Local Flavor: Something New Is Cooking At Bucksaw Marina

BY JENNIFER JACKSON
Staff Reporter

When Denise Terry was growing up in Tightwad, her family would eat at Donna's Drive-In. A Tightwad icon, Donna's is famous for its tenderloin sandwiches, home-style entrees and pie.

Although Denise is not related, she had known owner Donna Walrath and her family since she was born and was a big fan of the food.

"That's why I bought the place," she said. "I didn't want to see it go away."

On March 1, 2024, Denise expanded her culinary kingdom to the Marina Restaurant at Bucksaw Resort. There, she brings the same fresh, local approach to ingredients that she does for Donna's.

"I try to buy local, especially meat," Denise said. "I brought in beef from Ferguson's Farm, and local sausage."

"I'm into farm to table."

It was the owners of Bucksaw, Tanya and Rick Gilley, who approached her about running the restaurant, she said, which is in the marina at the resort, on Truman Lake east of Clinton.

Denise took over on March 1, and inherited several employees, including Tiffany Tate, a server who was her neighbor when they were growing up.

"My dad played Santa for her," Denise said.

Denise's father is Day Terry, a farmer in Tightwad. Denise, who is also a farmer, graduated from Calhoun High School in 1991.

"I butcher my own meat," Denise said. "I usually have 100 to 120 head, but had to get rid of some of them because of the drought."

Her father takes care of her cattle for her, Denise said. Her mother, Shirley Terry, is from Warsaw.

Before buying Donna's Drive-In, Denise worked as an apprentice electrician for KCPL. She was employed at the Melrose plant for 17 years, she said, and when it closed, was transferred to a plant in La Cygne, Kansas.

"It is an 80-mile drive, one-way," she said. "I had to make a decision."

Denise said she does a lot of cooking at Donna's, along with Matt Smith. Matt has cooked there for 18 years, 14 of those years for Donna. Denise makes the pies with the help of her sister, Ronda White, who works part-time.

The key to surviving in the restaurant business is having good staff, Denise said. Ronda's daughter-in-law, Skyler White, is her right hand, Denise said. Dayle Boardman is also a manager. Sarah Anderson and Alison Gordon, with Tiffany Tate and three cooks, Richie Perry, Dan Garrison and Bobby S., round out the staff.

"I consider all my workers family," Denise said. "We spend a lot of time together."

Having managers who can take over when she's not there means she can take an occasional day off, Denise said, which she does to play with "the kids." Her father had 11 siblings, she said, so she has lots of nieces and nephews, and now, great nieces and nephews, including Skyler's three children.

Forecaster Brings Passion And Puts West Central Missouri On The Map

MAKING SENSE OUT OF METEOROLOGY, Jim "Subby" Sublette hosted a seminar at the Benson Center during Weather Preparedness Week. Levi Schrock and Isaac Wilson spoke with Subby at the event.

How much difference does eight minutes make when a tornado is about to touch down near your home?

Jim Sublette, who goes by Subby, told this story at a Severe Weather Seminar last week at the Benson Center about a time he alerted people in St. Clair County that all the conditions were in place to spawn a tornado.

"I saw the hook formation and told them to move immediately to the lowest level of their house," he said. "Eight minutes later, the National Weather Service issued a tornado warning for the county. "Eight minutes is a lot of time."

This story illustrated the point he wanted to drive home: the importance of receiving up-to-date severe storm warnings that are specifically for West Central Missouri.

"We're stuck between the north edge of the Na-

ZERO TAX LEVY INCREASE
APRIL 2, 2024

One of the most important jobs of a school district is to ensure that school facilities remain safe and secure. It is also imperative that these same facilities meet the educational and instructional needs of not only current students and staff, but those of the future. The district realizes the importance of doing all of this while also being fiscally responsible with district funds and taxpayer dollars. Proposition Cardinals allows the district to not only enhance the safety and functionality of our facilities and support our staff, but it also allows us to do so without increasing the tax levy. Today we take a look at how we got here, and what projects would be completed with the approval of Question 1 and Question 2 on April 2.

To ensure that buildings remain safe and meet the needs of students and staff, the district has taken an in-depth look at buildings and facilities. This process began a year ago by gathering information on the needs of all facilities from administration and staff. This information provided valuable insights into the benefits and challenges that the

Want To Catch A Really Big Fish? Spoonbill Season Starts On Friday

BY KEITH JACKSON
Staff Reporter

Paddlefish season is upon us, starting March 15, the time of year when Missouri fishermen stand the greatest chance of landing the largest Missouri fish of their lifetime. They're not Jaws, but they do have a really big nose, the rostrum that gave the fish its name.

Paddlefish, also commonly called spoonbills or spoonbill catfish, are a plankton-feeding fish that are heading up rivers as they begin their spawning run now. It's the very best time of the year for fishermen after this large fish.

How large? Well, the Missouri state record is 140-pounds 10-ounce and was caught in Lake of the Ozarks by Jim Dain of Pittsfield, Ill., on March 18, 2022. It beat the previous state record by one ounce. That 140-pound 9-ounce fish was caught in 2019 in Table Rock Lake.

The world record was caught in 2021 in Keystone Lake in Oklahoma. It weighed a whopping 164 pounds.

AN ANCIENT FISH WITH A LARGE FOLLOWING, the spoonbill is the oldest surviving species in North American, dating back more than 125 million years. Spoonbill season gets underway March 15.

The paddlefish found in the Mississippi and Missouri river drainages are the last surviving species of this type of fish. They are loosely related to sharks and closer cousins to sturgeon. The only other paddlefish in modern times, the Chinese paddlefish, became extinct around 2010. The American paddlefish has been stocked back in the Yangtze River and elsewhere in Asia and Europe as well as many suitable rivers in the Mississippi drainage.

Named for its snout-like rostrum, the paddlefish has a number of receptors on its paddle that alert it to the presence of plankton, its food of choice.

Catching paddlefish isn't like fishing for most other fish. They are plankton feeders and don't "bite"; once they've located a concentration of plankton, the paddlefish swim through it with mouth open.

