A public meeting was held on Thursday, October 7, 1999, at McKenzie High School and Thursday, March 14, 2000, at Trezevant Middle School, 95 School Street, Trezevant, Tennessee, from 5-7 p.m. The purpose of this meeting was to review and comment on the proposed improvements and alternatives to SR-76 from Cades Atwood Road near the Gibson County line to Sydnor Road (McKenzie) in Carroll County. The project along State Route 76 (US 79) in Carroll County involves widening and realignment of the existing roadway for approximately 12.6 miles. Due to the size of the project, the proposed improvements have been divided into three smaller sections. TDOT recently sought bids to demolish houses on the right-of-way of the new highway. Those include certain structures on Oasis Road, Milan; and Jax Road, Barker Road, Church Street, and Norris Robinson Loop - all in Atwood.

A second section from east of State Route 77 to West of Cutlip Lane. That section is a candidate for letting on January 10, 2024 or possibly earlier if stimulus money is available. That section will bypass Trezevant. The third phase - from west of Cutlip Lane in Trezevant to west of Sydnor Rd./Winston Rd. in McKenzie - the right of way purchase phase is expected to begin in the fall of 2022. The completed project will create a four- or five-lane highway from McKenzie to Milan.

NFL Player Patrick Willis Gives Back to his Hometown

BRUCETON (December 2) — Patrick Willis has given back to his home community in many ways. The retired NFL player's most recent effort was the funding for new exercise equipment in the Bruceton City Park. It is called the Fitness Zone.

Willis said the equipment is designed to use their own weight and in a safe environment.

"Anyone from young to elderly can use this equipment to 'get some movement...You don't have to be an athlete to use this. It is safe to use," said Willis.

Mayor Robert Keeton, III and Willis, along with friends cut the ribbon to officially open the new fitness area.

Willis was very modest and had kind remarks for the people of his hometown.

Patrick L. Willis (born 1985) is a former American football linebacker who played his entire eight-year career with the San Francisco 49ers of the National Football League (NFL). He was drafted by the 49ers in the first round of the 2007 NFL Draft. He played college football for the University of Mississippi and received consensus All-American honors.

Willis is a graduate of Hollow Rock-Bruceton High School, where he and his siblings grew up in an impoverished family and eventually the children were raised by his basketball coach.

During Willis's senior season at Ole Miss, he received the Jack Lambert Award as the nation's top linebacker. A year later as a member of the 49ers, Willis led the NFL in tackles, earned first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors while being named the 2007 AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. Willis made the Pro Bowl in his first seven seasons in the NFL, and earned All-Pro honors in his first six years. He won the college Butkus Award in 2006 while at Ole Miss and in 2009, he won the professional Butkus Award while with the 49ers.

Gordon Browning

Soldier, Politician, Statesman (Part II)

