MCKENZIE (June 13) — During Thursday's regular monthly meeting, the McKenzie City Council approved on the first of two readings the fiscal year 2019-20 budget.

The budget includes the following property tax rates per $100 assessed value for the tri-county city: $1.0826 for Carroll County residents; $1.1116 for Henry County; and $1.0661 for Weakley County.

The General Fund is estimated to receive $4,710,587.92 in revenues and appropriate $4,636,380.90 in expenditures. The Drug Fund is expected to have $11,800 in revenues and $7,000 in expenditures.

The Water and Sewer Fund will receive an estimated $2,108,111.20 in revenues and spend $2,509,040.

The Debt Service Fund includes an estimated $306,936 in revenues and $282,231 in expenditures.

The Solid Waste Fund is estimated to receive $425,225 in revenues and appropriate $401,696 in expenditures.

The Theatre Fund expects revenues of $87,000 and expenditures of $84,850.

Notable in the budget is a sidewalk on Cedar Avenue from McKenzie Banking Company to Highland Drive, new playground equipment and "Harmony Park," which will be located near the splash pad and include outdoor musical instruments.

The budget also includes a $50 across-the-board raise for city employees. Police officers are not included as they recently received a separate raise.

In other business, the council approved the purchase of two sets of Wi-Fi modules for $132,394.80 as part of the LED lighting project.

Changes to the city's charter were ratified, mostly consisting of language clarification. One specific change allows for municipal fines to be increased above $50 if state law were to ever lift that cap.

Approved on second and final reading was an ordinance to strengthen rules already in place for conduct at the city park. A maximum fine of $50 per day may now be levied for violations of park rules, which include children age 14 and under being accompanied by adults, no pets (except service animals, and those must be appropriately restrained), no smoking or tobacco products of any kind outside of designated areas, no alcoholic beverages or illegal substances of any kind, and no fighting or aggressive behavior.

The board also approved a policy requiring citizens wishing to address the council to give 24 hours notice. Mayor Jill Holland said that this would give department heads or other appropriate parties time to prepare and gather information in order to properly answer the citizen's questions or concerns. Councilperson Jason Martin voted against the measure.

During the meeting's designated time for citizen input, Shirley Nanney complimented the city's seasonal landscape artist, Carol Morrissett, for her hard work caring for the plants around town. Nanney also credited the city for cleaning up a property near her home. The 30-minute meeting ended with a pair of happy announcements. Councilperson Brian Winston announced the birth of his second child, Owen Marshall Winston, with wife Allison on May 25. He weighed eight pounds, two ounces and was 21 and a half inches long. Councilperson Martin announced that he and wife Brittany are expecting their second child, a daughter, in November.

Recent Grad Escapes Injury

CEDAR GROVE — Levy Hays, a 2019 graduate of West Carroll High School, narrowly escaped serious injury while at a fueling station in Cedar Grove.

Hays was standing between the fuel pumps and his passenger car when a car exited the highway and struck his vehicle, narrowly missing Hays.

The oncoming car slammed into the front of his car and both vehicles came to rest well beyond the fuel pumps.

Hays sought refuge beside and behind the fuel pump and only sustained a bruise to his leg. He said his life flashed before his eyes.

Driving While Holding Phone is Prohibited

Many new laws will go into effect next month, while others will begin later this year and on January 1, 2020. Here's a look at a few of the new state laws slated to take effect from handheld phone use to online sports betting. Several of these laws are controversial and could face legal challenges.

The one that will affect the most people will be the handheld phone ban while driving. This law will prohibit drivers 18 and older from physically holding a cellphone with any part of the body while driving. This means you cannot talk on the phone unless you use a hands-free device.

Drivers could be fined up to $200. Younger drivers already are prohibited from using phones while driving.

On July 1, the Tennessee Sports Gaming Act will take effect allowing online sports gambling but continue to prohibit gambling in physical locations. The March Madness and Fantasy Football Freedom Act will also take effect. The regulation will legalize wagers on fantasy sports leagues and sports pools under certain circumstances.

A new death penalty appeals law goes into effect July 1. The Sergeant Daniel Baker Act is named for Dickson County Sheriff's Office Sgt. Daniel Baker, who was fatally shot in 2018. The new law would expedite the death penalty appeals process by sending death penalty cases to the Tennessee Supreme Court and removing a Court of Criminal Appeals step.

One new law which is part of an ongoing criminal justice reform effort will allow fees to be removed. When it takes effect, a $180 fee will be removed for individuals petitioning the court for expunging certain criminal offenses and remove a $350 fee for a defendant applying for expunging an offense after they complete a diversion program.

One of the controversial bills that could face legal action is Indecent exposure bill which redefines a "public place" to prohibit indecent exposure in restrooms, locker rooms, dressing rooms or showers designated for multi-person use.

Some critics have said the legislation targets transgender people. The bill was introduced around the same time as several others including a bill that would allow adoption agencies to deny same-sex couples and a bill that would prohibit gay marriage in the state.

Another controversial bill that may face legal issues is the school voucher bill which allows participating families to receive debit cards worth up to $7,300 in state education money each year and use it to attend private schools. It only applies to Shelby and Davidson Counties.

Other laws going into effect July 1 include a natural hairstyling law that removes the license requirement for "engaging in natural hair styling" as a job. Current laws define natural hair styling as hair techniques that cause tension in hair strands, including "twisting, wrapping, weaving, extending, locking or braiding of the hair by hand or mechanical appliances."

A new "Lemonade Stand" law stops a county or municipality from requiring a license, fee, permit or any other kind of regulation for a business that is solely operated by a person under 18, is located on private property with the owner's consent and grosses $3,000 or less in a year.

