Taking A LEAP: Equine Program Puts Riders Up

BY JENNIFER JACKSON
Staff Reporter

Kim Moudy grew up in Raytown, Mo., and like many children her generation, watched Gunsmoke and other westerns on television. She didn't have a horse, but dreamed of owning a ranch where she could ride horses.

"I never had them, always wanted them," she said.

Kim is now the owner of the RusticM ranch in Osceola, where she not only wrangles a herd of horses but also runs an equine assisted program for children and youth called LEAP.

"I think it's one of the best kept secrets in town," she said.

Kim said she didn't learn to ride horses until a niece wanted to take lessons in 2001. Kim had spent two decades in California working as a child counselor, she said, including teenagers who had behavior problems and substance abuse issues. She also served in the Army for seven years.

But after she returned to Missouri, her niece, Samantha Roberts, came to her one day and said, "Aunt Kimmie, I want to take these riding lessons at a barn." The barn was the Pendragon Equestrian Center in Liberty.

"I found out they were going to work with kids, which is my passion, and with horses," Kim said.

She found a ranch after she met Larry and Ruth Lewis at St. Alban's Episcopal Church in Bolivar, where Larry was the priest. The Lewises owned 19 acres in Osceola. Ruth had a sister with Down's Syndrome, and had always wanted to start something in her sister's memory.

So Kim made them a promise: if they would sell her the property, she would start an equine assisted therapy program and name it after them.

"And I am a person of my word," Kim said.

Kim, who volunteers her services, had to complete 25 core hours of training with PATH INTL, the Professional Association of Therapeutic Horsemanship International. She's still training Raz, a paint, and Nonie, the ranch's "official greeter." Butter, a buckskin, was a barrel-racer, and had to be calmed down for therapy work.

"I don't put riders up until I'm sure the horse can handle anything," Kim said.

Young riders take riding lessons in the fall and spring after school. Kim doesn't take anyone younger than 5 years old, she said, the age she likes to start children riding. By learning to ride, LEAP Page 3

Hail To The Chief: Clinton Friends Of Scouting Hit The Green For Camp

BY JENNIFER JACKSON
Staff Reporter

Do you know what the Kansas City Chiefs and the Boy Scout camp near Osceola have in common?

Both are named for H. Roe Bartle, a two-term Kansas City mayor, whose nickname was "The Chief." Bartle was instrumental in getting the Dallas Texans to move to Kansas City in 1962. The franchise owner renamed the team in honor of Bartle, whose nickname, "The Chief," reflected his work for the Cheyenne, Wyoming, Boy Scout Council, plus the fact that at 6-foot-4 inches tall, Bartle had a build described as "colossal."

On Sept. 9, the Clinton Friends of Scouting are holding a golf tournament at Meadow Lake Golf Course to benefit the H. Roe Bartle Scout Reservation and local Eagle Scouts. Now in its 42nd year, the success of the tournament has also been colossal.

"We have raised more than half a million dollars for the Boy Scout camp," said Jack Wetzel. "This is our passion and our mission."

Family is at the heart of the Clinton Friends of Scouting. The golf tournament is a memorial to Jack's grandfather, G.S. Wetzel. Jack said he doesn't know if his grandfather was an Eagle Scout, but Jack, his father, Dr. Gus Wetzel II, and his cousins are.

For the last ten years, Clinton Friends of Scouting Golf Tournament has also raised money for scholarships for Eagle Scouts as well as the camp.

"We give a $1,000 scholarship to each Eagle Scout who graduates from high school," Jack said. "We gave 10 last year."

A member of Troop 430, Jack said his Scoutmaster was J.C. Smith, for whom the park on the south side of the Square is named. Jack's Eagle Scout project was redoing the landscaping at Clinton United

Have I Got A Line For You!

