Defrauding of elderly by construction workers warning from Sheriff's Office

The Humphreys County Sheriff's Office has received information of subjects' flimflamming or defrauding elderly persons in our county. A person comes to the door seeking to do construction or handyman work, does not complete the work, but gets the money up front. If you feel you are a victim, contact the Sheriff's Office at (931) 296-2301. The subjects may have been driving a white Chevrolet dolly pick up.

Details of the Humphreys County Board of Education meeting Thursday, May 27 will be published in next week's edition of The News-Democrat.

Public Safety and Works Committee McEwen Sr. Citizens parking lot discussed, flood insurance program to be studied Jessie Wallace, Chairman, Public Safety and Works Committee, called the Humphreys County Commissioners to order at approximately 9 am Thursday, May 27. There were eight spectators.

John Lee Williams, County Executive, sat with the Committee. Susan Brown assisted Wallace and the Committee.

Also present were Commissioner Richard Garber, Ronnie Carter, Roads Supervisor; Jan Crowell, Register of Deeds; Karin Davis, Tourism Director, Humphreys County Chamber of Commerce; Odell Nichols, Judicial Commissioner and former County Commissioner; Ruby Dell England, President, McEwen Senior Citizens, and her husband; Barton Bone, candidate for County Executive; and Frank Rush-ton, candidate for County Executive.

The Committee approved minutes from their last meeting by unanimous voice vote.

The first item on the Committee's agenda was the McEwen Senior Citizens' parking lot encroachment. Wallace said the amount was less than 1/10th of an acre and said a portion of the parking lot was "erroneously paved" when the facility was built.

"I hope my summary showed what the problem was," Williams said. "About a year ago, Mr. Rawlings had addressed it," but implementation was never done because of his illness and eventual passing.

"When they paved that, they just paved over the line a little bit," Williams said.

"That organization is busy enough that you probably need that other 12 feet," Wallace said.

John Lee Williams, County Executive.

"We really do," England said.

The Committee voted by unanimous voice vote to send a recommendation for approval to the full Commission.

Wallace asked Williams to take the floor and explain the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP).

"This NFIP has been before the Commission in the past," Williams said. He said the NFIP never got the full attention of the Commission and nothing was done.

"When you have the disaster like we've just experienced, it brings it back to the forefront," Williams said. He said the program was passed by the federal government in 1968.

"It provides federally-subsidized insurance for flooding to private property," Williams said. He said that "homeowners insurance does not cover flood water damage," and lack of flood insurance means the homeowner cannot borrow money from federal loan programs.

"If the county does not adopt the flood insurance program, then when we have one of these disasters like we've just experienced, FEMA (Federal Emergency Management Agency) will not provide the full range of available disaster relief that is otherwise available," Williams said. He said FEMA was "not going to rebuild your house."

"To participate in the insurance program where you actually buy the flood

Robert Reid's death brings changes to District 2 race

By Win Anderson, Editor
Because of the death of Commissioner Robert Reid, the campaign for County Commission District 2 has reopened, according to JoAnn Bullion, Administrator of Elections, Humphreys County Election Commission.

"Taylor Hall will not have to get a new petition, but will have to run against whoever files," Bullion said.

Candidates have until 12 noon Friday, June 11 to submit their qualifying petitions to the Election Commission office located at 208 West Wylie Street in Waverly.

Both Reid and Hall were originally running unopposed.

Members of the Election Commission include Dyan Farmer, Chairman; Jess Bowen III, Charlie Musick, Von Gardner, Secretary; and Gary Rickenbrode.

Candidates for District 2 will have until Monday, June 14 to withdraw, according to Bullion.

Public forum for County Executive, County Trustee candidates June 26, 2 pm

The News-Democrat is having a public forum with candidates for the County Executive and County Trustee positions at the top floor of the main Humphreys County Courthouse at 2 pm Saturday, June 26. Questions from the audience and from moderator Win Anderson, Editor, will be asked. The event will start with candidates for County Executive.

Proposed county budget to Committee as a Whole

By Win Anderson, Editor
In Robert Reid's absence (he died Wednesday, May 26), Commissioner Billy Hugh Link called the Committee as a Whole (all County Commissioners) to order at approximately 10 am Thursday, May 27. Absent was Commissioner H. R. "Kit" Carson. John Lee Williams, County Executive, sat with the Committee.

Betty Etheridge, County Clerk, and Susan Brown assisted Link and the Committee.

Also present were Chris Davis, Humphreys County Sheriff; Ronnie Carter, Road Supervisor; Jan Crowell, Register of Deeds; Karin Davis, Tourism Director, Humphreys County Chamber of Commerce; Scott Reese, University of Tennessee Extension Agent; and Odell Nichols, Judicial Commissioner and former County Commissioner.

Link, who said he was sad because Commissioner Robert Reid had died, began the meeting with a moment of silence to honor him.

Link said the only item on the agenda was the county budget, and then turned the meeting over to Williams.

Williams said the budget would change in revenues and expenditures during the year.

"Our goal is to try to balance the budget with anticipated revenues over anticipated expenditures," Williams said. He said he had based the budget for this year on "last year's budget numbers," but believed in starting from "zero and putting in what you need."

Williams said some county programs were "mandated," the Committee had control over the non-mandated programs, and each person believed their program was "more important than anybody else's, so when you start trying to cut programs, it's a gnashing of the teeth." He said that pressure was applied to the County Executive and the person involved with the program in question.

"I've tried to provide a budget that does not lay anybody off and kept the same amount of services to the extent possible," Williams said, "and tried to keep the employee benefits at the same level."

Williams said pages one-three of the documents distributed to Commissioners Jim Graham (l.) and Jessie Wallace.

Committee members were revenues, and he said there was a slight increase in the value of the penny "for property tax revenues." As of May 28, the penny was worth $37,412 and the fire penny $26,489, according to Susan Brown at the County Executive's office.

In response to a question from Commissioner Richard Garber, Williams said there was a program

Music on the Square kicks off 10th season with Donnie Moran-Christie Shephard and Country Nites Band

By Dean Bush
Music on the Square kicks off its 10th season this Saturday night (June 5).

Ten years ago, Mayor David Vaughn and Ron Pace had an idea for a music revue in Waverly and called it Music on the Square. The very first show was a success with 6-700 fans attending. The first performance was by Gary Jenkins and

The Thundering Hearts Band.

And now, ten years later, the show is still going strong. According to Mayor Vaughn, it's even bigger than the very first show. The tenth year's kick off show will feature a local group . . . Donnie Moran-Christie Shephard and The Country Nites Band.

The Country Nites Band was the house band at Country Nites, a musical entertainment and line-dance facility in Waverly for many years.