A new child abuse case law extends the statute of limitations on child sexual abuse cases, giving victims more time to pursue legal action. It also revises and tightens the penalties for persons who intentionally fail to report cases.

County Budget Committee Recommends Two-Percent Raise, Denies Sheriff's Request

HUNTINGDON (June 13) — Carroll County Budget Committee is advancing through the annual budget process with a goal of setting the tax rate and budget for the 2019-20 fiscal year during the August 12 meeting of the Carroll County Commission.

The Budget Committee is working to give all employees a two-percent raise over the current pay rate. Employees currently making less than $12 per hour will be advanced to that rate.

Sheriff Andy Dickson asked for a pay increase larger than the two percent for employees of his departments – the Sheriff's and Jail departments. During a Budget Committee meeting in May, Dickson requested pay raises totaling $125,000 for deputies, investigators, and salary supplements for the Sheriff's Department. Dickson additionally requested a raise of $1 per hour, or a total of $118,000 in raises for dispatchers, correctional officers, clerical, cafeteria, maintenance, part-time personnel, and overtime for the Jail. He also requested a fund to reward longevity of service to the department. That fund would come from any unused budgeted funds for his department. Dickson reminded the committee members that former Sheriff Bendell Bartholomew was successful in getting his department pay raises through Chancery Court.

During the June 13 meeting, the Budget Committee voted to grant all employees, regardless of department, a two-percent raise. They also denied the Sheriff's Department request for longevity pay.

Committee member Johnny Blount received unanimous support for his motion for the across-the-board two-percent raises and committee member Manuel Crossno received unanimous approval for his motion to deny the longevity pay. They both cited other department heads could possibly make similar requests if granted to the Sheriff's Department.

Committee member Brian Winston said the Sheriff's Department has a state-mandated maintenance of effort, requiring the county to fund the department at equal or greater amounts each year without the possibility of reducing the budget for the department in future years. He said he does not see how a lawsuit on salary could be justified because a single local police department raised its pay. McKenzie raised the pay of its sworn officers because the city department was losing officers to higher paying departments, including the Sheriff's Department.

A request for funding to purchase new voting machines was postponed to a future fiscal year. During the May meeting, Peg Hamlett, administration of elections, said the 13-year old machines are at the end of their life cycle. She also said the commission needs new computer systems because the present aged machines cannot be upgraded to meet new cybersecurity standards. New voting machines will cost the county $99,000 after a $210,000 Help America Vote Act grant. The new voting machines would be touchscreen and print a matching paper ballot to review before finally being placed in an optical scanner to record the vote.

During the June 13 Budget Committee meeting, funds of approximately $12,000 were placed in the proposed budget for new desktop computers but nothing for the voting machines.

Mayor Joseph Butler said a standard for voting machines is still being considered in Washington. He recommended waiting on the new standards before making purchases of new machines.

County Technical Advisory Service has issued new minimum salary standards from elected constitutional officers. The sheriff's annual salary increases to $94,345. By law, his salary must be 10 percent higher than other offices, plus 10 percent for operating the workhouse. The county mayor's salary will increase to $99,062. His minimum salary is mandated to be five percent higher than the sheriff.

The Budget Committee will convene again in June to finalize the budget to be recommended to the full County Commission.

Local Entertainer Turns Author

HENRY — Musician, actor, historian, and now author are just a few titles for Henry native Rick Revel, who has done a lot of things in his 62 years starting with horses, guitars and guns at a young age. He got involved with a band as a teenager. He rode the Bicentennial Wagon Train 1,200 miles at age 19 in 1976. His latest venture is authoring a series of books.

It was on the wagon train trip he met the late Mooney Lynn, better known as Loretta Lynn's husband, which led to him performing at the Lynn's home in Hurricane Mills and being a songwriter at King Coal Publishing for Lynn. "Mooney Lynn was the Tennessee Wagon Master and heard me sing and invited me to Hurricane Mills to perform," said Revel.

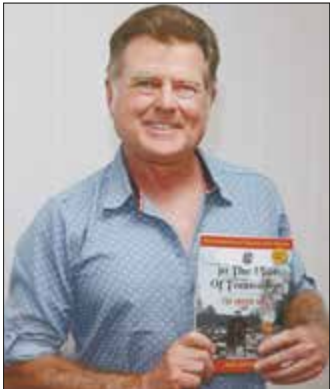

Revel was still only in his 20s and early 30s at this time. Revel also worked in radio locally at WHDM. He moved on to building a studio in Nashville which put him in contact with a lot of country stars and afforded him numerous opportunities to perform with some of the best acts in the country music industry.

He pursued acting in his early 40s portraying historical persons such as George Washington, Meriwether Lewis, Davy Crockett, Wild Bill Hickok and Todd Carter, a confederate soldier killed at the Battle of Franklin. The acting bug carried over into appearances in TV events and films.

Revel has also been involved in reenacting since the mid-1970's in a variety of roles from participating in marches to being an entertainer and mc'ing reenactment events. Through all of his activities, one thing remained constant which was his love for history. It was that love that led him to his newest endeavor which is writing historical fiction.

Revel already had a lifelong interest in the Civil War and was traveling in north Henry County several years ago and ran across a historical marker about a local sharpshooter by the name of Jack Hinson. He began asking around about who Hinson was and was told "He was just a farmer".

Revel even approached the park ranger at Fort Donelson and even he didn't know much about Hinson. So he undertook research to learn just who Jack Hinson was. His research uncovered a simple man who attempted to stay neutral in the Civil War until the war came to him when two of his sons were killed by Union soldiers. The soldiers placed the boy's heads on posts in front of Hinson's plantation home near Dover. Hinson became a sniper who exacted revenge on not only the men who killed his sons but personally took the lives of approximately 130 Union soldiers.

