Ranch Gives Area Equestrians Faith, Fresh Air And Fortitude

BY JENNIFER JACKSON
Staff Reporter

Last September, Cori Carriger's palomino, Hickory, developed an infection. Her family took Hickory to the equine hospital at the University of Missouri, where they were told he was not expected to recover, and if he did, he would not be rideable.

So Shay Carriger, Cori's mother, and all the riders who take lessons at the C Bar C Ranch gathered in the barn and prayed for Hickory's healing.

"I prayed he would live," Shay said. "My daughter prayed he would run."

After spending 28 days in the horse hospital, Hickory is not only alive and kicking, but running and rideable.

"He's totally healed," Shay said. "He's our miracle horse."

Faith and horseback riding are the unique mix at C Bar C, where people come to take riding lessons from towns up to an hour and half away, including Freeman, Bolivar, and Sedalia. What they like is that Shay integrates Christian scriptures into the riding lesson, in a curriculum she wrote herself.

References to horses are surprisingly prevalent in the Bible, and can be found in Rev. 19:11, James 3:3 and Psalms 76:6. Shay also applies verses that don't specifically refer to horses to teaching riding skills.

"For example, when I'm teaching barrel racing, I use the verse about turning to the Lord," she said.

Shay said she introduces riders to all equine disciplines as well as barrel racing— roping, jumping, trick riding, trail riding and obstacles —crossing creeks on log bridges, for example. If riders try different types of riding and want more specialized training in one discipline, she sends them to a teacher who specializes in it.

Shay said she started taking riding lessons at age six, and knew she wanted to be a riding teacher.

"My dream was to provide lessons for all kids," she said.

Shay started giving riding lessons in 2002, she said, traveling to locations to do so. In 2012, she bought the 60-acre ranch, just outside of Blairstown on the north edge of Henry County, with a white ranch house, pas-

Wishard Announces Resignation

MR. BRIAN WISHARD

Following two years as superintendent of the Clinton School District, Mr. Brian Wishard recently announced his resignation effective June 30, 2024. The Board of Education accepted this resignation during closed session at last Tuesday evening's meeting. Mr. Wishard will continue serving as Superintendent until June 30, 2024 to ensure a smooth leadership transition takes place.

The Clinton School District has recently hired MSBA to support the search for a new district superintendent. The search will begin immediately and conclude with the hire of a new successful leader. Feedback regarding what "desired qualifications" are most important for this position will ensure the new hire is a good fit for both the school district and community.

The CSD is asking the public to share narrative insights and rank personal and professional priorities for the new superintendent. The search team will produce a general report based on the information gathered in this survey. The report will be shared with the board to advise them on what priorities the district and community stakeholders are looking for in a new leader.

The survey can be found at <http://tinyurl.com/Clinton-MOSupt> and is anonymous unless a name is provided voluntarily. Clinton schools appreciate the public for taking the time to complete the survey and provide direction for this important leadership position before March 5th.

Papa Town Brings Business And Healing Balm Together

BY JENNIFER JACKSON
Staff Reporter

In the 1980s, Mike Town discovered the healing qualities of comfrey. He was living on a farm in Zimbabwe, in the southern part of Africa, where he and his family had joined a mission project, founded by five families who had pooled their resources and bought 10,000 acres to develop as a farm.

The plan: to use the farm as an economic base, and to serve as a conduit for a ministry of reconciliation for a country that had been split by revolution. The missionary families raised chickens, cows and goats, and that was how Mike learned about the medicinal qualities of comfrey, an herb which grows profusely in Africa.

"They said if you feed your chickens comfrey, they'll be immune to everything," Mike said.

Mike now lives in Clinton, where he is the owner of Integrity Floors in the East Ohio shopping center, and makes batches of comfrey salve at home, which he sells at his store and seven other outlets.

"Every place we sell it is seeing an increase in sales," Mike said.

Mike bought Integrity Interiors 11 years ago, changing the name to Integrity Floors. He had worked his way up in the flooring business after moving to Missouri in 1990. Born in Japan of missionary parents, Mike was 10 years old when his family came back to the states and settled in Great Falls, Montana. After high school, Mike worked in the tar sands oil fields of Northern Alberta, he said, earning money to attend a year at an interdenominational Bible school in southern Sweden called Torchbearers. The flooring business has been a good economic base for his large family, he said. He also raises chickens, and grows comfrey to

Have I Got A Line For You!

