Applicants were scored based upon guidelines received from legal counsel. The Commissioners also spoke to Adam Kuehl, architect with HMN Architects, for advice. References and past business associates were also contacted before a final decision was reached.

In other business, Martin Equipment representative Rowdy Cannon met with the Commission to discuss current prices for grader blades and other equipment.

Warsaw Airport Set For New Hangar Facility

By Homer May
County Reporter

Under new business, Monday eve August 6, City Alderpersons, meeting at the City's Municipal Airport, approved a $1.2 million project with B. Dean Construction to build an 8-unit hanger at that Airport. A start to construction is estimated for early spring 2019, to be completed within about 130 calendar days, allowing an anticipated Aug. 1, ribbon cutting. Warsaw has been squirreling away $150,000 yearly MODot grants for a few years, and will use all those saved dollars, but will still be about $219,000 short, upon completion of that project. The City anticipates obtaining a MODot "Star Loan" to cover the shortage and repay the loan within several years, with continued MODot grants. This meeting was preceded by a tour of the Airport's repair shop, where Aircraft Mechanic Ashley Perkins explained that business is steady and increasing. Dave Hadel, representing Burns

Every two to three minutes someone in the United States goes into cardiac arrest. At least 95% of the cases end in death if an AED (Automated External Defibrillator) is not accessible. Thanks to the work of the Benton County Health Department and the family and friends of Dr. James Spring DDS, Benton County will have AEDs in place when they

Pro Wrestling Memories

The recent death of Brian Christopher Lawler has turned my attention back to professional wrestling for a moment. I watched him on Memphis TV for years. He was a hero to those fans and wrestled his father Jerry Lawler on numerous occasions.

There have been several wrestlers over the years to commit suicide and die of overdose. I think of the Von Erich family, Brian Pillman and Jerry London, among others. The Chris Benoit tragedy is another one that comes to mind.

The life of a pro wrestler has not always been an easy one. In my day, they made very little money unless they were one of the top stars. I actually feel like I saw some of the very best of all time in Danny Hodge, Lou Thesz, Jack Brisco, Bill Watts, the Assassins and many more.

I saw Harley Race and André the Giant in their primes.

Jim Ross says Danny Hodge was the toughest wrestler he ever met. Hodge actually lived for awhile in Springfield in a mobile home on the north edge of town in a trailer park. Hodge was an amateur wrestling legend in college. Hodge could break a pair of pliers and an apple with his bare hands.

I understood the wrestling game as a boy of nine. The first match I ever saw live was a Texas Death Match between Fritz Von Erich and Dick the Bruiser in St. Louis, MO. I thought it was real until I put on their holds in the backyard with my friends and I knew something was wrong. However, I loved it for that reason. It was a show and I tried to outguess the promoters.

I don't watch it much anymore. Once in awhile I go back and watch an old time match or an interview on YouTube but the new stuff is something I stay away from.

Wrestling was part of my childhood and I have some great memories of going to the matches in Springfield MO with my father. I also had to stay up late on Saturday night to watch it on TV. Kids today don't have a clue about how far wrestling has come.

I still have some old newspaper clippings of matches in Springfield. Very few papers wrote up the results of the matches like the Springfield News and Leader did in those days.

So yes, I have some good childhood memories of the wrestling matches at the Shrine Mosque.

Hey, I got to go find a game to watch.

JUNIOR PAYGE ADAIR STRETCHES during the first day of practice for all Warsaw sports on Monday morning at West Bledsoe Ferry Sports Complex. Adair and the other softball girls are looking forward to a great season as they are loaded with talent.

Loaded With Talent

By Johnie J. Logue
Enterprise Staff

The Warsaw high school softball team has 22 girls scheduled for playing time this season. This is the most players that long time Coach Steve Larson has ever had on his team.

With one returning senior, Kinsten Cunningham and six talented returning juniors, three sophomores and several good freshmen, there will be competition for playing time, a very good problem to have. Last year they only had 14 players on the team and just ten the year before, so this is a luxury every coach wishes they had.