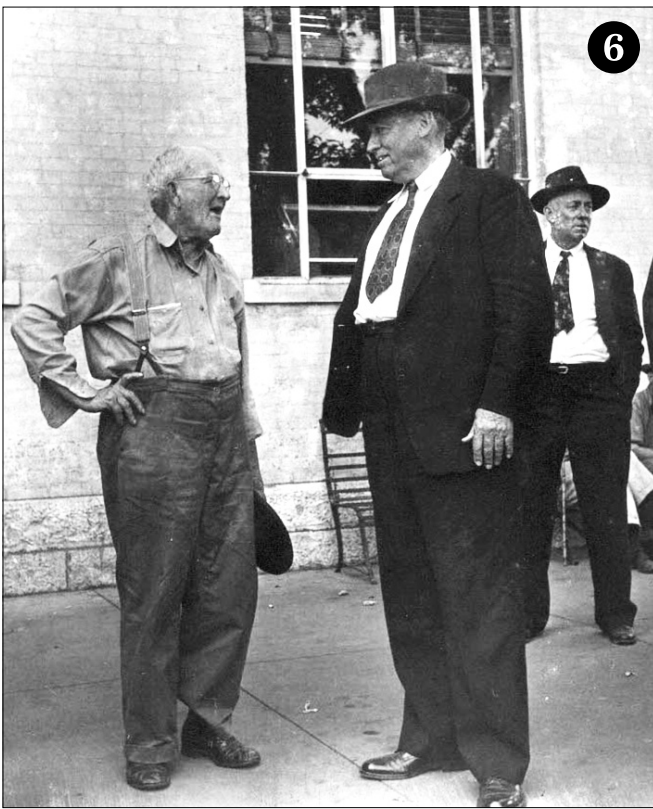

During World War II, Gordon Browning initially served as deputy head of the Belgium-Luxembourg mission, which aimed to restore civilian government to these areas and aided in the Allied victory at the Battle of the Bulge in early 1945. In September 1946, Browning was appointed commander of the military government in the Bremen enclave as part of the Allied Occupation of Germany. Serving in the position for more than a year after Germany's surrender. For his wartime service as a military government officer, most of which was under the direction of General Dwight Eisenhower, Browning was decorated by five governments. He received the Legion of Merit from the United States, the Order of the British Empire from Great Britain, the Order of Leopold from Belgium, the Order of Orange Nassau from Holland and the Order of the Adolf Nassau from Luxembourg.

In a letter to his wife, Browning wrote about serving a commander in Bremen with all the luxury provided for him as Military Governor of 8 million Germans; two residences, three cars with chauffeur and many other luxuries; all of which he said he turned back except for what he needed. He told her of the beauty of the place, the lily pond with goldfish, etc. Ida responded, "You better enjoy all that luxury, it won't be that way when you get home."

While his name was put on the 1946 ballot for Tennessee Governor, he refused the nomination and did not campaign. Two years later, he did announce his candidacy for governor. On August 5, 1948, Browning defeated incumbent Governor Jim Nance McCord for the nomination, 231,852 to 158,854. It was the first defeat of a Crump-backed candidate in a major state election in over two decades.

In the general election, Browning faced country music singer Roy Acuff. Republicans had added Acuff's name to their primary ballot as a publicity stunt to draw attention to the party. Browning nevertheless won easily, 363,903 to 179,957.

During his second tenure as governor, Browning enacted several measures aimed at further weakening Crump and other political bosses, including laws requiring permanent voter registration, open election commission meetings, and metal ballot boxes in places where voting machines were not used. Browning signed legislation that partially eliminated the state's poll tax, which political bosses had used for decades to control votes.

Along with election reforms, Browning also increased funding for rural schools and higher education, established a retirement system and minimum salaries for teachers and expanded the state's system of paved roads from roughly 10,000 miles to over 20,000 miles. He established the State Library and Archives, the Cordell Hull Building, the House Office Building, a new School for the Blind and sponsored a million-dollar improvement for the School for the Deaf in Knoxville.

In the 1950 governor's race, Browning beat back a primary challenge by Nashville attorney and state senator Clifford Allen, winning the nomination 267,855 to 208,634. For the first time after the Civil War, no Republican ran in the general election. Browning's only opponent was eccentric attorney John R. Neal, who was running as a third-party candidate. Browning defeated Neal, 184,437 to 51,757.

In 1952, Frank G. Clement challenged Browning for the party's nomination for governor. Clement derided Browning as "dishonest, indecent, and immoral," and criticized the state's pur-

HUNKER DOWN WITH KES

You Can Go Home Again

It was 34 degrees and dropping when we turned on to Bell Street; pretty cold for a guy who'd lived in the Sunshine State for the past 50 years. We parked just inside the chain link fence, behind the visitors' bleachers, in what was deep leftfield when I played baseball here two eons and a light year ago.

I squinted into the darkness toward what used to be centerfield. I saw Tommy Thompson make a throw from the deepest part of this "stadium" all the way to home plate on the fly in 1961. And after all the years, and all the subsequent games and all the water under the dam, I can still see that ball whistling through the air.

Like it was yesterday!

As I tugged on my third pair of pants, pulled my toboggan down tight and double wrapped a scarf around my neck, I questioned my sanity.

I'd travelled over six hundred miles to get here. At least, as I kept telling myself, this wasn't just another high school football game. It was the semi-final state playoffs. McKenzie was an undefeated 13-0. Trenton had won three State Championships in a row and was vying for a fourth. They had lost one game in those years.

