There's A New Face At Beyond Marine Sterrett Creek In Warsaw

By
Anita Campbell

Reporter

Beyond Marine at Sterett Creek recently hired a new general manager, Chris Hawn. Hawn grew up in Farmington, Missouri, then continued his education at Southwest Baptist University in Bolivar majoring in Recreation.

After graduation, Hawn worked as a YMCA camp director in several different states for almost 20 years. He then went on to work in the Georgia State Park system and later with the Oklahoma State Park system. Hawn then moved to Branson as the manager of a Holiday Inn where he met his wife.

"The opportunity to come home to Missouri drew me to Branson and my parents had retired there as well," said Hawn. "But after I met my wife, we decided to take this opportunity in Warsaw."

Hawn's plans for Sterett Creek include expanding the campground and giving the best customer service available.

"We want to make Sterett Creek a family friendly place with more activities for the children to become involved in," said Hawn.

Hawn also has plans to work on a property clean up project as well as working on how reservations are taken at Sterett Creek.

"We will be looking into

BEYOND BUSY preparing for the 2024 season, Chris Hawn has been named the new General Manager for Beyond Marine at Sterett Creek in Warsaw. Hawn and his wife Christina told the Enterprise they're excited to be a part of the community.

what our guests want and need when they come to the lake," said Hawn. "If anyone is interested in opening a restaurant in the building on the property, they need to get in contact with me because we would love to see a restaurant here."

Present employees are being retained at Sterett Creek and the Hawn's look forward to meeting them as well as present slip holders and customers.

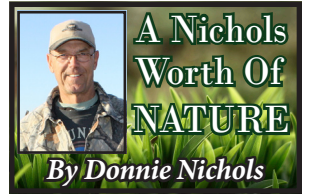

Hawn and his wife are also interested in becoming a part of the Warsaw community.

"We were so impressed with downtown Warsaw and the Harbor area," said Hawn. "We want to be a part of the community. In fact we are entering a float in the Lincoln and Warsaw Christmas parades this weekend. My wife is decorating one of the boats and we have invited some children to ride with us," said Hawn.

For more information, Chris Hawn can be reached at Beyond Marine at Sterett Creek, 18174 Marina Road, Warsaw, MO, (660) 438-2280.

I was watching the national news on tv one evening last week. There was a segment about doctors around the world, and now finally in the United States who are writing prescriptions for nature to some of their patients.

In 2005, when the book "Last Child in the Woods" was published (which I highly encourage every parent and grandparent to read) author Richard Louv coined the term Nature Deficit Disorder. He discussed how our youth are so disconnected from nature.

Today, kids are somewhat aware of the global threats to the environment-but their physical contact, their intimacy with nature is fading. That's the opposite of how it was when I was a kid. Nobody in the 1950s talked about acid rain or holes in the ozone layer or global warming. But I knew my woods and fields. I knew every bend in the creek and every path through the forest and fields. Today, a kid can likely tell you about the rainforest but not about the last time (or ever) he or she explored the woods, or lay in a field listening to the wind or watching the clouds drift by.

When "Last Child in the Woods" came out, Nature Deficit Disorder was virtually ignored by the academic world. As of today, over 1000 studies have been conducted on the

Holiday Grief: Coping With Loss During A Season Of Joy

By
Anita Campbell
County

The Christmas tree has been decorated, the house is outlined in colorful lights, the stockings are hung by the chimney with care, but there is one stocking that has been put aside because of a death in the family. The inevitable question grieving people ask this time of year is, "How will I ever get through the holidays?"

Whether it is the first or second holiday season they face after the death of a loved one, the added strains can create increased pressure for people already experiencing the intense feelings of grief.

How do you "get through" the holidays? There is no single answer.

"There is no easy way but I have such a great family that have given me such love and support and my faith which have gotten me through. Think of him often and never forget what a great human being we were blessed with," said Earlene Wiest-Reser."

The death of a child is very difficult for any parent. Christmas brings memories of happier times.