The tenth year will kick off at 7 pm this Saturday night on the Courthouse Square. . . there will be many vendors with food and drink and a half-time party for the youngsters.

Mayor Vaughn encourages you to attend this opening show. There will be 13 shows this season. . . don't miss a single one.

Donnie Moran-Christie Shephard and The Country Nites Band kick off the 10th season of Music on the Square. The shows starts at 7 pm tomorrow (Saturday, June 5).

Hope everyone had a safe and happy Memorial Day weekend. We thank the soldiers all over for what they are doing to protect us. Hope and pray they will return safely and out of harms way.

Sarah Bell, Evie Jean and Toad Smith went to see Evie Jean and Toad's daughter and her grandson graduate in Gulf Shores, Ala. While there Sarah became sick, but is feeling some better. Remember Sarah in your prayers, we miss her when she is not here. She keeps up with everything. Sarah makes my job easier.

We had breakfast at the center on Tuesday. I cooked some of the ham Frank Rushton brought us and it was sure good. Nothing is better than ham and biscuits. Sorry some forgot about breakfast. They came for lunch and we weren't there. Remember breakfast is always the fourth Tuesday of the month while the other Tuesdays are lunch.

We had several for breakfast and had plenty to eat as usual. I don't think we had any visitors and Fay Vickery won the door prize.

Martha Wendt is having some health problems. We hope her upcoming appointments will be some help.

Betty Gilham is doing some better and getting out more and walking some. She is still having good and bad days. We miss her.

Omega Hill's late husband's great niece graduated from Dickson High School. Omega enjoyed going to her celebration at Robin Park in Dickson.

Sue Smith has a beautiful yard but refuses to fight with the weeds anymore.

Louise Russell finally got his dishes all washed. Oh, well, I'm sure you wouldn't want to use paper plates.

Our Queen Bertie is so gracious as ever and prefers ruling 'with a velvet glove'.

Good to see Jane Abad back and feeling better at our pancake breakfast. Jane was sure a lot of help. Also all the others who helped. We did very well with our pancake breakfast.

Debbie Hill's parents recently had their 71st wedding anniversary. 71 years you don't hear of that much anymore. They are a sweet couple. Debbie sisters, Beck was here from Ohio last week and took Debbie shopping. Her aunt, Shirley and husband, Bill are home from their other home in Florida. We pray that Shirley's health will improve.

Glad Christine Wallace is able to be back with us and also Margaret Shanks is able to be out and about.

Sue reports that Debbie True's animals all survived the flood and Debbie is doing well.

Hattie has a new great nephew. Elijah Palk who was born on May 13, which just happens to be Hattie's birthday.

Welcome back home Anita and Robert from their long away out West in Colorado and Nevada. Betty and Bill were envious. Anita and the doggies were puny at times. When they got home the hay was high and Robert had a bad time doing all the mowing. Surprisingly they were not a bit rusty at card playing. Hope Anita feels better soon.

I told Robert he could not go and stay that long anymore. Don't blame them though as they have family there.

We still have several on our prayer list including

Ray Walker, song leader for 30 years at the Waverly church of Christ, and his wife Marilyn were given an appreciation plaque by the church for their service.

Sarah Bell home from the hospital, Jane Abad, Scott Goodman, Carol Boone, Bob Simpson, Leo Johnson, Judy Johnson, Ronnie England, Judy Schrock, Horace Deck, Gina Montayo, James and Wilma Gier, Herb and Sarah Capps, Mary Wheeler's sister, Sandra Hooper, Willene Capps, Christine Wallace, Charles Forrest, Ben and Fay, Fay's brother, Corbin and sister Cricket, Pete Tarp, and I am sure there are more with all the allergies that are going on. I am better with mine and hope to go fishing this week.

Jeff is feeling better with his leg. He has had a lot of pain with his surgery.

Randy and Janet Stewart spent the week in Gatlinburg and had a good time.

Aaron and his friends caught some fish in my pond last week. They were going to take them home and cook them. I would have liked to see them dressing the fish. Hope they were good.

My granddaughter, Cara, is getting married June 12 to Robert Durham. It doesn't seem like they are old enough. Cara just graduated from Austin Peay State University.

Anthony is traveling all over the state. He is talking to young people about the Lord. Help him in all his work as he is a very dedicated young man. I am so proud of him.

Hope to see my great grandson this week since I haven't seen him in three weeks. I know he has grown.

Amber Wilson had her baby at church on Sunday and he is such a cutie.

Don't forget our gospel singing tonight. Come and bring your voice and sing. That is one way we can worship our Lord through songs. We always sing on the first and third Friday nights.

The Relay for Life will be at the Byrum Phy Park this Friday evening. So come out and support this good cause. They are going to have a lot of food to eat and some games for the children. I plan to walk in the survivor's lap. That is if I can walk that far. I've gotten lazy and don't walk like I should. Got to get started back.

Come and join us in our Rook games on Monday evening, Hand and Foot on Tuesday plus Spades, Hand and Foot on Thursday, Friday games and Singing and Saturday are games.

All for now leaving you with this - Morality may keep you out of jail, but it takes the blood of Jesus Christ to keep you out of hell.

God bless us all.

Tumbling Creek News

By Jean Stewart

A special condolence is expressed to the family in the sad death of Robert C. Reid, age 72, on Thursday, May 27, 2010.

He was retired as former principal of Waverly Junior High School and was also a wonderful helper here in our area in the early 1990, when the landfill and sadness took place.

He was also a good friend to my brother, Jimmy Long.

Roy Nichols of Statesboro, Ga., is visiting a few days with Ann and John Stringer and family. He also visited with his aunt, Murle James in Waverly.

Congratulations go to Thomas Maurice Stuart and his wife, the former Louise Warden, who have been married since June 1960 and will be complimented on Sunday afternoon from 2 pm - 4 pm on June 13, 2010 at the White Bluff United Methodist Church in White Bluff in celebrating their 50th (golden) wedding anniversary.

This also includes a special congratulations to Louise and Maurice, my special friends, that I've always known. Louise has been retired with South Central Bell Telephone, Company since 1983. She first went to work in early 1953 only a short time before I started in the Waverly office. She was always my close friend when we both worked together all those years in the old Dickson office.

Maurice has always made his home in Dickson County, except for the time he spent with the U.S. Army. Also his most favorite has been in White Bluff, where he always kept his former White Bluff Barber shop. He also went by the nickname know as 'Creeping'.

Kevin and Angie Miles, Kelsie, Kayla and Daniel and his brother, Kyle Miles recently left for their summer vacation in Chattanooga and other locations.

Our community sends get-well wishes to James Rumsey of McEwen, formerly of here, who was recently admitted in Horizon's Medical Center in Dickson.

