FROM CHARMING ESCAPE TO YEAR-ROUND LIVING

Severna Park And Arnold Offer Recreation, Events And Active Communities

In the 1900s, Severna Park plantations transformed into residential spaces used for summer homes. People from established towns, including Baltimore and Annapolis, traveled to the area for a riverfront experience of evening dances and outdoor activities.

As Severna Park historian Scott Jay once explained, the towns were soon built up with brick sidewalks, gaslights and storefronts to make them more city-like for the women.

“People came for the river, the crabs, the horseback riding,” Jay said. “It was a well-kept secret, like going to the moon.”

Severna Park and Arnold are hardly a well-kept secret anymore. More than 60,000 people call Severna Park or Arnold home. The towns are a coveted place for raising a family and for living because of several factors. Eleven local schools have been recognized by the National Blue Ribbon Schools Program (St. John the Evangelist School is the most recent to reach that distinction, with staff learning in September 2024 that the school earned the achievement for the second time and for the first time since 2008).

Public schools — Severna Park and Broadneck high schools — and nearby private schools are perennial contenders for state championships. The area is also full of waterfront neighborhoods and natural resources, from Kinder Farm Park to the Severn and Magothy rivers.

It’s also an area that routinely finds the national spotlight for one reason or another. Twins Christina and Katie Currie won $88,000 on a “Wheel of Fortune” episode that aired in January 2025. Severna Park and Arnold residents have been featured on the TV competition “Shark Tank,” sang in nationally televised music competitions, and played professional sports.

The area is also a place where good deeds happen daily and neighbors rally around one another in their time of need. After 8-year-old Clyde Hicks was diagnosed with a rare pediatric spinal cancer in December 2023, his Oak Hill Elementary community supported him by organizing a sendoff parade prior to Clyde’s radiation treatments. Pack 918 provided gifts and gift cards during Clyde’s treatments to make hotel stays more comfortable.

Friends, family and neighbors also supported Riley Whitney, a 10-year-old battling stage 4 neuroblastoma. The Severna Park Community Center hosted a wellness, workout and shopping emporium for Riley last November, and the Broadneck football team paid tribute to him during a football game.

Many local businesses do their part as well — hosting fundraisers and giving donations to nonprofits, schools and scout troops.

With this Community Resource & Business Directory, we want to highlight all the nonprofits, businesses, schools, restaurants, government agencies, and other groups and places that make this a special place. Find fun facts about local history, learn more about volunteer opportunities, or get details about a county department that will fill a pothole or respond to a traffic concern. Whatever you need, information or entertainment, we hope this publication helps. ■

Who should get a Hearing Test?

Cardiac Patients • Diabetics • Cancer Survivors

Cardiac Patients - Inadequate blood flow from heart disease can contribute to hearing loss.

Diabetics - High blood glucose levels can damage the small blood vessels in your inner ear, diminishing the ability to hear.

Cancer Survivors - Damaged hair cells in your inner ear do not grow back, and can lead to hearing loss, ringing in the ear and dizziness.

Message From The Chamber CEO

Liz League
GSPACC

As I enter my eighth year working at the chamber (where did seven years go?), it is still the best job I've ever had, and I feel incredibly fortunate to continue in this role.

The new year is upon us, and we have the opportunity to aim bigger and climb higher in 2025. We are seeing such positive economic growth in our community with new businesses opening, businesses celebrating milestones and relocations due to expansion, new ownerships, and so much more. Our chamber conducted close to 60 ribbon-cutting celebrations in 2024 as evidence of this exciting time.

This year, we are celebrating a milestone of our own — the 50th anniversary of our beloved Independence Day parade. What better way to show off our businesses and nonprofits that contribute so much to our community to thousands of spectators.

Chamber members are business and nonprofit leaders committed to the economic prosperity and civic well-being of our community. Commerce improves lives, solves problems, and strengthens our economy.

When you patronize local businesses, 68% of the money spent stays in the community. This money maintains and creates jobs, gives us resources and desired goods and services, and ultimately supports our nonprofits, as businesses are the first to contribute to charitable needs. You may have to pay a slightly higher price, but the good you'll do for our community far outweighs those negligible costs.

We are looking forward to a great year of holding our signature events and even some new events that will bring us all together in support, camaraderie and partnership. ■

Best, Liz League

SUMMER

CAPE ST. CLAIRE STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL

Nothing says summertime like fresh strawberries, and for over 60 years, many people on the Broadneck peninsula and beyond have marked the unofficial start of the season with the Cape St. Claire Strawberry Festival. This year’s festivities will take place all day on Saturday, June 7, starting with the annual parade that leads to the community’s main beach. There, attendees can look forward to the traditions of live music, arts and crafts vendors, kids’ activities, food, and — of course — strawberries! The event is open to the public, and more information can be found at www.cscstrawberryfestival.com.

