Where To Find Santa This Holiday Season

By Alyson Kay

Whether they've been naughty or nice, people can pick from many holiday events this year if they want to meet Santa. We've compiled a list of Santa's appearances this year, with events that offer plenty of treats, games, and performances for parents and kids alike. Santa may even join some friends from the North Pole for some extra festive fun.

PASADENA CHRISTMAS TREE LIGHTING

On December 3, Santa will arrive in his magic sleigh at Lakeshore

Plaza to visit kids at the Pasadena Business Association's annual Christmas tree lighting ceremony. The event will also feature fire apparatus from Lake Shore and Riviera Beach volunteer fire companies, Christmas carolers and hot chocolate. The event is free, but attendees are encouraged to make donations to A Child's Christmas at the event. Festivities will start at 5:30pm, and the tree lighting will happen at 6:30pm. A rain date is scheduled for December 4. For more information, contact the Pasadena Business Association at 410-360-4722 or visit www.pasadenabusinesassociation.com.

SANTA AT ANNAPOLIS MALL

Santa arrived at Westfield Annapolis Mall's Crate and Barrel court on November 15 and will be there through Christmas Eve for photo opportunities. Hours will vary, but will generally be 10:00am until 8:00pm on weekdays and Saturdays and 11:00am until 6:00pm on Sundays, with extended hours closer to Christmas. Santa will return to the North Pole on Thanksgiving, but will be back early on Black Friday at 9:00am.

Ease Your Holiday Hustle With Restaurant Catering

By Jane Seiss

Remove some of the stress from holiday preparations by relying on area restaurants to cater your event. These small businesses specialize in pleasing local customers, and they provide a range of options whether you are putting together a company breakfast or hosting a Christmas Eve feast for family and friends. All of these restaurants can customize menus, and they offer gluten-free and vegetarian selections.

ANGEL'S FOOD MARKET

4681 Mountain Road, Pasadena

410-255-6800, www.angelsfoodmarket.com

If you want to make everything simple this season, you can start with the holiday deal meal from Angel's. Choose turkey or ham; green beans, mashed potatoes, cranberry sauce, or stuffing as sides; and a dessert of apple or pumpkin pie, or custard. Also available for order are a variety of salads, cakes, pies, bread, rolls and more.

BELLA NAPOLI ITALIAN RESTAURANT

350 Mountain Road, Pasadena

410-255-9400, www.bellanapoli.us

Treat guests to authentic Italian cuisine from Bella Napoli. Catered menu options include antipasti, like bruschetta and calamari, and main courses like New York or Sicilian pan pizza, baked ziti or homemade lasagna. The restaurant offers an award-winning cream of crab soup. Events may range from large pizza parties to full-service wedding receptions, and delivery is also available. Bella Napoli can accommodate private parties up to 55 people in Palma's Room at the restaurant, and the main dining room — accommodating up to 80 — is also a possibility. Please provide at least 48 hours of notice for catering requests and more time for large orders. Bella Napoli is closed on Mondays, but orders may be placed and picked up ahead of time.

GARRY'S GRILL

553 Baltimore Annapolis Boulevard, Severna Park

410-544-0499, www.garrysgrill.com

A hometown favorite, Garry's Grill works with customers to design menus that fit specific budgets and tastes. From straightforward continental breakfasts to tailgating gatherings and elegant holiday weddings, Garry's offers a range of fare inspired by favorites right off its restaurant menu. Visit the website for catering suggestions, and know that anything is possible. Garry's employs a full-time baker, provides cake tastings ahead of ordering, and even offers full-service bartenders for events.

Delivery and service staff are available, depending on client needs. Please provide advance notice for large orders.

GLORY DAYS GRILL

7939 Ritchie Highway, Glen Burnie

443-749-4376, www.glorydaysgrill.com

Glory Days is offering a 10% discount on holiday catering and will deliver orders that meet a $100 minimum. Popular catered items include mac and cheese, wings, and ribs. Glory Days caters to vegetarian and vegan customers with its plant-based impossible burger. If needed, full service is available, including serving staff, paper products, linens, chafing dishes, and clean-up. Desserts are also on the menu, putting the finishing touch on a satisfying meal. Please provide 24 hours of notice for catering and more time for large orders.

GREEN VALLEY MARKETPLACE

1238 Bay Dale Drive, Arnold
8095 Edwin Raynor Boulevard, Pasadena

410-757-0505, 410-255-0070, www.greenvalleymarketplace.com

For party planning made easy and delicious, try Green Valley Marketplace, which has steamed shrimp, loaded circle subs, chicken wings and tenders, meat and cheese trays, hummus and veggie trays, bread bowls and more. While 24 hours of notice is requested for those orders, desserts from the Lauer's Luscious Bakery can be picked up anytime. Try pumpkin rolls or pies made from scratch, and apple cinnamon or pumpkin bread baked fresh. Store hours are daily from 6:00am to 10:00pm in Arnold and 7:00am to 10:00pm in Pasadena. Thanksgiving hours are 6:00am to 4:00pm.

LEDO PIZZA

552 Ritchie Highway, Severna Park
31 Magothy Beach Road, Pasadena

410-544-3344, 410-439-1955, www.ledopizza.com

Lasagna, pizza, and salads are popular catering items from Ledo Pizza. The restaurant caters lunches, dinners, and parties and offers delivery to nearby locations for orders over $250. Ledo is a Super Bowl party fan favorite. Delicious desserts like cookies, brownies, and individual cakes — in a variety of flavors like strawberry shortcake, red velvet or carrot cake — are available. Order 24 to 48 hours in advance if possible, and provide additional notice for large groups. The Severna Park restaurant has a second dining room that can be rented for private events.