Jennie Lee Monroe

and Wendell visited last Sunday with Rachel and Joshua Artley and Little Sam at their home in Mt. Juliet. They went especially to be with Little Sam, Jennie Lee's great grandson, who was celebrating his first birthday.

Also joining with them were his grandparents, Kay and Brian Monroe and Cole of Murfreesboro; Mary Alice of Cookeville; and Peggy and George Artley of Bell Buckle.

Elise and Brady McGuire stationed with the U.S. Army in Fort Knox, Ky. visited with Cheryl and West Long, Eddie and Ashley.

Deepest sympathy is extended to the family in the death of David Baner recently.

Our special get-well wishes go to a special one, Alvin Fuqua, following a recent stay in Sky Land Medical Center. He and his wife, the former Lillian Peeler, now reside temporarily at 712 North Dupont Street, Madison, Tennessee 37115 and he would appreciate cards.

Kay and Micky Burns and Mickie of Maryville visited weekend with Ann and John Stringer and family and with her mother, Murle James in Waverly. While here they also visited with the Burn's family and family get-together near Waverly.

Tracy Hedge and Jim Dyke of Knoxville also visited the holidays with her parents Ann and John Stringer.

We extend get-well wishes to Mrs. Luella Malone of Fayetteville and hope she is much improved. She is Susan Miller's mother.

Also we extend best wishes to Ova Lee Parchman who was recently admitted in Horizon Medical Center in Dickson.

Angie and Dan Long of Jackson visited recently with Judy and Willie Long.

Judy and Willie Long accompanied with Penny Oelka and Angie and Dan Long also visited last Tuesday in Crossville.

Get-well wishes to the following Millis Martin, Bob Dickens, Jerry Baker

Jr., James Tidwell, Jim Featherstone, Richard Harris, Mike Hood, Patsy J. Sanders, Dot Davis, Sarah Capps, Christine Stuart, Mike Burns, Jr., and Virginia and James Tate.

Kaye Crowell, Jean Stewart and Kensley Crowell accompanied with a group of others attended the recent dance team recognition that took place recently at the Renaissance Center in Dickson.

Hope all our many readers everywhere had a happy Memorial Day on Monday, May 31. There are just not enough words to describe the many blessings we enjoy. Whatever we do remember of those who died for their country will never be enough, but it is important that we continue to remember them, not only on Memorial Day but everyday. They gave their all for us.

Humphreys County Chamber of Commerce

Greeting from the Chamber of Commerce. We want to catch everyone up on our recent activities. The regular meeting of the Chamber was held on May 5 at 7:30 am at the Chamber Office.

Tourism Director Karin Davis gave a report on the financial documents being produced by the Chamber's new Quick-books program. Work continues to enter all financial information, customize reports, and reconcile each and every transaction.

John Hedge, Economic Development, reported he had visited several of the county industries following the flooding and that none were seriously affected. There are also numerous bridges out throughout the county and many in the county are experiencing quite severe damage. It was noted that the Waverly church of Christ was an emergency American Red Cross shelter; they had food boxes, cleaning supplies, etc., from the Church of Christ Relief warehouse out of Nashville.

It was confirmed that the annual Chamber dinner is scheduled for November 4, with the location to be determined. Our guest speaker this year will be Dr. Steve Morse of UT.

"Music on the Square" will begin June 5, and the Chamber will be manning a table each week of the season as a fundraiser. Volunteers to man the table are being sought and a sign-up sheet is at the Chamber Office.

The annual "Fern Sale" conducted by the Leadership Humphreys group was a rousing success this year. Funds raised by the Leadership Humphreys group have provided much needed supplies to the Food Pantry and the Animals Shelter. The Leadership Humphreys 2010 class held graduation ceremonies Thursday, May 20. The Leadership Humphreys training schedule runs for approximately eight (8) weeks and is a very informative and rewarding endeavor.

We want to encourage local industry to enroll employees, McEwen and Waverly High Schools to recommend and enroll students who will be juniors and seniors, and the general public to participate in the 2010-2011 class.

The Chamber also held its monthly breakfast meeting May 19 at Mimi's Café in New Johnsonville at 7:30 am. All attendees had words of praise for the members of our county for the amazing response to the recent flooding disaster. So many have been, and continue to be, helped in a variety of ways. Supplies have been provided, clean-up assistance given, meals prepared and served, clothes distributed, living quarters provided for those displaced, and assistance with FEMA applications. It is a great testament to the fine members of this county for their dedication to helping others.

During the month of May, the Chamber has received four membership applications: Mimi's Café, New Johnsonville; Log Cabin Restaurant in Hurricane Mills; Commodore Hotel and Café in Linden; and Elliot's Stump Grinding in Dickson. We are excited to receive membership applications and have an opportunity to explain how the Chamber provides marketing for our county through print, email, and the Chamber website, www.HereYaAre.com. We appreciate our members so much and encourage every business, service, and/or individual to become a member to support Humphreys County. Research on requests through the Chamber for information about our county, reveals that nearly 1500 requests have been made through the Chamber by personal visit, phone, email, fax, and website concerning both general and specific information - things to do, places to stay, place to eat, museums, meeting facilities, etc., since the first of the year.

A special thanks to each member and/or guest who attended these meetings; these meetings are open, and we encourage everyone to attend. The regular Chamber meetings are held the first Wednesday of each month at 7:30 am at the Chamber office (124 East Main St., Waverly), and the breakfast meetings are each third Wednesday of each month at 7:30 am and locations are alternated between Buffalo, McEwen, New Johnsonville, and Waverly. Each meeting is limited to an hour. Please make plans to attend our next meeting, which is scheduled for June 2nd at the Chamber Office. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact the Chamber at 296-4865 or email hcchamber@bellsouth.net.

THE NEWS-DEMOCRAT VIEWPOINTS

Letters to the editor

•Proud of our county

I was elected Sheriff of Humphreys County in August of 2006, since then I have seen and experienced many things. Who knew on the morning of Saturday, May 1, 2010, when the rains began, by that evening I would be witnessing the most severe flooding Humphreys County has ever endured. The site of what the county and its residents were experiencing was devastating. Emergency crews were called in to rescue people from their homes. I saw people with their heads in their hands in disbelief. People were grabbing whatever personal items they could, and evacuating their homes. I saw emergency workers that knew their own homes were flooding but made the sacrifice to leave and help out the community. Also many volunteers that knew we needed help with boats did not hesitate and brought their boats to come to the aid of others.

Since the beginning as my term as Sheriff, I have promoted teamwork. During the days of the flood and the weeks following, I have witnessed awe inspiring effort and teamwork from all divisions of public safety and residents of the community. There was an abundance of jobs to be done, many of which were new to us all. No matter what the task, everyone jumped in, performed as a team and got the job done.

