at the Conservatory of Music in Cincinnati. In Cincinnati, Jane's singing talents were recognized by the owner of a radio station, Powel Crosely, Jr., and she soon found herself singing radio commercials. After spending time working in various radio gigs, she landed a spot in New York on The Chesterfield Hour, a nationally popular radio show – that was 1933. For the next decade, Jane (and her first husband) would alternate between Hollywood and New York as she found success and opportunities to perform.

Following the entry of the U.S. into World War II, Jane helped with bond-drives, and sang over the Armed Forces Network to entertain troops; in February of 1943, she embarked on an overseas USO Tour – but never made it to her destination. While flying over Portugal the plane carrying her and 38 other passengers crashed into the Tagus River. Only 15 survived.

Jane had severe injuries to her legs and right arm. With the help of the copilot (John Burn, who would later become her second husband) she stayed afloat in the river until rescued. It took about an hour before ships were launched to the scene where Jane, John, and 13 others were waiting in the icy waters. There was an added 20 minutes to the rescue as two of the men fell overboard lifting Jane into the launch while the boat drifted away. John's injuries were severe as well: his back was broken in two places, and he had fractures to his skull. Somehow, he helped lift her up and keep her above water. Jane's injuries were no less severe and would affect her for the rest of her life. "Hang onto me a second," Jane told John in the water. "I think there's a bone broken in my leg."

Not only did she have a compound fracture in her leg, but her right arm was broken along with three broken ribs and she had a large cut below her left knee that ran to the bone. She was battered and bruised. The injury to her right leg was severe enough that she made the doctor promise not to amputate it. Over the next nine years she spent 36 months in hospitals undergoing operations, bone-and-skin grafts, 25 operations in all, and eventually was able to perform with a brace and enjoy a professional career in night clubs and on television.

Two years after the accident, on crutches and with a leg brace that ran to her hip, she finished the USO Tour she had started. At first, she sang in hospitals but eventually borrowed General Eisenhower's car and toured places few (if any) USO Tours had visited.

A few years later (1952), a movie was made about Froman's experience called "With a Song in My Heart" which starred Susan Hayward (as Jane). In 1962, after moving back to Missouri (she retired and made her home in Columbia), Froman married again, this time to an old college acquaintance Rowland Smith (who worked at the Columbia Tribune). One of her last performances was in Arrow Rock, Missouri, when she came out of retirement to sing a Christmas program in 1969. Jane Froman died in Columbia in April of 1980.

Ranchers Eager For New Herbicide

Cattlemen spraying pasture weeds with tractor sprayer rig.

Cattlemen have an excellent product coming for pasture weeds, as soon as it gains EPA approval.

ProClova, a new product from Corteva Company, is very easy on white clover, a much needed clover forage.

Designed to reduce spray kill on legumes such as clovers and lespedeza, the new product allows most of the white clover to grow through the spray damage.

Kevin Bradley, University of Missouri weed scientist, has studied the new spray

"This is the first time we have a product that doesn't kill (out) white clover," said Bradley. "It's safe to use on lespedeza too."

ProClova controls thistles, ragweeds, cocklebur and a broad spectrum of other common pasture weeds.

The new spray does have some drawbacks.

"It won't control thistles quite as well," Bradley said. "Growers will have to spray them at an early emergent stage."

Just like 2,4-D products currently used, ProClova hurts red clover.

Test results from Mizou showed a 60 percent loss of red clover. But again, the white clover survives very well. The trial results showed only a 20 percent loss of white clover.

"It will yellow up some," Bradley said. "But it will survive."

Ranchers have mixed legumes such as clover to improve grazing forage for decades. But killing out unwanted broadleaf weeds, yet maintaining the legumes has always been a challenge.

Steven Tucker with Midwest Farmer's Association (MFA) agri-chemicals has been keeping up on the study results for MFA.

"The new spray looks very good," said Tucker. "It looks like some outlets may have it later

Hartzler Leads Hawley's Efforts in House to Ban Insider Trading in Congress

Congresswoman Vicky Hartzler (R-Mo.) joined Senator Josh Hawley (R-Mo.) in his effort to ban insider trading in Congress by introducing the Banning Insider Trading in Congress Act in the House. This legislation would prohibit Members of Congress and their spouses from holding or trading individual stocks. The bill will require Members found in violation to return their profits to the American people.

