Town Council Approves Beer Ordinance

Huntingdon Town Council members updated their beer ordinance to comply with state law.

During the Oct. 25 meeting, the second and final reading was approved concerning a stipulation in applying for a beer permit.

The ordinance requires any applicant for a beer permit must be a citizen or lawful resident of the United States for not less than one year immediately preceding the date upon which the application is made to the city or county.

"This brings our law in compliance with the state law," Mayor Dale Kelley told council members.

A request by Denise Tucker on behalf of St. Jude Hero team Triple A was granted to use Veterans Park on October 29 from 8 a.m. until 2 p.m.

She said in a letter request that this is the seventh annual Spooky Sprint 5K and one mile Fun Run.

"We've had a lot of success with this event in the past and hope that it only continues to grow," she said in the letter. "Not only are we trying to raise money for St. Jude, but are also trying to get families involved in fitness activities."

The event starts with a one-mile fun run and different activities for kids to participate in while the grownups run-walk the 5K course.

Public Safety Director Walter Smothers was present with the town's two newest policemen, Cody Walker and Michael Sevarns.

In communications from the mayor, Kelley said the fire and police department personnel had recently helped rescue a man from a wrecked vehicle.

He also announced town recorder Martha Taylor was honored as the Carroll Countian of the Year by the Chamber of Commerce at an Oct. 24 membership banquet.

The mayor also said a fundraiser for Tim Boyd raised $12,100.

Rezoning Request Headed to City Council

A request for rezoning two adjacent parcels of real estate were approved by the McKenzie Municipal-Regional Planning Commission and is now headed to the McKenzie Mayor and Council for final approval.

Ms. Julia H. Winters submitted a rezoning application so that property located at 549 E. Clark Street and 1515 Cedar Streets may be rezoned from B-2 (Highway Business) to R-1 (Low Density Residential).

After reviewing the site of the subject properties in question, the regional staff planner does not have a negative analysis of the submitted application due to the following reasons:

Although the submittal does not conform to the prepared / amended McKenzie Municipal-Regional 2029 Land Use and Transportation

Plan, the existing uses for the respective properties are residential; and,

The regional staff planner does not envision any eagerness for developers to develop the subject area commercially in the near future.

Staff recommended the Julia Winters application for property reclassification be endorsed by the McKenzie Municipal-Regional Planning Commission by providing a positive recommendation for an ordinance to rezone the aforementioned properties to the McKenzie Board of Mayor and Council.

The Julia H. Winters application for property reclassification and forward an ordinance to rezone the properties listed to the McKenzie Board of Mayor and Council was approved.

A second parcel was the subject to seek the opinion of the planners.

Review of the Brents Priestley inquiry regarding the property at 2001 Cedar Street he is purchasing.

The current owners are Glenn and Kathy Sacks.

The structure is a non-conforming single-family residence located in a B-2 Highway Business zone.

The question was if the structure, if destroyed beyond 75 percent, could not be rebuilt according to the city's zoning rules.

The planners, along with Planner Shelton Merrill opined the 75 percent restriction does not apply to this structure and other similar single-family residences in the City of McKenzie B-2 (Highway Business) zones.

Carroll County Electric Board Employee Handbook Updates Highlight Agenda

By Ernie Smothers
smothers@mckenziebanner.com
HUNTINGDON (October 27) — During the regular monthly meeting of the Carroll County Electric Board, board members, at the recommendation of CCED General Manager Danny Brawner, approved additions and upgrades to the utilities' employee handbook.

Addressing board members, Brawner said, "The employee's handbook has not been upgraded in many years, so we added changes and new additions to the handbook to provide our employees with a detailed listing of benefits that they receive along with responsibilities expected from them during the daily performance of duties."

He said, "At my request, board member and attorney Robert Keeton Jr. reviewed the upgrades to the employee handbook and deemed that all changes and additions were suitable from a legal perspective."

Brawner noted that additions to the handbook included: Americans with Disabilities Act (new policy); Administrative Leave with pay (new policy); worker's compensation claim (new policy); Family Medical Leave Act (new policy); COBRA insurance changes for employees that retire from the utility; retirement plan (information only); travel expense reimbursement policy (new policy); flexible benefits plan (information only); progressive discipline policy (new policy); grievances policy (new policy); controlled substances and alcohol use and testing policy; acknowledgement of utility employees receiving the upgraded employee handbook.

Changes to the employee handbook included: work week (policy change); payday (updated information); payroll deductions (updated information); health insurance (information only); life insurance (information only); and long term disability (information only).

During Old Business, Brawner

said that utility employee Mike Connelly was 25-percent finished with mapping the utility's distribution area.

He said, "Mike has been using the Utilitrak GPS mapping system to map transmission lines and utility poles for about six months now. He has already mapped 25-percent of the total system including the McKenzie Substation, McKenzie South Side, and feeder lines emanating from those locations. He is doing a great job, and is actually a lot further along with completing the process than we estimated he would be at this time given time. We expected initially for the project to be completed in three years, but it might be completed even sooner: I am very pleased with his progress."

Brawner said that Connelly will begin mapping areas with difficult terrain issues around Natchez Trace and other areas soon before inclement weather impacts the area.

Brawner informed board members that the CCED Christmas Dinner will be held inside the exhibit building located behind the Carroll County Civic Center on Thursday, December 8.

He said, "We moved the date from Friday to Thursday to give us additional time to clean up after the dinner. Hor D'oeuvres will be served at 6:30 p.m. followed by the meal at 7:00 p.m."

Carroll County Electric Department Office Manager Ryan Dreyry said that the upcoming audit of the utility revealed no findings.

He said, "The results revealed a good, clean report with no findings. I will provide copies of the report to board members at next month's meeting."

In final business, the board approved the minutes and vouchers from the September 29 meeting and set the next meeting for Thursday, November 17 at 2:30 p.m.

USDA Specialist Urges Home Loan Applications

Courtesy Carroll County News Leader

HOLLOW ROCK (October 18) — Mary Hickman, a Rural Development Area Specialist with USDA, talked to Hollow Rock Mayor and Board of Aldermen about rural home loans.

She said, "I make home loans and have worked for USDA for 30 years, "I know how it is to grow up in a rural community. I live in Henry, but grew up in Palmersville."

She said since the board is considered the nucleus of the community, the members can help residents become homeowners.

"Our tax dollars are doing something for the community," she said.

The home loan application process, known as the Section 504 Home Repair program, provides loans to very-low-income homeowners to repair, improve or modernize their homes.

In addition the program provides grants to elderly very low-income homeowners to remove health and safety hazards.

A maximum loan is $20,000 with a maximum grant set at $7,500. Loans and grants can be combined for up to $27,500 in assistance. Loans can be repaid over 20 years with an interest rate fixed at one percent.

To qualify for the program, one must be the homeowner and occupy the house, be unable to obtain affordable credit elsewhere, have a family income below 50 percent of the area median income and for grants be age 62 or older and not be able to repay a repair loan. In a one to four person family, one must have an income of less than $24,050.

Loans are available for roofs,

USDA Rural Development Area Specialist Mary Hickman addresses the Hollow Rock mayor and board.

plumbing, electrical, and to make a house handicap accessible, but no cosmetic things are eligible for payment.

"Roofs and central units are big items for replacement," said Hickman. "It's a really good program. It's help and it's real."

Alderman Curt Lumley asked if the program sends out its own contractors.

"I can let the homeowner do it," she said. "We analyze the bids and there must be three. I work with spec sheets."

However, she said that no houses could be constructed in Hollow Rock because the town has no building codes or building inspector.

"I encourage you to do that," she said. "However, there's no reason not to do repairs here because of no building codes. Little towns will lose if they don't take advantage of this money."

A direct loan program gets a person in a home sooner than normally.

"Sometimes this is less than paying rent," she said. "You don't have to move out while repairs are being made."

Mayor Tim Runions said he thought the town should pursue or at least investigate.

"I think it would be good for the town," he said. "Some of the things talked about would be beneficial for the town."

Town Aldermen agreed.

At the motion of Alderman Ernie Smothers, the board approved an ordinance that adds Veteran's Day and an employee's birthday as holidays for full-time employees.

An alderman's position will have to be filled by board members after the November 8 election since Maria Crocker is not running again and no one qualified to seek the office in the November elections.

He said, "I want you to seriously think about who you choose for this position. The person must be trustworthy and not motivated to serve merely to satisfy their personal agendas. Choose wisely for the betterment of the town. It is a big decision."

The board will be filling that position for a four-year term at the December meeting.

Bennie Castleman, who is a candidate for the state representative for the 76th District along with his wife, Barbara, was present at the meeting. He said he had visited every county commission and city government in the district since he had announced his candidacy.

OPINION

Hunker Down with Kes We Should Have Charged By The Inning!

The average ticket price for the second game of the World Series played on a Wednesday night in Cleveland was $2,056. That's for one seat! And judging by the way the attendees were dressed I'm guessing the temperature to have been in the mid-thirties. And yep, the rain started falling before the game ended.

Just think if you were a big Cleveland fan. You're out a couple of grand for the ticket and another $100 to park the car, your tongue is permanently frozen to your bottom lip, you're soaking wet and your Indians have just been soundly trounced by a team that hadn't won a World Series game since October 8, 1945.

Dad used to talk about people who had more money than they did sense!

And, as Leon proclaimed the morning he straggled home all scratched up and covered with burns caused by his harrowing escape from the alien spaceship, "You ain't heard nothing yet!"

The prices go even higher when the series moves to Chicago's famed Wrigley Field! The cheapest ticket—one that will just get you in the park—is going for $2,275! The average seat in the Windy City is selling for well above 3,000 bucks! If you expect to be "close to the field," the going rate is in the 6,000 dollar range. One fan purchased four box seats along the first base line near the bullpen for $17,950 each! That's one ticket for seventeen thousand, nine hundred and fifty dollars!

Good gosh, I'm a baseball guy. When the sun comes up in the morning, I see stitches on it. But no baseball game is worth that kind of money. If you brought back Babe Ruth, Ty Cobb, Tris Speaker and Dizzy Dean it still wouldn't be worth it!

I saw Stan Musial play in 1954 and my upper deck bleacher seat cost seventy-five cents. Those were the days my friend...