Well, well, well. President Biden apologized for using the word "illegal" to describe the man that killed Laken Riley. She was a 22 year old nursing student in Georgia. ### Meeting Reminder

The Disabled American Veterans (DAV) Chapter #67 Butler, Missouri invites all Disabled Veterans to attend our monthly meeting. The chapter meets the third Wednesday at 1:00 PM in the Bates County Museum on Elks Drive. Our next regular meeting is March 20, 2024 at 1:00 PM.

Dear Friends of Education:

The Society for Academic Excellence invites students who have achieved a 3.5 or higher grade point average during this school year to be recognized. Last year, 295 students were honored, including 73 graduating seniors who maintained a 3.5 GPA each year throughout high school. In addition, four seniors from Clinton High School and one senior from Clinton Christian Academy received $500 scholarships. We invite you to join other individuals and businesses in the Clinton area to help honor the scholastic achievements of Clinton High School and Clinton Christian Academy students.

This year marks the 36th anniversary of the Academic Excellence Program, all because of our supportive community which has taken an interest in education for the youth within our school districts. Our program this year will be focused on providing a quality experience for our students and an opportunity for the graduating seniors to be recognized with scholarships to encourage furthering their education.

The consistent support of the program from sponsors like you have allowed the Society to provide this recognition for our top performing students and their families. Your contribution of $50.00 as a Silver Sponsor or $100.00 as a Gold Sponsor will benefit the students as they receive their official Academic Excellence medals and ribbons. For your support, you will receive the following:

1. Recognition in the CHS Academic Excellence Ceremony's program with that ceremony being held on April 17th. CCA includes A.E. as part of their year-end ceremonies, and you will be recognized there as well.
  2. Listing as a Silver or Gold sponsor in Chamber of Commerce Facebook posts before and after the CHS and CCA ceremonies.
  3. Either a walnut plaque as a first-year sponsor or a 2024 date plate as a returning sponsor.
  4. Satisfaction from supporting our youth in Academic Excellence as a partner in education.
- Also, many continuing sponsors may need a new plaque for additional year bars. Let the office know when you send your sponsorship. Please make your checks payable to Greater Clinton Area Chamber of Commerce with a memo for Society for Academic Excellence. Checks can be mailed or delivered to the Depot, 200 South Main, Clinton, MO 64735. Your Chamber will also pick up checks if needed. Please respond by April 3rd.
- Thank you for your consideration and support of our youth and education.

buildings present to those who use them every day. A Facilities Assessment was also conducted by Incite Design Studio. This assessment took an in-depth look at current facilities, provided data on the functional and maximum capacity of buildings, and proposed potential solutions to the current and future needs of all facilities. Last fall, community members were also provided a list of identified needs and asked to provide input. Using all of this data, administration and the board of education worked together to determine a list of projects for Question 1, the proposed $14 Million Zero-Tax Levy Increase Bond. The District believes that the proposed bond projects are necessary to keep our schools safe and improve our students' learning environments, while also protecting and enhancing the investment our community has made in our facilities through the years. If passed on April 2, Question 1 would allow the district to complete the following projects without an increase to the overall tax levy (additional information on each project is available on our website, www.clintoncardinals.org).

Clinton Middle School (much of the work will occur in this building, at 63 years old it is the oldest building in the district and did not receive any improvements during the last bond project)-Building settlement repairs, restroom updates/construction of additional student restrooms, construction of three (3) additional classrooms, parking lot repair, gym accessibility upgrades, and improvements to the functionality of the band room

Clinton High School - Secure entry improvements
Henry Elementary School - Inclusive playground equipment, cafeteria upgrades, and student restroom upgrades

Clinton Early Childhood Center - Inclusive playground equipment, lead paint removal on exterior of building, and cabinet/counter repair

Clinton Intermediate School - Construction of student restrooms, parking lot expansion, improved traffic flow for car rider pick-up and drop-off, and drainage repair between Henry and CIS

Clinton Technical School - Classroom furniture and parking lot repair

District-Wide - Replace football field turf to meet safety requirements, resurface track, pay-off Energy Performance Contract, and HVAC/roof repairs

While Question 1 addresses the needs of our buildings and facilities, Question 2 addresses the needs of our hard-working and dedicated staff members, also without an increase to the overall tax levy. Addressing teacher and staff pay to make the district salary schedules more comparable to area districts, is an issue of importance identified by both school staff and the board of education. While the district makes efforts every year to retain and recruit highly-qualified staff, the long-term solution requires the district to offer more. If approved on April 2, Question 2 would allow the district to transfer $.15 from the debt service levy to the operating levy, generating $425,000 to support staff with salary and wage increases, without an impact on the tax levy.

Next week we look forward to sharing more detailed information on how zero-tax levy increase school bonds and levy transfers work. As we approach the April 2nd election, please don't hesitate to reach out to the district with any questions you might have. Feel free to stop by Central Office, send an email to bwishard@clintoncardinals.org, or call us at 660-885-2237.

"I'm the fun aunt," Denise said.

With her managers on the job, Denise said she doesn't have to get to the Marina Restaurant when it opens at 7 a.m. But she often heads out before dawn to make supply runs to Warrensburg and Clinton, where she buys at local stores as much as she can.

One of her goals: to get more locals coming to eat at Bucksaw Marina Restaurant. She does have regulars who during Lent looking for fish on Fridays, she said. The menu includes catfish, peel and eat shrimp, and fish and shrimp baskets, along with cheeseburgers and pork tenderloin sandwiches.

Denise said she wakes up at night thinking of ideas to bring more people to eat at Bucksaw Marina.

"I don't need much sleep," she said.

"She texts me at 3 a.m.," Skyles said.

With her cousin, Nancy Burkhart, the owner of a vintage/antique mall near Tightwad, Dusty Daisy, Denise is planning a craft fair on June 8 at Bucksaw. Craft vendors are invited to sign up and bring their wares at no charge, Denise said.