Not only am I proud of all the members of the Sheriff's Office, but I am also very proud of our county's response in this troubled time. God has blessed us all in many ways. He has allowed us to operate great Police, Fire, City and Highway Departments, and a 911 Center. We are very fortunate to have a resourceful Emergency Management Administration working for us. Also, WQMV Radio deserves a lot of credit for keeping the citizens of our county up to date with information about the flood.

Now, even that the waters have receded; there is still a lot of work to be done. I am certain, we as a community will prevail. There is no other place where I would rather live and serve. I want to personally say thank you to ALL the citizens of Humphreys County for any contribution, big or small, that you made.

Chris Davis
Humphreys County Sheriff

•Tea Party is the real deal

Monday evening as I left the house I told my husband I might be back soon. I wanted to go see if this was the real deal or just a group of local politicians just trying to benefit from the movement. I am glad to say I was not back early and it was the real deal. The "It" is the Tea Party of Humphreys County.

The meeting started with the Pledge of Allegiance and a prayer. The spokesperson was an ordinary citizen, who just like millions across America, have had enough. Enough of the Constitution being stepped on, enough of God being degraded, enough of politicians saying one thing and doing another, enough of a government growing way too fast, enough of the politicians putting our great, great grandchildren in debt up to their ears and enough of the politicians in DC not caring what the American people want but what they and their special interest want.

Stephen Fincher, candidate for Congress, spoke as did a spokesperson for Ron Ramsey, candidate for Governor. Neither of them was endorsed. It is my understanding there will be other meetings with more candidates speaking then the group will do a Straw Poll to determine who we will support.

I am so proud of the organizers of this event who stood up and took a stand. I am also proud of those who filled the Ag building in support. If you are interested in the Tea Party movement watch the Shopper's Guide for announcements about future meetings. It was announced last night there will be meetings on June 14 and 28. I certainly will be there since this is 'the real deal'.

•Thanks for all the help

Many volunteers are gearing down after many weeks of helping our flood affected citizens. Some in this county are continuing to do the work necessary to get us back to "normal". Ron Carter and his crews are working MANY hours to get roads, bridges, etc., so that people can get out and about. Thanks.

I stated National Guard brought the cots, blankets and towels to be used at the shelter. It was the wonderful Police group at New Johnsonville. Thanks.

I cannot cease thanking the church of Christ for their building for shelter, food and clean-up supplies distribution from church of Christ and the Red Cross. The Red Cross ERV trucks that brought the food into the affected areas and church to feed those needing meals were a blessing to many.

The cooperation between all the community offering services to our citizens was amazing. First Baptist for the clothing bank, the assistance for furniture, and other acts; United Methodist for the donated kits, mental health assistance, and the day care set up to help to parents. Your pastors, congregations; others should be proud of the help you provided for your community. I do not mean to imply that these were the only groups that provided needed aid, so please know these THANKS are for you also.

We know that those with water damage are on a long road to repair their homes. Thanks to Mr. Howe, Lee Aldridge and his crews and others who worked many hours to assist homeowners in cleaning out the damaged materials. Any donations, money, time, materials can still be used.

Thanks to the motorcycle riders who donated their registration fees on Saturday for the local Red Cross.

Please, any one who can, help your neighbor, your community, your county. We will all be the better for this.

June is National Dairy Month

By Karen Leigh Leggett, MS, CFCS
County Extension Agent
Humphreys County Extension

We're celebrating National Dairy Month! It's a great time to make sure we're getting the recommended 3 servings of dairy foods each and every day.

Why are these dairy foods vital for our health? First, they are an excellent source of calcium which we need for strong bones and teeth. Another benefit is that calcium-rich diets may reduce the risk of some diseases, including osteoporosis, hypertension and certain cancers.

Milk is the most common of the dairy foods. Most milk is fortified with vitamin D which aids in the absorption of calcium. Beyond calcium and vitamin D, dairy products also provide protein, B vitamins and other minerals which our body needs.

Fermented dairy items, such as yogurt and buttermilk, also contain probiotic bacteria, sometimes called "good bacteria." Probiotic bacteria help to main a healthy digestive tract and may protect against cancer and high cholesterol.

Whole milk dairy products are high in calories, as well as the less desirable saturated fat. By selecting nonfat or low-fat dairy products, we still get all of the same beneficial nutrients but without the harmful fat and extra calories.

If you're off target with the recommended servings of dairy each day, here are some simple ways to add more nonfat or low-fat dairy items to your menu.

Try making a smoothie in a blender. Include fruited yogurt, a banana, fresh or frozen fruit and ice. This is a refreshing and filling drink, especially in this hot weather. 'And it's full of nutritional value.

If you're in the mood for a quesadilla, use low-fat cheese on a whole wheat tortilla. Fold in half and microwave. Serve with your favorite salsa. Keep in mind that the cheese gets really hot in the microwave. So let the quesadilla cool a bit before eating.

You can also give your soups and casseroles extra nutritional value by adding nonfat dried milk. This is one of the simplest ways to add more dairy for healthy teeth and bones.

If you would like more information on this topic, please call Karen Leggett at (931) 296-2543 or visit the Humphreys County Extension Office at 108 Thompson Avenue in Waverly.

The week in law enforcement

Photos by Grace Tinnell

This maroon BMW, being driven by Brent Fifth, went off Highway 13 South and down a drop off at approximately 5:05 pm on Wednesday, May 26. Two were injured in the accident. A Tennessee Highway Patrol Trooper, Humphreys County Sheriff's Deputy Tim Hedge, volunteer fire fighters from the District 2 Fire Department, and Pro-Med EMS worked the scene.

This black car went off the road and under a fence in the field after a tie-rod broke at approximately 7 pm Saturday, May 29. On the scene was Humphreys County Sheriff's Deputy Tim Hedge.

A methamphetamine lab (above three photos) was found at 380 Leader Road in New Johnsonville. The house was a rental; children were taken from the house by welfare workers. On the scene were Wayne Ellison, Chief of Police, and Officers Walter Adams and Shane Daniel, New Johnsonville Police Department; and Humphreys County Sheriff's Deputy Jeff Arnold. The top photo shows a meth lab cleanup truck operated by J. D. Holt, who works in 13 middle Tennessee counties.

to re-evaluate property about three years ago. "We've always relied on growth as a reason we don't have to raise the tax rate." Williams said the recent disaster could cause "the tax base to go down," and the value of the penny might go down.

Williams said sales tax was "a consumer tax," and it was affected by the economy "being in the tank for the last year or so."

"If sales tax passes county wide in August, that's going to pick up some additional revenue that's first out in the county, but it's not being collected now at all," Williams said. He said the measure on the August ballot for a half-cent sales tax would be detrimental to the cities.