By James Mahlon White

Remember the saying, "Cash is king?" Georgia DA Fanie Willis and her boyfriend Nathan Wade sure do. They're prosecuting President Trump for election interference and now they're in hot water for allegedly making false statements about their relationship. Fanie hired Nathan at a sky high salary and then he took her on lavish vacations. Fanie says she reimbursed him in cash but has no records to prove it. So let's see.... five vacations in six months, always paid cash, foreign countries with no clue what continent they're on. Spielberg couldn't write a script this incredible.

Meanwhile, back at the ranch, a New York judge slapped The Donald with a $350 million fine for overinflating the value of his property. The banks did their own appraisals and said all the loans were paid back, yet he was still charged with fraud. This is selective prosecution at its finest. Putin kills his opposition, in this country we create lawsuits to bankrupt and jail the opposition. Irony is, after the Russia hoax, prosecutors expect us to believe a law abiding citizen who had never been in trouble for 77 years, suddenly committed 91 crimes when he decided to run for office again. Those naive enough to believe this farce are the same ones supporting criminal justice reform. If you want to see real fraud in action, look no further than 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue. The current occupant has lived off taxpayers and ill gotten gains his entire career. What an upside down world we live in. Whether you like Trump or not, this is wrong on all levels.

remember having those around. We just had onions. I can't remember having arugula on the dinner table either. If I could repeat one dish it would be the fried chicken my Grandmother Murphy fixed, mostly in the summer. It was good the next day too, served cold, straight out of the refrigerator. Can't hardly beat that. Haven't had anything to eat this morning, guess that's why food keeps popping into my mind. Wouldn't tacos from El Sambre be good or a piece of Alita Walker's coconut cream pie? Or a big platter of garlic bread that Jean Intelman used to make for Steak Club?

Time to stop typing and have a cold cappuccino. Previously hot but no time to drink it until now. Monday holidays throw a wrench in the works here. Have a happy day Old Buddy.

Til Next Week: J.M.W.

Announces Candidacy

AARON BROWN

I'm Aaron Brown, and I'm thrilled to announce my candidacy for Henry County Sheriff. My journey toward this moment began at 15, when I joined the Henry County Sheriff's Office as an Explorer. That initial step wasn't just about exploring a potential career path; it was the beginning of a lifelong ambition to serve the community that raised me.

Growing up in Montrose, I quickly learned the values that I hold dear today: teamwork, hard work, respect, and dedication. These principles, ingrained in me through sports and small-town life, taught me that victory is a collective effort. Now, I envision bringing that same team mindset to community policing, where deputies and citizens collaborate closely to ensure our community's safety and harmony.

Throughout my law enforcement career, I've focused on more than just traditional duties; I've worked towards community enrichment, advocating for proactive policing and supporting those seeking to turn their lives around. With a background in criminal justice and business management, and experience as a graduate of the FBI National Academy, I bring a unique blend of local understanding and global best practices to the table.

After rising through the ranks to become an Under Sheriff in Johnson County, I am now ready to bring my experience, my values, and my vision back to Henry County. I know what it takes to lead with both compassion and strength. My approach to law enforcement extends beyond traditional roles, focusing also on community programs that uplift and unite us.

I am not just offering myself as a candidate for Sheriff; I am committing to a future where our community thrives through excellence in public service.

On August 6th, 2024, I would appreciate your vote in the Republican primary election - Vote Aaron Brown as your choice for Henry County Sheriff.

ture, trails, and a barn with horse stalls.

It is not a boarding stable. All the students ride one of the C Bar C mounts, Shay said. C Bar C is home to 18 horses, three ponies and two donkeys, although the donkeys only work one day a year, Shay said, when the ranch holds a nativity program.

All the horses look calm and gentle — they've seen it all, the luminous dark eyes seem to say, even nosy reporters, and nothing would surprise them.

"We wouldn't keep them if they weren't," Shay said. "One of things I learned when I went to university is that if you work with animals, it has to be mutually beneficial to be successful."

One of the barn cats, an orange-striped tabby named Louise, is resting on a bench in the warm, clean-smelling barn, but rouses herself to sit in the visitor's lap to help take notes.

Shay has lived a number of places, she said, but thinks of Warrensburg as home. That's where she attended the University of Central Missouri. In 2013, she earned a Master's degree in Human Services, and is a certified riding therapist through Eeagala, the Equine-Assisted Growth and Learning Association.