By James Mahlon White

Georgia's Governor said he won't call a legislative session to impeach the DA who charged The Donald. Said he's going to follow the law and the Constitution. Sounds like a grand idea except Fanni ran for office saying, "She'd get Trump." Remember another candidate who was found to have broken the law? She was never prosecuted under the theory that "No reasonable prosecutor would take such a case to court." Say goodbye to the notion of a reasonable prosecutor and hello socialism! In the meantime, President Biden said the ever growing crisis at the border is, "My predecessors fault." Uncle Joe blames Donald for most things and yesterday I ran across an article titled "Whatever It Is, Donald Trump Likely Did It." It asks among other things, "Was Donald Trump on the Grassy Knoll?" and "Did Trump use a time machine to beam back and kill Abraham Lincoln?" Won't be long until The Donald is blamed for the crucifixion too. Say what you will, but unlike our current President the last one seemed to know what was going on and wasn't sniffing anyone's hair or looking for ice cream. They didn't have to tell him which way to walk either. What a surreal time we live in.

to release "controversial pictures." Several years ago they released a photo of a couple who passed out in their car from using heroin. Their child was in the backseat. The Police Chief said he wasn't concerned if the picture embarrassed anyone, it was more important for people to see the devastating effects of this drug. Good for him. Too many deluded people want this stuff legalized. It was banned a long time ago for a very good reason. On the other hand, at least they were wearing their seat belts.

Time to stop talking with my fingers. Have a wonderful month of September, Ol' Buddy. - And rest easy.

Haven't been to a Missouri Press Convention in some time but will try to attend this year in St. Louis. I used to attend every year and it was fun to meet press people from all over the state. They've mostly alternated between K.C. and St. Louis, once in a while Columbia. Wouldn't mind a Prosperity Sandwich at the old Magnolia Hotel and see Union Station again. St. Louis is very different from K.C., though I like them both. K.C. is more laid back and prettier with its sister city a bit more eastern in atmosphere. Much of K.C. has excellent planning and zoning. St. Louis often has one nice block adjacent to a run down one. Speaking of old, read a book on the Revolution and found this: George Washington owned "Western Lands" in what later was Ohio and farther out. It's believed that George W. may have come west, by river as far as the present location of Cape Girardeau. And JWB told me the hamlet of Lewis, just a few miles from Clinton on Highway 52, had Howell Lewis a relative of either George or Martha (I forgot which) as one of its first settlers.

Here's a good idea. The police department in East Liverpool Ohio continues

Encourages You to Know the Signs of Sepsis

In recognition of Sepsis Awareness Month, Golden Valley Memorial Healthcare (GVMH) is urging healthcare professionals, patients and their families to be aware of the signs and symptoms of sepsis and to act fast if sepsis is suspected.

"Sepsis occurs when the body has an extreme response to an infection, quickly becoming a life-threatening emergency," said Nancy Engeman, RN, BSN, Quality Outcomes Coordinator. "It can happen to anyone, and early recognition and treatment are critical when it comes to preventing tissue damage, organ failure and death."

Per the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), a patient with sepsis might have one or more of the following signs or symptoms:

- Clammy or sweaty skin
- Confusion or disorientation
- Extreme pain or discomfort
- Fever, shivering or feeling very cold
- High heart rate or low blood pressure
- Shortness of breath

"If you or a loved one experience a combination of these symptoms, seek medical care immediately or call 911," said Engeman. "At GVMH, we utilize staff training, care pathways and electronic surveillance to assure our patients receive early recognition and treatment."

8/27/23 Service

Pastor showed a video called, "People Matter". We are shown all through the Bible, that we mean something to God.

In the first place, He gave His own Son to demonstrate just how important we are to Him. God showed Moses how to build a house for Him for God wanted to dwell His people. If we believe in God, the Holy Spirit lives within you, God even gave Moses the directions for the furnishings of the house. We are important to God. If we trust God, He will even give us directions we can live by. Exodus 25:1-9.

We thank each person who came to worship here today. We pray that you received a rich blessing by being here and that you will come again. See you in church?

Drake's Chapel

God spoke to Moses through a burning bush. Moses obeyed the Lord by stepping away and listening and then doing what the Lord had asked of him. Pastor Margie pointed out Sunday that perhaps there are burning bushes that we need to step aside and see. To recognize that God is calling on us to see a need before us and be ready to be His hands and feet.

On this Labor Day weekend Jesus would remind us to bless those folks who work hard to feed us, tend to our medical need and protect us in all ways. Our job is never ending as Christians to do the work of disciples by telling people of the love of Jesus Christ. It's not hard, it is just a commitment to God. Can we recognize a burning bush and listen for God's words? It may mean to step back away from ourselves and see situations through His eyes and His heart.