Speaking of coaches, former WHS All-State player Kelli Eierman is a new assistant and should be a huge plus to the program. Junior Aubrie McRoberts commented, "It will be great having her for our coach. She was a great player and she has been on a state championship team."

Coach Eierman should be a big help with an already good pitching staff that includes Payge Adair, Kya Schepker, Kylee Fajen and a few others.

Catcher Reagan Shelby

has been hitting the ball a ton during summer ball and will be someone to keep an eye on for sure this coming season. McRoberts switched to batting left handed last season and some of her power numbers fell off but could be back on track this time around. She can fly down first base as can Schepker and center fielder Rayni Simons. Simons is as good as gold in center and fly balls go there to die in her glove. Coach Eierman was also a good center fielder, as well as an almost unhittable pitcher.

A team that can't field a bunt will be in trouble facing the Lady Cats this time around. That was their go-to weapon last season and could be a huge factor this year. Look for the Lady Cats to score a lot of runs and will be fun to watch this season.

When the All-State awards come on don't be too surprised to see some Warsaw girls grab some honors. We will have more to say as time goes by and a whole lot more in the upcoming sports edition.

Chapter Ten- Wild Time in the Old Town Tonight

The day of the game was finally here. Tom slept only a few hours that night. The day itself went by fast. Tom walked through the town. It was crowded and really busy on Saturday. People came to town to get their groceries and all their other supplies. The two barbers shops were full. The farmers sat around by the court house and told their weekly stories and gave their opinions on how the president should fix the country. Tom loved it.

He went down to the train depot and watched the Vipers players get off the train. He tried to pick out which one was Thorhagen. It was easy as he carried himself very well. At 6'1 he was the tallest. He had red hair and was somewhat muscular.

The Viper coach was Austin Bell. This was his first season at the helm. He was heavy set and had a short beard, probably around 40. He was a music teacher and the people around Torre would know who he was before the day was over as it was said that he had a very short fuse.

Tom knew about the huge crowd so he told the coach he would go to the game early.

One thing Tom didn't know was that Victoria Sinclair would sing the National Anthem. The custom of singing the National Anthem came into being in 1918 with the Boston Red Sox.

Tom sat on the front row and a farmer with his dog and a pig sat down beside him. Yeah, a pig. This would be interesting Tom thought.

Tom found out that a scout for the newly formed pro league was there to see Thorhagen and Starks.

The sheriff came by and informed Tom that the office was expecting a telegram later that night about him. Yeah, he would find out his dad was only ten years old and Tom would be in trouble.

Tom figured he would worry about that after the game as it was about to start. There was just one referee and he was George McKenzie. McKenzie played for Torre back in 1910. McKenzie was considered a fair ref and would let the players play and not call little silly fouls.

Actually, the Torre players were often complimented on their clean style of play. Doyle was the only one who ever got out of hand and really he was a good kid, it was just that he was quick to resort to violence to solve all of his problems.

Lloyd would jump center against Starks for most of the contest. Again, they jumped center after every made basket so having a big guy on your team was an added luxury indeed. Each player had four fouls to give and could only reenter the game once after being taken out. Goal tending was allowed, no three point line, no shot clock and a very narrow lane. They shot free throws after every foul.

FADED

(Continued from Page 8) The players mostly shot two handed set shots and various one handed hook shots. Tom was hopeful Coach Morgan hadn't taught his players the jump shot.

Viper was a small college outside of St. Louis MO. It was common for college teams to play high school teams but rarely did undefeated teams ever meet. Viper had twenty or so fans that made the 80 mile trip on the train but everyone else in the building was for the home team.

As the two players approached the center circle, Lloyd said something to Starks and then placed his knee against Stark's leg and would lean into him whenever they jumped center. Phillips shoved Tatum and blocked him out on the circle. This was college basketball and it would be rougher and tougher than what the high school boys played. The backboard on the west end of the court was against the wall and that meant no driving to the basket. Torre certainly had home court advantage as far as knowing the gym was concerned.

