Warsaw Residents Share Memories Of Legendary Ozark Music Festival

By
Anita Campbell
County
Reporter

Fifty years ago, the temperature was over 100 degrees, when the small town of Sedalia, Missouri's population exploded as the Ozark Music Festival kicked off a three-day celebration of rock and roll, July 19-21, 1974.

Guitar heroes such as Joe Perry, Glenn Frey and Jeff Beck plugged in to split the Midwest sky with sound. The event these rock stars played also "amped up the drama" in the modest-sized Missouri city, as one documentary filmmaker put it, with hints of the squalling feedback still discernible today.

Exactly what kind of festival wasn't clear. City fathers seemed to expect something with bluegrass and folk musicians — and indeed the bill included the Earl Scruggs Revue, David Bromberg and The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band. But ads that ran in Rolling Stone and on the brand-new KY-102 radio station indicated something very different. They touted groups like the Eagles, REO Speedwagon, Lynyrd Skynyrd, Joe Walsh, Ted Nugent, Eagles, Aerosmith, Blue Öyster Cult, Bob Seger, Bachman-Turner Overdrive, America, Marshall Tucker Band, The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band,

A WITNESS TO HISTORY, Rick Fajen remembers when Sedalia's population exploded during the Ozark Music Festival that took place on July 19-21, 1974, some 50 years ago.

Boz Scaggs, Electric Flag, Joe Walsh, a young Bruce Springsteen (who didn't make it either), Spirit and many other heavy hitters.

The event exists as a singular entry in the long, storied, often chaotic annals of music festivals — and not simply on the strength of its lineup.

An expected crowd of around 50,000 ballooned to anywhere from 150,000 to 300,000, depending on the report. Compound all this with scorching summer heat and readily available drugs, and a completely different experience emerged.

And depending on the source, the festival was either the best or the worst time of their lives, filmmaker Jefferson Lujin said. His documentary "The Ozark Music Festival: 3 Days of Sodom & Gomorrah in Sedalia, Missouri" captures the sound, the spirit and aftermath of the event.

Warsaw native Rick Fajen was an eyewitness to the festival back in '74. He and local lawyer Bob Drake traveled to Sedalia to take pictures of the historic event.

"We drove up to Sedalia to see what was going on and take some pictures," said

Fajen. "It was really hot and people at the festival were walking around naked. Sedalia officials were not prepared for this large of a crowd and the streets were packed. It was almost impossible to drive through Sedalia."

According to Fajen, the gathering was peaceful but there were so many people that the fairgrounds were not able to accommodate

Karen Reese and other members of the Benton County Republican Women organization have been working on a project to offer campaign merchandise since January. Reese, who is chairman of the fundraising committee, plus other volunteers tried to find a storefront where they could sell the merchandise. However, they were unable to locate a place and decided to become mobile by keeping their inventory in a trailer with the logo "The Right Stuff" on its side. After traveling to their destinations, the volunteers set up a tent where they sell their products.

Garlic, cheesy bread is always a favorite and this method takes a lot of the work out of buttering. Preheat oven to 425 degrees

One long loaf of French bread
Equal measure of olive oil and butter, amount depending on bread size
Garlic to taste, I use a microplane to grate or you can finely mince
I use about 5 large cloves of garlic per 1/4 cup oil and 1/4 cup butter
Dried oregano, 1/4 teaspoon, rub between your palms to crush and release the oils
Red pepper flakes
Parmesan or cheese of choice, grated

Slice bread lengthwise and then across to form pieces for serving Melt olive oil and butter in a small shallow pan, add garlic, oregano and pepper flakes. Take off heat, dip cut side of piece of bread into mix, place on foil lined cookie sheet. Top with grated cheese, bake until golden.

A Warsaw woman suffered serious injuries in an accident on Braden Road east of East Main in Benton County on July 19 at 1:40 PM.

According to the Missouri Highway Patrol, the crash occurred as a 2004 Dodge Caravan driven by Misty L. Cassidy, 38, of Warsaw ran off the right side of the roadway and struck a tree. A passenger in the vehicle, Prudence A. Wilbanks, 54, of Warsaw suffered serious injuries and was transported by air ambulance to the University of Missouri Medical Center in Columbia.

Cassidy refused treatment on the scene.
Tpr. D. A. Paulsen of the Missouri Highway Patrol investigated the accident.

A Warsaw man was injured in an accident on Cole Spring Road south of Missouri Highway 7 in Benton County on July 17 at 2:15 PM.

According to the Missouri Highway Patrol, the accident occurred when a 2000 Lincoln Towncar driven by Edward T. Schepker, 84, of Warsaw traveled off the right side of the roadway. Schepker overcorrected causing the vehicle to travel off the left side of the roadway. The vehicle struck an embankment and overturned coming to rest on its top.

Tpr. N. K. Johnson of the Missouri Highway Patrol investigated the accident. He was assisted by the Benton County Sheriff's Deputies and the Warsaw Fire Department.

"Someone cut a hole in the fence on the backside of the fairgrounds and people just walked on in," said Fajen. "The festival promoters were supposed to be in charge of security so the Missouri State Highway Patrol and the Sedalia Police were outside the fence trying to handle the crowd in Sedalia."

Fajen recalled that Wolfman Jack was the emcee of the event and, at one point, he was in a helicopter hovering over the event telling people not to buy the dope being distributed because it was tainted.

Lujin and his collaborators have spent more than 15 years on the film, which he showed locally last year at the State Historical Society of Missouri and will screen elsewhere around Missouri in the near future. Lujin met with Fajen and used some of Fajen's film footage in his documentary.

According to Fajen, for the most part, the people at the festival were peaceful. They had come to hear the bands and party. Fajen said that because of the heat, many tried to find relief in Flat Creek and other water bodies around Sedalia. Some festival goers even went to Warsaw to swim in the creeks and lake.

"We even saw people lying in the lagoon at the fairgrounds and of course that was full of human waste," said Fajen.

During the three-day event, Fajen drove his parents to the airport in Kansas City to depart on a trip and they had a difficult time getting through Sedalia.

"The traffic had just stopped," said Fajen. "I had to drive around several side streets to get back to the highway."

Warsaw resident Suzie Brodersen was living in Sedalia at the time of the festival. She was only 4 years old but she remembered walking with her parents to the fairgrounds.

"We lived just three blocks from the fairgrounds and I remember walking there with my parents to see what was going on," said Brodersen. "There were cars everywhere and the people walking around were barely clothed."

Brodersen recalled that during that three-day time frame, a woman came to their house and begged to use the bathroom.

"My mother was reluctant to let a stranger in the house but she did, and then later that same woman came back and asked to use the hose outside to wash off so my mother let her," she said.

Brodersen said that they saw people taking showers in the car wash and the local grocery store had food and carts stolen.

After the festival was over, crews had to be brought into the fairgrounds to remove the top layer of soil all over the fairgrounds in order to prepare for the Missouri State Fair in August.

"The ground was littered with waste and human feces so the entire top level had to be removed," said Brodersen.

The promoters' goal was to sell 40,000 to 50,000 tickets — a good deal more than the fair's normal attendance of 20,000 to 25,000 per day. But the crowd of 300,000 or so that turned up (no one knows for sure since the fences fell on Friday morning) was something else.

Lujin hopes to expand his film into an episodic documentary but, for now, takes inspiration and editing cues from audience feedback. He has a Sedalia show planned for this fall, to coincide with Mozark Festival, an event created to recall the former festival.

That event is scheduled for September 20-22 at the Missouri State Fairgrounds.

include bracelets, koozies, Christmas ornaments, key chains and bumper stickers. There are also signs for local candidates which are free.

Reese said that she has been with the Benton County Republican Women for five years. She wanted to contribute to the community and has spent hundreds of hours on this year's pop-up store campaign merchandise project. She has had help from other women including Janelle Mullen, Susan Steiner, Maria Cavin, and Lisa Treece who are members of the Fundraising Committee. Also helping are club member volunteers Victoria McColm, Martha Foster, Rachael Sherrer, Donna Snelling, Ivy Razek, Julie Hagedorn, Donna Davis, Elena Diaz and Barb Hammond.

"I truly appreciate all the hours everyone has volunteered while working with me on the committee," said Reese. "It is also a pleasure meeting like-minded people and is fun to meet people from out-of-state who buy our merchandise."