"When Speaker Pelosi can trade millions of dollars in stocks per year, outperform the market, and receive classified briefings at the same time, it's no wonder she defends the trading of individual stocks by Congress," Hartzler said. "It's past time for Congress to crack down on this potential corruption and work for the American people, instead of their own wallets. I am pleased to join Senator Hawley in our fight to restore decency and truth to Washington. No one – not even the Speaker of the House – should benefit from public service."

"Year after year, politicians somehow manage to outperform the market, buying and selling millions in stocks of companies they're supposed to be regulating," Hawley said. "Wall Street and Big Tech work hand-in-hand with elected officials to enrich each other at the expense of the country. Here's something we can do: ban all members of Congress from trading stocks and force those who do to pay their proceeds back to the American people. It's time to stop turning a blind eye to Washington profiteering."

This legislation is the House companion bill to Sen. Hawley's version in the Senate.

Specifically, this bill would:

Prohibit Members of Congress and their spouses from holding, acquiring, or selling stocks or equivalent economic interests during their tenure in elected office. Any holdings in diversified mutual funds, exchange-traded funds, or U.S. Treasury bonds are exempt from the prohibition.

Give Members of Congress and their spouses six months, upon assuming office, to divest any prohibited holdings or place those holdings in a blind trust for the remainder of their tenure in office.

Ensure Members or their spouses forfeit any investment profits to the American people via the U.S. Treasury if they are found to be in violation if the Act. Members who violate the requirements will also lose the ability to deduct the losses of those investments on their income taxes. The ethics committees of Congress may levy additional fines and will publicize violations.

Require that after two years of the Act's implementation, the Government Accountability Office (GAO) will conduct an audit of Members' compliance with the Act.

this year."

Right now, it is still in the finishing stages of EPA approval.

"We (MFA) don't have it on our availability or pricing lists," Tucker said. "But I think it will be approved soon."

One thing cattlemen that are wanting to re-seed pasture ground can do, is to use white clover over red. Prices of the more tolerant clover are around $4 per pound. The red is cheaper at around $2.85 per pound, but again it won't take the spray like the white.

ProClova is a combination of 2,4-D and floryprauxifen. Under the trade name Duracor, floryprauxifen is available now, but without the superior control of ProClova.

It is not labeled for ranchers to mix 2,4-D and Duracor, on their own to spray their pastures. The EPA will require cattlemen to wait for the ProClova product approval and subsequent distribution.

Work Is the Solution

For the last year and really, since COVID started, the labor market has changed. Forced-shutdowns and manufactured fear caused a lot of businesses to close their doors and either send their workers home or lay them off. These businesses undoubtedly hoped the shutdowns would be temporary and eventually things would return to normal. For a big portion of the country, this didn't happen. Big-city governments and leftist states kept businesses shut down and their workers at home. If that wasn't enough, the federal government made the problem worse by throwing cash and government handouts to folks, encouraging them to stay home and collect welfare checks instead of working.

All of this combined to create the problems we are seeing today. You can't drive anywhere in Missouri without seeing a "Help Wanted" sign or long lines because those businesses don't have enough workers to meet demand. Now, restaurants and retail businesses are cutting operating hours because they can't find workers while some in the federal government are talking about paying people a $1,000 a month to stay home and do nothing. Our country wasn't built by people sitting around collecting welfare. This country was built on hard work and the entrepreneurial spirit – people taking risks to make their country and community better. These misguided liberals, instead, are trapping Americans in a vicious cycle of government dependency. Instead of discouraging hard work and initiative, government should be pushing people back into the workforce and making it easier for businesses to do what they do best – growing our economy and creating jobs for hardworking Missourians.

One obvious way government makes the problem worse is by not connecting those on unemployment with employers that need workers. There's no reason so many Missourians are on unemployment when there are unfilled jobs all over our state. Unemployment is a temporary hand up for those transitioning from one job to the next. It's not intended to be permanent replacement income or a program people come to every year when their seasonal jobs go on hiatus. This is especially true when the state unemployment rate sits at 3.5% – which is lower than before COVID and lower than the national average. If someone is not working in this economy, it's because they don't want to work.