The whistle blew and Stark got the tip but Masher flew by Tobias to get the ball. He quickly hit Thorhagan with a pass and the red headed high scoring forward banged home a ten footer and Viper led 2-0. To be continued...

BENTON COUNTY ENTERPRISE 438-6312

are needed. AED "Fore" the Heart, JSM Benefit Golf Tournament was established by Dr. Spring's widow Paula Spring after his death. The mission of the volunteers was to provide AEDs in public/municipal places of Benton County. Dr. Spring served on the Board of Directors of the BCHD for several years. This year's AEDS were purchased for the amount of $11,977. All funds were raised by the golf tournament as well as donations.

The total of AEDs that have been funded in the last three years through this event is 24. Once a commitment is given of a place that has requested an AED and the AED has been awarded, the education is provided by the Benton County Health Department free of charge.

This year's recipients included: five AEDs to the Benton County Sheriff's department; two AEDs to the Lincoln City Police; one AED to the American Legion; one AED to the VFW in Lincoln; one AED in the Warsaw Community Building and one AED to the Popular Baptist Church.

"It is a true honor to do such great things in the memory of Dr. James Spring DDS. Dr. Spring and Paula Spring have brought a lot to this community and when Paula approached us four years ago about bringing cardiac disease to the fore front of this community, we at BCHD were all in," said Kelli Daleske.

BCHD Volunteers included: Kelli Daleske, Linda Viebrock, Gloria Smith, Tammie Heimsoth, Bette Defosse, Brooke Daleske, Quartnie Breshears, Lisa Walker, Erica Crawford, Kathy Kirby and Tammy Lawler. Other volunteers throughout the community included: Heidi Schmidt, Angela Parrott, Cindie Johnson, Megan Spring, Angie McCoy and Paula Spring. While this group of volunteers organized the golf tournament, there were many people throughout the community who volunteered in many ways.

AED "Fore" the Heart, JSM Benefit Golf tournament has been held at the Shawnee Bend Golf Course near Warsaw for the past three years.

BBQ'd. The top five winners in the Ribs category were 1) Charlie-Q, 2) Naughty Dog BBQ, 3) Just Smokin, 4) Big Creek BBQ, and 5) #team-hillbillybbq.

The Grand Champion was Miller's BBQ, taking home $400; and Reserve Grand Champion was Big Creek BBQ, that took home $150.

Lynette Stokes, Executive Director of Benton County Tourism and Recreation, said that her organization and volunteers heard from teams, judges and attendees of the competition that "it was a great competition and beautiful venue." She said they further stated that they can't wait to come back next year.

The Smokin Toad's BBQ team emailed Stokes, telling her "Thanks for the KCBS Backyard on Saturday! Had a blast and what a great place, right on the water."

Meat inspections were performed for safety and to ensure that the meat was properly handled and stored. Inspections also ensured fairness in the competition. Meats could not be pre-cooked or pre-marinated prior to arriving at the contest and the inspection. The meats consisted of wild or farm-raised chicken, Cornish game hen and Kosher chicken. Pork ribs could be spare ribs, St. Louis cut pork ribs, or baby back ribs, and they had to include the bone. Country Style ribs were prohibited. Fires had to be of wood, wood pellets or charcoal. No use of any tobacco products was allowed while handling meat.

Chicken turn-in was at 3 PM and pork at 3:30 PM.

Running concurrently with the BBQ competition at the Harbor, but lasting a day longer, was the Second Annual Ozark Cigar Box Guitar Music Festival. People from all over Missouri and other states such as Mississippi, Pennsylvania, Washington and Illinois attended the event, many of them staying in local lodging overnight. Lynette Stokes said that there were double the attendees this year as there were last summer, or about 2,000 plus people.

Nine musicians played at the event including two nationally-recognized headliners Lazer Loyd and Travis Bowlin, who brought in their own followers. Listeners heard all genres of music over the weekend.