As we prepare to celebrate Grandparents Day next Sunday, Pastor Margie and others are also hoping to tell all the kids young and old of how our beautiful Chapel came to be. We have been told she has a few other tricks in her yellow bag. We hope you will join us any time in person at 9:00 am or look for Margie Briggs on Facebook Live at that same time. We are located 8 miles east of Clinton off Hwy 52. Just look for the sign. Please remember to look for an opportunity to be a blessing to others!

On Sunday, Pastor Pat Findley gave members and guests an opportunity to reflect on what joy is in his message 'Joy Comes In The Morning'. He emphasized the importance of slowing down to hear what God is saying. The joy of the Lord doesn't mean that we won't experience grief or hard times, but we can rest knowing that whatever we may face is temporary. God turns all things to good. Joy is the response and reaction to knowing Jesus. Sometimes, God allows us to go through things to help us to better learn how to depend on Him. This allows us to grow spiritually. During this time of reflection, Pastor Pat played a beautiful song he wrote titled 'Deeper Water' to describe the safety the Lord provides. When we give God control, we can trust Him in all He guides us to do, just as ships are made for sailing but are safe while in the harbor. It is so good to be saved and safe, but it is so much better to be safe and out there in the mission of God! Though storms may come, we can rest assured that joy comes in the morning!

Beginning September 17th, Sunday worship service times will change to 9:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. and Sunday School will then be offered in 3 times slots: 8:15 a.m., 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. Youth and Children's Ministry will also align with these times. God is always ready to forgive and heal our spirit. Because of this unfailing love he sent Jesus Christ so that we might receive new life, freedom from sin and a life of forgiveness in confessing Jesus as our savior. God's love never fails so we can rejoice in the power of that eternal love. Be grateful for Jesus Christ who has given us this magnificent gift. Rev. Dr. David Maggi brought the message on Sunday titled Names and Faces. He chose Hebrews 11 as the scripture. Our choir presented the anthem "We Worship As One".

The donations of prescription glasses, garden seeds, Best Choice labels and school supplies are filling the shelves in the foyer. The response to this mission project has been tremendous. These gifts are for the Festival of Sharing and collection of donations will continue through Sunday, October 1. Men, women and children of all ages are helped through your support of this mission project.

On September 10 we will celebrate Evangelism Sunday and a chicken dinner will be served immediately following worship that day. Mark your calendar and make plans to attend. Please invite your friends to come worship with us and enjoy fellowship afterwards with a delicious meal..

Tai Chi classes meet each Monday and Wednesday at 10:00 am. Tai Chi helps strengthen your core and improve balance. Consider joining.

With the start of a new school year now is the time to begin new habits. Why not include church attendance in that mix? You will find a friendly group of people waiting to make you feel welcome. "Put Your Trust in the Lord."

Galatians 6:7-9. (KJV)

We have to be prepared for the storm. As a church, this is what we should do. We don't know the damage a storm will bring.

Our strength comes from the Lord. We should be in the word of God. We should be humble enough to say something to someone that we can trust and ask for help because it is better to ask for help than lose your soul.

When we read the bible it gives us strength to see how he brings the people in the bible through their situations.

Acts 5:12-16. (KJV)

We are not exempt from things that Satan wants to do to us. Satan is after Christians more because we gave up the sin to follow Christ. There is no love in Satan.

Peter was arrested and put in prison, but God opened the prison door and loosed his chains. He then locked the door back. There is nothing impossible with God.

It says in Act 12:1 Now about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church.

Act 12:2. (KJV)

The Devil and his demons will do anything to destroy you. People were praying for Peter. When we pray, God listens.

Act 12:5.

Peter had faith. He knew God gave him a mission and no one could stop him. Herod couldn't do anything unless God allowed it. Put your trust in God. He is our power.

Know that there is no limit to what he can do.

If God Calls you to do something and you do it, he will spare you to complete your mission. He will hear your cry on the deathbed and put you in the job he has for you. God Bless

Mt. Zion UMC

Trinity, Rockville, and Mt. Zion United Methodist Churches had messages this week entitled The Long Struggle. Specifically, we learned how all Christians are called to have a passionate faith in Christ Jesus. In it Greek origins, however, passion means "to suffer," which is not typically what we associate with having passion. So Christians are called to faith suffering. Jesus taught in Matthew 16:21-28, that he would suffer, die, and be raised, as well as all those who wished to follow him must take up their cross beside him. This proves a very strange and hard concept for us to grasp, as the acceptance of Christ often means rejecting worldly success. Nevertheless, true Christians are ones who embrace this call to suffer. For we suffer for Christ. We give our time, talent, and treasure for the glory of God, and this leads us to have joy from acts of sacrifice as we seek to emulate Christ. As Christ suffered for our benefit, so we bear the burdens of our call to follow Christ in the sure and certain hope of life everlasting. For what does it benefit one to gain the entire world, but lose his/her soul? We hope that you will come and worship with us! See you soon!