Williams said the budget would be balanced by taking approximately $400,000 from reserves.

Williams then proceeded to name each item in the expenditures side of the budget.

"I put the squeeze on all departments about buying stuff," Williams said. He said the proposed budget "does not call for a property tax increase," but he would say to the next Board and candidates for County Executive that "we cannot continue on this slippery slope of no tax increase."

Williams said he had spoken to Jimmy Long, Director of Schools, earlier that morning, and "he will not have his school budget ready by the June meeting and I understand that his lap has been loaded the last several weeks." Williams said that a school budget would require adoption of a "continuing resolution" at the June meeting. Williams said after July 1 and after September 1, any changes would have to be done on a "case by case" basis. He recommended that persons who want things that are not in the current budget go to the Public Safety and Works Committee to have members assess "the need," and then go to the Fiscal Review and Budget Committee to see how "it's going to be paid for."

In going through the items in his proposed budget, Williams said the Election Commission budget had increased $25,000 because of the August and November elections. He also gave details about the County Executive's office, Circuit Court, Chancery Court, Juvenile Court, County Clerk, Register of Deeds, Tax Assessor, District Attorney, County Trustee, Inspection and Regulation (In response to a question from Commissioner Charles Cullum, Williams asked Susan Brown about this item, and she said it was Soil Conservation), Coroner, Library, Health Department, E-911, Jail, Workhouse, and Motor Vehicles; Ambulance Service, Sanitation and Convenience Centers, Tourism, the Agricultural Extension Service, the Airport, Veterans Services, Medical Insurance and Benefits, Fire Services, Drug Controls, Highway and Public Works, and the Animal Shelter.

The recent murder trial with a five-day "locked up" jury cost the county $12-15,000 in Sheriff's overtime, Williams said. State reimbursement would be about $5,000. Williams said there was a second murder trial scheduled during the next fiscal year that would probably exceed the $20,000 for jury costs he had in the proposed budget.

Williams said the Sheriff, Chris Davis, "Comes up everyday with something new he'd like to have. He does a pretty dad-gummed good job of holding it in line. He scrounges and he buys used patrol cars and . . . he's doing a good job there." Williams said Davis received a Hummer from the DRMO (Defense Reutilization and Marketing Office) that was painted red and used by the U.S. Army in a recruiting campaign.

"I told him to please put something over it because I did not want the taxpayers to see a Humvee parked over there," Williams said. "It looks like CSI Miami." There was laughter from the Committee and the audience. Williams said he was discussing a new position that would be paid for out of drug fund instead of general fund money with Davis.

After comments from Davis, Williams said the Sheriff "does have a system where prisoners pay co-pay on anything they do." He also said the Sheriff has a "great work program" that reduces budget costs and is not often seen.

Williams also discussed autopsies, and said he wanted to sit down with members of the Committee and discuss a cost of $1,500 each for 10-15 performed during last few years. He said cutting down the costs would mean that much more money for other things.

Commissioner Jim Graham asked if surrounding counties had been checked on the subject of autopsies.

"Just because Perry County is spending too much, or just because Dickson County or Houston County is paying the same amount, don't mean that we can't be more frugal," Williams said. He said he was willing to fund autopsies if he knew it was necessary.

"Somebody didn't want to make a decision up at Three Rivers," Williams said. He said suspicions of unusual circumstances "that might be criminal activity" were worth pursuing.

"I've got an example of a man that died at home in bed with a history of heart problems, his wife there present, and they sent him off for an autopsy," Williams said.

"There are certain things in medicine where you have to follow called standards of care," Graham said, "and we have to read those. I don't think a lot of people understand that."

"With a dead body, we're not worried about care other than not treating the body inhumanely," Williams said. "If they're dead, they're dead."

"We have responsibilities to find out information sometimes that lay people just don't understand," Graham said.

"There's a death certificate signed, and there's got to be a cause of death put on there, but a man who dies in bed with a history of heart troubles and no bullet wounds and his throat is not cut from ear to ear and you do any kind of recent investigation of what kind of medication he was taking, pretty soon the medical examiner can say the man died of a heart attack," Williams said. "You don't need to cut him open to see if his blood veins were stopped up."

"It's county wide," Davis said from the audience. "This ain't just for the Sheriff's Office, it's for the three city departments as well. Any death inside the county, whether it's inside the city limits or not, if the city department requests it, the county is still supposed to do it."

"That's just because law enforcement requests it," Williams said. "Unfortunately, I think what is happening is in the zeal of law enforcement, a lot of our law enforcement agencies are just requesting them in every case." He said the medical examiner "must use judgment" before ordering an autopsy.

Williams talked about the library budget.

"She (Ethel Carmical) wore me out over that $31," Williams said. "Reed wore me out over that $31, and I am not going to put it in there. You all can put it in there if you want to." He said, "We've been over this 40 times."

"She should be because she's concerned about it," Commissioner Reed Dreaden said. He said the state would view the proposed budget without the $31 as not meeting maintenance of effort.

By roll call vote, the Committee re-entered the $31 as a supplies line item in the proposed budget. Link and Commissioner William Reid Long voted 'no.'

Williams said Scott Reese, UT Agricultural Agent, was present, and had explained what he wanted 15 times but he (Williams) still didn't understand.

Reese distributed copies of a letter to the Committee from the late Jaycee Rawlings about "appropriations for our office." He said the County Commission decided to send one check to the University of Tennessee and "let them handle everything." This was true only in Humphreys County, Reese said.

Reese said the county would have to pay $7,205 above last year's appropriation. Last year, a 3% raise was included and paid by Reese because of a vacant position (Mrs. Lou Bigger's death) because Rawlings did not want to create a budget amendment.

"Why do you wait so long to fill a position? Is there a reason for that?" Commissioner Glenn Shivers asked.

"Yes. The reason that Mrs. Biggers' position was held open so long was so that the state could repeat money," Reese responded. "There was a hiring freeze on (at UT)."

The Committee, by roll call vote, approved sending the $7,205 increase to the full Commission. Commissioners Jim Graham, Larry Mayberry, and Eddy Rochelle voted 'no.' Williams said he would adjust the final budget accordingly.

Williams said during the last fiscal year, a $53,000 check had been sent to the Chamber of Commerce.

"They used $25,000 for the Chamber's budget, and they used $28,000 of that to fund Mrs. Davis's duties and her contract as Tourism Director," Williams said. He recommended sending the Chamber $25,000 and bringing all Chamber of Commerce and Tourism under the control of the County Executive's office.

"I don't want that tourism money to become a big slush fund," Williams said.

