WHS Students Explore, Connect And Unlock Their Future At Fair

Anita Campbell County Reporter

High School students explored various career choices at the Career Fair held in the WHS gym on Thursday.

The entire WHS student body was given the opportunity to meet with local business owners to explore job opportunities for the summer and the years beyond their high school days.

WHS faculty member Bobbi Swisher organized the day and invited various employers to talk to students about job opportunities.

"We wanted students to see what jobs are available close to home, not only for the summer but also as a starting place for their careers," said Swisher.

Businesses participating included: Golden Valley Healthcare, Memorial United States Corps of Engineers, Truman State Park, Regal Industries, Warsaw Chamber of Commerce, Center for Human Services, City of Warsaw Pool, Kansas City Police Department, IMKO/ Sedalia, Capital Materials-Midwest, Lisha Douglasphysical fitness; Benton County Dispatch; and various military branches.

Students enjoyed presentations that were afforded to them in hopes that information gathered career."

OH THE PLACES THEY'LL GO, Warsaw High School students including Tommy Kaufmann attended a Career Fair held in the gymnasium on Friday. "As a freshman, the career fair was beneficial because it gave me ideas for the future," said Maylee Slavens. "If I can choose my career as soon as possible, I can start taking classes that might be required for that job." Some students took more time with some vendors than others.

"I talked to Lisha Douglas about athletic training and she had handouts and a lot of information," senior Josephine Kelsey said.

"The career fair was a lot of fun, but I learned a lot from Ms. Douglas," sophomore Ryan Fajen commented.

FAIR

"I think it was a good experience, but I feel that there should have been more options and careers to look at," Ferguson said.

Mostaffa commented, "I expected there to be more businesses/careers for me to look at."

Freshman Mady Reimund, and sophomore Bailey Burnworth were just happy to see some options.

"I think I got what I needed from the career fair," Reimund said. "It helped me to see what I might want to do with my future."

"It gave us opportunities to look at some careers that we may be interested in," said Burnworth.

Sophomore Brennen Slavens agreed when he said, "As a student not knowing what I want to do in the future yet, this was a great way to learn about different job opportunities." At the end of the day, information gathered just helps to give students an insight to possibilities.

"The career fair is good way for students to explore different caeers and what might suit them best," junior Jayce Depriest said.

A few vendors offered students applications onthe-spot.

"Some students signed up for interviews for possible summer jobs such as the Warsaw City Pool," said Swisher.

"As the business developer with employment services at CHS, I was ble to talk to several students about opportunities for with employment the summer work experience," Carrie Rieman said. "CHS is partnering with Ann's Acres, Camp Cumcito and the Visitor's Center provide employment opportunities for students with disabilities."

"It was a good day as students were interested to learn more about various career fields," Swisher also said.

Senior Lovlie Haidusek commented, "It really gave us seniors a great insight into what our future could look like."

Sophomore Sadie Chapman may have summed up the day the best when she said, "The career fair is a great tool to teach students about their future and how possibilities are endless for students!"

I was sipping on a mimosa when I was approached by the different owners of various boutiques in Cole Camp welcoming me to their first fashion show.

First up was the owner of Palo Pinto in Lincoln, Becky Smith. I'll admit I had noticed the business located on Highway 65 in Lincoln, but I had no idea that in the shop they sold western clothing, shoes and décor. I stopped on my way home and bought a pair of leopard shoes!

to pre-teens. Those were the cutest models and of course I had to go there after the show to purchase a few outfits for my little granddaughters and our newest grandson. Handel Haus and Wine Women and Song, owned by Judy Smasal, featured unique clothing, jewelry and décor. Warsaw's own Marsha Carey was one of the models for Wine, Women and Song. So of course, I stopped by those shops for a leopard top and some sparkly pants.

RiOak fashions were introduced by Ashley Raetz. I was surprised to learn that RiOak Western Designs had been a store in Cole Camp for 12 years with 3 years at the present location.

Heidi Mae Boutique was another interesting store with women's fashion as well as Mid Mo Trends. Of course, I did a little shopping at each of these stores as well.

Anyway, after visiting all the shops in Cole Camp and Lincoln, I headed back to Warsaw to visit Statuary Gardens, Country Charm, Creative Palette and The Landing.

I bought a dress for my little granddaughter Statuary Gardens, a t-shirt at Country Charm and some other things around town. I met up with Daughter #1 and Granddaughter #1 for lunch at The Landing then I went home with all my treasures. I was pleased with all my purchases and realized that Jimmy was not going to pay me enough to cover my shopping story but it was fun and educated me about all the great little stores we have right here in Benton County. Check them out sometime.