INDEPENDENCE DAY PARADE

Severna Park's Independence Day parade turns 50 this year! As always, spectators can plan to pull up a chair from Benfield Road to Baltimore Annapolis Boulevard to watch hundreds of creatively decorated floats, vehicles, kids' bikes and more during this milestone anniversary parade. Organized by the Greater Severna Park and Arnold Chamber of Commerce, the parade begins with a kids' decorated bike contest. forward to dizzying rides, exciting games, sweet and salty treats and more at this summertime tradition, typically held in July. As chilly weather gives way to long, sunny days, keep an eye out for more information at www.ehvfc.org.

NATIONAL NIGHT OUT

Held across the country on the first Tuesday of August, National Night Out is a free event designed to promote relationships between community members and law enforcement. Last year, the Anne Arundel County Police Department's Eastern District hosted National Night Out at Kinder Farm Park, educating attendees with K9 demonstrations, kids' activities, police and fire apparatus, games and more. Check www.nationalnightouteasterndistrict.org for more information this summer.

FALL

ART IN THE PARK

The Severna Park Voice and Cafe Mezzanotte will again team up to host the fifth annual Art in the Park music and arts festival early this fall. Each year, the event not only offers great food, entertainment from local musicians, and live demonstrations from area artists, but also serves as a fundraiser for a local nonprofit organization. Check summer and fall editions of the Voice for more information.

LIFELINE 100

Last year marked the 10th anniversary for the Anne Arundel County Lifeline 100, an annual cycling event that showcases bicycle safety and has raised over $350,000 for local nonprofits. The award-winning event offers scenic 65- and 100-mile tours of Anne Arundel County along which cyclists can enjoy water views and historic sites, as well as 15- and 30-mile trail rides. Lifeline 100 will take place on Sunday, October 5. Registration will be capped at 1,000 participants. Learn more at www.lifeline100.com.

KINDER FARM FALL FUN

For many years, Kinder Farm Park has helped thousands of community members celebrate the autumn season with hayrides, a pumpkin patch and more at its annual fall festival. This year's fall event at Kinder Farm is in the planning stages, so watch www.kinderfarmpark.org for more information.

SHOPTOBERFEST

Save the date for Saturday, October 25, to have a spooktacular good time at the Greater Severna Park and Arnold Chamber of Commerce's annual Shoptoberfest. This free family fall event will highlight the importance of shopping local. Held at Park Plaza last year, Shoptoberfest offered attendees of all ages entertainment in the forms of music, trick-or-treating, a costume contest, demonstrations and more.

TREE-LIGHTING CEREMONY

Usher in the holidays with the annual tree-lighting ceremony hosted by the Greater Severna Park and Arnold Chamber of Commerce. ## JINGLE BELL HAYRIDE

Bundle up the family for a farm favorite tradition – the Jingle Bell Hayride at Kinder Farm Park. Located across from Millersville Elementary School, a new 33-acre park will offer numerous amenities and host athletic organizations for sporting events. The park project is currently in the design phase, with construction to follow.

Millersville Park is expected to cost just shy of $12 million, and it will include tennis courts, pickleball courts, play areas, a playground, a dog park, a one-mile trail loop and open areas. Three multipurpose athletic fields will include irrigation, lighting and bleachers. Pavilions and picnic tables will be available for the public to rent. An onsite parking lot will accommodate nearly 280 vehicles.

Anne Arundel County Recreation and Parks Director Jessica Leys explained that the county purchased the property, which is located near the intersection of Millersville Road and Waterbury Road, in 2008. The park will be comparable to Broadneck Park and Davidsonville Park.

"First and foremost, fields are in huge demand in Anne Arundel County. The athletic community in general in Anne Arundel County has been begging for more field space. We tend to fully utilize the fields that we have," Leys said, emphasizing the need for the three new fields coming to Millersville. "So the idea when we build a new park is to relieve some of that stress on existing park structure, but also serving the growing participants in the athletic organizations. Groups like Arden (Athletics), GORC (Gambrills-Odenton Recreation Council) and Crofton (Athletics) were all at the table during the stakeholders' group."

Millersville Park will be accessed from Millersville Road, where Leys said the county purchased an additional two acres of property to provide adequate turn lanes and better access into the park.

The Rest Is History

Fun Facts About The Area

George Washington spent an unfortunate evening on the Severn River, and possibly, on Round Bay. According to his diaries, Washington sailed down the Severn River the night of March 20, 1791. On a dark and stormy night, his boat ran aground twice.