When did she start blending her faith into riding lessons?

"We started that way," Shay said. "We wanted to commit all of our work to the Lord."

Shay named the ranch after her children, Cori and Colt, she said, and turned the bar that connects their initials on the C Bar C brand into a cross, because Jesus holds everything together. The quote from Hebrews on her business card summarizes her approach to life: "Let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith."

Her children help with the day-to-day operation. Colt is in charge of taking care of the chickens and cows and cleaning the barn, using the tractor to haul away and bury stable rubble. Cori is in charge of cleaning the tack, having learned the fine art from Mr. Tony, of the Chap Shop in Harrisonville.

"She also helps the younger children groom their horses," Shay said.

In 2019, Shay started a one-day-a week Farm School for home-schooled children, based on a one-room schoolhouse model. During the pandemic, the students met and played outside, she said, providing socialization and exercise. The school is taught by guest teachers, who teach a life skill at each session—beekeeping, welding, canning and sewing were some of the skills they've covered, Shay said. The school is limited to under 16 students. Winter Farm School begins Feb. 28.

"It's always sold out," Shay said.

Still open is a Bible study next summer for women that starts with a trail ride, then convenes on the farmhouse porch for discussion. There will be Bible study for kids going on at the same time, Shay said.

On April 5, the ranch will host the Spring Cowgirl Camp Out. Boys come to the C Bar C for Cowboy Camp, Colt said. In addition to working on the ranch, he attends Rodeo Bible Camp in Gerard, Kansas, and sports a belt buckle he won for bull-riding.

Asked if he watches Westerns on television, Colt replied that he doesn't watch much television, as he is mostly outside working in the barn, although he does tune into the World

Rodeo Finals and hunting shows. When asked what he hunts, he lists all the local game —deer, turkeys, rabbits, squirrels and coyotes —plus he has gone boar hunting in Texas. He hunts with both a gun and a compound bow, he said.

Shay is holding a Spring Luau Open Fun Show on March 23, and a schooling show on June 1 to showcase the skills her riding students learned during winter and spring sessions. Winter session riding lessons begin Monday, Feb. 19. She also does parties and special events.

Shay still has the first horse she gave lessons on, she said. Copenhagen is 29 years old, and is now retired. She taught her kids to ride on him and originally used him for all her riding lessons.

"He was with me through my life's changes," she said. "He is my heart."

Shay said she doesn't know if horses have souls, but she has had a few horses she hopes to see at heaven's gate.

"I love the verse in Psalms

23 about green pastures," she said. "That's where I hope they're waiting for me."

Proverbs 21:31 states "You can get the horses ready for battle, but victory rests with the Lord." C Bar C riders put their trust in the Lord that Hickory would recover, and also wore inscribed bracelets to keep him their thoughts.

"We have a lot of miracles around here," Shay said, "and a great group of volunteers who help make it happen."

For more information about C Bar C, go to www.cbarcridinglessons.com or call Shay at 816-213-6063.

THE RANCH BRAND is two Cs held together with a cross.

SHAY WITH COPENHAGEN, a 29-year-old registered American quarter horse, who served as the horse that Shay taught her children to ride on, as well as all the riding students she had at first.

augment their feed. In 2017, Mike decided to use comfrey to make a product for human use, and concocted his first batch of an aromatic green salve. The process involves cutting the comfrey he grows, drying it and infusing it in olive oil, then adding wintergreen and other natural oils. He also blends in beeswax, which he buys from Paul Landsberg of Paul's Honey Farm, a wholesale business in Tightwad.

Known as knitbone, comfrey has been used as a folk remedy in poultices that aid in the healing of broken bones and sprains. It contains allantoin, a compound that increases moisture retention and helps regenerate connective tissue, the name deriving from the Latin for "to join together." Allantoin is added to products to treat burns, dermatitis, wounds, acne and impetigo, and is used in skin moisturizers, hand sanitizers and for the treatment of scars.

Mike asked Richard Brooks of D & M Signs to design a product label, which has a picture of a comfrey plant on it, and bought tins to package his salve in. Mike makes the crates he uses to transport and display his product in stores.

In addition to running his two businesses, Mike attends Save Our World Ministries, plays the violin on Tuesday nights at Celebrate Recovery meetings and for residents at Clinton Health Care and senior homes in Appleton City.

