Winner, Winner, Chicken Dinner! Art Auction Raises Funds For Meals

BY JENNIFER JACKSON
Staff Reporter

The first ever "Art for the Ages" auction raised more than $2,300 last Sunday for the Clinton Senior Center.

With 164 tickets sold, the event, on March 26, drew lovers of local art and fried chicken, prepared by Robert Perryman of Kickin' Chicken. Diners filled the 40 tables set up in the senior center, their cars filling the parking lot of the Clinton Senior Center, 970 E. Sedalia St. across from the community center.

While they dined, the Clinton High School Jazz Band, led by Pat Miles, entertained the crowd. To start the auction, David Lee, director of the Clinton Chamber of Commerce, warmed up the audience with jokes before handing the microphone over to Lora Anstine Reality and Auctions.

With her crew — Melinda Kirk as clerk, Cliff Kirk and David Pleacher as assistants — Lora auctioned off 75 pieces of art. Art of local scenes by local artists prompted the the most spirited bidding. A watercolor of a barn by Ike Parker sold for $260. Mike and Lois Miller, founders of WIELDING THE GAVEL to raise funds for the Clinton Senior Center, Lora Anstine auctioned a quilt made by Beverly Bowers during "Art for the Ages" on Sunday. Bowers who made the donation in honor of all the people who make the Senior Center possible, watched as the auction of her work took place.

Miller Seed Company, donated several paintings of Missouri's iconic farm animal, the mule. A watercolor of a mule team brought $120, and "Mule Skinner" a sketch Joseph Vick did for Miller Seed brought in $85. Charles Dundas donated paintings by Patti Ridenour. The Cuttin' Up Quilt Club, which meets at the Senior Center, made and donated a fence-rail quilt, which sold for $130. Jennifer Hinton bought several paintings of local scenes for the Bed and Breakfast she is building on South Main, including a water color by Ed Walker of the White Sulphur Springs Hotel in Artisan Park. Trish Meyers of Gallery Three also bought pieces by local artists.

The silent action of 85 items raised the total for the day to $4,000, organizer Kathy Wilson said. It included gift baskets donated by Schreiber Cheese.

Madison Kennels in Creighton donated artwork for the auction, and gift certificates for boarding in the silent auction.

The event was organized by Wilson, who is Henry County Services Director for Care Connection, a nonprofit agency. The art auction was a new idea for fundraising, Kathy said, and also offered the community a different social event. She began assem-

From Sports to Seminary: Call to Ministry Puts Pastor's Life on Track

BY JENNIFER JACKSON
Staff Reporter

The year 2000 marked the end of the second millennium, but the start of Pat Findley's life.

"It was that summer that the Lord got a hold of my life," he said. "The call came on the heels of the Lord saving me."

Pat answered the call to ministry, and is now Pastor Pat, the new minister at First Baptist Church. He succeeds Dr. Randy Shipman, who retired. Randy Shipman was on the staff of South Haven Baptist Church when Pat was growing up, he said.

Pat is actually Dr. Findley, having earned a doctorate in divinity, but when he was in high school, he said, and hardly ever cracked a book.

Now, he loves to read. "My father thought it was funny that I had books on my Christmas list," Pat said.

Pat grew up in Springfield, Mo., and attended Greenfield Lab School on the University of Southern Missouri campus but was not academically inclined, he said, and had no career plans. Instead, he was heavily involved in sports — basketball, soccer, football and track.

His father passed away in 2020, but not before sharing his love of NASCAR racing. When Pat was growing up, his father sponsored an Outlaw Sprint through his business.

"My best memories of my Dad are going to the races," Pat said.

In 2001, Pat met his future wife, Becca, who was a life-guard at a summer camp at South Haven Baptist Church. They married in 2004, the year Pat graduated from Southwest Baptist University in Bolivar with a degree in ministry. He completed a masters of divinity at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth in 2009, and earned a doctorate of ministry in expository preaching at the Fort Worth seminary in 2018.

Attending seminary in Texas explains the Dallas Cowboy lamp in his office, indicative of one of his two favorite football teams. He also likes the Kansas City Chiefs, he said, and when asked, has learned to say the Chiefs first. Another interest is music — Pat plays the guitar, harmonica and mandolin.

Before graduate school, he served a church in Mountain Grove, Mo., and during school, one in Arlington, Texas. Then he served Hamlin and Ridgecrest Baptist churches in Springfield. While at Ridgecrest, he led a student mission trip to France. He Pastor 3

Have I Got A Line For You!
By James Mahlon White

Well, Xi Jinping met with his "dear friend" Vladimir Putin and said change is coming that hasn't happened in 100 years and they (China and Russia) are driving it. What is this new era they talk about? Bringing back the Mao Revolution and the gulags? Meanwhile, we've been outsourcing our manufacturing, making other counties rich, while allowing those from anti-American countries to get educated here. What exactly were our "leaders" expecting? Two dictators with world control on their minds, what could possibly go wrong? But old Xi is absolutely right. Change is upon us. Young people beating up old people, shoplifting in plain sight, schools convincing kids they're criminals responsible for past sins and prosecutors that refuse to prosecute. Vladimir should remember the pact Stalin made with Germany in the 1930's. China will invade Russia and take what they consider to be theirs in the first place, which is all of Eastern Europe. Won't be long until the French change their national flag to a white cross on a white background and the Italians churn out tanks with 3 forward gears and 6 reverse. Something is brewing and whatever it is, it probably won't be good. What a crazed world!

many times in the late 90's when I lived in Highlands Ranch just outside of Denver. I did love that area and the Rocky Mountains, much beauty and majesty there. I remember another thing too. Grandma Murphy once remarked, "You know, anyplace in the world is beautiful at twilight." I've thought about that a lot.

I've wandered and wondered all over this column and someday will wander farther than that, where there will be more to see and hear and do. Hey old buddy, we're all in this sad, happy, exciting, funny great jumble together. Take care of yourself.

There is other crazed news. The number of Chinese migrants caught at our southern border has skyrocketed. Is this a Chinese Red Guard Advance Battalion to help facilitate the invasion? Sure would save them the hassle of a beach landing. Good Lord, will we be forced into pioneer justice since we're not getting the protection we paid for with taxes? On the other hand, what's the big issue here? EVERYONE has a right be in the United States without proper vetting. Can't let one group in and not another. It's the new "American Way." Everyone deserves a subsidized American Dream. You betcha!

Niece Maeve Lorenz and her husband Brandon just got back from a trip to Colorado. Maeve said they made "great time" despite a speeding ticket on the way out and one on the way back. She inherited a lead foot from her mother. I remember making that trip bling art for the auction last October.

For $15, attendees got a traditional Sunday supper — fried chicken, mashed potatoes with gravy, green beans, a roll and iced tea. Rosa, the senior center cook, made cake and brownies for dessert. Leftover chicken was sold by the bag at the auction, as was a tray of cakes.

The Clinton Senior Center serves inexpensive meals at the Senior Center five days a week, plus delivers meals to home-bound seniors in the county. In the past fiscal year, the center provided more than 42,500 meals for older adults in Henry County.

The Center also has card games, activities, and exercise classes throughout the week, and live music on Tuesday afternoons. When someone told her that the Senior Center is the best kept secret in Clinton, Kathy replied, "I don't want us to be that."

