CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

Constitutional Amendment #1 Vote for One (1)

Democratic Party Nominee

Summary:

This amendment would add a new section to article XI of the Tennessee Constitution to make it illegal for any person, corporation, association, or the State of Tennessee or its political subdivisions to deny or attempt to deny employment to any person because of the person's membership in, affiliation with, resignation from, or refusal to join or affiliate with any labor union or employee organization.

Question:

Shall Article XI of the Constitution of Tennessee be amended by adding the following language as a new section?

It is unlawful for any person, corporation, association, or this state or its political subdivisions to deny or attempt to deny employment to any person by reason of the person's membership in, affiliation with, resignation from, or refusal to join or affiliate with any labor union or employee organization.

Constitutional Amendment #2 Vote for One (1)

Independent Candidate

Summary:

Independent Candidate

This amendment would add to article III, section 12 of the Tennessee Constitution a process for the temporary exercise of the powers and duties of the governor by the Speaker of the Senate—or the Speaker of the House if there is no Speaker of the Senate in office—when the governor is unable to discharge the powers and duties of the office of governor. While a Speaker is temporarily discharging the powers and duties of the governor, the Speaker would not be required to resign as Speaker or to resign as a member of the legislature; but the Speaker would not be able to preside as Speaker or vote as a member of the legislature. A Speaker who is temporarily discharging the powers and duties of the governor would not get the governor's salary but would get the Speaker's salary. The amendment would also exempt a Speaker who is temporarily discharging the powers and duties of the governor from provisions in the Constitution that would otherwise prohibit the Speaker from exercising the powers of the governor and from simultaneously holding more than one state office.

Question:

□ Yes

Shall Article III, Section 12 of the Constitution of Tennessee be amended by adding the following language immediately following the current language in the Section?

Whenever the Governor transmits to the Secretary of State, the Speaker of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, a written, signed declaration that the Governor is unable to discharge the powers and duties of the office, the powers and duties of the office of Governor shall be temporarily discharged by the Speaker of the Senate as Acting Governor, or if that office is unoccupied, then by the Speaker of the House of Representatives as Acting Governor, until the Governor transmits to the same officials a written, signed declaration that the Governor is able to discharge the powers and duties of the office.

Whenever a majority of the commissioners of administrative departments of the Executive Department transmits to the Secretary of State, the Speaker of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives their written, signed declaration that the Governor is unable to discharge the powers and duties of the office, the Speaker of the Senate shall immediately assume the powers and duties of the office as Acting Governor, or if that office is unoccupied, then the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall immediately assume the powers and duties of the office as Acting Governor, until the Governor transmits to the same officials a written, signed declaration that the Governor is able to discharge the powers and duties of the office.

Whenever a Speaker is temporarily discharging the powers and duties of the office of Governor as Acting Governor, such Speaker shall not be required to resign the Speaker's position as the Speaker or to resign as a member of the general assembly and shall retain the Speaker's salary and not receive the Governor's salary, but such Speaker shall not preside as Speaker or vote as a member of the general assembly during the time the Speaker is Acting Governor.

Shall Article III, Section 13 of the Constitution of Tennessee be amended by adding the following language immediately before the period at the end of the Section? except as provided in Article III, Section 12 with regard to the Speaker of the Senate or the Speaker of the House of Representatives temporarily discharging the powers and duties of the office of Governor as Acting Governor Shall Article II, Section 26 of the Constitution of Tennessee be amended by adding the following language at the end of the Section?

This section shall not apply with regard to the Speaker of the Senate or the Speaker of the House of Representatives temporarily discharging the powers and duties of the office of Governor as Acting Governor under Article III, Section 12.

Chili cook-off heats up HMC cafeteria

R. Kelly Jordan Staff Writer

The atmosphere was get $ting\,hot\,in\,the\,Hardin\,Medical$ Center cafeteria last week along with some tongues – as hospital employees gathered to taste samplings of the inaugural HMC Chili Cook-Off.

"Oh man, it was great and everybody that I know loved it. The goal was to boost morale and bring people together. We're trying to improve our work environment and I'd say this certainly helped," said Chris Lambert, an infection and quality control specialist at HMC.

He exclaimed, "It was crazy. We originally thought we might get, maybe, nine or 10 entries. We wound up having 18 chilis entered in the cook-off."

There were five independent judges tasting all 18

chilis and scoring them on a l to 5 scale for the overall winner. There was also a People's Choice award given for the chili chef who accumulated the most spoons.

After each HMC employee or guest tasted their fill of chili, they placed a spoon in a bucket in front of each chili container. The bucket with the most spoons was the People's Choice winner.

Madison Buzanis was declared overall champion, representing the radiology department, and presented a trophy that will have her name engraved on it.

ond place in both categories.

The chili taking second place in both categories was a white chicken chili cooked by Lamanda Taylor, representing Surgery.

"Oh, this is sublime," said one judge after tasting Taylor's chili, adding, "but I just can't score it first place. I love it, but I'm a traditional chili kind of guy - red beans, red sauce, ground beef and chili powder."

Another judge agreed, but also said, "True, but you've got to give the chef points for thinking outside the box and coming with something different. It's not a traditional chili, but it's really, really good."

All five judges agreed there wasn't a bad chili among the bunch, so their choice was difficult, but in the end Buzanis' came out on top.

Lambert noted there was one other fun contest at during the Chili Cook-Offlast Tuesday, which was a "guess how many M&Ms are in the jar" contest, with the person guessing closest winning the jar full of candy.

"Jacob Bomar from (information technology) won it. I don't know how he did it - he must be really good with computers, because he picked up the jar and counted up, and then counted over, and then he did some kind of calculation," Lambert said laughing.

"He was only four off. He guessed 305 M&Ms in the jar, and there was 309."

HMC Marketing Director Lisa Peterson said Buzanis gets to enjoy the trophy for the next year, when it will be passed on to next year's HMC Chili Cook-Off winner with their name added.
