Artesian Park Pool Opens After Magnificent Makeover

BY LUKE EDWARDS
Staff Reporter

The Artesian Park outdoor pool officially reopened July 22 after being closed for remodeling. The project, which because of construction supply and weather delays has taken a little longer than expected, but Clintonians will be glad nonetheless that it is open.

The opening comes on the heels of Clinton hosting an impromptu swim meet the weekend before and will open just time for the swim team to host finals for five area teams and be ready afterwards for kids of all ages to take a dip in the pool just for fun.

The project was funded by a voter approved 1/8 cent limited (5-year) tax which includes new designs for the pool house, restrooms and family area as well as a new concession spot. The redesign has been a long time coming as the pool house itself has not undergone any significant improvements since it was built in the 1970s. Gone now is the old "Pizza Hut" style peaked roof for the pool house (thanks councilman Roger House for the comparison) and the antiquated family changing areas. New restrooms, shower areas, new plumbing and stalls are included in the improvements. Also corrected was a long standing sewer line issue which had created issues over the years.

Although not complete yet, the parking lot and roadway are going to be rehabbed and bids for that portion of the project opened Friday (July 23). Not only will parking for pool-goers improve but it will also improve for the populous ball game nights across the street.

Originally the design engineering came in above project cost, but with the cooperation of city staff and employees, value-engineering was applied to bring the cost down to what Clinton taxpayers approved - and it is nice.

"It's a great day to go to the pool and for all who live in Clinton, said Mayor Carla Moberly at the ceremonial opening. Instead of a ribbon cutting, the city held a "pool noodle cutting" more appropriate to the occasion. The redesign and improvements should be a draw for the area. "It was worth the wait, said Mayor Moberly.

Warrant Issued In Major Drug Distribution Case

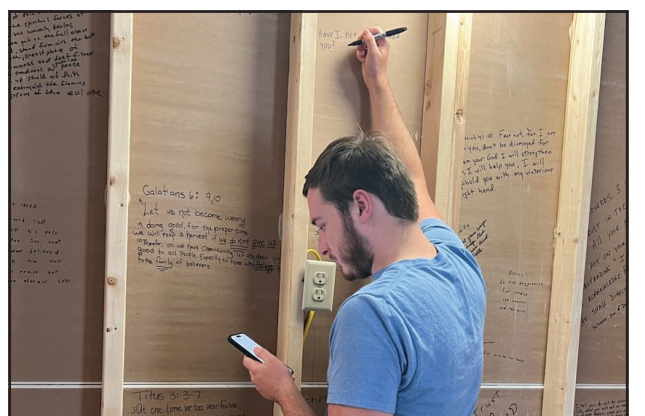

JASON AERY

Following a Clinton Police Department investigation, Henry County Prosecuting Attorney LaChrisha Gray filed charges against Jason Aery, 44, of Clinton, for distribution of a controlled substance in a protected location, unlawful possession of a firearm, and receiving stolen property.

According to the probable cause statement filed in the case, the Clinton Police Department executed a search warrant on July 18, 2023 of a residence near the elementary school in Clinton, wherein they found a significant amount of a substance believed to be methamphetamine and

Rumors Rise Regarding Fate Of Harry S. Truman Visitor Center

BY JENNIFER JACKSON
Staff Reporter

Looking across the water from a bridge on Hwy. 7, you can see a circular structure on a rocky bluff overlooking the dam and reservoir. With its curved bank of windows, it looks like a giant flying saucer has landed on the bluff and perched there.

But it's the view from inside the building that is really out of this world.

For almost 50 years, residents of Warsaw and the surrounding area have taken visitors, friends and family to the Truman Visitor Center to watch their faces when they enter the building and climb the ramps to the observation deck. There, the wall of curved windows gives a panoramic view overlooking the dam and the expanse of water behind it, like the view that birds of prey get riding the thermals rising up the bluffs.

So it's understandable that a few feathers are ruffled at the rumor that the Visitor's Center might close, or that the Corps of Engineers is planning to move into the Truman Visitor's Center and convert the observation deck to offices.

Jim Sandberg, operation

manager for the COE, is eager to reassure people that rumors that the Truman Visitor Center is going to close are false, and alarm that the COE is going to close off the observation deck is premature.

"No decision has been made that they are going to do that," he said.

Sandberg said that moving the COE offices into the Visitor's Center is one of three options the COE is looking at to solve its office-space problem. Cur-

Have I Got A Line For You!
By James Mahlon White

Had a nice conversation this morning with a visitor from Iowa. His last name is O'Brian and he was in Warsaw visiting relatives. Mr. O'Brian is a school teacher in Oxford, which is about 16 miles from Iowa City. We talked mainly about our great-great grandparents coming from Ireland, his from the north and mine from the south. His protestant and mine Catholic. Mine came to New York State, then to Dubuque for a while. Later they took advantage of the free land out in the flatlands around Clay Center, Kansas. One of their kids, my great-grandfather would never eat turnips in later years. He said that in one blizzard winter in Kansas that was all they had to eat. When he was 16 which would have been in the early 1800's, he and a friend walked all the way to Oregon and worked along the way to get their food. Doubt if you could do that now. Years ago I went to the cemetery in Indiana, Kansas and tried to find his grave. Little cemetery on a rise, but most of the stones were so old they were illegible. But it was a spring day with a breeze and I was happy he had such a peaceful place to rest.

drugs are being brought into the White House and the Secret Service can't identify who it is, what's leaving? The corruption in our Nation's Capital has gotten so bad the players don't even recognize how it looks to the peasants.

