Tips For Toasting This Holiday Season

By Lauren Burke Meyer

Have you ever walk into a liquor store to buy alcohol and felt completely overwhelmed? Yes. Me too. Throw in the challenge of hosting while appeasing many tastes and preferences, and it's enough to drive anyone crazy. Have no fear – your local liquor store establishments are at your rescue with a roundup of seasonal beverages and tips for Thanksgiving to New Year's and every holiday, party or gathering in between.

Harbour Wine & Spirits

527 Benfield Road, Severna Park

Port Tack Ltd. Wine & Spirits

1246 Bay Dale Drive, Arnold

"Champagne is great for every holiday meal and occasion, from brunch to dinner and dessert," said Donald MacMurray, the son of Don MacMurray, owner of Harbour Wine & Spirits and Port Tack Ltd. Wine & Spirits.

Donald shared how one of his favorite holiday traditions is champagne on Christmas Eve. He remembers from a young age going to his grandparents' home with his mom and dad. The adults always had a bottle of champagne just before it was time for bed.

"Now, I look forward to having that bottle with my wife and parents after our children go to bed," Donald said.

A current MacMurray family champagne favorite is Laurent-Perrier, available at both stores. However, with champagne in higher demand these days, combined with supply chain issues, some favorites might not always be available.

"Don't be discouraged if your favorite [champagne] is not on the shelf; there are lots of great options for sparkling wine from California, and we will be happy to help find an alternative," Donald added.

Goskas Liquors

501 Leelyn Drive, Severna Park

"Goska's Liquors is available to provide both product and guidance for all holiday needs," said Kevin Sosnoski, owner at Goska's Liquors. "We offer party planning suggestions and have a good background in cooking and drink recipes."

Last year, Sosnoski made a traditional Christmas pudding using brandy-soaked fruit and made eggnog using brandy, rum and whiskey. This year he's planning on mixing a batch of rock and rye using rye whiskey, rock candy and fruit.

In addition, he plans to make homemade wassail — a delicious warm cider drink — to offer family and guests as a warm welcome into his home.

Bella's Liquors

1376 Cape St. Claire Road, Annapolis

When planning for Thanksgiving, Julianne Sullivan, owner of Bella's Liquors, shared that Pinot Noirs go great with turkey and many of the traditional side dishes. Her staff recommends anything from Oregon, specifically the famous Willamette Valley region.

"We also recommend a nice Riesling for those that prefer white wines. While these tend to be on the sweet side, they pair well with most dishes served," Sullivan said. "Sparkling wines were made for celebrating, but many people don't know they pair well with many dishes. You can pair with appetizers ranging from raw veggies, hummus and salami. Fun fact, champagne pairs excellently with fried chicken, so don't sleep on the bubbly."

Bella's Liquors also stocks a variety of kosher wines. South Africa vineyards produce a great quality for a nice price point.

Further, if you're hosting and don't want to hire a bartender, ready to drink (RTD) beverages are at your disposal. Bella's Liquors offers these "cocktails in a can" from your basic rum and coke, vodka soda, gin and tonic to margaritas, white Russians and beyond.

Mark your calendar for Bella's annual champagne tasting on December 18 for anyone 21 and older. The event costs $5 and all proceeds will go to My Brother's Pantry. Participants can save 15% off featured items from the tasting.

Magothy Wine & Spirits

147 Ritchie Highway A, Severna Park

Magothy Wine & Spirits offers several options that will keep your spirits warm as the weather gets cold.

Pinot Noir and Zinfandel are classic matches for the rich, savory fare of the season. Pinot Noir is lighter bodied with good versatility and won't overshadow leaner fowl or game dishes. Zinfandel offers lots of fruit and spice, but doesn't overload with tannins, making it a bolder option. Try Winderlea's Willamette Valley Pinot Noir or the Bliss Vineyard Zinfandel from Brutocao in Mendocino.

Looking to drink your dessert? Look no further than Southern Tier Brewing Company's Warlock Imperial Stout. Brewed with pumpkins and winter spices, this limited seasonal release features heady aromas of deeply roasted malts, sweet spice and, of course, pumpkin. The palate follows with notes of coffee and dark chocolate, finishing smooth and velvety. A perfect dance of sweet and savory.

"With holidays right around the corner, there is a plethora of fantastic seasonal beverages that are already hitting our shelves," said Pete Rutski, manager of Magothy Wine & Spirits.

Now that you're armed with great beverage advice, head over to your local businesses and start crossing items off your holiday checklist. Finally, wishing everyone a happy and safe holiday season, without a holiday hangover, of course. Cheers! ■

'Tis The Season For Giving

Ways To Make The Holidays Brighter For Others

By Zach Sparks

The greatest gift you can give yourself this season might be the joy of making others feel loved and cared for during the holidays. Here are some area nonprofits and businesses providing opportunities to give back.