Round Bay contains another piece of little-known history: a hilltop that was vital to the defense of Washington, D.C., during the Civil War. Fort Grey overlooked the nation's capital. Mount Misery, as the hilltop was known by the Eighth New York Regiment stationed there, was a perfect position for the troops to protect the passage to Washington via Annapolis, either by land or by sea. The Magothy River Association documented this history in a 2023 film.

In the 1940s, Beachwood Park hosted an interracial beauty contest attended by boxer Joe Louis that drew music icons James Brown and Tina Turner. Formerly known as Beechwood Park, the site is located off of Magothy Bridge Road, near the boundary between Severna Park and Pasadena.

The ironstone Robinson House at 102 Evon Court was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 2009. Known as the "old stone house," the dwelling dates back to 1740.

The Earleigh Heights Volunteer Fire Company has been a staple in the community since April 1918. The original station was built on Truck House Road. Today, the station continues to operate as a volunteer facility, with the help of career staff.

The B&A Trail used to be a railroad track. The original station, located at the trail's intersection with Riggs Avenue, now serves as the home of the Severna Park Model Railroad Club.

The Wilmer Stone White Oak, a 200-year-old tree living in Arnold Park, has been designated the Maryland state tree.

3

Severna Park hosted four installments of the Community Olympics, which included cornhole, biking, swimming, softball and other events. The brainchild of Betz Wild, the Community Olympics was a competition between the communities of Whitehurst, Fair Oaks, Oakleigh Forest, and the combined team of Cape Arthur and North Cape Arthur. The Olympics were held in 2005, 2006, 2015 and 2017.

2

Along the B&A Trail, and across from Woods Memorial Presbyterian Church, sits a gazebo and memorial in honor of Eric Kavanagh, William "Taylor" Wild IV, Eric Herzberg and Nathaniel McDavitt — four Severna Park heroes who died while serving their country. The gazebo was unveiled during a ceremony on September 11, 2020.

Severna Park, Arnold and Millersville have been home to many people who became famous including Baltimore Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti; baseball players Jackson Merrill and Mark Teixeira; Olympic champion Matthew Centrowitz; Good Charlotte guitarist Billy Martin; singer Parijita Bastola; fashion designer Christian Siriano; CBS News correspondent Tony Dokoupil; neuroscientist and TV game show extraordinaire Ogi Ogas; and many others.

STARDOM AND SOCIAL GROWTH: YOUTH SPORTS GROUPS DEVELOP SKILLS

Long before he hit his 409th home run as a Major League Baseball switch-hitter in 2016, Mark Teixeira donned a Green Hornets uniform. Before Johns Hopkins sophomore Dylan Davis won gold in the 100-meter backstroke in the NCAA swimming and diving championships in 2013, he competed for SPY.

These area youth sports programs have developed players who have excelled at the highest levels of their respective sports, while still enjoying the fun aspects of social interaction and competition.

More than 300 volunteers make the operation run smoothly, along with a board of directors and an executive director, Josh Banks. Together, they oversee an organization that uses Kinder Farm Park's six multipurpose fields and four baseball fields as its main site. Green Hornets also uses fields at many schools and churches.

ming members and participate in USA-sanctioned invitational meets, sectionals and junior and senior championships for both long- and short-course formats that lead to the U.S. Open and Olympic Trials.

Crystee Ballard serves as the head coach for SPY, which holds most of its practices at the Severna Park Community Center. For more information, go to www.gomotionapp.com/team/mdspy/page/home.

"I have learned that our greatest blessings come when we are able to improve the lives of others. and this is especially true when those others are desperately poor or in need."

These were the words of former President Jimmy Carter when he was asked about the common thread among his many forms of service during an interview with Habitat for Humanity. The legacy the 39th president left, in part, was one of volunteerism.

In the greater Severna Park, Arnold and Millersville area, there are countless opportunities to volunteer, whether through schools, sports leagues, churches or nonprofits. Below is a list of just a dozen local organizations that welcome the gifts of time and talents from community volunteers.

SPAN

For 35 years, the faith-based, non-denominational ministry known as SPAN (Serving People Across Neighborhoods) has tirelessly provided food and financial assistance to people in need right from the heart of Severna Park. SPAN considers its volunteers the backbone of the organization; men and women of all ages give their time to interview clients, pick up food donations, stock pantry shelves, assist with special programs, and serve on committees. To learn more about volunteer opportunities, email spanhelps@yahoo.com.