It's time to call a halt to this meandering, but I leave you with an Old Irish Blessing: "When putting out the light, "May God not put out the light of Heaven in our soul or on the souls of the dead who have gone before us with the sign of the faith."

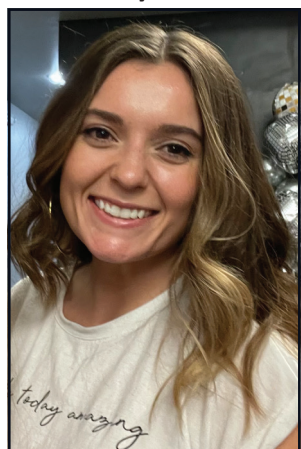

And may lots of light surround you and protect you too, old buddy.

Word on the Street
Who has been the most influential person in your life?

Here's another swell idea. Over in Jackson County the legislature took steps to take down two statues of President Andrew Jackson. The past is the past and removing statues and changing names accomplishes nothing. It's the future I'm worried about these days. Wiping out history means it will come back and clobber us because we forgot its lessons. This is what Chairman Mao decided to do, rather than take the slow approach of Lenin, who allowed reading of the "classics" and study of history to continue after the Bolshevik revolution and his evolution to a Communist totalitarian state. Old Mao pulled the plug and disconnected people from their past in one generation. Tens of millions died in the process.

TIM KOMER

CLEAN LIVING Phillip Rivers

Did Phillip Rivers say the S word?

First, in case you don't know Phillip Rivers, he was an NFL quarterback for 17 years. He played mainly for the San Diego Chargers. Rivers did play for the Colts at the end of his career. It seems lately I have been writing about the "good guys" in sports, Tim Tebow, Bobby Richardson, Bob Cousy, and now Rivers. It is fun spotlighting the good guys.

It was announced recently that Rivers and his wife Tiffany are having their tenth child in October. Tiffany was Rivers' middle school sweetheart, they married in 2001. They started their family while they were in college at NC State. They presently have seven daughters and two sons. Yes, they are Catholic. Rivers was raised Catholic and his wife converted. Rivers will be remembered for many things. One, he is viewed as the best QB that never made it to a Super Bowl. Yet, Rivers did play in seven post-seasons with some key wins. The other unique attribute about Phillip Rivers is, even as a 6'5", 230-pound tough guy, he does not curse. None. (It is true he uses some colorful southern slang.) Now you are right, not cursing should not be seen as that unusual, but it is.

What I call civil language is nearly dead. It seems only churches and some great-grandmothers are still holding the line on foul language. But most others, not only tolerate casual cursing, but have joined the movement. I occasionally fall off the bandwagon myself. It is amazing how modern writers and movie directors often feel that a good storyline needs a ton of F-bombs to make it more 'real'. I wish more people thought language matters. OK, I am off my soap-box now, but back to Rivers. In his line of work, locker-room talk, on-the-field trash talk or just general tough guy talk lends itself to cursing. But not for Phillip Rivers. He does say "shoot" a lot and an occasional 'crap'. He also uses 'dadgummit', 'dang it', and 'shuckydam', and other clever 'southern' phrases, but no traditional curse words. It is said his teammates respect it, but also give him some good-natured grief over it. The story goes that a teammate was sure one day he heard Rivers say the S word. Rivers denied it and was very emphatic with his denial. Now to make this attribute more interesting Rivers is also well known for his on-the-field trash-talking (some call it heckling). He does it without cursing. Apparently, it is possible. So saying, "I am going to kick your behind!", if said with enough machismo, qualifies as trash talk. Good to know. To be fair Rivers is also known to be a true workhorse, starting every game from 2006 to 2020. He also ranks very high in most QB stats: He ranks sixth all-time in touchdowns (421). He is sixth in career yards passing (63,440). He was also selected for eight Pro-Bowls.

Where did this clean talking family man come from? Rivers was born to Steve and Joan in Decatur Alabama on December 8, 1981. His dad was a high school football coach and his mom was a school teacher. Joan also came from a family with nine kids, 7 girls and 2 boys. Rivers wanted to follow in his dad's footsteps and become an HS football coach. After retirement, he did, at St. Michael Catholic HS in Fairhope, Alabama. Rivers' son, Gunner, is a QB for the team. Well 'fudgebuckets' I am running out of space. I hope you liked this story. Until next time.

Clare Chamberlin District Athletic Trainer #CardinalPride

CHS WELCOMES A NEW ATHLETIC TRAINER to its staff in Clare Chamberlin. Chamberlin will be responsible for the health of all Cardinals athletes.

program, as well as getting the new coaches and student-athletes. I'm most excited to be moving closer to family."

Catching Up: With Cardinals Football Coach Todd Mowery

OS: Where is the team at, at this point in the summer?

TM: We are getting ready to finish up summer workouts and heading to camp at Evangel University this Thursday and Friday. There will be over 20 other teams there so it'll be good to see where we stand against good competition. We started the summer by hosting a 7 vs 7 series with other local teams.

OS: How has the turnout been for summer workouts?

TM: We've had pretty good numbers all summer at strength and conditioning and practice. We're always looking to add to our numbers, but we're very happy with the increase we've seen so far from last year. We kept our summer schedule a little lighter this summer and in return we all think our efficiency of those practices times has increased.

OS: Describe the mood of the team?