SPAN

While Thanksgiving and Christmas are a time of joy for many families, they bring stress and anxiety for others who cannot afford a large meal or gifts for their children. Unforeseen circumstances — such as a car accident, illness or job loss — can throw family budgets into crisis mode. With its Holiday Caring program, SPAN makes the holidays merrier for these families, with help from the community.

"We thank all of the community members who have signed up and sponsored families for SPAN's Holiday Caring program," said Michele Sabean, SPAN's director of development. "We have a few more families in need of sponsors for Christmas. If you are interested, please contact us at 410-647-0889 or spanhelps@yahoo.com as soon as possible."

Anyone may sign up to provide a list of items for the holiday meal, and/or gifts for children. For children ages 12 and under, SPAN suggests spending $50 on clothing, a game and/or small toy for each child. SPAN recommends $50 in gift cards for teens. Another option is to send SPAN a tax-deductible donation or gift cards.

"We also gladly welcome food and toiletry donations and tax-deductible financial contributions for our regular client assistance of food and emergency financial assistance," Sabean said. "Some items currently on our wish list are potatoes, rice, syrup, pancake mix, cake and cookie mixes, vegetable oil, laundry detergent and shampoo."

Walk the Walk Foundation

The Millersville-based Walk the Walk Foundation is looking for sponsors who can purchase four to six gifts for a child. Walk the Walk will provide the children's names, sizes, interests and general needs. Also, the group welcomes help from anyone who can purchase a bike and helmet for a child or Walk the Walk can purchase the items for a $150 donation.

To be a sponsor or to donate a bike and helmet, email walk@wtwf.org.