"I choose contemporary songs and play along to them," he said. "People like to listen to music that has words."

With six of his 11 children living locally, and 16 grandchildren, he attends birthday parties once a month that his family holds to celebrate whoever was born that month. His youngest daughter, Clairra Town, is also in a healing profession, and is a massage therapist who works in Clinton and in El Dorado Springs.

On March 19, Mike will be sharing his rural mission farming experience in Zimbabwe at the Christian Women's luncheon, which meets at 11:45 a.m. at First Assembly of God Church.

"God put on Earth everything we need in order to live and thrive," Mike said. "He said the leaves of the trees are for the healing of nations."

Find his product online at papatownscomfreyproducts.com.

He still has chickens, he said, and still feeds them comfrey.

MIKE TOWN patented the label design that Richard Brooks made for his product.

Mid-Mo Men's Bible Study on March 2

Sedalia Bible Academy is launching a new ministry to serve and coach men in central Missouri. It will be in the form of semi-annual intensive Bible studies. The first such event will be an all-day concentrated Bible study on Saturday, March 2, at Boonslick Regional Library, 219 West Third St., in Sedalia.

The focus of the first Bible study will be the New Testament book of Galatians. The interactive study will consist of six sessions from

MIKE ATWOOD

8:15 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., with an hour's lunch break. Lunch will be at a local eatery, each man paying for himself. Admission to the Bible study is free, but limited to the first 45 men who register, because of limited seating. Minimum age for admission is 18. To register, send email to p.c.thomas@charter.net or leave a clear voice mail at 660-826-9988.

Only those who receive a confirmation email or phone call will be considered registered. Unregistered men can attend if seats are available. Those who intend to attend the Bible study are asked to read, before March 2, all six chapters of Galatians and come prepared for deep thinking through the main themes in this letter that Apostle Paul wrote to correct a serious error.

The guest instructor for the event will be Mike Atwood, a native of Great Britain, now a resident of Republic, MO. Before going into full time gospel ministry, Mr. Atwood worked in personnel administration in the electricity generation industry in England. "I heard the gospel through a colleague at work, and was challenged to read the Bible," he said. "Through this process I saw myself as a sinner needing a Savior. I was converted in my bedroom on June 16, 1981."

Mr. Atwood's ministry has included serving with New Tribes Mission for five years, teaching in a missionary training institute, and serving a short term in the Philippines. He and his wife Ann Marie (from Ireland) served as missionaries in Ireland for eight years. He has done preaching and evangelistic ministry in Canada, Hong Kong, China, Malaysia, Singapore, India, Russia, Kenya, Norway, Germany, and the Bahamas.

The Attwoods' five children live in Europe, and their five grandchildren live in Norway. The Attwoods fellowship with Christians who meet at Southeast Bible Chapel in Springfield.

Sedalia Bible Academy was founded in 2009 as a non-denominational community service offering free interactive Bible studies for men and women. SBA sessions are held from 7 to 8:15 p.m. on Thursdays at Boonslick Library. SBA's motto is "Lifelong Learning for Here and the Hereafter."

Calhoun Community Church

Welcome to the Good News from Calhoun Community Church. Our church family gathers at 9:30 a.m. for pre-church food and fellowship. We use this special time for visiting one with another, welcoming Guests as they arrive for Worship, and signing cards of encouragement for our card ministry. Tucker McNeely rang the church bell at 9:45 a.m. to call our community to worship.

We continue to lift up friends, neighbors, and relatives in need of prayer Amber and Patrick Dittmer and baby daughter, Barbara Sales, Millie Redding, Rev. Jackson and Sondra Short, Patty Dump, and Dave Burson. We continue to pray for our military men and women and their families, as well as others in service jobs that we depend upon daily. Prayers were said for those who were injured, the shooters and families involved in the Chief’s Victory Parade. We pray for guidance as we continue to grow, here on the southeast corner of the Calhoun square.

Joys to celebrate: Savannah and Tucker McNeely lit the altar candles at the beginning of worship. We were pleased and excited that Sondra Short our pastor’s wife was able to be with us again today. Other guests were Jerrene Harrelson, Betty and Gary Conner. Special music by Shelby Bicknell, “One day He’ll call me Home,” a tune and words he composed spontaneously. We thank Shelby for sharing his talent. What a beautiful sun shiny day in the neighborhood to come together in worship and praise. We were pleased to be 24 strong this morning. Thought for the week: See how many ways you can find to put color and life and contentment in others’ lives, and you will find your desert will bloom-and so will you. Should you be looking for a place to feel the love of God, come by for a visit, dress as you are comfortable, bring the youngsters and be prepared to receive a blessing for your effort? We are a Concerned and Praying non-denominational Church. We will be blessed by your presence.