Lastly, the two noted that the Chamber of Commerce has no current contract with the city and were informed that the contract issue would be dealt with in the group's regular session this same

When resuming business, the board tabled the subject of approving an annual contract with the Chamber of Commerce, said to be about $4,000, until absent members are present. The group indicated that it would study the issue but until then, food vendors will still have to obtain a city license as is the current process. Johnie Logue, Sports

On Saturday, they played in the Cole Camp Classic and faced the undefeated and number one ranked Class 1 team in the state in Facing their number three pitcher in the rotation, Noah Rimesnider, Lincoln only managed 1 hit in the 10-0 drubbing on a single by Riley Sanders in the first.

The right hander struck out 12 and walked none. Things were not much better on the defensive side as the Cards committed 8 errors.

Cam Everhart took the loss on the mound for the Cardinals.

In the afternoon contest of the two game invitational, Riley Sanders shut down Crest Ridge and Ethan Goosen made the greatest catch of his young high school career in right field in the 5-0 win.

The Cardinals scored all 5 of their runs in the fourth, thanks in part to a 2-run single by Dawson Parrott.

Sanders allowed 3 hits struck out 6 and walked 2. He threw 51 strikes on 81 pitches.

Lincoln moved to 8-6 on the season.

Adam Howe, Sports

The Ladycats season continues to roll along, racking up win after win, including three more in the last week over Buffalo (last Tuesday), 9-1, at Crest Ridge (Thursday), 15-0 and over Stover, ??-? at home on Monday night. Their record now stands at an impressive 16-1 and they still sit in the #4 spot in the MHSFCA Class 2 rankings.

In front of a good home crowd last Tuesday, Tanna Howe collected 3 hits in 3 at-bats, including a 2-run homerun over the centerfield fence, as Warsaw defeated Buffalo 9-1.

The Ladycats got on the board in the bottom of the first after Haylee Cobb singled and then scored on a double by Adison Sherrill. Sherrill came around to score on Howe's blast to make it 3-0 at the end of the first inning.

A single by Haylee Cobb extended the Ladycats lead to 4-0 after two.

Warsaw tacked on 1 more run in the third and then rallied for 4 more in the sixth, thanks to a triple from Elizabeth Winters and then back-to-back-to-backto-back doubles by Cobb, Sherrill, Howe and Brylee Brewster.

Brewster also got the win in the circle for the 15 Lady Bison batters and surrendered just 1 run on 2 hits over 7 innings.

On Thursday night at Crest Ridge, Haylee Cobb drove in 5 runs on 3 hits to help lead Warsaw to a 15-0 win over the Class 1 #7 Lady Brylee Brewster posted yet another no-hitter for the Green and Black and struck out 10 throughout 5 innings.

The Ladvcats scored 2 runs in each of the first 3 innings before exploding for 7 in the fourth and then tacked on 2 more in the seventh to round out the 15-0 final.

Cobb and Brewster both tallied 3 hits apiece while Adison Sherrill, Tanna Howe, Sara Miller, Elizabeth Winters and Mady Reimund each posted 2.

On Monday, the Ladycats made short work of a Stover Lady Bulldogs team in a 16-1 win.

Haylee Cobb added 3 more hits to her stat line while Tanna Howe and Brylee Brewster both racked up 2.

After falling behind 1-0 in the top of the first, it was all Ladycats with 1 run in each of the second and fourth innings, but most of the damage was done in the third when Warsaw plated

Bri Fellers got the win in the circle. She went 4 innings and gave up 1 run on 3 hits and struck out 5.

Wildcats Take 3 More Wins Over Busy Stretch

ByAdam Howe, Sports

In the last week, the Wildcats reached a doubledigit win total for the fifth consecutive season wins at Butler (last Tuesday) and Sherwood Wednesday) and at home versus Stover on Monday night.

SPORTS

Their lone loss over the current stretch came at home on Thursday when they were trumped by Lafayette County.

The 'Cats record now stands at 12-3 for the 2024 season.

At Butler, Josh Bunch continued his stellar junior season as he rang up 10 strikeouts in Warsaw's 5-1 over the Bears. He allowed just 1 run on 3 hits over the 7 inning complete game.

The Wildcats led 2-1 thru 3 but a 3-run fourth frame provided all the insurance Bunch would need for the 5-1 victory.

Jayce Depriest had 2 hits to pace the Warsaw offense.

Jayce Depriest drove in 4 runs on 2 hits, including a 3-run bomb to help lead Warsaw to a17-3 drubbing of Sherwood on the road.

The Wildcats led 4-2 after 2 innings were in the books but a 9-run third put things away. They tacked on 4 more in the fourth and cruised to the 17-3 win.

Garrett Ferguson and Bradley Watson both tallied 3 hits in the win while apiece were added by Kendall Bagley, Depriest, Logan Gemes and Ryan Fajen.

Reese Maxwell got the win on the hill for Warsaw.