Revel's research fascinated him to the point of writing a song "The Ballad of Captain Jack" Revel played that song to friend and author Tom C. McEnney, who wrote a biography of Captain Jack Hinson.

"McKenney challenged me to write a screenplay based on his book "Jack Hinson's One-Man War". He liked the manuscript and then challenged me to write a historical fiction book based on the screen play." Revel said. "That effort has turned into a four-book series involving Captain Jack Hinson and other characters through the eyes of a 19th century reporter and novelist."

The series is called "The Chronicles of Captain Jack Hinson" The first book is "In the Hills of Tennessee" - The Uncivil War" already published in a pre-release paperback edition and is on sale now with a hardback edition due out later in the summer. The remainder of the books in the series currently are A Gun Called Vengeance (Book 2) Let The Dead Bury The Dead (Book 3) Unreconstructed (Book 4). The titles could be changed before publication.

Gasoline Prices Fall Over Week

(June 17) — Tennessee gas prices have fallen 6.0 cents per gallon in the past week, averaging $2.32/gallon today, according to GasBuddy's daily survey of 3,821 stations. Gas prices in Tennessee are 20.4 cents per gallon lower than a month ago, yet stand 29.4 cents per gallon lower than a year ago.

According to GasBuddy price reports, the cheapest station in Tennessee is priced at $2.04/g today while the most expensive is $2.99/g, a difference of 95 cents per gallon. The lowest price in the state today is $2.04/g while the highest is $2.99/g, a difference of 95.0 cents per gallon. The cheapest price in the entire country today stands at $1.92/g while the most expensive is $5.89/g, a difference of $3.97/g.

The national average price of gasoline has fallen 6.2 cents per gallon in the last week, averaging $2.67/g today. The national average is down 19.3 cents per gallon from a month ago, yet stands 22.2 cents per gallon lower than a year ago.

Neighboring areas and their current gas prices:

Chattanooga - $2.17/g, down 6.2 cents per gallon from last week's $2.23/g, Nashville- $2.42/g, down 7.4 cents per gallon from last week's $2.50/g. Huntsville- $2.31/g, down 4.5

cents per gallon from last week's $2.36/g.

"For the sixth straight week, gasoline prices have declined nationally, a feat not often seen heading into the prime of summer driving season. It was a perfect week with every state seeing average gas prices decline versus last Sunday as stations continued to pass along the lower replacement cost as oil prices remain under considerable selling pressure, even after last week's attack on two oil tankers which caused not much more than the oil market to blink," said Patrick DeHaan, head of petroleum analysis for GasBuddy. "Gas prices have been and will be unaffected by last weeks' oil tanker attack and we're highly likely to see the national average decline for its seventh straight week barring any curve balls. For some states like California, Illinois and Ohio, the party may partially end in just two weeks as those states prepare to raise gasoline taxes a noticeable amount, sending their gas prices higher just in time for July 4. For the rest of us, not only can we celebrate the holiday with fireworks, but celebrate the falling prices heading into it. Not a bad summer to be hitting the road as Americans are spending nearly $100 million less every day on gasoline than a year ago."

His arrest occurred on June 12 after an automobile accident on Highway 70 in Cedar Grove.

Sheriff Andy Dickson said witnesses reported seeing two males run into the woods after exiting the wrecked car. After hearing a description of the suspect, officers concluded one of those was Haynes. Officers from the CCSD and the helicopter and patrol officers from the Tennessee Highway Patrol began a search of the area. After not locating the subjects, they pulled back their search. Soon, the two started knocking on neighbors' doors asking to use a telephone. The officers and helicopter returned and located the suspects on Leeford Road in Cedar Grove.

three children. After Peevyhouse was sworn in, the board approved the first reading of an ordinance to raise the water rates. Under the old billing cycle, people were paying a $20.66 base rate for the first 2,500 gallons of water with a minimum rate per gallon over 2,500 gallons usage. After discussing three different options on how to apply the increases, they chose a base rate of $21.16 which includes the first 1,000 gallons of water and $2.35 per gallon over a thousand gallons. This scenario was chosen primarily to aid senior citizens who mostly live on a fixed income. Financial Officer Jeff Goad advised the board they were going to finish the current fiscal year with a deficit in the water budget largely due to unexpected repair costs. So a bill for a household that manages to stay within the first thousand gallons could expect a bill of approximately $45 dollars which includes water and sewer.

The board also approved the first reading of the town budget for the 2019-20 fiscal year which includes a raise to $18.37 per hour for Trezevant Police Chief Mike Mulligan and a two-percent raise for other city employees. The budget includes no property tax increase.

Aldermen approved a motion to interview several existing applications for a full-time position in the Water Department. Alderman Eddie Granger made the recommendation to hire a full-time employee. Alderman Tim Rogers added that whoever is hired needs to be paid a good wage with benefits and do what needs to be done to keep the employee. They set dates and times to interview the applicants. Mayor Bobby Blaylock asked Granger if he would contact insurance companies and get estimates for a benefits package. He agreed to do so.

No action was taken on a discussion about moving the town's dumpster so the gated area can be locked and secured. The board opted to do more research and possibly take action during next months meeting.

A discussion about surplus property belonging to the town resulted in no action while research was done to learn how much surplus property the town actually has.

It was learned that board member Teresa Goodrum has sold her house and will be leaving the council in the near future. The board will meet in a called session June 27 to consider the second reading on the water increase ordinance and the second reading of the town budget so it can be enacted prior to the new fiscal year beginning July 1.