But listen, I'm not mad about this. Or even upset. Heck, none of the money is coming out of my pocket! And to have two storied teams going head-to-head makes it a memorable matchup for sure. Add in the Cubs haven't won a World Series in 108 years and the last time Cleveland won was 1948 and you've got a backdrop for a championship playoff that has the news media and fans drooling all over themselves.

I do feel sorry for the taxi driver that has faithfully followed the Cubs for years or the city worker who was "at Wrigley" for Ernie Banks' 500th home run in 1970 and he was also there ten years earlier for Don Cardwell's no hitter...these real fans, I fear, have been priced out of a seat.

But mostly, this "pay any price" scenario has got me thinking of all those pick-up baseball games we played in the field across from the Pajama Factory. WE DIDN'T CHARGE NOTHING! I'm talking from about 1953 to 1965. We could have all been rich!

And I'm telling you, no World Series could hold any more drama, action, late inning heroes (and goats) than we produced near 'bout every summer day in those years. We'd meet around 10:00 in the morning, choose up sides, and play 417 innings or till we got called home for supper—which ever came first!

Of course, we didn't have a lot of fans. If you showed up, you played! Mr. Jack Cantrell would walk over from Fields Street and watch us on occasion. We'd try to get him to umpire but he'd rather sit up in the small bleachers and yell encouragements to us.

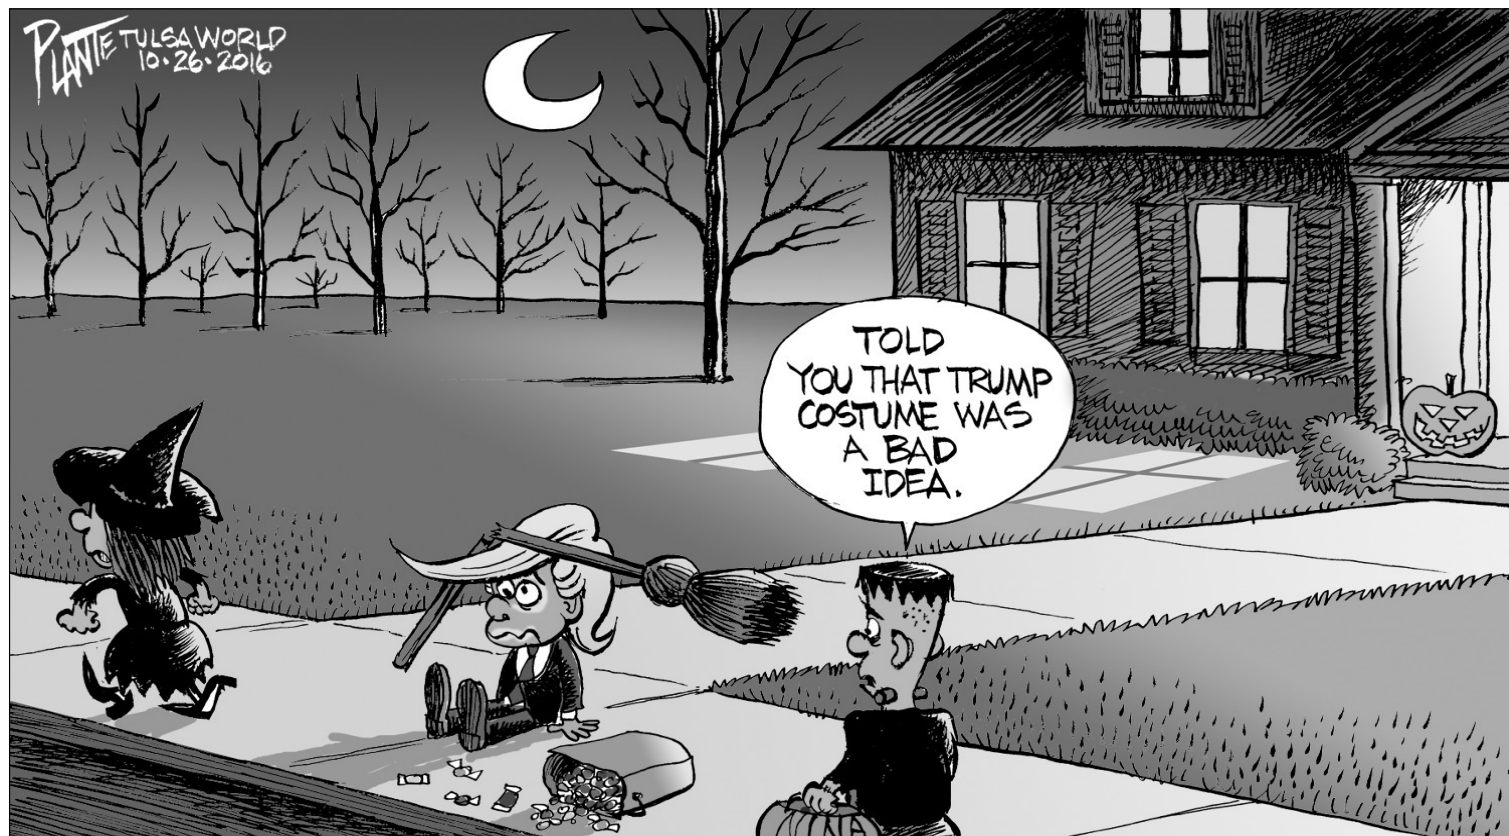

Mr. Paul Pinson would come by from time to time. He was one of the nicest men in our town. He didn't say much but he seemed to really enjoy our games. He complimented me on a play one day...I've never forgotten those kind words from a grownup.

I'm telling you, folks would have paid to see Glen Burns go deep into the hole at shortstop and make the long throw to first. They would have paid to watch John Ingram run down a long drive into the left center-field gap. They would have paid to hear Ricky Gene Stafford rattle on about his favorite Chicago Cubs' player, Tony Taylor.

Baseball is timeless. Maybe that's why these World Series ticket prices have reached such staggering heights. Folks are paying to see, to feel, to be a part of the rich heritage of the game. I think that is wonderful and I am proud for them. But I wouldn't pay six thousand dollars for a ticket to see any major league game that's ever been played!

I would, however, pay it in a heartbeat to sit up in those rickety bleachers between Mr. Jack and Paul Pinson and watch me and Don Simmons, Bobby Brewer, Buddy Wiggleton, Kenny Butler, Larry Ridinger and the rest of the guys suited up in our jeans and tee shirts...for just one more game down at the old field across from the Pajama Factory.

Respectfully,
Kes

Miss Daisy Cannot Be Driven!

I ran into a friend while I was shopping for groceries. I hadn't seen this old friend in quite some time, and I asked her what she was doing to stay busy. She, being some years older than me, has always been able to run circles around almost all of her peers. She's always had a garden, and loves to cook for her family. She was the one who admonished me when I fell and broke a bone, explaining the proper way to fall so as to not cause injury. "Don't try to stop your fall, just fall and roll," says this feisty lady.

She shared a challenging problem that just about got Miss Mary (names have been changed to protect the innocent) down. "You want to know what I did the other day?" she asked. "Daisy called and wanted me to take her to the bank. She knows I am allowed to drive to the bank, church, grocery store, and the discount store, and she takes full advantage of me giving her a ride, using my gas!" I commented that driving to the bank doesn't take a lot of gas, and she was doing her good deed for the day. "Oh but honey, that was just the beginning. And so driving Miss Daisy was the beginning of a journey that took up the better part of Miss Mary's day.

It took both Misses Mary and Daisy to assist each other to do the banking. Miss Daisy doesn't hear very well, and Miss Mary just wants to know whether there is going to be any gas money. After the better part of an hour, Miss Mary is ready to drive Daisy home. Oh no, Daisy wasn't ready to go home. "While we are out, I might as well get my prescription. "Mary, I'm tired - you'll have to go in to get it." Mary goes in only to find out that the prescription isn't ready. "So Daisy, I'll take you home now," stated a worn out woman.

Well, Daisy decided she was hungry, and my patient friend asked where she would like to eat. Of course, she chose one of the fast food joints - not on the list for permissible driving destinations. Lunch was eaten, and now Miss Mary can take Miss Daisy home. Nope, Daisy said she really needed to go to the grocery store and Miss Mary aimed to please. After an hour of getting food staples and snacks, Miss Mary was beyond tired, even tired enough to question her own sanity when it came to even knowing this woman!

By this time of day, Miss Mary's feet were hurting and she said she just knew she had driven her car up and down the four-lane enough to rub in some powder on Miss Mary's face. She scared Miss Mary half to death as she has to concentrate on her thirty mile per hour maximum speed. "Daisy, don't you ever do that again! You could cause me to wreck and kill us all!" yelled Mary. (There must have been more than two in the car, maybe a mouse??) Daisy innocently remarked that she was just trying to make Mary look better. That was enough to cause Miss Mary to use a word not normally a part of her vocabulary.

The day that began around nine o'clock in the morning, ended at three p.m. that afternoon. Exhausting? You and I couldn't keep that pace, especially trying to appease an acquaintance. Was the day over?? No, Miss Daisy called just as Miss Mary was taking off her shoes and reminded Miss Mary that she still didn't have her medicine and she had to have that medication to sleep. Well, that was the last straw! "Daisy, I ain't going to get that medicine! If anyone needs medicine, it's me! Good night!" And Miss Mary quietly hung up on Miss Daisy. Love you Miss Mary. You are a good Christian woman!

News from the Pews

By Clayburn Peeples

I ran across an interesting article last week in, of all places, USA Today, about the benefits of regular attendance at places of worship.

Not surprisingly, for people who do so, that is, who go to the place of worship of their choice, (which, for most people reading this column is church), is a win win situation.

Your minister or rabbi has told you that repeatedly, no doubt, but now it seems there is empirical evidence, scientifically arrived at, of the many benefits of regularly attending religious services.

For starters, researchers have found that regular church attendees, regardless of where they go, are 20 to 30% less likely to die over the next 15 years. Think about that.

People who spend time in a pew each week are less likely to be depressed, they have lower rates of suicide and they have more self-control than others.

Their marriages are more stable, and they report having more friends. They are more likely than others to do volunteer work, and their charitable gifts, even outside their denominations, are greater than other people's are.

For young people, the benefits of being actively involved with a religion are profound. Those who attend religious services regularly are less likely to smoke and to use drugs or alcohol. They're less likely to drive while drunk.