Drakes Chapel UMC

The days are getting a little longer and we have been blessed with a taste of spring to come. We look forward to the end of this long, cold winter. There is nothing better than to watch God’s work when He gives us that first crocus of Spring.

As we begin the Lenten season some of us at Drake’s look forward to the bible study “The Third Day” by Tom Berlin. The study will be held at Pearl Combs on Wednesdays. The first study to begin on February 21st at 6:00.

Pastor Margie’s message was from Mark 1:9-15. Mark tells of angels all around Jesus as He entered into the desert for 40 days to ready himself for his journey to the cross. During these hard days for Jesus, He faced so many temptations. It was only in the Gospel of Mark that it speaks of the angels that ministered to Jesus. They were all around, guiding Him during these days that must have been torture for the King of Kings.

Pastor Margie spoke of those of us who must have surely been guided by angels. Whether it be from those angels in Heaven or those here on earth. Sometimes in our lives things are heavy on our hearts, things feel hopeless. It is in those times that a person comes to our side and helps us see through the darkest of days. These are angels the here on earth that God has sent. Yes, angels are all around. And we can be that angel that God has sent to help someone. We must be ready to see the need and answer God’s call.

As we take our own journey to the cross, we look forward to Palm Sunday and our traditional breakfast at Drake’s Chapel. A time to break bread with our brothers and sisters in Christ. It would be a joy to have you join us

If you are looking for a church family, please consider a visit to see if we are that place you have been searching for. Join us any Sunday, whether in person or on Facebook Live. (Just look for Margie Briggs.) Our worship begins at 9:00. We are located 5 miles east of Clinton off Hwy 52, just look for the sign on the highway. As we enter into this Holy Season we are reminded of the angels that ministered to Jesus. May we look for ways to be angel for someone else.

First Baptist

On Sunday, members and guests were given the opportunity to meet the candidates for FBC’s Children’s Ministry Directors, Micah & Kelsi Bergen. With hearts for the great commission, Micah and Kelsi met in college, got married, and quickly left for Cambodia on mission. There, they served in children’s ministry for four and a half years. During that time, they fell in love with and adopted their first two children and later added two more to their growing family. Currently, both serve as teachers in the Ballard School District, the area where Kelsi grew up. They soon realized, not only their hearts for discipling future generations, but also their spiritual gifts in training others to lead in children’s ministry. Over the past several months, Micah & Kelsi have been actively involved in the children’s ministry leadership. In this role, they have successfully trained volunteers, while supporting them to avoid burn-out and find a healthy balance. After feeling led through God’s will for their lives, along with prayerful consideration, both have applied to lead the children’s ministry, together. At FBC, the personnel committee’s process in evaluating candidates includes offering the church body the chance to interact with and vote for the candidates. An opportunity to vote will be available to church members on February 25th at 6 pm. Until then, Micah & Kelsi welcome communication via email at micah.kelsi@gmail.com.

According to God’s word, every generation should be vested in the next, building disciples to love others into a growing relationship with Jesus! The goal is to love the Lord our God with all our heart, mind, and soul. Though we fall short, Heaven is still available because Jesus is available. Today is the day of salvation, for us and for all generations!

Celebrate Recovery is on Tuesday evenings at 5:30 pm at the Vansant location for anyone with hurts, habits, or hangups. GriefShare is offered every Thursday at 6 pm, for help and encouragement after the death of a loved one. Worship service times are 9:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. and Sunday School is offered at 8:15 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. For more information and upcoming events, please visit www.firstbaptistclinton.church or find us on Facebook at ‘First Baptist Church – Clinton, MO’.

We invite those without a church home to join us in worship of our Lord & Savior, Jesus Christ. First Baptist Church exists to fulfill the Great Commission (Matthew 28:19-20) by loving people into a growing relationship with Jesus Christ.

First Presbyterian

We are loved by God! He is God of infinite patience and love. In his love rests all the safety, security, comfort and hope we will ever need. In his love is freedom. Embrace the freedom offered to you and serve the God who is ever faithful.

