Eyes On Lincoln: R-II District Continues Major Construction

By Joyce Coates
County Reporter

August 22 is the first day of school for the Lincoln R-II public school district. Students, teachers and parents will notice the progress made since construction began on the project voters approved last year.

On April 5, 2022, Superintendent of R-II school district, Kevin Smith, thanked the community via Facebook for voting that day to pass Proposition Cardinals. "Our kids and community will all benefit."

Indeed, by the votes of 11%, that is, 297 out of the total 2,651 of those registered to vote on R-II issues, the entire community benefits.

"I have heard from many community members since the election. Every comment has been very positive. There is a lot of excitement about the additional space we have needed for many years," Smith said.

Construction began in February this year. The project is on schedule to be completed by August of 2024 in time to open the doors of the new facility for the 2024-2025 school year.

Repayment terms of the bond issue to fund the construction have not changed; that is, 20 years

SET TO DEBUT IN 2024, a massive new addition to Lincoln's R-II campus continues. Superintendent Kevin Smith and School Board Member Jason Smallwood did a progress check on Tuesday morning.

with no tax increases. Smith noted the "great working relationship" the district has with LJ Hart and Company that handled the bond sales. "The district can feel at ease knowing that everything is being taken care of properly," he said. Bond sales generated $6,300,000 in revenue for the project, more than the $6,000,000 expected.

The Enterprise article about Proposition Cardinals published March 31, 2022, reported at length on the scope of the construction project. Parent activists promoting the project envisioned the new gymnasium would enable "early access to sports training for children... starting from kindergarten and up through 6th grade" on the one hand, while also creating space necessary to allow junior and high school members of various sports teams to practice on a regular basis during the daytime.

In addition, parents and teachers looked forward to the new preschool and special services classrooms being located within the main building and out of the mobile buildings. Students would no longer have to walk back and forth every day between the mobile buildings and the main building during inclement weather. In fact, progress in that regard has already been made. Construction at the main elementary hallway to weld the new portion of the building to the existing one was ongoing at the beginning of this month.

As a result, as announced

August 1 on the school's Facebook page (<https://www.facebook.com/LHSCards/>) kindergarten orientation was delayed until August 14 and 15.

Construction projects bring some temporary inconveniences and some changes to routines. The Facebook page for Proposition Cardinals posted on February 23 about the beginning of construction, and gave advance notice that parking and after school pickup

Lincoln Adopts Unchanged 2023 Tax Ordinance

By Homer May
County Reporter

Following a 5:45 PM public hearing on the city's proposed 2023 tax rate, the Lincoln city council opened in regular session at 6:00 PM on Monday, August 14 and adopted under new business a 2023 ad valorem tax rate of .7270 cents per $100 valuation for its general revenues, and .1444 cents per $100 valuation for Parks/Recreation; both unchanged from the 2022 year rates. No doubt that action was based on the board's knowledge that Mayor Glen Nelson would report in regular session that the city experienced increased 2023 revenues of about nine percent for all major funds within the city except streets. He added the city is "doing well and on budget".

Aldermen Janice Sweargin, Jack Lietzke, Phil Fisher, Barbara Hammond were present. Mayor Nelson presided; City Clerk Sabrina Brown recorded.

First business accomplished by the group was to approve the eve's agenda and minutes of its July meeting, then agree to pay bills presented. They then heard Benton County Economic Director Jo Ann Lane present information that the Pink Silo Co. will open on August 19 at

The same site provides views of the Site Plan, the Floor Plan, and renderings of the Northeast, Southeast and Southwest exteriors of the new building.

Superintendent Smith summarized the positive impact the completed construction project will have for the school community:

- The new addition will allow the district to remove all of our mobile units and put everyone in a brick and mortar building;

- Our students will have updated technology in the computer lab;

- There will be a new Art Room, Weight Room, and Pre-School;

- The gymnasium will allow additional time for our youth programs for practice and to host bigger events.

"We are very excited for our new addition, and cannot thank the community enough for all their support."

White went on to say, "BCE TV is a link that may be accessed through www.citylinktv.com or viewers may also find it right on our website at www.bentoncountyenterprise.com. Viewers can watch the games on a smart TV, phone, tablet or laptop."

Over the years, several upgrades have been necessary and other optional modifications have also been added to enhance the broadcasts.

"Like anything else, we have had to upgrade some equipment and software," White said. "There have been connection concerns at some more rural locations, but for the most part, we have always been able to remedy those issues right away and bring the games to the fans like they expect."

One of the newer features in 2023 will be the ability to provide a live scoreboard that will be visible on a viewer's screen during the entire game, complete with graphics.

"One thing that people have always told us is that they wish our broadcast had a scoreboard, so we have really worked on perfecting that this year," White said proudly. "In the past, fans have been reliant on commentators to announce the scores, but they won't have to do that as often now."

An added feature this year will also be the ability for broadcasters to highlight starting lineups and individual players throughout the game.

The crew for all Warsaw broadcasts throughout the 2023 season will be Matt Dove and Drew Burdick. Adam Howe will join them in the booth at all away contests.

Dove will do the play-by-play for the Wildcats and Burdick will do color commentary along with game stats. Howe will provide additional commentary at away games.

"BCE TV is a great way for former players, fans and coaches to check in on their teams, no matter where they are in the world," Dove said. "It's a great way to stay connected."