Kathy said that the Senior Center serves fried chicken on the third Thursday of the month, and she hopes people who came to the auction will come and enjoy it.

"Let's get our parking lot this full every month," she said.

Attending the luncheon was Eagle Scout Taylor Henson, a member of the Clinton High School Jazz Band, who painted the stripes in the Senior Center parking lot as his Eagle project.

Lora Anstine announced that for more local art, there will be an auction on April 15 of Dick and Nancy Fleming's house, off Hwy. C near 901 Rd.

"They loved art and they loved horses," Anstine said.

The next event at the Clinton Senior Center is a book-signing at 9:30 a.m. on April 6 by author Beth Halsey. Halsey, who is from Warsaw but now lives in Osceola, has written a book about a dog she rescued. Kathy plans to invite staff and pets from the Clinton Animal Shelter to the book-signing.

church he has served in 19 years, and he and his family are glad to be getting settled here, he said.

"We were praying to God for a place to put down roots," Pat said. "We love it here. I feel very at home."

Pat said he is honored to preach and happy to pastor, but is just a normal guy bringing his "first fruits" — best efforts — to the table. He has served in churches where they were walking through difficult situations, he said, but he and his wife have loved the people and the places he's been called to serve.

"It is an honor to be an under shepherd and to be one of the sheep," he said. "A pastor is both."

When he goes home at night, he tries to relax, then remembers — there are still boxes of books to unpack.

renovations and manages rentals, plus rides herd on the couple's six children.

Bryan leads the remodel crews, does plastic welding and as a hobby, buys old cars.

"Sometimes we fix them up, sometimes we keep them," Beth said.

They buy old houses to flip them, but are keeping one of the houses they rehabbed in Clinton, which they turned it into an arcade and flea market that opened this month. They decided on the premise after canvassing local people on the need the house could fill in the community. "We went on Facebook and asked what people wanted," Beth said. "The response was 'something for the kids to do.'"

The result: Storecade, which has an arcade-game center on the main floor and second-hand store upstairs. It's open Wednesday through Sunday for all ages during the day, 2 p.m. to 7:30 p.m., and for adults 7:30 p.m. to close. Arcades have made a comeback, after a drop in popularity due to the availability of home-based game technology, but are now found in cities and small towns, where they provide social outlets for families, youth and adults.

The Goodson's goal: to create a safe and fun space for kids of all ages, Beth said.

"We are small-town people with small-town roots," Beth said. "We like to make things better if we see a need."

Bryan and his crew are still working on renovating the house next to the apartment house on Ohio, Beth said. She commutes once a week from their home in Blue Springs to check on Storecade, and to tweak the flea market displays. Storecade is staffed by a local woman with the help of an arcade game repairman, who is getting the vintage machines up and running.

On order is "17,000 Games," Beth said, a free-play game that has classic games from Playstation on back. The Goodsons acquired many of the arcade games by sending out the word to their circle of friends, she said.

Family has also been supportive — her father came and checked out the building, she said, and her mother has also worked for the couple.

"I couldn't have done this with the support of many people," Beth said.

To uncover the building's roots, Beth went to the genealogy library at the Henry County Museum. Originally a private residence, it housed an interiors business, a restaurant and teahouse, and most recently, a flower shop called Bloomers, which moved further east on Ohio.

"I love that building," Beth said. "It's got a lot of history."

Despite its age and provenance, there aren't any lingering essences of former residents, Beth said. But when the Goodsons removed the old carpet upstairs, they found a circle inscribed in the hardwood floor, about 10 feet in diameter, with 10 cats around the circle. They have no idea what the circle — or the cats — represent. They also found a bread-dough proofing (raising) box built into a radiator.

The original residents of the house, she learned, were coal miners. Richard and Elizabeth Bowen owned a coal company near Windsor, on the border between Johnson and Henry counties.

Lampkin's History of Henry County has an entry on John Bowen, a former mayor of Windsor. John was one of Richard's three sons, with whom he organized the Bowen Mining Company. Richard was born in England in 1839, according to the entry, and was the son of a British soldier who fought in the War of 1812 and at Waterloo.

Richard immigrated to America in 1863, where he was employed as a coal miner and mine manager. He came to Henry County in 1876, and managed Osage mines and was a member of the Tebo Mining Company before organizing his own company. There was also a town named Bowen in 1901, Beth said, that no longer exists.

From sources at the Henry County Museum, Beth learned the Bowen house has stained-glass windows imported from Bolivia in the late 1800s, and a wrought-iron fence from England, and is number 20 on the list of historic buildings in town. The house became Bowen House Interiors in 1983. In 1990, the Bowen home morphed into Tara's Teahouse and Restaurant, and in 1993, was reborn as Bloomers Flower Shop.

Beth is looking for people who want to teach art, crafts or life-skill classes at the building — perhaps pet portraits or bread-baking would be appropriate — and is also going to offer special events at the Storecade. She will have a schedule out soon, she said, listing classes and special events, which will include bouncy castles.

She also will have a life-size Jenga game to play, and invites people to come by and enjoy the shade of the front porch. Cold drinks and snacks are for sale. Pokemon tournaments or other card game are another possibility.

Beth said she frequently gets the "you are handling a lot" comment when people find out about the six businesses and six children, ages 4 to 18. How does she keep all the details of her jobs and family life straight?

"I'm a list person," Beth said.

The Storecade is located on the southwest corner of South Main and Ohio. Parking is around back.

KATHY WILSON, who organized the art auction as a different way to raise funds for the Senior Center, collected 75 pieces of art for the live auction, and 85 items for the silent auction.

spent the pandemic years serving in a large church in Kingsport, Tenn., near the Virginia border. Kingsport had the advantage of being only 20 minutes from the Bristol Motor Speedway, Pat said.

He's looking forward to going to races in Kansas City, he said. Living in Clinton also puts the Findleys close to Republic, where Pat's mother lives, and to Springfield, where his sister lives. Pat and Becca have two children, Katie, 13, and Micah, 11, whom Becca home-schools. Katie is playing soccer at Clinton Christian Academy, and Pat is a consulting coach for the team.

Easter Sunday will be a family event at First Baptist Church in Clinton, with three morning services, at 8:30, 9:45 and 11 a.m. Breakfast will be available, and there will be a photo booth where people can have their Easter photo taken, Pat said.

Pat doesn't have his diplomas up on his office wall yet, but does have a figurine of Yosemite Sam on a shelf in his office. It belonged to his father, a salesman, who had it in his office. It serves as an example, in reverse, of what everybody should be: "quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry," Pat said, quoting the book of James, Chapter 1, verse 19.

Besides liking to read, Pat has written a curriculum for a discipleship initiative called "365," a nine-month study that he wrote when he was the spiritual development director at First Baptist Church in Broken Arrow, Okla., a suburb of Tulsa. Last January, Pat was called to be the senior pastor of First Baptist Church in Clinton. It's the seventh

He leaves behind 2 sons Trenton Lewis age 17, Eric Scott Jr. age 9 from Springfield MO; his mother living in Springfield, MO and father in Kansas City MO. Eric has 3 brothers living; Michael and James Lewis from Springfield and Christopher Banks from Kansas City, MO. He also leaves behind 2 sisters from Springfield, Amber and Jessica Lewis, 13 nieces and nephews in MO, as well as a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

He will be remembered by his laugh, his charm, and the love he had for his family and friends. Eric loved God and knew God throughout his entire life, and was baptized at a youthful age with his aunt Ina Graham. His love for music was his peace and escape for all walks of his life, he will be missed by many who loved him dearly. He knew life was short and lived it the way he wanted it to be "Free" of any worries.