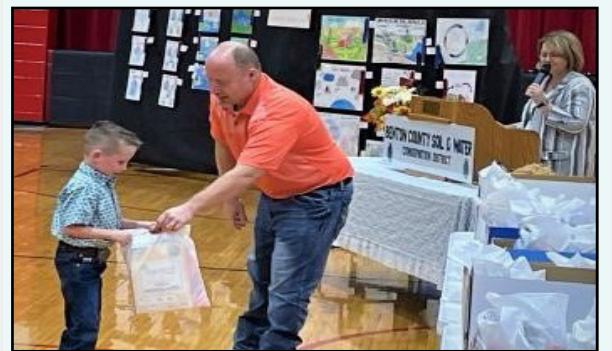

"My grief for my son Micah remains on my mind every day. He died on my birthday over 20 years ago. So, I have missed him and remembered him longer than I knew him," said Sam Davison. "His death changed my life, and my artistic vision. Creating blown glass was never again as interesting, or fulfilling to me. Having Micah die on my birthday makes growing older more painful, getting older is hard enough but knowing I am getting older each year on Oct 5, and Micah is not with me any longer is way worse. Celebrating a holiday, or your birthday, remembering the loss of a loved one, makes the memory so vivid, and heart breaking. How can a person celebrate the holiday/ birthday the same ever again. As a survivor we remember our time with them, truly making our holidays bittersweet. A song I listen to on my birthday and the lyrics were read at Micah's funeral 'The Dance' by Garth Brooks, GRIEF Page 3

COPING WITH LOSS during Christmas can be a challenge. Cathy Palmer relies on her family, including grandchildren, to keep her going.

help remind me that I would not have missed knowing Micah for 19 years, but I have missed him for 21 years, remembering him every day but vividly on my holiday/ birthday. I do not think I have used the word grief, but I am very happy to have known Micah."

Grieving a loved one during the holidays can be especially challenging, partly because the person's absence forever changes longstanding rituals.

"Everyone deals with grief in different ways," said Cathy Palmer. "Some don't want to talk about it because the reminder makes them sad. Others want to keep their loved one's memory alive because they don't want to forget them. There is no right or wrong way to grieve. My kids try to keep me busy so I won't feel lonely. My children and grandchildren have given me a happiness to keep me going. Sometimes I feel guilty when we do things together because I think about how much Will would have enjoyed it. Or even more guilty when we do things that we couldn't have done if Will were here because he didn't enjoy it. I know he wouldn't want me to feel that way. The 'Year of Firsts' was so hard going thru special occasions without him but the second time hasn't been much easier. I know time will ease the pain but we will always miss him. Our situation is different from others because we watched him suffer for almost 3 years so we have a peace in knowing that he is no longer in a wheelchair but is walking on streets of people. I don't know how people deal with the loss of a loved one when they don't have the comfort that only God can give," said Palmer.

While loss due to a loved one's death is typically the most acute experience of grief, the loss of primary relationships can be especially painful during holidays. In life, rituals provide a sense of direction, stability, and an anchor for us as we move through the year.

"Surrounding yourself with family Praising God for his help and remembering all the good times with our spouse or love ones that passed but remembering that they are free from pain and are in the loving arms of the Lord. God helps me every day with the passing of my husband and gives me strength throughout the day," said Debbie Smith. "I try to help other people with a loss of a love one and try to help them during grief by being there for them just to talk or doing something with them. Everyone goes through grief differently and we need to help if we can. Sometimes a hug is all they need and by keeping busy with something like sewing painting or helping other people. I hope this will help you, the pain never goes away but knowing I will be in heaven with him and being with him helps. God helps me daily," said Smith.

"Grief is like the ocean - it rolls in and out and with the holidays, it sometimes feels like it is washing over us. We feel what we feel, but we don't park ourselves there," said Dusty Mills. "The memories become bittersweet until that blessed time when they're just sweet. I allow the grief, and I feel my feels, but then I get up and carry on. The best way we can honor our loved ones is to live the life we're given each day. They wouldn't want us to wallow in grief and despair. I rely on the comfort that only Jesus can give. I'm sad for us because we miss them but I'm joyful that they're no longer unwell and they're in the presence of the Lord. I can't be sad about that," said Mills.

According to Psychology

Today, it can be helpful to participate in holiday rituals in memory of someone you've lost, especially if it relates directly to his or her interests.

-Light candles.

-Talk, write about, or post on social media about the person.

-Donate children's toys or books.

-Dedicate a prayer or religious service to the loved one's memory, such as a Catholic Mass or Jewish kaddish.

-Plant a tree in memory of the deceased, in your own yard or in a forest (through a group like the Arbor Day Foundation).

-Make a card or write a holiday letter with the person's picture.

-Place the deceased's photo or a significant item of his on your Christmas tree or among holiday decorations.

topic and they point in one direction: Nature is not only nice to have but it's a have-to-have for physical health and cognitive function.

These studies have shown that time in nature is an antidote for stress: it can lower blood pressure and stress hormone levels, reduce nervous system arousal, enhance immune system function, increase self-esteem, reduce anxiety and improve mood. Attention Deficit Disorder and aggression lessen in natural environments which also help speed the rate of healing.