The production of BCE TV also encourages and helps to connect the school and their respective community as several advertising options are available for businesses and organizations to show their support. Full video commercials, either previously produced or shot and produced by the BCE TV production team is the most popular. However, other opportunities to advertise include logos and/or "live reads", narrated by the broadcast team.

Every broadcasted game for each team, as well as a coaches show for Warsaw is always archived for later viewing.

"The archive feature of BCE TV is very popular because it allows relatives and friends to view over the weekend or even later if they can't watch the game live on Friday night," White said.

A full slate of games will await Wildcats fans in 2023. It's Friday Night Football, LIVE and archived on BCE TV.

Full schedules for the Wildcats is as follows:

8/25, 7:00 PM vs. Marceline;

9/1, 7:00 PM vs. Versailles;

9/8, 7:00 PM @ Lafayette County;

9/15, 7:00 PM vs. Sherwood;

9/23, 12:00 PM @ Hogan Prep Academy Charter;

10/6, 7:00 PM vs. Butler;

"It was a privilege to be honored at the luncheon," said Foster. "It was very gratifying, and I received a certificate, a medallion, and a rose."

Foster was able to listen to the successes of other ladies and learn about the huge areas of influence that each of them has accomplished. She was also able to talk to the presidents of the National and Missouri Federations of Republican Women.

Foster is from Missouri, but she spent 37 years in California in the nursing and medical field. Her husband was also stationed with the military in the state, but in 2007 they returned to the local area.

"Because it had been such a long time since I had lived here, I didn't know anyone," remembers Foster. "But one day during the Jubilee Days celebration I met Marilyn Drake and Shirley Lowe on the courtyard lawn and talked to them for about an hour. They were both members of the BCRWC and when I got home, I started thinking that those were the type of people I wanted to meet. I went to the July and August meetings of their club and heard about the National Federation of Republican Women Convention that was about to take place in Florida. I thought I would go and then I could see my daughter who lived in the state. By the next month, I was elected president of the BCRWC. I knew a lot about nursing but nothing at all about politics. I served a total of four years as president, then accepted the position of Secretary serving in that capacity for several years. I was also Second Vice-President, followed by a term as First Vice-President and am now Parliamentarian of the club."

Foster's husband became sick with dementia, and she wanted to be with him all the time during 2022. She cut ties with everything that she was doing until he passed away in February of this year.

Foster is getting back into her most treasured volunteer activities, including her work with the Samaritan Village Orphanage and Medical Clinic in Arusha, Tanzania. She is a member of River Church which helps sponsor the orphanage, and Foster has traveled to it five times so far to help, including a trip in 2012 which was reported in the Benton County Enterprise. She said there are currently about 60 orphans at the village. There have been about 150 abandoned children taken in since the orphanage opened. Some have been adopted and many of them have grown up and become successful in a variety of careers. Among the alumni are two doctors, a lawyer, a priest, minister, and some seamstresses.

"River Church, in Warsaw, supported a medical clinic in Arusha and the village is building a new dormitory," said Foster. "One milk cow was donated a while back and now the village is raising cattle so there is plenty of milk. Since the addition of a rooster the hens are laying eggs that are being sold. There are pigs for producing pork to be sold to local restaurants, and there are fish and vegetables, so the orphanage is self-sufficient. It started with one little girl who'd been abandoned. The orphanage was created in 1992 and began caring for children in 1996. The children are given a first name and all of them have the last name of Samaritan. They are also given their own individual birth date."

Foster has also been very involved with the Friends of the Benton County Sheriff's Office, and she wants to get involved with the organization again. She says the volunteers have done a lot for the Sheriff's Department including getting a $29,000 drone, vests, and another drug/attack dog, and they are working on another project this year.

Foster was ordained as a minister in the River Church in October of 2018. She teaches some women's studies and has done some church services. Her church, law enforcement and the Republican Women's Club are her main concerns now.

"I am about to have hip replacement surgery," said Foster. "I'm almost 85 years old, but I still want to be as active for as long as I can."

The Schembri's were flown to University Hospital in Columbia by Life Flight, while Taylor was transported by Warsaw-Lincoln Ambulance to Bothwell Regional Health Center in Sedalia for treatment.

The UTV was said to have moderate damage.

TPR RW Rosenthal, TPR JW Miller, TPR CS Riley and TPR BG Katzing were assisted at the scene by Benton County deputies.

LINCOLN

(Continued from Page 1) 9:00 AM. She expressed amazement that Cory Bylery, owner of that home decor firm, had done so much with the building. Lane continued that registration for The Connecting Entrepreneurial Conference is still open, with Mayors from Cole Camp, Lincoln and Warsaw, plus the county's Presiding Commissioner expected to give presentations. She added that a pre-event will be held on September 19 at Drenon Ranch Arena, breakout sessions will be held mid-morning September 20 in Cole Camp and September 21 in Warsaw, and morning tours will be held at various locations in the county. She also identified a new restaurant, called the Missouri Made Shop and Cafe, is opening this week in Cole Camp.

There was no old business. Police Chief Jason Wenburg reported that his department received 76 calls and investigated two accidents in July. He added the city's two sirens would be tested next Wednesday. Public Works employee Donny Bennett, subbing for PW Director Josh Cole, said Co-Mo has patched several manholes in the Frisch addition, plug-ins and power are all installed at the city's Hare Park, the city's lead and copper studies are progressing, but the city's sewer pumps continue to be a problem.

City Clerk Brown reported there are two businesses in the city that have not renewed their sales license. She added that the automatic telephone call system to alert citizens worked, during a recent water shutoff caused by a water leak.