Reese and her husband moved to Warsaw in 2006 where he began his new job as superintendent of Warsaw R-9 schools. When he retired from Warsaw schools, he became a special education teacher in Lincoln's R-2 school district and retired from that position in 2018. Reese taught school in Lincoln for 16 years before retiring in 2020.

and Ditzfeld Transfer Company of Sedalia for sponsoring me on this journey," said Roberts. "I especially appreciate my mother, Angelia Watkins and Tatum Bohl who helped me

Roberts is the daughter of Dr. Amber Campbell and Gary Roberts of Warsaw. She will be a freshman at Warsaw High School in the fall.

COLE CAMP

This is required for grant funds and had been requested by the Osage Indian Nation that once inhabited the area in the very early 1800's. The Osage asked for the study to assure nothing is disturbed during the project.

Second up was JoAnn Lane with Benton County Economic Development. She spoke about the Rock Island Trails importance to the economic climate of Cole Camp. Lane defined it as "An economic opportunity, people from all over the world ride bicycles on our trails. Cole Camp has some empty business buildings but the trail could help refill those. I know the Council has concerns about the cost but there are grants I will help write. She concluded donated labor and materials are counted in the cost share."

Next to the microphone was Francis Rehmer, vice-President of Osage Lake Greenway Corporation. Rehmer explained the organization was non-profit to promote bicycling in Benton County, at the moment on Warsaw Bicycle Trails. He said, "Our group is dedicated to cycling and promoting it and we support the Rock Island Trailhead and if we can help raise funds for it we will"

As Rehmer left the podium the Mayor commented, "I didn't even know this group existed."

Next on the Agenda under new business was the Brightspeed Franchise fee agreement, known as Bill No. 2024-09. A first and second reading was held and it passed, becoming an ordinance.

Planning Zoning Report: The group met on July 2 concerning the previously approved construction at the school.

The City Clerk shared in her report she was attending a Clerk's meeting in Osage Beach on Friday, July 19.

Public Works Director, Heath Roark reported they are continuing work on the many projects and he did want council to be aware some lift stations at the sewer plant need upgrades.

He said the culverts around town need lots of work following all the heavy rains that affected Spring Street and many others all over town.

The Police Chief had turned in several bids that had been made to install Security and camera surveillance for City Hall. Councilman David Locke said he liked the bid from Martin Security Systems with the best price of $7,250.00. He added, "They also offer a maintenance plan for $40.00 per month." High bid was Nightwatch Security bidding $15,158.93.

Next up was the 3 minute sessions for members of the Community to speak. Kim Henderson from Windsor came first stating she had once worked as the City Clerk of Windsor and had experience knowing why the Council is watching the town's dollars. Kim read a brief passage from Brett Dufur's Rock Island Trail guidebook. He wrote "Can lightning strike twice in Missouri? Yes, it absolutely can and it will. It's hard for me to contain my excitement at the thought of one day biking a loop, riding the entire Katy Trail along the scenic Missouri River and then winding down onto the Rock Island and getting to experience its totally unique prairie and Ozark topography, rolling hills, massive old train trestle bridges spanning gorgeous rivers, and a number of unforgettable trail tunnels. The Rock Island isn't a copycat of the Katy, it's got its own unique story to tell."

Next to the microphone was a lady that resides on B highway by the golf course and she wanted to know why her complaint about an unlicensed dog running loose had not been addressed by the Police Department, to which Chief Canfield replied, "My deputies have been out there but the dog is always confined when we are there."

Wyatt Derendinger spoke about the appeal of bike trails. He shared, "I work for the Parks and Recreation in Sedalia and my mother is a librarian there. We are both amazed at how many people ride the Katy and are from foreign countries. Thank you for allowing me to share that."

Ben Hendershel from Clinton and the owner of Cycles and Cream shared, "I opened my business eight weeks ago and have a world map on my wall. I'm 1 1/2 blocks from the Katy Trail and I already have pins in that map from all over the world."

Next up was Linda Huber, a retired teacher. She shared, "I don't ride bicycles, but my husband does. I do go with him to different areas and I shop. Last week he rode the Katy around Windsor and I shopped all day." She named many familiar businesses, including she even spent money at the T.H. Rogers Lumber yard. "Where will I spend my money in Cole Camp when you build the Rock Island Trail," she concluded.

Wanda Brown took the microphone and stated, "I have no intention of opposing the Rock Island Trail. I have issues with the cost. I want to know the cost!"

Last up to speak was Joyce Schlesselman, member of the Cole Camp Ambulance Board. She said, "I'm here about the August Ballot and the tax increase to keep the Ambulance financially sound. When you vote please remember there has not been a tax increase since 1982 and costs continue to rise. Please join us on Saturday, August 3 at WAM for an open house with details about the increase and allow us to answer your questions. We will be there from 5-7 p.m."

With no further business the meeting adjourned. The room had a large number of people wearing bicycle riding gear that had met at 6 p.m. and toured the town and then came to City Hall for the meeting and to show peaceful support for the Rock Island project. Following the meeting they went to The German Table and spent dollars in the town before departing.

Referees, Umpires, Other Officials Face Scrutiny, But Rally For Sake Of The Kids

STRIKE THREE, YOU'RE OUT! MSHSAA umpire Eric Reinertsen calls out a batter in Cole Camp this past baseball season. The men in blue do a sometimes thankless job. Not everyone has the mentality to handle the stress, boos and ridicule.

By Johnie Logue
Sports
Reporter

Why would anyone in their right mind ever want to be a referee or an umpire? It can be a thankless job at times. Long trips, rough weather, upset fans and angry coaches can all be a real problem.

Football, baseball, soccer and softball officials stand out in the heat, the rain and the cold. You may have wondered about this yourself. Why do they do it? Love them or hate them, they are a vital part of sports.

With all of that in mind, we asked some local MSHSAA officials some of these age-old questions. (We received permission from a MSHSAA Board Member Representative to interview their officials.)

JL: First question, why do you do it? What compelled you to enter the profession?

Eric Reinertsen, Warsaw, who does high school and junior high baseball and basketball said, "I love the game and the kids. Also, talking with people."

Marlin Hammond, a long time official from Lincoln who does mostly volleyball, basketball and softball now, commented, "Why I took up officiating . . . I had coached basketball, softball and volleyball for over 35 years and I wanted to stay involved with the sports. I still work at the schools at which I coached and see some of the players which I coached against now coaching and working at the area schools. It is nice to keep up with them. I wanted to give back some to the sports which gave so much to me. It also gives me something to do in retirement."

Scott Gemes, Warsaw superintendent and longtime basketball referee, said, "When I decided to not coach basketball, I had a lot of officials talk to me about doing it. I decided to give it a try. You make your own schedule and you get to stay attached to the game of basketball."

Steve Knox, another longtime official from Cole

Camp who has mostly reserved himself to football and basketball replied, "I played basketball in high school, so I wanted to give the kids the same chance that I was given to play basketball. Cole Camp didn't have football when I was in school. I always loved college football, so that is why I also do football."

Rodney Bonner, Warsaw, who officiates the annual Lions Club basketball tournament and others commented, "I ref for the love of the game; to help the kids become better and to love the game."

JL: What challenges do you encounter?

REINERTSEN: The challenges are all the refs in the stands. That used to bother me, but not anymore.

HAMMOND: Staying in physical shape to be able to perform. Keeping current with all of the rules changes in various sports. Trying to do the best I can for the athletes and the schools involved.

KNOX: The biggest challenge is staying in shape.

As I get older, it is harder on my body working 6 nights a week on a basketball court.

GEMES: Right now, it is very difficult for me to call a lot of games. My son is a senior, so I do not want to miss his games. I also like to attend as many Warsaw events as possible so my schedule for calling games is very limited.

BONNER: My biggest challenge is parents getting upset over calls.

JL: Why is there a shortage of refs and umpires?

HAMMOND: The time commitment necessary to be an official. This applies to both the starting time for a game as officiating is a secondary job for most officials and it is hard to get to a school for early starting times from their primary job. And also the length of the various sports seasons. You are away from your family for long periods of time. There are also more teams now than in the past which requires the need for more officials. Poor sportsmanship displayed by some individuals is also a concern. Young officials are not used to being questioned or berated and will leave the profession. On each call you make, you are going to please only 50% of the people involved. You must make your call and move on. Officiating is not a win-win situation! The pay, while it is better than in the past, is still low compared to the time involved for a game, counting your driving time and game time.

KNOX: There is a shortage because of coaches and fans chewing out refs and always yelling at them instead of talking to us like we're human.