TM: There's a different dynamic and attitude within the program this year and the entire coaching staff is happy with our progress and where we are as a whole. The key to continuing this is going to be looking at all the positives when things don't go the way we want them. We're in a very tough conference and it's not always going to go the way we want but we just have to keep pushing to get better. We have a great group of people in all the right places now and we're excited for week 1 @Butler.

Exciting times surround the new leadership and Cardinals football. This season should be a fun one!

rently, the COE is housed in four buildings on the west side of the dam, with some seasonal workers billeted in houses.

Funding for utilities and maintenance ran out in 2021, he said, and with the Visitor's Center plus four other office buildings to keep up, Sandberg is looking for money-saving options.

The Kansas City District of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers owns the TVC building and pays the utilities, he said. If the COE offices were consolidated, he said, he could cut utility bills in half. It would also be more efficient to have everyone in one place instead of spread out.

"My ultimate goal is to find a win-win solution that is advantageous for the public at large, and for us to find usable office space," Sandberg said. "That is the challenge."

The second option is building a new operations building large enough for the COE's 15 to 20 employees. The third is to build onto the current operations building. However, the city of Warsaw is interested in leasing the COE's current property to develop a high-use recreational area, Sandberg said.

Media across Missouri have picked up the controversy, fanning a rumor that the TVC will close. Sandberg emphasized that's not happening, and that no decision has been made regarding how the TVC will resolve its office-space issues. The decision is not even in the cards for this fiscal year, he said, adding that developing a good plan for everyone is a goal for the next fiscal year, July 2024 to 2025.

"The Corps is aware that the public does not want to lose the observation deck," he said.

One of ten COE "Class A" visitor centers in the United States, the TVC is a regional center as opposed to a Class B project center or Class C information center. Designed by Linscott, Haylett and Associates of Kansas City, the TVC draws 50,000 people a year and has 16,282 square feet of floor space.

"It's big," Sandberg said.

Given the layout of the TVC and the current entrance, however, the only space that could be closed off for offices is the observation deck level on the bluff side. Locating COE offices away from the observation deck is not feasible because the public would be passing the office doors to get to the deck, he said, which in this security-conscious world, is a no-go.

Also not feasible is renovating the 67-seat theater, where videos on local wildlife and history are shown. The theater, which is also used for public meetings, has a sloped floor, making it difficult to convert, Sandberg said. And like other locations near the current entrance, presents a security issue.

Having COE employees working on site does open up the possibility of having the visitor center open year round, seven days a week during the tourist season, Sandberg said, and five days a week through fall and winter. Traditionally, the TVC was open from mid-April through September from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m..

Since COVID, however, it has only been open Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays and Monday federal holidays during the spring and summer. Due to damage from a storm on July 1, which blew out a window, the observation deck and the area underneath it is temporarily closed for safety reasons.

Having offices in the visitor's center would make it a little smaller, but given the average office size of 150 to 175 square feet per employee, the COE would require, at most, less than one-fourth of the total square footage of the center.

Even if just the grounds were open in the off-season, nature lovers, bird watchers and architecture fans could visit. Now visitors who drive to Warsaw in late fall or winter and up to the center, off the Dam Access Road, find the gate closed at the end of the center's curving driveway, barring access to the center, the grounds and the view. The grounds around the center have picnic tables, a nature trail and a block of outside restrooms.

Originally named for Kaysinger Bluff, the dam and reservoir it created were built in 1965 to provide flood control, generate hydro-electric power and create outdoor recreation. Congress changed the name in 1970 to honor Missouri native son Harry S Truman, the 33rd president of the United States. Truman died in 1972 in Kansas City at the age of 88.

Built in the mid-1970s, the TVC is used in winter for the annual Eagle Day program, and every year, hosts visiting students from around the region. The space-age design has served the community well, providing plenty of room for the bus loads of students who arrive, and for whom the field trip is an anticipated outing for the whole school or a grade-level.

For families who visit regularly, seeing the stuffed eagle coming in to land, talons-spread, to its nest and the stuffed spoon-bill on the wall are part of shared family memories. A large exhibit on mastodon skeletons found in the area has a sand pit where young archaeologists can dig for bones. Black and white photographs illustrating the history of the Osage River Valley hang on the walls, along with colorful watercolors of local scenes by Ike Parker.

But it's the possibility of losing the view over the dam and reservoir that is turning any changes to the center into an emotional issue for locals. Using part of the TVC for offices for the people who built and run the dam would align with the COE visitor centers' primary purpose, to provide interpretive information to the public about the Corps, its mission, the project and its facilities. Visitor centers also provide information about the geographic area to ensure a safe and enjoyable use of Corps facilities.

The U.S. Corps of Engineers was established in 1802 as a separate branch of the military to build military and civil structures. Throughout the 19th century, the Corps built coastal fortifications, surveyed roads and canals, eliminated sandbars, snags and navigational hazards on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, and explored and mapped the Western frontier.

The COE also built light-houses, jetties and piers, as well as dams and locks. The agency's 37,000 civilian and military personnel are responsible for safety issues related to waterways, dams and canals, environmental protection, emergency relief and hydroelectric power.

jail once a week. They are currently remodeling a former church building on Ohio Street to provide a residence where men who have served time in jail can make a new start.

The response to the Celbrate Recovery team's float along the route was heart-warming, Darren Huey said, and even more so when they got to the Square —people would push their way through the crowd and tell how much the program means to them, Darren said. The response by the community to remodeling the church, renamed the Men's Discipleship Center, has also been heartening, Darren said.