Also under new business, the group adopted an ordinance establishing rules (including hours of operation: 5:30 AM-10:30 PM) for the public parks within the city, deeming violation of those rules a misdemeanor and providing for a penalty for violation thereof.

The group closed its open session about 6:30 PM to go into executive session.

Visitors are welcome to this city's open sessions, usually held on 2nd Monday eves. Plenty of seating is available.

Former Cole Camp Star Cook Comes Home To Be Bluebirds New Athletic Trainer

ONCE A COLE CAMP ATHLETE herself, Maddi Cook is the new athletic trainer for the Bluebirds. She will be tasked with keeping Cole Camp athletes healthy on the fields and courts.

By Johnie Logue
Sports
Reporter

I was at a Cole Camp football practice last Thursday and had a conversation on the sidelines with Maddi Cook, the new athletic trainer at Cole Camp. I am always looking for a good story and on the way home, I realized that I had found one.

JL-How long have you lived in Cole Camp?

Maddi-Since birth, so 24 years. I graduated in 2017.

JL-What sports did you play at Cole Camp and what honors and awards did you receive while you were there?

Maddi-I participated in volleyball, basketball and track.

My awards:

-Volleyball (All-District, All-Region)

-Track (All-State 4 years. State Champion in 4x800M and 3rd Place at state in the high jump).

JL-Where did you go to college?

Maddi-I went to Columbia College in Columbia, MO my freshman year. I majored in Business with a Minor in Sports Psychology.

However, I decided that I wanted to become an Athletic Trainer.

I then took the initiative to transfer to CMU and join their accelerated Masters program in Athletic Training.

I graduated with my Bachelors of Science in Exercise Science from Central Methodist in 2022.

I then graduated with my Masters of Science in Athletic Training in May of 2023 from Central.

I did track and field (high jump) at CMU for 5 years, competed unattached while in the Masters program. I also coached high jump at Central while in the Masters program. My PR is 5'5.5" in the high jump.

JL-When did you become interested in being an athletic trainer?

Maddi-I became interested in AT in high school. My HS AT, DeLee Sabatino, was my role model all throughout and still is. She taught me so much in high school and has advised me numerous times outside of high school. She has even been my reference to get into the masters program at Central Methodist. DeLee is such a great person and athletic trainer, and I hope to be as great of an athletic trainer as her someday.

JL-How did you come to get the job at CC?

Maddi-I heard that there was an opening after their last athletic trainer left. They are affiliated with Peak, Sport & Spine, which is who I work for. My boss told me about the opening, and then I applied. Numerous coaches asked me if I wanted to come back to Cole Camp and be their athletic trainer.

JL-Why come back to Cole Camp?

Maddi-One of the reasons I wanted to come back to Cole Camp was because most of my family lives here. My grandma lives right down the road, therefore I'm able to see her often. My dad lives in Cole Camp, and my mom and stepdad live in Lincoln. Being away at college for five years made me realize that I truly missed my family and wanted to live close to them. I enjoy any amount of time that I can be around my family.

JL-What are your future goals?

Maddi-My goal is just to be the best athletic trainer that I can be. I want to be there for my athletes when they need it, whether that be mentally, physically, or emotionally. I want them to know that with anything going on in their life, I will try my best to help and listen to them. I enjoy being an athletic trainer and I have greatly enjoyed Cole Camp.

JL-Who has been your biggest encouragement??

Maddi-My family and friends have always encouraged me greatly. Most of the friends that I have are also athletic trainers, so there is a tight knit group that we have. I know that I can always go to them for advice or for help with any athlete. My family (she is single) has been there for me my whole life. I am very, very grateful for them. Another big help would be my professors at Central Methodist University: Wade, Kristan and Jim. However, Wade has been my advisor since being at Central. I know that I can still go to Wade and Kristan for anything and they would not hesitate to help.

Maddi-Thank you for doing a story on me! I greatly appreciate it!

THE BLUEBIRDS' Kyle Thomas and Chase Stone battle for position in practice last Thursday for Cole Camp soccer.

CARDINALS assistant coach Braden Drehle instructs the Lincoln linemen on Thursday morning. Their numbers have grown from 13 to 19 over the last few weeks. However, they have only seven skill players and no seniors.

COLE CAMP'S Gentry Dieckman battles the early morning fog to spot an open receiver on Thursday morning in Cole Camp. The Bluebirds have 34 players out this season.

Missouri is moving to time-based electric rate plans this fall.

Missouri customers will have a choice of four new rate plan options. Evergy is here to help you understand your options and choose the rate plan that best fits your household.

Learn more at evergy.com/MyPlan

Why is Missouri changing to time-based rates?

Timing is everything when it comes to energy costs. Time-based rates match the cost you pay with the actual cost to produce energy. With time-based rate plans, you'll pay less for energy during off-peak times, when demand for energy is lower, and more for energy used during the peak hours of 4-8pm.

WARSAW CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Paul wrote the following to Timothy: "... from infancy you have known the holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus." "Able" in this verse is a translation of the Greek word "dunamis," a word which is a bit stronger than "able." It is the word often used for power, suggesting an inherent power in Scripture draws us to faith in Jesus as we are exposed to the Gospel. Our word "dynamite" derives from this Greek word. Thus, the Scriptures "have the power to make us wise unto salvation."

A wise Christian knows that salvation is in Jesus Christ, a truth that has powerfully exploded in their soul through exposure to the Scriptures. We have a glorious treasure in the Holy Bible, yet many give it little time or thought. Faith in Christ makes us Christians. Knowing Scripture makes us wise Christians, helping us understand the wonderful treasure we possess in the word "salvation."