TWO RIVERS STEAK & FISH HOUSE

4105 Mountain Road, Pasadena

410-360-1919, www.tworiverssteak.com

Whether you're hosting a simple cocktail party, a hearty buffet or an elegant plated dinner, Two Rivers offers many options to suit your unique needs. Here are some of the many items offered: Italian meatballs, steak bites, shrimp and grits, seared ahi tuna, spinach and artichoke dip, mini crab cakes, barbecue oysters, Tuscan chicken pasta, baked ziti, chicken Chesapeake, lobster pasta, garlic mashed potatoes, and sweet potato mash. ■

Embrace Your Holiday Sweet Tooth With Locally Baked Treats

Bakeries and restaurants throughout Severna Park and Pasadena produce a variety of tasty holiday treats for Thanksgiving, Christmas and every other holiday. We've compiled a list of local shops to highlight some of the unique confectionary creations area bakers have to offer.

LISA'S CAKEPOPS

Lisa and her husband, Glenn, devote their days to creating edible art at Lisa's Cakepops. Every cake pop is made from scratch, handcrafted, and generously double-dipped in premium chocolate in their store behind Severna Park Lanes. Lisa's has candy-corn adorned turkeys for Thanksgiving, and a variety of Christmas-themed creations including Santas, snowmen and reindeer. And, if you have any ideas for unique cake pops for your holiday event, just ask — the answer is "yes," they can make it. These cake pops may look small, but they pack a punch of flavor underneath each uniquely-designed treat.

You can check out all of Lisa's Cakepops creations on the website www.lisascakepops.com or visit the store at 836 Ritchie Highway #16. If you have questions or ideas for your own cake pops, call Lisa at 443-346-3336.

CAKES AND CONFECTIONS BAKERY CAFE

Cakes and Confections Bakery Cafe is an old-fashioned gourmet bakery in Severna Park that offers a large assortment of delicious breakfast pastries, decadent individual desserts, and, of course, a delectable selection of cakes, pies, cookies, brownies and more. The bakery has a variety of holiday dessert specials including pumpkin rolls — pumpkin cake rolled with a rich cream-cheese filling; yule logs — sponge cake rolled with your choice of hazelnut or raspberry buttercream, covered with chocolate buttercream, and decorated with a holiday design; and their own Smith Island cake — a 10-layer Maryland classic with vanilla cake and fudgy ganache icing, or a pumpkin cake with a buttery pumpkin icing. They also offer mini pastries, desserts, and sandwich platters for holiday parties and events.

Visit Cakes and Confections at 342 Ritchie Highway or online at www.cakesandconfections.com. You can also reach out by calling 410-757-7100, or emailing baker@cakesandconfections.com.

KIRSTEN'S CAKERY

With nearly two decades of experience, Kirsten's Cakery in Severna Park provides a personal touch to designing specialty cakes. If you're looking for some perfectly-crafted cupcakes this holiday season, Kirsten's has you covered. Vanilla and chocolate cake cupcakes with buttercream or fudge icing are made fresh every day, and the shop will offer some special flavors throughout the holidays. In November, pumpkin spice, pecan pie, and cranberry orange cupcakes are on the menu, while eggnog, gingerbread, white chocolate, and peppermint cupcakes will be available in December. Walk-in customers are always welcome, and Kirsten's has a daily supply of cupcakes, cakes, cake truffles, mini cupcakes, and cookies.

Visit Kirsten's Cakery at 541-C Baltimore Annapolis Boulevard or online at www.kirstenscakery.com. You can also call 410-431-5005 or email information@kirstenscakery.com.

LAUER'S LUSCIOUS BAKERY AT GREEN VALLEY MARKETPLACE

From specialty cakes to breads, Lauer's Luscious Bakery at Green Valley Marketplace in Pasadena continues to offer an assortment of holiday treats to the community. Whether you're looking for traditional favorites or seasonal selections, Lauer's mouthwatering made-from-scratch bread is always fresh from the oven.

Reach out to Lauer's Luscious Bakery at 410-255-0070 or visit Green Valley Marketplace at 8095 Edwin Raynor Boulevard in Pasadena.

GARRY'S GRILL - BAKERY

Garry's Grill in Severna Park also has a pastry chef. Pastry options from the Garry's bakery are all made in-house, and Michael Santos, the new pastry chef at Garry's, said the holiday pies — apple, pecan and pumpkin — should all be considered for any occasion. These seasonal holiday options compliment a diverse regular menu, which includes everything from a carrot cake to a chocolate peanut butter pie. Also, for any large parties or events, you can't go wrong with the freshly-baked brownie trays and mini cheesecakes.

Visit Garry's Grill at 533 Baltimore Annapolis Boulevard in Severna Park or call 410-544-0499. ■

Holiday Shows Promise Plenty Of Laughter And Thrills

By Zach Sparks

As Bill Murray's character Frank Cross so eloquently declared in "Scrooged," we all act a little nicer, we smile a little easier and we cheer a little more during the holidays. This season, there are plenty of plays, musicals, ballets and concerts to cheer for around town as you celebrate the occasion with the gift of entertainment.

"A CHRISTMAS STORY: THE MUSICAL"

Toby's Dinner Theatre

Now through January 5

A triple dog dare, a leg lamp and a quest for a Red Ryder BB gun — more than 35 years after its release, "A Christmas Story" continues to resonate with audiences. Now, theater-goers can catch the show live at Toby's Dinner Theatre in Columbia to experience the beloved story in a new way.

Join the bespectacled Ralphie Parker in 1940s Indiana. Along the way, encounter yellow-eyed bully Scut Farkus, young Randy as he shows mommy how a piggy eats, and the other characters who proclaim, "You'll shoot your eye out."