It had dropped a couple more degrees as we climbed to our seats.

I played my last high school football game on this field in 1964. But I wasn't thinking about touchdown passes I'd thrown here, or tackles I'd made, or even games we'd won or lost as I stood for the National Anthem.

I was thinking about the first games I'd seen on this field as a youngster. And some special heroes... Bobby C. Melton had that high leg kick when he ran the ball. Jerry Poston caught every pass that came his way. Dennis Coleman was so smooth. Kenny Bouldin was the anchor in the middle of the line. And Leon Colbert made a play or two for those teams...

This field was hallowed ground way before I stepped foot on it.

I remember in the seventh grade, we'd go out on the field sometimes for a P. E. class. I felt like a king. I'd slip away from the others and run down the sidelines pretending I was Bobby C. or Dennis carrying the ball for the game winning touchdown!

I also remember my freshman year; in a spring practice game against Milan. We must have been downright awful. Coach Scott made us wait in the locker room, still in our gear, until everyone left the stadium.

He tuned the lights back on and we went out and ran wind sprints, did head on tackling drills and scrimmaged until Coach Scott got so tired he couldn't blow his whistle anymore. Tommy Herron, Bob Cassidy and David Paschall took turns running over me again and again and...

There was a high price to pay to be on this football field.

As McKenzie scored to take an early lead I thought of John Ingram. Kenny Butler. Marlin Hicks. Bobby Jackson. Jerry Lewis. Billy Barksdale. James Pruitt. Randall Pinson. Classmates I played with. We sweated together; bled on each other; did side straddle hops every day... You don't forget them. Ever!

I wrapped a blanket around my legs at halftime and remembered an all together different group; Pete Joyner and Dr. N. J. Headden. Mrs. Ethel Mitchum, Hollis Hopper, Tom Fields... I don't know that any of these grown-ups ever attended a game I played in.

But I tell you what they did do, along with most of the rest of our little town. They'd see me coming out of Freeman's Men's Wear and they'd wish me well in "Friday's night's game." Mrs. Mitchum would hug me at church and congratulate me on a win. Shoot, she'd give me that same hug when we lost.

The whole town encouraged us; supported us; made us feel special.

And it didn't seem to matter to them that we were more like 5-5 than 13-0. We were THEIR team! You think about being 16 years old and having that kind of backing.

I realize more now than when I played...it was always about the people; teammates, coaches, parents, friends. State Championships are great, don't you think they're not! But it's who you take the ride with that really matters.

I love this little town with all my heart. It was taking care of me when I was too young to notice.

It's why I didn't mind the 650 miles.

And winning the game was an added bonus. It has always been thus after a Rebel victory:

The cold is not as cold.
The air is a bit fresher.
Food tastes a tad better.
The girls are all prettier.
Life is a little more worth living.

Respectfully,
No. 45

Fun By The Numbers
Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:
Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Carroll County Sheriff’s Reports

Domestic Assault — Jerry Lynn Coleman, 64, of 250 Hurt Street, Trezevant, was charged with domestic assault following a Nov. 26 incident at his residence.

According to the report by Deputy Nick Roberts, he responded to Coleman’s residence on a domestic call and spoke with Coleman’s wife. She told the deputy that she and her husband got into a verbal argument, and, at one point, Mr. Coleman threatened to harm himself. Mrs. Coleman said that later that day Mr. Coleman again threatened to harm himself. She said she told him to stop it and slapped him, at which point he slapped her back hard. She said she then tried to call 911, and Mr. Coleman tried to take her phone away. She said she fought him and was able to call 911.

Drug Possession — Stacey Leann Spence, 45, of Greenfield was arrested on drug charges during a Nov. 18 traffic stop near Trezevant.

According to the report by Deputy Chance Townes, he pulled over a white Toyota Tacoma driven by Spence after observing odd driving behavior and the lack of a registration light. Spence told the deputy that she did not have a driver’s license on her and that it was suspended. A K-9 unit was called to the scene when Spence denied Townes permission to search the vehicle, and the dog indicated the presence of illegal substances. While searching the vehicle, officers found substances believed to be heroin and marijuana, as well as a glass pipe.