This situation led me to file Senate Bill 777, the Employment Security and Job Referrals Act of 2022. This bill would require the Division of Employment Security, which administers unemployment in Missouri, to connect businesses and employers that have open positions with people filing for unemployment. If the individual on unemployment refuses to take a job offer, he or she would no longer receive unemployment benefits. Here's an example of how it might work: The Division of Employment Security would pick out five jobs that are very similar to the one the worker previously had. Employment Security would send those referrals to the worker and require him or her to make a legitimate attempt to get one of those jobs. If the worker refuses or ignores the referral, they forfeit their unemployment benefits.

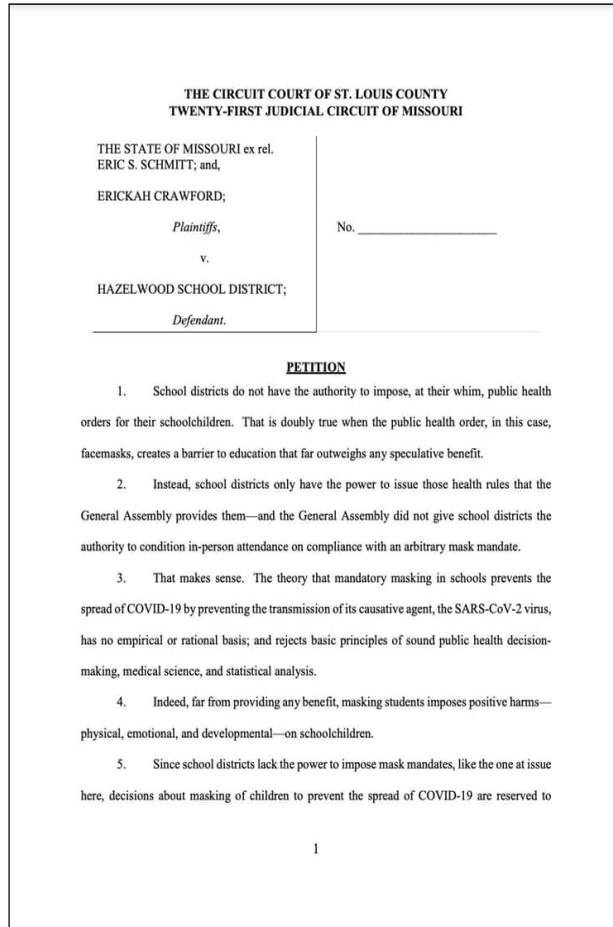

This is a commonsense idea. There are jobs available and there are people out there who need jobs. Why would we pay them to do nothing when they could be working? This isn't just about dollars and cents, either. It's about encouraging work ethic and building a workforce that can meet any challenge, both here in our country and globally. Our state and our country are competing to turn out the best products and best services. Americans are known for their hard work and for their ingenuity, and we can't afford to fall behind or lose what has made this country great. The bottom line is that employment and the self-respect that comes with it is one our greatest assets and it is the best tool we have to grow our economy and overcome poverty. Our laws and programs should reflect that and that's what SB 777 will do.

Missouri's Attorney General Files 9 More Anti-Mask Lawsuits against school districts

St. Louis Public Radio By Kate Grumke Published January 24, 2022 at 5:20 PM

Missouri Attorney General Eric Schmitt, shown during a November press conference in St. Louis, has now sued 45 school districts over COVID-19 policies.

Updated Jan. 24 with additional lawsuits and reaction from school districts.

Missouri Attorney General Eric Schmitt on Monday, Jan 23, filed nine additional lawsuits against school districts over their mask mandates.

In total, he has sued 45 districts, including 28 in the St. Louis region, in recent days over mandates and other COVID-19 mitigation policies.

On Monday, some districts said they were consulting with their attorneys. Others said they still had not officially received lawsuits but would discuss with counsel when they do.

A few districts have released statements condemning the lawsuits. Both the Francis Howell and the St. Charles districts said the cases are a waste of taxpayer dollars.