Showtimes are 8:00pm Tuesday through Saturday evenings, 12:30pm for Wednesday matinees and Sunday brunches, and 7:00pm Sunday evenings. For tickets, visit www.tobysdinnertheatre.com or call 410-730-8311.

"A CHRISTMAS CAROL"

Annapolis Shakespeare Company

November 30-December 29

As the Annapolis Shakespeare Company website states, "Charles Dickens' original story was written to inspire people to give to others less fortunate with a charitable heart. This production, updated for the 2019/2020 season, is a perfect way to share the holiday with friends and family."

For an updated version of a timeless classic, adapted by Sally Boyett and Donald Hicken, plan to see the show. Tickets go from $39 to $59. Go to www.annapolishakespeare.org or call 410-415-3513 for details.

"SCROOGED FOR CHRISTMAS"

Pasadena Theatre Company

December 5-8

This comedic retelling of "A Christmas Carol" by Charles Dickens focuses on a self-centered businessman who lacks compassion for his colleagues, subordinates and family members. Is there hope for him? To find out, join Pasadena Theatre Company's cast of 32 as they take the stage in the humanities building at Anne Arundel Community College in Arnold for a five-show run.

Shows are at 7:30pm December 5-7 and at 3:00pm on December 7 and 8. General admission is $15. Purchase tickets at www.ptcshows.com.

"THE BEST CHRISTMAS PAGEANT EVER"

Colonial Players

December 5-15

In this hilarious Christmas classic, a couple struggling to put on a church Christmas pageant is faced with casting the Herdman kids — probably the most inventively awful kids in history. You won't believe the mayhem — and the fun — when the Herdmans collide with the Christmas story head on.

To see a full list of December showtimes, call 410-268-7373 or go to tickets.thecolonialplayers.org.

"A CELEBRATION OF CHRISTMAS"

Maryland Hall for the Creative Arts

December 6

The Annapolis Chorale, the Annapolis Chamber Orchestra, and Artistic Director J. Ernest Green will join forces for an evening of music to get attendees in the holiday mood. Tickets range from $18 to $58. The show starts at 8:00pm. To learn more, or to find details on student discounts, visit www.marylandhall.org.

"THE NUTCRACKER"

Ballet Theatre of Maryland

December 7-8, 14-15

The possibility of dreams and the magic of Christmas merge through young Clara's adventures to rescue her beloved Nutcracker from the Rat Queen's evil spell. Audiences are invited to share in the romance, vision and triumph of the show as they rediscover the magic of this timeless holiday tradition through Artistic Director Dianna Cuat-to's award-winning choreography. BTM's professional dancers will bring these characters to life on December 7, 8, 14 and 15 at Maryland Hall in Annapolis.

Nicole Kelsch, Emily Brennan, Lynne Bellinger and Hayley-Ann Vasco head BTM's cast as Clara and the Sugar Plum Fairy, with Alexander Collen, Jackson Kettell, Chang-Hyun Seo and Mark Andrew McCormack sharing the role of the Nutcracker Prince.

Performances are at 7:00pm on December 7 and 14, and are at 1:00pm and 4:30pm on December 8 and 15.

"I can't think of a better way to spend the holidays with family or friends than by attending a live performance of Tchaikovsky's beloved 'Nutcracker,'" Cuat-to said. "This season marks my 16th year of presenting this 'Nutcracker' to BTM audiences, and I still get chills whenever I hear Tchaikovsky's famous overture for the ballet!"

For tickets, go to www.marylandhall.org or call 410-280-5640.

"THE NUTCRACKER"

Chesapeake Ballet Company

December 14-16, 20-22

Here's another opportunity to witness a Christmas party at Clara's house, as Herr Drosselmeyer gifts her with a Nutcracker. After the guests leave, the magic begins as Clara witnesses a fierce battle between the mice, their Mouse King, and Clara's brave Nutcracker. Follow Clara and her Nutcracker Prince through the magical snow forest to the land of the sweets, where she meets the Sugar Plum Fairy.

Showtimes are 1:00pm and 4:00pm at Children's Theatre of Annapolis. Tickets are $20 for adults and $18 for children under 12. For more information, visit www.chesapeakeballetcompany.com.

"THE HOLIDAY POPS"

The Broadway Tenors and Annapolis Symphony Orchestra

December 13

Tis' the season! The Broadway Tenors join the Annapolis Symphony Orchestra at Maryland Hall to bring the greatest holiday songs to life. With classics like "The Christmas Song" and newer favorites like "All I Want for Christmas is You," this concert offers the perfect way to make a spirit bright.

The show starts at 8:00pm. Tickets go from $50 to $100. Learn more by calling 410-263-5544 or going to www.marylandhall.org.

"AN UNEXPECTED CHRISTMAS"

Chesapeake Christian Center

December 13-14

Chesapeake Christian Center's new pastor, the Rev. Jonathan Fuson, and his wife, Missy, will take the lead roles in "An Unexpected Christmas." The show takes place in an airport terminal where people gather as they wait to return home for Christmas and face an unexpected delay.

Performances are at 7:00pm on December 13 and at 2:00pm and 7:00pm on December 14. Tickets are $30 for adults and $15 for children 12 and under. Dinner includes salad, choice of pork loin

SANTA IN THE HUB OF SEVERNA PARK

Friday, December 6, will be a busy night for Santa Claus. The Greater Severna Park and Arnold Chamber of Commerce will host a holiday tree lighting and greeting with Santa at 1 Holley Avenue from 5:00pm to 6:30pm. In the nearby Park Plaza shopping center, a ceremony will get underway at 6:00pm. Attendees can witness the illumination of a Christmas tree, be serenaded by holiday tunes, and get photos with Santa by Honey Baked Ham if they bring a donation for SPAN (Serving People

Meaningful Gift Ideas Beyond The Big-Box Stores

By Megan Ruge and Zach Sparks

When it comes to the holidays, shopping for the perfect gift can be stressful. If you're looking to get someone the latest multi-cooker or robot vacuum, the item has likely been paid for and hidden in your closet for weeks. But if you're still on the hunt for meaningful gifts, our shopping guide can help. Not only will these recommendations take the stress out of where to go and what to buy; they will show you why shopping local can take your shopping experience from ordinary to unique.