Bucksaw Marina Restaurant has seating both inside and outside at tables on the deck, overlooking the water. Once the weather warms up, it will be a pleasant place to take visitors for a meal, or coffee and a cinnamon roll or dessert.

Denise is also bringing in cheesecake from Brian Molders' B. Oliver's Creations, and cakes, cupcakes and cinnamon rolls from Rustic Kitchen in Tightwad. She sells local honey from Paul's Honey in Tightwad at both restaurants.

"I'm trying to get local growers to bring in produce," she said.

Denise said running a restaurant has been a challenge since the pandemic, when food prices started going up. Taking care of the customer is her priority, she said, as is supporting the community. Denise regularly holds fundraisers, including one to help with a local child's medical expenses and one benefitting the animal shelter in Windsor.

Donna's Drive-In, which opened in 1986, is located at 102 SE Hwy PP. Denise said she bought it several years before Donna passed away in February of 2022, and has been happy with her decision to own a business.

Denise's advice to anyone thinking of opening a restaurant, in addition to having good staff:

"Be ready to put in the hours," she said. "If you don't, you won't make it."

Bucksaw Marina is located at 670 SE 803 Rd., Clinton, Mo., 64735. From Clinton, go east on Hwy. 7 S approximately 12 miles, past Coal, then turn right (south) on SE Hwy. U and follow signs to the marina. Current hours of the Marina Restaurant are 7 a.m. to 2 p.m. Monday through Wednesday, and 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Open March to October.

tional Weather Service for Springfield, and the south edge for Kansas City," Subby said.

Subby hosted the seminar on March 6 during Weather Preparedness Week. Many of the people in attendance subscribe to Subby's Weather Talk web site and his Facebook. Several times a week, Subby streams forecasts specifically for counties in West Central Missouri, based on different types of weather radar and models, which he explained at the seminar.

The most interesting visual was a video of the process of a "Tornadogenesis," which Subby showed with the help of his son Remington. First, a wall cloud forms and rises, then hits warmer air and spreads out to form a flat-topped shape that looks like an anvil. If the underside of the wall cloud is rotating, conditions are ripe for a tornado forming along a flanking line behind the cloud in the rain-free zone.

The spinning cloud may create a twist of clouds in the sky, called a funnel cloud. If the funnel cloud touches the ground, it is called a tornado, Subby said.

Attending the seminar were Levi Schrock and Isaac Wilson, who are storm chasers. Schrock is an insurance broker who lives in Nixa, Mo., while his brother Issac lives in Urich and is a paramedic and EMT. With Luke Clampitt of Garden City, they are the "Nader Boys."

Their most harrowing experience occurred two years ago this May, Levi said, when they were chasing a tornado south of Fort Riley, near Emporia, Kansas.

"We got caught by the tornado after turning down an unpaved maintenance road and getting stuck," Levi said. "But we weren't alone. There were 12 of us."

It was dark by then, Levi said, but they got some good video before that. Storm chasing has become so popular, Subby said, that there have been multi-car wrecks by people trying to follow the storm to get video of tornados to sell to news programs.

Subby explained that four weather conditions are necessary to produce a tornado: moisture, instability, a lifting mechanism and wind shear. When the cold front moved through our area last month, dropping the temperature by 40 degrees in an afternoon, there was not enough moisture, he said, and no instability.

Warm air rising and hitting warmer air creates a cap, he said. In the Midwest, cold fronts serve as a lifting mechanism, he said. Wind shear results from winds meeting from different directions at varying heights.

Subby explained the four types of thunderstorms: single cell, multi-cluster, squall line and super cell. Most of the storms that affect Missouri are squall line, he said, which can extend laterally hundreds of miles. Squall line storms can bring large hail and high winds, and also form tornadoes, indicated by notches in the leading edge of the line. There will also be a hook formation on the radar, indicating rotation, with the squall line bowing out below the notch.

Having a way to receive severe storm warnings at your home or business is crucial, he said. Sirens are only meant to alert people who are outside to move indoors, he said.

"Emergency services no longer sounds "all clear" sirens," he said, "so if you hear two sirens go off, it's for two tornado warnings."

Subby said he has been fascinated by weather since he was a child — his mother still has binders with forecasts he made. He studied meteorology at the University of Missouri for three years, then decided to go into law enforcement, switching to a criminal justice program at UCM. When a professor pointed out he has one class and one lab to finish to get an Earth Science degree, UCM not having a meteorology degree, so he took them and graduated with a double major.

He took his passion for weather forecasting and applied it to help his local community.

"First responders told me when they were out on an emergency, people always ask them what is happening," Subby said. "I worked up a grant and got them an app called Radar Scope."

The first responders said, "Thank you, we got the app, now how do we use it?". So he gave them a crash course in reading radar maps. The radar most people are familiar with is reflectivity, Subby said, which produces multi-colored bands on weather maps, from yellow to the darker reds and purples, reflecting how much moisture and rainfall is in a system.

Another kind, velocity radar, pinpoints wind speed coming towards and away from the radar source, and is harder to read, as is correlation coefficient radar.

The first responders told people about Subby's weather skills, they told others, and now he has 7,500 people who subscribe to subbysweathertalk.com and follow his Facebook posts. He is also deputy director of the Henry County Emergency Management office.

The HCEM office has an app called Texcaster, he said, which gives all the emergency alerts, including weather. Another app, Storm Shield, tracks your location, giving you weather alerts where you are traveling, he said.

His Weather Talk, however, is a one-stop shop, Subby said. He analyzes the coming weather using the four different kinds of radar and models that use projected data and real-time data, gathered from weather balloons.

"The first thing I look at every morning is the 500 millibar map and the T-Skew Hodograph," Subby said.

A hodograph plots winds from atmospheric soundings. Subby also watches the jet stream, which he calls the "steering wind" of storms. A 500 millibar chart displays the amount of humidity in the atmosphere.