Huntingdon Fire and Rescue assisted in removing Wylie and two passengers Mary and Melvin Hill from the SUV. All three were reported injured with both Hills being transported to Baptist Hospital by ambulance.

According to the report filed by Officer Devon White, Aiken advised as he was pulling out of Walmart's parking lot he looked both ways but failed to look back to the left and admitted striking the vehicle as he pulled out into the road. The report indicated a contributing factor to the accident was failure to yield right of way. No charges were filed in the incident.

Relay Announces Honorary Co-Chairmen

Hannah Reeves — Hannah was diagnosed with B-Cell Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia in March 2018. What makes her different than the other co-chairs is that she is the youngest and is still in high school. Her treatment has included chemotherapy, steroid shots, and many doses of antibiotics.

She says her supporters are Natalie, Kevin, Libby and her many aunts, uncles, and cousins. She also lists her many friends and fellow students at Huntingdon High School. According to Reeves, all of her support group made food, called daily, and visited regularly.

Hannah said when she was first told she had cancer she became nervous, scared, worried, and confused.

"Keep your friends and family close, and it's ok to be scared and to complain and keep your life as normal as possible", advises Hannah.

Ruth Eason — Ruth was diagnosed with Stage 2 Breast Cancer in November 2018. She has had eight rounds of chemotherapy and will also take some radiation treatments. She did not experience sickness with her treatments and was able to continue working and enjoying activities with her family. According to Ruth, her husband has been with her every step of the way. She says her daughters, siblings and their families have been her prayer partners and supporters. Her church family and her work group have provided great moral support. She says her faith in God has helped her to stay positive and the peace she has felt and continues to feel is amazing.

Ruth says when she was diagnosed with cancer, she was stunned and frightened. She says peace eventually came when she realized how many people were praying for her. She credits the Lord for her strength.

She would tell anyone who has just been diagnosed that cancer is not a death sentence, because so many advancements have been made over the years and continue to be made. The cancer survival rate increases all the time.

Cary Don Smith — Cary Don was diagnosed with Stage 4 Melanoma in February 2002. He was referred to Vanderbilt for surgery which included removal of all lymph nodes in the upper chest. Two years later, three small nodules were detected in his left lung. Surgery was performed to remove the lower half of that lung. He was asked to participate in a melanoma study by M.D. Anderson in Texas and went to Vanderbilt for painful injections every two weeks for the next year.

He says his support group includes his wife, Judy, and daughters, Tina, Jennifer and Julie. He also named his friends, and brother, the late Fred Ward, as well as his church family at Huntingdon First Baptist Church. Smith says he was able to keep a positive attitude because of encouraging family and friends.

After recovering from surgery, he was able to return to work at the Carroll County Electric Department and the Clarksburg Police Department. He says the work was good medicine for him by being able to keep busy.

Cary Don says that when he was first told he had cancer, he immediately thought about how his dad had suffered with his chemo and radiation treatments for lung cancer. His advice to anyone facing cancer is to "keep your faith, stay strong, and never give up. Depend on your family and friends for support and for the love they can give you."

Candi Lowe — Candi was diagnosed in October 2010 with Invasive Ductal Carcinoma of the left breast. She had to take two different kinds of chemotherapy every three weeks for six months. She says she would do ok after treatments until the third day and then have to be in bed for a day or two.

She credits her husband Nick for having a lot on him taking care of her and their daughter, Alyse, who was four years old at the time. Lowe is thankful for all their family and friends who checked on them, brought food, along with lots of prayers. Candi says she prayed for strength to get through everything and tried to stay strong and positive for her daughter.

"It hit me like a ton of bricks," said Candi about finding out she had cancer; "But once I had time to process everything, I made up my mind to fight with every ounce of energy I had and everything would be ok."

As for what Candi would tell a newly diagnosed cancer patient, "pray and stay positive. I know its hard, but a positive outlook helps tremendously! I also always tried to think that hopefully somewhere along the way that I can also help someone else."

Meklisha Ridgely — Meklisha was diagnosed with HER2-Negative breast cancer in October 2018. Her treatment has included 16 chemotherapy treatments, the removal of 28 lymph nodes, and six weeks of radiation. According to her, she was fatigued and sick at times, but continued working part-time.

As for support, "I've had the support of a wonderful family, church family, and great friends. I received numerous phone calls, texts, visits, cards, and words of encouragement and prayers." Meklisha also said she kept positive by putting her faith in God and not just the doctors.

When she learned she had cancer, "I was devastated, scared, worried and unsure of my future. I asked many times why did this happen to me and what did I do to deserve this?"

Meklisha's advice to a newly diagnosed cancer patient includes "put your trust in God, the great physician and healer. Keep a positive attitude. Enjoy the good days and live every day to the fullest and keep fighting!"

McKENZIE (June 13) — Christian Family Medicine & Pediatrics hosted dozens at a ribbon-cutting ceremony Thursday. On hand were McKenzie Mayor Jill Holland, Carroll County Mayor Joseph Butler, Carroll County Chamber of Commerce President Brad Hurley and many other business and community leaders.

The McKenzie clinic, located at 132 Hospital Drive, is one of eight Christian Family Medicine & Pediatrics locations across west Tennessee. It offers primary care and walk-in acute care, treating patients of all ages, from babies to the elderly. It also welcomes patients of all income levels, including patients on TennCare.

The clinic opened in March with Donna Waddell, AANP, as the lone provider, but has since added Drew Brown, PA.

Waddell began practicing in 2009 as a board-certified family nurse practitioner. She earned her bachelor's degree in nursing from UT Memphis and her master's degree in nursing from Union University. She is a member of the American Nurses Association and the Tennessee Nurses Association.

