Electric Department Sets Rate for Electric Vehicle Charging Stations

BY JOEL WASHBURN
washburn@mckenziebanner.com

HUNTINGDON (September 29) — Carroll County Electric Department now has an established monthly rate for electricity used at commercial electric vehicle charging stations. The rate is approximately 25 cents per kilowatt-hour, including the base rate and any demand surcharges for the fast-charging stations.

Ryan Drewry, general manager of CCED, told his board the TVA Board of Directors established such rates for free-standing, quick charging stations. CCED charges $100 monthly for the meter, plus the power usage. High-speed charging requires substantial demand on the system and 50 kW service, said Drewry. While Carroll County does not yet have any free-standing EV chargers, Drewry expects a greater need when Ford’s BlueOval City starts producing EV trucks in west Tennessee.

Stand-alone chargers are expected to be installed at convenience stores, restaurants and big-box stores, where drivers can shop or eat while their cars charge.

Unlike residential chargers, that require less demand and longer charging times.

In other business, the board heard a report concerning an annual report filed with TVA that indicates CCED had 1 percent growth in the number of customers and 2 percent growth in sales.

TVA recently established expanded guidelines for secondary electrical producers to connect to the TVA system. Drewry said the new guidelines will help Silicon Ranch move forward with its solar farm in Trezevant.

Three high-speed internet providers are expanding in Carroll County and will interact with CCED. Drewry said CCED will work with the companies - Charter, TEC and Lexington Electric to allow the expansion of broadband internet through fiber optics. Charter expects to add about 1,558 customers, TEC, 220, and Lexington Electric, just a few customers in Carroll.

The board welcomed new member, John Austin, who represents the County Commission. Other members are Lori Nolen, chairman, Chris Gurley, Marty Hurley, David Hale, and ex officio, Joseph Butler.

Structural steel is erected less than one year after Ford and SK On announced their $5.6 billion investment to build a revolutionary all-new electric truck and advanced batteries for future Ford and Lincoln vehicles in West Tennessee. “We are building the future right here in West Tennessee,” said Eric Grubb, Ford’s director of new footprint construction. “This facility is the blueprint for Ford’s future manufacturing facilities and will enable Ford to help lead America’s shift to electric vehicles.”

“Ford’s historic investment in West Tennessee is a testament to our state’s strong business climate and unmatched workforce,” said Governor Bill Lee. “BlueOval City will have a transformational impact on Tennesseans and our economy, and we’re proud this global company will call Haywood County home.”

Ford continues to engage with communities in West Tennessee, including through livestreamed discussions and collaborative projects. Records in 1987, and her onslaught of hits began the following year. Whitley’s tragic death of an alcohol overdose in 1989 left her a widowed working mother. Their duet “Til a Tear Becomes a Rose” earned her a 1990 CMA Award. Her first three albums, Leave the Light On (1989), Something in Red (1991) and Watch Me(1992), all earned Platinum Record awards. Her Greatest Hits collection (1999) is also Platinum. War Paint (1994), Greater Need (1996) and Shakin’ Things Up (1997) are all Gold Record winners. She sang “The Sad Cafe” on Common Threads: Songs of the Eagles, which was named the CMA Album of the Year in 1994. Lorrie Morgan maintained her recording pace in the new millennium, releasing collections in 2002, 2004, 2009 and 2010. In 2012 and 2013, Morgan starred and sparkled in the lavish Enchanted Christmas productions at the opulent Opryland Resort in Nashville. She took that show on the road in 2014.

Morgan has recorded in collaboration with her father, as well as Whitley, Frank Sinatra, Johnny Mathis, Tammy Wynette, The Beach Boys, Dolly Parton, Andy Williams, the New World Philharmonic, and Pam Tillis. She has toured with George Jones and shared a stage with Jerry Lee Lewis, newly inducted into the Country Music Hall of Fame along with Whitley. “My children and I are thrilled to see Keith’s name added to the list of stars who’ve earned their place in the Country Music Hall of Fame,” she says. “It is a well-deserved honor, though Keith himself would’ve been painfully humbled.

HUNKER DOWN WITH KES

Play It Again Sam, And Again...

I was running past the courthouse a couple of days ago with the early Saturday morning sun bouncing off my face. After a long hot summer, the air finally held a hint of that marvelously crisp “first touch” of fall. It was wonderful, but still a fairly routine Saturday morning in this stage of my life...until my mind got to moving faster than my legs.