Vendors at the festival included 11 unique food vendors. Two sold BBQ, and others offered Italian ice, funnel cakes, kettle corn, fried treats, gumbo, root beer and more. All eight retail vendors were required to sell handmade musical instruments. One of them brought 18 guitars and sold 14.

There was a Builder's Contest (Build-Off) with five prizes awarded for Best Electric, Best Acoustic, Best Overall Handmade Instrument, Best in Show, Best Three-String and Best four-String. Sound was provided by DB Audio out of Sedalia.

"We want to thank our sponsors of the event," said Stokes. "They were City of Warsaw, Main Street Spirits, Sterret Creek Marina, Campground and Motel, Casey's General Store, State Farm Insurance, Statuary Gardens, C.B. Gitty and Hawthorn Bank, with special thanks to Ye Old Treasure Chest and Bill's Repurpose. These sponsors made it possible to have a free event."

Stokes also thanked the volunteers who gave their time working in the heat making the festival run smoothly.

"We couldn't have a successful event without fantastic volunteers," said Stokes.

The volunteers included the Marine Corps League (Leathernecks) of Warsaw, who provided overnight security, as well as local residents, the City of Warsaw employees and others who give of their time supporting tourism and community growth. Stokes said that both of the weekend events at Drake Harbor will take place again in August 2019.

Ryan Mackey, founder of the festival was quoted as saying "I've heard many comments from attendees the last two years about how beautiful the venue is, and one attendee said that this was the best festival in the country. I want to thank the City of Warsaw and Benton County Tourism for supporting the small dream that I had to bring the Cigar Box Guitar world to Warsaw."

and McDonnell Airport Hangers, added that with additional aircraft flying in and out of the Airport, increased sales of aviation fuel can be expected. City Planner Randy Pogue said that hangers at this Airport are presently full.

The meeting opened at 5:55 PM, with Alderpersons Lou Breshears, Terry Marshall Sr., Eric Masoner, Adam Howe, Eric Flores, Dave Williams present. Mayor Eddie Simons presided; City Clerk Jessi Kendall recorded. First business conducted was to approve a revised agenda and minutes of a previous meeting, then okay payment of bills presented. Also under new business, the group approved a bill to allow the City Attorney, or his representative, to enter and inspect buildings which are in conditions that may violate City codes.

A discussion followed on the condition of the City's compost pile, characterized by City Planner Pogue as an "unmanageable situation," with "junk" sometimes being left at the gate after hours. It should be noted that the City intends that area to be used solely for materials that will decompose, over time. The problem will be researched and, hopefully, a solution will be found. Pogue also discussed the City's transportation budget, "expenditures to date, overall ... about as expected," he said. Reports were received without discussion from City Departments, Boards and Commissions; then the group went into executive session about 7:05 PM.

Visitors are welcome at the open sessions, which are usually held on 1st and 3rd Monday eves, but please check with the City (660-438-5522) for up-to-date information.

How to Cut Years Off Of the Mortgage

Whether you've just moved into your dream home and are experiencing the elation of making it your own or you are a few years into paying off your mortgage, if you are like most homebuyers, chances are you have the standard 30-year mortgage and may feel daunted as you anticipate decades of payments.

What if there were a simple way to cut years off that mortgage and potentially save yourself thousands of dollars in interest? By making just one extra payment a year to your mortgage or by spreading that one payment over 12 months, you can do just that, say experts.

"If you have a nest egg and are in a good place financially, put a little extra money to work to cut the mortgage term and add equity faster, suggests PNC Bank's Staci Titsworth, a regional manager for mortgages.

Titsworth offers strategies to help make the extra payments easier to handle.

"A good rule of thumb is to take a tax refund or year-end bonus and apply it to the principal of your mortgage. It's simple to do on a yearly basis, plus you are not parting with a large portion of your regular paycheck to fund that extra payment," she says.

Another strategy is to add a little extra to each month's mortgage payment and apply to the principal. That way it doesn't hurt quite so much.