GEMES: I think there are a lot of factors. There are not a lot of kids trying it. The ones that do, get discouraged. It only takes one bad experience (sometimes) to discourage them. The younger officials are having to do games that they are not ready for because of the shortage.

BONNER: The shortage of refs is because disrespect for the refs and always arguing.

JL: Do you look at the scoreboard?

REINERTSEN: I do look at the scoreboard but not to determine how I call the game, but just to see how close it is.

HAMMOND: Looking at the scoreboard . . . No, I do not. I am focused on the next possession in basketball, the next pitch in softball or the next serve in volleyball. I am just preparing for the next situation.

GEMES: Yes, it is important to know where the fouls are at, who is leading, who has the next possession and time left in the game.

As a basketball official, it is important to know the possible situations that will be occurring to be prepared and be in the right position.

JL: Do you prefer a close game or a blow out?

REINERTSEN: I love the close games. Blowouts are too easy to lose focus and create bad habits. Close games make you stay focused, especially if it is two good teams and I would rather call two good teams than two bad teams.

HAMMOND: Close game vs a blowout . . . To me, it really does not matter. Again, you are preparing and staying focused on the situation at hand regardless of the score. You owe your best to the athletes, coaches and schools involved so you are trying to do, and are expected to do, the best at all times.

KNOX: I look at the score late in the fourth quarter. Late in the game, the score will tell you how the teams are going to play.

JL: Do blown calls bother you? (I forgot to ask all of them this question.)

HAMMOND: There are times when, after the fact, I realize I missed a call or called something that I should have not called. When that occurs, I try to learn from it and make sure that doesn't happen again.

KNOX: Sometimes you have to forget and move on so you don't miss the next call.

JL: With all of the talk about Caitlin Clark, would you like to ref one of her games and would it be difficult to officiate?

REINERTSEN: I don't think a Caitlin Clark game would be difficult to call at all. It really depends on how good or bad the other team is. Good teams are easier to call because they have less bad habits and they play better basketball.

HAMMOND: Caitlin Clark . . . I think it would be an enjoyable game! Their game is played at a faster pace at her level, so you would have to be in top physical shape. However, the players involved have so much more ability and therefore are able to perform better which makes it a somewhat easier game to officiate.

JL: What advice would you give to a young person wanting to enter the profession?

REINERTSEN: Advice I would give is to tune everything out. Call your game and have thick skin.

HAMMOND: Advice . . . Really enjoy the sport(s) you have chosen to officiate. Know the rules for each sport. Be prepared to be criticized and questioned. Make a commitment to be the best which you are capable of being. Enjoy each game and opportunity you have!

GEMES: Find a veteran official that will work with you. Work as many younger kids games before jumping to the varsity level. Call what you see and be confident in the decision. Please blow the whistle and be confident.

This reporter would like to thank everyone for their candid responses. Personally, I think they do a good job most of the time. They do not always have a good vantage point to make a proper call, so I like it when they discuss matters among themselves. I believe refs never beat you like Charlie Spoonhour once said. They can change the way you play and you have to adjust to their style.

I have always been treated well by refs and umpires. So we at the BCE want say 'thank you' for the job you all do.

REINERTSEN: I do look at the scoreboard but not to determine how I call the game, but just to see how close it is.

HAMMOND: Looking at the scoreboard . . . No, I do not. I am focused on the next possession in basketball, the next pitch in softball or the next serve in volleyball. I am just preparing for the next situation.

GEMES: Yes, it is important to know where the

I'm Kenny Treece, my wife and I are running for Tom Township representatives on the Benton County Republican Central Committee. We have been asked many times, 'what does a representative do?' That's a good question. There may be a handbook for that but when answering that question, we like to use something called, good, old fashioned common sense.

We will be township representatives who represent the people who live nearby, our neighbors, friends, and others whose homes we pass every day. We will attend neighborhood and county events after as well as before the election. If you have questions, concerns or issue with something in the county, we'll be available. You can always message us with your question and phone number on face book and we will get back to you with an answer.

Lisa is unopposed and therefore already seated. We are asking you to please vote for me, Kenny Treece, for Tom Township Representative on August 6th. For us, being on the Central Committee is not about going to a meeting once a month. It's about being there for our community. Everyday.

RE-ELECT

ERIC KNOX

BENTON COUNTY SHERIFF

VOTE FOR PROVEN RESULTS.

PAID FOR BY COMMITTEE TO ELECT ERIC KNOX, SUSAN ROBERTS, TREASURER.

Dedicated Lawman • Constitutional

Don't forget to get out and vote on August 6th!

You can also vote early starting June 25th inside the Benton County courthouse.

When I came into office, I had done the groundwork on several changes that I knew needed to be made as soon as possible, not only to better serve the citizens of Benton County, but also for the safety and protection of the deputies that served the Benton County Sheriff's Office. Over the course of the last 7½ years, here's a few of the changes and improvements that have been made:

- Restructured the Office, requiring that there was an assigned supervisor on each shift to insure accountability.
- Implemented a deputy of the quarter and deputy of the year program. This is a light hearted competition and morale booster for the staff that results in improved service for the community.
- Started quarterly meetings for awards, information, training and personally provided a meal for all. (No tax dollars used)
- Assisted in the birth of a fantastic non-profit organization called "The Friends of the Benton County Sheriff's Office" whose primary purpose is writing grants and raising funds to help support the Sheriff's Office above and beyond tax payer support, since its start, this group has raised tens of thousands of dollars for equipment and training. As Sheriff, I serve in an advisory capacity.
- Created a bullet resistant vest program to provide up to date, safe vest for deputies after being told that there was not enough funding for all staff.
- Created a Sheriff's Office Facebook page and a high quality interactive web site, www.bentoncountysheriffmo.org, complete with an anonymous crime tip submission portal, links to the sex offender registry, inmate roster, Information on the D.A.R.E. program, K-9 and patrol, Detention Center and CCW and career opportunities.
- Created and implemented our own version of the neighborhood watch program for all who wanted to participate. We collaborated with the Friends of the BCSO who helped to provide signs and share information.
- Implemented a "ride along" program to educate one citizen at a time about local law enforcement.
- Completely revised and updated our policies and procedure manual. Before updating this manual dated back to the 90's.
- Implemented a community policing mentality within the office. It is important that the citizens know their law enforcement.
- Implemented a lifesaving Taser program as a non-lethal means of solving otherwise deadly situations.
- Implemented a stop stick tire deflation program for stopping dangerous high speed pursuits safely and effectively.
- Updated the body camera program and created new policies.
- Added much needed safety equipment to our fleet in proper gun locks and cages.
- Procured new high quality rifles and shot guns, at no cost to the tax payers. Benton County only had a few shotguns, deputies tried to provide their own which created a dangerous liability.
- Implemented a rotating life expectancy program for all safety equipment, including bullet resistant vest, to ensure the purchase of new equipment to replace the old before end of life date.
- Doubled training for all staff, including making it mandatory for all deputies to have Crisis Intervention Training (CIT) to properly deal with individuals with a mentally altered status.
- Built a shooting range for deputies to allow better and more frequent training. This also was at no tax payer expense; the range was completely donated by an area excavation company.
- Implemented an unmanned aerial vehicle (UAV) program which will save lives - This is a force multiplier in searches and is a huge asset in our densely wooded areas.
- Researched, designed and received voter approval for a new, state of the art jail facility. We lease spare beds to other agencies, including the marshal service for an annual income of over two million dollars of much needed revenue.
- This list is just a partial representation of all that has been accomplished by the administration over the last 7½ years. There is more to be done in the next term. Some of my goals include a Citizens Training Academy, an explorer program for young adults who are interested in law enforcement. Research and explore options for an animal shelter. Implement a water division of the Sheriff's Office, cutting response time for our rural waterfront neighborhoods and beyond.

All of this equates to a very well trained, well equipped, professional, devoted staff of men and women, whose morale is high! The caring and supportive citizens of Benton County have helped to make this all possible.

Thank You to My Staff and the Citizens of Benton County for your Overwhelming Support!

Scott Harms

"I'm asking for your vote for North Side Commissioner on Tuesday, August 6th. With your support, we'll keep Benton County a great place to live, work and raise our families."