In a wild one last Thursday, the Wildcats came out on the wrong end of a footballlooking 18-12 final against the Huskers of Lafayette

One of my favorite quick vegetable recipes is glazed carrots; a perfect side dish to almost anything. I used baby carrots in the recipe but if you use larger one make sure the slices are all equal in size.

1 16-ounce bag baby carrots

½ cup water

2 tablespoons butter

2 tablespoon packed light brown sugar Salt and pepper (less salt if you use salted butter)

Combine everything in a pan and bring to boil over medium high heat.

Cover and reduce heat. cooking on low for about 5 minutes. Keep covered and turn heat to high and cook, stirring occasionally, until all water has evaporated and carrots are tender, about another 5 minutes. Remove from heat and sprinkle with salt and pepper. You can top with fresh herbs or orange juice if desired.

WARSAW CHRISTIAN CHURCH

"....that you may become blameless and harmless, children of God without fault in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom

you shine as lights in the world. -Philippians 2:15

Paul reminds us of what we are called to be and what we can be as disciples of Jesus. As children of God, we must be blameless, harmless, and without fault. Even if we live in a society characterized by wickedness, we are to shine as lights in our world. How is this possible? There are two sides to this situation.

First, how do we live blameless lives? We know that as Christians, we still fall short of God's will and are not blameless. The answer is simple. When we see that we have offended God, we immediately repent and turn to God for forgiveness, asking Him to help us live in harmony with His will. Then, as our sins are forgiven, we stand before God, blameless.

Second, we have been given the Gift of the Holy Spirit. As we live relying on His presence and power at work in us, our light shines even brighter. We can live life at a higher level as Christians. Our faith is suspect if we are not living a higher life than those who do not know the Savior. So, let your light shine so others

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK JOHNIE J. LOGUE

A Man that is a Heretic... -Titus 3:10

Is There A Real Preacher In the House?

(A heretic is someone who teaches something opposed to accepted beliefs)

I understand the heretics being out there but I cannot believe so many people follow their every word. One recently called God a liar and another said Jesus was illiterate and that we have no eye witnesses of his life. One said he was God. These men have millions of followers.

Apparently, God lied when he said Adam would surely die if he ate the fruit of the garden. Excuse me, he died a spiritual death.

Jesus read from the scroll in the temple and Peter and John were eyewitnesses of the Lord Jesus.

I understand there is an eclipse somewhere in the world all of the time and we never talk about those. Oh, yes, by the way, we are still here. Wow!

One guy related April 8 to Exodus 4:8 and another man said that the earthquake that measured at 4.8 was a sign for our April 8. Their churches are packed and their Social Media sites have millions of followers.

Also, it seems, God speaks to people in their cars and he gives them a word of prophecy. I wish he would tell them how to drive.

I could go on and on about the strange messages on social media. However, I would just like to invite you to Grace Baptist Church at 31046 HWY MM, four miles outside of Warsaw MO. I promise not to be radical but to simply preach the message of the Lord Jesus Christ that has been preached for hundreds of years by reasonable students of the Bible. You can call me at (660) 281-4775. Our services on Sunday are at 10:00 AM,11:00 AM and 4:00 PM.

By the way, Judas never called Jesus Lord.

LINCOLN FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The weather is finally warming up. Sunday school is going great. We had an average attendance of 20 for March. The ladies class had a visitor today. We hope she comes back to join us. Many are on the prayer list in need or your prayers. We will have a baptism on April 28 of a mother and daughter who has accepted the Lord as their Savior. They want to be baptized in the creek. We will gather at a friends house on that day.

Pastor's message was about Joseph and his life. Joseph was Jacob's favorite son. His brothers sold him into slavery because they were jealous of him. Joseph ended up in the King's service and was eventually second in command to the king. A famine came upon the land and Joseph's brothers came to Egypt for food. They didn't know who Joseph was. Over the course of time they found out he was their brother.

Joseph told the king what his dreams meant. There was to be a famine in the land. 7 years of plenty and 7 years of famine. Joseph was put in charge of storing enough food for everyone around the country. Joseph loved God and continued to pray to Him even in the situation he was in. We get content where we are. God has work for you to do.

God gives you all you have. Jesus is all there is to hang on to. Overcome the world by love. Which way do you want to go heaven or hell? Jesus can forgive anything. Jesus gets it right the first time. Only one person can save you.

COME JOIN US NEXT SUNDAY AT 9:30 FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL AND 10:30 FOR WORSHIP. YOU WILL GET A BLESSING. UNTIL NEXT TIME GO WITH GOD AND GOD BLESS.

