Dear Santa,
I try really hard to listen and do what my parents tell me, so I think I am on the nice list. I know my Mom-my & Paddy are! I know you know, but you could bring me a new BLUES hockey puck or any thing with the Cincinnati Bangles or the St. Louis Blues on it. The are my fave, and I would take really good care of them. Thank you, and make sure to eat all the cookies we leave you, because I don't want Emma our dog to eat them. Maybe you should bring her something, too. Oh, and my big both-er has be a very good big brother so make sure to get him something good, too. Love you Bunches.
Rhen Whistler

Dear Santa,
Merry Christmas Santa! I know that this is your busy time of year, but I am getting older now and I would really like a laptop like my friends. There is so much I could do on it and even my homework. I am trying my best at school and my parents are helping me with home-work and spelling words and I have good grades. If I could I would like to ask if you could help make sure we might get a white Christmas. I think it makes it more fun. Take care and drive safe up there!
Allen Whistler
