Rebels Gearing Up For Exciting Season

BY JIM POTTS
jpotts@mckenziebanner.com

McKENZIE — Last season was a long successful season stretching from late July until the first weekend in December. The Rebels stepped on the field 15 times winning 14 of them. The only loss came to South Pittsburg 24-21 in the Class A State Championship. McKenzie graduated only six seniors from that team. Make no mistake they were all contributers in the journey they took. But there were 12 juniors that are now seniors that played a big part in that journey along with younger players that stepped up when needed.

Head Coach Wade Comer is looking for the Rebels to keep getting better. "That was a great senior class we had last year but now there are holes to fill. What we've done in the past is the past. This is a new year and a new beginning. A process we have to go through but hopefully we'll continue the process and focus on the task at hand and continue getting better." Said Comer. "I've been pleased with the current seniors stepping up to fill leadership roles. A lot of these seniors have been playing since they were freshmen. They've grown and matured to this point. I'm excited for them this season. They have a good work ethic. We've just have to stay humble and keep grinding."

McKenzie should be ranked highly headed into the regular season after earning everyone's attention last year. The regular season schedule features the same teams as last season with the exception of Sequatchie County. The difference will be that the games that were at home will be on the road and vice versa.

They will open the regular season on August 19 at Huntingdon then play three straight games at home against Chester County, South Fulton, and Obion County. Starting September 16, they play three on the road against Perry County, West Carroll, and Dresden before coming back home to host Gleason and Bruceton. Bruceton will be Senior Night. The Rebels will close the regular season with a region matchup at McEwen before entering the playoff race.

The entire starting backfield from last season returns with Jackson Cassidy at quarterback, Marquez Taylor at tailback and Rashad McCreary at fullback. A veteran backfield with depth from players who have seen time back there. Much of the offensive line is back however there are holes to fill in the line.

There are also holes to fill on defense but several of last year's leading tacklers are back including Cassidy, McCreary, Drew Chappell, Zach Aird, and Elijah Edmonson along with others.

So get ready to fill the stands up at home and on the road for what should be an exciting 2022 season.

Have A Great Season, Rebels!

War Eagles To Make More Noise This Season

BY JIM POTTS
jpotts@mckenziebanner.com

ATWOOD — West Carroll's War Eagles had a great 2021 season under new Head Coach Clayton Morris. They finished 8-5 on the year and went two rounds into the TSSAA Playoffs before being eliminated by eventual state semi-finalist Trenton. The War Eagles graduated eight seniors and bring back a solid core of players for this year's season.

The offense will feature several new starters on the line and veterans in the backfield. Head Coach Clayton Morris expects his defense to be aggressive going to the football.

Their schedule opens August 19 hosting Bruceton and traveling to Gleason before coming back home for a region matchup against Humboldt. They travel to South Fulton and then host Halls for Homecoming on September 16 and McKenzie the next week. A region road trip to Lake County closes out September's schedule. After an open date, West Carroll hits the road to Greenfield and Scotts Hill before closing the regular season at home against Trenton for Senior Night.

Huntingdon Mustangs Are Young, Competitive

BY JIM POTTS

HUNTINGDON — The Huntingdon Mustangs come off a successful year that saw them roll to a 9-3 record before falling in the second round of the TSSAA Playoffs. They started the season losing to McKenzie and won their next six games before losing again and closed the regular season with a pair of wins. They won their first-round playoff game before losing in round two in a close contest.

They graduated 15 from last year's team and have 10 seniors returning for this year but lost nine starters on offense. Only quarterback, Gray Eubanks, and one lineman are back on offense. The defense has a few more starters back. Ashton Hutcherson, Landon Gordon, and Elijah Flowers will see plenty of time in the backfield while Blake Reeves returns at tight end. With the line on both sides being young, look for several players to rotate in the line spots.

According to Coach Eric Swenson, "We started out slow in practice but picking up the pace. We have some size on offense but we are young. Defensively, we give up some size but run to the ball well. If we can keep everyone healthy, we can be competitive this year."

Eric Swenson

The Mustangs usually have a tough schedule to wade through and this year is no exception. They host Class A State Runner-Up McKenzie on August 19 before traveling to Jackson South Side and then playing host to Camden, Riverside, and Houston County. A road trip for one of West Tennessee's oldest rivalry games at Milan on September 23. They host Gibson County and Westview before closing out the regular season with road trips to Trenton and Union City.