Brown graduated from Bethel University's Physician Assistant program in 2016 and is certified through the National Commission on the Certification of Physician Assistants. He completed his undergraduate degree at Austin Peay State University.

Waddell is authorized to prescribe Accutane, a powerful drug used in the treatment of acne. Most common among teenagers, acne may cause permanent scarring if left untreated. To prescribe Accutane, providers must be registered and follow strict requirements.

Brown is certified to perform DOT physicals and is listed on the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration National Registry. The required examination confirms CMV drivers are healthy enough to safely perform their demanding job and keep the nation's roads safe.

Christian Family Medicine & Pediatrics is open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m., Monday through Thursday and 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Fridays. Walk-ins are welcome.

Finding Power And Love

BY DR. DENNIS PRUTOW

We fulfill one of the purposes for our existence when we seek God (Acts 17:26-27). When we seek Him, we consult with Him. We take our joys and difficulties to Him in prayer. We seek direction from Him by reading the Bible. We receive light from God as we ply the pages of the Bible (2 Peter 1:19).

Ultimately we need strength and power from God. We need the love of God poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit (Romans 5:5). The Bible calls the infusion of love and power the new birth.

We derive this power, love, and new birth from God by means of His word given in the Bible. It's a pretty simple principle. It is also quite profound. Here is what 1 Peter 1:23 says. "You have been born again not of seed which is perishable but imperishable, that is, through the living and enduring word of God."

The word of God is the Bible. The imperishable seed is the Holy Spirit. God plants this seed in our hearts as we seek His face by reading the Bible, by praying, and by listening to the Bible being taught. We follow Isaiah 55:6. "Seek the Lord while He may be found." As we read the Bible we find the Lord Jesus. We see why He came and what He does.

Liberty All Hosts Memorial Day Program

HUNTINGDON (May 26) — Liberty All United Methodist Church, 2415 Old Stage Road, was the setting for an inspirational program Sunday to remember those military men and women who have made the ultimate sacrifice.

As Barbara Bennett played "God of our Fathers," Greg Coleman brought in the American flag and Becky Keith brought in the Christian flag. Jaxon Dunbar and Raygen Dunbar carried in baskets of small flags which would later be placed on the graves of veterans. The congregation recited the pledges to the American and Christian flags. Dr. Lee Butler welcomed everyone, then Phillip Williams offered a prayer.

Barbara Bennett played a rousing rendition of the Medley of Service Songs during which each veteran stood as his song was heard.

"The Star-Spangled Banner," "God Bless the USA" and "America the Beautiful" were sung by Marine veteran Dakota Jordan.

A rousing patriotic number was performed by several members of the Huntingdon High School Band.

Marty Towater, U.S. Army Veteran and member of the Tennessee National Guard introduced the guest speaker, Staff Sergeant David Brewer, who has served over 20 years in the Tennessee National Guard and is an Operation Desert Shield/Storm veteran. He currently drills at the Volunteer Training Site in Lavinia.

He spoke of one of our American heroes, Army Sergeant Israel Paul O'Bryan, who died June 11, 2010, in Iraq by a suicide attacker in an explosive-rigged car. He was only 25 years old and left a wife and a one-year-old son, along with many other loved ones.

After hearing about his death, a Marine named P. J. Kellogg ran 50 miles from Newbern to Jackson to bring recognition to Sergeant O'Bryan. P. J. had never even met "Izzy," but that didn't matter. He was running to raise money for a college fund for the son of a fallen brother-in-arms and to bring recognition to a soldier who made the ultimate sacrifice.

Sergeant Brewer reminded us that this is what Memorial Day is all about-remembering those who gave their lives that we might be free.

Allen Espey asked all veterans present to stand and state their names and branches of service. He read the names of the 71 veterans buried in the Liberty All Cemetery. Then, as the congregation sang "God Bless America," Towater and Gary Merritt, U.S. Army-Retired, carried out the flags, which were then placed on the designated graves.

Tizzy Smith played "Taps" and as the sound of the trumpet echoed across the cemetery, everyone stood at attention, remembering with gratitude the sacrifices so many have made through the years and are still making to keep this country free.

The Lord's Discipline

"My son, do not despise the Lord's discipline, and do not resent his rebuke, because the Lord disciplines those he loves, as a father the son he delights in."
—Proverbs 3:11-12 NIV

While many of us claim that we believe in God, and try to live a good and decent life, we all fall short, in our thoughts, in our words and actions, both in what we do and in what we fail to do. It is easy to fall into despair upon seeing how often we lapse and fall into sin. But the important thing is that we keep trying. Moral perfection is the brass ring that we never reach. But it is encouraging to realize that God has always chosen fallible characters to do his work. Saints are nothing more than sinners who keep striving to be holier and better than they were the day before. In our efforts to become saints, we do well to remember that God wants us to be better, but that he's not going to reject us for our occasional failures. Loving parents chastise their misbehaving children precisely because they love them and want them to grow into happy, healthy and virtuous adults. It is the same with God. He chastises us because he knows we can be better, and that we will be happier the more closely we follow God's law. — Christopher Simon

Inglennook Book Club News

The Inglennook Book Club met in June at Lakeside Senior Living with Juanita Finley and Carolyn Goodwin as hostesses, assisted by Peggy Chappell and Elaine Williams. After everyone enjoyed delicious lemon icebox pie made by Lakeside's splendid chef and kitchen manager, Roberta Taylor, the business meeting was held.