Nature can't offer flat screen tvs, air conditioning or wi-fi but can potentially offer something more important: improved health by way of a stronger immune system, better sleep and reduced stress.

Countless studies have shown that as little as 120 minutes in nature per week (more would be better) result in a significant improvement in our physiology.

As we know, air pollution can trigger allergies, asthma and other respiratory diseases. It might surprise you to learn though that indoor concentration of air pollutants are often two to five times higher than outdoor concentrations. One eight year study of 108,630 women examined the relationship between green spaces in neighborhoods. Women who lived in areas with the most green space were 34% less likely to die from respiratory disease. Studies show exposure to natural sunlight affects your circadian rhythm helping you feel more tired at night, shortening the time it takes to fall asleep, improves quality of sleep and helps reduce depression. Studies also show that people exposed to more natural light healed faster after surgery and reported less pain. Sunlight also helps our bodies create vitamin D which studies show may help prevent cancer, osteoporosis and heart attacks. Women also showed an increased white blood cell count which helps fight viruses.

Winter is a great time to be outside. Dress appropriately and go for a walk with your family or friends in the park or hike a new trail. Pack a lunch or snacks and make it an adventure for the kids. Encourage them to enjoy nature and be sure you read "Last Child in the Woods" by Richard Louv. You can download free apps such as iNaturalist where you can take pictures of plants or animals and it will identify them for you. Another app is ebird which will record the bird singing and it will identify that bird.

Dear Editor,

Hear, O Israel: why do you make war on your brother Ishmael {also son of Abraham}? Why do you keep your brother in an open air prison {Gaza} forcing him to despair? Why do you accept over $3 billion in military aid from the United States every year? Why are you so preoccupied with killing your brother? Cannot brothers {Jews and Arabs} live in peace? The peaceful removal of one man will solve this crisis once and for all. That man is Benjamin "Bibi" Netanyahu. Hamas and Hezbollah are the direct result of his hate towards all Palestinians.

As a citizen of and believer in democracy, I applaud the efforts of the Palestinian people. Their efforts are similar to what is happening in many other parts of the world. Believe it or not, one thing that overrides capitalism and political correctness in the United States is the right to have one's voice heard. This is the foundation of which our democracy is built on.

The Palestinian people should continue to defy Benjamin "Bibi" Netanyahu's powerful armed forces so that Palestinian democracy can continue to thrive. It is unfortunate that the United States compromised on one of its most fundamental values in order to protect its economic interests in the Middle East; something that happens all too often domestically as well. It is not the Palestinian people that are attempting to expand Hamas and Hezbollah power but rather it is Netanyahu who has engaged in intimidation to prevent the will of the people {both Palestinian and Israeli} from being heard. Why else would he stoop to such underhanded tactics to block various means of communication among the citizens of Palestine and Israel? Why is Netanyahu forcing Israel to return to the Cold War utilizing political strong-arm tactics such as violence? Netanyahu, you have had over sixteen years to acknowledge Palestine and have failed them by your own choosing. The days of your despotic regime are finally coming to an end as it appears the desire for freedom will continue to sweep among the Middle Eastern nations as well as Israel.

Accordingly, let the call go forth among all citizens of Palestine that your brothers and sisters of democracy {from all over the world} are with you during every trial and tribulation you may encounter during this crisis. To the people of Palestine, the trumpet of freedom beckons you to rise in protest and louden your voice to preserve your sacred heritage, promote your children's future and obtain the blessings of liberty we all cherish. Palestine, the hour of your redemption is at hand. As you the rightful citizens move forward to reclaim your own country, rise and strike! In the name of those who were murdered fighting for everyone's rights, rise and strike! To push back this evil regime, rise and strike! Let no one continue to fear this man. Every Palestinian must be strong and fight on for their freedom. Rise and strike!

Benjamin "Bibi" Netanyahu, you little weasel. Let Palestine go! Hey Mr. Bibi how many kids will it be? The whole World is watching!

Ladycats Earn Sloppy Win Over Lincoln

FROM OUTSIDE, Warsaw's Sarah Miller knocked down a 3-point shot in the third quarter of the Ladycats win over Lincoln on Monday night. Miller led the team in scoring with 13.

It wasn't very pretty but when you're looking for wins, you'll take them no matter how impressive, and that's what the Ladycats (4-2) did on Monday night when they disposed of Lincoln with a 41-22 final. Missed baskets on low percentage shots, rebounding and turnovers led to a very sluggish start for both squads, leaving both coaches, Warsaw's Matt Henderson and Lincoln's Brett Bryant searching for options from their benches. No combinations for either squad seemed to work in the first half as the Ladycats led just 10-9 at halftime; yes, 10-9 at halftime.