They are also less likely to carry weapons or get into fist fights or engage in inappropriate sexual behavior. They have lower mortality rates for all causes and longer life expectancy. One reason for that may be that they eat more fruits, vegetables, and eat breakfast more frequently than their non-churchgoing fellow teenagers.

They have larger social networks from which to draw than other kids do, and, perhaps because of their church experiences, they report stronger feelings of support from across all of their social circles, some of which include adults.

Which brings up another benefit of church for children. One of the serious problems of our age is that, frighteningly, young people, more and more, get nearly all of their advice and learn nearly all of life's lessons from each other.

For many young people, their place of worship is the only place they go that cuts across life's entire course. Nowhere else do they get a chance to interact with people of all ages.

Furthermore, here's something else that's interesting. Devout people, of all ages and all faiths, far from being considered Geeks or freaks by the rest of the population, are actually more admired than other people. Many studies have been done confirming this.

Just simply wearing a cross will make a person more trusted, by both believers and nonbelievers. Everybody, generally speaking, finds sincerely religious people to be personally trustworthy.

Even in this age when belief in God is plummeting, especially among young people, (One out of three young Americans under 30 say they have no religion at all.) people still perceive signs that another person is serious concerning his or her faith as indications of that person's dependability.

If you are a member of a faith, for example, that practices the wearing of ashes on Ash Wednesday, you may feel awkward going out in public doing so, and many wash their ashes off at the church door, but those who don't encounter almost nothing but positive reactions. The same thing happens when Jews fast on Yom Kippur. People who see you making sacrifices for your faith, even small ones, think better of you.

They perceive you as being more dependable and honorable. And that's not just my opinion; many studies have shown that.

Still other studies show similar effects for Muslims and Hindus as they practice their faiths as well. People who take their personal faith seriously are taken seriously by other people. They are more likely to get cooperation and to be chosen for leadership positions.

And here's something extremely important; the bonds of trust formed by people such as those I've been describing create shared commitments that, as they expand, literally affect our national life, including our national economic life, as well. Religious beliefs and practices have important and far-reaching effects on a society's prosperity, and that has been empirically proven, over and over, as well.

We are bombarded daily as we approach November 8 about the importance of going out to vote. Do it for our country, we are told, if you won't do it for yourself.

Well here's something else you might consider doing for your country as well next week. Go to church.

Carroll County Library Lines

By Nikki Cunningham

The Library has been having a spooky good time during the past few weeks! We started things with a Halloween Candy-Safety Tot Time hosted by Katherine Lancaster with the Carroll County Health Department. Katherine read Monsters! written by Diane Namm to the children and talked about candy safety while they made little craft pumpkins. Then the Library visited McKenzie Middle School for their health fair and talked to 375 children about the library and brain health. This past Saturday, the Library hosted a Fang-tastic Story Hour. We had 11 children come and enjoy Halloween Night read by Youth Services Librarian, Kelli Bolen. All of our little ghouls got to paint pumpkins to take home with them; we had a costume contest and our winners received award certificates and children's books. Our winners were as follows: Most Creative - Vera Tippitt dressed as Goldilocks and the 3 bears, Best Matey - CJ Alexander as Jake from Jake and the Neverland Pirates, Spookiest - Nolan Tippitt as Darth Vader, Most Super - Bentlee Mercer as Supergirl, and Best Overall - Beckett McCaslin as Dracula.

The Library continued the fun at this past Wednesday's Halloween Tot Time. Twenty children visited the library to listen as Ms. Kelli read The Teeny Tiny Ghost by Kay Winters. All of the tots got to paint pumpkins and enjoyed witches brooms snacks made out of string cheese and pretzels.

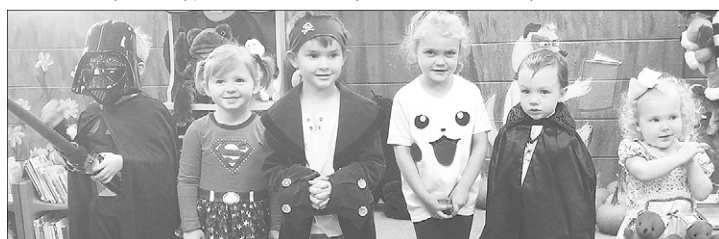

Circulation Librarian, Janet Welch, and volunteer, Whitney Branson, had fun hosting Bingo at Harmony Hill Thursday, October 27th. This is a monthly outreach service the Library enjoys doing for the residents at Harmony Hill.

Coming up Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. we have a Pirates! themed Tot Time for all children ages birth through pre-k. During our weekly tot time we enjoy a book, do a craft, and have snacks to promote early literacy among children and families.

Our next Teen Night is Monday November 7th at 6:45 p.m. We are having presidential debates among our TAB members and hosting a mock election. All high school aged teens are welcome to join us.

The Library appreciates Tony Welch for donating pumpkins for the children to paint and enjoy, Katherine Lancaster and the Carroll County Health Department for continuing to partner with the Library and hosting Tot Time once a month, and Mrs. Vera Shipp from McKenzie Middle School for allowing the Library to be a part of their first Health Fair.

Kiss The Donkey at Oak Manor

Oak Manor Nursing Home held a fund raiser to benefit breast cancer research. Residents and staff paid money to have someone kiss a donkey. Lola Warbritton, 96, (petting donkey) and Blondell Young, 95, (kissing the donkey) were good participants for the fun. Both are residents at Oak Manor.

The Gleason Woman's Club

By Julia Fowler

The Gleason Woman's Club met on October 25 at 12:30 p.m. in the First Baptist Church Fellowship Room for their October meeting. The hostesses were Pam Belew and Cheri Wharton (Betty Esch's daughter). Belew welcomed everyone and gave the blessing of the food.

A delicious luncheon plate consisting of ham and cheese on Hawaiian rolls, tossed fruit and green salad with assorted dressings and crackers was served. Homemade orange cake with fluffy frosting was the dessert.

The scripture "A Time for All Seasons" from Ecclesiastes Chapter 3 was the devotional. President Belew called the meeting to order and opened by reading the minutes of the September meeting. After approval, Treasurer Peggy Floyd gave the treasurer's report with no corrections or additions. Ann Jonak and Joyce Wray were recognized as having birthdays in October.

In old business, the club was informed about the backpack filling for schools at the Dresden Baptist Church on the first Tuesday in November at 12:30 p.m. Members are encourage but not required to help.

Julia Fowler reported that she had not found a new secretary but she had not talked to Patty Tilley, and since she had kept the September minutes, maybe she would accept the position.

The club decided on Tom's

Steak House in Paris for the location of the Thanksgiving meeting. A time will be scheduled at a later point. For December, a potluck luncheon is December 15th at the First Baptist Church in Gleason. The door prizes were won by Ruth Townsend and Genie Dilday.

The meeting was adjourned by reciting The Collect in unison. Members present were: Mary Margaret Beasley, Judy Belew, Pam Belew, Peggy Floyd, Julia Fowler, Genie Dilday, Ann Jonak, Ann Phelps, Rubye Snider, Ann Stewart, Ruth Townsend and Joyce Wray. The visitor was Becky Lowrance.

The absent members were: Peggy Stewart, Patty Tilley and Harriet Wilson.

McKenzie Garden Club News

The McKenzie Garden club met for its regular meeting on October 28 at Lakeside Retirement Home with Vice-President Myra Sasser presiding. The meeting began with a short but poignant devotional given by Martha Sue Peters. Martha chose a message from Joel Osteen sharing the idea that rather than praying for grace to control our situation, we'd be better off praying for grace to control our reaction to our situation. She ended with a short prayer.

Due to time constraints of some of the members, the order of agenda was modified. After members answered the roll call with the Spice of Life, treasurer Cynthia Summers gave the financial report.

Martha Sue then introduced her guest for the program, Mr. Tommy Bobo, who began by stating that the whole earth is our garden from which we receive food to eat, materials for our clothes and our houses. He then spoke of his three favorite things to harvest: Tomatoes. Mr. Bobo spoke of the long time struggle in classifying this plant, even to the involvement of the Supreme Court. Horticulturalists named it a vegetable, botanists a fruit, and the scientific classification labels it a berry. The earliest origin found for tomatoes is Peru, but they were introduced to the US and Canada by European immigrants, and were for a long time thought to be poisonous. Grown as an annual, tomatoes are actually perennial. Twelve million tons of tomatoes are consumed annually. 7500 varieties of tomatoes have been recorded, with 600 varieties being heirlooms and the rest hybrids.

Black walnuts are Mr. Bobo's second favorite thing to harvest. He harvests 150 gallons annually. After removing the green husks, he has 40 gallons, which he dries three days in his greenhouse. His end product is 3 gallons of walnut meats.

Mushrooms were his last topic. There are over 700 species, and he has found most of the varieties in Alaska. They fall into the categories of edible, toxic and deadly (these include Death Cap and Destroying Angel).

Following the program, the minutes from the September meeting were read and approved. In committee reports, Myra thanked those who came to the Triangle Park to help clean and decorate.

With no old or new business to discuss, the meeting was concluded with the reading of the Collect. Members then enjoyed delicious sandwiches and cupcakes provided by hostesses Donna Herron and Susan Lawrence.

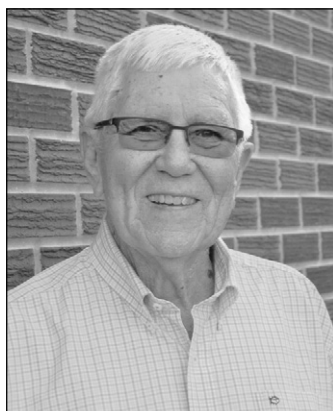

Connell Seeks Gleason Mayor Seat

Jerry Connell is seeking election to the office of mayor in Gleason. Connell is a life-long resident of Gleason, where he currently serves as vice mayor and fire chief. Jerry believes that the only way to a better future is for everyone to work together. This philosophy has been how he has led the Gleason Fire Department for 16 years. It has been a philosophy that has paid off, with $400,000 in grants for updated equipment for the fire department since 2009 and current plans for an addition to the fire station. Connell wants to expand that leadership to other departments in Gleason as mayor. He believes that same philosophy, "everyone working together" is the way a mayor should serve.

