Carroll County Court Clerk News

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year from the Office of your Court Clerks!

COURTHOUSE

On September 1, we welcomed new leadership to several offices in the 24th Judicial District.

Circuit Judge J. Brent Bradberry, Circuit Judge Bruce I. Griffey, District Attorney Neil Thompson and Carroll County General Sessions and Juvenile Judge Michael U. King all took office.

The Judicial System continues to work through civil and criminal dockets. Court schedules and trial dates are on track. Court information may be accessed on our website-www.carrollcountyttn.gov.

We also welcome General Sessions deputy clerk, Anna Wheel. Anna joined our team in August. We look forward to her future here with us. She is enjoying her new position and serving Carroll County well.

It is my honor to serve as 2023 West Tennessee President of the Clerks Association! Serving in this capacity allows me to further expand my duties and services across the great State of Tennessee. Monthly board meetings address important topics like education, legislative updates and state wide conference planning.

PROGRAMS

We always look forward to visits from our friends at

The Technology Center. Criminal Justice students are always eager to learn about court proceedings and job opportunities within the courts.

I plan to continue to support and educate the community on Expunction and its benefits. Programs like these allow us to help and connect our community through outreach.

TECHNOLOGY

Since 2018, it has been my mission to update technology and security systems in the courthouse. Our last two grants, totaling $45,000.00, incorporated additional courtroom technology and security doors for the Juvenile and General Session offices. The court arraignment systems are video driven and used on a weekly basis. The safety doors not only incorporate a higher level of security, but also offer better sight lines and service to our public.

We continue to monitor technological advances to improve our offices and implement updates as needed.

On behalf of the Court Clerk Team, it is our pleasure to serve you.

God bless you and your family this Holiday Season.

— Sarah Bradberry

They displayed their championship trophy earned just one day earlier in Chattanooga. Above Left, McKenzie Marching Rebels Band provided musical entertainment during the parade. Above Center, Nicky and Allison Bowers of Gleason display a Rebels championship cap during the Mistletoe Market at the Farmers Market. Above Right, Santa participated in the McKenzie Parade. McKenzie’s Annual Christmas Parade McKenzie’s Annual Mistletoe Christmas Parade was Saturday, December 3, 4 p.m. in the historic area of McKenzie. The parade began at McKenzie Middle School and ended downtown.

It was a beautiful day for a parade as spectators lined the streets from McKenzie Middle School through downtown to watch the parade.

This year was filled with extra excitement as the city celebrated a second state championship on Friday.

Both McKenzie Lady Rebels, the state champions of Class 1A basketball and the McKenzie Rebels, the 2022 Class 1A football champions were honored during the parade. Both teams displayed the trophies as they traveled the parade.

The parade was one of the highlights of the weekend, along with merchants providing Christmas items, the Farmers Market serving as the Mistletoe Market, Beta Sigma Phi hosting Breakfast with Santa, and the food trucks on the square.

The winners of this year’s parade were (1) Genia’s School of Dance “Dancing Thru the Snow” (2) McKenzie Headstart/Early Headstart (3) The Waters of McKenzie, and Beat-ing Hearts Help Center.

“We are overjoyed with the tremendous amount of support from the community to make the parade a success. We are looking forward to seeing everyone again next year,” said Jennifer Sims, parade coordinator.

Letters To Santa with Photos

Dear Santa,

This year I have been nice. I want a Hatchimal. I love Hatchimals. I would like to give my baby brother a rattle and my sister Rainie a new play kitchen. I love my family. Thank you, Santa.

Love, Grace Brewer, 4, McKenzie

Dear Santa,

This year I've been both naughty and nice, but I can explain! I have a little sister; and I've tried to be good to her, but she takes my toys — WHILE I'M PLAYING WITH THEM! So sometimes maybe there's a possibility that she falls down... because I pushed her. Having a sister is hard, but I still love her and love being her big brother. If you can overlook the pushing, can you please bring me some sensory gel pads, a wobble pad, and an electronic writing toy — so I can practice what I've learned with Mrs. Brandy and Mrs. Gina. Also, please bring a tea set and pop up toaster for my sister and me to share... in our play kitchen. Thank you, Santa! P.S. Please bring my classmates and teachers something great. I love you, Santa!
Love, CJ Martin, 4, McKenzie

Dear Santa,

It's all mine. CJ didn't read the fine print when he became a big brother, but what's his is mine and what's mine is mine... and what's mommy's is mine... and I leave daddy alone. Santa, I've been watching Boss Baby a lot and I figure if I'm going to make CEO by the time I'm five, I need to get serious about my goals now. So I'm going to need a pony — a REAL one this time; and some Minnie Mouse toys, more cooking supplies for my kitchen, and stickers. Thank you, Santa! You're the best!
P.S. Santa, I really do love my big brother and my family. Cuddles and dancing around with them are my favorite. Please bring them something great too.
Love, Savannah Martin, 3, McKenzie