There was a time when Saturday mornings “jumped off the page at you”...

You should have seen the anticipation on Bobby Brewer’s face when he’d make that early Saturday stroll out to the house when we were in the second grade. We were out of school FOR A WHOLE DAY! We headed down to the big ditch to do nothing...and everything!

We chased Indians, swung on grapevines, dug holes with a broken tree limb and complained about how confining and unnecessary school was. We didn’t think to talk about a friendship that was going to last a lifetime.

Some Saturday mornings Mom would give me and David Mark a quarter and let us walk to the picture show. Talk about an adventure! We’d chase butterflies and ground squirrels and race each other down the railroad tracks. We’d grab for goldfish in the town square pool as we waited for the box office to open at noon.

And then we fought bad guys the rest of the day with Roy, Gene and Lash LaRue. We dodged bullets and rode hard. We smelled the fresh cut hay, didn’t trust the well-dressed saloon owner, lassoed stray cattle (and rustlers) with reckless abandon and, of course, tipped our hats to the ladies.

I remember the first Saturday morning with a TV in the house. We stood up for the National Anthem. And then watched in awe as Mighty Mouse “saved the day;” the Lone Ranger gave away silver bullets; Rin-Tin-Tin was the smartest thing at Fort Apache and Superman literally leapt tall buildings in a single bound!

We enjoyed the commercials, begging Mom to buy Cheerios because they would give us “go power”; Wonder Bread promised to “build strong bodies seven ways;” and we were curious to see what Chef Boy-Ar-Dee’s Beefaroni looked, and tasted, like.

I’m telling you, it might not have been another galaxy, but Saturdays took us far, far away from the ordinary and the mundane...

By junior high Leon had cleared a space for a boxing ring behind the garden.

He’d seen the Paul Newman movie, “Somebody Up There Likes Me,” where Rocky Graziano won the middle-weight championship. Leon made me get in that ring each Saturday morning with him so he could be declared the Champion of the Known World!

He said it toughened me up for my football career. And he might have had a point. There was nothing quite as special as a Saturday morning “savoring” of a big Friday night win!

My girlfriend used to catch a Greyhound bus to McKenzie and then walk out to the house to share in those victories with me. Mom swooned over such a lovely gesture. Dad shook his head in disbelief and warned me, “Son, this girl is trying way too hard.” But, boy howdy, you talk about some interesting fall Saturday mornings!

In 1968 I spent a whole summer of Saturday mornings working at the Grand Ole Opry. I kept visitors moving through the old Ryman Auditorium and gave talks on the history of the place and country music. I met people from all 50 states and several foreign countries.

I hosted the Happy Saturday Morning radio show on WJOE when I first came to Florida. It was not my forte, but it beat getting into the ring with Leon! I still meet folks who are laughing about me giving a weather report...by looking out the window.

Cathy and I had some very special Saturday mornings in the early years, before the kids were born. We talked of things past, present and children that we had not yet experienced, but hoped for.

And they came! Josh and Jesse and I would float down the Cascade River on Saturday mornings with Bill, Tom, Joke and Grover Cleveland Alexander. The rocks always got us. As the bed...er...uh...raft began to toss and turn we’d be thrown overboard into the raging water.

One of the boys would have to pull all seven of us safely to shore...laughing and calling for Nurse Goodbody to come to our aid. We would let our concussions and broken bones heal while we watched Gameday on ESPN.

Those could have been the greatest Saturday mornings of all!

As I circled back by the courthouse on my run home I thanked God all over again for the gift of memory...it can make things so real and so alive you’d think they happened just a whisper ago...

Respectfully,
Kes

McKenzie Garden Club News

The McKenzie Garden Club met on Friday, September 23, 2022, at the home of Debby and Dan Simon with fifteen members attending. In the absence of president, Myra Sasser, and vice president, Donna Herrin, the meeting was called to order by the club secretary, Victoria Ard. Donna Hodge opened the meeting with a devotional reading about the ways in which knowledge can bring pain and cited verses in Ecclesiastes. Afterward, members were treated to a charcuterie board along with assorted desserts and beverages provided by hostesses Debby Simon and Robin Bently.