ZACHARY'S JEWELERS

If you're looking for high-end jewelry, look no further. With two locations, one in Severna Park and one in Annapolis, this jewelry store is far from ordinary when it comes to customer service and overall presentation.

The Annapolis store sets up a selfie station for guests to enjoy, documenting their shopping experience in a fun and creative way. In the Severna Park location, Zachary's provides treats for customers. In both locations, employees wrap gifts for children who come to the store and allow them to pick one from under the tree. Zachary's also has goodies for kids of all ages to pick from and pet treats for furry friends that come in with their owners.

As far as gifts go, you can never go wrong with diamonds. The top three gifts at Zachary's Jewelers this holiday season are diamond stud earrings, the diamond pendant necklace and a diamond eternity ring.

Also try: For more jewelry ideas, check out Mercado Jewelers in Severna Park or Traynham's Jewelers in Arnold.

PARK HOME

Want to complement the homes of everyone on your list? Park Home is a one-stop shop. It's not just a furniture store but also has a collection of unique home décor and more. All of the items in the store are carefully chosen, offering a variety of new and vintage finds.

Park Home isn't lacking in the gift department either. Co-owner Heather Summers said that the store carries a great selection of ornaments that are popular around the holiday season. The store also carries unique items from businesses around the area, including signs and decorative towels. Summers noted that the candle collection with "sassy quotes" on the label is a fan favorite. Proceeds from the candle sales support suicide prevention organizations.

When it comes to finding the perfect gift, Summers' advice is to dig deep.

"The perfect gift is a reflection of the person you are giving to," Summers said. "It isn't necessarily what is needed but something that made you think of them."

SIDE STREET FRAMERS & GIFT GALLERY

Creating a custom gift is always a win, and Side Street Framers gives you the opportunity to do just that. The store has helped costumers create special gifts for 30 years.

"We specialize in framing items that have special meaning," said Dawn Wilson of Side Street Framers. "You name it, we can frame it."

The shop's staff is happy to create one-of-a-kind items from any two-dimensional projects you may have, as well as three-dimensional projects.

Along with its custom framing service, Side Street Framers also offers many hand-made and unique gifts: gourds decorated like snowmen, Santas and angels, glass candles, a translucent candle filled with an assortment of berries, seashells and other items that can be burned from the top or illuminated from the bottom.

Also try: Benfield Gallery in Severna Park has fine art, pottery, jewelry and custom framing.

THE COTTAGE

When shopping for loved ones, think about what makes them happy. Do they love to be warm and cozy? How about a pair of soft pajamas, a candle and some hot cocoa? Are they stylish? Grab a new dress or top and some trendy jewelry. If you're not sure what to get, the staff at The Cottage can act as personal shoppers, getting to know the personalities of those you are shopping for and making suggestions within your budget.

Want to know more about the selection of apparel, jewelry, decor and gifts? The Cottage's merchandise ranges from uber-preppy to boho chic. "We have something for every style and every age," said

Sarah Bender of The Cottage. "Even better, we carry the brands people are looking for, such as Simply Southern, Brighton, Scout, Free People, Vera Bradley, Kendra Scott, Alex and Ani, Hobo, Corkcicle, Pura Vida, Vineyard Vines, Spartina and so much more so you can skip the hassle of the mall and the impossible downtown parking!"

ALPACA INTERNATIONAL

If you're shopping for the fashionista or stylish man in your family, you may want to browse the garments and accessories at Alpaca International. The clothing is all-natural with no synthetic blends. Items include jackets, sweaters, coats, capes, dresses, hats, gloves, ponchos, scarves, shawls, socks and more.

ANNAPOLIS HOME BREW

The folks at Annapolis Home Brew don't just hand you a bottle of wine and call it a day. They encourage adults to bond this holiday season by engaging in the activities of brewing or winemaking. Not sure where to start? Cider is the easiest beverage to make, according to store manager Steve Bolton.

"It is criminally easy," Bolton said. "If you watch a 30-minute sitcom, you can make cider during the commercials. It takes six or seven minutes to mix up, two weeks to ferment out."

"It is a really quick turnaround time and it's a nice finished product because it's low in alcohol, it doesn't have gluten – for all the people who don't like beer because they are gluten-intolerant. I consider it a serving of vegetables," he joked.

More experienced brewers or winemakers can try the chocolate raspberry dessert wine or a dark beer. Annapolis Home Brew occasionally has classes to help people learn.

"It's a hobby, and enjoying the process is part of the fun," Bolton said. "If you're just doing this to save money or just to drink, it will save you money in the long run, especially with the climbing expense of craft beers at the liquor store — at least that I've noticed — but you have to enjoy the craft itself."

THE BLENDED ESSENTIALS

Here's another way to give the gift of a great experience instead of a material item. Schedule a visit to The Blended Essentials in Severna Park, where your loved one can create candles, bath bombs, soaps or other items. A grandparent and grandchild can spend time creating unique, hand-made products while siblings can enjoy making special gifts for each other or mom and dad.