We observed holy communion on the first Sunday of Lent. Rev. Nancy Gillard delivered the message titled The Aims of Lent” using 2 Corinthians 5: 20 – 6:2 as her text. Gay Smith brought the anthem “Open the Eyes of My Heart” by Paul Balloche.

The pudding and jello collection for the Samaritan Center has nearly filled up the shelves in the foyer. This collection will continue through next Sunday. There is still time to make your donation to support families in Henry County.

The Presbyterian Women continue to work on repurposing old tee shirts and braiding them into jump ropes for the Samaritan’s Purse Christmas Boxes for children. So far over 100 colorful ropes have been completed. The ladies are also beginning another mission activity. Yearly, they construct hygiene products for young ladies in Africa. Sewers are needed. If you are willing to help, items can be found in the foyer to complete your project. Be sure to ask one of the PW ladies for assistance if needed.

The Community Choir practice continues each Thursday evening from 6:30 – 8:00 pm. Mark and Gay Smith are leading this choir which practices in Fellowship Hall at First Presbyterian Church. A performance for the public will be coming in the spring.

Want to improve your balance and strength? Tai Chi is the right exercise class for you. Each Monday and Wednesday at 10:00 am you will find a group participating in Fellowship Hall. Do something nice for yourself. Come join in the fun and fellowship.

A spirit of love and kindness can be found within the doors of First Presbyterian Church. You will be welcomed by friendly, loving people. If unable to attend in person, the worship service is available online Church Page 7

Mt. Calvary Apostolic Pentecostal

"Do You Know The Voice Of The Lord?"

Not everyone in the church is close to God just because they have a title. They "went" but they are not the "called by God".

Many in the Bible were called by God; Abraham was called to leave his homeland and to a new place, Noah, was called to build an arc and he had never seen rain.

Moses was called to go back to a place where he could have gotten his head cut off, Elisha and Amos worked in the field, Matthew was a tax collector, and Peter and Andrew were fishermen and Jesus told them to follow him.

Sometimes a person can be called by God and not know it. Samuel was a great man of God. It says in 1 Samuel 3:1 And the child Samuel ministered unto the LORD before Eli. And the word of the LORD was precious in those days; there was no open vision.

There was no vision for a long time time in those days and the people perished. Pastors should have a vision of the church. This started in ancient times. Samuel didn't know about the calling of God and Eli told him to answer by saying, "Speak Lord, thou servant hears.

Samuel grew and the Lord was with him. You have to know who God is before you can recognize his voice and know what he says.

Many people do not know the voice of God. The chief shepherd wants his sheep fed properly. We in ministry are the ones who feed God's sheep. it is what God wants not what we want. When God gives us a message it is for his people.

Paul struggled with the Corinthians he said he fed them milk, not meat. People have a hard time understanding the Bible.

God has to reveal it to you. Jesus spoke in parables so his disciples would understand.

1Co 1:2.

Some people still have that old character in them instead of the love that God teaches us about. We have to have a love of people to be good Christians.

Heb 5:11.

Paul talked to them about being a babe in Christ. They were not hard of hearing but hard-headed.

Those unskilled in righteousness were like being fed with milk. You need to know the word of God. Instead of going by what you have heard over the years, you should read the word for yourself. If you are a babe in Christ ask someone with experience.

John 8:58.

When Jesus said this the people did not comprehend. Jesus was in his thirties, how could he know Abraham? To know the voice of God you have to know him.

When you read the Bible you will get to know God. Scriptures in the Old Testament tell about the New Testament.

God knows the beginning and the end. God is everywhere present (omnipresent)

Isaiah 62:2.

God sent Gabriel to Mary to tell her to name her child Jesus. This was the new spoken about in Isaiah. This is the name we call on.

Trinity Lutheran

The Lenten season continues next week, with Lent services on Wednesday at 4 pm in Clinton, and 7 pm in Appleton City. Everyone is welcome and encouraged to attend one of the Lent services next week

The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the spirit. John 3:8.

How do you know if you are born again?

Do you have faith in Jesus as your Savior? You're born again!

Do you worry about your sinfulness, and if you are truly born again?

Don't worry. You're born again! You see, those who aren't born again don't worry about such things. They are dead in their trespasses and sin.