"I have seen what can happen when everyone works together over the years," says Connell. Jerry has served as alderman for 26 years in Gleason, and three terms as vice mayor. "I have worked hard for the three mayors I have served with as alderman." This year's election includes all new candidates for alderman except one. "With all my years as alderman and fire chief, I have a good idea of what needs to be done in Gleason and how to best achieve those changes. I am running this year because I believe that's the only way those changes can be accomplished. Our community needs improvements to its streets and some existing structures. The City Works Department does what it can, but needs updated equipment to make those improvements. The fire department has already laid the groundwork to obtain grants at the state and federal levels by conducting needs-assessment surveys. This information was integral in getting the most recent grant of $225,000 for improvements to city water and sewer treatment here in Gleason."

There's more work to be done, but Connell believes there are a lot of citizens willing to pitch in to do just that. One example is the work that has been done by the Gleason Downtown Revitalization Committee. They were key in getting clean up done around town, the disc golf course at Huggins Park and the Memorial Wall currently under construction at Mike Snider Park. So many people are already doing things to help. Our school has always been one of the most important and most vital parts of this small town. Civic groups including the Gazelles and Rotary Club sponsor many important activities in the community. Local businesses work together and provide much needed goods and services to our community. Like other small towns, we have seen limited growth in new businesses. Working together we can develop sustainable ideas for businesses that capitalize on our town's resources. It's time everyone comes together with a transparent, common agenda of making Gleason a better place to live, I ask you to consider voting for me on November 8th for Mayor of Gleason.

Boo Bash Attracts Record Number of Attendees

MCKENZIE (October 27) — Downtown McKenzie was filled to capacity as young trunk or treaters visited candy-filled trunks of Bethel University students and local organizations that were lined along Broadway Street. The Boo Bash grows in popularity each year, attracting costumed youngsters and their adult chaperones. Bethel University and the City of McKenzie co-hosts the annual event. Bethel students, faculty, and staff handed out candy, registered contestants for the costume contests, acted as emcee for the event, and judged the costume contests. McKenzie city volunteers and employees hosted a cake walk, directed traffic, operated the haunted train, and sold concessions. Each year, the Boo Bash is a time for the students to freely give of their time and talents to

West Carroll Softball Benefit: Community Rallies for Morgan Fuller

By Ernie Smothers
smothers@mckenziebanner.com

ATWOOD (October 29) — On a warm, sun-drenched Saturday morning, West Carroll High School softball and baseball players joined with a large gathering of well-wishers for a benefit slow-pitch softball game to raise funds for Huntingdon High School senior and cancer survivor Morgan Fuller. Following his at-bat, West Carroll Baseball Coach Paul Acuff said, "A few weeks ago, members of the softball team approached me about doing an event for Morgan. Those young people were the ones that got the ball rolling on this event. They felt compelled to reach out to Morgan and her family and to help them during her on-going battle with cancer. The truth is-all of us here at West Carroll wanted to help the Fuller's. You can tell by the turnout today that a lot of people feel the same way that we do." He said, "Our players, in addition to pre-selling tickets to the game, pre-sold over $400 in chicken and bean plates. We will combine the concession sales and donations that we receive today with pre-sale money and present it to the Fuller family, even if we have to go Nashville to do it." He concluded, "I am so proud of our kids and the West Carroll community for stepping forward to help Morgan. I sincerely ask that people continue to support Morgan and her family in prayer and in every way possible. We are fighting this fight with her."

A standout pitcher for the Filles, Fuller, the daughter of Jeff and Wanda Fuller of Huntingdon, was recently re-diagnosed with alveolar rhabdomyosarcoma after nearly a year of aggressive radiation and chemotherapy placed the disease in remission.

Morgan Fuller supporters enjoy the West Carroll Benefit Softball game.

Robinson Makes History (Again) As McKenzie Routs Halls, 59-20

Rebels Begin Playoffs Friday In Waverly

By Brad Sam
brad@mckenziebanner.com

HALLS (October 28) — The McKenzie Rebels have stormed their way into the playoffs with back-to-back dominant performances, and Eric Robinson has broken school records in back-to-back weeks.
The Rebels overpowered the Halls Tigers Friday night, 59-20, with a smart defensive plan and a senior runningback on a mission. Robinson torched Halls for a McKenzie single-game record of 297 rushing yards, extending the school's career record, which he set last week, to 4,373 yards.

The win secured the Rebels a spot in the playoffs. As the fourth seed in Region 6-2A, they'll go on the road to face the 5-2A champion Waverly Tigers on Friday at 7 p.m.
Halls received the opening kickoff, but went three-and-out on two incomplete passes by quarterback Anton Bennett and a one-yard run by Tyler Barnes.
The Tiger punt set the Rebels up at their own 33. Robinson ran twice for a total of seven yards, then quarterback Zach Jarrett threw to Cameron Rawls for 20 yards. Robinson picked up four, then lost a yard. Jarrett threw incomplete on third down, but found Lucas Waddell on fourth for a 36-yard touchdown. Waddell then hit the PAT, and the Rebels led, 7-0, with 7:21 left in the first frame.
A line drive kick by Waddell put the Tigers at their own 25 to start the ensuing drive. Bennett threw incomplete, then was forced to scramble for no gain, taken down by Rebel Julius Owens. Bennett's third-down pass sailed incomplete, and Halls punted again.

Starting at the Tiger 39, Robinson ran for 12 and a first down, then gained just a pair on two more carries. Jarrett threw to Donavon Foley for a short gain to bring up fourth-and-six. Jarrett then found Rawls for a 24-yard touchdown. Waddell kicked again, and McKenzie led, 14-0.
A block in the back penalty during the ensuing kickoff return pinned Halls back inside the 10. Bennett kept on first down, but fumbled the ball. Rebel Jake Trevathan scooped it up and was tripped up at the 6. Robinson gained just a pair

Michael Arnhold, Clay Carver, Austin Avery, Corey Leavitt and Marvaughn McClerkin to limit West Tennessee's leading rusher and scorer Zayveon Johnson to 55 yards.

Defensively, Central was paced by the 11-tackle performance of linebacker Dalton Davis and the fierce stops by Chase Snider, Ryan Cole, Johnson and Isaiah Donald.

With the win, Huntingdon hosts Region 5A Trousdale County at Paul Ward Stadium this Friday night while #3-seed Central travels 176 miles east to battle the Gordonsville Tigers. Kickoff for both contests is 7:00 p.m.

At the conclusion of Senior Night festivities honoring Central players, cheerleaders, band members, managers and parents, the Tigers won the coin-toss and elected to receive.

Receiving Orry Hodo's opening boot at the Central 5, Isaiah Donald returned the ball to the Tiger 17 before being brought down by former Tiger teammate and Mustang senior Amarion Gordon. Taking the handoff right side, Elijah Boyd followed strong blocking to move the chains at the Tiger 33. On the ensuing play, Zayveon Johnson gained three yards before being tackled by Mustang linebacker Marvaughn McClerkin. Following a five-yard offside mark-off against Huntingdon, Johnson carried Huntingdon defenders eight yards for a first down at the Central 45. Following a pass incompleteness, Johnson took the pitch right side and was tackled for a loss of five by linebacker Kade Pearson.

Tiger quarterback completed a five-yard pass to Zane Mebane before Boyd's punt on fourth and five was fielded by Dylan Johnson at the Huntingdon 28 and returned across midfield to the Central 42.

Rushing right side behind his unbalanced line, Johnson gained three yards before being brought down by Chase Snider. Following an escort of lineman rightside, Johnson raced for a 16-yard gain before being brought down by Isaiah Donald. Dodson netted a three-yard gain before Johnson followed the Mustang "student body" blocking wedge for a gain of 13 to the Tiger 12. Pearson battled for a gain of four before Johnson darted right side to score from 8 yards out and added the two-point conversion as the Mustangs led Central at the 6:26 mark of the first quarter, 8-0.

Despite a tackle-breaking, first down rush by Johnson, strong tackles by Michael Arnhold and McClerkin forced Central to punt as Boyd's spiraling kick rolled out of bounds at the Huntingdon 47. Showcasing his mercurial speed, Johnson raced behind a wall of blockers across midfield before being chased down by Donald at the Tiger 3. Pearson battled inside to the 1 before Johnson scored right side. Orry Hodo's PAT boot was good as Huntingdon increased its lead over the Tigers at the 3:45 mark of the first frame, 15-0.

Unable to establish its passing attack via the relentless pressure of Huntingdon's defensive front four, the Tigers punted on fourth and 15 as Zane Mebane downed Boyd's boot at the Tiger 43.

Under heavy pressure by Ryan Cole and Dalton Davis, Pearson fired an incompleteness right side. On the next snap, Johnson's rush to the CHS 25 was negated by a hold with the ball being moved back to the Huntingdon 43. Dodson was tackled by Davis after a gain of five before Johnson was dropped in the backfield by Donald for a loss of three. At the end of the play, a Huntingdon player was ejected from the contest by way of personal foul as the ball was moved back to the HHS 26. Tyrese Mebane's punt on fourth and long was fielded by Boyd who was brought down by Joseph Richardson at the Tiger 40.

Running hard, Central's Johnson carried Mustangs across midfield for a first down at the Huntingdon 49 before Corey Leavitt tackled the power back for a loss of two. As tempers boiled over, Central and Huntingdon were assessed offsetting personal fouls. Following a deep pass incompleteness, Boyd's 33-yard punt was downed at the HHS 18 as time expired in the first frame with the Mustangs leading the Tigers, 15-0.

Continuing to excel, Johnson rambled for a first down at the 25 before Dodson moved the chains via counter at the 45. Johnson sped right side for another first down before gaining 16 yards down to the Central 20. Pearson plowed up the middle for a gain of five before Johnson netted a first-and-goal at the Tiger 5. On the next play, Dodson fumbled upon impact with a Tiger defender as Central recovered the pigskin in the endzone for a touchback.

Proving his mettle, Johnson sent a Mustang player's helmet skyward as he bulled for a first down at the CHS 33 and followed with six-yard tote to the 39. Pearson stopped Johnson for a gain of one and subsequent Tiger pass attempts failed as the promising drive stalled as Boyd punt was returned to the Central 20 by Dodson. The run, however, was negated and possession was returned to Central due to Huntingdon being flagged prior to the punt for having too many players on the field.