MASSAGE ENVY, GLEN BURNIE

The holidays are a time of joy and merriment, but all of the shopping and shuffling between family houses can get a little stressful. Help someone unwind and relax by giving a gift card from Massage Envy in Glen Burnie. Choose from three holiday gift card bundles. The "good bundle," offered at $100, covers a 60-minute service and comes with a $25 promo gift card. A "better bundle," offered at $170, covers a 90-minute service, $20 gratuity for service, and comes with a $40 promo gift card. For $210, the "best bundle" includes three 60-minute services and comes with two $25 promo gift cards.

Also try: Christina Josephs Salon Studio in Millersville also has gift packages including 20% off all retail items and 15% of all services with Sam and Megan. Image Creators Salon and Spa in Severna Park also has deals.

BULLDOG SCHWINN & SPORTS

Are you shopping for a family member or friend who spends time outdoors? Bulldog Schwinn & Sports has a selection of bikes, kayaks, standup paddleboards and other items to keep people active and engaged.

Also try: Soccer Post in Severna Park has authentic jerseys, cleats and indoor shoes, balls, training apparel and equipment, customization and more. ■

Volunteering: Spread Holiday Cheer To Those In Need

Toys for Tots is an organization led by Marines who collect unwrapped toys and distribute those toys to less-fortunate children.

By Abigail Gilbert

With the holidays coming up, now is a great time to give back to the community. Finding a way to volunteer can be difficult, but there are several organizations in Anne Arundel County dedicated to helping those in need. Collecting food, clothes and toys — there are many ways to make a difference.

GIVING BACK, LINDA'S LEGACY (GBLL)

Giving Back, Linda's Legacy (GBLL) is an all-volunteer, nonprofit organization. The group is "dedicated to helping the homeless and inspiring everyone to get more involved with volunteering," according to its mission statement.

GBLL has many collection drives occurring throughout November and December, including a toiletry drive. Volunteers are collecting travel-sized soaps, shampoos, conditioners, deodorants, feminine-hygiene products, etc. The organization will have several collection days in December at the Anne Arundel County Farmers' Market in Annapolis.

For those interesting in baking, GBLL needs homemade cakes to be delivered on December 22. To volunteer, visit www.homelessdrive.org. For more information, contact info@homelessdrive.org, and to sign up for the cake drive, go to www.signupgeenius.com/go/6obo84ea4af2aa20-2019.

SERVING PEOPLE ACROSS NEIGHBORHOODS (SPAN)

Serving People Across Neighborhoods (SPAN) is a faith-based organization in Severna Park. The primary mission of SPAN is to provide food and financial assistance to qualified individuals and families and to help them through emergencies.

One way to help SPAN is through the Holiday Caring Program. Volunteers are assigned a family to sponsor during Thanksgiving and/or Christmas, and they will be asked to donate food and toys. For information on SPAN, email spanhelps@yahoo.com or call 410-647-0889. Office hours are Monday through Thursday from 10:00am–2:00pm. To sign up for the Holiday Caring Program and more, visit www.spanhelps.org.

ARUNDEL FEDERAL TOY DRIVE

With locations in Severna Park and Pasadena, Arundel Federal Savings Bank offers two convenient drop-off sites for new and unwrapped toys. Visit 50 West McKinsey Road in Severna Park or 4179 Mountain Road in Pasadena by December 13 to make a child's holiday brighter.

ADMIRAL CLEANERS COAT DRIVE

The staff at Admiral Cleaners believes they have a responsibility to improve the community. With that in mind, they collect coats during the holiday season to be given out to those in need. There is a Severna Park location at 40 West

McKinsey Road. To donate, call 410-267-8381 or email customerservice@admiral-cleaners.com.

TOYS FOR TOTS

Toys for Tots is a national organization led by Marines whose mission is to collect new and unwrapped toys and distribute those toys to less-fortunate children at Christmas. Boxes are placed throughout the community to collect donations from the general public. These gifts are then given to families in need for Christmas. The Anne Arundel division, led by Major Peter Smith, is still accepting toys at drop-off locations until November 27. For additional information, email info@aatft.org.

CENTRAL MARYLAND SALVATION ARMY

The Central Maryland Salvation Army is another faith-based organization seeking volunteers. There are many volunteer opportunities available through the Salvation Army, including becoming a bell ringer. To volunteer, call the volunteer coordinator, Samantha Bowman, at 443-573-3291, or go to www.salvation-armymcm.org.

One way to have an international impact this holiday season is by volunteering with Operation Christmas Child. The mission of Operation Christmas Child is to demonstrate God's love in a tangible way to children in need around the world. The organization sends a shoebox filled with toys and necessities to children in need around the globe. To find a drop-off location near you, and to learn how to pack a shoebox for Operation Christmas Child, visit www.samaritanspurse.org. The group is accepting shoeboxes through November 25.

No matter how big the contribution — and whether the impact occurs locally, nationally or internationally — consider giving back this holiday season. ■

"RING IN THE HOLIDAY 2019"

Talent Machine Company

December 13-15, 19-22

This high-energy production will feature holiday classics with an Annapolis twist. Watch the Talent Machine kids, Rudolf, the elves, Frosty, and Santa's other North Pole friends in a holiday musical revue. Traditional holiday favorites will be performed as well as some new dance numbers that will delight audiences of all ages. Experience this 25-year Annapolis tradition, performed by a cast of 60 talented children ages 6 to 18. Gracing the stage from Severna Park are Olivia Blake, Anthony and Gianna Dicks, Kate Hibbard, Delaney Parker, and Abby Schemmel. From Pasadena are Aiden Smith and Jasmine Dominiguez-Taco.

Shows will be held at St. John's College Key Auditorium in Annapolis. Evenings and matinee show times are available. Tickets are $15 and can be purchased at the door, online at www.talentmachine.com, or by emailing the box office at tmcholiday@hotmail.com.