How is a person born again? Faith in Jesus is a gift of God, not our own decision or works.. Faith comes through the work of the Holy Spirit through the preaching of God's Word and the sacraments of Holy Baptism and The Lord's Supper. Where are these "means of grace" most readily available to people? The Christian Church.

Through the preaching of the Word and the sacraments, God the Holy Spirit creates and sustains faith in all who believe. Are you concerned about your faith and salvation? Good! That is the Holy Spirit working in your life, calling you to Him.

Come to church this Sunday. Your faith will be renewed and strengthened through the Gospel message and fellowship with other believers. Praise God!

Divine Service 1 pm. Sunday School 11:45 pm. Phone 660.885.4728.

Urich Baptist

With faith and love for Jesus we gathered for worship. Clint Keeney rang the church bell.

Mrs. Julia Klinefelter led in the congregational singing with Mrs. Dixie Collins playing piano.

We rejoiced with Sherry Vogt on her birthday. Lonny Bramell and Clint Keeney collected the offering.

The scripture passage from interim Pastor Steve Sowell's sermon was from Hebrews 1: 1-4. This passage reminds us that God, our Lord Jesus, is in control of everything. He is fully God and Creator of all. Because of Christ's great love, we are presented holy, blameless, and joyfully received by Him through our salvation by faith. Have a blessed week.

Valley Center United

We give you thanks for all the ways that you wrap us in love and grace and for sending your Son who gives us the gift of salvation. Forgive us for putting ourselves first.

We are an open and affirming church and welcome all to come and worship with us next Sunday morning.

Happy anniversary to David and Christy Maggi! We thank Sam Lucas for sharing his wonderful talent by playing the organ this morning at Valley Center! We welcomed Phyllis Lucas to our church this morning! The ladies of the church had their Valentines party which included fun, food and fellowship, mixed with a lot of laughter!!

Thank you to David Maggi for the great message this morning, "The Center of the Universe".

Irelyn and Isaac lit the altar candles to begin our services. During Jesus' last night with the Disciples, he spoke of love, service and sacrifice. But even after Jesus had washed their feet, they soon wanted to know who was more important than the others. So, instead of listening and hearing Jesus, it became all about them.

The world is like that. Sometimes we think that we are the center of the universe. Everything is about us, and everyone we know is there just for us. We feel that it is OK to judge and we even think we have the right to criticize others.

It is not a contest. Our life should not be that of choosing to be the greatest. Instead, we should choose to be the server. It is a role that God meant for each of us. No egos, just love. We don't need recognition, nor praises, just share love and joy to all we meet. Always put Christ first.

Harrisonville Just Too Much For Cards In Senior Night Loss

PUTTING HIS MOVE ON the Harrisonville defender, the Cardinals' Garrett Ethridge looked to score on this possession late in Clinton's loss last Tuesday.

Both teams came out firing and the tally was close the whole way but a strong second half for Harrisonville allowed them to sneak out of town last Tuesday night with a win as they knocked off the Cardinals, 69-53.

Each team seemingly answered the other's buckets in the opening period but Harrisonville narrowly edged the Cardinals for a 17-15 first quarter lead. As the game slowed down in the second, so did the scoring, and the visiting Wildcats used a 12-9 margin for a 29-24 halftime lead.

A 21-16 third quarter advantage for Harrisonville swelled the Cardinals' deficit to 50-40 and a 19-13 margin in the fourth all but sealed the 59-53 win for the visitors.

Kaiden Townsend led the way for Clinton with 16 points while Jacob Balke followed with 13 of his own. Jase Wilson was also in double digits with 11.

CLINTON (53): J. Wilson,

11; C. Berry, 0; T. Gardner, 0; R. Lowe, 3; G. Ethridge, 7; E. Mantonya, 3; K. Townsend, 16; J. Balke, 13.

HARRISONVILLE (69): O. Jackson, 13; D. Wright, 5; B. Baker, 7; N. Diehl, 2; M. Garrie, 0; M. Worthley, 7; M. Mitchell, 26; M. Moore, 5; K. Johnson, 3; J. Sims, 1; J. Shrout, 0; E. Stone, 0.

Prior to their game, Class of 2024 seniors Collin Berry and Garrett Ethridge were recognized for their contributions to the Cardinals basketball program as part of Senior Night festivities.

The Cardinals (4-18) wrapped up their 2023-24 regular season with a trip to Warrensburg on Tuesday. Those results were obviously not available as of Clinton Daily Democrat press time.