Football Cats Look to Continue Momentum

Courtesy of Bethel SID

McKENZIE, Tenn. — The Bethel University Wildcat football program got back on the upswing in 2021 finishing with a 7-4 mark. The Cats hope to continue that momentum this fall. The 2022 schedule will as always be tough in what many believe is the toughest NAIA football league in the nation. Bethel competes in the rugged Bluegrass Division of the Mid-South Conference.

Six MSC teams were mentioned in the NAIA Football First Down PlayBook Top 25 Postseason Poll this past fall.

Lindsey Wilson was picked third in the poll. The Blue Raiders earned 381 points in the poll while going 12-1 and reaching the NAIA FCS Semifinals.

Keiser was No. 7 in the poll after receiving 306 points. The Seahawks were 9-3 and reached the FCS Quarterfinals.

Reinhardt was the last MSC team in the top ten of the postseason poll. The Eagles were slotted ninth and earned 289 points in the poll. Reinhardt went 9-3 and made a postseason appearance.

Georgetown was No. 16 in the poll. The Tigers received 184 points in the poll and were 8-2. Faulkner is the final conference team in the top 25. The Eagles were No. 24 after earning fifty-one points and going 8-2.

Southeastern was mentioned in the receiving votes section with three points.

The Wildcats face four of those teams this upcoming season.

The Wildcats will play six home games and five road games this fall. Bethel plays four of its first six games at home.

The Cats return home to battle Point University on the September 10. The game begins at 1 p.m. with Bethel holding a 1-0 margin in the series.

After an open date, the Wildcats return to action at home on September 24. The UPIKE Bears will come calling with the kickoff at 1 p.m. After Bethel's win last year, the series is tied at 4-4.

The Cats hit the road the following week traveling to Georgetown on the first day of October. GC leads the series 12-3. The Wildcats and Tigers will kick off at 12:30 CT.

The Patriots of the University of the Cumberlands will be in McKenzie on October 8. It will be a night game slated for 7 p.m. UC leads the all-time series 8-3.

On October 15, the Cats travel to Taylor County, Kentucky, to face the Tigers of Campbellsville at 12:30 p.m. CT. The Tigers lead the series 10-8.

The Cats will face Thomas More the following week playing host to the Saints on Homecoming at 1 p.m. The series is tied 2-2.

Bethel goes back to the Commonwealth on the October 29. Kickoff in Columbia against the Lindsey Wilson Blue Raiders is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. CT. LWC has a 6-2 advantage in the series.

The last regular season game will be a home game on November 5. Faulkner will be in the house for Senior Day beginning at 1 p.m. Bethel has a 5-4 lead in the series.

Bethel closes out the regular season on November 12 at Cumberland University. The programs have met 33 times with Cumberland holding a 20-12-1 lead between the two. Kickoff is set for 1:30 p.m. in Lebanon.

The Wildcats will need to replace several program record setters. De'Ontay Tate finished with 1,098 rushing yards last year. He became just the 13th Wildcat to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a season. He finished his career with 3,427 yards which is fourth all-time in Wildcat history. Tate had 13 rushing touchdowns on the season. Tate was a first team MSC All-Conference performer.

Quarterback Nolan Chowbay threw 30 touchdowns last year. He passed Sam Castronova who had 28 in 2018. Chowbay finished the year with 3,232 passing yards which is the most in a single season in Wildcat history. Chowbay was named to the MSC All-Conference second team.

The Cats will also need to replace key members in Mike Malone, Dieuly Aristilde, Riley Wood, Hayden Brophy, Michael McClain, Austin Brock, Keyshawn Brummett, and Jared Gentry. Gentry played only eight games because of injuries but still had an all-conference season. He had 29 total tackles with 7.5 of those being tackles for losses. Gentry also had a fumble recovery during the season. Aristilde and Gentry signed pro contracts earlier this year.

The Wildcats have several key performers returning. Wide receiver James Dixon was the Bluegrass Offensive Freshman of the Year. Dixon led the Bluegrass Division and ranked sixth in the NAIA with 1,116 receiving yards. He averaged 101.5 receiving yards per game with 14 touchdown receptions, which also led the Bluegrass last year. Before the season only one Wildcat had 1,000 receiving yards in a single season. Isaiah Hookfin had 1,052 in 2003. Dixon finished with the year with 1,116. Dixon had 14 touchdown receptions on the year which is second only behind Hookfin who had 15 in 2003. Dixon was also named to the MSC Champion of Character team. Dixon was named to the first team as a wide receiver.