"AN ANNAPOLIS CHRISTMAS"

Annapolis Musicians Fund at Rams Head On Stage

December 16-17

Inspired by the popular holiday album "An Annapolis Christmas" 21 years ago, this event has become a tradition for music lovers who come to see hometown artists performing a mix of original and classic holiday songs. The concert is also a fundraiser for the Annapolis Musicians Fund for Musicians Inc. (AMFM).

The Monday lineup will have Matt McConville, The Geckos, Skribe, Meg Murray and Bryan Ewald, Angie Miller, The Remnants, Doug Segree, Dean Rosenthal, Gary and Leah and Friends, and East is East. Tuesday's show features Matt McConville, Higher Hands, The Hypnotic Panties, Dan Haas, The Unified Jazz Ensemble, Swampcandy, The Johnny Monet Band and The Big Money Band, Michael K and PJ Thomas, and David Majerowicz.

Both shows start at 7:00pm. Tickets are $42 and are available at www.rams-headonstage.com. ■

Making Your Own Holiday Cards

By Megan Ruge

The season of giving is upon us and everyone will soon send out their holiday cards. This is your year to stand out from the pack. Do-it-yourself (DIY) holiday cards are the way to go, so check out these options and enjoy card-making fun for the whole family.

Pop-Up Christmas Tree Cards

These cards are a fun craft the whole family can participate in. Start with your basic card. You can use any paper for this, but cardstock works the best. Cut the cardstock to the desired size and fold it in half to create your standard card. Using a second piece of paper, cut out and create a second standard card about a half-inch smaller than the original on each side. Using the center fold of the smaller card as the canter of the tree, draw a triangle about a centimeter from the top and ending about an inch from the bottom.

After drawing your triangle, divide your triangle into four horizontal sections, marking the bottom of each section with a wavy line. Using scissors, cut along each wavy line. Flip the smaller card with the tree shape inside-out so the tree is pointed toward you. Fold along the outside edges of the tree, creating a three-dimensional shape. After completing these steps, glue down the cardstock, allowing the card to fold inward and the tree to fold outward. Once you have the fold of the card, you're ready to decorate. Add glitter, stickers or paint to bring your tree to life.

Fingerprint Cards

These cards are a great choice for families with young children. Create a basic card and draw a basic shape on the front that will be decorated by your children's fingerprints. This shape can be a tree, a wreath, a menorah or really anything.

Once you've chosen a shape, allow your children to decorate it with their fingerprints, either using ink or paint. For example, if your shape is a menorah, allow your children to create flames on the menorah using their fingerprints. If your shape is a Christmas tree, provide children with multiple colors, and let them trim the tree with their prints.

Embroidered Cards

These holiday cards come in a range of difficulties depending on the pattern you chose. To start, draw a design on the front of your card that you would like to create. Using embroidery floss, simply sew along the lines of your design to make it pop. Depending on the design, this could be a simple and quick lesson in embroidery for families, a fun learning activity among friends, or a deep dive into complicated embroidery techniques.

However you choose to make your holiday cards, they are sure to be loved by all. The holidays bring people together, and these card crafts are sure to be a fun time for everyone. ■

Holiday Hacks To Help You

Try these tips and tricks to make the most out of this holiday season.

Decorating Hacks

Having trouble hanging Christmas lights on brick? Hot glue won't damage the lights or the brick, and it peels off when taking down the lights at the end of the season.

Tired of untangling Christmas lights every year? Wrap the lights around a clothes hanger to keep them from getting mixed together in storage. They can be hung in a closet for the season, or laid neatly in a box. Christmas lights can also be wrapped around cardboard or an empty paper towel holder.

Wrapping Hacks

There is nothing worse than having to find the end of a roll of tape. Attach a paper clip to the end of every roll to avoid losing it.

Having trouble wrapping an awkward box? Turning the paper diagonally creates more room to fold the sides.

Wrapping paper is one the hardest things to organize. Try cutting an old toilet paper roll down the center to keep the paper from unrolling. Wrapping paper can also be stored in a garment bag to keep it out of the way and prevent damage. ■

Power Plant Live! at the Inner Harbor is set to again host one of the area's biggest and liveliest New Year's Eve parties.

Where To Celebrate New Year's Eve

By Laura McElwain Colquhoun

As the year winds down, holidays and celebrations abound. Several local businesses and organizations are providing opportunities to end the holiday season right on New Year's Eve. Whether it's a family night out, or night out with friends, there are plenty of places from which to choose to ring in the new year close to home.

SEVERNA PARK LANES

Severna Park Lanes will host its New Year's Eve 2020 Gala Celebration from 9:30pm to 2:00am. For a ticket of $30 per person, guests receive unlimited bowling, shoes, galaxy bowling, party favors, noise makers and door prizes. Visit www.gobowlingsevernapark.com for more information.

TWAIN'S TAVERN

Twain's Tavern in Pasadena will welcome the new year with live music from KleptoRadio, a band that plays a variety of hits from the '90s to today. The restaurant will be open from 3:00pm until 2:00am, and the band will play from 10:00pm to close. Some $10 bottles of champagne will be available, and there will be special New Year's Eve food specials, which will be posted online closer to the date. Tickets are $15 for one person or $20 for two people and can be purchased online in advance. For more information, visit www.twainstavern.com.

TOBY'S DINNER THEATRE

For those interested in the arts, Toby's Dinner Theatre in Columbia offers special tickets for New Year's Eve. In addition to the usual dinner and show, the $110 ticket also includes a midnight champagne toast, two buffets and a cabaret after the show. The ticket price is the same for both adults and children. For more information, visit www.tobysdinnertheatre.com

RAM'S HEAD

All Rams Head locations, including Rams Head On Stage in Annapolis and Rams Head Dockside in Glen Burnie, will be open from 11:00am to 2:00am. New Year's Eve parties will be held from 9:00pm to 1:00am. For more information, www.ramshheadgroup.com.