Sunshine committee chair, Donna Hodge, said no one reported any illnesses or requested a card since the last meeting. She informed the group she brought cards for the members to sign so she would have them ready when needed.

New business topics included the opportunity to participate in the “Scarecrow Grove” event sponsored by McKenzie City Hall. After discussion, the members decided not to participate this year. Discussion then turned to replanting tulips in the Alumni Garden at Bethel University. It was decided to find out if there were voles in the garden before adding more tulip bulbs. At the conclusion of the business portion of the meeting, Donna Ward presented the month’s program. She shared her experiences during her nature tour of the Everglades National Park in Key West, Florida. The Everglades comprises 1.5 million acres and is the largest subtropical wilderness in the United States. It is also one of the most biodiverse places in the world even though 65% of the area has been drained for human use. Donna noted the increasing number of non-native animals in the area including 100,000 Burmese pythons. Members enjoyed hearing about the birds, plants, mammals, amphibians and reptiles in the Everglades. Donna saw alligators and a manatee while touring. She pointed out that manatees are threatened because the sea grass they eat is diminishing from ever increasing algae in the water.

Following the program, members with September birthdays were recognized and the meeting was adjourned.

Farmers Market is Still Open

The McKenzie Farmers Market is into the last few weeks before we close down for the winter months. However, there are lots of fresh fall produce including greens, squash and more. We also have delicious pork and beef tamales, coffee, baked breads, breakfast rolls, organic poultry, natural cleaners, fall candles, and much more. You want to be sure to save the date for the last 4-H Children’s Activity, October 22. We will have Pumpkin Fun. The McKenzie Farmers Market is open Saturdays, 8 a.m. to noon or until vendors sell out, and Tuesdays, 3-6 p.m. We will see you at the Farmers Market!

Bethel-Eastside Family, Community Education September Meeting News

The Bethel-Eastside Family and Community Education (FCE) group met on September 8 with nine members present. The thought for the day entitled “Self Care” was read by the president, Gail Eubanks, and the devotion was given by Carol Hatley, hostess for the month. The devotion, Meditations of the 23rd Psalm, was followed by prayer and reading the club pledge in unison.

Old business topics focused on the FCE booth at the Heritage Festival on September 24 and decisions were made on which members would bring certain items. Finger foods and lemonade will be served along with crafts for sale.

New business included the collection of state and district dues and the continuation of food pantry donations. A motion was made and carried to expand these contributions with toiletries beginning in January 2023.

The educational program featured how the American flag is folded and the symbolism each fold represents. The members voted to meet on Saturday, October 8, at 10 a.m. at the home of Mary and Pennye Mays to carpool to the Paris Landing Lodge for lunch.

The October meeting of the Bethel-Eastside FCE will be held at Lake Halford formerly known as 1000-Acre Lake. The hostesses will be Gail Eubanks and members are asked to bring a sack supper.

Polio Patient to Acclaimed Bethel Athlete and Professor

JACKSON — Dr. Charles W. Mayo, 86, was born on September 1, 1936, in Dyersburg, Tenn. As a child, Dr. Mayo contracted bulbar polio and was in isolation in Memphis for months in an iron lung. After being told he could never play athletics and realizing how lucky he was to have survived, Dr. Mayo discovered a lifelong love of basketball. While at Milan High School, he was the first player in the State of Tennessee to score over 1,000 points in a season, averaging over 30 points per game and 52 points in a single game, all at a time before the 3-point rule was introduced. In high school, he was All-State two consecutive years, and his jersey was retired at Milan High School. He would later teach English and coach basketball at his alma mater, leading his team to the state finals in his third year as head coach.

After high school, Dr. Mayo attended and played basketball at LSU and Memphis State before transferring to Bethel College to play ball and complete his undergraduate degree. At Bethel, he led the NAIA nationally in scoring, led the VSAC in scoring two years, was twice named All-Conference, earned Small College All-American and Honorable Mention All-American Honors. His jersey was retired at Bethel, also, and he was inducted into both the Bethel and Gibson County Sports Halls of Fame.

Dr. Mayo served in the Airborne Unit of the US Army and guarded the Demilitarized Zone in Korea. After service, Dr. Mayo continued his education and earned a Master of Arts degree from Murray State University and a Ph.D. of Philosophy in the English Department at George Peabody College for Teachers at Vanderbilt University.