Eric lost his life through a mild heart attack at the age of 39. Remember him as the son, sibling, cousin, friend, and father that joked around, ate big plates, working toes, loved the ladies, and only having 2 dollars not to give. He is no longer suffering from the battles he faced but dancing the sky and preparing for a new race. So shed no tears, it's a time to celebrate as he has gone to a better place.

A Celebration of Life was held March 24, 2023 at the Vansant-Mills Chapel, Clinton, MO with Mashawn Parks officiating. Special music included "Dancing In the Sky and Awesome." The casket bearers were James Lewis, Driscoll Medlin, Brandon Goodwin, Jeffery Lewis, Anthony Gladfelder, Jeremy Parks, Marlon Certain and Trent Lewis. Michael Lewis, Eddie Baldwin and Keaston Lewis were honorary bearers. Serenity Lewis was a flower bearer. Interment followed in Antioch Cemetery, Clinton, MO.

Services were under the direction of Vansant-Mills Funeral Home of Clinton, MO.

DON MINICH

Don Minich passed away March 18, 2023 at St. Luke's Hospital in Kansas City, Missouri. Don is survived by his wife Sharon Minich, his son Gary Minich, grandson Gavin Minich, step grandsons Grant and Garret Mayse, brothers-in-law Jim Parsons, John Frankenfield, and Jim (Judy) Barnes, numerous nieces, nephews, and extended family. Don was preceded in death by his mother Anna Horn, father Charles Minich, and brother Billy Joe Minich.

Donald Ray Minich was born in La Due, Missouri on October 8, 1935, to Charles and Anna Minich. Don spent his early childhood years attending school in La Due and later attended high school at Clinton Senior High School.

Don was united in marriage with Sharon (Barnes) on June 2, 1956. They would have been married 67 years this upcoming June. The couple ultimately settled in Clinton, Missouri in 1958. Don enlisted in the U.S. Army in the fall of 1957 and began his basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri Army Garrison and then to Fort Chaffee in Fort Smith, Arkansas until 1961. Coincidentally, Elvis Presley served in the same unit at the time. However, Don and Elvis never seemed to be acquainted on a first-name basis. Following his duty, Don was active in the National Guard for 10 years.

Don was a member of the Iron Workers Local 10 for which he spent 30 years in the Iron Workers trade. He worked at many locations throughout the Midwest including the various KCP&L power plant locations in the surrounding areas. He retired from the Iron Workers in the early 1990's. Don was a Don enjoyed a passion for gardening. At the peak of his gardening years, he maintained three large garden areas which included a variety of vegetables and fruits. For years Don would grow many large plump tomatoes many of which were happily given away to family and friends. And he had many takers for those delicious tomatoes. Don and Sharon spent many autumn canning and juicing from the wonderful bounty supplied from Don's gardens.

Over the years, Don enjoyed many other outdoor passions including fishing. There were many trout fishing trips with his fishing buddies to Bennett Springs and Lake Taneycomo. There were crappie fishing trips with Sharon on their boat on Truman Lake. Don was also known to catch some very large catfish out of Truman Lake. And way back in the day, there were trips with family and friends to the old cabin on the Osage River. Don's last fishing trip to Bennett Springs was opening day, 2021 with his son Gary. Don enjoyed spending time with his son Gary and grandson Gavin in various activities around his property. Gary and Don spent countless days together on various projects. It all centered around Don's "shop", in which he spent much of his time. A large outbuilding with all the tools and comforts, decked with antiques Don loved to collect, it was Don's true sanctuary. Don was known to start his day very early in the morning and in the winter months he would have the wood stacked and a fire stoked in the shop wood stove by 4:00 AM.

First Baptist

On Sunday, Pastor Pat Findley continued in the Experiencing God series with a message titled, 'The Map, The Compass, and The Guide'. In this message, Pastor Pat described 4 truths to remember when we think about how God speaks. First, the Bible is a God-breathed book written by 40 different people, guided by the Spirit, over a period of 1500 years and in 3 different continents. All of this to come together to tell one great story and to give us salvation! Second, God's Word is like a map. If you want to hear God speak, read your Bible! Third, God's Word is like a compass, preparing us for decision-making in life. God wants us to have faith and to depend on Him, knowing Him and His great love for us. Finally, God's Spirit is our Guide. What could be better than Jesus beside us? Jesus with us! And through the Holy Spirit, He is always with us.

Disaster Relief training will be held April 14-15 at First Baptist Church. Registration is available online at modr.org/dr-training. As we draw nearer to Easter walk in a new life with Christ. Jesus had every confidence in life after death as He said "I am the resurrection and the life." Let your faith be strengthened by the mighty acts of Jesus. Take courage and confidence in the power of our God to overcome your fears. He is our hope.

We are continuing the collection of deodorant for the Samaritan Center. These donations will accumulate throughout the months of March and April. Your gifts may be placed on the shelves in the foyer.

Colorful hand braided jump ropes numbering 112 are on display in our foyer. What an excellent way to use old t-shirts! These will soon be delivered for use in Samaritan's Purse Christmas Cheer boxes this winter. On April 30th volunteers will gather at 1:30 pm in Fellowship Hall for a "Pin & Pack" Day preparing the personal hygiene items for shipment and delivery. Over 350 items were assembled and sewn for the "Girls in Africa" project. Both of these mission projects are ways we connect with our world spreading the love of our Lord through our efforts.

On Easter Sunday the sanctuary will be decorated with a display of beautiful spring flowers. If you would like to make a monetary donation in honor or memory of a loved one, toward the purchase of these flowers, you may send it to the church office at 220 E. Franklin Street, Clinton, MO 64735. "Who Then Can Be Saved"

God knew when he dealt with Adam what the year 2023 would be like. He knew what each year in the future would be like, and he knows what Revelations will bring.

As saints of God, we can't allow Satan to get involved in our journey into heaven. Satan is working the churches. As Christians, we have to be strong to see past that.

Mark 12:28-31. (KJV)
The devil deceives people into believing it is easy to get into heaven. People believe all they have to do is believe in God and that will get you into heaven.

Luke 10:25-26. (KJV)
It is important to read God's word and understand it. We can't pick and choose the parts that we like. We must know all of what God's word says. Furthermore, we must live according to his word. When we have the Holy Ghost, he will guide us in all truth.

When Jesus spoke about it being hard for a rich man to enter heaven. He did not say a rich man couldn't or wouldn't enter heaven. Job was a rich man, so was Abraham.

Luk 10:27-28. (KJV)

The Lord says to show mercy to others. It doesn't have to be someone you know. If we love the Lord with all our hearts them we must be doers of his word.

When God said the first should be last and the last, first. He was saying those who accepted him, the harlot and publican, were considered the least, but they believed in him and accepted him.

The Jews were God's chosen people, but refused to believe. The gentiles also chose to believe. The last, shall be first. The first, last. He will give his the Jews a second chance.