Gambling on fourth and 2, Central drew Huntingdon defenders offside to earn a fresh set of downs at the HHS 46. Davis then overthrew a wide-open Lawson Boyd at the Mustang 23. Johnson netted gains of 5 and 1 yard to bring up fourth and four. Gambling, Central went for it as Johnson came up one yard short and the ball was turned over on downs at the 5:45 mark of the second quarter.

Johnson raced 18 yards for a first down at the CHS before being drilled in the backfield by Dalton Davis for a loss of four. Huntingdon was again flagged for a personal foul as the ball was moved back to the HHS 41. Taking the deep snap, Pearson fired a pinpoint, 34-yard strike to Mebane and Johnson fought to the 31 to bring up fourth and three. At the 3:02 mark of the second stanza, Huntingdon went for it as Johnson galloped 31 yards to paydirt. Johnson added the two-point conversion as Huntingdon grew its lead over Central, 23-0.

Johnson fielded Hodo's kickoff at the Tiger 6 and raced to the 30 before fumbling as Avery pounced on the loose pigskin.

Reacting quickly, Johnson raced for a gain of eight before netting a first down at the CHS 13. With 1:10 remaining in the first half, Johnson scored right side on the 2 and added the two-point conversion as the Mustangs led the Tigers at the half, 31-0.

Resuming play in the second half, Huntingdon's Mebane returned Jacob Ervin's kickoff boot to the Tiger 48. Johnson then powered right side to the 33 and added a five-yard burst to the 28. At the 10:21 mark of the third frame, Dodson took the counter and weaved through Tiger defenders to paydirt. Wynn blocked the PAT attempt as Huntingdon widened its lead to 37-0.

Down but determined, Central's Mebane recovered a Dodson punt return fumble and raced to the HHS 4 before being chased down by Huntingdon's Mebane. The Tigers hurt their chances to score on the next play via offside infraction as key stops by Leavitt, Bryce Johnson, and Avery forced Central to attempt a field goal. Ervin's kick, however, narrowly missed as the Tigers came up empty.

Huntingdon scored its final points on its next offensive series as Johnson erupted 61 yards to score. Hodo's Pat was no good as Huntingdon switched to reserves for the remainder of the contest before celebrating its decisive 43-0 win over the Tigers.

followed by Christopher Shear with six and Patrick Becker with five.

Offensively for West Carroll, Jeremiah Bryant gained 91 yards rushing as Becker had five carries for 31 yards and Tristen Fuller rushed for 78 yards in 21 carries. South Fulton carried the ball 39 times gaining 399 yards. Kody Davidson was the leading rusher for the Red Devils with 20 carries for 218 yards.

The War Eagles received the opening kickoff but went three-and-out on the series. Becker punted away the possession. Starting at the opposing 40 yard line, South Fulton moved the pigskin down the field ending with a touchdown. Kody Davidson scored from four yards out, and T.J. George added the PAT. With 8:22 remaining in the first quarter, the Red Devils led 7-0.

West Carroll responded with a touchdown. The War Eagles picked up three consecutive first downs. Bryant crossed the goal line only to have the TD negated by a holding penalty. Battling back against the penalty, Tristen Fuller fought his way into the end zone adding six points. The two-point conversion failed as West Carroll trailed 7-6 with 2:49 on the clock in the first quarter.

South Fulton was able to capitalize off a series of missed tackles and an offside penalty. From 25 yards out, the Red Devil's Davidson scored his second TD of the night. The PAT put the score at 14-6 in the final minutes of the first quarter.

After a 23-yard punt from the War Eagles, South Fulton chipped away from mid-field towards the end zone. Jalen Scott found pay dirt on fourth-and-goal from the one. George's PAT was good as the Red Devils were up 21-6.

Penalties and an injury to Peyton Lindsey stalled a six-minute drive by West Carroll. After turning the ball over on downs, the War Eagles left South Fulton at their 31 yard line.

Long yardage and the West Carroll defense could not stop the Red Devils. After a string of first downs, Hayden Kelly crossed the goal line on third-and-goal from the two. With another successful PAT, South Fulton led 28-6.

West Carroll was unable to score in final minutes of the opening half.

The second half opened with Shear intercepting Kelly. South Fulton donated five yards with an offside penalty on fourth-and-three. With a fresh set of downs, Bryant broke free for 58 yards. The two-point conversion was good with a pass from Bryant to Becker as the War Eagles trailed 28-14.

The Red Devils needed just a hand full of plays before Davidson scored his third TD. With the PAT and a little over a minute to play in the third quarter, South Fulton led 35-14.

At the 7:19 mark of the fourth quarter, Gevin Courtney was in the end zone for the Red Devils. George's PAT was successful as their lead increased 42-14.

As the final minutes clicked away on the clock, West Carroll marched down the field. Tristen Fuller pushed through the red zone into the end zone. The conversion failed as the score clicked to 42-20.

With one minute remaining, South Fulton score from 40 yards out. Davidson was the man with the football for this fourth TD of the night. A George PAT capped the score at 49-20.

Regardless of the score, the (1-9) West Carroll War Eagles put up a gallant effort against the (5-5) South Fulton Red Devils.

The football season has come to a close at West Carroll. For the senior class, it was season of memories with its fair share of heart ache, but the game was designed to have a winner and a loser. For the underclassmen, it was season to grow and build skillsets.

Grantland Rice was quoted as saying, "It's not whether you win or lose, it's how you play the game." The War Eagles played hard all season with integrity instilled into them by the coaching staff, and that counts for a lot in the game of life.

team finished at 32-10. The only senior on the squad this year was Natalie McCaleb. Although we are definitely going to miss her next season, a bright spot to all of this is that everyone else is returning."

He said, "The boys' top four was comprised of juniors Anders Rider and Will Jones and sophomores Ben Austin and Will McBride. All four improved their averages from last season. Anders led the team in overall average of 39.6. He scored twice under-par at 34. Will's and Ben's averages were 43.3 and 43.4 respectively. McBride improved by seven strokes.

He added, "I am also proud of our freshmen golfers. Sophomore Luke Bennett played his first year of golf, and was joined by freshmen Alex Davis and Brayden Lifsey. Our newcomers gained a lot of experience and improved as the season progressed."

Smith said that boys' team was the only 1A team to advance from district to regional play.

Regarding the girl's team, Smith said, "Senior Natalie McCaleb and sophomore's Mallory Cole and Julie French were returning players from last year, so I knew what to expect from them.

He said, "I want to brag on Natalie a bit. She represented our school with class and conducted herself with a demeanor that you look for as a coach. I am very proud of her. She medaled one match with a score of 46 and improved her overall game by eight strokes per round."

Smith noted that French led the girls' team in average with 48 with a low-match score of 43. She missed advancing to state play by two strokes and improved her game by seven strokes. Cole improved her game by five strokes and posted a low-match score of 46.

He continued, "Golf is kind of a lonely game, because it is really about you playing against you. Natalie, Mallory and Julie put in the time practicing on their own, and their improved scores reflected their effort. The girls missed going to the region as a team by only two strokes, but all of them qualified individually for region play.

Smith said that, due to TS-SAA reclassification, the public school groupings of A-AA and AAA has been replaced by one classification that is split in half via school enrollment.

He said, "In the past MHS golf competed with schools much larger than us in regional play. Those larger schools have been bumped up to the higher enrollment bracket, allowing us to compete on a more-balanced playing field. Also, McKenzie Middle School has started a Golf program, which will definitely the high school team in the future."

He concluded, "I am very proud of the success our teams experienced this year and excited about next season. It's going to be a lot of fun."

on two tries, but scored from four yards out on the third. Waddell's PAT gave McKenzie a 21-0 advantage with three minutes still remaining in the first.

Halls went three-and-out again as Bennett couldn't find an open receiver and was brought down for a loss on each snap.

The Rebels began at their own 40 after the punt. Robinson broke out for 48 yards on first down, then picked up nine before his second four-yard touchdown on the next snap. Waddell split the uprights again, and McKenzie led, 28-0, with a few seconds left in the first quarter.

Tiger Ma-ki Jolia picked up the ensuing kickoff near the 20 and returned it to the 31. A false start cost Halls five yards, then Bennett threw to Chris Hall for ten yards. Next, the quarterback finally got the ball to speedster Tyrese Johnson for a 64-yard touchdown. Bennett's two-point pass attempt was dropped in the end zone, and the Rebel lead was cut to 28-6 ten seconds into the second frame.

McKenzie started at the 35 with a short run by Robinson. Jarrett then passed to Foley close to the first down marker. On third and short, a direct snap to Joseph Miller was fumbled and picked up by Johnson for a 43-yard touchdown return. Bennett snuck across for the two-point conversion, and Halls quickly cut the deficit to 28-14.

The Rebels began again at the 35, Jarrett throwing a quick pass to Tyler Spivey for nine yards. Robinson gained more than enough to pick up the first down, and a Halls personal foul pushed the ball up to the 26. Robinson carried twice for short gains, then moved the chains into the red zone. Two more short gains preceded a ten-yard touchdown run, but McKenzie was called for holding to wipe off the points. Jarrett threw to Spivey, who reeled in the ball, but just outside the end zone. Waddell kicked a 31-yard field goal to extend the Rebel lead to 31-14.

Halls started at the 32 with a screen pass for a first down. After an incomplete pass, Bennett threw a lateral to Johnson, hoping to bypass the excellent pass coverage of McKenzie, but the defense denied the Tiger playmaker more than a short gain. Bennett then went to the second-option Hall, but the pass was incomplete, and Halls punted to the Rebel 30.

Jarrett's screen to Foley earned nine yards, then Robinson moved the chains with seven. He took three more handoffs to move the ball well into Halls territory, then Jarrett tossed to Spivey for another first down. Robinson capitalized on a great block by Bransen McCaleb, heading 29 yards to paydirt. Waddell's solid boot opened up a 38-14 lead for McKenzie with 2:27 left until halftime.

Johnson returned the kickoff to give Halls better starting position at the 35. Bennett was sacked for a loss of eight by Owens, then threw to Josh Harris for a decent gain. A quick pass to Johnson led to a huge gain to the Rebel 30, but Waddell saved the touchdown. Rebel Paul Watkins defended Bennett's pass well on first, but on second down he found Johnson for five yards. Harris caught a pass in the backfield and was dropped for a loss of three by Miller. On fourth-and-eight, Owens picked up another sack of Bennett.