Vice President Sally Sutton introduced our speaker, Mary Newman, whose subject of her program was Harlan Coben, an American writer of mystery novels and thrillers. The plots of his novels often involve the resurfacing of unresolved or misinterpreted events in the past and murders or fatal accidents that have multiple twists.

Harlan Coben was born in 1962 in Newark, New Jersey and now lives in Ridgewood, New Jersey with his wife, Ann Armstrong-Coben, a pediatrician, and their four children. Coben studied political science at Amherst College in Massachusetts, after which he worked in the travel industry for a company owned by his grandfather.

As a senior in college, he realized he wanted to write, and his first book was accepted for publication when he was 26. His thriller, Play Dead, was published in 1990, followed by Miracle Cure in 1991. He then began writing a series of thrillers featuring a former basketball player turned sports agent, Myron Bolitar, who often finds himself investigating murders involving his clients.

Now with over 70 million books in print worldwide, Harlan Coben is the #1 New York Times author of 31 novels, including Run Away, Fool Me Once, Tell No One, No Second Chance, and the renowned Myron Bolitar series. His books are published in 43 languages around the globe.

Tell No One, his first standalone thriller since the creation of the Myron Bolitar series, was published in 2001 and is his best-selling novel to date. He followed it with nine more stand-alone novels. Hold Tight, released in 2008, was his first book to debut at #1 on the New York Times Best Seller List. His most recent Myron Bolitar novel, Home, was published in 2016. In March, 2019, his new book, Run Away, reached #2 on the New York Times Best Seller List during its first week on the list.

In addition to his Myron Bolitar series, he has written a series aimed at young adults featuring Myron's nephew, Mickey Bolitar, a spin-off series about his 15-year-old nephew.

Coben is an international best-selling author and his books have been #1 best sellers in more than a dozen countries. He is the first writer to receive the Edgar Award, the Shamus Award, and an Anthony Award. The Edgar Award is named for Edgar Allan Poe and presented yearly by the Mystery Writers of America. The Shamus Award is awarded by the Private Eye Writers of America for the best detective fiction genre novels and short stories. The Anthony Awards are literary awards for mystery writers presented yearly at the Bouchercon World Mystery Convention and are named for Anthony Boucher, one of the founders of the Mystery Writers of America.

Coben is the creator and executive producer for the Netflix television drama "Safe," a crime drama series, "The Five," and is currently filming "The Stranger" based on his novel for Netflix.

To summarize his books, there are 11 in the Myron Bolitar series, also known as those crime paperbacks you buy in the airport and devour in a day; three books of the Mickey Bolitar series written from 2011 through 2014; and stand-alone novels which span from 1990 to 2019 and include 17 books.

Shirley Martin announced that the Carroll Arts sponsored Arts & Crafts Exhibit was rescheduled to June 22nd due to inclement weather on the originally scheduled date. Carroll Arts is sponsoring the play "Frankenstein" at Bethel University this coming weekend.

The next meeting is in July at Lakeside with Geneva Johnson and Shelia Rogers as hostesses. Jean McKinnie has the program.

Members present were Victoria Ard, Peggy Chappell, Juanita Finley, Linda Edge, Carolyn Goodwin, Suzanne Howell, Geneva Johnson, Shirley Martin, Jean McKinnie, Sandi McMahan, Carolyn Moore, Mary Newman, Pedie Pedersen, Carolyn Potts, Marilynn Putman, Debbie Riley, Shelia Rogers, Gaye Rowan, Sally Sutton, and Elaine Williams.

Huntingdon Police Reports

Multiple Charges — A McKenzie man was arrested June 6 for allegedly assaulting a Huntingdon woman and other violations.

Da'Lon Boyd, 19, was charged by Officer Angela Barker with domestic assault, aggravated burglary, vandalism over $1,000, and child abuse.

According to Barker's report, she responded to a domestic situation at 401 Hillcourt and spoke with Zareya Webbeer, who said that Boyd, her boyfriend, had broken into her apartment through a bedroom window and then started tearing up the residence.

Webbeer said she locked herself in the bathroom with her baby as Boyd continued destroying the house.

She said she came out of the bathroom after Boyd threatened to set the apartment on fire, and then Boyd struck her and her baby in the head several times.

Boyd had left the residence before Barker arrived, though Barker noted that there were visible bruises on the infant's head and that serious damage had been done to the residence and its contents.

Boyd was apprehended later that day by deputies with the Carroll County Sheriff's Department following a high-speed pursuit. Additional charges were filed against Boyd by the Sheriff's Department.

License Violation — A Huntingdon man was arrested during a June 8 traffic stop.

Michael Eugene Tucker, 40, was charged with driving on a suspended license. Officer Michael Allen reported that he pulled over a black GMC Canyon driven by Tucker on East Main Street because Tucker was driving without his headlights on.

A computer check showed that Tucker's driver's license was suspended.

License Violation — An Arlington man was arrested during a June 9 traffic stop.

James Wesley Starnes, 60, was charged with driving on a suspended license. According to the report by Officer Brad Allen, he pulled over a motorcycle driven by Starnes for not having a tag. A computer check showed that Starnes' License was suspended.

Domestic Assault — A Huntingdon man was arrested June 9 for allegedly hitting a woman with a cell phone.

Timothy Park, 31, was charged with domestic assault. According to the report by Officer Richard Crossno, he responded to a call about a domestic incident at 43 McEndree Lane and spoke with Rebecca Farrar.

She told Crossno that while she was picking up her child from Park's residence, Park, who had borrowed her cell phone earlier, refused to give it back.

She said that an argument ensued, and, at one point, Park struck her in the face with her own cell phone. Crossno noted that Farrar's cell phone was broken and that she had visible red marks on her face.