NEW YEAR'S ANNAPOLIS

There is something for everyone at New Year's Annapolis, and all of the activities are free. Festivities begin at 3:00pm and conclude with midnight fireworks. From 3:00pm to 5:15pm, families with children can enjoy special events at Weems Whelan Fields behind Maryland Hall. Entertainment includes performances by kids' rock bands, face painting, moon bounces and more. A fireworks display is set for 5:30pm at Weems Whelan Field.

The festivities continue at 8:00pm at City Dock, with live music and dancing. The evening concludes with midnight fireworks. For more information, visit www.visitannapolis.org.

TWO RIVERS STEAK & FISH HOUSE

Two Rivers Steak & Fish House in Pasadena will offer a special menu for New Year's Eve, and TVs will show countdowns to midnight. Check the website closer to the day for menu details. For more information, visit www.tworiverssteak.com.

NEW YEAR'S EVE DECK PARTY ONBOARD THE USS CONSTELLATION

Onboard the USS Constellation in Baltimore's Inner Harbor, guests have a unique vantage from which to watch the midnight fireworks over the harbor. The all-inclusive ticket includes appetizers and desserts, along with local ale, wine, mulled cider and coffee. Also included are party hats, noisemakers, special tours and cannon firing demonstrations. The event goes from 10:00pm to 1:00am. Tickets prices are $25 for children, $50 for teens and $85 for adults. For more information, visit www.historicships.org/new_years_eve.html.

NEW YEAR'S EVE ANNAPOLIS FIREWORKS CRUISE

While cruising on the Severn River aboard the Catherine Marie vessel, guests will watch the Annapolis fireworks display. Tickets include appetizers, dancing, DJ entertainment, and a complimentary champagne toast. A cash bar will be available. The cruise sails from 10:00pm to 1:00am. Ticket packages begin at $90. For more information, visit www.watermarkjourney.starboardsuite.com.

NYE LIVE! BALTIMORE

Power Plant Live! at the Inner Harbor is set to again host one of the area's biggest and liveliest New Year's Eve parties. Ticket packages begin at $115 and include access to nine bars and nightclubs, buffets, party favors and a champagne toast. The event goes from 8:00pm to 3:00am. To learn more, go to www.nye-live.com/baltimore. ■

10 Reasons To Shop Local

10. SUPPORT ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Creativity and entrepreneurship are what fuel America's economic innovation and prosperity. The success of locally owned independent businesses provides real-life examples to young people, proving they can stay in their hometown and prosper through hard work and ingenuity.

9. MAINTAIN LOCAL DECISION MAKING

Local ownership means important decisions are made locally by people who live in the community and feel the impact of those decisions.

8. ENJOY SELECTIONS GEARED TO LOCAL TASTES AND NEEDS

Local businesses have a wider array of uniquely focused products because they buy and sell based on what they know local customers want and need, creating more relevant choices.

7. INVESTMENT IN YOUR COMMUNITY

Local business owners are people who live here, work here and invest in the community with their time and energy, as well as their dollars.

6. KEEP OUR COMMUNITY UNIQUE

Where we shop, eat and go for entertainment helps make our community home. Our one-of-a-kind businesses are an integral part of the distinctive character of our community.

5. SUPPORT COMMUNITY WELL-BEING

Locally owned businesses build strong neighborhoods by sustaining communities, linking neighbors and contributing to many local causes.

4. GET BETTER SERVICE

In a local business, you know the people behind the counter, and they know you. They have a deep understanding of the products they're selling and they take time to serve their customers.

3. CREATE JOBS IN OUR COMMUNITY

Small, local businesses are the largest employers nationally and in our community, providing the most jobs to residents. Locally owned businesses are far less likely to pull up stakes and move operations to another city, state or country, taking their jobs with them.

2. LOCALLY OWNED BUSINESSES SUPPORT COMMUNITY GROUPS

Nonprofit organizations receive an average of 350% more support from local business owners than they do from non-locally owned businesses.

1. KEEP MONEY IN OUR NEIGHBORHOOD

For every $100 spent in locally owned independent stores, $68 returns to the community through taxes, payroll and other expenditures. This purchasing choice vs. other purchasing options keeps the most money in the area, and these dollars continue to flow through our community! ■

Create New Family Traditions

By Monica Resa

Whether you and your family celebrate Christmas, Hanukkah, Kwanzaa or another holiday, there is always room to create new and meaningful ways of celebration.

Yes, hot cocoa by the fire while unwrapping gifts is tried and true, or lighting the menorah and exchanging gifts is how it's always been done. Turkey and ham with sides from grandmother's cookbook are prepared and eaten around the table with extended family. But, just because it's always been done doesn't mean the next generation can't create a new tradition to pass down. Here are some ideas for you and your family to expand upon.

How about ice skating? It's cold enough outside, and while we don't live in an area where you can skate in your backyard, some venues are open. Quiet Waters Park offers ice skating outside in a serene environment and even sells hot cocoa when you need to warm up. The park is located in Annapolis and is open weekdays except for Tuesday from 1:00pm to 9:00pm and Saturday and Sunday 9:00am to 9:00pm. The park is closed on Christmas day but is open Christmas Eve. So this year, before or after attending service, load your family into the car and take the easy drive to Quiet Waters for some family fun. This still gives you time to tuck in the kids early as they await the arrival of Santa Claus. Glen Burnie Town Center also has outdoor ice skating, and the Naval Academy has an indoor option.