If I may make a personal reference, in my case, I knew about Jesus in the Bible for years before I was converted. I knew what the Scriptures said about Him.

I rejected most of what they said. When a neighbor's witness opened my eyes to the gospel's truth, the Jesus of Scripture suddenly and indelibly became alive in my soul. My first impulse from that encounter with the living Christ was a desire to read the New Testament. I read it for the first time through the lens of faith, and the Scriptures began their work of making me wise unto salvation. I might add that the job is not yet finished! I still need lots of exposure to the sacred writings.

But how can words on a page have such wondrous power? According to its testimony and the testimony of millions of believers, the Bible is a unique book. Hebrews tells us that the Word of God is living and active. As we handle the Word of God with faith, the God revealed on the pages of Scripture becomes real in our hearts. Paul tells us that the word of God is the sword of the Holy Spirit (Eph. 6:17). The Holy Spirit operates in, with, and through the written word.

Our church is committed to the Bible, the whole Bible, and nothing but the Bible because we want our members to become wise unto salvation.

LINCOLN FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Hello everyone I pray your week was blessed. Our Sunday school is holding steady. Worship is also holding steady. Many new faces in the congregation. Tina Kliaber and daughter attended the Women's Retreat in Sedalia last weekend. School will be starting in a couple of weeks. Pray for the teachers and students to have a great school year. Pastor Jesse sang Born to Serve the Lord today. There were 15 people who went to Big Surf in Camdenton last Sunday, five adults and ten youth. This was a trip planned by the youth group. They enjoyed the day.

Pastor Jesse's message was from 14 John 14: 10. God loved us before we loved Him. Love and serve Him because He first loved us. What is the first thing you do when you get up in the morning? We need to thank God for another day of life.

Do you fear Jesus? Do you love Jesus? Jesus is love and just. When tragedy happens does God turn away from you? We don't love Jesus until we grow to appreciate Him. Don't let someone send you to hell. Know the love of Jesus. If Jesus is in you, you can overcome.

God comes first and men should be the head of the household and women next. How can you love God if you don't love your brother? First be God's son or daughter.

SUNDAY IS 9:30 AM AND WORSHIP IS 10:30 AM. BIBLE STUDY AND YOUTH GROUP IS AT 6 PM EACH WEDNESDAY EVENING.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK JOHNNIE J. LOGUE

The Glory Boys

I hear people say they led someone to the Lord. Really?

I hear people say they are a prayer warrior. Really?

I hear people say they have a great talent. How gifted they are. Really?

I hear preachers say they built a large church. Really?

I hear people say how beautiful they are. Really?

I hear people say how good of a Bible teacher or how a great preacher they are. Really?

I hear people say how smart they are. Really?

I hear people say how great an athlete they are. Really?

They wallow in their own so-called self glory.

They need to go eat a ton of humble pie.

Paul said, "God forbid that I would glory, saved in the cross of the Lord Jesus Christ." -Galatians 6:14

He also said, "Whether therefore ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God." -1 Cor 10:31

Are you a glory boy?

Grace Baptist Church is located at 31046 Hwy MM. Services are at 10:00 AM for Sunday School and 11:00 AM for worship. Evening service are at 4:00 PM.

HOPEWELL BAPTIST CHURCH

In Matthew 8:14-22 we hear how Jesus stops at Peter's home and finds his mother-in-law is sick. Jesus touches her hand, and she is healed. She has an encounter with the grace of God, and she now sees what Peter sees! She has seen who Jesus is and now she wants to serve the King of Kings! The people start bringing demon possessed people to her home and Jesus cast out demon after demon. He took sick people and made them well. What a trip of a day! She wakes up sick that morning and goes to bed that evening serving the Messiah, the Son of Man!

Matthew, the writer, wants people everywhere to know that Jesus of Nazareth is Christ the King, and the fulfillment of the Jewish prophecy. When the crowds kept coming, Jesus realized things were getting out of control, so they crossed to the other side of the lake. Here, a teacher of the law tells Jesus he will follow Him wherever He goes, and Jesus asks him if, he is sure? Jesus tells the teacher, where I'm going has no definitive end, no home. You will be giving up all the things you seem to hold most dear! The man says he needs to wait until his father passes so he will be around to bury him. Jesus says, if you're going to follow me, follow me now!

We think of Jesus purely as the savior of mankind - He is the King of all whether we recognize and acknowledge it or not. We can be saved and set, or Jesus can be King! We say we love other people and community, yet we hold back. When we walk into our jobs, is Jesus King? Let's change things. Let's let Jesus be who He really is! Open our minds, open our hearts, let Jesus be our King! If He's calling on our hearts, let's not hold out on Him! Every step of the journey is worth it! When we walk with Jesus, every minute is worth it! Let's join together and serve Jesus!

Join us Sunday mornings for Sunday School at 10 a.m. with Worship at 11 a.m., and Sunday and Wednesday Bible Study at 6 p.m. Watch us live at 11:15 a.m. on Hopewell Baptist Church Facebook page.

Have I Got A Line For You!

By James Mahlon White

Lots going on. The 31 year old "Crypto King" charged with swindling billions from investors had his bail revoked. Sam Bankman-Fried wasn't jailed for the crime he committed, but a love letter to his ex-girlfriend. The whole world is upside down. He never should have been under house arrest anyway, even though he paid for the privilege with big political contributions ahead of time.

