A Word About the Christmas Edition

The staff of The McKenzie Banner is proud to present its special 2020 Christmas issue with greetings from area businesses, letters to Santa from area pre-school and elementary school students, and photographs of area events.

The COVID-19 pandemic, suggested social distancing and wearing of facial masks to slow the spread of the virus, created challenges for the staff to produce this issue.

Normally, we are busy covering holiday events and, normally, we hire temporary help to type the letters to Santa Claus from area children. There's nothing "normal" about 2020.

Needless to say, this year's issue is different from the many others we have published for decades.

It is not filled with photos of Christmas parades, photos of children with Santa and photos of church re-enactments of the birth of Christ. Those events either did not occur or occurred with limited audiences.

Instead, we canvassed old issues in the 1960s and others to find letters to Santa and republish some of those.

Inside are letters to Santa from McKenzie, Huntingdon, West Carroll, Gleason schools and several childcare facilities in the area.

We hope you enjoy this Christmas edition and find the additional content interesting and valuable. It is the best we could do in lieu of local event coverage.

Thanks to everyone who made this issue possible.

In 2020, we turned 150 years old. Here's to the next 150 years and hoping it's filled with good news about the great communities we serve.

Thanks for the many loyal readers and advertisers who make possible each week's publication of The McKenzie Banner.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

— From the Banner Staff: Meg Mann, Janna Pratt, Brad Sam, Billy Fuzzell, Brittany Martin, Jason Martin, and Joel and Teresa Washburn.

First Event Held at RailYard Coworking Space

By Joel Washburn
washburn@mckenziebanner.com

McKENZIE (December 12) — Members of the community got their first look at McKenzie's new RailYard co-working space on Broadway Street during the annual Mistletoe Market. The tri-level venue is owned by the McKenzie Industrial Board and is now the home of a co-working space for long-, short-term and transient workers.

Previously the home of Overflow Church, the space is totally remodeled as an office, convention, and space for business receptions.

Friday and Saturday, it served as the venue for pop-up shops during the Christmas season.

The remodeling is almost complete, but sufficiently complete to allow the markets.

Monica Heath, executive director of the McKenzie Industrial Board, worked throughout the year to contract for the remodeling, including a new roof, ceilings, all new wiring, new flooring, breakroom, and the addition of a handicap-accessible restrooms. The building will have wi-fi, shared printers, and big-screen televisions for conferences or training.

Substantial government grants were available to construct the co-working space, which is a trend to help budding businesses launch with limited financial resources.

The facility will be part of Tennessee Coworking Collaborative, along with The Mill, The Biz, TVA, and Tennessee Economic and Community Development.

Just this week, The RailYard received a grant from Tennessee Valley Authority to purchase furnishings and furniture for the building. The letter from TVA said the TVA Economic Development Coworking Space Initiative is designed to foster the co-working space ecosystem in the Valley which is providing additional flexibility to work environments and encouraging more innovation efforts as the presence of entrepreneurs, freelancers, remote workers and small businesses grow.

What's Your Favorite Memory of Christmas?

Going to my Granny Baker's on Christmas Eve. All of my cousins and I would crowd on her porch stoop after dark to look for Santa in his sleigh!
— John-Kim Brannon

Assembling Christmas treats in brown paper bags for all the kids that rode my daddy's school bus...an orange, an apple, some nuts and a piece of candy. The smell of the fruit mixed with the smell of the live Christmas tree remains with me today.
— Maryjane St Clair

Christmas at my granny Byrd's house with all the cousins uncles aunts along with mom and dad. Then in later years Christmas morning breakfast at Mom and Dad's with sisters and nieces. The best memories are times helping mom cook for the crowd. We fried country ham, sausage and bacon made hamburger gravy. These memories are etched in my mind for always. Cherish your loved ones everyday. Time is so short. Family is EVERYTHING. Keep them close to your heart.
— Teresa Washburn

Going to my grandparents and seeing the Christmas lights they put on their homes. The sound of laughter and the yummy food. Playing with cousins! It was the best!
— Jamie Brown