"Every time we've asked, we've always had crew show up," Darren said, "Somebody is here almost every day doing something."

First Baptist Church bought the building in April from the New Beginning Ministries congregation, after former First Baptist pastor Randy Shipman discovered it was struggling to keep the doors open. On track to be finished in the next two to three months, the center will accommodate 10 men, who will live there for a year in order to have a place to make a new start.

"We have already received five applications, and more than 30 requests for applications," Darren said. "We are going to have to turn people down, which is sad."

Through the help of volunteer labor, the project, known as Forged by Christ, is more than halfway finished. Almost all the demolition has been done, Darren said, a wall has been constructed on the main floor separating the sleeping area from the living area, and showers installed upstairs.

One of the biggest things that happened at the building was an open house for First Baptist Church members, who came to put prayers and scripture verses in the walls before the drywall went on. People also donated "everything," Darren said —furniture, new televisions and household goods.

Somebody has also donated half a beef, he said, with promises of more, which will help the men, who have to provide their own food. Businesses have also contacted the FBC group.

"They say they will employ whoever we send," Darren said.

As well as prayers, First Baptist Church members have written checks to cover most of the costs, according to Joe Hilty, a member of the church board and Forged By Christ. Donations of contracted work have also kept costs down, including from the company that installed the high-end hot-water system.

"I was handed a bill with the value of the work estimated between $5,600 and $6,000 on it," he said. "The balance due was 0. I didn't expect that."

FORGED BY CHRIST work crew join in prayer before setting to work Saturday. Volunteers are converting a former church on Ohio Street to a residence for former inmates called the Men's Discipleship Center.

THE DOWNSTAIRS contains the kitchen, laundry room and bedrooms at the Men's Discipleship Center. Residents will contribute to their living expenses, including operating costs and meals.

The company that installed sound-proofing between the sleeping area and the living area did the same thing, Darren said.

Wanda Batshelett of First Baptist is organizing a library for the center, and is finding bookcases and books to put in them, Joe said. Due to arrive in August are ten heavy-duty bunk beds that have been ordered from ESS Universal. The beds, called "Missouri Bunkbeds" are made in Michigan and with shipping, cost a total of $5,000, but will never have to be replaced, Darren said.

As the on-site manager, Darren will have a bedroom in the lower level, which includes the kitchen and more sleeping and living space. Joe estimates Darren has put in 1,000 hours or more on the project, and the all-volunteer crew puts in 100 hours a week. One of the first men to apply for a place in the center, who is out of jail but under court supervision, shows up two to three days a week to work, Darren said.

The FBC group has also met with court justices and parole and probation officers, with whom they will be working. Communities who have halfway houses see a dramatic drop in recidivism rates, which can be as high as 75 percent. Clinton has Hope House, a halfway-house program for women, but until now, nothing for men. People who run a halfway house in Springfield have inquired about space here, but the FBC center is for local men, Darren told them.

Organizations interested in starting halfway houses in their communities have sent people to Clinton to see how the FBC group is accomplishing it, Darren said. The project is called "Forged By Christ" because the aim is to reshape men's lives, Darren said. Like a forge, the process may get a little heated at times, he said, but when they come out, it will have broken the cycle of their former lives and shaped them into something stronger.

Darren, who has been through the justice system,

KEITH ROSS installs studs to block an unused doorway on the main floor, where workers have put a divider wall between the sleeping area and the living space. The uneven floor of the former sanctuary varied as much as three inches from back to front.

said finding God turned his life around, and through him, is restoring lives. In addition to leading Celebrate Recovery and the building remodel, he is going to college online to get a degree in theology and substance abuse counseling. Several times a week, Joe said, Darren sends out a progress report on the remodel to the church board, under the subject "God Has Done It Again."

Last Tuesday, July 25, First Baptist launched an addiction recovery program called "The Landing" for teens ages 12 to 17, which has a similar curriculum to the adult Celebrate Recovery program.

First Baptist Church offers a CR program at the church, 1531 N. Vansant Rd., Clinton, for adults, and Celebration Place for children 12 and under.

On August 31, Overdose Awareness Day, Celebrate Recovery will sponsor a Candlelight Vigil on the Square like the group did last year. By the end of September, which is Recovery Month, the Men's Discipleship Center should be planning its opening celebration.

Sedalia Police Department Donates Former Patrol Car to Missouri Safety Center

A collaboration that will enhance learning experiences for individuals seeking law enforcement careers, the Sedalia Police Department has donated a used patrol car to the Missouri Safety Center at the University of Central Missouri. The formal presentation event took place on July 19, the same week a group of 27 Central Missouri Police Academy (CMPA) cadets began a training program that will allow them to utilize the car at the Safety Center's Highway Safety Instructional Park, south of UCM's main campus in Warrensburg.

Sedalia Police Chief Matt Wirt was joined by three SPD command staff members, Adam Hendricks, Josh Howell, and David Woolery, to deliver the 2017 Dodge Charger, equipped with siren and emergency lights. They were met by UCM President Roger Best, representatives of the Missouri Safety Center, UCM Harmon College of Business and Professional Studies and members of area law enforcement agencies that are sponsoring cadets in CMPA's 166th class. Three of the class members, Tyler LaBoube, Lyndon North, and Jesse Page, are sponsored by the SPD. Other area police and sheriff's departments that attended the event and are sponsoring CMPA cadets represent Johnson, Lafayette, Morgan, and Pettis counties and the Warrensburg Police Department.