Nominate Your Favorite To Bethel's Athletic Hall-of-Fame

MCKENZIE — The Bethel Athletic Department and the University takes great pride in the Athletic Hall-of-Fame. Each October during Homecoming Week the University honors individuals and teams who have excelled in various fashions as athletes, teams, coaches, staff and contributors.

This past October the athletic department honored four former athletic greats and two contributors with inductions into the prestigious hall. With the inductions, 91 people and three teams have been enshrined. This fall will mark the 39th year of the Hall-of-Fame ceremonies at the school. Fans and supporters are invited to participate in the nomination process.

Bethel Director of Athletics Dale Kelley said, "This gives our fans and alumni a chance to relive and remember some of the great players and coaches that we have had at Bethel University. It is an opportunity for Bethel to honor those that helped get us where we are today."

Associate Director of Athletics Brad Chappell added, "Bethel Athletics is very proud of our current Hall of Fame membership and we want to make all of our fans and alumni aware of the process of nomination.

We have several deserving candidates that simply need to be nominated to be included and that is where we depend on our fans and alumni to make us aware of who still needs to be added. At this point we are looking at those that graduated in 2008 and prior are eligible for nomination." For a complete look at the inductees to date visit <http://www.bethelathletics.com/halloffame> The form to nominate can be found on the athletic site or at <http://www.bethelathletics.com/SIDHelp.hp?action=form¶meters=5>

Bethel's Beth Sisson Honored

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — The Southern States Athletic Conference released the 2018-19 end-of-year award winners recently at the SSAC Awards Banquet, presented by MMI Dining.

Bethel's Mrs. Beth Sisson, Instructor of Education was named to the SSAC All-Faculty team.

Bethel Associate Athletic Director Brad Chappell stated, "I have known Beth Sisson for years and there is no one that cares more for her students than her. The latest but by far not the only example is when she played Mom to one of our student athletes on Senior Day. One of our young men asked her to escort him onto the court in place of his mother who was unable to attend. Mrs. Sisson happily did so. I can't think of a higher endorsement for a teacher than your students feel like you are their 'Mom away from home.' Mrs. Sisson is exactly that for all of her students. The athletic department is proud to honor her by placing her on the all-faculty team in the SSAC."

Sisson commented, "I am honored to have been named to the All-SSAC Faculty Team. Our athletes here at Bethel work hard. When they come to class at 8 a.m. most of them have already had practice, a meeting, or been working out. I am truly proud of each and every athlete I have had the privilege of teaching. They are dedicated to their academic success and their chosen sport. These students hold a special place in my heart and I am happy to help them achieve their goals."

An avid golfer, Dr. T was a very popular character at the Milan Golf and Country Club as well as Bethel University and her hometown of McKenzie, where she taught Physical Education and coached the tennis teams since 1982.

On Saturday, June 22, the Milan Ladies Auxiliary will host a memorial ladies golf tournament in memory of Dr. T.

Bethel Coach Larry Galdi said, "It is an honor and privilege to have two of our team members play in the first Doctor Deb T Memorial golf tournament at Milan CC. Dr. T was a beloved faculty member and former tennis coach at Bethel. But, more than that she was AL-WAYS there and supported all of Bethel athletics and university events. She is not with us today but her legacy will live on in our hearts and minds forever. I am proud of Morgan and Juliana for the wonderful young ladies that they are and giving time during their summer break to represent our university and golf teams."

A former Bethel golf member and friend of Dr. T made the donation to sponsor Bromley and Campbell in memory of beloved Dr. T. and also honor her legacy at the school.

The format will be a 2-lady scramble starting at 9 a.m. The cost is $110.00 per team which includes a practice round, golf cart, a light breakfast and lunch.

Carroll County Sheriff's Reports

Drugs, Other Violations — A Benton County woman was arrested during a June 8 traffic stop on Highway 70.

Lindsey N. Townzen, 39, of Camden was charged with possession of schedule II (methamphetamine) with intent to sell, drug paraphernalia, driving on a suspended license, violation of registration law, and violation of financial responsibility. According to the report by Deputy Scotty Davis, he pulled over a blue 2002 Nissan Maxima driven by Townzen, and a computer check showed that her license was suspended. When asked if she had anything illegal in her possession, Townzen told Davis that she did have a small amount of marijuana and then gave Davis permission to search her car. During that search, Davis found a small amount of marijuana, a glass pipe filled with residue, a set of digital scales, a clear plastic baggie containing meth, and over $1,000 in cash in a black bag. Cash in the amount of $71 was found in the trunk. After first stating that the black bag belonged to her sister, Townzen then told Davis that the bag was hers and that she used and sold meth.

Drugs, License Violation — A Huntingdon man was arrested and a McKenzie woman was cited into court during a June 8 traffic stop on Maytown Road.

Dakota L. Pardue, 28, of 1134 Green Oaks was charged with driving on a revoked license (third offense) and for outstanding warrants. Elizabeth Ann Bugg, 28, of 1305 Hinkledale Road was cited for possession of drug paraphernalia. According to the report by Deputy Scotty Davis, he pulled over a vehicle driven by Pardue after seeing the vehicle pull out from an abandoned house. Davis noted that the owner had earlier advised authorities that no one was supposed to be on the property. A computer check showed that Pardue's license was revoked and that he had active warrants for failure to appear and violation of probation in Carroll County. Five used hypodermic needles were found in Bugg's purse.

Theft — The Sheriff's Department is investigating the recent theft of tools from a construction site in Huntingdon.