In the third quarter, Warsaw's backcourt of Keira Mostaffa, Tanna Howe and Sarah Miller contributed all 15 points while holding the Lady Cardinals to 6 as the home team stretched their lead to double digits at 25-15.

A 16-7 margin for the Ladycats in the fourth led them to the 41-22 victory.

Warsaw Picks Up Win On Road At Sweet Springs

By
Adam Howe, Sports
The Wildcats trailed 34-30 at the half but stormed back with a big second half to defeat Sweet Springs on the road back on November 22. Warsaw fell behind 14-9 after the first but used a 21-16 edge in the second quarter to close the gap at halftime.

The defense of the Wildcats wreaked havoc in the second half, created points off turnovers and used a 14-9 margin in the third to take a 44-43 lead. Warsaw leaned on an 18-8 advantage in the fourth and final frame to pull away and take the 62-51 win.

Logan Gemes led the Wildcats with 24 points. Garrett Ferguson was also in double figures with 13.

Weaubleau Boys Take Tourney With Decisive Win Over Butler, Skyline Girls Throttle Clinton For Back-To-Back Championships

IN A THRILLING FINISH, Lincoln's Xavier Smith's jumper didn't fall and Warsaw squeezed out a 60-59 victory over the Cardinals in an elimination game on Thursday night of the 91st Annual Warsaw Invitational Boys Basketball Tournament.

By Adam Howe
Sports
Editor

The Weaubleau Tigers won all three of their games by 30+ points as they steamrolled their way to the championship of the 91st Annual Warsaw Invitational Boys Basketball Tournament last week.

The Tigers are coming off of a 24-7 season in 2022-23 when they were also state quarterfinalists in Class 1.

The annual double elimination event got underway on Tuesday with first round games. In the first game of the evening, (1) Weaubleau rolled over the host (8) Warsaw Wildcats with a final of 79-46, their narrowest margin of victory in the tourney. In the second game, (4) Knob Noster pulled away in the second half to defeat (5) Lincoln, 53-43. The next game saw (3) Butler handle (6) Clinton with a final of 65-53 and, in the nightcap, (2) Cole Camp advanced with a 54-42 win over (7) Skyline.

Thursday night's second round games saw Skyline eliminate Clinton, 69-44, and Warsaw took down Lincoln with a 60-59 final tally in perhaps the most exciting game of this year's tournament.

On the winner's side, Weaubleau advanced to the championship game with an 82-38 trouncing of Knob Noster and Butler moved on with a 60-29 upset win over Cole Camp.

Saturday's schedule included the consolation game between Warsaw and Skyline where the Tigers worked their way to a 71-45 win over the Wildcats. In the third place game, Knob Noster downed Cole Camp, 49-30 and Weaubleau claimed the championship, leaving no doubt with a convincing 84-50 win over the Butler Bears.

Weaubleau's Gage Johnson was voted as the Most Valuable Player of the tournament.

* * *
In the girl's bracket, the Skyline Lady Tigers claimed back-to-back championships of the 36th Annual Warsaw Invitational Girls Basketball Tournament when they doubled up Clinton with a 62-31 final on Friday night.

The Lady Tigers' first place finish was also their eighth in the past 10 years.

The girl's kicked off this year's event on Monday night and about each of those games were won decidedly by the bracket favorite.

In the first game of the opening night, the defense of (1) Skyline stymied the (8) Butler Lady Bears as they rolled to a lopsided 76-17 win. In the next game, the (4) Weaubleau Lady Tigers handed the (5) Cole Camp Lady Bluebirds a 50-23 loss. The next game saw the (2) Clinton Lady Cardinals take down the (7) Lincoln Lady Cardinals with an easy 58-8 victory and, in the final game of the evening, the (6) Warsaw Ladycats hung for awhile but eventually succumbed to (3) Knob Noster, 55-39.

In Wednesday's roundball action, both teams got off to slow starts, but Warsaw used a third quarter run to pull away and defeat Lincoln, 36-24, eliminating them from this year's tournament. Clinton advanced to the championship game with a 66-34 win over Knob Noster and Skyline rocketed to the title game with an 86-35 win over Weaubleau. Cole Camp was sent packing after a 49-34 loss to Butler.

In Friday's trophy games, the Warsaw Ladycats claimed their best finish in the event since 2020 with a 54-47 win over Butler in the consolation final. Weaubleau and Knob Noster got in a see-saw battle but the Lady Tigers eventually pulled way and went on to take third place with an 81-73 win and Skyline staked claim to the championship with a 62-31 win over Clinton.