While studying for his post-graduate degrees and teaching and coaching at Milan High, Dr. Mayo met the love of his life, Ann Fumbanks from McKenzie, Tenn.

Dr. Mayo joined the faculty of Lambuth College in 1968. He served as Professor of English, Chairman of the English Department and Vice President and Academic Dean at Lambuth College. He also served as Professor, Department Head, Executive Vice President & Dean of Students and Acting President at Lambuth University before his retirement in 2009. He received the Outstanding Faculty Award numerous times. He was known for his integrity and dry wit and as a hard, but fair teacher who always expected the most from and cared about his students and fellow teachers.

Dr. Mayo was preceded in death by his beloved son, Clay; his parents, BC and Reavis Mayo; his brother, Kenny; and his sister and brother-in-law, Anne and John Austin.

He is survived by his wife of over 59 years, Ann F Mayo; son, Ben Mayo (Dawn); daughter, Ginny Brimm (Tom); daughter-in-law, Lou Mayo; and his grandchildren: Brooks (Lydia) and Banks Mayo (Clay); Dylan, Drew and Trey Mayo (Ben); and Charlie & Stella Crenshaw (Ginny).

A Memorial Service was at First Presbyterian Church in Jackson, Tenn. on Sunday, October 2, 2022. www.GeorgeASmithandSons.com.

Rebels Tame Lions in Region Match-up

BY JIM POTTS
jpotts@mckenziebanner.com

DRESDEN (September 30) — In a much talked about region contest, McKenzie's Rebels defeated the Dresden Lions 40-7 to take command of the Region 6A lead. Jackson Cassidy and Marquez Taylor both had big nights against the Lions.

The Rebels won the coin toss and elected to defer to the second half so Dresden got the ball first to start the game. It was the Lions who struck first two plays after receiving the kickoff when Dresden scored on a 92-yard touchdown play with the extra point good for a brief 7-0 lead.

The Rebels drove to the Dresden 45 before being intercepted and giving the ball back to the Lions. The Rebel defense got to work forcing the Lions to punt from deep in their own territory. McKenzie got the ball in good field position scoring a few plays later on a keeper by Jackson Cassidy for a 39-yard touchdown. Zach Aird's extra point attempt was good to tie the game 7-7 with 1:42 left in the first quarter.

Dresden drained the remainder of the first quarter clock but, got nowhere due to a third down quarterback sack to end the quarter. The second quarter opened with Dresden punting to the Rebels on a fourth and long play.

A few plays later, Marquez Taylor was in the endzone on a 3-yard touchdown with Aird's PAT good for a 14-7 lead with 8:53 left in the second quarter. After another short Dresden possession, the Rebels got the ball near midfield draining several minutes off the clock with a drive resulting in another 3-yard touchdown by Marquez Taylor. A two-point conversion attempt was no good with the Rebels leading 20-7 with 2:06 left in the half.

Zach Aird ended Dresden's next possession intercepting a Lion pass at the Dresden 35 giving the Rebels a short field to work with. They drove to the Dresden 9 yard line and settled for a 27-yard field goal by Aird for a 23-7 lead with just 6 seconds remaining in the half.

McKenzie got the ball first to begin the second half and drove to the Dresden 20 where Aird nailed a 31-yard field goal with 6:08 left in the third quarter for a 26-7 Rebel lead.

The Rebels wiped out Dresden's first possession of the second half sacking the quarterback twice for big losses forcing a fourth down and long punt.

McKenzie launched another time consuming drive that rolled into the fourth quarter and a Rashad McCreary touchdown that was called back on a penalty. Two plays later Dresden intercepted a Jackson Cassidy pass. The Lions went four plays and turned the ball right back to the Rebels on downs.

This drive went seven plays resulting in a Jackson Cassidy to Etijay Tharpe 21-yard touchdown pass. Aird's extra point was good for a 33-7 lead with 6:53 left in the fourth quarter.

The Rebel defense remained stiff resulting in another short possession for Dresden. Their punt went short giving McKenzie possession at the Dresden 41. Five plays later, Cassidy was in the endzone again on a 19-yard run. Aird's kick was good for a 40-7 lead which ended up being the final score.

The McKenzie defense spoke loud and clear in this contest holding an opponent to negative yardage running the football. Dresden was -3 yards rushing while West Carroll was -9 yards rushing the previous game. The Rebels did give up 146 yards passing and a score, but allowed no first downs on third down plays.

