"Like A Good Neighbor, State Farm Is There."®

Welcome!

Good evening and thank you again for joining us tonight. “The first responsibility of a leader is to define reality. The last is to say thank you. In between, the leader is a servant.” Max Depree

The first thing I am going to do however, is to say thank you to our amazing food & decorating committee because we all know that true leaders have a servant's heart and these are unmatched in their willingness to serve wherever they are needed – chairman Lynne Moore, Arrika Mitchell, Laycee Johnson, Jennifer Richards, Shelby Huff, Mrs. Lynn Allison & B&G Floral for their tireless work on these awe-inspiring yellow rose arrangements.

And to our Beverage Chairman Cade Taylor who worked with the guys at Atomic Ice House to secure the bubbly beverages for our cocktail hour, and made sure no one left here thirsty. I'm Cortnie Allison Patterson, the Pampa Chamber of Commerce executive director since November of 2021.

Although I am new, the Pampa Chamber of Commerce has been driving business success in our community for almost 97 years. Times have changed since we opened our doors, but our goal remains the same: to serve as the cornerstone of the Pampa community & its businesses. We currently serve 290 members (including the 20 new members who have joined since November), from community organizations and small business owners to mid-size companies and major corporations.

We are striving to position ourselves once again as the central hub of all activity in the Pampa community. We are doing this first through increasing our own activities. Since November, the chamber has held 33 events - a Welcome to the Chamber Dinner, Coffee with Cortnie, the Holly Jolly Christmas Craft Show, 25 Shop Pampa First 2021 prize drawings for prizes from our incredible members, the most magical lighted Christmas parade, three chamber luncheons, and tonight The Yellow Rose Gala celebrating all things Pampa. We have many more events coming up, including our monthly chamber luncheons and more significant events like the Pampa Partnership Golf tournament featuring a night under the stars with #1 Texas country star Wade Bowen and the 38th Annual Country Fair asking you to Bet on

Another way we are increasing community connection is by supporting other groups within our community. So far this year, we have used our tourism funds to help bring people to Pampa by supporting the Top o' Texas Rodeo, PampaFest, the Tri-state Seniors golf tournament, & the Burning of the Bricks.

We are working to make the chamber Facebook page and website events calendar the go-to source for everything happening in Pampa. It has not been uncommon to hear people say there is never anything to do in Pampa, but now we believe they will be forced to decide which of the many things they get to do in Pampa.

This year we launched our Vitality Partnership program, where we asked businesses who supported our vision for a strong and active Pampa to partner with us to make that vision a reality. The 18 businesses you see on the sign to my right answered our call and are almost all represented here tonight. If you represent one of these businesses, will you please stand up? (applause) At this time, I would like to take a moment to recognize our Diamond Vitality Partners. 1. Hall Heating & Air who was the first business to become a Vitality Partner and jumped at the opportunity to support our vision for a strong and active Pampa.

The Golden Hammer

Pampa Chamber of Commerce Board Chairman Tyson Paronto presents Pampa Home & Sleep Store's Michael and Devney Anderson with the Golden Hammer Award. The Golden Hammer Award is a newly added for 2021. It is an award that is based on an individual and or business that has done an outstanding job on renovating, beautifying and brining new life to structures within our community. As many of us are aware there is a building located in downtown Pampa that came from being vacant and boarded up to one if not the most eye-catching locations in Pampa. It was one of the most talked about attractions of the of 2021 Christmas parade. It is with great honor that present the 2021 Golden Hammer award to the Anderson family the owners of Pampa Sleep Store and Furniture Store.

Roy Morriss of the Top O' Texas Goldcoats was awarded the Golden Shoe. The Top O Texas Gold Coats give this award each year. Presenter ReDonn Woods said, "But it's a symbol of dedication and commitment to the Top O Texas Gold Coats and Chamber of Commerce. The person we are honoring today has received this many times before. He attends every function. He is the kindest man you will meet. In any organization you have those few that no matter what you know you can depend on them. This person is Roy Morris. Ironically, he is not here tonight but we will make sure he receives his award."

Business of the year

Live Well Chiropractic

The business we are honoring tonight is in a league of its own. It is one of those quiet businesses that makes a difference in people's lives on a daily basis. They provide services that while not unique to them, by combining these services under one roof, they are one of a kind and a benefit to many. They serve people of all ages and life stages. One of the things that distinguishes them is that they are forward thinking - always looking for what Pampa people may need that they can provide. Because of this, things do not remain static here.

The owner is an Air Force veteran, a Gideon, he does mission work, and he has built a great team of compassionate and caring staff over his 34 years in Pampa.