- ✓ Balanced the annual county budget with zero tax increases
- ✓ Supported local first responders and law enforcement
- ✓ Welcomed citizen questions and public input on how our government operates
- ★ I'm pro-life, pro-Second Amendment, pro-small business and pro-farm
- ★ As your Commissioner, I'm available to listen and talk to all county residents, to answer questions and fairly address any concerns.
- ★ My experience as the Benton County Roads Manager helps me represent our road and bridge needs, as well as how to work effectively with officeholders, departments and citizens to make the best decisions for our communities.

STAND THE TEST OF TIME

Fristoe NEWS

By Pat Arnett
Contributing Reporter

The weather has almost been spring-like for the last few days, with temperatures in the lower 80's and several nice showers.

The Antwiler Park Board sends out a huge amount of thanks to everyone who helped make the annual Old Fashioned Pie Auction on Saturday night such a great success! First, thank you to the Benton County officials for providing hot dogs and chips with water to everyone for free; especially Carla Brown and Amie Breshears. Next, everyone who provided something to be auctioned off, pie or otherwise. Then thank you to all who put down their money to buy the many pies, cakes, cookies and all else. Then, finally THANK YOU to Phillip Yoder for taking the time from his schedule to be the auctioneer for the auction. We understand he came from an auction he was working with Johnson, which is how he makes his living, and came to Fristoe to donate his time. Everyone, when you are looking for an auctioneer, remember Phillip and how good he has been through the years helping with the Pie Auction. I always mention him as the Fristoe resident auctioneer!

I am going to mention some names that were in the crowd at the pie auction; people who are Fristonians; Steve and Jill Gemes, Scott and Julie Gemes, Linda Williams Pierson and Mary Jackman Crouch. It was great to see them. Jill said she was at the farm doing some cleaning up. It was wonderful that they stopped by!

Prayer list this week: Kathy First, Lewis and Judy Retherford, Gladys Harris, Carolee Apperson and Mary Scarbrough.

Another list for birthday shoutouts this week: Happy Birthday to Ralph Julian on Tuesday, July 23; Bob Ellerman on Thursday, July 25; Ken Heier on Friday, July 26 and Happy Anniversary to Kevin and Sue Bumstead! Blessings to all.

The Fristoe Pentecostal Lighthouse Church had a wonderful church full of worshipers on Sunday morning. The adult Sunday School lesson was Psalms 45 and 47, and taught that singing praises to The Lord is very important and also that it is very good to always clap your hands to show encouragement of your time with The Lord. It shows all that God is King of the world! Connie and Dave Cunningham, Elizabeth, Claude and Delores, Sue, Bryan, Tony and Brenda all sang beautiful songs Sunday morning and Blessed the congregation. Br. Smith's message was from the book of Hebrews chapter 11.

Thought for the week: "NO" is one of the few words that can never be misunderstood! God is like Coca-Cola; He is the real thing!

Fristoe News was known as The Fristoe Items when Ola Mae Reaves and Dee Antwiler put the words in the paper. Just thought everyone would like to know that.

Lincoln New Era

"Your Front Door to the Reservoir"

Down On The Creek

By Dianne Peck
County Reporter

Enchanted with the view

As a child I would spend many afternoons lying on the warm earth and watch the broad winged buzzards as they appeared to hang motionless for hours at a time. Or marvel in their grace as they ascended in slow spirals toward the earth. At times they appeared to float on the wind and suddenly they would swing low to the tree tops. They could skim, drift, glide, soar and sail which created such a spectacle that it kept me lying motionless for long periods of time. My seemingly lifeless form once caused one to swish in closely and check my status as a prospective meal.

Close up this critter was no longer a thing of beauty and grace. Their naked heads and hooked bills had the appearance of evil. Their feathers were ragged and nasty, the turkey vulture was a totally revolting brute. The whole experience reminded me of an old Persian Proverb: "The loveliest faces are to be seen by moonlight, when one sees half with the eye and half with the imagination."

But never mind their appearance, they provide an indispensable service as garbage men. In addition to carrion and garbage, vultures will occasionally take a weak or injured animal. And it has finally been proven that turkey vultures do find at least some of their diet by scent! Their name, vulture, is derived from the Latin Vellere which means "to tear."

As loathsome as all this may seem, there is an unspoken code in the Ozarks that protects them. It is considered bad luck to kill a buzzard which brings to mind a tale that has turned into a legend in the hills. Vance Randolph recorded a story about two young boys that set a steel trap beside a dead lamb, hoping to catch a wolf. If they could kill a wolf they could take the scalp to the courthouse and collect twenty dollars for a bounty. But when the boys came back one Sunday morning there was a big buzzard in the trap, and he was caught by one leg. So they just tied a little bell around his neck and turned the old stinker loose.

About three miles away was a young fellow cutting sprouts. Everyone told him not to break the Sabbath by cutting sprouts but he did it anyway. All of a sudden he heard a bell ringing and he looked up to see a lot of buzzards. They were circling around and that bell kept on ringing like a fire engine. As the buzzards swung lower the young man was scared witless. He dropped his grubbing hoe and headed for the dense timber. He had heard how buzzards chased sinners and he must have had something on his conscience other than cutting sprouts on the Sabbath. He found his way to the meeting house and from then on he attended services every time it was held. He got himself properly baptized in the creek and went plumb hog wild on religion. He would get up and testify how the Lord sent birds with bells so he would see the light. People tried to tell him about the boys that belled the buzzard but he swore it was a sign from heaven. He finally went to preaching out in Oklahoma and the last anyone heard he was still telling of the great flock of birds with bells.

In case anyone thinks this was a figment of Randolph's colorful imagination, as I first did, I found in a 1905 edition of our local paper a story about a belled buzzard. It was a story reprinted from the Freeburg Enterprise. "The belled buzzard has been seen again. For some days past a buzzard with a bell jingling about his neck has attracted considerable attention among the farmers and others in Freeburg and vicinity. They observed he must have been wearing the bell for sometime, as it didn't seem to bother him. In fact he seemed quite proud of his ornament."

Doing a little research on these feathered creatures I discovered that when they nest they lay their eggs in a cave, rock crevices, vacant houses, stumps or hollow tree trunks. Which lends credence to a story by George Sutton which appeared in the Atlantic Monthly many years ago. It was titled "An adventure with a turkey vulture."

He tells about his encounter with a momma buzzard and her offspring in a hollow log. He was a young boy exploring the woods as all young males do. He happened upon a long hollow log in the woods, instinctively curious he checked it out for snakes or possibly a wildcat waiting to spring upon him. The dim interior revealed a female vulture with a baby no more than a few hours old. It was downy white and its head and legs were a naked gray. He said its infant eyes had no expression. What follows in the story line is his adventure of crawling the length of a twenty foot hollow log. In the escapade he encounters a nest of mice and becomes so wedged that he thinks he shall never extract himself safely from this predicament. In the end he encounters the Mother and Babe and drags them from the log.

Outside the log he views his captives and sees that the little white baby seemed so friendless and the Mother's eyes not only seemed hard and fierce but also frightened. He placed the pair back inside the hollow log and trudged wearily home. He had discovered close-up that he was a little disillusioned, just as I had been so many years ago. We had both discovered the real truth in Thomas Campbell's quote: "Distance lends enchantment to the view."

with the design they have chosen. Often times the design is significant to the history of the property or a sentimental choice for a family farm.

The majority of the quilt designs are created by Kathy Hubbard of Hubbard Holler Barn Quilts. There are 4x4 sizes that will be paid for by the Missouri Humanities grant, at no charge for the barn owner. The 6x6 size is more costly and the barn owner pays the difference between the grant money if that's the size they choose.

Thanks to Lynette Stokes of Benton County Tourism and the Barn Quilt committee, Benton County is just part of a nationwide network of barn quilts creating what is called "The Barn Quilt

Former Lincoln Mayor Lietzke Honored On 90th Birthday

By

On Sunday, July 14 Jack Lietzke's friends and family gathered in Lincoln's City Hall to celebrate his 90th year and his many contributions to the community.

Jack's sons, Don and Bill, hosted the reception in the town their parents had retired to, Lincoln. Both Jack and his wife, Rowena served on many committees and gave many hours of donated time to make their new home town a better place. Jack served as Mayor twice and is currently an East side Alderman on the Lincoln City Council.

Both sons took a photo opportunity to have a picture taken with their father on a bench outside Lincoln's City Hall before departing for the day.

Three Local Chambers Come Together For Monthly Update

By
Dianne Peck
County Reporter

On Wednesday, June 17 at noon the 3 chambers representing Cole Camp, Lincoln and Warsaw met at the Dam restaurant to update everyone on the comings and goings of each town.