Drugs, License Violation — Aaron Jock Williams, 34, of 147 Spruce Street, McKenzie, was charged with possession of schedule II and driving on a suspended license (first offense) during a Nov. 30 traffic stop on Field School Road.

Deputy Steven Scott reported that he pulled over a vehicle driven by Williams due to an expired license plate. While speaking with Williams, the deputy detected the odor of marijuana. During a search of the vehicle, Scott found .4 grams of a substance believed to be methamphetamine. A computer check showed that Williams’ license was suspended.

Theft — Deputies are investigating the recent theft of a large amount of money from a residence near Trezevant.

According to the report by Deputy Nick Roberts, he went to a residence on Clay Farm Road on Nov. 29 and spoke with Michael Knight, who said that someone had taken his safe containing $17,000 in cash and numerous vehicle titles. A man and woman, both of Trezevant, were named in the report as persons of interest, but no charges had yet been filed at the time of the report.

HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL

McKenzie Sweeps USJ, Huntingdon

BY JIM POTTS
jpotts@mckenziebanner.com

The McKenzie High Lady Rebels and Rebels apparently didn't eat too much turkey and dressing with the fixings at Thanksgiving or it just didn't show as they swept USJ and Huntingdon on back to back nights last week. They hosted USJ on Monday, November 29 and traveled across Mayo Bottom to play Huntingdon on Tuesday, November 30.

Lady Rebels 52, Lady Bruins 35

McKenzie jumped out to a 15-7 first period lead on their way to a 29-15 halftime lead. The Lady Rebels nailed four treys in the first half alone to help build that lead. In the third period, they outscored the Lady Bruins 16-10 to lead 45-25 heading into the final period. USJ did outscore McKenzie in the fourth period 10-7 but not enough to threaten the Lady Rebel lead as they put away their second win over the Lady Bruins. McKenzie won at USJ on November 22.

Savannah Davis and Mikaela Reynolds led McKenzie with 14 points each. Briley Auvenshine and Kylie Reynolds added seven and five points respectively. Dani Dyer had four points while Katie Chesser and Hannah Dillingham had three points each. Madison Gilbert chipped in two points for the Lady Rebels.

USJ was led by Ava Barham with 15 points. Ava Rose and Ela Golden added four points each while Stella Spencer and Ellen Driver had three points each. Carley Hayes, Gibson Boykin, and Lindsay Mullins all chipped in two points apiece for the Lady Bruins.

Rebels 41, Bruins 38

The Rebels avenged their only loss of the season with a come-from-behind victory over the Bruins. McKenzie lost 42-39 at USJ on November 22.

The Bruins led 15-9 after one period with the Rebels outscoring USJ 9-7 in the second period to make it a closer 22-18 USJ lead by halftime. In the third period, both teams scored eight points each as with McKenzie still trailing 30-26 heading into the final period. It was during the final period that the Rebels got 15 points from six of the seven players currently on the roster while holding the Bruins to ten points to pull off the win.

Zayden McCaslin and Bryson Steele led the Rebels with 13 and 10 points respectively. Bryant Haynes added eight points including a key three-pointer in the fourth period. Carter Kee came off the bench and contributed five points including a three-pointer. Christopher Beck and Hayden Garrett had three points and two points respectively.

Lady Rebels 76, Fillies 55

Having just played the previous night, the Lady Rebels came out hot against the Fillies jumping out to an 8-2 lead in the first two minutes of the game. It became a 15-4 lead halfway through the first period and opened up to a 27-7 lead by the end of the period.

The Lady Rebels outscored Huntingdon 8-2 to start the second period to make it a 35-9 game with five minutes left in the half. The Fillies got hot and made a 9-2 run of their own over the next three minutes to close the game to 37-18 but McKenzie closed out the half with five unanswered points to lead 42-18 at halftime.

Lady Rebels 19-13 in the third period making it a 55-37 lead for McKenzie heading into the final period. Both teams got hot scoring in the final period with McKenzie outscoring Huntingdon 20-18 during the period to finish off the win.