The Rebel offense was dominating pounding out 295 yards rushing and 178 passing yards. Jackson Cassidy had a big game completing 13-21 passes for 178 yards and a touchdown while giving up two interceptions. Cassidy also had 11 carries for 151 yards and two touchdowns. Marquez Taylor ran 23 times for 131 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

Late in the fourth quarter, West Carroll scored on a 35-yard run by Jayden Milton and added a 2-point conversion run making it a 36-22 contest with 1:06 left in the game. # Mustangs Win Sixth Straight HUNTINGDON (October 30) — The offense and defense of Huntingdon worked like a well-oiled machine Friday night as they easily handled the Gibson County Pioneers 50-6 in the Region 7-2A match-up. The Mustangs picked up their sixth straight win of the season and moved to 6-1 on the regular season and 3-0 in the region.

Huntingdon won the coin toss and deferred to the second half. Gibson County went three and out on the opening drive. After fielding the punt, the Mustangs took over near mid-field. In seven plays, Ashton Hutcherson scored Huntingdon's first touchdown from four yards out. Cole Chafin added the extra point giving Huntingdon a 7-0 lead.

Gibson County's second possession ended in a punt as Huntingdon took over at their 30-yard line. A 12-yard run and 28-yard reception by Braxton Montes De Oca put the Mustangs in four-point territory. On first-and-ten from the 30-yard line, Gray Eubanks teamed up with Montes De Oca for a 30-yard touchdown. Chafin's PAT was good as Huntingdon led 14-0 with 4:56 to play in the first quarter.

The Pioneers failed to pick up a first down on their next possession. Brady Warbritton fielded the punt and returned it 45 yards for a touchdown. The extra point was no good and the Mustangs lead increased to 20-0.

The second quarter opened with Eubanks and Elijah Flowers picking up a passing touchdown followed by Hutcherson adding a two-point conversion. Huntingdon led 28-0.

Gibson County was buried deep in their territory to start the next drive. On second-and-twelve from the Pioneer two-yard line, Easton Byars recorded a sack in the end-zone giving Huntingdon two points for the safety, securing a second-half running clock with the 30-lead.

The Mustang offense and defense continued to dominate as Huntingdon picked up 20 additional points before the end of the first half with offensive scores by Warbritton and Elijah Flowers and a pick-six interception by C.J. Pelonero. Chafin added two-extra points for a halftime score of 50-0.

The second half opened with Huntingdon making a series of substitutions that lasted throughout the game. With a running clock and an officiating crew looking to keep the game moving, the region 7-2A game quickly drew to a close. Gibson County would score its only points of the night on a short run from eight yards out following a Mustang turnover. Huntingdon's defense prevented the Pioneers from picking up first down during the game. The final score was Huntingdon 50 Gibson County 6.

Next week Huntingdon begins a tedious stretch of games that include games against Westview, Peabody and Union City all three of which have a chance to make deep playoff runs. Friday night's game against Westview (5-2) is senior night for the Mustangs as it is their last home stand of the season. The Region 7-2A matchup kicks off at 7 p.m.

Cats Keep Rolling with Win at Georgetown

GEORGETOWN, KY — The No. 13 Bethel Wildcats traveled to No. 8 Georgetown Saturday to face the Tigers in a key MSC showdown.

The Tigers took the opening kickoff and marched 69 yards on 12 plays and took the lead at the 10:24 mark. Drew Hartz threw a 13-yard touchdown to Darius Neal. The point after by Chris Cline gave Georgetown the 7-0 lead.

The Wildcats scored at the 13:29 mark of the second. Taylor Yancey threw a five-yard scoring pass to Quashawn Ford. The play capped off a nine-play 56-yard drive. The point after was blocked.

The game turned into a defensive battle the remainder of the half. The Cats outgained the Tigers in total yards, 168-96 but trailed 7-6 at the break. Both teams struggled in third down efficiency in the half. Bethel was just 2-of-8 while GC was just 2-of-9 in third down attempts.

The Wildcats pulled off a trick play in the third when punter Caleb Hall on a fourth and ten from his own 43 yard line passed to Darius Prather for a first down. The 22-yard pass kept the drive alive but a 22-yard field goal attempt by Austin Abbott was blocked. The Cats would not be denied however as they would take the lead a series later. With 8:41 left in the third, Yancey finished off a 51-yard drive with a one-yard rush. The Cats converted on the two-point try as Joaquin Collazo passed to Colby Johnson to give Bethel a 14-7 advantage.