The Rebels received the second-half kickoff and were flagged on first down for an off-side infraction. Robinson was stifled twice, but Jarrett threw to Waddell on third down for a 30-yard gain. The next pass fell incomplete, then Robinson was stopped short again. Jarrett tossed to Robinson next, but the Rebels punted for the first time on the night. Michael Floyd's kick was picked up at the 4 by Johnson looking for space, but Lorenzo Haynes was right there for the tackle.

Watkins disrupted Bennett's first throw, but Johnson caught the next near the line of scrimmage. He nearly escaped for a long touchdown, but Floyd made a huge stop after just seven yards. Bennett threw next to Harris, who picked up 54 yards. Trevathan sacked a scrambling Bennett for a loss of five, then Floyd led a host of Rebels in stuffing Johnson after a catch in the backfield. Bennett's third-and-long throw was incomplete, and Halls punted to Spivey at the 19.

Robinson took the first-down handoff 81 yards to the house. Waddell stayed perfect on PATs, and McKenzie led, 45-14, with 5:48 left in the third quarter.

Halls began the next drive at the 29. Bennett went straight with Johnson for a 71-yard touchdown pass. Haynes sacked Bennett on the two-point attempt, and the Rebels still led, 45-20.

A pair of costly penalties doomed the next Rebel drive to a three-and-out, but sacks by Trevathan and Owens forced Halls to punt as well.

Robinson's final carry moved the ball 23 yards into Halls territory. Miller then took over the running duties, picking up 15 on two carries before the third frame came to an end. Miller carried four times to start the final quarter, finishing the drive with a three-yard score. Waddell's trusty foot made it a 52-20 advantage.

Starting at the 29, Bennett's good pass to Jolia was broken up by Watkins, but the QB found Hall for a first down. Trevathan met Bennett at the line of scrimmage on a keeper, then took down Johnson for a loss, aided by Deaaron Diggs on the latter. Bennett's third-down pass to Johnson was batted away by Miller, and Halls punted.

Miller picked up five on first down, then Bryston Diggs picked up enough to move the chains. Diggs ran three more times, and McKenzie punted.

Halls took over near midfield, but a holding penalty negated a first-down pass to Johnson and set the Tigers back deep. Bennett dropped back and had the ball stripped by Rebel Zach Lasher.

Bryston Diggs took a handoff from the Tiger 14 to paydirt on the first snap. Waddell finished his pristine night with a kick to make the Rebel advantage 59-20 with less than five minutes remaining in the contest.

Bennett couldn't connect with a receiver on four tries, and Diggs took a couple of handoffs before time expired for a 59-20 McKenzie victory.

The Rebels nearly doubled the Tigers in total yardage, 502-266. Halls won the passing game with 299 yards to McKenzie's 147, but the Rebels out-rushed the Tigers, 355 to -33.

Rebel quarterback Zach Jarrett was 12 of 16 passing for 147 yards and two touchdowns. He targeted Lucas Waddell three times for 78 yards and a touchdown. Cameron Rawls had two catches for 44 yards and a touchdown.

Tiger quarterback Anton Bennett was 15 of 27 for 299 yards and a pair of touchdowns. He connected with Tyrese Johnson six times for 177 yards and both touchdowns. He passed to Chris Hall five times for 109 yards. Bennett also had nine carries for -32 yards.

Rebel Eric Robinson had 30 carries for 297 yards and four touchdowns. Joseph Miller rushed eight times for 36 yards and a touchdown, while Bryston Diggs ran eight times for 22 yards and a touchdown.

McKenzie was led defensively by Julius Owens with eight tackles, including four sacks. Lorenzo Haynes had six take-downs, including a sack. Jake Trevathan had a pair of sacks, and Joseph Miller, Deaaron Diggs, and Michael Floyd each had three tackles.

Halls defenders Morgan Cates and Jerry Stover had seven tackles each. Anton Bennett had five, and Tyrese Johnson and Dalton Jackson had four each.

In the boy's contest, West Carroll, paced by the outside scoring Desmond Bates (15) and inside production of Josh Clark (13) rallied from a 13-8 first quarter deficit to roll to a 40-22 win over the Rebels. Cats Lose Heartbreaker Falling In Two Overtimes to Cumberland

MCKENZIE — Fighting back from a 41-24 deficit entering the fourth quarter the Bethel Wildcats staged a furious comeback to take a 48-41 lead late in regulation only to see the Cumberland University Phoenix tie the game at 48 in the last minute and go on to beat the Wildcats in two overtimes 62-55.

After a nine-yard punt, Bethel moved 29 yards on just five plays, with Tave Davis converting a fourth down run and then going in from five yards out for a quick 7-0 Wildcats lead. The score came at the 12: 08 mark of the first quarter.

The Phoenix answered as CU signal caller Justin Snyder hit Michael Green on a 34-yard pass play which put the Phoenix in scoring position. A few plays later Kris Parker lunged in from one-yard out, knotting the game at seven.

Bethel's Quincy Walden returned the ensuing kickoff 79 yards for a touchdown to give Bethel a 14-7 advantage. He finished with 320 all-purpose yards in the contest. He entered the game second in the nation in that category.

Snyder tied the game with an eight yard rushing effort at the 5:00 minute mark. It would be the first of three rushing touchdowns for the CU quarterback. He also finished with three touchdown passes.

After the Phoenix jumped out to a 27-14 lead Bethel quarterback Kerry Sellers II connected with Walden on a 25-yard pass play to pull Bethel to within 27-21 with four minutes left in the first half. Cumberland would tack on another score however and lead at halftime 34-21. Bethel's Casey Kammerzell missed on a 46-yard field goal attempt on the last play of the half.

The Cats struck first in the second half on a 32-yard field by Kammerzell. CU went ahead 41-24 as Snyder hit Green on a four yard pass to grab the 41-24 lead.

The Cats began their remarkable comeback with a rushing touchdown by Davis and a 46-yard pick six by Trey Von Brown. Another field goal by Kammerzell and the game was tied at 41 with 5: 48 left. Duane Elmore was credited with the break-up on the Brown interception return.

It appeared the Wildcats may have the game when Sellers scored with 1:47 left but CU used an eight-play 71-yard drive with Parker scoring to tie the contest with 24.8 seconds left.

Both teams traded touchdowns in the first OT, Snyder carrying the final two yards for the TD, and in the second extra period, the redshirt senior hit Kendall Johnson for an 18-yard score, his sixth total touchdown of the day. Bethel had grabbed the lead in the first OT with Davis scoring out of the Wildcat formation from three-yards out.

Trailing 62-55 Sellers scrambled and appeared to have Devante Jimenez open in the back of the end zone on a fourth and four pass but the ball fell off the hands of the Wildcat receiver and CU won 62-55.

Snyder finished 15-of-24 for 228 yards and three touchdowns while rushing 23 times for 118 yard. Austin Chaplin carried 21 times for 114 yards and one touchdown. Cumberland amassed 355 yards on the ground on 63 attempts.

Sellers II was 17-of-25 for 220 yards passing with one touchdown. He ran 70 yards on 15 carries. Davis rushed 19 times for 90 yards and three scores for the Wildcats.

Jeremy Johnson led the Wildcats with a game high 15 total tackles. Anthony Patrick followed with 13 while Gregory Hancock followed with eight total stops. CU had a 583-468 advantage in total yards.

Coach Chris Elliott said, "Football is a funny game, we worked our tails off to get back in the game after not playing well early and got in position to win and it just wasn't to be. It was frustrating to have them convert on some big plays and on several third down conversions I felt we left them off the hook. We also made some mistakes on offense and on special teams that hurt us." He added, "I told the kids after the game we are not done. We have two big games and we need to get back to work tomorrow. We have two big games against ranked teams and we expect to play well. We had great effort tonight and we will the next two weeks as well."

Bethel hits the road next Saturday traveling to Columbia, Kentucky to meet No. 10 Lindsey Wilson. Kick-off is slated for 1:30 p.m.

West Carroll Jr, Sr High Holds History Fair

Eighth grade students at West Carroll Jr/Sr High recently participated in the school's first History Fair.

For this project, History teacher Ms. Susan Barrow provided a history topic that not only related to state standards but also related to current events that needed more in-depth research than class time usually allowed. English teacher Mr. Ronnie Cox helped students practice reading informational text and applying that text to current events, and library media specialist Ms. Susan Davis showed them the keys to easy research, organizing large amounts of information, and how not to plagiarize, in order to compose a unique research paper and visual project.

Students chose one of the three branches of government, compared and contrasted the state and federal levels of this branch, worked in pairs in history class in order to create a visual project that explained their findings, and worked independently in English class to write a research paper that explained the results of their research.

This project was executed at the present time to run consecutively with state and federal electoral races. Students became familiar with what the responsibilities of our country's three branches of government and how our elections are used to place citizens in leadership positions for each branch.

The project's intent was to help students see the importance of our system of checks and balances and to understand that as American citizens, we have the freedom but also the responsibility to make wise decisions regarding our governmental leaders.

Special thanks are expressed to John Norwood from Bethel University for judging the visual projects. Mr. Norwood is the professor of the dual enrollment history class that is offered this semester to qualifying juniors or seniors wanting to earn college credit simultaneously with their high school credit.

Tickets for Bethel University Twinkle Ball on Sale beginning November 2

McKENZIE — Tickets for Bethel University's Fifth Annual Twinkle Ball go on sale this week beginning Wednesday, Nov. 2. The Twinkle Ball is Wednesday, Nov. 30 from 6 to 8 p.m. in the Baker Fieldhouse Gymnasium on Bethel's McKenzie campus.

The Twinkle Ball gives young girls and their mothers (or someone who is motherly to them) the chance to dress up and celebrate the magic of the holiday season in the girliest ways imaginable. This year's theme is "Twinkle Has Visions of Sugarplums" with most activities centered around things associated with the Christmas ballet, "The Nutcracker."

"We are so excited to be hosting this event for our fifth year" said Myra Carlock, one of the coordinators of the event. "It truly is a special evening that our girls and mothers look forward to."