With a heart for others, this business collect toys at Christmas, provides Thanksgiving dinners through new patient donations, and provides various other services within our community.

On the business front, they offer allergy testing, acupuncture, DOT physicals, drug and alcohol testing, massage therapy, physical therapy, and yoga classes. Another program available is Stay Fit for seniors, an exercise

Citizen of the year

Myrna Orr

I am so honored and thrilled to be introducing the Pampa Chamber of Commerce Citizen of the year.

Our Citizen graduated valedictorian from high school and attended Southwestern State College in Weatherford, Okla.

One of the nominations said that our Citizen has a true servant's heart, giving many hours to the youth of our community. Our citizen was a big part of the Rotary bicycle give away program for deserving youths and has helped often with Pampa's Celebration of Lights, the Children's shopping tour, back to school hot dog cook out, Soup with Mrs. Claus and Snack Pak For Kids.

Do you have an idea who our citizen is YET? Another hint, our citizen is active in the First Baptist church and is on the board of the Community Concert. Do you know now?

If not, my final hint is that our Citizen is active in Pampa Music teacher's association and has taught piano in Pampa for many years with hundreds of students old and young. She plays the organ in her church and for weddings and funerals, plays piano for Chamber luncheons, the Rotary club and other events when asked. Our citizen has

Lexi Maul

It's my distinct honor to introduce this year's student of the year. If you have read a newspaper at all in the past few years, you are no doubt aware of Ms. Maul. She has represented our campus in the state cross country meet three times in her high school career. She has participated twice in the state track meet and finished third in the two-mile and ninth in the mile. It's not uncommon to see Lexi running around the city practicing. Lexi is so regular at running her daily seven miles, my children know that when they see her it's time for them to come home for dinner. Lexi will continue to represent Pampa when she runs for WTAMU track next year. Due to FERPA, I can't tell you her GPA. Let's just say her GPA is as high as gas prices in California. She is currently ranked No. 1 in this year's senior class. She is an active member the National Honor Society and is in STUCO and serves as our student body VP.

When I asked her teachers about Lexi, here are some of the words they used to describe her: tenaciously driven, fiercely intelligent, and selfless. In fact, when I asked her family to come tonight, Lexi asked if she could vol-

2. The City of Pampa who has partnered with and supported the Pampa Chamber for almost 97 years.

3. FirstBank Southwest who has stood by the Pampa Chamber through years of ups and downs and has been the first in line for everything we have done this year.

4. Tireworks TirePros who only recently brought their business to our community and proven in both word and deed that they are committed to a strong and active Pampa.

Courage is contagious. A critical mass of brave leaders is the foundation of an intentionally courageous culture. Every time we are brave with our lives, we make the people around us a little braver and our organizations bolder and stronger.” Brenee Brown 2020 and 2021 required leaders to be courageous on an entirely different level. Anyone who chose to walk into a leadership position during that time proved themselves to be a brave leader. Two incredible women, who were both unable to be her tonight, did just that when they assumed volunteer position of highest responsibility during that time. Brenda Guess our 2020 Chairman of the Board of Directors and Lacey Daniels our 2021 Chairman of the Board for the first quarter helped guide the Pampa Chamber of Commerce through the tumultuous COVID era with grace and strength during a year of unknown and unexpected circumstances “I’ve seen ‘em lose, and I’ve seen ‘em win but I’ve never seen ‘em quit” is one of the phrases etched on the Bonfire Memorial at Texas A&M University. Truer words could not be spoken about our past chairman of the board and honoree of tonight’s banquet, Cade Taylor. General George S. Patton said “Give me an Army of West Point graduates and I will win a battle... Give me a handful of Aggies and I’ll win a war.” All we needed was one Aggie who lead The Pampa Chamber of Commerce

Board with courage and determination through a time of uncertainty and transition into the thriving organization we celebrate tonight.

One last presentation This is an Official Pampan Award for a business that moved their business to town and fully integrated into our community & culture. The owners of Pampa Furniture Exchange, Rick & Sarah Clemens, have embraced the Harvester spirit through supporting our Pampa High School Athletics as well as involved themselves in the helping numerous organizations throughout the community from The Pampa Chamber of Commerce to Meals On Wheels.

Myrna and Darville met while in college and married July 5, 1957 in Cooperton, Okla. They moved to Borger in 1958 and later to Parnpa in 1968 and celebrated 62 years of marriage before Darville’s death in 2019. They have three children, daughter Regina Akst and husband Adam, and sons Dee Orr and wife Alisa and John Orr and wife Cheryl. They were blessed with 8 grandchildren, 14 great grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren. Wow what a blessing.