Prior to last season only three Wildcats finished their career with 300 or more total tackles. Tyler Murray and Jeremy Beaulieu were tied at No. 1 with 325. Hunter Pingston finished his hall of fame career with 318. Bethel junior linebacker Jakobe Griffin began the year with 209. He finished the season with 311 career stops. Griffin already holds the single season record with 126 tackles in 2019. He had 102 this past season. Freshman Brody Franks had 99 tackles on the season.

Defensive back Vonte Bates is back after an outstanding season. Bates had 99 total tackles on the season. Bates also had three interceptions and was named first team All-Conference.

Devious Christmon is back after having five interceptions last year. He was a first team all-conference selection. Christmon moved to third on the all-time program list for career interceptions with 12.

The offensive line returns several key members including Tyler McCoin and Cole Lyles. Lyles was a first team all-conference selection last year.

Tight end Quashawn Ford was named to the second team all-conference squad. Other key veterans returning are D.J. James, Anthony Hughes and Stavonski Wilkes.

Coach Jasper shared his thoughts on key returners, new faces, the schedule and season. "I am excited about our program and the opportunities that are ahead of us. We have some shoes to fill, but we also return a lot of really good ball players and some key role players that have been in the program, understand how we operate, and are eager to uphold the standard. We have added some great coaches and mentors to the staff which is going to really aid our guys in development as well as bring some new ideas to the table schematically, so that really excites me and the returners on the staff from last season. Our mid-year signees and summer transfers are going to have to come in and step up early. We saw some good things out of Joaquin Collazo, a quarterback from Tusculum College, and were able to add some weapons around him like Logan Davis at tackle, Kayvon Anderson at wideout, Terrance Roberts at running back, a stellar athlete in Cam Jordan from Navy, and several others on the offensive side of the ball. Defensively we have one of the best secondaries in the country and we were able to add some quality guys up front in Nick Andrews and Markel Crawford. We added some playmakers at linebacker in Jeremy Boyland and Gary Anderson. Our freshman class has some great additions as well. We have four TSSAA football state champions and several great young players from New York that have made their way down to the Southeast." Coach Jasper summed up his thoughts. "I feel confident in the job the staff has done putting together a great roster and now it is up to us as to put them in position to be successful. It is no secret the Mid-South is the toughest small college football conference there is, so we will have our work cut out for us, but we have guys that are up for the task."

Coach Jasper enters his fourth year as head coach of the Wildcats. Before becoming the head coach Jasper served as the Assistant Head Coach and worked with the defensive line. Prior to that he held the titles of Offensive Line Coach and Run Game Coordinator and oversaw the strength and conditioning program. Coach Jasper's career record is 15-14 overall and 9-12 in conference play.

Gleason High School Bulldogs Look to Compete More

BY JIM POTTS

GLEASON — The Bulldogs posted a winning season in 2021 with a 6-5 that included qualifying for the state playoffs. They only graduated seven seniors last year and have a good core back for the 2022 campaign.

According to Head Coach Noah Lampkins, the main two things being preached to the kids during the off season is discipline and being accountable which have been issues in the past.

Offensively, Kyzer Crochet is the front runner to replace his brother Colton at quarterback. The receiver spots are solid with Garrett Pinkston and Kursin Gustafson while Drake Lovell, Austin Clark, and Christian Goad will share backfield duties for the Bulldogs. Virtually the entire offensive line returns from last season with the exception of center however there will be some experience filling that hole going into the new year. Hunter Johnson, Aaron Lawson, Blake Inman, Layne Fowler, and Mack Lawrence will be paving the way for Gleason's offense while freshman Trey Mayo will see playing time while the veterans get a breather during games.

Most of the offensive linemen will be playing both ways while Jack Blassingame and Drake Lovell return as Outside Linebackers. Austin Clark and Kaiden Jones will return as inside linebackers. The defensive backfield will have several new faces starting with some experience.

The Bulldogs open at Fulton County, Kentucky on August 19 and host West Carroll before their first Region 6-A contest at Bruceton on Thursday, September 1. They travel to Scotts Hill before hosting a Region contest against rival Dresden followed by a Homecoming contest against Greenfield on September 23.

Following an Open Date on September 30, the Bulldogs play three straight Region games at McKenzie, hosting McEwen, and traveling to Perry County. Gleason closes out their regular season on October 28 hosting South Fulton for Senior Night and it's a Region Contest as well.