"It really started as an event to get people to the Bethel campus to see what we have to offer here, but it has turned into something that people begin asking about in late summer. They really can't wait to hear the theme and purchase their tickets."

Carlock said there are typically between 8 and 10 different stations where participants can make things that they take home with them.

Tickets are $25 for a mother/daughter. Mothers with more than one daughter can purchase additional tickets for $7 each. Tickets can be purchased at the Bethel University Bookstore. But they must be purchased in advance by Monday, Nov. 28. For more information about the Twinkle Ball, call 352-4094 or Myra Carlock at the Bethel Bookstore at 731-731-352-4090.

Carroll County Sheriff's Reports

Aggravated Assault — A Bruceton man was arrested October 27 after a domestic dispute. Deputy Ethan Parham charged Charles Woodrow Cochran, 70, of 2240 Hebron Church Road with aggravated assault. According to Parham's report, deputies responded to a domestic call at Cochran's address. Cochran's wife reported that he had been agitated all day, threatening to burn the house down with her in it. When she left the house, he also tried to run her over in his vehicle. Eventually, she hid in the barn and called 911. Cochran allegedly used a knife to flatten the tires on both of her vehicles before deputies arrived. Cochran was sweating and agitated when deputies tried to speak with him.

Theft and Vandalism — A warrant has been issued for the arrest of a McKenzie man. Deputy Carlton Cupples filed charges against Adrian Markell Nesbitt, 28, of 142 Park Circle for aggravated burglary, vandalism over $1,000, and theft under $10,000. According to Cupples' report, deputies received a report from Trinity Maynard of McKenzie that someone had broken into his shop and vandalized a vehicle belonging to Kevin Finch. A witness stated that he had observed Nesbitt and three others leaving the shop. A set of tires and wheels were also missing from the shop.

Burglary — Deputies are investigating a case of theft. Zachary Lee of Atwood reported to deputies that his ex-girlfriend, Misti Banks, had gone to his home October 25 to retrieve her belongings and while there had dumped baby powder, broken eggs, and smashed glass cologne bottles everywhere. After deputies took evidence at the scene and left, Lee's roommate reported to them again that between $4,000 and $5,000 worth of games and gaming consoles had been stolen. Banks told deputies she had returned to the home to clean up, and her brother was with her. Her brother made a statement that neither of them had taken the games.

Theft — Deputies are investigating a case of theft. Leige Hollingsworth of Huntingdon reported to deputies October 18 that someone had broken his truck window and stolen a handgun.

Harassment — Joseph Lukowski of Huntingdon reported to deputies that between March and October 2016 someone had called him 21 times without speaking.

Criminal simulation — According to a report filed by MPD Patrolman Frank McGee, on October 29 the officer received a call from dispatch concerning a counterfeit $10 bill that was given to a cashier at McDonald's. The McDonald's shift manager stated that her shift would cover the loss caused by the counterfeit bill.

Speeding / driving on suspended / revoked license — According to a report filed by MPD Patrolman Frank McGee, on October 28, the officer was running radar on Highway 124 East along Cedar Street when he observed a vehicle exceeding the speed limit. Upon stopping the vehicle, the officer discovered via computer check that the driver, identified as Brenton Pierre Davis, 24, Ajanders, Memphis, was driving on suspended license #1. Davis was then cited into Carroll County General Sessions Court for the listed offenses.

Aggravated assault / kidnapping / domestic assault — According to a report filed by MPD Sergeant Trey Boucher, on October 27 at approximately 11:13 p.m., a witness informed MPD that while at Park Street at 12:00 p.m. he saw Jerrod S. Williams, 25, Park Street, McKenzie allegedly grab Sara C. Bailey, 28, Bailey Street, McKenzie by the arm and forcibly pull her into the bedroom against her will and lock the door. Bailey reiterated the account to the officer and stated that she had been assaulted after Williams pulled her from her residence and carried her to a vehicle. She said that she locked the doors to keep him away, but he was able to reach through the opening on the passenger side door and gained entry into the vehicle and bit her on the left cheek before forcing her to go to Park Street where he slammed her against the kitchen counter causing impact to her back and head. Bailey said Williams punched her twice in the mouth bursting her lip before strangling her to the point she thought that she was going to pass out. Officers went to Park Street but could not find him. Charges were filed charges on him for the listed offenses.

Theft — According to a report filed by MPD Patrolman Billy King, the officer responded to a call at Best Western. Upon arrival, a witness stated that he had brought Paige Rodriguez, 33, McKenzie to the motel to stay with him on October 25 and discovered upon awakening the next morning that she had left with the Delta Land Leveling company truck. A friend later called the witness stating that Rodriguez had been arrested on a traffic stop in Desoto County, Mississippi in the 2006 Ford F-150 company truck. Upon confirming that Rodriguez was in custody and in possession of the stolen truck, she was charged with theft over $1,000 under $10,000.

Identity theft — According to a report filed by MPD Lieutenant Rick Sawyers, Jessica Ellen Martin, 35, Highway 22, McKenzie came to MPD to report that two unauthorized transactions had been made on her Regions Bank debit card and that someone had attempted to make several more unauthorized transactions but the bank deactivated the card before those transactions could be completed. The first unauthorized transaction for $117.65 was made on October 24 at a Walmart located on Winchester Road in Memphis. The second unauthorized transaction was made on October 24 at a Walmart located at West Poplar Avenue in Collierville. A third unauthorized attempt was made at the same Walmart but was declined due to discrepancies in activities. Martin said she had used the debit card at several locations between Milan and Memphis during a shopping trip on October 9. She suspected that someone, possibly a store employee, obtained Martin's debit card number from one of the businesses in the Memphis area.

Domestic assault — According to a report filed by MPD Sergeant Jeff Winberry, on October 25, the officer responded to a fight in progress and observed upon arrival screen door window busted out with glass shards everywhere. The defendant, identified as Teardrop L. Williams, 22, West End Avenue, McKenzie, admitted to breaking the window and causing cuts to her arms and elbows. Upon speaking to Williams and the victim, identified as Christopher Ryan Edmondson, 23, same address listed, the officer was told that the couple was arguing over money problems and the fact that the defendant's mother was at the residence. Strayhorn, 28, Spruce Street, McKenzie drive through the intersection. Having previous knowledge that Strayhorn's driver license was revoked, the officer called Sergeant Bailey and informed him that the vehicle was heading down Cedar Street beside McKenzie City Hall. After Bailey identified Strayhorn as the driver, the driver refused to pull over for about one half of a mile despite a short burst of sirens and lights activated on the patrol cruiser before finally coming to a stop on Spruce Street. After asking Strayhorn to exit the vehicle, the officer smelled a strong odor of intoxicating beverage on his breath. The officer placed Strayhorn under arrest and escorted him to McKenzie4 City Hall in order to perform field sobriety testing on him. Strayhorn was unsteady on his feet while performing the tests.

After charging the defendant with DUI, Strayhorn refused to take a blood alcohol test but later consented. After taking Strayhorn to McKenzie Regional Hospital for blood testing, the officer transported him to Carroll County Jail where he was charged with the listed offenses. Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

GENERAL

Huntingdon Presbyterian Church Celebrates 175 Years

Huntingdon's First Presbyterian Church is celebrating its 175th anniversary with a special worship service, Sunday, November 6th. The celebration service begins at 11 a.m. at the church, located at 19835 East Main Street. The worship service includes guest speakers Huntingdon Mayor Dale Kelley, Rev. Arthur Lodge, the current pastor, and former interim pastors Rev. James Humphreys, Dr. Ray Hollis, and the Rev. Dr. Jerry Jeffords.

Being All Saints' Sunday, there will be a litany of the Saints, as well as a celebration of Holy Communion, during the service. Organized in 1841, as a Cumberland Presbyterian Church through the efforts of the Rev. Robert Baker, First Presbyterian Church is traditionally considered to be the first formally organized church in the community, even though other churches are mentioned, prior to that time. Rev. Baker had moved his family to the McLemoresville area of Carroll County in 1825, and had been a member of the first General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. To put it in perspective, when First Presbyterian Church was organized, James K. Polk was the governor of Tennessee, and John Tyler had just recently become the first vice president to assume the presidency of the United States, following the death of President William Henry Harrison. Harrison had only been president for 32 days, when he died of complications from pneumonia.

McElhiney, Clifton to be Inducted in Tennessee Hall of Fame

NASHVILLE (November 1) — The Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame announced today the names of eleven inductees to be enshrined at its 51st Annual Induction Banquet on Saturday, June 3, 2017, at the Omni-Nashville Hotel.

Announced inductees include Gleason native Ashley McElhiney Ayers, Vanderbilt University Women's Basketball player and the 1st female coach of a male professional basketball team, Nashville Rhythm; Martin-Westview graduate Chad Clifton, University of Tennessee and Green Bay Packer Hall of Fame Offensive Lineman; Will Perdue, Vanderbilt University Basketball star and former 1st round NBA selection; Chantelle Anderson, Vanderbilt University Women's Basketball star and former 2nd overall pick of the 2003 WNBA Draft; Julius Chuck Meriwether, former Major League Baseball Umpire; Al Wilson, University of Tennessee All-American Linebacker and 1st Round selection of the 1999 NFL Draft. Additional inductees include Haskel Stanback, University of Tennessee and Atlanta Falcons Running Back; Candy Reynolds, Knoxville-born Professional Tennis player; Willie Gault, University of Tennessee All-American Wide Receiver and 1st Round selection of the 1983 NFL Draft. Rounding out the class are posthumous inductions for Graham Vowell, University of Tennessee's 1st All-American, and Burnis "Wild Bill" Wright, a Negro League All-Star and Mexican Baseball Hall of Fame member.

Tickets for the Induction Banquet can be purchased by calling Lynn Powell Toy at 615.202.3996 or lynnpowelltoy@gmail.com. The Sports Hall of Fame, which held its first Induction Banquet in 1966, has as its goal to enshrine successful teams and individuals who display sportsmanship, good character and success, creating a legacy for others to follow. The Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame Museum is housed inside the Bridgestone Arena in Nashville.

The Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, a 501-C3, pays tribute to all those who have made an impact through sports in Tennessee. The Hall subscribes to the principle that sports serve society's highest ideals by educating youth through sports. It promotes the virtues of competition, fair play, friendship, solidarity, mutual understanding and respect for human dignity. The best way to honor our sports legends is to pass this legacy down to future generations.