Four Lady Rebels scored in double figures for the game led by Briley Auvenshine with 19 points while Katie Chesser and Mikaela Reynolds both had 14 points. Chesser hit four three-pointers in the contest while Reynolds had two treys. Senior Dani Dyer had 12 points while Savannah Davis added nine points. Kylie Reynolds contributed six points and Ally Gibson chipped in two points for McKenzie.

Huntingdon was led by Lily Kee with 22 points while Sophie Singleton added 14 points. Delany Byars had 8 points and Sydney Anderson had three points for the Fillies.

Rebels 41, Mustangs 28

No one was sure what was going to happen with the boys' contest. Especially with Huntingdon having a full bench of 16 players and McKenzie has only seven due to some athletes still playing football. It is usually a competitive game when these two teams meet and this one was no exception.

Both teams got off to very slow starts with the Mustangs leading 4-2 after the first four minutes of the game. They would continue to lead 8-5 heading into the second period. The second period was a little better for the Rebels as they outscored the Mustangs 12-4 during the period including a pair of three-pointers to lead 20-9 at the half.

McKenzie opened up the third period hitting a pair of treys in the first two minutes to lead 26-9. The Mustangs got a free throw later in the period which would be the only points during the period. The Rebels led 26-10 heading into the final period. Both teams heated up in the final period with the Mustangs getting two quick baskets to start the period cutting the lead to 26-14. Huntingdon also hit three from beyond the arc but it was free throws that finished the win for the Rebels hitting 7-10 free throws in the final period alone.

The Rebels again got points from six of the seven available players led by Bryson Steele with 11 points followed closely by Zayden McCaslin and Hayden Garrett with nine points each. Bryant Haynes added six points while Carter Kee came off the bench and contributed a three pointer and a pair of free throws. Christopher Beck chipped in a point for the Rebels.

A number of Mustangs scored in the contest led by Jeb Atkinson with eight points followed by Jeremiah Irvine adding four points. Ty Kelley, Ethan Ramsey, Keller Smith, and Kaleb Pearson all had three points apiece while Aden Hutcherson and Landon Gordon chipped in two points each for the Mustangs.

The Lady Rebels remain unbeaten at 6-0 while the Rebels improve to 4-1 on the season. McKenzie will be in action again at home against Greenfield Tuesday, December 7 while Huntingdon goes on a three-game road swing to Dresden, Gleason, and at Camden.

Jeb Atkinson and Jeremiah Irvine led the Mustangs with 14 and 13 points respectively while Keller Smith added nine points. Kaleb Pearson had three points while Ty Kelley and Aden Hutcherson chipped in two points apiece for Huntingdon.

The Lions were led by Steven Hobock with 11 points. Tatum Oliver and Trey Addams added six and five points respectively. Reese Bell had four points while Porter Finney had three points and Chandler Turnbow chipped in two points for the Lions.

Lady Bulldogs 75, Fillies 48

first period alone. The game opened with both teams swapping threes but Gleason took an 11-3 lead over the next two minutes and went on to lead 26-15 by the end of the period.

Gleason outscored Huntingdon 19-11 in the second period building a 45-26 lead by halftime. An eight-point third period for the Fillies while giving up 22 points put the game out of reach heading into the final period with Gleason leading 67-34. Gleason came right back with a run including a pair of three-pointers to make it a 16-12 Huntingdon lead at the end of the first period.

Gleason took their first lead 17-16 on a three-pointer with just under four minutes left in the second period. Both teams went scoreless for the next three minutes until the Mustangs retook the lead 18-17 near halftime.

In the third period, the Bulldogs took the lead back with an 11-2 run during the period that gave them a 28-20 lead heading into the final period. The two teams were physical in the third period with plenty of fouls called and that continued into the final period.

The Bulldogs nailed a three in the first 20 seconds to give Gleason a 31-20 lead but the Mustangs weren't done yet as they ran off a 7-0 run over the next 3:30 to make it a 31-27 game. Huntingdon's Jeb Atkinson later tied the game 31-31 on a basket and foul. The Mustangs took a 35-32 lead on free throws but Gleason tied it at 35-35 on a three pointer with 25 seconds left