Subby asked the storm chaser brothers Levi and Isaac to come to the March 6 seminar so people could see who he was talking about when he posts the Nader Boys' reports on Weather Talk. Their experiences include catching up with a tornado in Maryville, Levi said, and last year, they chased several twisters in Oklahoma, and also visited a movie filming site of "Twister."

Oklahoma is part of Tornado Alley, Subby said. West Central Missouri gets only one high-risk tornado warning a year, he said.

Subby said when he visits classrooms for safety talks, he asks students if their family has three things: a smoke detector, a carbon-monoxide detector and a weather radio. All the hands go up for the smoke detector and carbon-monoxide detector, but when he asks how many have weather radios, "I maybe get two hands."

Subby's followers on Weather Talk gather weather data and send reports to him, and to the National Weather Service. It's important to know the categories of hail sizes, he said, which range from pea-sized (a quarter of an inch) to grapefruit.

"It takes a 90 to 100 mile-per-hour wind to uplift and suspend a 2-pound ball of hail," Subby said.

A severe storm is categorized by hail one-inch in diameter or greater, Subby said, with winds above 58 miles per hour. It may also have tornado indications.

Outreach programs to educate people about severe weather situations, combined with multiple ways for people to receive weather alerts, are key to people surviving a severe storm, he said. Families should plan where to gather when a tornado warning sounds, ideally in the basement, or in a downstairs bathroom or interior room away from windows. The plan should be reviewed and rehearsed every year.

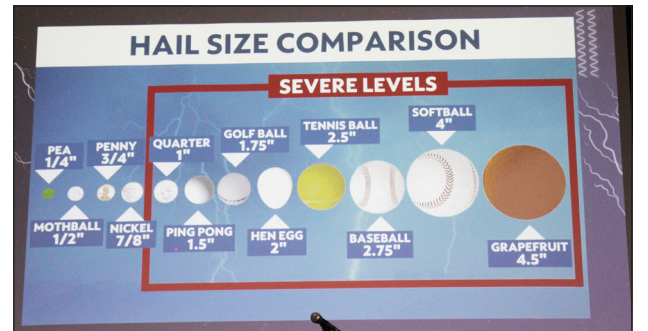

"Every minute counts," Subby said.

Everyone from Henry County who attended the seminar received a weather radio. Subby also has radios that wake people who are hard of hearing with a flashing light to alert them of pending severe weather. The weather radios are electric, with three AA back-up batteries.

Out Of Africa: Farm Mission To Be Topic Of March 19 CWC Luncheon

Celebrate the arrival of spring and anticipate Easter by attending the Tuesday, March 19, luncheon of the Christian Women's Connection.

CWC organizers decided on a spring theme for the luncheon, as St. Patrick's Day will be over, and Palm Sunday and Easter on the horizon. Arrive at 11:45 a.m. and enjoy a hot lunch, catered by Melinda Dehn, including an entree, side dish, salad, bread, dessert and drink, for $14. Make reservations for the lunch by Friday, March 15.

The Christian Women's Connection is open to all, and is a opportunity to get together with friends once a month for lunch and enjoy a program. The speaker for the March 19 luncheon will be Mike Town, owner of Integrity Floors. Mike will tell stories about the years he and his family spent on a rural mission project in Zimbabwe. They lived on a farm with other families and raised cows, goats and chickens. The farm served as a conduit for a ministry of reconciliation in the country, Mike said, which had been split by revolution.

It was in Zimbabwe that Mike learned about the healing powers of comfrey, an herb that he grows and makes into a salve and markets in the region.

In addition to running Integrity Floors and making Papa Town's Comfrey Salve, Mike volunteers his talents as a musician at senior centers in the area. Along with telling stories about his family's experiences in Africa, he is expected to end his program by playing some popular songs on the violin.

At last month's meeting, Scott Brooks, owner of Clinton Flower Shop and a church musician, ended his program by sitting down at the piano and taking requests for favorite hymns. Scott spoke on using the gifts God gave you, and shared anecdotes about playing for weddings and funerals at the different churches in town, often on a pipe or electric organ he had never seen before. Sometimes he had to guess what the stops were, he said — some were not labeled, just numbered, and on one, the stops were written German.

The name of the CW Connection was changed from the Christian Women's Club to reflect a new direction for the group, which originally started as part of an interdenominational network of women's clubs, part of Stonecroft Ministries. As the Christian Women's Connection, it now focuses on speakers from the local community, who provide insights into their lives and how they live out their faith.

Call Shirley Rucker at 417-321-0013 by Friday, March 15, to make reservations for the March 19 luncheon. First Assembly of God is on the southeast corner of the junction of Hwys. 7 and 13, at 1506 E. Ohio. Use the door at the back of the church to access the fellowship hall. All are welcome.

Music can help relieve stress, anxiety, agitation, and depression.

The Henry County Memory Fund Medicine of Music program can help Alzheimer's and dementia patients with a prescription of their favorite music. We will provide your loved one with an iPhone and with customized music that the patient loves. ### Missouri Retired Teachers Meet

The Henry County Retired Teachers and Retired School Personnel for Region 6 met on February 22, 2024, at the Clinton Methodist Church. An interesting program was presented by Sherry Himes of Green Streets Market on "How to Plant an Herb Garden".

President Kathy Nepple called the meeting to order and led in the Pledge of Allegiance. January and February birthdays were recognized. Delicious refreshments were provided by Hospitality Committee members Vivian Taylor and Peggy Williams. Committee reports were presented and the 2024 yearbooks were distributed.

Members were encouraged to attend the Region 6 meeting to be held April 19, 2024, at the Assembly of God Meeting Hall, Osceola, MO. This meeting will provide valuable information for our members from the state MRTA office regarding our retirement and benefits available through MRTA.

For years, MRTA has been working to make sure Missouri school employees enjoy the retirement they deserve. Become a member and they'll provide:

- Pension protection
- Access to benefits
- Social opportunities
- And other advantages of membership

Membership is a small cost that makes a big impact on the quality of life for you and other school employees. But we can't do it without you. The more members we have, the bigger our voice.