As voted on by coaches, Ashlen Garrett was named the Most Valuable Player of this year's tourney.

THE LADY BLUEBIRDS Mackenzie Moellman pulls up for a short jump shot in Cole Camp's 49-34 loss to Butler in the 36th Annual Warsaw Invitational Girls Basketball Tournament.

NEWS

By Pat Arnett
Contributing Reporter

This week was almost Winter Weather, but it shows signs of warmth coming back for maybe a couple weeks; fine by me. Sending happy birthday shout-outs this week to Rodney Johnson on December 7, Randy Arnett on December 10 and to Kele First as she celebrates her birthday on December 12. Happy, happy birthday to all three!

Sending prayer requests out and this is someone who has been on the prayer list but request is much different. Delores Prater was returning home from spending time with her children in the city and arriving at home she was climbing the steps to her door and she fell and broke several ribs, her collar bone and pelvis. She is in the hospital at Sedalia and will be for several more days. Delores and Claude attend Fristoe Pentecostal Lighthouse Church and have for several years and they are asking for everyone to remember Delores in prayers. Prayers also for Lovely Henderson, Duncan (DoNut), Donna Nelson, Kathy First, Jeanne Wright, Carolee Apperson, Lewis and Judy Retherford, Gladys Harris, Easter Willis, Curtus Allen, Mary Scarbrough and a reminder about Gracie Yoder and her missionary team. Gracie and her team are headed for Thailand at the beginning of December. She said she would never forget Cambodia and all of the things God brought to light to her while she was there. Gracie is ready to learn a lot of new things that will come her way in Thailand. Everyone keep her and her missionary team in prayer!

On Sunday, December 10, the Fristoe Lighthouse Church will have their Annual Combination Thanksgiving/Christmas dinner after the church service on Sunday morning. Church will provide all meat and each person add a side dish. Anyone in the area should feel free to come and join the people of the church.

Several people were absent from church on Sunday morning for one reason or another. However, special songs were done by Claude with Tony, Ken and Bryan. Ken, along with DoBee and Brenda, did a special and Dave also did a great special. Br. Bryan read the scriptures in the Acts chapter that Pastor Smith used for his message. In Acts, the study of the movement of the Holy Spirit was being brought forth by the disciples of Jesus in that day. The lesson brought for Sunday School began a new unit of study and is the study of the book of Matthew! We begin by studying chapter 5 on Beatitudes. Thought for the week: He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down without walls! Hope everyone has a great week!

Have I Got A Line For You!

By James Mahlon White

We've been told repeatedly by the President, "There is no inflation." Two weeks ago we were supposed to believe that Bidenomics was keeping everything even keeled for us. Now he understands inflation is killing the middle class. Uncle Joe says don't blame him for inflation, it's because businesses haven't reduced their prices. Sounds simple enough, especially coming from someone who's been on the public payroll for over 50 years. Having been alive during the Carter Presidency, I see almost the same parallels to the Biden Presidency, right down to Biden's fear of Iran. The only difference is that President Carter is remembered as a descent guy who lacked what it took to be president. Biden will be remembered as a corrupt guy who lacked what it took to be president.

Speaking of Presidents, a New York Judge reinstated a gag order against The Donald. Isn't it amazing how a court of law can prohibit the United States Constitution, the highest law in the land? It would be the same as banning a defendant from practicing their religion. It's in the very same First Amendment. If freedom of speech is taken away, then we'll be led away like sheep to the slaughter house. Get in the cattle cars! Oligarchs do this. They decide. Just ask Merrick Garland, he works for one.