The wildfires in Maui have been a devastating thing to watch. More than 100 people dead and many in shelters. Oprah tried to visit one of them with a camera crew. A local official prevented this from happening. I'm surprised she didn't do a TV interview on a sofa amongst the burned out rubble. At least someone had the good sense to tell her no. Last thing I'd want is a celebrity traipsing around after losing everything and asking how I am with a camera in my face.

Well, Attorney General Merrick Garland appointed the man who's already in charge of investigating Hunter Biden to be an "Independent Counsel" in charge of investigating Hunter Biden. Not sure how that makes him independent. David Weiss was the prosecutor that wanted to let Hunter off on Federal charges. We all know where this movie is going to end. A predetermined happy ending for the Biden Crime Family, that's where.

Since Hunter made the news, another indictment of The Donald was sure to follow, and it did. This one in Fulton County, Georgia which is about as corrupt as Cook County, Illinois. Before the grand jury could finish deliberating, the prosecutor put the indictment on the website.....then retracted it saying she, "Had no idea how that happened." Hours later the same indictment was re-posted. UNBELIEVABLE!

Funny what pops into your mind from time to time. In the backyard of the Enterprise Building there used to be heavy metal box attached to the top of a fairly tall stump. It contained portulaca (moss rose) and next to it big peonies that grew just in time for Memorial Day. My grandmother would take them to decorate graves. The cemetery would be full of visitors paying respects and stopping at family headstones. Though maybe, at one grave, somebody would look at the stone and remark, "That's old so and so".....not too audibly, of course.

Enough of this meandering around on the keyboard. Hang on old buddy, even if it's only by your fingertips.

'Til Next Week:

A new school year will soon begin. And if you have young children, that means it's one year closer to the day when they head off to college or some other post-secondary education or training. You might be preparing for that day with a 529 education savings plan — but should you be concerned if you need to start taking withdrawals to pay for education expenses when the financial markets are volatile?

Long-term investment vehicles based on the financial markets, like a 529 plan, will always fluctuate in value. If you've had a 529 plan for many years, you've probably invested money when the market has been up, down and flat. In fact, during down periods, it's often a good time to invest, because your dollars buy more shares than they could when prices are up. Your hope is that, over the years, your 529 plan will gain enough to overcome the short-term declines in value.

In any case, you'll want to keep in mind the key benefit of 529 plans: Earnings and withdrawals are federally tax free when the money is used for qualified education expenses for college and some trade school programs. And your state may give you an income tax deduction or a credit for your 529 plan contributions. In some states, a 529 plan can be used for K-12 schooling as well.

You have another incentive to keep your 529 plan intact despite temporary drops in value. Specifically, if you withdraw money and don't use it for eligible education expenses, your withdrawal may be subject to a 10% penalty, in addition to state and federal income taxes. That could be a high price to pay for a move that may not be in your best interest. After all, if you were to move your 529 plan money into a minimal-risk asset, such as some type of cash vehicle, you could sacrifice some of the growth potential you might need to meet the high costs of higher education.

Many 529 plans offer investment portfolios that gradually become more risk averse as the beneficiary gets closer to college age. A financial advisor can discuss the investment options with you.

While this investment feature doesn't guarantee you'll have complete immunity from financial market volatility, it can help reduce its impact when you need access to the money.

Here's one more point to keep in mind: Just because you've planned to access your 529 plan when your child reaches 18, or whatever age they begin their post-secondary education, you're not required to take money out at that point. You can keep your 529 plan intact until you feel more comfortable making withdrawals, though you'll need to consider how this decision will affect your ability to help pay for your child's education.

The financial markets will always be in some type of flux, but don't let these movements deter you from sticking with a 529 plan — it's still one of the best investments you can make in your child's future.

Dear Editor,
The Investment and Jobs Act, authorizing $1.2 trillion for transportation and infrastructure was signed into law November 15, 2021 by President Joe Biden.

Part of this legislation is the Clean School Bus Program. Stover, Green Ridge, LaMonte and 23 other school districts in Missouri have received 57 new electric and 1 propane school buses and charging stations costing $21.8 million. This next year's grants will prioritize schools in low income areas.

Electric school buses require less maintenance, save on fuel costs and reduce greenhouse gas emissions. With no tailpipe emissions, students, drivers and people in the community breathe in far less diesel pollutants such as nitrogen oxide. The electric buses improve public health significantly. Another plus, electric school buses can store energy that can be distributed to the grid when needed during weather or climate related emergencies.

Hopefully Benton County schools can take part in this wonderful Clean School Bus Program which gives grants and loans from 2022 to 2026 to replace diesel school buses with cleaner electric buses. The Investment and Jobs Act is just one of the many new programs signed into law by the Joe Biden administration that is helping rural areas as well as larger cities. Joe Biden is helping small town America and Missouri.

Dear Editor,
Will it be cheaper to buy Biden non-prescription drugs out of the White House (online orders only) or cheaper to buy them on the streets from Biden's illegals? Due to the ever-growing inflation since 2021, a person needs to be thrifty when purchasing nowadays.

By the way, when will Build Back Better commence?

Thank you!

Nearing the end of the fresh tomato season, I often make the following. More of an assembly than a recipe, you can quickly and deliciously use up a plethora of tomatoes.

Preheat oven to 400 degrees. Line a baking sheet with parchment paper. Slice tomatoes about 1/2 inch thick and place on baking sheet, lightly salt and pepper each slice. Top each slice with lots of freshly shredded parmesan and mozzarella cheeses. Drizzle olive oil over each slice, bake for 4 minutes, and run under a broiler to brown cheese.