The next Henry County chapter meeting will be held April 25, 2024, at Clinton Methodist Church. All retired Henry County teachers and school personnel are invited to join.

UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL MISSOURI

Focus On Student Success Highlighted By Regional NACADA Awards

FROM LEFT, ROBERT FERNQUIST, PH.D., sociology program coordinator and chair of the University of Central Missouri's Department of Sociology, Anthropology, and Social Studies; Rachele Webster, senior academic success advisor; and Ken Schueller, senior director of student success, were all honored by the National Academic Advising Association Region VII for their outstanding work and service to students in the area of academic advisement.

Demonstrating the quality of leadership and academic advisement support the University of Central Missouri provides students, three university members were honored this spring at the National Academic Advising Association (NACADA) Region IV/VII annual conference and awards program in New Orleans. As UCM continues to build on its reputation for outstanding academic advisement, the university swept three major award categories at the regional recognition program for the first time in the institution's history.

NACADA is a global organization that promotes and supports quality academic advising at higher education institutions in order to enhance students' educational development and to help ensure a successful pathway to completion of their college or university degrees. It provides a forum for discussion, debate, and the exchange of ideas pertaining to academic advising through numerous activities and publications, while also honoring individuals for their exceptional work in this field.

Members of UCM's award-winning academic advisement team who were honored by NACADA included Ken Schueller, senior director of student success, recipient of the Excellence in Advising – Advising Administrator Award, and Rachele Webster, senior academic success advisor and recipient of the Excellence in Advising – Primary Role Advisor Award. Also honored was Robert Fernquist, Ph.D., sociology program coordinator and chair of the Department of Sociology, Anthropology, and Social Studies, who was presented the Excellence in Advising – Faculty Advisor Award.

The award recipients from UCM were selected among hundreds of professionals in NACADA's Region

VII. Individuals who were considered for awards are higher education professionals whose primary role is academic advising, faculty members who teach and spend a portion of their time providing academic advising services to students, and individuals whose primary role is to administer or direct academic advising programs. UCM's honorees are part of a region that includes academic advisement professionals and educators in the states of Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas and Louisiana.

"When you consider how many schools and advising programs there are in those six states, it's humbling," Schueller said in talking about UCM's NACADA recognition.

UCM's success in NACADA continues a long string of university faculty and staff members who have been recognized by the organization. Since the establishment of the Student Success Center in 2015, at least one individual from the university has been honored every year as a winner in the state and region in either professional academic advisement or faculty academic advisement categories. This is in addition to numerous Certificate of Merit awards. Two UCM members received global recognition in 2021, an achievement which all three of this year's regional award winners are now seeking. Since 2015, two other individuals also have been honored as new academic advisement professionals, one at the regional and one at the state level.

"This says a lot about the quality of student care we have here," Schueller said.

Prior to receiving regional recognition, Webster, who won the Outstanding Academic Advisor Award from UCM in April 2023, and Schueller were both recognized at the state level UCM Page 5

by the Missouri Academic Advising Association (MACADA). The nomination process includes student surveys and letters of support for nominees provided by students and colleagues.

A retired Air Force veteran who has worked for UCM since August 2001, Schueller was surprised to learn that he received 49 endorsements from students, employees and staff members in his office that led to his initial recognition in fall 2023 at the state level. This motivated him to apply for the regional award.

"That's the thing that just set me back," he said gratefully. "You can think you are doing good and look at numbers, but the ultimate measure for me was that kind of support from the entire team. For me this is like the pinnacle of my career."

In 2018, while Schueller was directing the Open Options program for undecided majors, he was instrumental in combining five decentralized advising areas into a unified Advising Center within one location that pulled together advisors on campus. This team of professionals created a proactive advising model which now includes three significant components, advisors, success coaches and faculty mentors.

Schueller built the Open Options program from the bottom up, and created the content and curriculum for the Exploring Majors program that his office follows today. He has worked with the UCM Alumni Foundation to secure funds for retention scholarships, and secured space for the Harding Student Support Services Center as part of a comprehensive college access and completion program for incoming freshmen, especially first-generation and low-income students.

The university has experienced record retention rates under Schueller's leadership, and colleagues note that he has developed a reputation as "someone who administers with a personal touch by getting to know his employees and the students who visit his office."

Webster joined the university in June 2019 as an Academic Success Advisor, and is now embracing a senior leadership role at that post. She has a caseload of 250 undergraduate students majoring in Agriculture Science, Biology, Chemistry, Health Studies, Kinesiology, Medical Laboratory Science, Nursing, Open Option and Radiologic Technology.

As part of the awards consideration process, Webster said she and other nominees were asked to provide statements about their advising philosophy. This serves her well in a profession where she works with many students who come from backgrounds similar to her own.

Webster noted, "My advising philosophy was crafted through the lens of a Pell-eligible, first-generation college student that never thought she would complete a whole semester of college much less a master's degree in College Student Affairs. Through awareness of my own academic journey in combination with experience and education, I aspire to continue to support those around me, repay the college advisors and mentors that aided in my personal and professional journey, and make a difference in the lives of many."

One of Webster's colleagues who nominated her for the NACADA award noted about her, "Rachelle's genuine care and attentiveness to student needs along with her profound grasp of knowledge in advising and student development theories drive her professional success. Rachelle views her role as a Success Advisor as more than a job, but an opportunity. An opportunity to help others grow into the best students and individuals they can be."

Fernquist has been a member of the Sociology faculty for 27 years, where he has taught numerous undergraduate and graduate courses. Student advising is an important part of his professional endeavors, and he said he is grateful for the opportunity to guide and support students in their academic journeys at UCM. He also appreciates the help and support he receives from the university's success advisors. Statements he shared with MACADA and NACADA demonstrate his philosophy about student academic advisement and his commitment to their success.

"I have found that although students' needs are varied, each student deserves my full attention—whether it be helping a student receive financial aid to purchase a textbook, working with administration to approve course substitutions for their major field of study, or contacting a student to see if they need any help registering for classes," he noted.