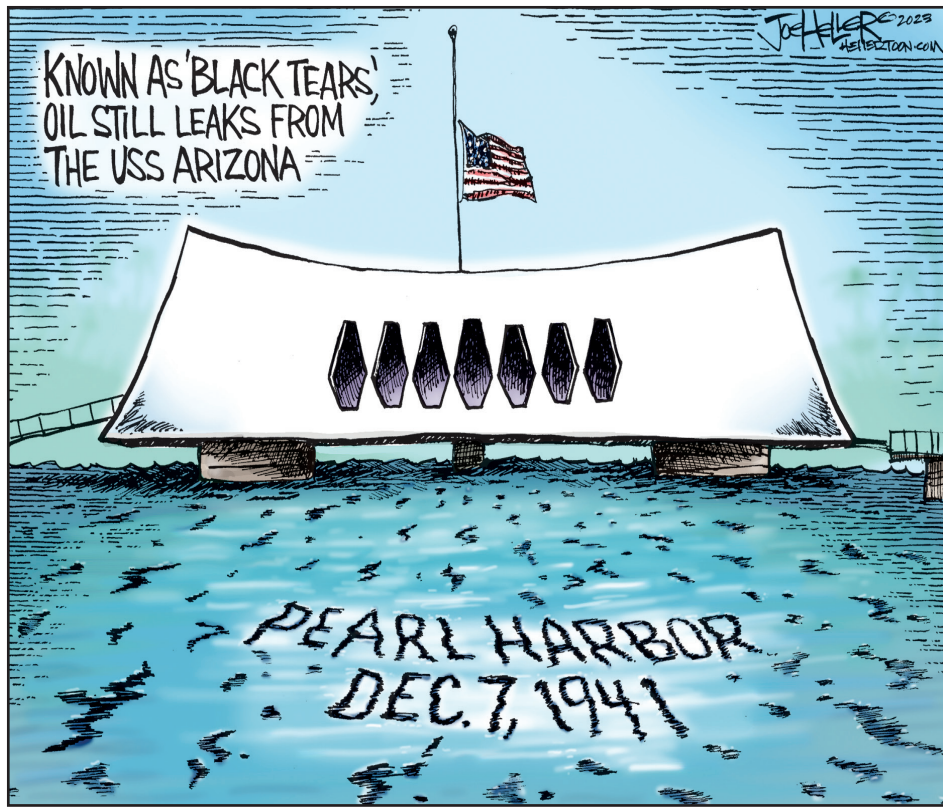

During dinner at Sister Julie's on Saturday the discussion drifted to Max (Schnauzer). The little devil is fresh out of another round of obedience school and I was told, "He might behave better if he wasn't treated like a human." We had lots of dogs growing up. Bozo the Saint Bernard, Resa a German Shepherd and Gus that was a mix of something. I was only bitten once and it wasn't my dog. It belonged to my grandparents and was a big Irish setter named Dugan. Lord only knows where he came from or where he'd been. My Grandfather Murphy found him in a trash box in the garage, hungry and shaking. He was unstable to say the least. One night I was walking up their driveway and Dugan gave a low growl, then sprang and got at me leg. Grandmother heard the commotion and ordered him to "back off" and he did. It was an evening I wouldn't care to repeat and involved stitches. I still have the scar. Dugan was disposed of and that was the end of that. Hope to see all of our dogs again, in the hereafter, but I wouldn't want to meet up with Dugan, unless Grandma Murphy is along.

Speaking of the hereafter, there's a theory about a duplicate universe along with ours, but with an energy frequency so high we cannot see or enter it. Occasionally a breakthrough comes as a brief gift. Perhaps this is so. Most of us who have lost loved family members have flashes of insight where we know they are near. Who knows? This universe of ours is vast and intricate. It's up to us to make our way through life's labyrinth of days and nights and be thankful for the special people and animals we meet on the way.

That's enough of that. Take care of yourself right here in this dimension Old Buddy. It's pretty good and Christmas is just around the corner.

Til Next Week:
J.M.W.

you or your spouse invest in an employer-sponsored plan, you may be able to take a full or partial deduction if you are married and filing jointly, with a modified adjusted gross income of $136,000 or less. For single filers, this figure is $83,000. (For the 2024 tax year, these figures rise to $143,000 if you're married and file jointly, and $87,000 if you're a single filer.)

Roth IRA – By investing in a Roth IRA, your contributions are not tax deductible, but your earnings can grow tax free provided you've held your account at least five years and you don't start withdrawing the earnings until you're 59½. And because you're investing with after-tax dollars, you can withdraw contributions — not the earnings — at any time, for any purpose, without taxes or penalties. You may be eligible for a full or partial contribution if your modified adjusted gross income is less than $228,000 married and filing jointly, or less than $153,000 if you're a single filer. (For 2024, these figures are less than $240,000 if you're married and file jointly, and less than $161,000 if you're a single filer.)

These tax advantages provide a strong incentive to fully fund an IRA each year. Furthermore, you can put almost any investment — stocks, bonds, mutual funds and so on — into an IRA, so you can create a portfolio that matches your goals and risk tolerance.

You can still fully fund your IRA for the 2023 tax year, but as you continue to save, you might find a more efficient way to reach the maximum, such as setting aside a regular amount each month. To make it as stress-free as possible, you can have the money automatically moved from your savings or checking account to your IRA. If it's still difficult to come up with these amounts every month, you could put in what you can afford and then add other funds, such as a year-end bonus or a tax refund, when you receive them.