Luk 13:24 Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able. (KJV)

Strait: means difficult. Many people start off serving God, then fall into iniquity. If you don't stay with God, will not make it into heaven. He is coming back for a church without spot or wrinkle. You cannot enter heaven with sin on you.

God Bless.

While traveling with the disciples, Jesus learned that his friend Lazarus was ill. When Jesus reached Lazarus's hometown, he found Mary and Martha, Lazarus's sisters. They gave him the sad news that their brother had died. Jesus wept.

The story reveals that God's love and power were clearly shown when Jesus commanded Lazarus to "come out". After days of being dead, Jesus lifted Lazarus from the grave and was alive again. Mary and Martha, along with the small group of people that were there, saw the powerful love that Jesus had for Lazarus.

Today we are reminded that the power and love of God is endless and has no boundaries. Jesus says for us to "come out" We may be stifling ourselves by something in our lives that limits us as individuals and stifles our growth.

Jesus says, "I am the life and the resurrection. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die." When we have faith in God, we need to say it, believe it and embrace it. This wonderful life story of Christ's unending love and his offer of our salvation should be shared, over and over.

St. Paul's Episcopal

St. Paul's will have a congregational reading of the Passion Story at the Palm Sunday service as we begin our journey with Jesus to the cross on Good Friday. Palm branches will be distributed. The resurrection of Jesus will be celebrated on Easter Sunday.

Both services will be conducted by the Reverend Mike Kyle from Sedalia at 10 AM on April 2, Palm Sunday, and April 9, Easter Sunday. St. Paul's is a small congregation with a true family feeling. Everyone is seen as a precious child of God. We hope anyone interested in worshiping on these special days will feel welcome to join us.

St. Paul's is located at 1837 East Highway 7, 2 miles past Walmart.

Blessings warmed our hearts on this cool day as we gathered to worship the Lord. Clint Keeney rang the church bell. Mrs. Julia Klinefelter led in the congregational singing with Mrs. Dixie Collins playing piano. We rejoiced with Brenda Richeson and Daryl Soan on their birthdays. Randy Vogt and Clint Keeney collected the offering.

The scripture passage from Pastor Chad Pollett's sermon was from John 7:14-24. In this passage Jesus went to the Feast of the Tabernacles halfway through to teach. The crowd was attacking His teaching because of His ordinary background. Jesus told them that if they chose to do God's will they would understand that His teaching comes from God. Anyone who speaks on their own does so to honor themselves, not God. Jesus urged them to make the right judgment. In the world we live in today, we must discern who to follow by following the truth of the Gospel in the Bible. Be blessed by sharing the truth in love, kindness and respect to all we meet.

The plaques that list the past presidents of the Chamber and the Ag Person of the Year have been in a hallway at the Chamber for a number of years. Not a lot of visitors use that hallway, and it's not real well lit, so these names are now in the lobby for all to see. Chamber presidents began in Clinton in 1941 and ag person of the year began in 1974. Stop by and take a look sometime.

Businesses, groups, clubs, churches, organizations, couples and individuals can, and have in the past, be sponsors of Academic Excellence! March, 2023 Dear Friends of Education:

The Society for Academic Excellence invites students who have achieved a 3.5 or higher grade point average during this school year to be recognized. Last year, 257 students were honored, including 26 graduating seniors who maintained a 3.5 GPA each year throughout high school. In addition, four seniors from Clinton High School and one senior from Clinton Christian Academy received $500 scholarships. We invite you to join other individuals and businesses in the Clinton area to help honor the scholastic achievements of Clinton High School and Clinton Christian Academy students.

This year marks the 35th anniversary of the Academic Excellence Program, all because of our supportive community which has taken an interest in education for the youth within our school district. Our program this year will be focused on providing a quality experience for our students and an opportunity for the graduating seniors to be recognized with scholarships to encourage furthering their education.

The consistent support of the program from sponsors like you have allowed the Society to provide this recognition for our top performing students and their families. Your contribution of $50.00 as a Silver Sponsor or $100.00 as a Gold Sponsor will benefit the students as they receive their official Academic Excellence medals and ribbons. For your support, you will receive the following:

- 1. Recognition in the Academic Excellence Ceremony that will be held this spring
2. Listing as a Silver or Gold sponsor in an ad the Chamber purchases in the Clinton Daily Democrat
3. Either a walnut plaque as a first-year sponsor or a 2023 date plate as a returning sponsor
4. Satisfaction from supporting our youth in Academic Excellence as a partner in education

Also, many continuing sponsors may need a new plaque for additional year bars. Let the office know when you send your sponsorship. Please make your checks payable to Greater Clinton Area Chamber of Commerce with a memo for Society for Academic Excellence. Checks can be mailed or delivered to the Depot, 200 South Main, Clinton, MO 64735. Please respond by April 21.

Thank you for your consideration and support of our youth and education.

Help Save The Dorman House. Nickolas Smith and Suzanne Bush are organizing this fundraiser to benefit Henry County Historical Society. Built in 1852, the Dorman House is currently the oldest standing two-story home in Clinton and listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1983. The home remained in the Dorman family for over 150 years but fell into disrepair as fortunes dwindled. Clinton Main Street purchased the home in 1996 from the Dorman family and spent six years restoring the house using volunteer labor. Clinton Main Street utilized the home as its office until 2008 when it was deeded to the Henry County Historical Society. While the historical society has kept up with minor maintenance over the years, larger issues with the structure have become more apparent. The east side of the home exhibits minor cracking and separation — and after many severe rain showers for several years in a row — the house has developed a serious foundation and wall issues. The Henry County Historical Society needs to take immediate action to prevent further damage and possible loss of the Dorman House. It is hoped that listing as a Place in Peril will raise awareness for the Save the Dorman capital improvement campaign and help the historical society find the expertise needed to guide them through the creation of a historic structures report and the proper restoration of this Clinton landmark.

LOOKING BACK

with Guest Sports Reporter TIM KOMER

Looking Back
Where are they now?
Scott Arthur Eberling

I love learning about the career paths of people, I always have. I recently read a book about Ulysses S. Grant. His career path is very interesting. Of course, it ended well, but he had a tough go of it for a long time. He was 'pushed' out of the Army in 1854, but reluctantly returned in 1861, (the beginning of the Civil War). A hometown friend pushed for Grant's quick military promotions, Lincoln was later impressed, and eight years later Grant was President. Wow.

Our very own Harry Truman wasn't happy with his early career choices. He hated farming and his clothing store failed. He once quipped, "If I had not become President I might have become a piano player in a '&%#' house." He was a serious piano player.

I have shared before that I became a teacher because the UCM (CMSC at the time) Dean of Men thought I was a little too 'rebellious' to be one of their math department's grad assistants. (A lot of young people were 'rebellious' in the '60s.) The rejection was hurtful at the time. Financially broke, I frantically started looking for a teaching job. Of course, I would like to thank the Dean now. That forced path change ended up being a good one for me.

I recently learned about a 2010 CHS alumnus, Scott Eberling. He has had some interesting career experiences. He made a big career decision last spring. Scott was a well-known student-athlete. During high school, he was the soccer goalie, did track and field, and played basketball. I remember him well, making great save after great save on the soccer field. He was a big part of CHS soccer becoming competitive. You know he had to be a determined young man because he also became an Eagle Scout. When asked about some school memories he said, "I enjoyed English class with Mrs. Sadler, because I've always been a storyteller and enjoyed having her book choices to focus on. Steve Ritter and Shawn Hutchinson showed me how to develop as a leader in soccer and in school. I had many teachers and

1) What was the team record goal for this upcoming season?

