I am very thankful for the warmer sunny days we have had in February. Of course, the ground hog saw his shadow proving there would likely be 6 more weeks of winter weather. With the buttercups, or jonquils blooming throughout the county we know Spring is near. The official first day of Spring will be March 20, but I have seen a big snowfall in the month of March in our county.

Our neighborhood lost a fine man last week with the death of Jerry Harmon on Friday. Jerry and Linda have been my neighbors for many years. He has always been available for any need in the community. May God bless and comfort Linda, Brent, Annette, Ben, Cade, and Jerry's sister, Barbara Harmon Conner of the Nixon Community.

Carpenters are working diligently to finish the porches on my house and we hope to have them finished this week.

I am using my new ramp from the back door to the driveway and very pleased to have no steps to climb. The house fire, dreadful as it was, has brought good things.

Kenna and Tim Stanfill visited with Ruby Baugus in Jackson hospital Saturday. Ruby is recovering from a stroke and will preferably move to a rehabilitation unit soon. Her husband, Jimmy, has been at her bedside constantly. We pray for her complete recovery.

Eureka church welcomed several, visitors to our Sunday morning service and and several who returned to worship following illness. We are proud to report Gary Mancell is improving following a heart attack and surgery. He hopes to join us for worship very soon.

I had dinner Thursday with Kimberlin and Hunter at Two Oaks restaurant. After we were seated, I began to see many friends entering the restaurant. Someone stopped at our table and told me the Woodmen of the World meeting was being held in the party room. Maybe next month I will be able to join the WOW group.

Eureka youth and guests enjoyed a pizza party and a time of roller skating and games Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. Vickie reported about 20 young people attended plus the adults at Savannah Skating Rink.

The Super Bowl game Sunday evening was a nail biter, the score in the final quarter had the Kansas City Chiefs coming out on top by 3 points, defeating the Philadelphia Eagles.

It was so glad to run into Mary Jo Johnson and her sister Betty Miller White out this week.

Mary Jo and her late husband, Detroit Johnson were regular visitor at my grocery store on Florence Rd. in the 1970 and 80's. Mary Jo looks wonderful and is blessed to have her sister near since she has moved to Central Street from her county home near Horse Creek Wildlife on Highway 69S.

Several neighbors have dropped by for short visits last week. Terrie Wilkerson, Shirley Benson, Wes Wilkerson, and others have been surprised at the changes in the house. Sandra Dowling had supper with me on Sunday. Friends and family are wonderful blessings!

Our high school graduating class of 1961 lost 2 classmates this month with the deaths of Mae Lambert and Barbara Wilkerson Replogle. Sympathy to all their families and friends.

Belated happy Valentines to everyone. Let us show our love to others everyday, not just once a year! Have a good week!

A quote this week from author Emily Dickinson, "Love is all there is, is all we know of love." Let us love one another!