As an example, with $200,000 borrowed at a 4.5 percent fixed rate, making one extra payment of $1,013 annually can take 4.25 years off the loan and save more than $2,500 in interest. Double that extra payment and you could shorten the term by seven and a half years and save more than $9,600 in interest.

In the early years of a 30-year mortgage, the bulk of the payment goes toward interest and the interest is calculated on the outstanding principal balance, so every extra dollar that you can put toward that balance is going to take cost off the back end of the mortgage.

"We talk to our customers about their complete financial picture, from their loans to savings to retirement. We know that most people want to retire in a financially sound position, and typically their biggest debt is a mortgage," says Titsworth. "Consider meeting with a financial advisor who can take a look at your complete picture and calculate the benefits of paying off your mortgage faster while also managing your long-term goals."

More tips and resources can be found at www.pnc.com.

With a comprehensive approach, you can make paying for your home a little sweeter.

VICTORY TEMPLE CHURCH

Psalms chapter 127 tells us that "Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it: except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain".

There are many times that we labor and strive to make things happen and then we come up short and wonder why, It may be that we haven't sought out the will of God, but rather we tried doing it on our own. My father used to tell me "Seek you first the kingdom of God" then He will add these other things to your life.

There is really nothing impossible to those that will seek the Lord and follow His direction. Your dreams can become reality when follow God. The Scripture goes farther and states "It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: so He giveth His beloved sleep."

May God bless you and give you a winning week.

Pastors Francis and Cathy Cline.

LINCOLN FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Blessed Jesus thank you for your love and care. Hello everyone I pray your week was blessed. 46 attended Sunday School today. Paula Hoard celebrated a birthday. Many still in need of your prayers. Children in Action meets each Wednesday at 3:00 PM. All children are welcome to come and learn about our Lord Jesus. Youth meet every Wednesday evening at 6:00 PM. All youth are welcome.

2 Timothy was the text for today's sermon. The pastor talked about the coming of the Lord. The sands of time are running low. Jesus is coming soon. We as Christians need to be talking about saving the souls of humanity. The gospel needs to be spread so people has the opportunity to accept Jesus as their savior. We need to turn and put our faith in Jesus Christ. God tells us to turn away from sin. We are to encourage fellow Christians to be saturated and motivated by the word of God.

Revelation 13:14 was the evening text. Books will be opened at the end of time. One is the Bible, one the Book of Life, and another the book on what we have done on earth for the Lord. Our work follows us and God counts us worthy. Your work for the Lord is worth your time because you serve the Lord. Demonstrate your love of God by reaching out to people. Show your love for God by loving other people.

UNTIL NEXT WEEK GO WITH GOD AND GOD BLESS.

HOPEWELL BAPTIST CHURCH NEAL BROOKS, PASTOR

Another beautiful morning to be in the Lord's house. Pam Guffey delivered the Sunday School opening and Billy Quessenberry lead the singing with Barbra Ott at the piano. Warren Love brought the children's message about how we can talk to God for free by just talking to Jesus. In honor of Dorothy Feaster's birthday, members of the congregation joined together in singing "I'll Fly Away." Brother Neal brought the message based on Proverbs 1:8-19. Solomon was a wise man who received his wisdom from God. Wisdom begins with teachings of the father and mother. What we become begins with our parents and their wisdom.

Cling to what our parents teach us and good parenting will last forever. Sin starts as an invitation to fall in with someone else. Sin will tempt and entice us. We are overcome by our own desires of selfish things. God sees your wrong even if you don't tell anyone else. Long term sin always comes back around and God makes sure people get what is coming to them. We have to be the light on a hill (Matthew 5:14).

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK JOHNIE J. LOGUE

Deception

We live in a world of deception. It started with the serpent in the garden deceiving Eve. It is very difficult to believe anything we see or hear. The news media, the internet and the politicians are full of lies and deceptions. Con men galore roam the net.

Sure, some people tell the truth but it is hard to know who or what exactly to believe anymore.

Like some, I believe the Bible. It has been attacked on every hand but it is still our love letter from God to fallen mankind.

I like magicians. However, they live in a world of deception. There is no real magic unless it is directly or indirectly from the devil himself.