TC-The goal this year is to take a five man team to state. We have some fantastic golfers, with two of them being able to place in the top 10 if not.

2) What do you do outside of practice to further build relationships with team members?

TC-Being that I love to golf, we will golf on the weekends, it helps them get over being nervous and it is a great way to spend your day.

3) How often do you practice and how long is that said practice?

TC-We typically practice 5 days a week for about 1 1/2 to 2 hours, I try to divide practice up into sections, Putting, Bunker work, chipping, and then form 100-150 yards out.

4) What do you have to say about your coaching staff?

TC-I don't have one

5) How do you motivate your team as a whole or a member that is feeling down about a tournament coaches that were good role models."

Scott attended Missouri Valley and Pitt State as his 'Media Arts' path unfolded. I asked Scott about his film work. "Regarding film work I have spent time producing and directing short films and videos mostly focusing on sports, music videos, and promotional videos with some short fiction and experimental film. I've also made films at grad school at the University of Montana and Colorado. I also had international experience in Costa Rica. My future endeavors are to keep creating documentaries to inspire travel and people to have new experiences and hobbies."

Like most career paths, a jog in the road found Scott working as a cook at the Glacier National Park in 2013, and as a guide at other NPs. Soon after he got his Master of Fine Arts (MFA) in media arts in Montana. It does not take long to realize Scott has an adventurous side.

Then in April 2022, Scott made a big decision and joined the Space Force. (If you are like me, you know very little about our newest armed forces branch.) The U.S. Space Force was established on Dec. 20, 2019, when the National Defense Authorization Act was signed into law, creating the first new branch of the armed services in 73 years. Space Force was added to: Army, Marines, Navy, Air Force, and Coast Guard. Scott's job is in electromagnetic warfare which focuses on detecting, characterizing, and monitoring satellite signals on the electromagnetic spectrum around the world. (OK, I am not sure what that actually is, but I did not think I should ask too many questions, either.) Scott did offer, "My job is technically space systems operations, with electromagnetic warfare as one of the three disciplines within SSO that you get to apply for." Scott feels there is a strong chance the Space Force will be a long-term career move. He could eventually become a commission officer. He obviously has an interesting career path.

When I talk to young people about their future, I remind them that career paths are often a winding road and sometimes a bumpy road, and that is OK. Of my four children only one ended up working in the field they trained for. So, young and old, keep learning, stay flexible, and enjoy the ride. Thanks for sharing Scott, keep us safe and have fun. To all, feel free to refer a friend for "Where are they now?" Until next time.

TC-This happens a lot, Golfers will make a bad shot and get really upset with themselves over it. They don't want to let their team down and they also know they can do better than that, it's all about having them buckle down and play the golf they can play. Each player is different, some need a lot of guidance and others just need to hear words of encouragement.

6) Would you rather play a tournament at home or away? WHY?

TC-I would rather play at other courses. It exposes our golfers to different challenges, I think we get comfortable when we play one course a lot. I like to get out and challenge each player and their abilities. This will help them in life and their game.

7) How do you plan get your team reset after losing a tournament?

TC-I don't plan on losing this year!!! We have a great team with some really experienced players. I have several developmental players that will fill in when the Seniors graduate. This is a team that has tremendous potential, I just hope I am up to the task of getting them there.

8) As a coach what is your favorite part about the job?

TC-The pure enjoyment of watching them succeed, the interaction with others who are just as passionate about the game of golf as I am.

Fifth annual Marriage & Family event to be held at Trinity Lutheran- Cole Camp

A Marriage and Family Conference that honors the Biblical institution of marriage will be held again at Trinity Lutheran Church at 104 Butterfield Trail, Cole Camp, on April 21-22. This is the fifth year for the conference.

The event, which this year is themed "Christian Spiritual Life in the Family & Congregation," will begin on Friday with registration at 5:45 p.m. Saturday's program starts at 8:00 a.m.

This free workshop is sponsored by the Lutheran Church--Missouri Synod congregations of the Cole Camp Regional Ministry (Holy Cross, Mt. Hulda, St. John, and Trinity) and the Sedalia Circuit which extends to the communities of Camdenton and Versailles, to Warsaw, Appleton City, and Sedalia. The conference, which is available to everyone, aims to grow appreciation for God's gift of marriage and the family and for participants to return home encouraged and better equipped to lead faithful lives. Husbands, wives, parents, children, widows, and all single persons are invited.

No participation fee is required for this event, but a free-will offering will be collected during the services. Registration is encouraged by April 9 to assist conference preparation. Visit www.marriage-familyconference.org or call 660-668-2364, Ext. 3 to register and to learn additional details about the conference.

The featured speaker for this year's conference is Rev. Dr. Gifford Grobien, Assistant Provost, Director of the Doctor of Ministry Program, and Associate Professor of Systematic Theology at Concordia Theological Seminary in Ft. Wayne, IN. He typically teaches courses in theological ethics, the Lutheran Confessions, and dogmatics.

Angler's Pro Seminar Adds Ride N'Go

BY KEITH JACKSON
Staff Reporter

After a winter of short days and long nights, most fishermen are ready for spring, or at least ready for spring weather. For those not ready, Angler's Port Marine is holding a seminar on Humminbird electronics and Minn Kota trolling motors on April 8th at the shop on Highway 7.

The seminar will cover Humminbird products and how to use them, as well as information on Humminbird's One Boat Network, a system that allows anglers to control the Minn Kota trolling motor, shallow-water Talon anchor and Cannon downriggers from the Humminbird sonar chartplotter. The One Boat system allows the angler to direct the trolling motor along a path or to a specific point. It also can direct the trolling motor to hold the boat in a specific position in relation to the bottom. It directs the Talon anchoring system to deploy its anchoring arms to keep the boat in position or to retract them, freeing the boat to move.

In the Humminbird

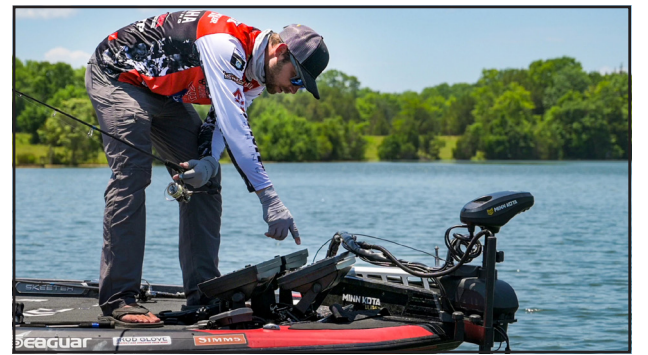

seminar at Angler's Port Marine this past November, J.E. Van Natta, company rep for the area, talked about the Mega imaging system and its potential. For those fishermen who are not conversant in the Mega Live system, it uses transducers to shoot sonar beams ahead, to the side of the boat as well as directly below or in all directions at once.