JoAnn Lane, Benton County Economic Development Director, shared the Drake Harbor Trading Company is for sale, both the business and the building. In addition JoAnn alerted everyone that UPS is not picking up or delivering to Warsaw on Wednesdays or Fridays.

Lynette Stokes of Benton County tourism announced that she has twenty-three non-paying tourist rentals not paying their lodging tax. Lynette shared there will be a Tourism Booth at the Missouri State Fair and she needs volunteers to assist in manning it. Lynette has been very busy ironing out the details of Smokin' Hot Harborfest. Lots of great activities and especially the water ski show. She concluded she was disappointed in the small number of people that completed the Tourism Study.

Amie Breshears, Missouri Extension office reported they would have a Safety Booth at the State Fair. On August 6 she will be conducting a seminar called "Women in Ag", that assists women in knowing about land leases, and the general managing of a farm. Amie concluded with announcing there will be a grazing school on September 12 in Lincoln at Foster Hall. Anyone wishing to attend needs to register.

Megan Petersen, Executive Administrator of the Warsaw Chamber, spoke briefly about the E-Chamber Data Base being installed in her office and it should be established by August 1. She is currently already working on the Heritage Days Festival and there will be updated reports in the next couple of meetings.

Sam Cole from The German Table in Cole Camp was unable to attend due to a family matter. Dianne Peck reported there was the Zucchini Races to be held on Saturday evening. It's more than putting wheels on a zucchini and shoving it down a track. There is a contest for the largest Zucchini and a cooking and baking contest for dishes created from Zucchini.

On Thursday Night, July 25 everyone is encouraged to come to Cole Camp for "A Small Town's summer evening", to shop or dine.

The representatives for Lincoln also were absent due to unforeseeable circumstances so Ms. Peck reported there really weren't any special celebrations in July or even August but September is always jam-packed with the Mozarkite Rock & Gen Show, the grass strip fly-in at the airport where many antique airplanes fly in to showcase their vintage aircraft. Lincoln also hosts a Fall Market, food trucks, Strongman contest and balloon glow on September 14 in Hare Park. The day winds up with a beer garden and a band, The Groove Pilots.

The next meeting will be held in Lincoln at noon in Mozark Mocha at noon on August 21. The public is encouraged to attend.

Barn Quilts On Hold As Owners Are Contacted

Prospective Barn Quilt installations have stalled as the committee awaits responses from the owners. One location is north of Lincoln, two are south of Warsaw and two more are in the Cole Camp area.

As you drive around the County and see the colorful squares, most people have no idea of the hours put into contacting owners and making sure they are happy

Manhunt Ends With Fugitive Captured

By
Dianne Peck
County Reporter

Benton County residents were alerted on Tuesday, July 16, by the Sheriff's Department, they were looking for a man that had attempted to steal a truck located at 34154 Highway 65. The BCSD was being aided by Pettis County deputies, MSHP and the MCD.

The owner of the property at 34154 Highway 65, rural Warsaw, and his employees were returning after work and found a stranger trying to drive away in an employee's truck. Luckily there was a pipe fence blocking the get-away path and their incoming vehicle blocked the driveway. The would-be thief abandoned the truck and fled into the brush. The property owner then discovered the fugitive's Dodge truck concealed in his garage.

His attempt had failed and authorities believed he would try to secure another vehicle to make his escape. Residents were alerted there would be a K-9 unit and a drone searching. Residents were advised if they saw the man to call 911. He was not believed to be armed but no one should take a chance.

One resident called 911 and reported a man was skulking in his mother's yard. Lance Joseph Parker, Marble Falls, Arkansas was apprehended near Highway 7 and Lickingteller Avenue. Authorities believe he burglarized a residence in Hickory County before he arrived in the Benton County area. Parker was arrested and charged with tampering with a motor vehicle in the 1st degree, a Class D felony.

German Club Program Centers Emigrants Struggle To Become Americans

By
Dianne Peck
County Reporter

The Cole Camp German Club held their quarterly meeting on Friday evening, July 19 at the Triple Creek Golf Club House. The Club's members enjoyed a delicious pot luck supper with the Board providing a main entrée of Meatloaf, potatoes and hot rolls. The meal was supplemented with delicious salads and desserts.

During the meal the group was entertained with old country music songs sung by Gene Beckman in the native low German language. Roy Ehlers told stories and jokes in the native language as well.

The program for the evening was given by Julia Morse, a descendant of Herman "Sea" Harms, the Bockelmans and the Muellers that settled in Cole Camp after leaving Germany for America. Julia is an Associate Professor of Engineering Technology for Kansas State University.

While in high school Julia studied German and improved on her language skills by home reading. This allowed her to obtain a work/scholarship to Germany while she was in college. With the assistance of a Cole Camp cousin she made contact with a Harms cousin who still lives in the family farmhouse in the native village of Hanstedt.

Julia shared many photos she had taken of the landscape in the Hanstedt area and many other locations in northern Germany. She did make the acquaintance of Heinrich Harms and visited the old family homestead. Julia shared Heinrich said he held Herman "Sea" Harms in high regard for his determination to become an American citizen. He explained he had heard in 1989 that a large contingency of Germans were planning a trip to Cole Camp to find long lost relatives and he decided he wanted to join them but he missed the sign up date to be with the group. Not to be deterred he booked his own flight. Heinrich shared with Julia he found the long flight a miserable experience not to mention how wretched he thought the weather was in Missouri in the humid, heat of a mid-western summer.

He did enjoy meeting so many descendants of old "Sea" and marveled at his determination to give his family a new life in America, where plenty of land was available to prosper. As the family has passed down Hermann's near fatal voyage when the ship went down and he survived for days by clinging to a floating timber until he was finally picked up and taken to New York.

There he worked and saved his earnings. He then booked another voyage back to Germany so he could wed his sweetheart, Catherine. In later years the couple and their children sailed back to America and made their home at Cole Camp where today there are a large number of their descendants.

What struck Heinrich was how miserable he had been in flying to America and felt embarrassed he had complained when he learned that Herman had sailed across that Ocean on three separate occasions in God only knows what conditions. Julia shared she had focused on getting acquainted with the everyday lives of the German people. While there she had taken every opportunity to tour and photographed all she saw. One interesting picture was of a house several centuries old with a thatched roof. High in the eaves was a small opening that allowed Owls to enter and roost inside. This was encouraged as the thatched roofs attracted mice that damaged the thatch but the owls feasted on them and prevented the destruction.

Perhaps the most touching picture was taken in Bremerhaven, a sea port that has several museums and memorials to the emigrants leaving for America by the thousands. The memorial that told the story without words was the family holding hands awaiting the ship. The father and child are gazing out to sea and their promise of a better life across the water, while the wife and mother looks longingly back to her much loved and familiar home.

The District proposes an increase to its current tax levy of $0.28 per $100 assessed value of an additional $0.20 per $100 assessed value. If the levy passes, the funds will be used to continue current district operations with no cutback to services, will allow the lease/purchase of an ambulance replacing our twelve year old ambulance, would also allow the district to set money back for future replacement of cardiac monitors. If the levy passes will allow the district discounts for residents to continue and will leave in place our current policy of no charge service calls for people who do not need to be transported. The levy increase may also provide some additional service in the future that we are currently unable to provide due to funding, which could include an additional ambulance during peak times of the year. If the levy does not pass then the district will have to look at reducing some of the services we now provide.

Understanding The Need For An Increased Ambulance Tax

By
Dianne Peck
County Reporter

Cole Camp Ambulance District was established in 1982 as a citizen-focused organization dedicated to safeguarding the lives of those who reside in Benton and Pettis Counties by providing safe, cost-effective and reliable ambulance service 24 hours-a-day. The District provides services to approximately 4,180 individuals spanning across a territory of nearly 320 square miles. The voters passed a sales tax in 2002 which provided funds for the addition of adding Paramedics to the service making them able to provide Advance Life Support care. Annually, the District responds to more than 600 requests for services, resulting in would be a blessing. There could be opportunities for businesses to open in some of the empty buildings that are bike or trail related. Riders would frequent our stores and restaurants.

There are other grants that we could apply for that might help with the match. One that comes to mind is the T-Mobile Grant max $50,000, which is currently open.

The matching amount will not be due a lump sum, but over time as progress begins on the trail. Other fundraising can take place during that time.