This is a great side dish for almost anything, you can change up the cheeses, just don't over bake the tomatoes or they will turn to mush. If you have some fresh basil, sprinkle on top.

NEWS
 By Pat Arnett

The Fristoe area has had really nice weather for the most part with nice rains and temperatures that can be tolerated. Gardens are producing lots of tomatoes, cucumbers, peppers and many other veggies to be enjoyed.

FIRST: It was announced at Fristoe Pentecostal Church on Sunday morning that the church was planning to hold Revival (BRUSH ARBOR) services on September 21, 22 and 23, beginning at 6:00 PM each evening! As more information is put out, more will be included in this column!

Prayer requests for this week: Russ Weeks, Kathy First, Carolee Apperson, Lewis and Judy Retherford, Gladys Harris, Easter Willis, Curtis Allen and Mary Scarbrough!
 Happy anniversary to Br. and Sis. Smith as they celebrated their 49th anniversary on August 9.
 Many area youth had products entered in the Missouri State Fair this week and many also give demonstrations on their products. I really enjoyed the MO State Fair, both working there and just going for entertainment. As I continue with my story from 20 years ago, here it comes! I began classes at State Fair Community College in January 2000 along with Donna Grotz, Lola Palmer, Judy Smith and several more. Several times I said I don't think I can do this; I am going to quit, but my friend Donna and my family was very supportive and would say, "NO YOU ARE NOT; you are going to do this!" I am proud to say that all of the women who started to school with me finished in December 2001, or some sooner! Yes, our lives changed, and yes, as the Reba McEntire song said, "There Is Life Out There". I will finish the story next week!

Everyone needs to remember that in the next week or so every school will be open and children will be meeting school buses and other rides, so pay attention along streets and other roads. Warsaw and Climax Springs schools will convene on Tuesday, August 22.

Fristoe Pentecostal Lighthouse Church had a great congregation on Sunday with several, one being Kathy First, who was at church and enjoyed herself! Claude and the Lighthouse Singers sang a great special. Also Ken, DoBee and Brenda did a wonderful special as did Br. Cunningham on his special! The Sunday School is still studying in the book of 2 Chronicles about Solomon following God's direction and leading of building the temple that King David had wanted to build but God said, "no". It must be when Solomon was made King that God would give directions to him (Solomon) to build the temple. Br. Smith's message for Sunday was Exodus Chapter 14 and where Moses led the Israelites out of Egypt and how God used the spreading of blood over the door to show who was covered by God. It is only by being covered by the blood of Jesus that we can be saved!

Thought for the week: Any person that does things that really count doesn't usually stop to count them!
 Hope everyone reading The Fristoe News has a wonderful week! God Bless!

Phyllis Howard

Phyllis Irene Weaver Howard closed her worldly book of life June 25, 2023 at Lincoln Community Care Center, Lincoln, MO and began a new chapter of adventure in her Heavenly Father's Realm. Her Celebration of Life will be August 26, 2023 at 11a.m, First United Methodist Church, 154 W. Washington St, Warsaw, MO. Pastor Loren Whetsell Officiating and Reser Funeral Home assisting the service.

Phyllis was born May 18, 1925, the first daughter and third child of Arthur Edmund Weaver and Susan Floretta "Susie Florence" Burch in a small log cabin in the "middle of nowhere", Crowing Township, Hubbard County, Minnesota. She was their first daughter and third child and weighed under five pounds. She was a plucky baby and a survivor, two traits along with her faith, love, forgiveness, positivity, curiosity, intelligence, perseverance, generosity, funniness, friendliness and kindness were the hallmarks of her life.

Phyllis married in her teens in Montana. She lost an infant child, Jane Phyllis Reed. The brief marriage ended in divorce and she moved back to Washington alone. Phyllis worked as a Rosie the Riveter in World War II. In 1947, she married John "Jack" Alfred Swart. They had three children, one son and two daughters, Stephen Wilbur, Joanne Rose and June Phyllis. Joanne Rose, was born with a critical heart defect. Tetralogy of Fallot, and passed away following open heart surgery in 1959. Her husband Jack passed away in 1974. Phyllis took evening college courses, continued to write, and even learned to Belly Dance and bravely joined in a few charity performances. In 1991, Phyllis remarried Robert Bidwell and was widowed in 1992. Phyllis retired and moved to be near her daughter June's family in Wisconsin. When she moved to Warsaw, Missouri with June and JC Sterling, they joined the Damsite Dancers. Phyllis met the greatest love of her life dancing, Charles "Charlie" Howard. When they married in 1999 at the Methodist Church, the sanctuary was filled with costumed square dancers, who danced with the new couple in the Fellowship Hall after the dinner; and JC, an inspiring Caller called the dances! Charlie was diagnosed with Alzheimer's Disease in 2002 and Phyllis cared for him at home until condition worsened to the point that he entered the VA Home in Cameron, MO, until his passing in September 2011. Phyllis moved into a lake home community a block away from June and JC in 2005. She lived at home alone, but was very active with her family and her church, First United Methodist of Warsaw. She volunteered for Sunday School Teacher, VBS worker, church office, Kids's Connection, story teller and Bible story actress. She went on mission trips and labored along side other Volunteers In Mission in storm damaged communities. She loved giving tours and telling and retelling the stories one summer as a dayworker for the Benton County Museum at the old high school building on the hill. Phyllis was a member of local Red Hat Ladies and TOPS. Phyllis suffered a debilitating stroke in 2014. Her granddaughter Jennifer and family then graciously welcomed Phyllis to their home in Warsaw. Later daughter June and husband Jay having sold their home and bought a home on one level, invited Phyllis to live with them. In February 2017, Phyllis made Lincoln Community Care Center (LCCC) her last home. She enjoyed many visits from her family and church friends!