With practice, the fisherman will be able to detect fish, establish the depth at which the fish is holding and the direction and distance to the fish. Finely tuned, the Mega Live Imaging system can follow the angler's lure as it descends toward the fish and enables the fisherman to judge the fish's reaction to the lure, assuming, of course, that the fish doesn't strike the lure. The seminar, held at the Angler's Port Marine building on Highway 7, starts at 10 am. Registration is necessary although the event is free. Donuts and coffee are served before the seminar, and a burger and hotdog lunch is served afterwards.

The seminar is followed by two events at the Sterret Creek Marina at 18174 Marina Road, Warsaw, on Truman Lake. The first is an event for Humminbird owners. Humminbird staff will go out on anglers' boats and train the owners on how to get the best out of their Humminbird and Minn Kota units.

The second is a Ride N'Go event featuring APM's 2023 boats and pontoons. If you want to run a certain model, you need to call Amber Becker at 660-438-4600 or by email at abecker@anglersportmarine.com.

Clinton Rotary Club Sponsors Annual Connie Austin Cake Auction

A special thank you to Andy Cummings for offering his auctioneering services.

Several of the Henry County Memory Fund committee members stop for a picture at the auction.

Special thank you to all those that made and donated a cake for the event.

The Henry County Memory Fund Committee would like to say a huge thank you to the Clinton Rotary Club for continuing to host the Annual Connie Austin Cake Auction. Each year the Rotarians host this event in memory of Connie because she was a leading factor in starting the event and having the proceeds benefit the Henry County Memory Fund. Because of the generous donations of the rotarians a total of $1,510 was raised in support of our efforts to assist those affected by Alzheimer's and dementia.

Henry County Memory Fund was founded to help people with Alzheimer's and/or dementia and their caregivers pay for items such as prescriptions, durable medical equipment, respite care, transportation, and housing assistance, payable to vendors only. At the end of the year, a donation of up to 10% of the funds raised will be donated for research for Alzheimer's and dementia to continue in the fight for a cure.

The Henry County Memory Fund will be hosting our Annual Big Purple Party on May 6, 2023, at Hawthorn Bank's parking lot at Old Country Club Park with registration beginning at 9:00 am followed by the ceremony at 9:30 am. Please join us by participating in The Big Purple Party where we will recognize, remember, and honor those affected by Alzheimer's disease and dementia.

Applications are available if you or someone you know needs assistance. Please contact hcmemoryfund@gmail.com, Christa Atchison 660-525-1338 or Ranae Walrath at GVMH at 660-890-7294 for applications or questions.

Are you interested in supporting this worthy cause? Donations can be made online at <http://cfzarks.org/donate>, at the bottom of the page, type Henry County Memory fund into the box and select it when it pops up. UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL MISSOURI Partners with Acadeum to Expand Access

University of Central Missouri students who are seeking access to high-demand courses now have expanded options thanks to a new partnership with Acadeum. Acadeum is a national organization that has established a student-centered course-sharing model in collaboration with approximately 460 higher education institutions to help individuals seeking a degree or credential.

Within this network, colleges and universities identify online courses which have empty seats so that students at Acadeum partner universities will be able to access them. This is especially helpful for those students who may need a course but are unable to enroll on their home campus because the class is either not offered when they need it or seats are already at capacity. The online courses made possible through the Acadeum cooperative

Seeking Main Street Committee and Activitie Members

NEW MAIN STREET Director Amanda Johnson is busy acclimating to her new role. She reported to the council (March 7) that she was actively seeking younger members and volunteers for Main Street committees and activities.

BY LUKE EDWARDS
Staff Reporter

The Clinton City Council met in open session March 21 at City Hall. Absent were Council Persons Debbie Smith, Cameron Jackson and Becky Raysik. Following roll call and the saying of the Pledge of Allegiance, the motion to accept the previous council minutes was approved.

Clintonians Patty Harmon and Dedee Woods spoke to the council during the Personal Appearance portion. Both have spoken to the council before about matters on Lincoln Street where they live. "We are here again," said Woods. "Now there is a generator problem plus the old problems." Both Woods and Harmon expressed that since their previous complaints to the council, activity at the alleged abandoned home on Lincoln Street had increased to now include the running of a loud generator at all hours of the night and also loud trucks. Both reported there was an increase in traffic to and from an out-building on the property as well. It was reported the police were called multiple times – and that tickets have been issued, but the women are, at this point, frustrated. "Police were called ten times and ten tickets were issued," said Patty Harmon.

"Ma'am, you are doing everything possible," said Mayor Carla Moberly. It is now up to the courts," Moberly said she had sat in on the last court appearance involving the person in question. Harmon and Woods both said they had called Clinton PD when they thought a resolution was not forthcoming as fast as they hoped: "I talked to Officer Nepple," said Harmon. "He was understanding and nice," said Harmon. He, too, told her the matter would need to play out in court at this point.

The Clinton Main Street report was given by new director Amanda Johnson. Johnson said she had attended two workshops – one on downtown housing and the other on marketing for downtown areas. She reported she will be going to a Main Street conference in Boston soon, too. Her end-of-year report included the information that eight businesses had started or re-located to downtown last year which had created eleven new jobs. She reported that there had been 1,436 volunteer hours as well. The vacancy rate for downtown is down to 3%.

Director Johnson said she is working with the Henry County Museum and help raise awareness for the "Save the Dorman House" campaign. The Dorman Home, Clinton's first two-story home (and now over 160 years old) is suffering from structural issues.

Johnson concluded her report by saying she was trying to get accustomed to, and breath new life into, many of the Main Street committees. "The goal is to educate people on what we [Main Street] is doing and recruit more young people." She emphasized the need to re-build the organizational committee – especially since the passing of Cheryl Craig, who headed that particular committee.

The Clinton City Council approved the second reading of Bill No. 2023-06 (Fire Protection Grant).

The Public Works Committee report was given by Councilman Roger House in lieu of Councilman Jackson's absence. The first item on that agenda was the dates for City-Wide Clean Up. At the recommendation of the Public Works committee, the motion to hold the Transfer Station City Wide Clean-up dates to be April 24 – 29 was approved.

It was reported the metal roof for the Artesian Pool House is to be delivered this week and the concrete portion has been poured. CJW flew a drone over the lot/area and collected elevation and size data for later use. In short, progress on the Artesian outdoor pool is progressing: "It no longer looks like a Pizza Hut," said Councilman House.

Currently, bid specs are being put together for an Aquatic Center boiler building (recall equipment damage is occurring because of excessive moisture) and the only delay for work starting at Hurt Park (by Westport Construction) is some good weather.

There have been a number of inquiries about painting/stripping the tennis courts at Artesian to accommodate pickleball as well. It was also reported that the registration for the Youth Sports Program will change to accept individuals only. Apparently, the process is not equal when outside/out-of-town travel teams register and Parks and Rec would like it to be uniform for those teams in town as well as not.

At the waste water plant, a date is being sought to bypass the pumping so that an update/repair can be made. And, from here on out, there will be no reports from the Sewershed Surveillance project (concerning viral materials in the sewer system) unless there is a significant change.

A work order has been placed to install monitoring devices for several of the pump stations and parts for the upper-level pump at the plant are to be shipped by April 11. The permit renewal for the plant is currently being put together; also, Alliance Water Resource is working to find some solutions for the staffing issues at the plant because of the recent loss of Dan Shearer.