Following that finale, their attention will then be on the Class 4 District 13 tournament which will be played in Pleasant Hill beginning on February 27 and ending on March 2.

Lady Cardinals Win Big Over Harrisonville On Senior Night

POUNDRING THE PAINT, the Lady Cardinals' Ava Potter looked for an open teammate cutting to the basket in Clinton's decisive 69-45 win over Harrisonville last Tuesday night.

The Clinton Lady Cardinals took an early lead of 19-12 after the first frame and never looked back as they dismantled the Harrisonville Lady Wildcats by a final score of 69-45.

Clinton used a 15-12 advantage in the second to build a double digit lead of 34-22.

A back-and-forth third period saw the Lady Cards lead "slip" to 45-35 but then a barrage of offense in the fourth led to a 24-10 margin and, ultimately, the 69-45 win.

The Lady Cardinals got scoring from deep off of their bench and also connected on 20 of 26 free throws on the night.

Skyte Wilson had a game-high 27 points for Clinton while Briley Wishard tossed in 10 points of her own.

CLINTON (69): A. Little, 9; V. Brown, 9; L. Kenney, 0; K. Schaffer, 0; A. Dutcher, 4; C. Berry, 0; S. Wilson, 27; A. Goucher, 3; A. Potter, 5; L. Brauer, 2; B. Wishard, 10.

Planting Seeds For The Future Through
Agriculture Education On The Move

Seeds are being planted in third grade classrooms across Missouri this spring as elementary students participate in Agriculture Education on the Move™ (Ag Moves). Through Ag Moves, an educational program of Missouri Farmers Care, students learn how their lives are connected to agriculture through hands-on learning led by passionate educators in their classrooms.

During the ten-week program, students learn about crops, livestock, soil and water conservation, nutrition, careers in agriculture and more through. The STEM-focused lessons and curriculum meet state learning objectives in the areas of science, math, social studies and language arts. Hands-on activities are incorporated in each lesson, providing fun and interactive ways of learning as students make soybean germination necklaces, corn plastic, butter, feed rations, soil profiles and more. Through the curriculum, students learn about Missouri farm families and how the dedication and year-round efforts of these farmers and ranchers impact their lives.

Students at Osceola Elementary will enjoy learning about food, fuel, and fibers with local AEOTM™ Educator, Linda Clinton this spring.

"It's truly inspiring to see the seeds of knowledge being planted in classrooms across Missouri though Agriculture Education on the Move. This program not only teaches students about the vital connection between their lives and agriculture but also ignites a passion for learning and understanding where their food comes from," said Denny Mertz, Missouri Soybean Merchandising Council outreach and education chairman. "We're proud of the dedication of our FFA partners and the enthusiastic educators who make this program possible, and we're excited to continue growing and expanding its impact in communities statewide."

Through partnerships with 535 FFA members in 91 FFA chapters, Ag Moves professional educators, and collegiate education interns, Ag Moves engaged over 10,000 third-grade students in 2023. The program's reach has more than doubled since 2021. Missouri Farmers Care Foundation, which hosts Ag Moves, provides the supplies and curriculum at no cost to participating schools. A list of elementary schools receiving Ag Moves programming this semester can be found at: <https://www.agmoves.com/blog/spring-2024-elementary-school-enrollments>.

"The entire community benefits from Agriculture Education on the Move™ as local students experience the thrill of germinating seeds, understanding the basics of how their food is produced and opening their eyes, many for the first time, to the agriculture all around them," said Ashley McCarty, Missouri Farmers Care executive director. "The connections the students make this semester will help inform their perspectives as future consumers and help them see the potential of agriculturally-related careers."

Ag Moves is funded through Missouri Farmers Care, a coalition of more than 40 Missouri agriculture groups. Missouri soybean farmers and their checkoff and the MFA Oil Foundation support the program, along with contributions from Missouri Corn Merchandising Council, FCS Financial, MFA Incorporated, Missouri Beef Industry Council and the Missouri Fertilizer Control Board. To find out more or to become a partner, visit www.agmoves.com.

Churches have been asked to pray, and this service has been written for all those who have been affected by gun violence in any way, either directly or by knowing someone affected, or by worry about this continuing and growing problem in our country.

People are asked to wear orange if they have any orange clothing, or ribbons will be available for those without orange in their wardrobe.

This service is open to the community.