"The lawsuit filed by Schmitt is a waste of taxpayer money – on both sides," the Francis Howell School District wrote in a statement. "The claims are tenuous at best and this unnecessary lawsuit represents another attack on public education in Missouri. This latest action by AG Schmitt is disheartening, unfounded and frankly, shameful."

Maplewood Richmond Heights Superintendent Bonita E. Jamison said the lawsuit is not a prudent use of taxpayer money or human resources required to address it. "We believe these lawsuits continue to be a distraction to school leaders regionally who are already taxed with efforts to keep school doors open and students safe," Jamison said in a statement.

The nine additional districts sued are:

- Bayless
- Jennings
- Lexington
- Kirkwood
- Ritenour
- Hancock Place Special School District of St. Louis County
- Meramec Valley University City
- Original story from Jan. 21:

Missouri Attorney General Eric Schmitt filed lawsuits on Friday against more than 35 school districts he said were illegally instating health policies.

Schmitt tweeted links to suits filed against the school districts, including Francis Howell, St. Louis Public Schools, Columbia Public, Kansas City, Rockwood and Fort Zumwalt.

The suits allege that school districts do not have the authority to impose public health orders for children. Several parents within the districts are named as plaintiffs in the suits that were filed in the counties where the school districts are located.

The lawsuits are part of Schmitt's ongoing effort to force Missouri schools to drop mask mandates and other COVID-19 mitigation policies. Schmitt is a Republican running for U.S. Senate.

"Parents and families, not bureaucrats, should have the power to decide what's best for their children," Schmitt said in a press release Friday.

In a letter to school districts last month, Schmitt told the districts to cease enforcement of public health orders that he said were declared void by a recent court ruling.

In November a Cole County judge ruled that health orders passed by an "unelected official" were unconstitutional and a violation of Missouri's separation of powers.

"Missouri statutes give elected legislative bodies, not individual health agency directors, authority to create county-wide laws related to communicable disease," Cole County Circuit Court Judge Daniel R. Green wrote.

Schmitt's office says it sent letters to more than 50 school districts in December, more than 20 of which are in the St. Louis area, telling them to cease and desist "illegal" mask, quarantine and other public health policies.

The majority of local school districts still have mask mandates in place and believe their policies are legal, according to statements and letters sent to parents.

The districts believe their power to enact health policies is spelled out in two Missouri statutes, said Paul Ziegler, CEO of EdPlus, a cooperative of about 60 public school and charter school systems.

Ziegler pointed to Missouri statute 167.191, which says it is unlawful for children to attend school with an infectious disease they may spread and revised statute 171.011, which gives school boards the ability to adopt rules and regulations.

"Between those two statutes, to me, it's very clear that school boards not only have the ability but have the obligation to do the things they're doing right now to try and keep kids safe," Ziegler said.

The districts also believe their power to enact health policies is reinforced by the fact that in most cases, elected school boards voted to approve the policies. The Cole County ruling presented the argument that unelected officials have limited authority, said Duane Martin, an attorney at EdCounsel, which represents public school districts across Missouri, including Francis Howell, Holden R-III, Jefferson City, Independence and Kingsville, which were sued by the Attorney General on Friday.

"By putting it before the people who are elected by the local community to make these very decisions, I think it just bolsters their ability to make these kinds of determinations in the best interest of their kids," Martin said.

Health implications The lawsuits come during a wave of COVID-19 infections that was three times higher than previous waves at its peak and has filled local hospitals.

It has put a strain on school districts that are struggling to staff classrooms amid a big increase in educators who are out sick.

Rob Gatter, a professor of law at St. Louis University School of Law at the Center for Health Law Studies, said the lawsuits are creating confusion and sending a dangerous message at a concerning point in the pandemic.

"[Hospitals] barely have the beds and they barely really have the nurses and the Missouri Attorney General, Eric Schmitt, is adding to the problem by creating confusion about what's legal and what's illegal," Gatter said.

The lawsuits will take time and resources from school districts, Ziegler said.

"It's not only a distraction for school leaders to have to deal with it, to have to prepare themselves for potential litigation or deal with litigation if a suit is actually filed," Ziegler said. "Those leaders would be much better served working with their communities to make sure they're keeping kids safe and keeping our school doors open."

And Martin points out, "taxpayers are paying both sides of this."