The first readings of Bills Nos. 2023-07 and 08 were held – both concern conditional use permits for properties at 114 and 116 South Main (on the square). Councilman House concluded his report by noting that there were concerns from an individual about trash, speeding, vehicles on properties, and the walking lane along Second Street. The problems reported were referred to the appropriate departments and/or committees to take a look at.

The Public Safety report was given by Councilman Gene Henry. After clarifying discussion about the availability and potential costs of future police car purchases, the council approved a motion to order the purchase of two new vehicles. The move should save money and also take advantage of the soon to be limited availability of the specific model of vehicle Clinton PD uses.

The first and second readings of Bills No. 2023-09 and 2023-10, both pertaining to Clinton Fire Department grant awards, were held. The rules were suspended as the deadline for approval for both is April 8.

The council regretfully accepted the resignation of Clinton Police Officer Chad Nepple (who has been with the department for 18 years), who took a position elsewhere.

The Finance Committee report was given by Councilman Daniel Wilson. The council accepted the high bid of $3,001 for the purchase of the surplus mower Parks and Rec had. He reported the new financial software system the city will be using is still in the early stages of implementation – and warned that it will take some time to implement all the changes. He also reported that the City Clerk, Wendee Seaton, was presented an award during the Finance Officer Annual Training Conference. Councilman Wilson said she had done a wonderful job furthering her training in her work for the city.

Mayor Carla Moberly commented that many things were going well for the city: grant awards for both the fire department and police department were positive signs and she expressed her appreciation of City Clerk Wendee Seaton for adding so much professional development above and beyond her normal working hours.

City Administrator Christy Maggi reported that roof repairs at City Hall will begin in April and also repairs at the community center will start soon, too.

Before adjourning, Councilman Gene Henry added that the Clinton Police department does have one officer in training and a cadet candidate (pending approval) who is slated to start the police academy in July.

The Clinton City Council adjourned at 6:41 PM.

Performance Series Brings International Roster of Artists

PUPPET THEATER: As part of the OVATION Performance Series, Warrensburg elementary school students in grades second and third will be treated to a performance by What If? Puppet Theater (formerly Mesner Puppet Theater) April 5-6.

The University of Central Missouri OVATION Performance Series has announced five performing arts events for the spring 2023 season. OVATION is a curated selection of world-class dancers, musicians, and theatre performers who will bring exceptional high-energy artistry to West-Central Missouri.

The series opens at 7 p.m. Tuesday, March 28 in Hendricks Hall with a performance by internationally renowned tap dancers Ana Tomiوشي and Gerson Lanza, performing with jazz pianist James Fernando, and musicians from UCM Music. Tomiوشي, a Brazilian native, and Lanza, from Honduras, will showcase a unique integration of African-inspired tap dance and jazz music. Masterclasses for UCM students as well as dance students from Warrensburg's Center Stage Academy will provide developing dancers with a unique learning opportunity.

Commenting on this opening event, Ashley Miller-Scully, chair of UCM Theatre and Dance, noted, "What a wonderful opportunity and experience it is to have professional tap dancers visit our campus, teach master classes to our students, and perform their talents for our university and community. Live tap dancing to live music is such a rare and special event and it's one not to be missed. I guarantee the audience is going to love it."

OVATION continues Wednesday and Thursday, April 5-6 with second and third graders from Warrensburg elementary schools being treated to a private performance by the What If? Puppet Theater (formerly known as the Mesner Puppet Theater). The company celebrates the arts as essential for early childhood development while continuing its longstanding reputation as a leader in the field of puppetry.

Internationally renowned percussionist Yun Ju Pan will perform at 7 p.m. Monday, April 17 in Hart Recital Hall. Her solo performance career has taken her to every continent, and she is rapidly becoming known as a master educator in the field of percussion performance and teaching. While visiting Missouri, she will be a featured clinician at the Missouri Day of Percussion and will work with UCM Percussion students. Dr. Pan is currently the Director of Administration and International Arts at the Taiwan Percussion Arts Alliance, and the Founder and Director of P Play Percussion Group in Taiwan.

The Elliott Student Union auditorium stage comes to life Thursday, April 20 with a performance by the Africana Fefeworwor Dance Ensemble (AFDE). Founded in 1991, AFDE is one of Ghana's foremost cultural groups, dedicated to preserving and celebrating diverse cultural traditions of music and dance in Ghana and greater Western Africa. AFDE has a focus on fostering musical and dancing talent among the less fortunate and encouraging connectedness across their communities, which is shown among its members, ranging from 4 to 6 years old.

The OVATION series concludes on Friday, April 21 with a performance by the Charged Particles jazz trio and saxophonist Tod Dickow at 7 p.m. in Hart Recital Hall. Celebrating their 30th anniversary performing, Charged Particles features three virtuosos from the U.S. playing jazz while crossing stylistic boundaries and blending diverse traditions to create new sounds. The trio's repertoire blends jazz with elements of Latin music, funk, classical music, and other genres. The band brings a similar approach to playing arrangements of tunes by other jazz artists and traditional jazz standards by the composers of America's most popular songs from decades ago, each played with a new twist.

Are you itching to get outside, breathe in the fresh air and feel the comfort and joy of working in the soil that has been prepared for gardening? If you're yearning to grow flowers or vegetables but are short on space or have limited mobility, give container gardening and/or raised bed gardening a try. Container gardening allows for creativity in a small space and, since plants can be moved inside in the spring and fall, lets gardeners extend the growing season. Also, container and raised bed gardens are less prone to disease and insect infestation than traditional gardens. University of MO Extension Agronomist, Terry Halleran, is offering a workshop at the St. Clair County Library in Osceola Thursday, April 6 from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. to answer questions about container and raised bed gardening. Some of the workshop topics include choosing the right kind of container, what types of plants work best in container gardening, and benefits of container and raised bed gardening. To register for the class contact the MU Extension St. Clair County office at (417) 646-2419 or send an email to stclairco@missouri.edu. Cost of the class is $10.00. Registration is due by 4:00 p.m. on Wednesday, April 5. Contact us immediately if you need accommodations because of a disability, need to relay emergency medical information or need special arrangements if the building is evacuated. The office is located just inside the west door on the 1st floor of the Courthouse.

The Shepherd Calls by Dr. H. Wade Paris

PHILOS, IT'S A GOD THING

In 1985 I performed the wedding for a lovely young couple. Through the years, we have stayed connected. Thirty years later, I was privileged to have lunch with them in their home along with one of their grown children and two mutual friends. It was a delightful experience. I was blessed.

All too often pastor-parishioner relationships are brief. Sometimes it is intentionally so; there is no reason or desire to continue. At other times, the event demands brevity like encounters in a reception line. Circumstances may demand that people move on to other places and other things. And, of course, death often shortens the relationship; for instance, the wife mentioned earlier passed away several years ago.

Given the brevity of these experiences, it is common for pastors to wonder if they have accomplished anything. An architect can point to a building and say, "That's my work." A surgeon can see a healed patient and be proud of what he/she accomplished. Ministers must often just hope and pray they have done some good.

Occasionally, like the lunch mentioned earlier, you get a chance to spend meaningful time with past parishioners. That is always pleasant; and you realize that quietly, invisibly your friendship has grown. As I sat at their table, we recounted old stories that we all knew and new tales to bring us up to date. I was proud to have had a small part in bringing this couple's lives together and thankful to have been a tiny blessing in their lives.

