I haven't gotten to write any news in the past three weeks because I had knee replacement on July 13 and I've spent the past three weeks in rehab at Hardin Medical Center.

Let me tell you something, if you ever need a good place to go for therapy I recommend this place very highly. The therapists out there know how to get the job done.

They need a little more room, but maybe someday they will get that. The nurses and staff treat you like you're family. I enjoyed my stay there.

I enjoyed having Linda Casteel, and her grandson Silas and granddaughter Sara Casteel, Doris Hudson, Sue Harris, Laura and Patricia Shelby, Mary Joyce Gray, Martha Stricklin, Linda Stricklin, Jason Estes, Kendrick, Christie, Jessica, and Lizzie Stricklin, Caleb Ozment, Shuan Stricklin, and Chris, Jennifer, Krystyn and Kayde Lambert visit with me while I was in rehab.

I want to thank everyone for the phone calls, cards and visits, but most of all for you prayers while I was in the hospital and in rehab. I appreciated all of them and know prayers work.

I also want to thank our neighbor Brandon Baugus for taking care of Jesse's horse when it got out of the pen last week. It pays to have good neighbors. Thanks again, Brandon.

Visitors with Martha Stricklin Sunday afternoon were Brian, Chad and Paula Stricklin.

Martha hasn't been feeling very well lately and would appreciate everyone's prayers.

I want to extend my sympathy to the family of Patsy Stricklin Dockery, who went home to be with the Lord recently. I pray God will give this family comfort and help get them through these lonely days ahead. I used to work with Patsy; she was a real nice lady.

Walnut Grove will be having their fish fry Saturday at 3 p.m. at the fire hall. Everyone is invited to come out and enjoy some good food and fellowship.

School has started back now so we need to be careful and watch out for the buses. It doesn't seem like it has been out but about a month, but time is sure passing by fast. Christmas will be here before we know it.

Crump gets grant for helipad, memorializes prominent resident

The Crump Board of Mayor and Alderman had only one item of official business on its agenda at its regularly monthly business meeting on July 24, it brought a smile to the faces on the board and in the audience alike.

Mayor Glen Spencer and the board presented a plaque to be hung in the Crump Community Center in memory of Juanita Davis Gillham, who was well-known and well-loved in the city.

The plaque states, "In Loving Memory of Juanita Davis Gillham, for the Years of Service, Dedication, and Love to the People of Crump and the Community."

Gillham was prominent in her service of over two decades at West Hardin Elementary School as school secretary, as well as many years working during elections and assorted volunteer activities.

The plaque presentation was attended by family and friends of Gillham, including her grandson, Justin Davis.

In his mayor's report, Spencer told the board that Crump is being given $6,000 of a recent ThreeStar grant award of $25,000 to Hardin County to fund a new helipad in Crump, to be used for medical emergencies.

School is starting. Lets keep our children safe and watch out for the buses on the highway.

I have got all the tomatoes canned that I had. I didn't get as many as I want, but happy with what I got. God bless me. Have a blessed week.

Lightning fire

The fire that burned this Main Street, Adamsville home down on July 16 was determined by the State Fire Marshall's Office to be a result of a lightning strike, according to Adamsville Fire Chief Kenny Newell on Tuesday.

Firefighters first arrived at the scene about 3 a.m. to find the back porch fully involved. The fire eventually spread inward as firefighters battled not only the blaze, but also a thunderstorm with lightning seemingly trying to thwart their efforts.

The city fire department fought for nearly 10 hours to extinguish the fire, but the home was a total loss.

The home was vacant at the time so no one was injured, and there was some local speculation the cause of the fire may have been arson. Newell put that rumor to rest, saying, "Nope - it was definitely lightning, according to the arson investigator."

SUD: Tank work may cause low water pressure

The Savannah Utility Department announced that beginning Aug. 8 through Aug. 14, all residential, commercial and industrial customers may experience lower water pressures in the vicinity of the Savannah-Hardin County Industrial Park water tank due to elevated tank repairs.

Customers who experience unusual conditions may contact the SUD office at 731-925-4216 or after hours at 731-925-4930.

With Gratitude

I would like to thank each of you who took the time to vote. Thank you so much for your vote of confidence in me as your District 6 School Board Member. With God's help, I will do my best to make sure that the children of Hardin County have the best education possible. We are fortunate that our school system is led by Superintendent Michael Davis who always keeps the protection and best interest of our students first. We as school board members are committed to our children's future and will strive to make Hardin County Schools the best in the state.

Thanks again,