In talking about how the gift of this patrol car was made possible, Wirt said, "As we were transitioning from Dodge Chargers to Durangos, it gave us this opportunity. Members of the academy and the safety center indicated they needed more modern cars for their operation, so I went to the (Sedalia) city administrator and the mayor and asked if there was something we could donate that could help."

Sedalia municipal leaders were in favor of the donating the former patrol car to the Missouri Safety Center, which oversees CMPA. Following approval by the Sedalia City Council, the vehicle now has a new home, helping to prepare individuals for law enforcement careers.

"The commitment to the work of the police academy and our law enforcement continuing training is essential for safety in the profession," said Joanne Kurt-Hilditch, Ph.D., senior director of the Missouri Safety Center. "With newer technology and equipment, such as donated vehicles, our cadets and officers are able to practice in more real-life scenarios and become better equipped to being safe and effective on our roadways."

Tim Lowry, a career police officer who serves as director of CMPA, said the car will help create realistic scenarios for testing cadets' driving skills, including learning how to make traffic stops. The emergency lighting that comes with the donated vehicle enables its use for both daytime and nighttime training.

President Best had an opportunity to test drive the patrol car before joining Missouri Safety Center Senior Program Manager Mike Perkins to formally accept the vehicle. Both of them participated in photo sessions with cadets and law enforcement personnel from various other organizations attending the event.

Wirt, who has served the Sedalia Police Department for 24 years, said he was pleased to be able to give back to a program which helped him prepare for his law enforcement career. After serving as a reserve officer in Sedalia, he attended the CMPA in the 1990s. His community's investment in his training paid off with Wirt continuing to work full time, eventually becoming Sedalia's police chief.

"It's nice to give back. I have a soft place for people who want to come into this profession," he said. "It's getting harder to find people, especially those who are really dedicated. So anything I can do to help them to enjoy this experience and to get a realistic training opportunity with a patrol car, it is great. It means a lot to me."

The Missouri Safety Center and the CMPA are part of the Harmon College of Business and Professional Studies. Between July and December 2023, members of the 166th class will receive 835 hours of training in the academy, which is licensed by the Missouri Department of Public Safety's Peace Officer Standards and Training Program.

The Appleton City R-2 School District is proud to be able to, once again, provide free school supplies for elementary students. High School students will have access to the basics, such as pencils, paper, notebooks and folders. The only items students will be asked to bring are a water bottle and backpack. Resources are available for these items if needed. They would also appreciate any donations of Clorox wipes and facial tissues. They hope that providing these items for our students continues to benefit the parents and families in the community. If anyone wishes to donate to help offset this cost, an account has been set up at Community First Bank under the name "TUMC School Supplies". Donations can also be dropped off at the school. The School appreciates any and all donations so they can continue to provide this service for their students.

NELLIE MARIE (BYSOR) WHEELER

Nellie Marie (Bysor) Wheeler passed away in the early hours of July 17, 2023, at Clinton Healthcare and Rehab in Clinton, Missouri.

She was born August 28, 1939, to Samuel Hill Bysor and Mary Catherine (King) Bysor as their 6th child. Nellie lived her entire life in Henry County, spending time in LaDue, Urich, and Clinton.

Nellie married Robert Eugene Wheeler Sr. in Clinton on February 22, 1958. Bob and Nellie had 2 children, Robert Eugene "Gene" Wheeler Jr. and Debby Jo (Wheeler) Van Winkle.

She was a Homemaker and a stay-at-home mom to their children until their youngest, Debby, started school. In 1966, she started her job as a cook at the Urich Elementary School and Sherwood Schools and worked there for over 20 years. She later worked at Rival Manufacturing until retirement.

Once she retired, she started her new role, which included being 'Grandma of the Year.' She won this award over 40 years in a row, according to her granddaughters, Miranda and Bethany. She would be their chauffeur to and from sports practices and school, taking them food before they left for games and anything else they could ever need. She loved going on field trips, making play dough for Bethany's school class, or stopping in to see Miranda while she was working. She loved this new position so much that she and Bob moved from Urich to Clinton to be closer to her beloved granddaughters. All of her granddaughters' friends loved to be around "Grandma Nellie" as she was one of a kind that would do anything for anyone.

While she loved spending time with her kids and grandkids, nothing brought her as much joy as her great-grandchildren. She always had something special for them, never missed any of their events, and loved their hugs and kisses more than anything.

Nellie was hilarious, telling silly jokes and endlessly teasing her son-in-law, Ron. Bob and Nellie loved to stop into Blue Ribbon Bakery to chat and drink coffee with the 'coffee drinkers' and show them photos of her grandkids and great-grandkids. She also truly enjoyed helping out at Vansant Mills Funeral Home, as they were always so sweet to her and treated her like part of their family.

Nellie had a true skill and love for crafting, gardening, quilting, and cooking. If you ever had one of her hot rolls, noodles, or anything else that she made, you know how great of a cook and baker she was. She loved sharing this passion with others by baking them a pie, decorating a cake for a special event, or creating something special when thinking of someone. After her stroke in 2017, she fought so hard to be able to still do the things that she loved to do, and we are so grateful for our time with her. Thankfully, she passed her skill in cooking to her daughter, Debby.

She loved going to tractor pulls with Bob, watching hummingbirds outside her window, watching the Royals and Chiefs on TV, and playing cards. She also loved visiting her son Gene and daughter-in-law Lorri and seeing the progress of their garden. Nellie also loved to go fishing and hunt for mushrooms.

She will be missed more than words can express, but she set an incredible example of how to be the absolute best wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. Her legacy will truly live on forever by all of those who knew her.