Phyllis had always enjoyed reading and writing and entering contests. In the 1950's when Jingles on the radio were the main source of advertising, she won several contests for her Jingles that brought in real money, luxury items and even a vacation that she shared with her family. She had a career at Sears of Las Vegas, going from just Christmas help in the Catalog Department to Catalog Supervisor, retiring 30 years later. She loved square dancing, along fishing and boating in Missouri. She often "bragged" of the 56 pound spoonbill that she caught while out snagging with her son-in-law, Jay and "Bonus Son" Pete Wolf. She has had allot of poems and several stories published. Her account of Charlie's battle with Alzheimer's was accepted and printed in the book about Alzheimer's victims in Missouri. She went to Washington DC as a Delegate to testify at the National Forum on Alzheimer's. She was published in the Pacific Coaster, Reminisce Magazine, Reader's Digest, among others and wrote local interest stories for the Antigo Daily Journal in Wisconsin. She also was a reporter for the Damsite Dancers, TOPS and VFW Ladies Auxiliary and wrote upbeat articles for the Lincoln and Cole Camp nursing homes. Phyllis authored two books about her life for her family.

As a child, Phyllis's favorite readings were Fairy Tales from the Wonder Books and true adventure travel books by Richard Halliburton. After her children were grown, Phyllis's own fairy tale dreams became fact as she indulged in seeing the world! Phyllis visited over 40 countries, numerous islands, crossed both major oceans, and "sailed the more than proverbial seven seas" on five continents. She loved to say with a smile: "Not bad for a poor little girl from Minnesota!" She also enjoyed 45 of the 50 USA states. The Good Lord made this earth so lovely that a favorite is not possible but the old saying "There is no place like home" holds true. She is greatly missed by her family, friends, her Care Givers at LCCC and her church family! The week of her death, LCCC staff, one after another came in to tell her daughter how she had always generously given of herself to listen to and encourage them. She always believed in "looking at the good side" of every situation and never understood why people said "Why me?" when bad things happened. She would say "Why not me? I can't and won't wish that God chose someone else to lose a child, or a spouse, or a job, or any bad thing. The Bible says "the rain falls on the just and the unjust."

Phyllis is survived by: son Stephen (Ruth) Swart of Northern Virginia and daughter June (Jassie)

Sterling of Warsaw; six grandchildren: Amy (Scott) Bailey of Illinois, Jennifer (Dan) Bessert, of Oklahoma Ann (Scott) Tyler of Arizona, Kenneth Sterling of Lincoln; Lisa (Ed) Gibbs and Lori (Joey) Sanchez of Idaho, 18 great-grandchildren and three great-great grandchildren and one brother Lewis (Flossie) Zechmeir, of Washington State. Phyllis was preceded in death by her parents: Arthur and Susan Weaver; her stepfather, Albert Zechmeir; Daughters: Jane Reed, Joanne Swart; Husbands: John Swart, Robert Bidwell, Charles Howard; Siblings: Wayne (Lee) Weaver (killed during WWII at Anzio Beach, Italy), Vernon and Joseph Weaver, Elinor Weaver Rieker, Barbara Zechmeir Bible, Pauline (Patsy) Zechmeir Johnson, Robert and Roger Zechmeir.

Hello Benton County, neighboring counties, and folks all over. I am humbled to find out how many of the thousands of followers read my dispatches and how far outside our beautiful county, they reach. I am happy to announce that some of those folks are law enforcement officers who also like what we are doing here in Benton County and want to be a part of a Constitutional agency who applies common sense and heart along with statute, and above all, a community that supports and appreciates their law enforcement! We are peacekeepers before we are enforcement officers.

We have hired three outstanding, experienced LE to start filling in our ranks. We have another veteran coming our way who seems to be of the same caliber. The staff will interview him on the 14th. We have four more citizens who are tired of the way things are! They are going to the part time POST training academy while continuing to work a regular job. I commend these people for stepping up to make a difference in their community!

I spoke with one of our citizens recently who came by the office concerned that I was not going to run for reelection. I have since heard the same rumor multiple times, so I want to set that straight. I plan on being your humble servant as long as you will allow me the honor, serving you as long as my views and beliefs are the same as yours. If I start to stray from what it is you hold dear, then it is time for a new sheriff.

My work here is not done. One of the things on my to do list is to see the creation of a much-needed animal shelter. Our furry family needs us to stand up for them and find a humane answer to the suffering of so many dogs and cats, not to mention the issue we have as law enforcement. Dog bites with no place to quarantine, detainees arrested after traffic stops with animals in the car and abandoned pets left to die a miserable, lonely death after someone moves from their residence are all problems we see on a regular basis.

I ask you to talk among yourselves and start a conversation about a new shelter. How do we pay for it? How do we maintain it financially? Where do we put it, and maybe the biggest question of all, would it be a shelter that would euthanize or one that doesn't?