Riding with my Daddy to Fayetteville, TN to pick up my Grandmother Archer (Memaw) for Christmas while listening to Alabama Christmas and Dolly & Kenny's Christmas cassette tapes. And getting to her house to see a large brown box of gifts sitting in her living room ready to bring to our house.
— Stephanie Archer-Bolin

When I was young it was going to grandparents houses, lucky to have had a great grandmother till I was 17. Loved all the family together and the simple fun

When I was a young girl, Dr. And Mrs. Franklin Poole moved to town to teach at Bethel College. Each holiday season, you would find a Moravian star hanging from their front porch ceiling. That star, the flocked Christmas tree operation at Wrinkle Hardware, Ludie Gaines' colorful life-sized nativity scene, and riding in the Christmas parade as the first crowned Yuletide Princess, in 1964, all mark the ringing in of the Christmas seasons of my youth.
— Mona Batchelor

We had. Christmas programs at church and Christmas hymns and songs. Today I love the smiles of my grandkids, making our chocolate covered peanuts and a few cookies and reading the Bible telling of Jesus birth.
— Gale Chandler Edwards

Family! — Victor Vela

One of the last Christmases with granny, she wanted us to sing "Mary Did You Know." Granny knew every single hymn by heart. Granddaddy was a song leader in the church and she sang alto. My favorite memories are standing next to granny singing hymns, I had a songbook, she never needed one.

Family was the most important thing to them.

I miss our big Christmas mornings at Granny's house, family watching for your car so they could hunt you down and say "CHRISTMAS GIFT!!" to you first. Also, granny's hamburger gravy and tea cakes.
— Brittany Martin

Being with family. — Kay Anderson

Margaret Bumpus, my grandmother. She was Christmas. — Meg Mann

Praising GOD from whom all blessings flow. — Tomelinda Dailey

Decorate Your Face Mask

Always wear your mask covering your nose and mouth. Don't touch your face or mask in public places because you may have picked up germs that can make you sick. Stay healthy and happy. Have a Merry Christmas!

Why Are Christmas Colors Red, Green?

Many people may not get in the holiday spirit without decorations and all the trimmings. Chances are strong that if you have containers full of items just waiting to see the light of day again this holiday season, those items are red or green or some combination thereof. Red and green have become the traditional colors of Christmas, just as blue and white symbolizes Chanukah. But how did this color palette come to evolve? Just like many traditions of Christmas, the red and green scheme has origins that predate the Christian celebration. Christmas has borrowed from many of the customs of winter solstice celebrations of ancient peoples, including the Celts. Ancient Celtic people revered holly plants, believing they brought beauty and good fortune in the middle of winter - a time when the landscape is normally bleak and holly plants thrive and stand out. Celts would regularly bring in sprigs of holly and decorate their homes with the plants, which feature shiny, serrated leaves and bright, red berries, as a way to guarantee a prosperous new year. Holly also came to be associated with the crown of thorns Jesus Christ was forced to wear during his crucifixion. The custom of using red and green continued into the 14th century. Dr. Spike Bucklow, a research scientist at the University of Cambridge, says red and green also were used to paint medieval rood screens, which were partitions installed in churches to separate the congregation from the priest and altar. Dr. Bucklow notes that Victorians also extended the association of these colors as a physical boundary to another boundary: the marking of the end of the old year and the beginning of a new one at Christmastime. While red and green had associations with Christmas in early times through holly and other sources, the connection was perhaps best solidified thanks to a man named Haddon Sundblom. Sundblom was an artist commissioned in 1931 by the Coca-Cola company to create an image of Santa Claus for the company's upcoming holiday ads. Until this point, versions of Santa were rarely consistent, with his clothing vacillating between green, blue and red. He also wasn't the plump, jolly fellow associated with Christmas as we know him today, but rather thin and elf-like. Sundblom portrayed him as a chubby man wearing red robes, likely as a nod to Coca-Cola's own red logo, even though the company denies the connection. Santa was featured in front of a green background. The ads proved popular and Sundblom's Santa became the preferred depiction. Santa's red robes perfectly complemented the green background and other green components of the holiday, such as Christmas trees and holly, that already had been solidified as Christmas imagery. Color plays a strong role in creating Christmas nostalgia. Red and green are put on vivid display throughout the season.