Williams said about $70,000 for the airport would be 90% funded by the state and would probably require a budget amendment until the final number came. He said the airport was federally funded through the state and had a five-year plan for "use of the facility."

"What income does the county get from the airport?" Shivers asked.

"The only income we get, squire, is a small markup on gasoline sales," Williams replied, "and we get a small annual amount from hanger rentals." He said the airport was "another public service." Williams said that Rochelle was on the airport committee.

"How many patrons a month?" Williams asked Rochelle in response to more questions from Shivers.

"I don't know how many. The numbers are coming in right now," Rochelle said. "A lot of people are coming and skydiving on weekends when it's pretty." He said the number of airport patrons was "very low."

"If you'd like to go skydiving, I will buy you a ticket," Rochelle said to Shivers.

In response to a comment by Commissioner Walter Reid Long, Williams said that he would have a year-end report, and said that Susan Brown handles all airport matters.

In response to another question from Long, Williams said that $50,000 went into John Hedge's Economic Development Council.

"We contribute to it, the city of Waverly contributes to it," Williams said. "Meriwether Lewis (Electric Cooperative) contributes to it, I believe McEwen, I don't know whether they quit or not, I think they contribute to it. I'm not sure about Johnsonville, but that's where that money goes, to Economic Development, Mr. Hedge's operation. Don't ask me about value received there." The Committee and the audience laughed.

Ronnie Carter, Roads Supervisor, told the Committee that Chris Davis was working on getting trucks and equipment for Carter's use, and had already placed in his department "several pieces of equipment that we can use in day-to-day operations." Three dump trucks were coming from California, Carter said, compliments of the Sheriff.

Loretta Lynn's Ranch would reopen to the public that day (Thursday, May 27) because a contractor had finished work on the washed-out road. He said four roads were still closed, and "about a dozen bridges were still out." Carter said his crews were working overtime.

Carter said that he was going to "be ahead on a lot of structures," but said the county should have had a policy on replacing wooden bridges with concrete ones.

Carter also said that both TEMA (Tennessee Emergency Management Agency) and FEMA (Federal Emergency Management Agency) were treating the county "real well" and said, "We have been handed some good people."

The Committee of the Whole adjourned at approximately 12:30 pm.

insurance to go along with your homeowners insurance, the county has to be a part of this program," Williams said. He described this as the "upside."

Williams said the downside meant regulations.

"We don't want to equate this with county-wide zoning," Williams said. "That's not a popular thing." He said regulations would apply only if identified within the flood plain areas, but if someone wanted to build a house within that area, that person would have to get a building permit. Williams said that all three cities participate in NFIP, but the county does not have a fulltime building inspector like the cities.

"It's just the areas outside the corporate limits of our county that have never participated in this," Williams said.

He said that Humphreys County was maybe one of as many as ten of the 95 counties in the state that did not participate.

He said the County Commission would have to adopt "these minimum regulations" on building within the flood plain. Williams said the last time the issue came before the County Commission, the concern was "the cost."

Williams said participation can be done by the county in the NFIP within six months of the time the county was declared a disaster area by President Obama, and the citizens of the county can then reapply for benefits from FEMA.

"There will be opposition," Williams said. "No question about that. For some people, they don't want to be told what they can't do. The question is what is the best for common good. What is the bigger common good that we need to look at."

Commissioner Charles Cullum said, "I think the people really deserve a more in-depth look at this thing before we say yea or nay because some people, they're lives are ruined as far as financial goes."

Commissioner Jim Graham said, "I never think there is a problem with gaining information. I agree with Mr. Cullum that we at least need to investigate in-depth the details of this." He said let's "bring it to the light and see what's there."

Commissioner Larry Mayberry said, "You can't finance a house out in the country if you don't have flood insurance and we're not in the program," Mayberry said. He said the objection was we were "telling them what to do" like zoning, but real estate sales would open up.

"I'm very much in favor of going ahead with studying it," Mayberry said.

"I think it's probably going to be confused with county-wide zoning, and we all know that's a sore spot right now," Commissioner Taylor Hall said. He said he joined others in favoring "more discussion" of the program.

"I think we need to study it, but I think the TVA (Tennessee Valley Authority) has already given some guidelines," said Commissioner H. R. "Kit" Carson. "A lot of the county is in the flood zone, so I think Johnny has got a plan for us."

Commissioner Eddy Rochelle said, "I think that our district is going to get hit harder than anybody on regulations and stuff. We've got probably 70% that would fall in the flood plain. We're between the three rivers. So I think the people out there ought to get a shot at seeing what's going on."

Wallace said Rochelle "made a good point." He said the Committee should "bring in some experts and try to make an informed decision."

Graham said he did not meet a single citizen who thought the committee was "trying to tell them what to do with their property" when he worked for the city of Waverly.

Williams said the Public Safety and Works Committee was the right place to come up with a plan. He said a representative from the state who advises the planning committee, representatives from the flood insurance program at state and federal levels, educational materials, a public forum for discussion can all be heard by the Committee.

"It is somewhat time-critical now because of that six-month rule," Williams said, and suggested "starting the ball rolling sometime in July" and having a special meeting for the NFIP.

Wallace mentioned the FEMA website and said links there would provide "pertinent information" related to the NFIP plan. He suggested the Committee give Williams permission to gather information and "do the legwork on this" and bring information to the Committee.

"We probably need to call a special called meeting to discuss it and bring in some subject matter experts to enlighten us farther so we can make an informed opinion on whether to recommend it to the full Commission," Wallace said.

Adjournment occurred at approximately 9:33 pm.

Kitchen Sampler

By Susan Gould

Strawberry Jam
1 lb. strawberries
1 lb. confectioner's sugar

Strawberries are in season! This jam is easy to make and is very sweet. If your berries are very fresh and ripe, they should have enough natural pectin for the jam to set up. Slice a quarter of the strawberries; coarsely mash the rest. Place berries in a heavy saucepan. Add sugar. Simmer at first, stirring frequently to prevent sticking. When sugar has melted, boil slowly for about 20 minutes. The jam should 'sheet' from a spoon at this point. Pour into sterilized jelly jars. Jam may be sealed with paraffin, or processed in a boiling water bath for 10 minutes. The recipe makes about 1½ pints, and should be refrigerated after cooling. If the jam will be used within a month, processing should not be necessary.

Fresh Strawberry Upside Down Cake
2 cups crushed fresh strawberries
1 (6 oz.) pkg. strawberry gelatin
3 cups mini-marshmallows
1 (18 oz.) pkg. yellow cake mix (batter prepared as directed on package)
Preheat oven to 350°.