A binder has been put together for your reading. I am always available for questions as well as Marge Lumpe and Charles Hunter. an average of 380 patient transports. In addition to emergency 911 ambulance service; the District also provides medical stand-by service at various area high school and community events. Since the pandemic the cost of operations has grown in some areas about 30%. We rely heavily on Medical payments in the form of Medicare, Medicaid and private insurance. The District also has a Property Tax of $0.28 per $100 assessed value and a 1/2 cent sales tax. We are asking voters on August 6th to vote "yes" on the increase to $0.48 per $100 assessed value.

Over the last couple of years the cost of medical supplies has risen over 20%. Cost of equipment has risen almost 30%. Employee costs have risen 19% across the nation due to shortages of qualified individuals. These costs over the last couple of years, has been absorbed by the District applying for ARPA and Covid funds, but those funds have dried up and the costs have not gone back down. The Board of Directors has looked at cutting back but there are very few areas that can be cut back without decreasing services. The District has operated on around a $500,000.00, so when we lose $15,000 in billing and $25,000 in sales tax a year our income budget is cut by nearly 10%. That is what has been happening the last couple of years. Then you add increase in medical supplies. This is why the Board of Directors have to ask the voters for their support.

The District proposes an increase to its current tax levy of $0.28 per $100 assessed value of an additional $0.20 per $100 assessed value. If the levy passes, the funds will be used to continue current district operations with no cutback to services, will allow the lease/purchase of an ambulance replacing our twelve year old ambulance, would also allow the district to set money back for future replacement of cardiac monitors. If the levy passes will allow the district discounts for residents to continue and will leave in place our current policy of no charge service calls for people who do not need to be transported. The levy increase may also provide some additional service in the future that we are currently unable to provide due to funding, which could include an additional ambulance during peak times of the year. If the levy does not pass then the district will have to look at reducing some of the services we now provide.

In August of this year the Ambulance District will hold a Public hearing to set Tax Levy for 2025. At that time the Board of Directors will set the levy based on the outcome of the Ballot results. It will then be applied to property Tax for 2025. The Tax levy, if it is passed, would just about double what a person paid in 2024 to the Ambulance District. So if you paid $20.00 to the Ambulance District in 2024, you would pay about $42.00 in 2025. The purpose of the proposed activities is to increase the cost-effectiveness of the Districts operations and to enhance the quality of service being provided to the District's residents. The Tax Levy Proceeds will be going towards operating expenses, equipment and vehicles. The District is owned and operated by the residents of the District. What level of emergency services will be provided is the decision of the District residents when they go to the Polls.

Melissa Zweifel was nominated and selected by several residents several times to be the "Employee of the Month" She is known to be friendly and takes her time when helping and does not rush people to get the job done. She is also known to always be pleasant and willing to go the extra mile and always anticipates the resident's needs."

MELISSA ZWEIFEL

Melissa has a very outgoing personality who is ready to help anyway she can. She is always kind, always smiling and happy. One resident said, "When you hear a little whistle out in the hall, you know it is Melissa here to do her job." A big thanks to Melissa making the residents of GSCC lives a little brighter.

It's July and time for sweet corn, sliced tomatoes and lots of good fresh vegetables. But summer is also known as the time to crank up the freezer and make some delicious homemade ice cream and that's just what the residents and staff did this past week. What a great treat and some of the residents even took a turn on the crank.

Cole Camp Museum Makes Plans For Tourism Video

By
Dianne Peck
County Reporter

The Cole Camp Museum met on Thursday, July 18 in the museum building. The group welcomed new members, Diana Ball and Kathy Bruner. President, Robert Wienberg called the meeting to order.

The minutes were read by the Secretary, Dianne Peck and approved. Treasurer's report was presented and approved. President Wienberg announced the dehumidifier is still working properly and he will get it moved to the south side of the building and fix a drainage so it can properly remove the moisture from the interior.

Dianne Peck shared she had contacted Benton county Tourism about making a video of the entity to showcase what the museum features, chiefly its large collection of German cultural artifacts, plus its unique displays of the Battle of Cole Camp. The video will play on the Tourism website. The Museum Board hopes to highlight the German culture to complement the German memorial that draws visitors from all over the United States and some from foreign countries.

Kathy Bruner questioned if the lights mounted outside the front door are working and if they are, why are they never used? She said she would pay to have them repaired if they aren't working. A discussion was held about the origin of the lights and if they had a special significance. Dianne Peck said she would attempt to find out why they were chosen for the front of the building.

Cheryl Brockman asked if anyone has taken up the task of recording donations now that Lillie Stelling is no longer able to do that task. It was decided to find a replacement for the job.

A brief discussion was held about possible future fund raisers but no ideas were formed or firmly committed to. The matter was tabled for future discussion. The next meeting is scheduled for Thursday, August 15 in the Museum at 2 p.m. Visitors are welcome.

BCED Director Lane Makes Pitch To Cole Camp City Council

SEVERAL CYCLISTS appeared at the most recent Cole Camp City Council meeting to share their opinions of the Rock Island Trail.

The following is the brief statement made by Benton County Economic Development Director, JoAnn Lane to the Cole Camp Council Thursday, July 18:

The Rock Island Trail could be one of the single-most important economic development driver that has occurred in the last 30 years for any of the towns along the Rock Island Trail.

We don't want to miss this golden opportunity to spur growth and development in our area.

We've been given this world-class opportunity, and the final development won't happen overnight, but to miss the chance to preserve this piece of the corridor for Cole Camp might not be in the best interest of the town.

The Katy Trail has brought visitors from many states as well as other countries. There aren't many towns like Cole Camp along the trail and to have others come to Cole Camp and experience this unique town

Have I Got A Line For You!
By James Mahlon White

Our Presidential election is shaping up to be a barn burner. President Biden dropped out of the race on Sunday. Surprise! Surprise! Surprise! The President didn't drop out, he was forced out. How can they shout "Democracy is at stake" then stage a coup against the duly elected nominee of their party? The oligarchs will install their handpicked replacement, who won't be able to appropriate Joe's war chest. Bet that doesn't stop them. The real scandal here is the cover up of the President's health. Vice-President Harris is knee deep in it. She's the only one with the authority to act and protect the country from the President's decline and she's seeking the nomination. What a tangled web!

Speaking of the election, there's lots of hurrah about Voter ID laws. There were protests over the weekend by folks who say that asking for an ID is unfair and "Disenfranchises them." The thought that people should be allowed to vote without proving who they say they are, is RIDICULOUS! You have to laugh at these people trying to defend cartoon characters, illegal aliens and dead people voting. Yet they say nothing when states are forced to throw away ballots from soldiers stationed overseas because they arrive a few days late.

There was a big problem last week with a software glitch that hit many businesses including banks and airlines. Wonder if our addiction to technology will

RICKIE CASWELL,
AAMS®
Financial Advisor

Like most Americans, you will probably take on debt at some point in your life. And by managing debt wisely, you can potentially improve your saving and spending habits – and even your ability to invest for the future.

Let's look at some of the common options available for borrowing and using credit:

- Credit card – When used carefully – and not over-used – a credit card can be a valuable tool, especially if you travel frequently. Many people tend to stick with the same credit card without exploring what else is out there. Try to find a card that rewards you in as many ways as possible – and then keep your eyes open occasionally for even better rewards as they can change from time to time. Obviously, you want a card with a low interest rate, although ideally, you'd like to pay the card off each month without incurring any interest. You also should take a close look at a card's other features. Are you getting a competitive amount of mileage points? How much is your annual fee? Do you have a generous "cash back" program? Do you have access to "extras," such as airport lounges?

- Home equity loans and home equity lines of credit – As the names suggest, a home equity loan or line of credit lets you tap into the equity you've built up in your home, which can be considerable, especially if you've owned your home for a long time. A home equity loan provides you with a lump sum, which you will repay over a set term with a fixed interest rate. A home equity line of credit usually carries a variable rate, although you might find a lender offering a fixed-rate option. You can generally draw on your loan or line of credit for any purpose, but keep in mind that unless you're using the funds for home improvements or additions, your interest payments are generally not tax deductible.

- Securities-based lending – Just as a home equity line of credit lets you borrow against the equity in your home, a securities-based loan, such as a margin loan, lets you borrow against the value of your investments, including stocks, exchange traded funds and mutual funds. Some people take out margin loans to purchase more investments, but you can use the money for any purpose. The margin loan process is usually not complex and when you make repayments, you're paying yourself back. However, you should approach a margin loan with caution because if you borrow too much, the value of your margin account may fall below the maintenance requirement – the minimum dollar amount you must keep in your margin account after you've started taking money out. When this happens, your brokerage institution may issue a maintenance call that requires you to either deposit more money or marginable securities or sell some of the investments in your account.