Her parents and siblings preceded her in death - Harold King, Samuel Bysor, Nancy Kerwood, Robert Bysor, John Bysor, and Joe Pete Bysor.

Surviving are her husband of over 65 years, Bob Wheeler; her son Robert Eugene Wheeler Jr and his wife Lorri of Columbia, MO; her daughter Debby Jo (Wheeler) Van Winkle, and her husband, Ron of Clinton, MO; her granddaughters Miranda (Van Winkle) Day and her husband Anthony, Bethany (Van Winkle) Ross and her husband Tayler, Great Grandsons Kingston and Kai Day, Great Granddaughters Vandy and Molina Ross all of Clinton, her sister Rosemary Hunter (Russell) of Clinton. Nellie also had an extra special nephew, Randy Bysor (Becky), whom she considered her own and loved dearly. She also had many nieces, nephews, cousins, and many other loved ones.

The family wants to thank Three Rivers Hospice, especially Vince Ninemire and Clinton Healthcare and Rehab, for their exceptional care of Nellie.

Funeral services were held Thursday, July 20, 2023 at the Vansant-Mills Chapel, Clinton with Rev. David Mills officiating. Special music sang by Wallace White included "Amazing Grace and Old Rugged Cross." The casket bearers were Ronnie VanWinkle, Kingston Day, Miranda Day, Tayler Ross, Bethany Ross, John Hunter and Brandon Bysor. Anthony Day, Kai Day, Molina Ross, Vandy Ross, and Randy Bysor were honorary bearers. Interment followed in Stones Chapel Cemetery, Montrose, MO.

Services were under the direction of Vansant-Mills Funeral Home of Clinton, MO.

DONALD CURTIS KOHLER

Donald Curtis Kohler, age 93, of Harrisonville, Missouri, passed away Friday, July 14th, 2023 at his home on the farm.

Donald Curtis Kohler was born October 23, 1929, the youngest child of John Harold Kohler, Sr. and Dora Isabelle (Beckerdite) Kohler. On July 23, 1950, he was united in marriage to Joan Virginia Nelson in Bentonville, Arkansas. They shared 60 years together before her death on May 30, 2011.

Mr. Kohler was a farmer first and foremost. But he also was employed early in his career at Ford Motor Co. and Bendix Corp. before going into the home construction business with Robert Hon, and later with Jack Cotton. He left the construction business in 1974 to pursue farming full time, raising hogs and cattle while continuing farming his crops on his farms located east of Harrisonville. An injury to his back forced him to give up the hog operation in 1977 so he turned all his efforts to farming his crops each year, which continued until his passing.

He was a member of the First Baptist Church of Harrisonville. He was an active member of the Harrisonville Optimist Club from 1961 till the club dissolved, having served as President, Vice President and Treasurer and receiving many awards for his service. One such award was received in 2011 recognizing his 50 years of continued active service to the club and the community of Harrisonville. He was a member of the Cass County Democrat Club and received the honor of Cass County Democrat of the Year in 2010. He was a member of Cass Lodge #147, AF & AM, Harrisonville for 55 years, a member and Past Patron of Bayard Chapter #179, Order of the Eastern Star for 49 years, and an active member in the Cass County Shrine Club at the time of his death. In 2013 he, along with his son Douglas and grandson Patrick, joined the Spirit of 76 Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution, Harrisonville. It was an event that he was extremely proud of.

He and Joan spent their retirement years traveling about the country in their motorhome, hosting the best family vacations at the lake, and camping, traveling, and playing a wicked game of pitch with 5 other couples who were their lifelong friends. He was an avid fisherman and loved to hunt, making many trips to Colorado with Douglas to hunt elk. He also was a huge sports enthusiast. He played college football at MU in 1948 and 1949 so rooting for the Tigers was a must. Family was always important to him and he spent much of his later years visiting and keeping in touch with those he loved the most.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Joan, his parents, brothers John Harold Jr., Guy, Neil and sister Hazel Clegg. He is survived by two daughters, Deborah Mills and Deadra (Gene) Clay of Harrisonville, a son, Douglas (Gaye) Kohler of Belton, Missouri and one sister, Dorothy Lindley, Chillicothe, Missouri; 6 grandchildren Kimberly (Michael) Best, Kelley (Michael) Worthley, Curtis (Shelley) Mills, Christopher (Brandi) Mills, Carey Beth Mills, and Patrick (Erin) Kohler as well as 12 great grandchildren Braeden Best, Aubrey Best, Marissa Worthley, Mason Worthley, Mattie Mills, Riley Mills, Renae Mills, Annie Mills, Easton Mills, Sean Kohler, Makenna Kohler and Riley Kohler; dear cousins Phillip Kelley and David Wolfe as well as many nieces, nephews and extended family.

Funeral services were held July 20, 2023 at Atkinson Funeral Home, Harrisonville, MO with Rev. David Mills officiating. Special music included "Amazing Grace, Go Rest High and Thank You For Being My Dad." The casket bearers were Curtis Mills, Chris Mills, Patrick Kohler, Michael Best, Michael Worthley and Gene Clay. Mike Kohler, Mason Worthley, Braeden Best and Easton Mills were honorary bearers. Interment followed in Orient Cemetery, Harrisonville, MO.

Services were under the direction of Vansant-Mills Funeral Home of Clinton, MO.

Calhoun UMC

Welcome to the Good News from Calhoun United Methodist. We ring the church bell at 9am to call the "flock" to 10am Worship. We are a smaller group dedicated to being the hands and feet of Jesus in our community.