As a college professor, Fernquist has never forgotten what it's like to be on the receiving end of an education. Drawing from his personal experiences as a former student helps him to better serve today's students while also contributing to a successful and satisfying career.

"I remember sitting in my introductory sociology class when I was an undergraduate student and wanting to do what my teacher was doing—be a sociology professor. As rewarding as teaching college classes has been, it is in the one-on-one moments advising and mentoring students that I find true satisfaction in my career," he wrote. "Although the phrase 'this is what I was meant to do' may be viewed as trite and overused, this truly is the case for me. I have been blessed to help students both in and out of the classroom. And it never ceases to be rewarding."

Fernquist, Webster and Schueller will learn during the summer of 2024 if they have received NACADA global recognition in their professional academic advising areas. These awards will be presented during the organization's national conference Oct. 27-30 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

TERRY WAYNE CLOUD

Terry Wayne Cloud was born on March 26th 1962 in Clinton, Missouri to parents Marquis and Barbara (Houk) Cloud. He departed this life very unexpectedly at his home on February 26th 2024.

Terry spent most of his life here in Clinton. From doing farm work, construction, or cars our dad could do it all. If it wasn't construction or car work, he was either watching TV and muting the commercials, or sitting in the garage listening to Pink Floyd or the Eagles.

Terry got to travel the U.S. during his time as a truck driver, he would bring back souvenirs for the kids and write Mary love letters along the way. In his free time home he would love to fish, hunt for mushrooms like his brother and dad did, and play ball with his children. He grew up playing baseball with his brother and dad and it was something he always talked about.

He was gruff, a hard one, to the outside world, but those who knew him got to love on the softer side. He cared and felt deeply, didn't always show it, but he cherished those he was close to.

Terry spent the last years of his life caring for his grandchildren, Jordan and Greyson. He loved them with everything he had, they gave him a new purpose after retirement and mom passing. They were his everything.

He is survived by his children; Meladie Cloud (Mason) Nixa MO, Nicole White (Mike) Chambersburg PA, and Ricky McNabb Clinton MO; one sister, Paula Thornley (Mitch) Clinton, MO; grandchildren, Paige, Jordan, Greyson, Kayleigh, Marley, and Brielle, as well as many nieces and nephews and cousins who all loved him dearly. He is preceded in death by the love of his life, Mary Cloud, his parents Marquis and Barbara Cloud, his brother Lynn Cloud, and one granddaughter Riley McNabb.

Funeral services were held at 10:00 a.m. Friday, March 1, 2024 at the Bradley & Hadley Funeral Home, Clinton. The family had a visitation from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. Thursday at the funeral home. Interment was in the Vansant Road Cemetery. The family suggests memorial contributions to the family to establish an education fund for Jordan and Greyson. These donations may be left in care of the funeral home. Condolences may be left online at www.bradleyhadley.com.

FRANCES LYLE
(NÉE GILDERSLEEVE)

Frances Lyle (née Gildersleeve) passed away February 25, 2024, at the age of 102. Born February 6, 1922, in Clinton (Henry County), MO, Frances lived a full, purposeful, and vibrant life as a wife, mother, grandmother, and friend. Her warm and high-spirited personality drew people to her everywhere she lived, worked, and traveled.

Frances was the only child of Lee and Thelma (Callen) Gildersleeve. During the Great Depression, the family moved from Clinton to Fredonia, KS, then Belle Plaine, KS, and later to Kansas City, MO. When Frances was 11, her parents moved to a family farm in Shawnee Mound, MO, ten miles north of Clinton. Frances graduated at age 16 as valedictorian of the Shawnee Mound High School Class of 1938. She received a $60 loan from her uncle to attend Kansas City Business School (KCBS). To earn her room and board, she worked as a housekeeper at a private home on East 77th Street.

At KCBS, she developed impressive skills in typing and shorthand and also cultivated an elegant handwriting style which graced even her most recent cards and letters. Upon graduating, she returned to Clinton and started a work life that spanned eight decades. From 1939 to the early 1950s, Frances worked at Crowe Coal Company where a lifetime of friendships and stories were launched. In 1943, she married Arthur Lee Wilson of Clinton. While serving with the United States Marine Corps in World War II, Arthur Lee was killed in the Battle of Iwo Jima. As a young war widow, Frances remained in Clinton. She married H.R. (Henry Ruffner) "Tex" Lyle from Athens, Georgia, on June 8, 1952, in Marshall, MO. Frances and Tex were the parents of two daughters, Rachel and Ingrid.

From 1963 to 1973, Tex's work prompted family moves around Missouri. Throughout Tex's agri-business career and farming operations, Frances was his helpmate and keeper of the home fires. In 1973, the Lyles returned to their Clinton home. For the next 20 years, Frances was office manager for Browning Van and Storage. She later worked at Walmart as a greeter and at the Henry County Library. Working with Frances was like winning the sweepstakes: in her, you had not only a very capable co-worker, but a trusted confidante, in-house therapist, and resident humorist. She forged work relationships into genuine friendships through the generosity of her big heart and equally big personality. At age 82, Frances was chosen Outstanding Older Worker for Missouri. She traveled to Washington, D.C., for the national awards ceremony.

In 2008, Frances and Tex moved to Springfield, MO, to be near family. After Tex passed away that year, Frances lived independently in their home for the rest of her life. She was a lifelong reader and an avid worker of crossword puzzles. She enjoyed music, sang in the church choir, and played the piano by ear. She was an adventurous cook, always looking for new and different recipes. Frances loved to travel and saw much of the world with family and friends. She was a lifelong church member and a charter member of the Clinton United Methodist Church. She was a long-time children's Sunday School teacher and nursery worker. She loved animals and adopted all her pets, the most recent in her 100th year. She was a masterful and entertaining storyteller, but an even better listener. Her practical and wise observations, quick wit, and hearty laugh were appreciated by multiple generations.

Frances gave of herself in every way: her time, her resources, and her prayers were given in abundance. She loved kids – her own, her friends' and neighbors' and the children of the world. She was a generous supporter of numerous charities and was a faithful volunteer until her death.