I would like to hear from some of the citizens I have visited with over the past years. There are a lot of people who have already put much thought into this very important issue. Just a reminder, I do not do business through Facebook. I use Facebook to reach out to you so you stay informed and in the name of transparency but don't respond to messages through that platform. Please, stop by the office, call me at 660-438-6135 ext. 3 or email me at eric.knox@bentoncomo.com to get the conversation started. Thank you for your well wishes and all the support I see as I move throughout our county. Remember, be aware of your surroundings, be good to your neighbors and stay vigilant. Together, we will overcome the evil that exist among us!

MSHP Reminds Drivers, "It's Time For School!"

August has arrived and with it the 2023-2024 school year. The Missouri State Highway Patrol would like to encourage parents to include conversations about safety when preparing their student for school. It's also important that drivers be prepared for the change in traffic patterns as students begin another year of instruction. In 2022, two people were killed and 361 injured in traffic crashes involving a school bus. In Missouri last year, a total of 884 traffic crashes involved school buses.

Troopers hope everyone will review these safety tips:

Motorists
Always be vigilant, but especially near school zones, playgrounds, bicycle paths, and crosswalks when schools are in session. Expect pedestrian and bicycle traffic to increase near schools on days where the weather is good. When schools are in session, drivers should expect a change in traffic patterns - school buses, parents taking their children to school, and many young drivers will join other motorists on the road and affect the morning and afternoon commute. Whatever route you drive, expect this additional traffic and prepare by allowing extra time to reach your destination.

Missouri law states that on a two-lane road, if a school bus is stopped and displaying warning signals while loading or unloading children, drivers must stop when meeting and following the bus. However, it is only necessary to stop on a four-lane highway when following the bus. Drivers, when you see a stopped school bus, stay alert and follow the law. Children may not be aware of traffic and dart unexpectedly into the roadway.

Students

If you're walking to school, stay alert! Cross the street at intersections or marked crosswalks and never between parked cars. Use sidewalks when they are available. If it is necessary to walk on the roadway, stay close to the left edge and step off to the left when traffic approaches. Never dash into the street after a friend or to retrieve something.

Riding a bicycle to school is a fun way to travel. If you're riding your bike, be sure to wear a helmet and obey all traffic signs and signals. Ride as near to the right side of the roadway as is safe and use the proper hand signals when you plan to change directions, slow, or stop. Never carry passengers. Keep both hands on the handlebars except when signaling. It's important to maintain your bicycle in good condition.

If you ride a school bus, check the weather and dress accordingly. Wait in line for the bus on the shoulder or sidewalk. Use the handrail when getting on or off the bus. Never try to retrieve items that fall under the bus and walk at least 10 feet in front of the bus when crossing the street. Sit quietly on the bus and keep the aisle clear. If anything goes wrong, stay calm and follow the instructions of the bus driver.

Most traffic crashes involving young drivers (under the age of 21) occur between 3 p.m. and 4 p.m., when school typically lets out. Many of these drivers are young and inexperienced. Parents: It is important to encourage those young drivers to remember driving is a full-time job. Using a cell phone, texting, or adjusting the radio can be the distraction that leads to a traffic crash. It's also against the law for this age group.

Parents

Parents are encouraged to talk to their children about riding a bus, walking, or driving to school in a safe manner. If they ride a bike, please make sure they wear a helmet and follow traffic laws.

Please talk to your children about the Courage 2 Report MO program, which provides a safe and confidential way to report any concerns regarding their safety or the safety of others. These concerns may include: assault, bullying/repeated harassment, cyber bullying, fighting, guns, homicide, human trafficking, knife, planned school attack, imminent school shooting, school shooting threat, sexual offense, suicide-other person (3rd party), or a terrorism threat (extremism). Those reporting their concerns may remain anonymous. C2R provides a "sooner is safer" tool to report real time concerns 24 hours a day. There are several ways concerned persons may submit a C2R report: through an Apple or Google Play Courage2Report mobile app, by making an online report via <http://www.msph.dps.missouri.gov/MSHPWeb/Courage2ReportMO/index.html>, by speaking confidentially to a trained professional at 866-748-7047, or by texting "C2R" to 738477.

C2R Missouri calls and tips (web, text, and mobile app) are answered 24 hours a day, 365 days a year by trained communications professionals. C2R Missouri requests a disposition report be returned on each tip report, notifying the Missouri State Highway Patrol of the outcome. For more information about C2R Missouri awareness and education resources, call the C2R Missouri Administrative Office at 866-362-6422.

Too many people die in traffic crashes each year in Missouri. The choices you make when you're behind the wheel matter. Make good choices, so you'll never have to say, "If I could just go back..."

BACK TO SCHOOL
Safety Tips for Drivers

- SLOW DOWN
School days bring congestion: kids on bikes hurrying to get to school, parents are trying to drop their kids off before work. It is very important for drivers to slow down and pay attention when kids are present - especially before and after school.
- IF YOU ARE DROPPING OFF
More children are hit by cars near schools than at any other location. The following apply to all school zones: don't double park, don't load or unload children across the street from the school, carpool to reduce the number of vehicles at the school.
- SHARE THE ROAD WITH CHILDREN
Statistically, most of the children who lose their lives in bus-related incidents are 4-7 years old, and they are walking.
- SHARE THE ROAD WITH BUSES
If you are driving behind a bus, allow a greater following distance than if you were driving behind a car. It will give you more time to stop once the yellow lights start flashing.
- SHARE THE ROAD WITH BICYCLISTS
On most roads, bicyclists have the same rights as vehicles. Children riding bikes create problems for drivers because they are not able to properly determine traffic conditions.