Please remember the following folk in your prayers this week; Millie Redding, Alma White, Carolina Lane, Barbara Sales, Bob Baird, Bob and David Burson. We pray for guidance as we continue forward as a Christian fellowship on the square in Calhoun, Mo.

Joys to celebrate: Rev. Jackson Short was our speaker today accompanied by his wife Sondra. Rev. Short is retired military. He and Sondra spent a few years in Turkey and told of his work there. Also his interactions with the working people there. The common folk aren't much different there than the common folk here. We are pleased to receive much needed rain last week, and are thankful for answered prayers. Should you be looking for a new place to grow your faith come by for a visit. We welcome visitors any Sunday morning for worship, come dressed as you are comfortable, bring the youngsters and be prepared to receive a blessing for your effort. We are a Concerned and Praying church should you find yourself in need of prayer we encourage you to join us any Sunday morning. We will be blessed by your presents.

Drakes Chapel UMC

There are hardly words to describe the feeling of God's glory and presence at our pristine chapel this past Sunday. The beauty of the countryside was only second to the wonderful feeling inside the walls of our sanctuary.

Sometimes God moves us and leads us to where His people can grow and flourish in his kingdom. On Sunday 24 from the Calhoun UMC and 2 from the Southland Baptist in Belton moved their memberships to the Drake's Chapel UMC. There were bubbles and laughter and applause.

A celebration brunch was served after the worship service. There was more joy and eating and eating and eating. Margie's flock of Methodist women can sure put on a spread. We were blessed by all the delicious dishes.

Pastor Margie's message reflected on the history of Drake's Chapel and how it came to be. How the settlers going to the west found water and from there found an opportunity to build the little church in the dale.

We were told how the things that those early Saints planted were not only things to nourish their bodies but seeds of faith to grow the word of God. We must continue to cultivate their spirit with our new growth and look for opportunities to serve our community. We wasted no time in offering a helping hand to a family in need. Hoping our gifts would be a blessing.

We at Drake's Chapel we are eager to serve our Lord and all His children. You will feel His spirit through the love our congregation will show you should you have the time to worship in person. Please join us on Sunday at 8:30 and if not in person on Facebook live. Just look on Facebook for Margie Briggs. You can find our Chapel 8 miles East of Clinton off Hwy 52.

First Baptist

On Sunday, Pastor Pat Findley delivered the seventh message of his summer sermon series, 'Ears to Hear', titled 'Parable of the Hanking Doofus'. Speaking from Luke 12:13-21, Pastor Pat described how we manage our stuff makes or breaks our effectiveness for His Kingdom, in this life. Most of us are far more wealthy than we realize, especially considering the fact that, worldwide, many survive on less than $7/day. The problem isn't owning money, but when money owns us. To only live for this life is to be a 'hanking doofus' because this life is short. Everything is on loan to us from God! To accumulate here without investing in eternity just doesn't make sense. God promises to bless those who surrender their finances to Him. God dares us to trust Him in this!

Celebrate Recovery is on Tuesday evenings, beginning at 5:30 p.m., for anyone with hurts, habits and hangups. GriefShare will resume on August 17th to provide help and encouragement after the death of a spouse, child, family member, or friend. Worship services are held on Sundays at 8:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. For more information and upcoming events, please visit www.firstbaptist-clinton.church or find us on Facebook at 'First Baptist Church - Clinton, MO'.

We invite those without a church home to join us in worship of our Lord & Savior, Jesus Christ. First Baptist Church exists to fulfill the Great Commission (Matthew 28:19-20) by loving people into a growing relationship with Jesus Christ.

First Presbyterian

Every day is a wondrous gift from God. He is merciful to us and pours out love so abundantly. We should show our enthusiasm for His mighty power and love and celebrate that love in words and actions. After all, we are forgiven through Jesus Christ if we will but accept the wonderful gift of salvation. Continuing the summer sermon series of "Faith in Films", Rev. Nancy Gillard brought a message on the movie Groundhog Day titled When you stand in the snow you look like an angel. Her scripture choice was Ephesians 2: 1 - 10. Our anthem written by Sleeth and played by Gay Smith, was "Hymn of Promise".

Another successful and fun week of Jesus Camp was completed on Friday, July 21st. This year there was an average of 43 campers. Students enjoyed song, bible study, water play and of course bible school snacks. Six Heartland counselors and 11 volunteers from the First Presbyterian Church and Clinton Christian Church were on hand to assist. It was a busy but fulfilling time for all who helped or attended. We look forward to next year when the word of God will again be proclaimed to Jesus Campers.

Tai Chi classes resume next week meeting each Monday at 10:00 and 11:00 am and Wednesday at 10:00 am. Tai Chi helps strengthen your core and improve balance. Consider joining.

Come worship with us. You will find a friendly group of people greeting you. If in person worship is not an option watch the broadcasts available online at our website: fpclintonmo.net or Facebook First Presbyterian Clinton MO. Stay updated on the happenings at First Presbyterian by visiting our website. There you will find our monthly newsletter, pictures and other interesting items about the church.

Mt. Calvary Apostolic Pentecostal

"Walking Humbly With God"

Micah 6:6-7. (KJV)
It is hard for people to be humble. What good does it do to have a bad attitude and refuse to humble ourselves?