'Twas the Week Before Christmas

'Twas the week before Christmas,
And all through the town,
People wore masks,
That covered their frown.

From March to July
We rode the first wave,
People stayed home,
They tried to behave.

To decorate the house
And put up the tree,
Who will see it,
No one but me.

The frown had begun
Way back in the Spring,
When a global pandemic
Changed everything.

When summer emerged
The lockdown was lifted.
But away from caution,
Many folks drifted.

But outside my window
The snow gently falls,
And I think to myself,
Let's deck the halls!

They called it corona,
But unlike the beer,
It didn't bring good times,
It didn't bring cheer.

Now it's December
And cases are spiking,
Wave two has arrived,
Much to our disliking.

So, I gather the ribbon,
The garland and bows,
As I play those old carols,
My happiness grows.

Airplanes were grounded,
Travel was banned.
Borders were closed
Across air, sea and land.

It's true that this year
Has had sadness a plenty,
We'll never forget
The year 2020.

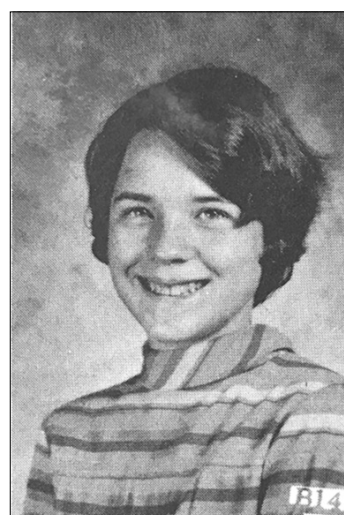

Christmas is not canceled
And neither is hope.
If we lean on each other,
I know we can cope.

As the world entered lockdown
To flatten the curve,
The economy halted,
And folks lost their nerve.

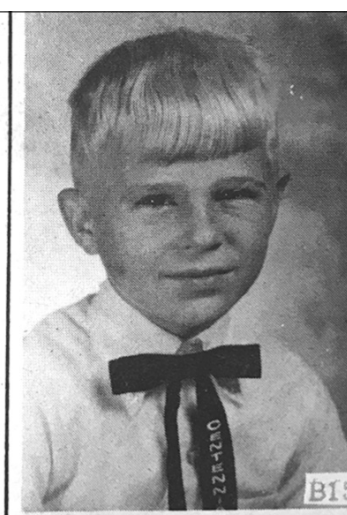

And just 'round the corner
The holiday season,
But why be merry?
Is there even one reason?

Christmas King and Queen at Blooming Grove Church — 1969

The M.Y.F. of Blooming Grove Methodist Church sponsored a contest to elect a Christmas King and Queen. Each participant collected votes at one penny for each vote. The proceeds from the contest and other activities planned will be used to build a recreation room and add more Sunday School rooms to the church. The M.Y.F. takes this opportunity to thank everyone who contributed by buying votes from the children. David Cox was crowned King Christmas and Teresa Brawnner was crowned Queen Christmas. They are the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wrayton Cox and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brawnner. They were crowned Sunday night, December 14 before the Christmas program was presented by the M.Y.F. youth.

Did You Know?

Nineteenth century political cartoonist Thomas Nast was among the most influential people of his time, and chances are he's still influencing the lives of millions of young people today, more than a century after his death. In addition to his political cartoons, which historians feel are invaluable tools in helping to understand how nineteenth century Americans felt about their country's civil war, Nast created the now-iconic image of Santa Claus. Nast, who was born in 1840, created the image in 1863 after his wife read him Clement Clark Moore's poem "A Visit from Saint Nicholas." Though the image of Santa Claus has evolved from Nast's original in 1863, he is credited with forming the basis of the popular depictions of Santa that have become synonymous with the holiday season.