Urich Baptist

Come join us each Sunday at 10:30 a.m. and be blessed with truths of Jesus Christ. Clint Keeney rang the church bell.

Mrs. Julia Klinefelter led in the congregational singing with Mrs. Dixie Collins playing piano. Randy Vogt and Clint Keeney collected the offering.

The scripture passage from interim Pastor Steve Sowell's sermon was from John 15:1-17. The title of the sermon was "Abide In Christ."

In this passage Jesus stresses the importance of abiding in Him. Abiding in Him means to reside, remain, rest, and trust in Christ. If we are not abiding in Him our focus is probably on worldly things.

Abide in Jesus and be blessed now and through eternity. Have a blessed week and bless someone else.

Express your love...with the finest.

The Shepherd Calls by Dr. H. Wade Paris

DRINK OFFERINGS

Two older ministers were talking at a convention. In their day they had "important" positions in church life. Today, they are never even consulted about printing the bulletin. Young preachers were scurrying about. "Look at those kids," one of the old ministers said. "They have no idea who we are."

"No," the other responded; "and it probably wouldn't make any difference if they knew."

It is easy for Christian servants to become woeful when they age. It is especially so if one has had some semblance of success. Once they received earthly applause; today, no one recognizes their name.

It is also true for those who served on the "downside." I think of the pastor who all his life served in places no one else wanted. Participation was often small; remuneration was meager; and recognition was nonexistent. It would be easy for him/her to think, "for what?"

The conclusion of one's ministry ought not be sad or depressing. Some become bitter. Others wallow in self-pity. The apostle Paul, who had ample reason to be despondent, viewed his ministry as a drink offering. (2Timothy 4:6ff) A thirsty child of God is offered a drink; rather than gulp it down, he pours it out as a sacrifice to God.

An architect can view the structures he engineered; a physician can count the number of his successful surgeries; but God's servants may have difficulty seeing success. Are you wondering, "Did my ministry accomplish anything?" Are you searching for affirmation? Paul told young Timothy, "Fulfill your ministry." To us old guys, that means keep working to the end. Then, view your years of service as a drink offering poured out for a loving God.