Eric McMackin of Huntingdon contacted the Sheriff's Department on June 10 and reported that several tools had been stolen from a construction site where a home is being built at 3189 Northwood Drive. Listed as stolen were a 16' aluminum walk board valued at $294, a wet tile saw valued at $814, an 8' fiberglass stepladder valued at $196, an electric drill valued at $200, and an aluminum extension ladder valued at $169.

Assault, DUI, Drugs — A Huntingdon man was arrested June 11 on multiple charges.

Joshua Henry Drinkard, 30, of 2315 Terry Road was charged with aggravated assault, domestic assault, DUI, possession of schedule VI drugs, and drug paraphernalia. According to the report by Deputy Tony King, Drinkard allegedly pointed a handgun at his wife, KerriAnne Drinkard, at their mutual residence, drug her across the floor, and tried to smash her head into a television. Mr. Drinkard was later stopped while driving a red 2001 Ford Explorer. Drinkard failed field sobriety tests and a breath test.

Morning Glory Garden Club June Meeting

The Morning Glory Garden Club met in June at Lakeside Retirement Center with President Judy Davis and Vice President Donna Hodge serving as hostesses. Following a delicious brunch, President Davis called the meeting to order and members recited the club Collect and Pledge to the Flag. Judy then welcomed members and guests Larry Scott and Joe Fitzgerald and also thanked Donna for serving as co-hostess. She also thanked Sara Fitzgerald and Leslie Lewis for providing flowers from their gardens to be used to design arrangements for National Garden Week.

The roll was called and Chaplain Julia Winters gave the “Thought for the Day” from an excerpt by Katie Dawson titled “Wonder” and words from the song, “For the Beauty of the Earth” which shows us how the glory of God always surrounds us if we are willing to take the time to look. President Davis then asked for correspondence to be shared with the club. The club had received a letter of resignation from Diane Stafford and members voted to accept her resignation “with regret.”

The next item of business was in regard to Diane Harvey. She and her family have relocated to Louisiana. Several members had expressed a desire to keep in contact with her and her family. President Judy

Davis then gave the treasurer’s report. The Civic Committee reported that the Butterfly Release had taken place as well as the planting of geraniums and ivy in the baskets at Veterans Park. Sunshine Chair Robbie Barker sent cards to Allie Harvey who graduated from McKenzie High School this year, and birthday cards to Donna Hodge, Lucille Russell and Diane Stafford. A card will be sent to Gena Manner’s daughter. “Happy Birthday” was then sung to our birthday ladies.

Group II placed the Yard of the Month sign at the home of Mrs. Wynemia Mouser located on Highland Drive.

Yard of the Month for July goes to the best decorated patriotic yard. New business involved the decorating of the Veterans Park benches for the July 4 holiday, and members will be called regarding time and date. The club does not meet during the months of July and August. Group I will choose the Yard of the Month for July and Group II will choose August.

Horticulture for this meeting was provided by Robbie Barker, including verbena, fern and petunia.

During the business meeting a motion was made to welcome Joe Fitzgerald and Larry Scott as our newest members. We are delighted to have them join us. Members then recited the club’s Benediction. Next, President Davis introduced our guest, Hays Brummitt, who presented a program about tropical plants along with tips on how to arrange them. Those tips included:

1. Make your arrangement geometric so that the eye sees one flower at a time.
2. Tropicals last longer than our regular flowers, which die from the top down and last only a week. Tropicals die from the bottom of the stem up and if one trims the stem from time to time, they can be beautiful for more than a month.

Hayes then designed four different arrangements using Bird of Paradise, Kangaroo Paw, Yellow Orchid, Pink Potia, Pincushion Potia, Tea Leaves, Ginger, Antherium, Volcano Wood, Green Carnation, Acuba and Fire Grass, also called Burning Grass. He also showed the club a unique multicolored cauliflower which is native to

New Zealand and is used to add color to salads. Flowers used in arrangements are native to Hawaii, Australia and New Zealand. The arrangements were then given to Lakeside Retirement Center, Christian Care Center, McKenzie Healthcare and McKenzie City Hall.

Several Lakeside ladies were invited to join club members for the presentation and included Robbie Todd, Evelyn Towater, Doris Smith, Kay Ward, Marilyn Ward, Marie Brush and Cathie Kerr.

Club Members present were Robbie Barker, Judy Davis, Sara Fitzgerald, Donna Hodge, Leslie Lewis, Zia Locke, Sandra McMahan, Lucille Russell, Kay Wilson, Julia Winters, Joe Fitzgerald, Larry Scott and Lois Brazie.

Winners: Danita Laman, Ruth McElroy, and Martha Sue Peters.

FCE Dairy Food Recipe Contest

The FCE clubs of Carroll County met June 5, 2019, in the Senior Citizen's room of the Carroll County Complex for the annual Dairy Food Contest.

The judges were: Susan Sloan, Melinda Quisenberry and Mary Humphrey.

It seemed to be a difficult decision because they wanted to give a tie for second place. But finally, a decision was made.

The winners are: 1st place with a prize of $25.00 goes to Ruth McElroy; 2nd place with a cash prize of $15.00 goes to Danita Laman; 3rd place with a prize of $10.00 went to Martha Sue Peters.

They were judged on availability of ingredients, clearness and accuracy of the recipe, whether the recipe was followed, preparation technique, appearance, taste, serving suggestions, and lastly how much dairy went into it. There were a possible 100 points.

Ruth's dish was a chicken broccoli casserole, Danita made a chicken tamale pie, and Martha Sue made cheeseburger sliders.

The ladies stayed and sampled the dishes after the judging.

Next year's dish is yet to be decided but there were several good suggestions, such as a breakfast dish or a salad, possibly a dessert.

The ladies will discuss it at county council meeting in July.