For lack of space we will deal with three acts of deception.

1. People are deceived into believing there is no God, no heaven or no hell. That the Bible is a myth and full of errors. (Titus 1:2)

2. People are deceived into believing they are saved through works and church membership. I was laying in my bed the other day and my feet stuck off the end of the bed. I was reminded that R.A Torrey, a great preacher of years gone by said that there would be so many preachers in hell that their feet would stick out. (Ephesian 2:8,9)

3. People are deceived in believing they do not reap what they sow. (Galatians 6:7,8)

Have I Got A Line For You!

By James M. White, Publisher

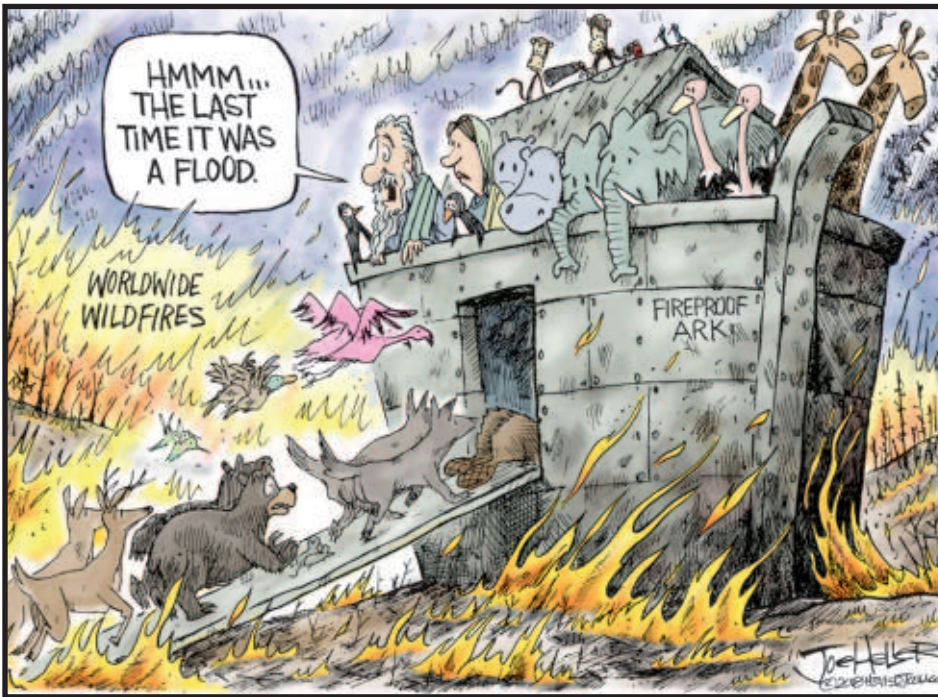

The wildfires in California are still going strong. I do wonder why many residents built their homes in the pathway of known fire alleys? Once those winds kick up, there's not much you can do other than sit and watch everything burn. Maybe it's time they re-think their zoning laws. After this latest disaster, I bet building codes will be concrete and cinder block walls with metal roofs and sprinkler systems from a stainless steel tank. But most likely they will go in and rebuild the same way in the same area. In seven to ten years, this will happen all over again.

Speaking of California, I saw a report that dozens of people were stuck at the top of a big roller coaster in Buena Park on Sunday. It took firefighters six hours to rescue all of them. The amusement park gave passes for the rest of the year. Isn't that kind of like getting food poisoning from a restaurant and having the chef tell you he's sorry, and your next dinner is free? Each to his own though. But amusement parks seem about as much fun as being trapped on a cruise ship.

Quote of the week: "The only reason I always try to meet and know the parents better is because it helps me to forgive their children."

is just too complex and mysterious to be understandable. Yet, with patience and a willingness to learn, you can become quite knowledgeable about how to invest, what you're investing in and what forces affect the investment world. To help you create an investment strategy that's appropriate for your goals, risk tolerance and time horizon, you may also want to work with a financial professional.