If ice skating doesn't sound appealing, how about movie night? Hunker down with a bowl of popcorn and a cold drink and put on a movie marathon. Invite the neighbors over to watch "It's a Wonderful Life," "The Polar Express" and "Miracle on 34th Street." See who is game for "How the Grinch Stole Christmas." This could easily be a bonding experience for adults and children. And, after the kid's movies are out of the way and the children are playing with toys and games, the adults can unwind and watch some of their favorite classics.

The holidays are always a great way to give back and count your blessings. There are plenty of organizations to volunteer with or support. Consider doing a food drive and delivering it to SPAN (Serving People Across Neighborhoods) in Severna Park. This could be the price of admission to your movie night. Make a competition of which family can collect the most food and then deliver it to SPAN, the Salvation Army or to a church. Focus on the giving aspect of the holiday instead of the getting. You could also make this an opportunity to clean out your closets. Collect those clothes you're no longer going to wear and deliver them to Goodwill in Pasadena off of Ritchie Highway.

Do you enjoy singing? How about caroling in a retirement home? Spring Arbor, HeartLands, Brightview, Sunrise, and PearTree House are all nearby retirement communities and would welcome some holiday music.

If you prefer to work with your hands and get crafty, you could host a holiday card- and ornament-making party at your house. Have everyone bring a small dish and materials. Construction paper, fancy pens, and stickers are all that are needed to create some holiday cards, and felt, scissors and a small sewing kit are enough to make ornaments to hang on the tree. It's a great way to have some creative fun with friends and dress the tree at the same time.

No matter how many holiday traditions you have or how long you've had them, there's always room to add more. ■

The Mysteries Of Christmas

Kids Weigh In On Santa's Magic

Here's what we know: A portly man in a red suit travels the world in one night, bringing glee to all the kids on his list. How does he make it happen? Where did he meet the elves? For the answers to these questions, we turned to children in Pasadena.

HOW DOES SANTA MAKE IT AROUND THE WORLD IN A NIGHT?

Elliott C. | Pasadena Elementary
He has magic that makes him really fast and go through walls. It all comes from his hat.

Trinity J. | Riviera Beach Elementary
He goes around in circles with his reindeer.

HOW DOES SANTA GET THE REINDEER TO FLY?

Hunter F. | Pasadena Elementary
Santa steals pixie dust and puts it on the reindeer.

Blane L. | Riviera Beach Elementary
I think it's his hat. Well, I just know his hat makes the sleigh go.

WHERE DID SANTA MEET THE ELVES?

Sophia M. | Pasadena Elementary
The elves worked at the North Pole first and then Santa came to work with them.

Jonathan D. | Pasadena Elementary
He met the elves at the North Pole and they work for him because he's Santa and everyone wants to work for Santa.

Emma Z. | Riviera Beach Elementary
Well, probably he made them and used his powers to make them come alive. Santa asks them to make him toys and he probably pays them.

DOES SANTA EVER GET SICK OF EATING JUST MILK AND COOKIES?

Sophia M. | Pasadena Elementary
No, because he is so fat!

Cole B. | Pasadena Elementary
Possibly. We also leave him candy and a coke. Also, carrots!

Damien F. | Riviera Beach Elementary
I think he does. I think he also drinks hot chocolate and chocolate milk.

WHAT DOES SANTA DO WHEN IT ISN'T THE HOLIDAY SEASON?

Naomi A. | Pasadena Elementary
He sleeps.

Aiden M. | Riviera Beach Elementary
Sleep until it's the next Christmas.

WHAT DO YOU THINK EGGNOG IS MADE OF?

Sophia M. | Pasadena Elementary
Milk and cream, because Santa makes it. It is his own special recipe.

Jonathan D. | Pasadena Elementary
Not eggs. Chocolate milk, I think?

Tessa F. | Pasadena Elementary
Maybe diet soda or vanilla frosty or cream.

WHAT KIND OF MAGIC BROUGHT FROSTY THE SNOWMAN TO LIFE?

Hannah M. | Pasadena Elementary
Unicorn, snowman magic!

Audrey D. | Riviera Beach Elementary
I think it was the happiness in all the children and all the goodness, and the hat! ■

Partners In Care Collects Christmas Donations

The Partners In Care Upscale Resale Boutique is decked out for the holidays. Each year, customers donate thousands of Christmas items; last year alone, holiday donations generated almost $20,000 for Partners In Care.

In addition to the clothing, housewares, jewelry and decor that the boutique normally carries, shoppers will find holiday items throughout the store.

"We accumulate over 250 bins of holiday items during the year," said Tracey Dill, who added that several storage bins are kept offsite. "After Halloween, we fill the store with Christmas [items] for the next two months and still struggle to get it all out."

There is plenty to sort and price, but the 85 Partners In Care volunteers are up to the task. The work puts everyone in the holiday spirit.

"We not only keep Christmas items in storage, we also store Easter, Halloween and other holidays," Dill said. "In addition, we alternate out-of-season clothing items that are just too good to pass on."

New holiday items are added daily, but they sell fast. Visit the boutique at 8151C Ritchie Highway in Pasadena to find new holiday home decor and gifts. ■

Partners In Care's Elves For Elders Brings Christmas To The Senior Population

The Elves For Elders stocking drive is a good reminder of how giving people can be.

Typically when we think of the magic of Christmas, we picture the joyous faces of children, but what about those on the opposite end of the spectrum? For some seniors, the holidays can be lonely.

To brighten the holidays for seniors, Partners In Care hosts a holiday stocking drive. The event blends perfectly with PIC's mission: to support the independence of older adults.

This year's stocking drive will be held on Saturday, December 7, from 3:00pm to 7:00pm at Frisco Tap House, located at 2406 Brandermill Boulevard in Gambrills. You can help by stuffing stockings or making a monetary donation. The event will also feature a 50-50 raffle, gifts for participants, and a visit from Santa Claus.