WEEK OF SEPT 11

WEEKLY HOROSCOPE

Virgo 8/23-9/22: Your restlessness on Monday and Tuesday is useful. It's due to an unquenchable intellectual curiosity, and intellectual curiosity (obviously) is what has led to the advances that the modern world is built on in terms of science, philosophy, and the arts. You're a genius! Sadly, some forces (probably in the family realm) are going to prevent you from making good on your genius on Wednesday and Thursday, but Friday and Saturday are open to your creative whims. And on Sunday, an experimental mood guides your day, so be open to anything.
Libra 9/23-10/22: They say money makes the world go 'round, and it's certainly all you can think about on Monday and Tuesday. Not that you're thinking like a greedy person. You're just thinking. What are things worth? What do you want to do with your money? These questions deserve as much consideration as you're willing to invest in them. Maybe a conversation along these lines would interest a friend on Wednesday or Thursday. Friday and Saturday find you a bit down about something in your past, but a jolt of romance on Sunday brings you very much back to the present.
Scorpio 10/23-11/21: Rebirth and regeneration are key themes at the beginning of the week. The old things are being replaced by new ones. You feel more connected to your friends and they feel more connected to you, as will be obvious on Wednesday and, well, every day after that this week. You find yourself doing things you wouldn't normally do on your own on Thursday. On Friday and Saturday, everyone you know is simply in a great mood. These are rare, wonderful times. Problems at home or with your family might arise on Sunday. Be open-minded.
Sagittarius 11/22-12/21: It's okay to be moody on Monday and Tuesday. Try not to be moody around other people, if you can help it, but don't beat yourself up for your feelings. And besides, everything will go on the upswing and stay that way by Wednesday. Thursday will be a jovial day too. Bringing your lunch to work on Friday is a smart idea. As the week winds to a close, strategies for financial shrewdness figure into your thoughts. And on Saturday, even though you want to go shopping, not doing so is a much better plan. Communication and creativity define Sunday.
Capricorn 12/22-1/19: You have a decision to make on Monday or Tuesday, and you have tons of friends who can help you make it. Rely on them more than you usually might (after all, you've surrounded yourself with smart people, and they know what they speak). Certain things might not seem possible on Wednesday or Thursday, but they are possible so long as you persevere and don't opt out (emotionally) too early on. On the other hand, keep your emotions in check and as separate as possible from tasks at hand. Friday and Saturday are truly wonderful days, and Sunday finds you babbling excitedly about the future.
Aquarius 1/20-2/18: The thoughts you have about your career at the start of the week are good thoughts to be having, healthy thoughts to be having. You are an ambitious, goal-oriented person, and while this sometimes produces stress in your life, in the long run you'll have something to show for it. Try to relieve some of this stress with a social activity, or better yet, several social activities, on Wednesday or Thursday. Friday and Saturday will return you to the business of keeping your head down and getting things done. But Sunday? You haven't felt more brilliant (or more attractive) in a while.
Pisces 2/19-3/20: You are swimming in cloudy waters on Monday and Tuesday, and some of the fish nearby are starting to appear suspiciously more like sharks. Are they sharks? Do they have your best interests at heart? No sense in getting paranoid, but pay attention this week, especially on Wednesday and Thursday. Friday has you so surrounded by friends that there's very little chance anyone would be able to sneak up on you, and Saturday (an easy day) and Sunday (an intellectually stimulating day) offer a lot in the way of pleasure.
Aries 3/21-4/19: On Monday, you are a turtle entirely uncomfortable with the idea of sunlight, and Tuesday is a stay-inside-your-shell kind of day too. It won't be until midweek that you'll be ready for the outside world, though then you'll be ready with a vengeance. Wednesday and Thursday see you marching boldly forward, introducing yourself to strangers, putting foreign foods into your gullet, and being generally pioneering. On Friday and Saturday, you have to slow down a bit for career reasons (you can't come across as too hasty in that realm right now), but on Sunday you'll stretch your legs again.
Taurus 4/20-5/20: You wish you could take things lightly on Monday and Tuesday, but that just isn't your personality right now. Everything is significant. Emotions are intense. You may feel a surge of jealousy over something it's ridiculous to be jealous about. On Wednesday and Thursday, practice not coming across as righteous and not feeling righteous. Modesty should be your modus operandi. Don't take your friends for granted; remind them how much they mean to you. By Friday, you'll be feeling more comfortable in your own skin (and your social standing) and this comfort will last into the weekend.
Gemini 5/21-6/20: Health is at the top of your mind on Monday. The slightest hint of a symptom sends you searching online for information about what may be going on. Little may be going on at all, but interest in your well-being is, you know, a healthy interest. On Tuesday, you're observant of your body as well as other areas; you're a detective. Wednesday and Thursday see you probing deeply. Friday, unfortunately, is a day of more questions than answers, and Saturday yields little in the way of new discoveries, but on Sunday someone says something that suddenly makes a week's worth of clues come together.
Cancer 6/21-7/22: The ship is rocking and heaving and throwing you all around. You're in no position to sit down and sign something. Your signature would just slide off the page. This is what Monday and Tuesday are like. By Wednesday, the ship will have steadied a bit, but rather than be overly ambitious, you should invest your energy in yourself and do something self-nurturing. The idea of being social isn't very appealing on Thursday, and Friday and Saturday are stay-at-home days as well. In dealing with others on Sunday, be as flexible as possible.
Leo 7/23-8/22: To figure out what's going on in the garden, sometimes you have to uproot everything and take a look at the soil. On Monday and Tuesday, the situation below the surface is finally getting some of your attention. Sound boring? Perhaps. But Wednesday and Thursday are the exact opposite of boring. They are fiery, fun, "cruising down the highway with the top down" sort of days, full of romance and exciting roadside distractions. On Friday and Saturday, your enthusiasm hasn't let up a bit, and Sunday is about you and you-know-who. (Some advice: don't cling.)

Lady Cardinals Tennis Continues To Pickup Wins

CHS girls tennis traveled to Bolivar for a tournament On Wednesday! What a day! Each girl played 6 matches! We had 36 matches between 8 girls on 12 courts!