Ultimately, when weighing your borrowing and credit options, you'll want to evaluate several factors: the interest rate you'll be paying, the purpose for taking on the debt, your ability to repay it without impinging on your cash flow, and so on. With careful thought and planning, and, if needed, help from a financial professional, you can make your debt work for you – and not the other way around.

WARSAW CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Do not give what is holy to the dogs; nor cast your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you in pieces
-Matthew 7:6

These words of Jesus seem harsh, but they are practical. The Gospel we believe is holy. It is like a beautiful, costly pearl. When we share Christ with others, we may meet with hostility. Some vehemently oppose the Gospel of Jesus. When that happens, we need to move on to someone else. Maybe we should continue to pray for that person, but face-to-face sharing of Christ is a waste of time. Just as a pig does not appreciate a pearl and will trample it underfoot, so some do not appreciate the good news of Jesus and trample it underfoot. Some are so hostile against the Gospel they might attack you personally!

We see how this principle worked out in Acts 13:44-51. Paul is preaching in Antioch. Many heard the good news gladly. However, some of the Jews were envious of the crowds and grew hostile. So Paul decides the wisest course is to move on. Proclaiming Jesus to those whose minds are closed is a waste of time. Just make sure that you are not one whose mind is closed to the Gospel. We need to see the Gospel for what it is, a precious pearl.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK JOHNNIE J. LOGUE

Did God Intervene?
The secret things belong to God.....
-Deuteronomy 29:29

Many are saying that God intervened in the attempted assassination of former president Donald Trump a few days back.

My question would be; why didn't He intervene in the shooting of the other three? A family man died. God is no respecter of persons so he is not impressed with the office of the president. I would be offended if I was part of those families.

God could have intervened in the death of John the Baptist but He didn't. Stephen was stoned. Tradition said Paul was beheaded. James the Greater was beheaded. Isaiah was put inside a log and cut in half.

All of the twelve but John were martyrs. History says Bartholomew was skinned alive, Matthew was gutted by a sword, James the Less was thrown off the temple and stoned. Peter was crucified upside down. Phillip was hanged. Thomas was lanced. Andrew was crucified on a cross. Mathias was both stoned and beheaded. Simon was burned at a stake. Judas hung himself.

Others also suffered horrible deaths. Luke was hanged. Mark was dragged to death. Barnabas was stoned. Jude was shot with arrows. No such intervention for these men.

Truth is that we don't know if God intervened for former President Trump. Like you, I am glad he wasn't killed and I am very sorry the former firefighter lost his life.

I do know what Hebrews 9:27 says; "As it is appointed unto man once to die..." We all die.

Sunday is Friend Day at Grace Baptist Church at 31046 Hwy MM. You are invited. Services are at 10:00 AM, 11:00 AM and 4:00 PM. Call (660) 281-4775 for more info.

LINCOLN FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

WE WILL BE HAVING A REVIVAL AUGUST 4, 5 AND 6. MARK YOUR CALENDERS AND COME JOIN US!

Happy anniversary to Pastor Jesse and Tina Klaiber. Welcome to the Sterling family who came forward to join our church family. We had five of our youth attend camp this past week. I pray they got a blessing by attending.

1 Corinthians 13 and John 15:9 was the pastor's text today. God is love. It says we are to love one another as God has loved us. All things will vanish except love. In 1 Corinthians says if we don't have love we are just a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal.

When we say hurtful things to others that is childish if we are a Christian. You can't see God if you are a child in your faith. We should have enough in us to lay down your life for your family and others. God sent Jesus to save us. When Jesus was gone there was the Holy Spirit. Christ needs to be needed. Jesus keeps no secrets. Serve each other because we love each other.

COME AND WORSHIP WITH US. SUNDAY SCHOOL IS AT 9:30 AM AND WORSHIP

IS 10:30 AM. YOUTH WEDNESDAY AT 6:00 PM. GOD BLESS EACH THIS WEEK.

HOPEWELL BAPTIST CHURCH

Today's text is from Judges 8:18-27. Earlier, God had Gideon thin his army from 30,000 to 300 so the He could deliver them, without thinking they did it in their own strength. Four kings escaped, and Gideon tracked them down to take revenge on them for killing his brothers. First Gideon tells his son to kill them, and we should be uncomfortable with Gideon's choices. The book of Judges wants us to ask, was he really a hero? The Israelites want Gideon to rule them, but Gideon tells them we have a God and don't need men to rule. Gideon won't rule over them but asks them to give them part of their plunder. No applause please, just a large portion of what they collected. Gideon made a golden ephod from the gold, and we see a side of Gideon we haven't seen or didn't learn in Sunday School. He puts the ephod in his hometown, wearing it. Gideon is not from a priestly family, and God's ephod should stay in Shiloh. God is very particular about where things are supposed to be, and the ephod is supposed to stay in Shiloh.

Gideon made wrong choices that affected the people all around him. They worshiped the wrong place, the wrong people, in the wrong time, and with the wrong heart. Gideon's family abused a system to cause his people to worship improperly and not the God of the universe. The legacy Gideon leaves is this - he goes where God ask but listens to himself and his mistakes affect everything and everyone around him. What legacy are we leaving for our kids? What do we want to leave behind - a better world than we inherited? What can we do tomorrow to demonstrate that Jesus is the most important thing. Share the love of Jesus somehow, someway - the world will be a better place.

Join us Sunday mornings for Sunday School at 10 a.m. with Worship at 11 a.m. We will not have regular Bible Study this Wednesday, July 24, or Sunday evening Children's Program or Bible Study, Sunday, July 28. Watch our service live at 11 a.m. each Sunday on Hopewell Baptist Church Facebook page.

UNITY OF THE LAKES

We are pleased to announce that Reverend Martha Mosley will speak on Sunday, July 28 at our 11:00 AM service. We are located at 34948 Hwy 65 South in Warsaw.

Martha was ordained a Unity minister in 1993. She and her husband Glenn served ministries in Sheboygan, WI; St. Louis, MO; Vancouver, BC; and Abilene, TX.

Martha is dedicated to the Unity message, and served for four years as Prayer Associate for Silent Unity. She holds a BA in Public Management, and an MS in Marriage and Family Therapy.

Martha's talk will explore "Peace When There Is No Peace." We will find ways of being that create and maintain peace of mind and heart despite outer circumstances. This will include practical steps to establish peace, and ways to live life from a core of peace.

Please join us and stay for food and fellowship afterwards!

Care Connection For Aging Services Welcomes New Executive Board Member For Benton County

Pamela Osburn has been elected to represent Benton County on the Care Connection for Aging Services Executive Board of Directors. The Executive Board provides direction on financial and business matters for Care Connection, a non-profit agency that provides services to older adults in 13 West Central Missouri counties.

Pamela brings her years of experience in nursing, home-health, and work in nursing homes to the table. She states that she is excited for this opportunity to continue advocating for, and promoting awareness of, the needs of senior citizens in the central Missouri area.

"I look forward to working alongside Pamela and the rest of the board," said Wendy Martin, Executive Director of Care Connection. "Together we will continue to provide the best services to older adults in Benton County, and the rest of our service area."

Care Connection for Aging Services, a non-profit area agency on aging, operates 21 locations in 13 West Central Missouri counties, including Benton County. The mission is to provide opportunities to create positive aging experiences. To learn more, call Care Connection at (800) 748-7826.

Stay Strong, Stay Healthy

Strength Training Program for Older Adults

Strength training is no longer just for bodybuilders. Stay Strong, Stay Healthy is an eight-week, evidence-based strength training program designed for older adults who want to improve their quality of life and stay active. Classes are held in familiar settings such as senior centers and church halls, not the gym. The exercises are easy to learn, safe and effective. No need to wear special clothes—just comfortable, loose-fitting pants and shirt, along with sturdy, closed-toe walking shoes.

What are the benefits?
Strength training:

- Increases muscle strength
- Improves balance
- Enhances flexibility
- Strengthens bones
- Relieves arthritis
- Helps control weight
- Lifts depression
- Reduces stress
- Reduces risks for heart disease

Here's what we do
Stay Strong, Stay Healthy classes include:

- Warm-up exercises
- Eight strengthening exercises, with or without hand and ankle weights
- Cool-down stretches

Over the course of the program, you will increase your strength and improve your balance. After the eight weeks are over, you can continue the strength training program in the comfort of your home or with a group.