If we follow the word of God, we can't go wrong, he tells us what to do. It says in Micah 6:8

Mic 6:8 He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God? (KJV)

Psalms 9:12-14.
David could have killed Saul but he remained humble and told his men not to touch him because Saul was anointed. David knew his help came from the Lord.

God cannot work with prideful people. He will humble you in his way. Manasseh knew who God was after God afflicted him.
2Ch 33:10-13.

God had to humble Israel and allowed them to wander in the desert for 40 years when they could have reached their destination sooner.

Deu 8:2 And thou shalt remember all the way which the LORD thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no. (Deuteronomy 8:2-6)

Naaman was a captain in the King's court. God knew he had a pride problem. Naaman thought Elijah would lay hands on him, but He was told to go and get in the water seven times once he complied, he was healed and he realized who God was. (2Kings 5:8-10)

If we are not humble before God we will not get anywhere with him.
2Ch 7:14. (KJV)

When we carry a humble heart we know that we need God. If we want God to hear us we need to humble ourselves and turn from our wicked ways. He will heal our land-our sickness. God Bless.

Urich Baptist

The hot temperature didn't keep the faithful from worshipping the Lord.

Clint Keeney rang the church bell. Mrs. Julia Klinefelter led in the congregational singing with Mrs. Dixie Collins playing piano. We rejoiced in the Baptism of Lijah Owsley. Randy Vogt and Clint Keeney collected the offering.

We sadly say farewell on July 30 to Pastor Chad Pollott and Cinasee as they leave our church and minister in Springfield.

The scripture passage from Pastor Polletts sermon was from John 11: 1-16. In this passage Jesus performed his last miracle before he entered Jerusalem. His friends Mary and Martha sent word to Jesus that Lazarus was very sick. Jesus delayed returning for 2 days saying in verse 14-15 "... Lazarus is dead, and for your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe..."

Only Jesus, our Savior, can bring the dead to live. Believe in Jesus and have eternal life. Have a blessed week.

Valley Center United

It is good to have quiet, calmness and peacefulness, it brings awareness of God. He is always with us, on this day and everyday, he never leaves us. Nothing can separate us from God.

We thank Emily Neuenschwander for the beautiful flower arrangement on the altar this morning! Next Sunday at 6pm, we will have a Fellowship Supper in the Fellowship Hall. We will have homemade ice cream and cake to celebrate our sweet Mary Chapman's 98th birthday! It will be a grand evening!

We send our love and prayers for several of our church members as they recuperate from serious illness. We continue our prayers for our country and our world. We pray for the people of the Ukraine that suffer and live each day with the atrocities of a terrible war.

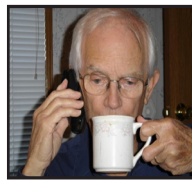

Good sowers sow in fertile, rich ground. They nurture and care for their crops. But many times there may be an infiltration of something bad or toxic that makes its way into our good crop and grows weeds. But Jesus says that is how the world is, there will always be challenges. But we need to be aware of them and find a way, which is good.

In life, you can have a group of people, a faithful congregation, and or a good family who works together, but there could be an infiltration brought in, just like weeds that is sown by someone evil or hateful into these groups and disrupts the goodness.

Today, what standards do we live by? Is it the cell phone leading us or a voice that distracts us from doing what we know is right? We need to be vigilant to make sure these toxic things will not make us stray from sowing good seeds.

But, the good news is that God is always with us, he will tear up the weeds that have made their way into what we have sowed.

Perseverance will prevail and our crops will be harvested to the glory of God.

The Shepherd Calls by Dr. H. Wade Paris

WHEN GOD SAYS GO

God often says, "Go!" Think Abraham, Moses, Israel. When God says "Go," He has a mission for you in another locale. Let me share some of our goings and missions.

On August 26, 1956, my wife and I married and moved into our first apartment, a two-room upstairs flat for $18.00 a month. When I say, "moved into," I am speaking of our clothes and a few college textbooks. It was a simple exciting move.

A year later and across town we moved to a larger, more expensive apartment above a couple who complained about our noisy walking though they had an organ they practiced regularly.

Next, we purchased a small trailer home, 8x26, from a fellow student and traveled to Wake Forest North Carolina to Southeastern Seminary--an exciting move!

During our third year in seminary, we purchased a larger trailer. Despite its ample size, we had great difficulty fitting our accumulated belongings into it. Moving had become more difficult and less pleasant.

After completing seminary, we traveled from North Carolina to Tennessee, to a small church with a parsonage and typical parsonage problems. Our first issue came when we changed the color of the living room.

From Tennessee we moved to the Missouri bootheel and learned what "Show Me" means.

Eleven years later, we were called to Kansas City, Missouri. My wife's father was convinced our children would be kidnapped and murdered in the big city; but they flourished.

Twenty years later we moved to Northeast Missouri, where our friends insisted we would freeze to death. I was Director of Missions for 42 churches plus two missions. My job description called for me to be a pastor to the pastors. Eleven years, I loved it; and we did not freeze.

In 2005, I "retired" to Harrisonville for 10 years of interims and respite.

Our move to Bolivar, Missouri was traumatic. It rained constantly (5 inches). The movers left much of our belongings; they did not have room in their trucks. Despite the downsizing, we could not fit in the new house. We rented storage.

On July 11, we moved to a duplex on the lovely Baptist Home Senior Adult Campus in Ozark, Missouri.

It was not always clear why God said "move." But upon arrival, His plans would become clearer. Ministers should not just go; they must also serve. Having been led of the Lord to dwell in this lovely setting, I have asked God to make my purpose clear. I await His answer.