Mart De Haan tells the story of two girls who became international friends, Nadia of Bulgaria and Millicent of the United States. Though separated by many miles, they kept in touch. Then, political upheaval prevented all their communication. After 48 years and political changes, they were finally able to meet at Miami International Airport where Millicent exclaimed, "Nadia! I would know you anywhere."

One thing that intrigues me about experiences like this and my luncheon experience is how the heart grows fonder without our knowing it. The Greek language, the language of the New Testament, has a word that describes this invisible growth of friendship. The word is philos, meaning love of or for a friend, brotherly love.

It's a good thing. It's a God thing. "A friend loves like a brother." (Proverbs 18:24)

NARCONON New Life Retreat Drug and Alcohol Rehabilitation and Education

Xylazine is a veterinary tranquilizer that is not approved for human use. It also goes by the names "tranq," "tranq dope," and "zombie drug." Xylazine is becoming a issue because it is being "cut" or diluted with other chemicals in street drugs to increase profit. Xylazine is worrying because it causes dangerous wounds that spread and worsen quickly. These wounds can happen no matter how the drug is used. These wounds have been found in people that are snorting, injecting, or smoking, and it is critical to get medical attention because it is very difficult for these wounds to heal on their own. The wounds are painful, but even worse, if they go untreated, it can lead to amputation because of a scaly dead tissue called eschar. In Philadelphia, 90% of the dope samples they tested returned positive for having Xylazine. Xylazine is a non-opioid tranquilizer now linked to fentanyl overdose deaths. When someone is overdosing on Fentanyl, Naloxone is administered. When Xylazine plays a factor in the overdose, because it is a non-opioid tranquilizer the narcotic reversal does not impact Xylazine that depresses a persons breathing. This is causing Naloxone to become less effective and the number of overdoses to increase. Recently the FDA has restricted the import of Xylazine due to the increase in it being found in fentanyl and heroin. It is being realized that all manner of street drugs are being being laced with it for profit increase. The problem is that Xylazine's prevalence in drugs is truly unknown because many hospitals don't test for it.

Some signs of withdrawal are:

- Double Vision
- numbness in fingers and toes
- double vision
- nausea
- Sweats
- body rattling anxiety

Xylazine is destroying people and adding to the overdose rates. It is so new there are many unknowns when using it. If you or a loved one are using drugs and suspect Xylazine is laced in them, don't wait; get help before it's too late.

If you or a loved one are struggling with addiction, reach out for help before it's too late. We help people all over the US find treatment and end the web that traps someone in addiction.

UCM OVATION Series Opens 2023 season with Tap Dancers

The University of Central Missouri OVATION Performance Series opens its 2023 season at 7 p.m. Tuesday, March 28 with "Swing Into Spring" - a show featuring nationally renowned tap dancers Ana Tomiooshi and Gerson Lanza performing with jazz pianist James Fernando. They will be joined for the performance in Hendricks Hall by musicians from UCM Music featuring interactive and improvisational choreography of African inspired tap dance and jazz music.

Commenting on the show, Ashley Miller-Scully, chair of UCM Theatre and Dance, noted, "What a wonderful opportunity and experience it is to have professional tap dancers visit our campus, teach master classes to our students, and perform their talents for our university and community. Live tap dancing to live music is such a rare and special event and it's one not to be missed. I guarantee the audience is going to love it."

Ana Tomiooshi is a Brazilian multi-style performing artist, choreographer and instructor, currently based in Washington D.C. One of today's most popular dancers in Brazil, Tomiooshi is an alumna of The School at Jacob's Pillow's tap program and has performed at The Kennedy Center, São Paulo Municipal Theater, Battery Dance Festival, The Yard and Rock in Rio Music Festival. Ana also dances with Sole Defined Dance Company, directed by Quynn and Ryan Johnson, and is part of the Metropolitan School of the Arts faculty. Most recently, Tomiooshi was in the dance film "Rhythm Is Our Business," a tap dance project commissioned by the Kennedy Center, that celebrated the impact of female master dancers of color while furthering the conversation of the next evolution of tap dance.

Originally from La Ceiba, Honduras, Gerson Lanza is an Afro Honduran tap dancer interested in sharing the African diaspora across Latin America through the lens of percussive dance. His heritage is Garifuna - a mix of African and indigenous Caribbean people, whose art is percussive and rhythmic in song and dance. After moving to New York City in 2001 and training at Harlem School of the Arts, he has since taught and performed across the U.S. and internationally including in Brazil, Poland, Finland, Norway, Sweden, Spain. Highlights include a three-month European tour with the Cotton Club Show, in which he was featured as a soloist, and dancing with Jason Samuels Smith, Josh Johnson, and Leonardo Sandoval, among many others.

In addition to the show, Tomiooshi and Lanza will be hosting a master class for advanced tap students at Center Stage Academy and another for UCM Theatre and Dance students.

Admission for the performance is free, and no tickets are required. All performances in the OVATION series are free, and the series benefits from generous support made possible by the Missouri Arts Council and the UCM College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences. still count toward GPA, financial aid, and graduation requirements. This seamless course-sharing experience helps ensure students don't waste valuable time earning the academic credentials they need to launch their professional careers.

"Acadeum is a great platform for course sharing that helps with student progress and completion," said Heather McGrath, UCM registrar. "Under the program, a student is enrolled at UCM and we help facilitate working with the consortium to allow them to take a course at another (Acadeum) institution."

McGrath said the initiative is an innovative tool for ensuring that students persist on their education pathway by eliminating potential delays, if a course isn't available. It also allows smaller universities to benefit from economies of scale, providing students access to courses that may be of interest that are not offered at their home institution, while also helping to build relationships between community colleges and four-year institutions.

According to Acadeum's website, course sharing has grown in recent years between higher education institutions, systems, and associations. This course-sharing platform has helped more than 26,000 students access courses to allow them to continue on the path of success in meeting their education goals.

UCM students who want to take advantage of course offerings through Acadeum will begin enrolling for summer and fall 2023 on March 29, with the assistance of their academic success advisor. Additional information can be obtained by contacting the Office of the Registrar at registrar@ucmo.edu or by checking out UCM's Acadeum website.

The following is from their website: When customers make their purchases online, Amazon's people, technology, and operations work together to fulfill their orders. The items are packed at fulfillment centers and then sent to delivery stations. At the delivery stations, packages are prepared to be loaded into delivery vehicles, which is where you come in. Each morning, you'll lead your team of delivery associates as they load packages into their vehicles and deliver them to customers' homes and businesses. For our Chamber businesses: For the past eight years, the Center for Human Services (CHS) Employment Services has been a proud provider of the Summer Work Experience (SWE) program in collaboration with Missouri Vocational Rehabilitation. This program was designed to give early employment experiences to incoming high school juniors and seniors with a documented disability, IEP or 504 Plan. Over the course of six weeks, the students are provided with the opportunity to learn a variety of job skills while working at businesses like yours. The students will be paid employees of the CHS, your only responsibility is to provide jobs/positions for them to complete. An important part of this program is that the students have a real work experience. Each group of students (in groups no larger than seven) will be accompanied by a CHS job coach who will be in direct oversight of all the participating students while working for you. Please respond back to David or Joyce at 660-885-8166.