Frances is survived by daughter Rachel Lyle (Jonathan Paretsky) of Lawrence, KS; daughter Ingrid Denney of Springfield, MO; granddaughter Adrienne Soucie (Brendan) of Kansas City, MO; and her dog Jewel of the home. Also sharing the memory of Frances are her legions of friends with whom she stayed close via visits, letters, cards, phone calls and texts.

Her impact is immeasurable on her family and her friends. Everyone who knew Frances will remember her in their own way, but undoubtedly for her wit, kindness and ability to light up a room with her presence. A service celebrating Frances's life will be scheduled. To honor her memory, hug an old friend or make a new one; tell someone a laugh-out-loud story; or contribute to the charity of your choice.

This Is A Cemetery

Lives are commemorated – deaths are recorded – families are reunited – memories are made tangible – and love is undisguised. This is a cemetery.

Communities accord respect, families bestow reverence, historians seek information and our heritage is thereby enriched.

Testimonies of devotion, pride and remembrance are carved in stone to pay warm tribute to accomplishments and to the life – not death – of a loved one. The cemetery is homeland for family memorials that are a sustaining source of comfort to the living.

A cemetery is a history of people – a perpetual record of yesterday and a sanctuary of peace and quiet today. A cemetery exists because every life is worth loving and remembering – always.

Calhoun Community Church

Welcome to the Good News from Calhoun Community Church. Our church family gathers at 9:30 a.m. for pre-church food and fellowship. We use this special time for visiting one with another, welcoming guests as they arrive for Worship, and signing cards of encouragement for our card ministry. Tucker McNeely rang the church bell to call our church families to worship.

We extend our sympathy and Christian love to the family and friends of Alberta L. Crawford, Larry Fosnow and Doug Ballinger, who passed into the arms of Jesus this week; others on our prayer list include Debbie and Clint Land, Diane Mills, Shelby Bicknell, and a host of others that have been listed before. We continue to pray for our military men and women and their families, as well as others in service jobs that we depend upon daily. Everyone in our once great country should be praying for a return to normalcy. We pray for guidance as we continue to grow, here on the southeast corner of the Calhoun square. Lord we are thankful for this beautiful weather at the end of winter.

Joys to celebrate: All were pleased for the cookies shared by Carol Lane with pre-church fellowship this morning. It was a joy to help Shirley Cardwell celebrate another Birthday and wishing her many more. We were again provided with gorgeous morning to gather and worship the Lord. Calhoun received nearly an inch of much needed moisture Thursday and Friday last week. Special music: "He Looked beyond My Faults," by Jerry Reed; our thanks to Jerry for sharing. Steve Siercks expressed his joy in being able to spend "quality time" with his mom, Verna Walters, shopping at Hobby Lobby and eating out. We are pleased to have Jeremy Reed in charge of our sound system. He is tee. sawy and able to keep that part of our service under control. Jerry Reed expressed the joy he received from helping with Harvesters last Friday. We are pleased that Jerry and Jeremy Reed, Steve Siercks, Sue Lesmeister, Linda Hawkins and Tom Colwell are willing and able to help with this worthwhile endeavor each month from Calhoun Community Church. We were pleased to have Nancy Mountain, Pat Burgess, Judy and Dave Reynolds join us for worship today. We are an impromptu and diverse group here at Calhoun Community; we try very hard to encourage each other, have a little fun, and glorify the Lord at the same time.

Thought for the week: Cheerfulness will open a door when other keys fail.

Should you be looking for a place to feel the love of God, come by for a visit, dress as you are comfortable, bring the youngsters and be prepared to receive a blessing for the effort? We are a Concerned and Praying non-denominational Church. We will be blessed by your presence.

Drakes Chapel UMC

On this the 4th Sunday of Lent we gathered together praising God for the beautiful weather. Our Lord is showing off with the glorious sunrises and sunsets He has given us lately. The flowers are starting to bloom and His spirit is alive and thriving at Drake's Chapel UMC.

Pastor Margie's message came from Ephesians 2:1-10. In Paul's letter to the Ephesians, he asked them to forget about what they had done in the past and to embrace the love and the mercy that God had given them. Her sermon "What's in Your Future" had the congregation thinking. We all know that our future can change in the wink of an eye. Life happens. But what we can count on is knowing that we can have a life everlasting with Jesus Christ. As believers and followers of Christ we know our future.

Our bible study "The Third Day" by Tom Berlin takes to the Road to Emmaus this week. We are learning so much about the characters that surrounded Jesus in those final days. We are grateful to Pearl Combs for hosting the study each Wednesday at 6:00.

We invite you to join us at Drake's Chapel and experience worship in the beautiful countryside. We welcome you any Sunday whether in person or on Facebook live. We gather at 9:00. You will find us 5 miles east of Clinton off Hwy 52. Just look for the sign. Blessings to all as we journey to the cross and celebrate our Risen Savior.

First Baptist

On Sunday, Pastor Pat Findley referred to John 21:1-19 in his message titled, "Simon Peter Was There". He emphasized that no life is outside of God's grace. No matter how far you've gotten from Him, you can still be redeemed through Christ. In John 21, Simon Peter, having previously denied Jesus, witnessed one of many of Christ's miracles. While Simon Peter was there, we are here. Pastor Pat's message answered the question – how does God feel about one of His followers that have failed? First, we need to get real about our sinfulness. The first step to becoming a Christian is to admit we're sinners. Even as Christ followers, we are prone to sin. Wherever we are in our walk with Christ, we must continually repent and turn back to Him, allowing Him to cleanse us. Second, love Jesus above all else. Evaluate what you may be valuing above Him. Ask God to bring you back to where you value Him above all. Lastly, we must keep following Jesus. Even Simon Peter had to be reminded to follow Him. He saved us so that we may have salvation. Simon Peter's failure in the gospel was shared to encourage us. We are still God's works of art, even when we fall short, but we must continually turn and follow Him. He trades His judgement for our forgiveness. He loves you and He is inviting you to get back on track. God wants to meet you right where you are, regardless of your sin!