Any time you contribute to your IRA is a good time — but if you can do it early, or have a savings strategy throughout the year, you can avoid the last-minute dash to put in the cash.

You can judge

In Matthew 7:1, Jesus said not to judge. Again, one of the most misused scriptures in the Bible. This is Dolly Parton's favorite verse. People, please stop listening to her or Oprah Winfrey, Dr. Phil, Dan McClellan, Bart Erhman, Kenny Copeland, and a host of other popular entertainers and false prophets on the subject of the Bible.

I guess Jesus contradicted Himself because in that same chapter He speaks of discerning false prophets and casting your pearls before swine. Sounds like judging to me.

Paul said we can judge some matters in the church instead of going to worldly judges outside the church. (1 Corinthians 6:1-5)

We are to judge ourselves. He without sin cast the first stone. (John 8:7)

What we cant judge is the motives, thinking and the heart of others. Only God can. (1 Samuel 16:7)

We are to preach the whole counsel of God. (2 Timothy 4:2) If that offends you then so be it.

Our judgment can't be full of hypocrisy. (Matthew 7:2)

Here is a judgment for you. Are you a born again believer? You be the judge.

I am Johnie J. Logue, Pastor of Grace Baptist Church at 31046 Hwy MM in Warsaw. You can reach me by calling (660) 281-4775.

HOPEWELL BAPTIST CHURCH

In Matthew 13:24-30, 36-43 Jesus tells a Parable of the Wheat and the Weeds. Parables are earthly stories with a Heavenly meaning. A farmer sows wheat seeds and as it comes up, something else is coming up too. There is a false wheat seed that looks just like wheat except that the seed heads are different and it's hard to see until it forms, closer to harvest. The servants want to pull the bad weeds and the farmer says to wait until harvest, explaining they might pull the good with the bad. At harvest, they can first pull the weeds, bundle, and burn them and then pull the wheat. Without Jesus' explanation, it doesn't make sense because waiting until harvest, stunts the good wheat, so they ask what the parable means - the farmer is the Son of Man, the field is the world, the good seed are the people who follow Jesus, and the weeds are the people who follow Satan.

There are wicked and evil people in this world, and we ask why doesn't God remove them? Jesus says, "they are mine to take care of". We think we are qualified to tell wheat from weeds, but we are not. Wicked men will come and go but the glory of the Lord endures forever! The hell people bring to earth is not permanent, but His Kingdom is! God is here, still watching over His field! Jesus tells them two things, the righteous will shine like the sun, and the wicked will burn in the furnace. Those who follow Jesus will go to Heaven, and those who follow Satan will go to Hell. The parable is designed to illustrate what happens with the choices we make. Some make their choice, but their time has not come.

This Christmas let's take it to heart. Let's look at people in a new way and find a way to serve them. Reality is, Jesus is always with us, so let's share! There is no time like now to ask Jesus into our hearts! If God is calling us to do something, let's do it!

Join us Sunday mornings for Sunday School at 10 a.m. with Worship at 11 a.m., and Sunday and Wednesday Bible Study at 6 p.m. Watch us live at 11 a.m. on Hopewell Baptist Church Facebook page.

Operation Christmas Child Volunteers Send Christmas Joy To Children Overseas

Area volunteers are celebrating the collection of gift-filled shoeboxes that will send a message of joy to children around the world: God loves you, and you're not forgotten!

This year, tens of thousands of volunteers contributed to Operation Christmas Child, a project of Samaritan's Purse, by packing shoeboxes filled with fun toys, school supplies, and personal care items. The global Christmas project will deliver these gift-filled shoeboxes to children in more than 100 countries, including many who are suffering from war, poverty, disease and disaster. Each shoebox is an opportunity to share the message of the Gospel and bring hope to children in need around the world.

Although drop-off locations have closed, there is still time to share hope and love with children overseas by packing a gift-filled shoebox online. Shoeboxes built online go to some of the hardest-to-reach areas in the world. Those who prefer the convenience of online shopping can browse samaritanspurse.org/buildonline to select gifts matched to a child's specific age and gender, then finish packing the virtual shoebox by adding a photo and personal note of encouragement.

For more information on how to participate in Operation Christmas Child visit samaritanspurse.org/occ.

Operation Christmas Child, a project of Samaritan's Purse, seeks to demonstrate God's love in a tangible way to children in need around the world and, together with the local church worldwide, to share the Good News of Jesus Christ. Since 1993, Operation Christmas Child has collected and delivered more than 209 million gift-filled shoeboxes to children in more than 170 countries and territories. This year, Operation Christmas Child will celebrate its 30th year of ministry!