The Wildcats extended their lead to 21-7 with 3:09 left in the third. On a defected 12-yard pass into the end zone, J D Dixon leaped high to give the Cats a 20-6 margin. Abbott's PAT gave Bethel a two-touchdown lead. Bethel's defense dominated the third quarter holding Georgetown to just three total yards in offense.

Bethel moved the margin to 24-7 with 13:32 left in the game when Abbott knocked through a 22-yard field goal. The Tigers scored with 9:13 remaining when Neal rushed in from five yards out. Cline's extra point made it 24-14. The Cats would go on to win 24-14.

Bethel outgained the Tigers 418-194. The Cats had 277 yards passing and 141 in rushing. Collazo was 19-of-33 in the air for 250 yards. Terance Roberts had a career high 121 yards on 32 carries. Dixon had six receptions for 90 yards.

Calen Warren led the Cats on defense with seven total tackles. Vonte Bates followed with five total stops. Brandon Moore, Devious Christmon and Warren had interceptions in the game. Christmon's pick was his 13th career interception which ties him for second most in program history.

With the win, Bethel moved to 5-0 overall and 2-0 in the league. The Tigers fell to 4-1 and 2-1.

Coach Michael Jasper thought his team was focused to begin the game. "This team and staff never cease to amaze me. We came out focused but just could not execute but that did not stop them from staying dialed in and chipping away. Georgetown is such a quality program. Coach Cronin built this place and now Coach Oliver has it rolling. It's like Bear Bryant and Nick Saban so it feels good to get this one here in the Commonwealth."

The Wildcats return home to host the University of the Cumberland's Saturday. It will be the only night game of the regular season with kick-off scheduled for 7 p.m.

McKenzie Middle's Rebel football wrapped up their season with two road trips to Gibson County on Thursday, September 22 and Camden on September 29.

Gibson County

The two teams went toe to toe in the first half with neither team scoring by halftime. Gibson County scored first in the third quarter on a toss sweep with the 2-point conversion good for an 8-0 Pioneer lead. The Rebels answered with a 22-yard touchdown pass from Cole Brown to Jacobi Melton. A two-point conversion pass from Brown to Avery Brown tied the game 8-8 headed into the fourth quarter.

The Pioneers scored a go-ahead touchdown on a reverse with the 2-point conversion no good but took a 14-8 lead. McKenzie was not able to answer the score and lost the game 14-8.

Camden

The Middle School Rebels made the trip to Camden Middle for their season finale winning 18-6 finishing their season with a 6-1 record.

The first quarter went scoreless as both teams tested each other's defense. Just barely into the second quarter, the Rebels recovered a fumble deep in Camden territory and put it in the endzone shortly after. Maddox Sheill ran it in for the score with 6:03 left in the second quarter but the 2-point conversion attempt was no good for a 6-0 McKenzie lead. Shortly before halftime, Cole Brown scored on a quarterback keeper with the 2-point conversion no good making the score 12-0 in favor of the Rebels.

McKenzie took the ball first to start the third quarter and went four and out giving the ball to the Lions on downs near midfield. Camden went to the air for a quick 53-yard touchdown pass with 2:31 left in the third quarter. Their two-point conversion was no good cutting the Rebels' lead in half 12-6.

The Rebels answered the Lion score with one of their own as Cole Brown connected with Avery Brown for a 54-yard touchdown pass with 1:17 left in the third quarter. The 2-point conversion attempt was no good for a 18-6 score at the end of three quarters.

The fourth quarter saw the two teams swap possessions but neither threatened to score as the game ended with a McKenzie win.

Golf Season Ends In Region Tournament

McKenzie's golf season ended at the Region 7 Tournament at Dyersburg on Monday, September 26. Three Lady Rebels and two Rebels competed in the tournament. They included Charli Weatherford, Payton Ognibene, and Anna Weatherford along with Nolan Renfro and Caleb Burke.

Union City's Lady Golden Tornadoes won the girls title while South Gibson's Hornets took the boys title.

The McKenzie golf team loses two seniors in Payton Ognibene and Nolan Renfro but will be returning a strong team for next year along with some new golfers.