Weights will be available on-site, and a trained instructor will help you learn and do these exercises safely.

Class Information
Location: First United Methodist Church
Address: 154 Washington Street, Warsaw MO
Class Days: Monday & Wednesday
Class Time: 9:30-10:30 AM

Proposed Amendments to the Constitution of Missouri

To be submitted to the qualified voters of the State of Missouri at the Special Election to be held on Tuesday, the 6th day of August, 2024.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 1

[Proposed by the 102nd General Assembly (First Regular Session) SJR 26]

OFFICIAL BALLOT TITLE:

Shall the Missouri Constitution be amended to allow places where individuals, corporations, organizations, and associations provide childcare outside of the child's home to be exempt from property tax? This is intended to make childcare more available, which would support the well-being of children, families, the workforce, and society as a whole.

State governmental entities estimate the state's Blind Pension Fund could have annual lost revenue of up to $400,000. Local governments expect an unknown fiscal impact.

Submitting to the qualified voters of Missouri, an amendment repealing section 6 of article X of the Constitution of Missouri, and adopting one new section in lieu thereof relating to a property tax exemption for certain child care facilities.

Be it resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring therein:

That at the next general election to be held in the state of Missouri, on Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, 2024, or at a special election to be called by the governor for that purpose, there is hereby submitted to the qualified voters of this state, for adoption or rejection, the following amendment to article X of the Constitution of the state of Missouri:

Section A. Section 6, article X, Constitution of Missouri, is repealed and one new section adopted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 6, to read as follows:

Section 6. 1. All property, real and personal, of the state, counties and other political subdivisions, and nonprofit cemeteries, and all real property used as a homestead as defined by law of any citizen of this state who is a former prisoner of war, as defined by law, and who has a total service-connected disability, shall be exempt from taxation; all personal property held as industrial inventories, including raw materials, work in progress and finished work on hand, by manufacturers and refiners, and all personal property held as goods, wares, merchandise, stock in trade or inventory for resale by distributors, wholesalers, or retail merchants or establishments shall be exempt from taxation; and all property, real and personal, not held for private or corporate profit and used exclusively for religious worship, for schools and colleges, for purposes purely charitable, for agricultural and horticultural societies, or for veterans' organizations may be exempted from taxation by general law. In addition to the above, household goods, furniture, wearing apparel and articles of personal use and adornment owned and used by a person in his home or dwelling place may be exempt from taxation by general law but any such law may provide for approximate restitution to the respective political subdivisions of revenues lost by reason of the exemption. All laws exempting from taxation property other than the property enumerated in this article, shall be void. The provisions of this section exempting certain personal property of manufacturers, refiners, distributors, wholesalers, and retail merchants and establishments from taxation shall become effective, unless otherwise provided by law, in each county on January 1 of the year in which that county completes its first general reassessment as defined by law.

2. All revenues lost because of the exemption of certain personal property of manufacturers, refiners, distributors, wholesalers, and retail merchants and establishments shall be replaced to each taxing authority within a county from a countywide tax hereby imposed on all property in subclass 3 of class 1 in each county. For the year in which the exemption becomes effective, the county clerk shall calculate the total revenue lost by all taxing authorities in the county and extend upon all property in subclass 3 of class 1 within the county, a tax at the rate necessary to produce that amount. The rate of tax levied in each county according to this subsection shall not be increased above the rate first imposed and will stand levied at that rate unless later reduced according to the provisions of subsection 3. The county collector shall disburse the proceeds according to the revenue lost by each taxing authority because of the exemption of such property in that county. Restitution of the revenues lost by any taxing district contained in more than one county shall be from the several counties according to the revenue lost because of the exemption of property in each county. Each year after the first year the replacement tax is imposed, the amount distributed to each taxing authority in a county shall be increased or decreased by an amount equal to the amount resulting from the change in that district's total assessed value of property in subclass 3 of class 1 at the countywide replacement tax rate. In order to implement the provisions of this subsection, the limits set in section 11(b) of this article may be exceeded, without voter approval, if necessary to allow each county listed in section 11(b) to comply with this subsection.

3. Any increase in the tax rate imposed pursuant to subsection 2 of this section shall be decreased if such decrease is approved by a majority of the voters of the county voting on such decrease. A decrease in the increased tax rate imposed under subsection 2 of this section may be submitted to the voters of a county by the governing body thereof upon its own order, ordinance, or resolution and shall be submitted upon the petition of at least eight percent of the qualified voters who voted in the immediately preceding gubernatorial election.

4. As used in this section, the terms "revenues lost" and "lost revenues" shall mean that revenue which each taxing authority received from the imposition of a tangible personal property tax on all personal property held as industrial inventories, including raw materials, work in progress and finished work on hand, by manufacturers and refiners, and all personal property held as goods, wares, merchandise, stock in trade or inventory for resale by distributors, wholesalers, or retail merchants or establishments in the last full tax year immediately preceding the effective date of the exemption from taxation granted for such property under subsection 1 of this section, and which was no longer received after such exemption became effective.

5. Because the availability of childcare supports the well-being of children, families, the workforce, and society as a whole, all property, real and personal, used primarily for the care of a child outside of his or her home may be exempted from taxation by general law. If a portion of the property of an individual or a for profit or nonprofit corporation, organization, or association is used for such childcare, an assessing authority may be authorized by general law to exempt from the assessment, levy, and collection of taxes such portion of the property of such individual, corporation, organization, or association that is used primarily for such childcare.

Section B. Pursuant to chapter 116, and other applicable constitutional provisions and laws of this state allowing the general assembly to adopt ballot language for the submission of this joint resolution to the voters of this state, the official summary statement of this resolution shall be as follows:

"Shall the Missouri Constitution be amended to allow places where individuals, corporations, organizations, and associations provide childcare outside of the child's home to be exempt from property tax? This is intended to make childcare more available, which would support the well-being of children, families, the workforce, and society as a whole."

I, John R. Ashcroft, Secretary of State of the state of Missouri, hereby certify that the foregoing is a full, true and complete copy of Constitutional Amendment No. 1, to be submitted to the qualified voters of the State of Missouri at the Special Election to be held the sixth day of August, 2024.

In TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and affix the Great Seal of the State of Missouri, done at the City of Jefferson, this 28th day of May, 2024.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 4

[Proposed by the 101st General Assembly (Second Regular Session) SS 2 SJR 38]

OFFICIAL BALLOT TITLE:

Shall the Missouri Constitution be amended to authorize laws, passed before December 31st, 2026, that increase minimum funding for a police force established by a state board of police commissioners to ensure such police force has additional resources to serve its communities?

This would authorize a law passed in 2022 increasing required funding by the City of Kansas City for police department requests from 20% of general revenue to 25%, an increase of $38,743,646, though the City previously provided that level of funding voluntarily. No other state or local governmental entities estimate costs or savings.

Submitting to the qualified voters of Missouri, an amendment repealing section 21 of article X of the Constitution of Missouri, and adopting one new section in lieu thereof relating to the funding of law enforcement agencies.

Be it resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring therein:

That at the next general election to be held in the state of Missouri, on Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, 2022, or at a special election to be called by the governor for that purpose, there is hereby submitted to the qualified voters of this state, for adoption or rejection, the following amendment to article X of the Constitution of the state of Missouri:

Section A. Section 21, article X, Constitution of Missouri, is repealed and one new section adopted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 21, to read as follows:

Section 21. 1. The state is hereby prohibited from reducing the state financed proportion of the costs of any existing activity or service required of counties and other political subdivisions. A new activity or service or an increase in the level of any activity or service beyond that required by existing law shall not be required by the general assembly or any state agency of counties or other political subdivisions, unless a state appropriation is made and disbursed to pay the county or other political subdivision for any increased costs.

2. Notwithstanding the foregoing prohibitions, before December 31, 2026, the general assembly may by law increase minimum funding for a police force established by a state board of police commissioners to ensure such police force has additional resources to serve its communities.

Section B. Pursuant to chapter 116, and other applicable constitutional provisions and laws of this state allowing the general assembly to adopt ballot language for the submission of this joint resolution to the voters of this state, the official summary statement of this resolution shall be as follows:

"Shall the Missouri Constitution be amended to authorize laws, passed before December 31, 2026, that increase minimum funding for a police force established by a state board of police commissioners to ensure such police force has additional resources to serve its communities?"
