From: Savannah Dill

Dear Santa,
How are you Santa? How are the reindeer? I know you are very busy.

I would like it if you brought me an orange elf on the shelf, wooden trains and cars, and a wooden airplane. I would also like a new scooter. Mine is slow.

I've been a good boy this year. Also bring my sister some new toys. She has been pretty good. I will leave you out some milk and cookies. Also, I will leave reindeer food for Rudolph and all his friends.

Love your friend,
Hayden Godfrey

Dear Santa,
Hey, my name is Wade. Has everyone at the North Pole been safe from the covid? Is everyone up there having to do all the quarantine stuff like us here in the U.S.? Does your reindeer have to wear masks? I hope everyone is safe and healthy. I know you have eight reindeer, but how many elves do you have? I bet you have thousands of them, and they stay very busy making presents. I have worked really hard being good this year. I always do my homework and chores. Even though I do all my school work at home this year, I am working really hard on my reading. I want to get to the 100 AR point club.

I have tried getting along with my brother, but he is difficult sometimes.

This year my wish list is not that long. The first thing is, I wish the covid would go away, so we all can spend time together. But for the gifts, I would like to have a nerf toy, a lego set, and a baby yoda toy. Thank you for taking the time to read this letter. I hope you, Mrs. Clause, all the reindeer and elves have a very merry Christmas, and you all stay healthy and safe. Just remember to wear your mask and use hand sanitizer when you deliver all the gifts Christmas night.

Love,
Wade Johnson

Dear Santa,
Can you give me a wish to feel good? How are the reindeer? I will leave some carrots for them. I want a scooter, and I wish for my mom to come back. Thank you, Santa.

Love,
Gage Kilpatrick

Dear Santa,
My name is Riley Russell. I have been a very good boy this year. I would like to have a play sword for Christmas this year, I would also like a remote controlled truck. How are all your reindeer doing? Are they ready to fly and give all the boys and girls christmas presents? I will be sure to put out some reindeer food so they can have a snack at my house to keep going. Thank you for what presents you give me this year.

Love,
Riley Russell

Dear Santa,
I hope all of my family can have a get together. I want to get my mom a ring. I want to get my dad some tools. I want a 5 surprise, slime kit, craft kits, surprise toys, and candy.

Jamie Poste

Dear Santa,
I hope you are having a great time at the North Pole and that the reindeer are having fun too. I hope you have a great day or night and I also have some magical reindeer food for all of the reindeer. The elves at my house are doing just fine besides moving everyday and watching me and my brother. I wonder how many presents the elves have made. I want every single Plant vs Zombies legos and the Mandarin baby Yoda from Star Wars. This is my first time having a white Christmas tree and I think that it is very beautiful. I also have an angel on top of the Christmas tree that touches the ceiling. This is going to be a wonderful Christmas with my memaw, papaw, mom and brother. I hope my dad has a wonderful Christmas too. My dad is still deployed and fighting for this country. So, Santa, please don't forget my house this year.

From,
James Swann

Hi, my name is Sky Reneau. This year has been crazy. I have been doing my school work at home instead of at school because of this virus going around called Covid. My parents do not want me and my sister and brother to get sick. I have been really good this year. I have been helping my mom and dad around the house, with cleaning, and doing chores. I'm quiet and listen to my mom when she's teaching me. She also teaches my older sister, Tranny. And sometimes she helps with my big brothers school work. Its been really cold here. It even snowed little the other day. It was amazing. Well like I said, this year I've been really good. And would like to ask you for a barbie. A teacher barbie. And some playdoh would be really great. Like those playdohs that come with a playset. That's all, I know you have lots to do this year.

'Twas The Night Before Christmas

'Twas the night before Christmas, when all through the house
Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse.
The stockings were hung by the chimney with care,
in hopes that St. Nicholas soon would be there.

The children were nestled all snug in their beds,
While visions of sugar-plums danced in their heads.
And mamma in her 'kerchief, and I in my cap,
Had just settled our brains for a long winter's nap.

When out on the lawn there arose such a clatter,
I sprang from the bed to see what was the matter.
Away to the window I flew like a flash,
Tore open the shutters and threw up the sash.

The moon on the breast of the new-fallen snow
Gave the lustre of mid-day to objects below.
When, what to my wondering eyes should appear,
But a miniature sleigh, and eight tiny reindeer.

With a little old driver, so lively and quick,
I knew in a moment it must be St. Nick.
More rapid than eagles his coursers they came,
And he whistled, and shouted, and called them by name!

"Now Dasher! now, Dancer! now, Prancer and Vixen!
On, Comet! On, Cupid! on, Donner and Blitzen!
To the top of the porch! to the top of the wall!
Now dash away! Dash away! Dash away all!"

As dry leaves that before the wild hurricane fly,
When they meet with an obstacle, mount to the sky.
So up to the house-top the coursers they flew,
With the sleigh full of Toys, and St. Nicholas too.

And then, in a twinkling, I heard on the roof
The prancing and pawing of each little hoof.
As I drew in my head, and was turning around,
Down the chimney St. Nicholas came with a bound.

He was dressed all in fur, from his head to his foot,
And his clothes were all tarnished with ashes and soot.
A bundle of Toys he had flung on his back,
And he looked like a peddler, just opening his pack.

His eyes-how they twinkled! his dimples how merry!
His cheeks were like roses, his nose like a cherry!
His droll little mouth was drawn up like a bow,
And the beard of his chin was as white as the snow.

The stump of a pipe he held tight in his teeth,
And the smoke it encircled his head like a wreath.
He had a broad face and a little round belly,
That shook when he laughed, like a bowlful of jelly!

He was chubby and plum, a right jolly old elf
And I laughed when I saw him, in spite of myself!
A wink of his eye and a twist of his head,
Soon gave me to know I had nothing to dread.

He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work,
And filled all the stockings, then turned with a jerk.
And laying his finger aside of his nose,
And giving a nod, up the chimney he rose!

He sprang to his sleigh, to his team gave a whistle,
And away they all flew like the down of a thistle.
But I heard him exclaim, 'ere he drove out of sight,
"Happy Christmas to all, and to all a good-night!"