Six out of 8 of the girls walked away with medals.

Isabella Griffey won all 3 singles matches resulting in a 1st place finish in the number 2 rank, beating Willard 6-3; Bolivar 6-4 and Branson 6-2.

Katie Schaffer finished in 3rd place as #4 spot!

In the afternoon, ranked at #1, Carley Combs and Isabella Griffey placed 2nd overall in the doubles tournament. First match the girls came from behind and forced a 2 point win against Bolivar 7-5. With excellent serves and tough defense on the backcourt the girls beat Willard, 6-1. A tough loss at the end of a long day losing to a strong Branson team.

The doubles team of Katie Schaffer and Emily Barnes placed 3rd overall in doubles 2 rank. In the first match, they fell short in a 7 point tie-break against Willard after staying with them and tying 6-6 for the match.

Alexis Harvey and Taryn Gilbert placed 3rd overall as the #3 doubles team. They fell short against Bolivar and came back in the second match and won against Willard 6-2.

CHS varsity girls tennis swept the Center Yellowjackets 6-0 Thursday night in singles. Each of the girls won their matches as well as doubles.

The #1 ranked doubles team of Carley Combs and Isabella Griffey won 6-1. They showed strong net play and tough placement making their opponent move across the court!

The #2 ranked doubles team of Makenna Beasley and Emily Barnes Finished strong with a 6-0 win! They were strong with placing deep shots in the backcourt.

The #3 doubles team of Katie Schaffer and Alexis Harkey won 6-1 in doubles with consistent defense.

In singles action . . .

Carley Combs won 6-4 with long volleys back-and-forth and tough shots on the sideline. Her hustle to get to tough shots from the opposing team was evident.

Isabella Griffey won 6-1 with several aces with her serve! She played some tough shots at the net.

Makenna Beasley won 6-1 attacking the net and playing strong offense.

Emily Barnes won 6-2. Emily beat her opponent by being consistent with shots and forcing their mistakes.

Katie Schaffer won in a long match coming back 6-6 and then winning in a 7 point tie break 7-2. Her conditioning paid off and she was able to get deep shots consistently.

Alexis Harkey won 6-1 and had consistent serves and powered through the match.

Coach Combs is impressed with the athleticism the team has shown this early in the season. With the heat impacting practice times and conditioning the girls have shown dedication and resilience. The team travels to Warrensburg next on Tuesday afternoon.

Cardinals Shutout At Odessa

IT WAS A ROUGH NIGHT for Clinton football. The offense was under constant duress and the defense had no answers for the offense of the Odessa Bulldogs in a 40-0 loss. Afterwards, Cardinals head coach Todd Mowery shared his thoughts. "Not a lot went well Friday," he said. "We gave up way too many big plays defensively and the offense couldn't get moving. A major lack of focus and some bad attitudes didn't help matters. We revisited a place of bad culture that we all thought was in the past. We did some things well, but we did not take a step forward this week. The best thing about the Odessa game is the fact that it is over and we can move our focus to Holden and our first home game of the season. The next few weeks are going to be very tough games and we have to get locked in if we're going to find success."

Cardinals Cross Country Brings Home Several Medals From Bolivar

It was a great day for a meet as the high school and middle school teams travel to Bolivar for the Southwest Cross Country Coaches Association meet in Bolivar.

It was perfect conditions that showed off some impressive performances for an early season meet!

Lots of PRs and 7 total medals for the day!

TRUMAN LAKE COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Fall Grant Cycle Closes

There are less than two weeks before the Truman Lake Community Foundation (TLCF) fall grant cycle closes. The TLCF will distribute more than $30,000 in grants this fall, and your organization has an opportunity to receive some of the funds. If your 501c3 not-for-profit organization, church, school, or governmental entity is seeking money for a project, then the TLCF might be able to help. The fall 2023 TLCF grantmaking cycle will run until 5:00 pm September 15th, 2023. Grant applications must be completed online at <https://tinyurl.com/2398mnfq>. There are various foundations on the website, so be sure to look for the Truman Lake Community Foundation Grantmaking Program Fall 2023. Awarded grants will be distributed in October 2023.

From the generosity of various organizations and community members, the Truman Lake Community Foundation has ballooned to manage more than twelve million dollars in assets.