Trinity Lutheran

The schedule for Holy Week services at Trinity Lutheran is as follows:

Sunday 7 am. - Easter Sunrise Service

Sunday 9 am. - Easter Festival Service

TLC Youth will serve Easter Breakfast between services.

The Bible teaches those who trust in God and have faith in Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior, it is entirely because of God's work, not their own. For those who don't have faith in God or his son, Jesus Christ, it is entirely their own doing, not God's doing.

Eph. 2: 1-3.

How is a person born again? Faith in Jesus is a gift of God, not our own decision or works. Faith comes through the work of the Holy Spirit through the preaching of God's Word and the sacraments of Holy Baptism and The Lord's Supper. Where are these "means of grace" most readily available to people? The Christian Church.

Eph. 2: 4-7.

Through the preaching of the Word and the sacraments, God the Holy Spirit creates and sustains faith in all who believe. Are you concerned about your faith and salvation? Good! That is the Holy Spirit working in your life, calling you to Him. Those who have no faith in God don't concern themselves about such things.

Eph. 2: 8-10.

Come to church this Sunday. Your faith will be renewed and strengthened through the Gospel message and fellowship with other believers. Praise God!

Divine Service 1 pm. Sunday School 11:45 pm. Phone 660.885.4728.

Urich Baptist

The change in time didn't keep the faithful from worship service. Clint Keeney rang the church bell.

Mrs. Julia Klinefelter led in the congregational singing with Mrs. Dixie Collins playing piano. Randy Vogt and Clint Keeney collected the offering.

The scripture passage from interim Pastor Steve Sowell's sermon was from Romans 5: 12-21.

This passage shows us how one man can make a difference. That man, Adam, brought sin, suffering, and corruption to us. God's wrath poured out on Adam because of his disobedience and brought death into the world. Our decisions make a difference. Do we follow God's will with blessings or not follow and reap the consequences. Jesus chose to do His Father's will and because of that, if we put our faith and trust in Him we can have life everlasting. Let us be the person that follows Christ and makes a difference in this world. Have a blessed week.

Valley Center United

As we came to church this morning, we were met with the sound of birds singing. There are beautiful new benches at the entry of the prairie that surrounds our church. They were designed and made by Jim Neuenschwander. With Andy Lasswell's help, they are situated so that all visitors can have a place to sit and see the beauty of the prairie.

We are an open and affirming church and welcome all to come and worship with us on Sunday morning!!

When the cross was getting very close, Jesus spoke with more stern and a little harsher words for the people. He wanted them to really understand what was going to happen. He said that there will be many false messiahs that will appear, but when they call us, we are not to go.

Today, we hear from many different people telling us of their unquestionable knowledge and trying to convince us they are right in all they say. Some even use a message of fear as a tactic and pray on our weaknesses. It is easy to be swayed and influenced by those who are constantly pulling at us. How do we choose what is right or wrong when we keep hearing those voices over and over?

As we begin to think about what we believe and of Christ's journey to the cross, our vision and understanding becomes clear. When we keep focused, it gets easier to push those negative influences away. It was Jesus who actually chose us when he was crucified and died, so that we would be saved.

Lent is a reminder that we have been chosen and his precious gifts of love, grace and forgiveness are the guiding light for us to follow.

He continued by sharing that Ranger Power approached the Commission with a plan to pay a Payment in Lieu of Taxes. He stated that the county has 2 options; 1) adopt a Chapter 100 agreement and receive $1M, to be distributed to the taxing entities of the project is in, or 2) not sign the agreement and receive nothing. Jim stated either way the project is coming.

Commissioner Lawler clarified that the roads belong to the county, but the Townships maintain them. He stated that is why we are working on a Road Maintenance Agreement. Currently they are working with the county attorney, Ivan Schraeder, to work through his recommendations to ensure the county's roads are protected during the construction phase of the project.

City of Osceola

BOARD OF ALDERMEN MEETING MARCH 4, 2024

Due to lack of quorum, the meeting started off with Ms. Heckenlively, St. Clair Co Economic Developer introducing Matt Durmond and David Burton with Simple Simon Pizza to the group. They explained their company's analytical data showed Osceola as one of the top ten cities in Missouri to locate one of their pizza franchises. Positive growth in Osceola was noted. The franchise would be for a sit-down buffet style venue. Discussion followed.

Ms. Heckenlively then gave the following updates:

- The environmental assessment for the destroyed buildings on Third Street has been reviewed by CDBG (state office) and additional information has been requested. Once the final review and a thirty-day comment period had been met the demolition of buildings could happen.

- Brush Creek culvert is on hold until an archeological assessment can be completed, due in part to a previous area having artifacts found there (near the culvert area). Once all the requirements have been met the installation of the culvert could begin
- The Business Continuity Planning meeting would be held in Appleton City and then one in Osceola was scheduled.

UPDATES:
Cemetery Mowing - bid sheets have been sent out the seasonal mowing. It was noted that bids were due back on April 1st.

Internet - Aaron Ash with Sac Osage Electric visited with Lila Foster last week. He noted funding was available for broadband assistance inside city limits. Discussion followed.

Lead Inventory Grant - It was reported the rfp for lead service line inspections had been sent to interested firms.

Mayor Gibbs - no comments.

Alderson Watson - no comments.

Alderson Terry - inquired if any consideration of noise levels from the potential pickle ball courts had been discussed. It was noted the courts had to be 500 to 600 feet away from residential areas and the sound decibels for the pickle ball paddles were less than the sound decibels of a basketball game.

She also inquired about flowers and vegetation being picked up at the cemetery. She asked if a club could be solicited to assist with that effort. Also, ask when repairs could be made to streets.

Alderson Dailey - (arrived late) he apologized for being late to the meeting.

City Clerk - none

RV Park - February 4, 2024 – March 3, 2024, $393.00 income with 6 adults and no children staying there.