Bothwell Regional Health Center Access To Your Health Information Is At Your Fingertips

Hospitals and clinics nationwide use patient portals to house important patient documents, medical information and as a channel of communication between medical staff and patients. MyBothwellHealth, Bothwell Regional Health Center's patient portal, rolled out in 2015 and has made access to health information and communication more efficient.

Natalie Sims, Bothwell's Health Information Management director, said the patient portal is a great tool for patients to know what medications their provider has prescribed, treatment options, future appointments and other health information.

"The portal provides a secure and easy way to manage and stay on top of your health care," she said. "It can be accessed on a computer or through an app on your phone. Patients can request current medication refills, view current and past health information from most clinics and the hospital, view lab results, radiology reports, provider notes, current conditions, medications, and allergies and immunizations, as well as a see visit history at any Bothwell facility. It also features a health summary that provides a quick glance at your most current information from demographics to treatment."

Warsaw resident Cathy Tealbend expressed her excitement about all MyBothwellHealth has to offer and how she can use it anytime, anywhere.

"I love the portal," Tealbend said. "I can communicate with my doctor and the nurses quickly and view my labs after they are complete. The portal allows me to look at anything I need, without bugging the office. The only time I have to call is to make an appointment."

One of her favorite tools within MyBothwellHealth includes the messaging capability between medical staff and the patient. Patients can communicate with participating providers through the portal by sending a message with questions regarding care and medications, though this should not be used in emergency situations.

"I take advantage of the messaging the most," she said. "I can have quick and efficient communication with my provider about my care and ensure my prescription is refilled even when I am out of town for months at a time."

Sims said creating an account and using the portal is simple.

"To sign up for MyBothwellHealth, patients must have an email address in our electronic records system," she said. "This can be entered by hospital or clinic staff at the time of registration. Your access can be completed at that time or you can self-enroll later. To self-enroll, visit brhc.org/portal to create an account. If the required information does not match our system, you will need to contact Health Information Management at 660-827-9590 for assistance."

As a portal user, individuals also have the ability to pay their bill completely online by following the link and using the statement number on their bill. Having physical copies of medical records is also easier, as patients can download and print off current and past documents anytime, free of charge.

New systems can be challenging to learn and understand, which is why Bothwell designed MyBothwellHealth to be as simple to use as possible. All a patient needs to access the portal is a computer, tablet or cell phone.

"I don't know if enough people know about the portal and what it has to offer," Tealbend said. "I know navigating technology can be difficult for some, but once you learn how to use the portal, it is simple. Ask any of your health care providers and they will walk you through the process."

For portal assistance, contact Health Information Management between 8 am and 4:30 pm Monday through Friday by calling 660-827-9590 or emailing MyBothwellHealth@brhc.org.

Public Invited To Retirement Reception For Dr. Ken Azan And Dr. Elmer Van Dyke

Bothwell Regional Health Center will host a joint retirement reception for long-time physicians Dr. Ken Azan and Dr. Elmer Van Dyke from 4-6 pm Dec. 12 in the Bothwell Café on the hospital's ground floor. Patients and the public are invited to attend.

Azan and Van Dyke will retire from their respective practices on Dec. 31 after each having cared for people in the area for decades.

Dr. Ken Azan, internal medicine physician and cardiac care specialist, joined the Bothwell medical staff in 1975. He practiced privately until becoming employed at Bothwell in 2019. He is credited with pioneering cardiac care at the hospital, which includes starting the echocardiogram program and using thrombolytic therapy in heart attack and stroke patients.

Dr. Elmer Van Dyke, OB/GYN physician, has been a member of the Bothwell medical staff since 1964. In his 60 years in private practice with Women's Health & Surgical Center, Van Dyke has delivered over 7,000 babies and performed more than 18,000 surgeries. He performed the first laparoscopic surgery at Bothwell in 1972. Van Dyke also served as Chief of Staff of Bothwell's medical team and was instrumental in updating medical bylaws to be in compliance with Medicare rules and regulations.

Bothwell Hospital is located at 601 E. 14th Street in Sedalia.

The Lighthouse Full Gospel Church will conduct Sunday evening worship services beginning Sunday, November 5th at 6:00pm. Pastor J.D. Richardson will lead in singing hymns from the old style hymnals and will bring messages from the King James version of the Bible. All are welcome to attend. Meet with Pastor J.D. and wife Patty at 32529 Pleasant Ridge Drive Warsaw, MO. 816-508-0012