•Discuss financial issues with your future spouse . If you get married or re married, you'll want to discuss financial issues with your new spouse. Specifically, you'll want to answer questions such as these: What assets and debts do each of you bring to the marriage? Do you plan to merge your finances or keep them separate? Are your investment styles compatible? Do you have similar long-term goals? You and your new spouse don't need identical views on every financial topic, but you both need to be willing to work together to advance your common interests.

Ultimately, you have a lot of control over your own financial future. And making informed choices can help make that future a bright one.

The Antwiler Community Park Board are meeting tonight, Monday night in the Fristoe Community Building at 7:00 P.M. and they send a reminder that next meeting September's will because of the 1st Monday being Labor Day the meeting will be held on Tuesday night September 4th and that will be election night for board members.

Adam and Bridget Arnett and girls took a mini vacation last week to Branson and Table Rock Lake area. Everyone reported having a great time.

The Fristoe Pentecostal Lighthouse Church participated with Senior Pastor Kenneth Ullum and wife Billie as they celebrated their 66th year wedding anniversary. What a testimony they are to their family, the church, neighbors and the whole neighborhood.

Please keep Br. Ullum on your prayer list, also Leland Brown, Shannon Jones, Darrell Smith, Mary Scarbrough, W.Y Garrison, and all others needing a touch from God.

Summer is winding and school will be resuming in little over a week. This will all be new to the students as they begin the first school year in Warsaw that is a 4 day week, with the week beginning on Tuesday with Monday being part of a 3 day weekend. Really hope it works out for everyone.

Sending out a hello to friend Armolene Walker, bumped into her last week and we talked and talked. Wish I "bumped" into her more often. Having trouble with her ears but she looked GREAT!

Prayer meeting: Tuesday morning, 9:00 AM Fristoe Lighthouse Church.

Community Bible Study: Thursday morning, 7:30 AM Fristoe Community Building.

Happy Trails Cowboy Church: Sunday evening, 6:30 P.M. Fristoe Community Building.

Thought for the week: When you dance you forget everything else and just feel completely happy. Being happy never goes out of style! Hope all have a good, safe week!

WARSAW AREA NEWS

By Linnie Newman

Looks like another hot, dry day, but maybe some rain tomorrow "Hopefully."

I'm hoping everyone got out and voted Tuesday. Our voices and votes do help. That is a right we still have.

Deepest sympathy to each and everyone that's lost love ones. Happy birthday each and everyone. Congratulations for wedding, births or any milestone that has come your way.

Thanks to each and everyone praying for the return of the 4 year old returned safe and is doing well.

On Saturday night Mike and I went to Wheatland and watched Cody Frazon on LaMonte, Jay Morton of Springfield, and John Cihy of Warsaw. Hollering for each of them. Good work, boys.

Sunday I attended the Hudgens reunion held at the Community Building each year. According to sign-ins, about 60 attended. Nolan "Dude" Hudgens, wife Beth and also daughter, Janet, husband Chuck were the hosts. Great job! There were people from all over the state in attendance. What a family, great friends and relation also of mine. Lots of food, laughter, picture taking and remembering those that aren't still here.

Around here in Doc's Retreat Harold and Edie's two grandchildren from Springfield are visiting- Barb Smith sold her house so we'll have a new neighbor. Lots of weekenders down taking it easy or doing things to beautify their property. Tom is building on. I'm still working on downsizing sale. Butch and Brenda are attending a family reunion lasting a week in Kansas.

Talked to Iva Sweeney Sunday. Her and the boys were rounding up cattle that got out. Guess they wanted the green grass somewhere else.

I had a phone call telling me Sandra Naylor lost her son, Allen. So sorry, Sandra. My thoughts are with you. Remember during this heat to check on the sick, elderly, people less fortunate than you. A walk next door or phone call might make their day a little brighter.

I found this in a cook book yesterday. Hope you get a kick out of it especially all you cooks.

"I like hugs and I like kisses, but what I like the best is help with the dishes."

Be safe till next week also good health.