Two Step Forward, Honor Country with National Anthem

MCKENZIE — In a day and age some people choose not to pay respect to the American flag and national anthem, two student-athletes from different schools chose to do just the opposite Thursday night in McKenzie, Tennessee.

Jessyca Watson

It took place at the Bethel University volleyball match against Dalton State College in Bethel's Crisp Arena.

There was a malfunction with the playing of the National Anthem over the public address system. However, fans in attendance were treated to even a better version of the anthem than one just being played off a computer.

Bethel sophomore Jessyca Watson and Dalton State junior Ryan Burke simultaneously stepped up to press row and offered to sing the anthem. The two did just that to the delight of their teammates and those in attendance.

Bethel Sports Information Director Dave McCulley asked Watson about the reason she chose to sing the anthem. She replied, "I guess I volunteered because I feel it's important to remain grateful for the opportunities we have here, like sports and the schools which are so accessible in our country. I am also so grateful for all those who serve as officers and in our armed forces. The National Anthem is a great reminder of our freedoms and a great way to show our respect and thankfulness. Everyone has their freedom to do what they like but it's especially important for me to be an example to show there are still tons of people who respect our officers and armed forces past and present. I know there have been terrible decisions made by a few and I am sensitive to that but to those who do the right things I feel it is important to salute them."

Watson is from Gallatin, Tennessee and was homeschooled through Aaron Academy. Through a co-op opportunity she sang at United Christian Academy in Hartselle, Tennessee.

DSC's Burke is from Athens, Georgia.

The Bethel University Sports Information Department thanks both Jessyca and Ryan for the help and salutes both for their stand.

Bruceton, Huntingdon Lions Welcome District Governor

By Ernie Smothers
smothers@mckenziebanner.com

Lions District 12L Governor Lisa Vinson addresses attendees.

HUNTINGDON (October 25) — Members of the Huntingdon and Bruceton Lion Club and their spouses welcomed 12L District Governor Lisa Vinson to the club's joint meeting inside Mallard's Restaurant.

During welcoming remarks, Huntingdon Lions Club Treasurer Carl Byars thanked Bruceton Lions Club President Buddy Smothers for assisting in organizing the meeting.

Following invocation and Pledge of Allegiance, club members and guests dined on a delicious buffet meal.

At meal's conclusion, 12L District governor Vinson addressed attendees.

She began, "I am thankful to be here with you all tonight for this joint meeting. In your many years of existence, the Huntingdon and Bruceton Lions Clubs have created a tradition of service to their fellow man. I am proud of you all, and proud of all of the clubs in our district. We are growing numbers-wise and recently added our newest club, the Memphis Hamilton Eye Institute."

She continued, "Presently, we have 43 clubs in our district and our service area spans from river to river. We currently have 926 members with 1,200 as our goal. We are not politically motivated like some of our sister clubs across the river and that allows us to have greater potential to do more things service-wise. I would not change a thing about our district. We do what we do because we enjoy doing it for the good of others. I like who we are and am proud that we possess no alternative agendas. We attend to needs as they present themselves and believe in helping others simply because it is the right thing to do."

She concluded, "The Lions Club is the largest service organization in the world with 1.4 million members in 46 countries. Huntingdon and Bruceton are among 43 clubs in West Tennessee. The Lions Club was founded in 1917. One of our District 12L clubs, the Downtown Memphis Club, was one of ten founder clubs."

Byars said that the HLC was chartered on July 31, 1933 with 21 members. The club has met over the years at Hotel Carroll, Barnett's, Country Boy, Silver Grill, Darrell's, Venice's, BMH and currently at Mallard's.

In addition to providing free eyeglass exams, HLC has sold light bulbs, raffle tickets, brooms, gumballs, fruitcakes and music show tickets and have sponsored basketball tournaments, wrestling and donkey basketball, girl and boy scout troops, and even rented themselves out for jobs. At one time, HLC owned the Huntingdon Fairgrounds once located where the National Guard currently stands.

The club's new flag project has already sold 88 subscriptions.

glasses and eye exams, BLC has purchased equipment for softball and installed the first lights at Central High School football stadium.

He noted that the Bruceton and Huntingdon club went in together to purchase an eye-examination camera and regularly assist each other in performing eye examinations at schools and other area events.

Via money earned through its flag project, BLC provides 60 Christmas food baskets annually. The club also sponsors an annual Easter egg hunt and provides club scholarships.

Tickets on Sale for Humane Society Annual Banquet

Tickets are on sale for the Carroll County Humane Society's annual Banquet and Silent Auction. The event is Saturday, November 12 from 5:00-8:00 (please note the earlier time) at the McKenzie Cumberland Presbyterian Church on Highland Ave. Tickets are $25 each and are available for purchase at Huntingdon Animal Clinic, Wagging Tails Grooming, and at the CCHS building at 21822 Hwy 22 in McKenzie. Dinner is being provided by Keisha Hill and Church Street Catering from Waverly, TN and dessert by Carroll County cooking legend and CCHS founding member Patti Hill.

This event is CCHS' largest fundraiser of the year to help offset average yearly operating expenses of $150,000. CCHS is on pace to take in close to 1100 animals in 2016, but does not euthanize for time or space. People can also contribute to the organization as a sponsor as a Premiere Sponsor ($1000), Gold Sponsor ($500), Bronze ($250), or Donor ($100).

People can also sponsor a centerpiece for $10. CCHS' banquet centerpieces are always utilitarian and this year's pieces will be decorated tubs of Lysine for cats to help them stay healthy and avoid upper respiratory infections. There are 20 possible centerpieces available and any money raised in excess of those 20 will go towards the purchase of isolation cage bays for cats who need to stay in quarantine due to illness.

Local businesses and individuals are also encouraged to donate an item or service to the silent auction. Banquet guests really enjoy this portion of the event and are in the mood for some Christmas shopping while helping a worthy cause. Confirmed items in the auction so far are jewelry, pet novelty items including beds and bowls and blankets, Grand Ole Opry tickets, TPAC tickets, wine and coffee gift baskets, vintage pottery, handmade quilt, books, contemporary and vintage home décor items, contemporary crafts, and children's book baskets.

CCHS is also using the banquet to raise money to provide low cost spay-neuter services to area pet owners. There are several things being auctioned live to guests and all the money raised from these items will help jumpstart the dog low cost-spay neuter program and continue the feral TNR program and offer reduced fees to low income cat owners with the Martha Highfill Memorial Fund. Confirmed items for this auction are a custom pet portrait by Ada Dever of Animal Rescue Corp and custom artwork from local renowned metal artist Stephanie Dwyer from Paris TN. The money raised for dog spay/neuter is being dedicated to the memory of Donald Hill, CCHS founding member and long-time foster parent.

For more information to be a sponsor, auction donor, centerpiece donor, or group tickets, you can call CCHS at 352-9950, email at cchstn@gmail.com, or email Banquet chair Dr. Sarah Kidd at kidds@bethelu.edu. CCHS is a tax exempt non-profit that operates purely on donations.

Huntingdon Police Department Participates in All Lives Matter

On Sunday October 30, officers from the Huntingdon Police Department and Mayor Dale Kelley were honored as guests at Smyrna Baptist Church for an "All Lives Matter" summit. The event was coordinated by Ms. Marie Polk from the church. After being led in an opening prayer by Brother Lonnie Parker, everyone enjoyed delicious food that was prepared by the church members as they fellowshipped during the meal. The Smyrna Youth Group had prayers, read Bible passages and spoke.

A long question and answer session was conducted as members asked questions about what to do in a traffic stop and various things facing law enforcement today.

Mayor Dale Kelley made the closing remarks and the event closed by holding hands in a prayer circle with a closing prayer led by Brother Parker. Walter Smothers, Director of Public Safety said, "We are so humbled and honored to have been given this opportunity to meet with the church and for the love and respect shown to us. Representing Huntingdon Police Department were Mayor Dale Kelley, Director Walter Smothers, Commander Johnny Hill, Investigator Joey Hedge, Sergeant Rick Crossno and Patrolman Cody Walker."

Jackson Swing Orchestra Performs at Park Theatre Fundraiser also Features Local Art

McKENZIE (October 22) — ACT II and Carroll Arts recently hosted a fundraiser aimed at continuing the restoration of the Park Theatre.

Local artwork was on display at Connie's Place on Broadway, with hors d'oeuvres served. Then, the Jackson Swing Orchestra performed in the Park Theatre.

The orchestra is a 17-member community band under the direction of David Kyles, formed around 1995. The current lineup includes three charter members, one of which is MHS teacher Jeff Presson.

The group played an hour-long set, beginning with "I Feel Good" and closing with "Soul Man."

Over a dozen local artists were featured at Connie's Place. Photo by Brad Sam/The McKenzie Banner

Artists featured at Connie's Place were Wayne Bannister, Joy Olree, Julia Winters, Molly Summers, Doris Story, Debbie Broadbent, Linda Coleman, Gena Manner, Juanita Finley, Jason

Cole, Lois Pugh, Lloyd Bise, Beth Crocker, Kathy Sacks, and Nellie Horton.

Funds from this and other events will go toward restoration of the balcony.

Renaissance Celebrates 10 Years of Theatre

Bethel is celebrating its 175 anniversary of higher education and the Renaissance Theatre's 10th anniversary.

To celebrate 10 years of productions, Renaissance Theatre mixed performances from its previous productions: Oklahoma!, Beauty and the Beast, Fiddler on the Roof, Les Miserables, Myle Poppins, Bye, Bye Birdie, Urinetown, Once on This Island, Some Enchanted Evening, Carousel, A Christmas

Carol, Next to Normal, Hairspray, Peter Pan, and more.

Brian Hill, director, said the theatre at Bethel is like one big family: they laugh together, work together, and sometimes disagree, but they all are eager to improve the production and make it the best it can be. He said he works with assistant director, Aubrey Doyle to make the students better and to challenge them. Graduates of the program include professional performers, physician assistants, lawyers, teachers, ministers, managers of companies, and numerous other fields.

Renaissance has created a legacy by bringing creativity, passion, and new ideas to college theatre.

Alumni of the Theatre joined the performers on the final musical numbers during the Saturday performance for a passionate exhibition of a true love for performing.