Spread crushed strawberries on the bottom of a 9x13" baking pan. Evenly sprinkle strawberries with the dry gelatin. Top with mini marshmallows. Prepare the cake mix as directed on the package; pour batter on top of the marshmallows. Bake until a toothpick inserted in the center of the cake comes out clean, about 40-45 minutes. Cool in the pan for 15 minutes. Run a knife around the edge of the pan to loosen sides. Turn the cake out onto a serving tray. Cool and cut into squares. Be VERY CAREFUL turning cake out. If cake should stick to pan, it may be spooned out to serve. Leftover cake should be stored in the refrigerator.

Perfect No-Cook Strawberry Ice Cream

1 lb. strawberries, trimmed and halved
¾ cup sugar
¾ tsp. lemon juice
1/8 tsp. salt
2 cups heavy cream

Coarsely mash strawberries with sugar, lemon juice and salt, using a potato masher in a large bowl. Let stand, stirring and mashing occasionally, 10 minutes. Transfer half of strawberry mixture to a blender and puree with cream until smooth. Return strawberry cream to bowl with remaining strawberries. Mix well, then chill until very cold, 3-6 hours. Freeze mixture in ice cream maker. Transfer to airtight container and place in freezer for firm ice cream. Makes about 1½ quarts.

Our prayers and condolences are with the families of Brantley Reid and Bridgette Reid-Gaines for the loss of their father Robert Reid, and Norma Pearson for the loss of her companion and friend. The community mourns this passing.

Michaelee Bowes of the Tennessee River Road Runner writes, "Hello everyone, welcome to the Weekly Running Update. I hope everyone has had a safe and fun Memorial Day. What a great time of year to get together with family and friends and enjoy the great outdoors. Most importantly, we need to remember and be thankful to all the men and women in the armed forces for all they do to keep us safe, and allow us to continue with our American way of life. If it were not for them, I would not be writing how great it was to see everyone at last week's runs. Tuesday and Saturday, we had some great runs and I look forward to continuing with that this week. Our cycling day is going to stay on the schedule, but it is going to be moved to Monday evenings. However, I want to be present for the first few of these meetings so there will be no scheduled rides until further notice.

For this week's Weekly Running Tip we are going to talk about having the right gear for speed work. As we head into summer, the 5K is usually the distance of choice for the warmer months. With this, we are prompted to train for shorter, faster events with speed work. Aside from the long run, this is possibly the hardest yet most effective workout for us runners. So as always, it helps to be prepared. A wristwatch with a timer is necessary. In addition, it is a great time to get some lighter, faster shoes (AKA race flats), these are guaranteed to take time off. Finally, less is definitely more when it comes to clothing. Less and the thinner the clothing the better, as you will be very hot by the end of the workout! This week we will be meeting, Friday morning, this is a speed workout so we will be doing mile repeats at Valley PT at 5am (Please RSVP for this workout). Finally, Saturday morning we will be running on Ogden Road at 8am. That is all for this week, see you on the road!"

Curtis McCray of Danville, Ill. is home this week visiting his nephew Lamont and Karen Perkins. He worked on little family projects all week for most of us. He went by Waverly Lumber Company to see Rose Mary King and her father James King. In addition, he visited with Gary Hebard and Jesse Stacy in Spring Creek before leaving Waverly Thursday.

Ethel Coleman-Barnes of Nashville hosted a family gathering over the holiday weekend at her sister Maudlene Burns' home on West Richland Avenue. There were several out of town family member present.

Congratulations to Katrina D. Hudson, daughter of Donnie L. Hudson of Camden and Patricia L. Hudson of Waverly, who graduated with high honors and maintained a 4.0 GPA through the one-year of academic studies. She received a diploma for pharmacy technician at National College of Business and Technology on Thursday May 27, 2010. Those attending the ceremony were Alycia Hudson Gross, Monica Hudson and son Javon, Donnie Hudson, III, Ronquez Black, Katrina's boyfriend, Lyn Sims, cousin, Lenny Moss, son, Krishenna Patrick, Nadia Major and son Caleb Stevenson, Donnie Hudson, Sarah and Richard Pearson, and Towana and daughter Talayna Wright. They enjoyed and celebrated at Chili's on West End Avenue for dinner.

Shirley Wylie, Stephanie Wylie, and children Josh and John of Nashville were home over the holiday weekend visit her mother Lois Kelly and Robert and Camille Turner. She attended the funeral of Robert Reid on Sunday.

Joyce and Houston Turner of Hendersonville were home for the holiday weekend to attend the funeral service and to visit his sister Florence and James Anthony and her sister Virginia and Charles Walker.

Dr. James Ronnie Collier, his wife Conra Collier, and his sister Jeannine Matthews of Brentwood were home to attend the funeral of Robert Reid. They stopped by the house during a seven-minute rainstorm before heading back to Brentwood. My brother Willis Turner also came by during the storm.

Ann Turner-Leake of Madison was home for the funeral and visited son Darold Turner and family and attended Salter's Chapel AME Church morning service.

J.D. Carlew of Nashville was home visiting James "Pete" Ralston and family.

Happy birthday wishes this week to Charles Sanders, Cassandra Simmons of Clarksville, Deanthony Bell, Martha Taylor, Beverly Willis of Camden, Chelsea Frederick, Wanda Faye Skelton, and Tequita Ralston.

James and Florence Anthony are celebrating a wedding anniversary this Sunday, congratulations.

Verse and prayer: "I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my whole being shall exult in my God ... For as the earth brings forth its shoots, and as a garden causes what is sown in it to spring up, so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the nations. - Isaiah 61:10-11

"Lord, we pray for all those who have special needs, and for all who love and look after them. Grant them a special measure of your grace, and give us eyes to see not only how we might help and care for them, but what you have to teach us through them. In Jesus' name, amen."

Quote: "If you worry about who is going to get credit, you don't get much work done. - Dorothy Height, a founding matriarch of the American civil rights movement

Leadership Humphreys County opens eyes to County for participants

By Hannah Smith, graduate of Leadership Humphreys County

It is incredible how a person can reside in one small community for so long, yet know so little of it. Past participants of Leadership Humphreys County have often expressed this same sentiment, as well. There are innumerable businesses, centers, offices, departments, and shops that I was wholly unaware of prior to LHC, but now possess useful knowledge of!

These places offer vital services, unique gifts, thriving industry, and so much more! But the most prevalent component I have come to respect is the large group of people who work so hard to keep these places continuing prosperously. Without the sincere desire to provide for the community in their respective ways, all of the places we visited would fail!

Teachers, doctors, plant employees, small business owners, and law enforcement personnel alike must all truly love their specialized career objectives to be effective - and I see that in Humphreys County.

The opportunity to participate in Leadership Humphreys has shown me all the good that a community can do when there is a desire to serve, and a love for service to others. I could attempt to name all the places we were able to visit over the course of the 2009-2010 school year, but I fear I would fail to mention some place or someone. Instead, I challenge you to take interest in your community; stop by the Chamber of Commerce and ask for more information about Leadership Humphreys!