UNITY OF THE LAKES

Unity of the Lakes is very blessed to have Rev. Diana Kennedy as our guest speaker this Sunday 4/21/24. Her service is "Walking in the World". As we attune to the Spiritual life and Christ life within us, we expand our consciousness and live from the frequency of the Divine. This is a service that is certain to help us in every way to live and express the divinity we are. Service is 11 am, dress is casual and all are welcome. Please come for the service and join us afterword's refreshments fellowship. We are located 8 miles south of Warsaw on highway 65. Our physical address is 34948 Hwy 65 South. We look forward to seeing you. Unity is a link in the great educational movement inaugurated by Jesus Christ and we invite you to come grow with us. Follow us on Facebook.

Have I Got A Line For You!

By James Mahlon White

Are we inching closer to the beginning of WWIII? With everything going on around the world, it wouldn't surprise me. All of Europe is on the brink of war with Russia, China threatening Taiwan and now Iran attacking Israel. Isn't the Ayatollah supposed to represent the religion of peace? Let's hope our generals know what they're doing, because all President Biden can say is, "Don't." Ah well, don't worry about nuclear war, Uncle Joe probably can't remember the codes.

I heard someone on the news say, "Once the Presidential Election is over, we can get back to normal." Is there really any "normal" anymore? We haven't been normal in this country since before 9/11. can recall is from the middle of that poem. It started out with, "Up to the 7th Gate I Rose." The documentary featured a chef who recreated menu items that were served onboard. One of them was Chicken Ala Maryland. Something I'd never heard of and I asked Kim Hanson in the Clinton office if she had. "You've come to the right place!" she said. Her sister Brenda has fixed this dish at family gatherings in Connecticut. Its fried chicken cooked in a cast iron skillet with a small amount of grease. After it's browned, the chicken is covered so it steams as well as fries. Milk or cream is then added to the pan juices to make gravy. Sounds good, doesn't it?

Speaking of that infamous date, the House passed a two year extension of the FBI's foreign surveillance tool. It's not supposed to be used against Americans, but they've "accidentally" done it 278,000 times. Yet another tool to slowly herd us all into the coral. How much freedom have we have surrendered in the name of safety? Now we have secret courts and secret warrants. The headline ought to be, "The do-nothing House actually does something." What about the budget and the border?

The morning wanders on aimlessly. It's better than one nearing stroke proportions, though I do enjoy those and am pleased when I get everything done. Despite it all, have a perfectly swell day Old Buddy.

You might not have much thought beneficiary designations but they can play a big role in your estate planning.

purchase When you insurance policies and open investment accounts, such as your IRA, you'll be asked to name a beneficiary, and, in some cases, more than one. This might seem easy, especially if you have a spouse and children, but if you experience a major life event, such as a divorce or a death in the family, you may need to make some changes because beneficiary designations carry a lot of weight under the law.

In fact, these designations supersede instructions you may have written in your will or living trust, so everyone in your family should know who is expected to get which assets. One significant benefit of having proper beneficiary designations in place is that they may enable beneficiaries to avoid the time-consuming — and possibly expensive probate process.

The beneficiary issue can become complex because not everyone reacts the same way to events such as divorce — some people want their ex-spouses to still receive assets while others don't. Furthermore, not all the states have the same rules about how beneficiary designations are treated after a divorce. And some financial assets are treated differently than others.

Here's the big picture: If you've named your spouse as a beneficiary of an IRA, bank or brokerage account, insurance policy, will or trust, this peneficiary designation will automatically be revoked upon divorce in about half the states. So, if you still want your ex-spouse to get these assets, you will need to name them as a non-spouse beneficiary after the divorce. But if you've named your spouse as beneficiary for a 401(k) plan or pension, the designation will remain intact until and unless you change it, regardless of where you live.

However, in community property states, couples required generally to split equally all assets they acquired during their marriage. When couples divorce, the community property laws require they split their assets 50/50, but only those assets they obtained while they lived in that state. If you were to stay in the same community property state throughout your marriage and divorce, the ownership issue is generally straightforward, but if you were to move to or from one of these states, it might change the joint ownership picture.

Thus far, we've only talked about beneficiary designation issues surrounding divorce. But if an ex-spouse — or any beneficiary — passes away, the assets will generally pass to a contingent beneficiary — which is why it's important that you name one at the same time you designate the primary beneficiary. Also, it may be appropriate to name a special needs trust as beneficiary for a family member who has special needs or becomes disabled. If this individual were to be the direct beneficiary, any assets passing directly into their hands could affect their eligibility for certain programs.

You may need to work with a legal professional to sort out beneficiary designation issues and the rules that apply in your state. But you may also want to do a beneficiary review with your financial advisor whenever you experience a major life event, such as a marriage, divorce or the addition of a new child. Your investments, retirement accounts and life insurance proceeds are valuable assets — and you want them to go where you intended. This article was written by Edward Jones for use by your local Edward Jones Financial Advisor. Edward Jones, Member SIPC