Jingle Bells — A Song History

The popular Christmas carol "Jingle Bells" has an interesting history that remains a topic of debate even now. Written by New England native James Lord Pierpont, "Jingle Bells" was never intended to be a Christmas song, and in fact does not even mention

Christmas or any other holiday. In addition, the song's birthplace is disputed, so much so that there are two commemorative plaques in two different cities, each of which claims to be the place where Pierpont purportedly wrote the song in the 1850s. One plaque is in Medford, Massachusetts, where Pierpont is said to have written the song from a tavern while watching sleigh races taking place outside. The other plaque is in Savannah, Georgia, where locals believe Pierpont wrote the lyrics prior to leading a sing-along of the song at a local church in 1857.

Tower Road Neighbors Host Parade

McKENZIE (December 5) — When the City of McKenzie cancelled its annual Christmas Parade, traditionally held the first Saturday in December, the neighbors on Tower Road, McKenzie decided to host their own, much smaller parade.

Decorated golf carts and one antique truck, all decked out with Christmas lights, greenery, and ornaments made the trek along

Tower Road, Casey Lane, and connecting streets to the delight of their neighbors. The parade was led by a safety pickup truck from the McKenzie Fire Department. It was complete with a Santa and elf, Jack Brown, and his granddad, Reggie.

Left, The percussion section were placed in front of the stage. Right, MHS Band performed in the school's theatre on Monday, December 7.

MHS Band Hosts Christmas Concert

McKENZIE (December 7) — McKenzie High School Band performed its annual Christmas Concert on Monday, December 7 in the MHS Theatre.

Keith Breeden, director, said the 2020 fall season was very unusual for band members. In his career as a director, this is the first season the band did not participate in marching competitions because of the COVID-19 pandemic. He said the band also did not travel to competitions. He praised the parents and boosters for their continued support of the music program at MHS. The recent chili fund-raiser was a great success, said Amanda Wallace of the Booster Club. During the concert, instrumentalists were spaced to accommodate social distancing on the stage of the theatre. The percussion section was situated at floor level in front of the stage. The short concert featured the following selections of music: Christmas Fanfares, Carol of the Bells, A Carmen Christmas, Christmas from the 50s, and Main Street Christmas, the music usually performed during the city's Christmas parade, which was also canceled this year.

Dear Santa,

DEAR SANTA,
This year I have gone through numerous trials and tribulations, mostly at the hands of my little sister. She pulls my hair, steals my sippy, my toys, and uses all the hot water for her baths. Yet, I still do my best to love my little sister. Santa, I think I have been really good this year. I would like for you to bring me a ball as big as me! I enjoy watching sports on TV, especially golf. Please bring me some golf clubs so I can practice for the Masters. Also, some 3T pants and shirts. Thank you, Santa!
I Love You,
CJ Martin, 2 1/2 years, McKenzie
P.S. Please bring my sister her own ball, so she won't steal mine.

DEAR SANTA,
I'm sure you've heard all the lies my big brother has told about me. First of all... I only steal his sippys when my bottle is empty, and Mom said we are supposed to share the toys. As for the hair pulling... I plead the fifth. Ok, I'll level with you, Santa, I've been a little bit naughty, but mostly nice! It's been a tough year. If you can overlook these minor indiscretions, I would like you to bring me the following items: a pink pony, anything Frozen or Disney princesses, 2T shirts and pants and a ball of my very own. I love you, Santa!
Love,
Savannah Martin, 13 months, McKenzie
P.S. Bring my brother some toys for us to "share."

Wards Enjoy Mistletoe Dash, Market

Andy and Charli Ward of Huntingdon enjoyed McKenzie's Mistletoe Dash 5K and the Mistletoe Market at the new RailYard on Broadway in McKenzie. They were pushed in the 5K in a double stroller by their grandmother, Elizabeth Lott and their mother, Holly Ward. Andy and Charli are the children of Travis and Holly Ward of Huntingdon.

City of McKenzie Hosts Mistletoe Dash

MCKENZIE (December 12) — McKenzie's annual Mistletoe Dash Fun Run and 5K was held on Saturday, December 12 and started at the Farmers Market. Fewer participant took part this year, leaving the city to scrap the Fun Run and host only the 5K. Another competitive run was held at Paris Landing State Park, where some of the usual participants went. The first four across the finish line were Todd Maxey, Chris Poole, Parker Roberts, and Steven Huguley. Others enjoyed a brisk walk as part of the activity.