Temple Inland Container Corporation presented their annual contribution to the Humphreys County Vocational-Technical Center on May 17, 2010. The money will be used to improve technology at the center. Plant, Hustburg & New Johnsonville News
By Pamela Mirabella

Welcome to the weekend friends! Hope you had a blessed week. Our friends and neighbors have been busy so let's get right to it, shall we?

First of all we are sending get-well soon to Ella Kate Gardner. Ella Kate broke her collar bone recently and her family wanted to tell her that they love her very much and can't wait for her to get better.

Mariah Daniel, 10 year old daughter of Morgan and Crystal Daniel of New Johnsonville, recently participated in the charity event Fashionology on Thursday, May 20 at the Cannery Ballroom in Nashville.

Fashionology is an annual charity fashion show benefiting the students of Metropolitan Nashville Public Schools and the Pencil Foundation. Proceeds from the show are used to award an annual scholarship, the SEVEN Ways Scholarship, and provide programs and activities for an adopted elementary school assigned by the Pencil Foundation.

Aside from its philanthropic roots, Fashionology also showcases the talent in the Nashville community. Local designers, models, make up artists, etc., join together to put on this great show. Providing the perfect platform, the show highlights the arts and fashion industry in Music City.

Mariah was in the group that modeled the only children's line at the event. She wore clothing designed by Nashville's own Damon (DeeJay) Harding. DeeJay is responsible for his Axiom line of children's clothing.

Axiom's Collection is a children's couture clothing collection for boys and girls featuring dresses, buttons, lace, unfinished hems, bow-ties, crochets, knits, processed cottons, manipulated fabrics, ruffles, tulle, leggings, t-shirts, and bags to name a few. It represents the reshaping and revamping fashion from what we currently know, to what we often simply imagine. Mariah was joined at this event by her parents and grandmother, Pam Dove. For more information on Fashionology or the Axiom Line of clothing, please visit www.fashionology-theshow.com.

The Humphreys County Heat Baseball 9 and 10 team competed under the direction of Head Coach Carson McIlwain in Jackson Tournament last weekend. The Memorial Day blow-out consisted of teams from as far off as Illinois. The Heat boys worked together as a team from start to finish in the tournament and earned themselves a spot in the championship. Unfortunately the Championship game was rained out and the chance at the trophy slipped through their fingers with each raindrop. But a tremendous job was made by all. All the boys hit the ball well including Dalton Mirabella who hit two balls out of the park for two over-the-fence homeruns. Defense was on target as well as some great pitching by Jacob Foster, Trey Tidwell, Jamison Carmical, Andrew Lindsey and Drew McIlwain. Some great defense playmakers included Kenan Rye, Ethan Clapp, Ethan Sanders, and Logan Moore. Excellent job Heat, here's hoping you bring home the trophy next weekend for Humphreys County.

Congratulations to Storm, AAU Basketball team for their win over Tem Hoopz 13 and well played games against Dickson Lady Dragons and Lady Bisons this past weekend in the DCA Wildcat Open at Gallatin High School and Station Camp Middle School. Team members include Madalynn Breeden, Kaitlyn Mason, Becca Rae Tefft, Monica Rion, Skylia Stanfield, Cassie Tidwell, Star Hing, Julia Peek and Coach Ashlee Bullington. Great job girls, we are so proud of you.

Healing Service - New Johnsonville First United Methodist Church will be hosting Craig Marsh who is from New Zealand on Saturday and Sunday June 5-6. On Saturday night June 5, they will be having a healing service. On Sunday he will speak during the morning worship.

Craig was seriously ill after having three digestive operations that left him without a digestive system. He was in constant pain and barely able to eat. On May 4, 1999, God miraculously healed him by re-creating a brand new stomach. Since then, Craig and his wife, Jennie, have been conducting healing crusades worldwide and have seen numerous documented healing. Craig and Jennie have conducted healing crusades throughout New Zealand, Australia, Singapore, England, Spain, Canada, USA, the Caymen Islands, South Africa, Sri Lanka, Israel, and Belgium. They have appeared on numerous Christian television networks and Christian radio. So make your plans to be here on these dates. Remember, Saturday night is the healing service and Sunday morning he will speak. Pass the word to the community about this exciting event.

New Johnsonville church of Christ ended their Vacation Bible School last Sunday by crowning Mr. and Mrs. VBS. Congratulations go to Garrett Cagle who was crowned Mr. VBS with a total of 17 guests brought throughout the entire VBS. Meleia Hugheey was crowned Mrs. VBS. She had a total of 21 guests. They each received a new Bible, a McDonald's gift card and some candy. They were both so excited and we congratulate them on their accomplishment.

A great big 'thank you' to Mr. Jessie Wallace for helping out some New Johnsonville citizens when they had a problem they could find no help for. You will never know how much your professionalism, attention and response time was appreciated. Now thanks to you a young family will be able to get their house on their land and they can start their new lives in their very own home. You, Mr. Wallace are greatly appreciated and wished nothing but the best.

A very special Happy Birthday to my very best friend in the whole wide world...Denise Smith. I am so glad that God blessed me with you in my life. You have made a tremendous impact on me and I will forever hold you dear to my heart. Happy birthday, I just wish you were back in New Johnsonville, where you belong. While I am wishing someone in the Smith household a Happy Birthday, I have to send out a birthday wish to Sarah Smith, Denise's daughter (and the only daughter I will ever have in this house of boys!) Happy 11th birthday Sarah, you are now officially older than Dalton. Hope this is your best birthday ever.

Another special birthday to Kaci Nichols, one of my student teachers at the dance studio. Kaci keep flipping out and you'll go far in life. I love you tumbling girl.

There is now a group of people organizing the same thing here in America. If you would like to participate, every evening at 9:00 pm Eastern Time (8:00 Central), stop whatever you are doing and spend one minute praying for the safety of the United States, our troops, our citizens, and for a return to a Godly nation. If you know anyone else who would like to participate, please pass this along. Our prayers are the most powerful asset we have.

Those blowing out birthday candles are Ward Plant, Emily Reynolds,

Quote of the week... "All gave some but some gave All!" A quote in honor to all of our Service Men and Women. Thank you for thinking of others first. You are a blessing to the United States of America.

If you have news that you would like printed; it must be to me by Sunday of that week. You can get your news into the next article by one of these three ways: telephone 931-535-3069; Email jvilleneews37134@yahoo.com; or by mail 613 Blue Heron Drive, New Johnsonville, Tennessee 37134. I would dearly love to hear from you. Until next week...God bless you all.