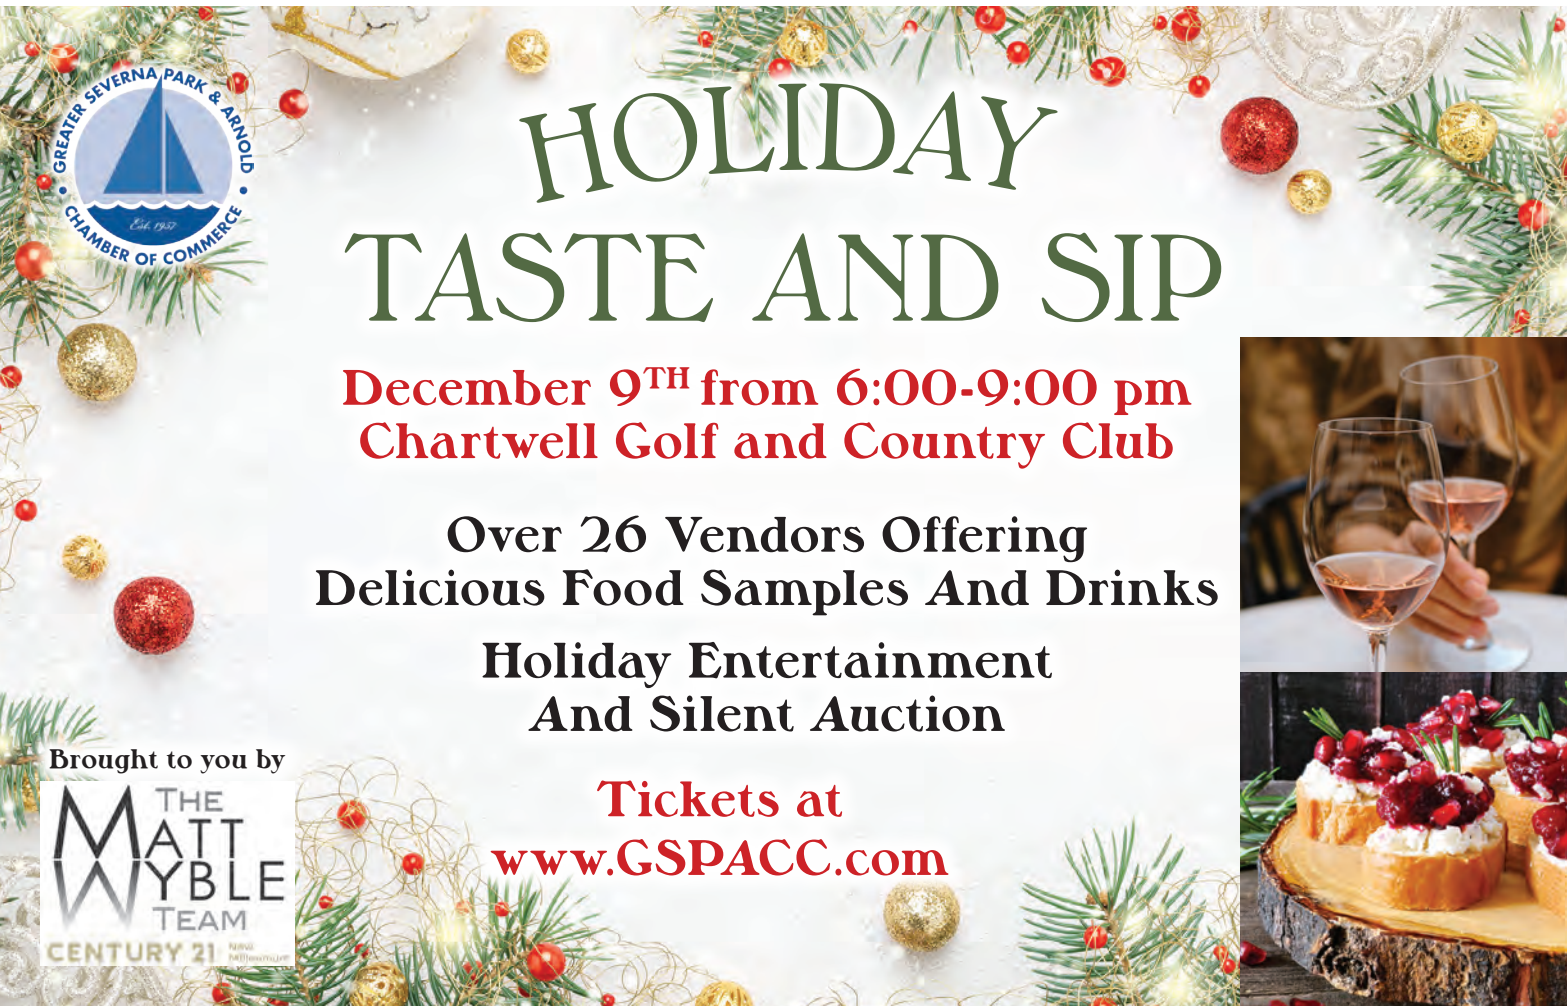

Arundel Federal Savings Bank

Arundel Federal is collecting new, unwrapped toys from now through December 17 at its Severna Park, Annapolis and Glen Burnie branches for Toys for Tots. The Pasadena and Brooklyn branches are collecting for the South Baltimore Network.

The toy drive is open to all: customers, employees and everyone in the community who wishes to donate.

"This is our 18th year rallying the support of our customers, employees and the public to donate unwrapped toys for those in our area in need," said Tom Herpel, Arundel Federal's president and CEO. "Knowing how stressful the holidays can be for these children and their families, it is truly a holiday miracle. Thank you to everyone for making the holidays bright for local children in need."

Landmark Roofing

Landmark Roofing will also collect new, unwrapped items for Toys for Tots. The company will share more details in the coming weeks.

The David Orso Team Of Compass Real Estate

David Orso is partnering with the EllaStrong Foundation and will have a toy collection box at his office at 8 Evergreen Road in Severna Park. Collection dates are November 22 through December 20 between 9:00am and 5:00pm Monday through Friday. Toys should be new and unwrapped, and they will be distributed to Children's National Hospital, Johns Hopkins Children's Center, Anne Arundel Medical Center and Believe In Tomorrow.

Giving Back, Linda's Legacy

Giving Back, Linda's Legacy is partnering with Anne Arundel County businesses for a coat drive to help the homeless population. Integrated Financial Solutions, located at 529 Benfield Road, Suite 250, in Severna Park, is one of the drop-off locations. Now through December 17, anyone can donate winter coats, hats, gloves, scarves, thermals and sweaters from 8:30am to 4:30pm Monday through Friday.

A Call For Coats

Admiral Cleaners is asking customers to warm up someone's winter by donating gently used or outgrown coats to the office at 40 West McKinsey Road in Severna Park.

Home Instead

The Arnold community is supporting the Be a Santa to a Senior program for the 17th year. Between now and December 3, members of the community can be a "Santa" to a senior and fulfill a wish list of a local senior who may otherwise be overlooked during the holidays. Anyone can get involved, both with in-person tree locations and through Amazon, to help provide gifts for 200 seniors.

The gifts collected, which are often necessity items such as toiletries, clothing, and blankets, make a big impact and help area seniors combat the holiday blues.

"We've all experienced feelings of loneliness during the pandemic, and seniors are at a particularly high risk for isolation," said Nick Konstant, owner of the Home Instead offices in Arnold and Ellicott City. "Be a Santa to a Senior" shows the older adults in our community that they are valued and thought of during the holidays."

Members of the community can visit www.beasantatoa-senior.com and enter their zip code to view wish lists for local seniors on Amazon Business now through December 3. A personalized greeting can be included with the gift which will be shipped to Home Instead, where it will be safely delivered to the senior. ■