FRIENDS OF KINDER FARM PARK

Beloved for its annual community events including the Easter egg hunt, fall festival and Jingle Bell Hayride, the Friends of Kinder Farm Park is an advocacy group that supports Millersville-based Kinder Farm Park through fundraising and volunteer activities. In addition to an ongoing need for volunteers at these and other annual events, the Friends group has available opportunities for community members to serve in the areas of farmhouse greeters, woodshop team members, board of directors, garden caretakers, and administrative assistance with the newsletter and photo contest. Learn more at www.kinderfarmpark.org.

ORPHAN GRAIN TRAIN

With 27 branch locations nationwide, including a Maryland branch based in Millersville, Orphan Grain Train is a Christian volunteer network that ships donated food, clothing, medical and other needed items to people in 71 countries around the world. Volunteers are needed to sort and pack donations or load shipping containers. For more information, call 410-417-9674 or go to www.ogt.org/branches/md.

NAMI ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY

The National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) Anne Arundel County is an organization of families, friends and individuals whose lives have been affected by mental illness, and together they advocate for better lives for individuals who have a mental illness. NAMI Anne Arundel County serves county residents with free mental health support, online groups, resources and education. Volunteers are essential to NAMI's mission, and opportunities to serve include the areas of communications, advocacy, education, fundraising, administration and more. Learn more and sign up to volunteer at www.namiaac.org.

HOPE FOR ALL

For over 20 years, the Christian ministry of HOPE For All has provided furniture, household items and clothing for community members who lack the financial means to meet basic needs. The organization is a resource for people transitioning from homelessness. Volunteers make their mission possible, and serve in roles including pickup and delivery, sorting donated clothing and household items, helping with client intake, assisting with monthly yard sales, and more. Discover how to help those in need with your time and talents at www.hopeforall.us.

THE BLUE RIBBON PROJECT

Founded in 2013 by Taylor Pyles, an adult survivor of physical abuse, The Blue Ribbon Project has adopted a mission to prevent all forms of child abuse and provide critical support to victims of abuse and neglect. Its Backpacks of Love program supports local children entering foster care by providing them with essential items they need during a difficult transition. The Blue Ribbon Project also offers support groups for adults, a free closet where children entering foster care can “shop” for clothes, and more. Volunteers are needed on an ongoing basis to sort donations, build Backpacks of Love, assist with events and fundraisers, and help with other activities. Learn more at www.blueribbonproject.org.

WALK THE WALK FOUNDATION

Through its Backpacks for Kids, Christmas for Children, and Diapers for Babies programs, the faith-based Walk the Walk Foundation aims to bless children in need in Anne Arundel County by empowering individuals to serve through their time, talents and treasures. Walk the Walk is always looking for volunteers to collect, organize and distribute supplies, especially with its diaper program. Volunteers are also encouraged to host diaper drives to help meet this essential need for area families. Learn more and sign up to serve at www.wtwf.org.

Volunteers complete thorough training and make a minimum one-year commitment. The organization aspires to provide CASAs to 100% of the children in care in the county; currently, the organization is providing advocates to about 75% of children in foster care. The AACSPCA provides shelter and humane care for homeless animals and advocates for animal welfare. Volunteers foster animals in their homes, take shelter dogs for walks, socialize with cats, and show affection to small animals including rabbits, hamsters and the occasional ferret as well. ## BUY NOTHING GROUPS FOSTER COMMUNITY, PROMOTE SUSTAINABILITY

By Lauren Cowin

Almost immediately after the calendar flipped to 2025 and local kids set off for school, parents were hit with a cold reality: a snowstorm significant enough to close schools was on the way.

Community-wide, snow gear was suddenly in high demand. With limited time, and perhaps a hesitation to invest in these items given Maryland's hit-or-miss relationship with snow, people turned to their neighbors through local Buy Nothing Facebook groups.

The Buy Nothing Project began in 2013 in Seattle, Washington, by a group of community-minded individuals who endeavored to reduce waste. Their concept was simple: a platform that allowed neighbors to give or ask for items, time or support.

"It is like having a bigger neighborhood than what your actual neighborhood is, where you can walk next door and ask them for a cup of sugar or an egg. It's that concept on a much larger scale," said Lindsey Graves, one of the Benfield East Buy Nothing Group's admins.

In the lead-up to Winter Storm Blair, the proverbial sugar and eggs were snow pants, winter coats, gloves and boots, of which approximately 250 items were posted to give.

Severna Park's first Buy Nothing group launched in December 2019, just months before the COVID-19 pandemic would change how people shopped and gathered.

"That was really gratuitous timing," joked Erica Rodriguez, who was one of the original group founders, and a current admin of Benfield East. "I could not have planned that better if I tried."

Rodriguez learned of the Buy Nothing Project in the fall of 2019. Intrigued by the idea of a sustainable way to purge items she no longer wanted at home, she did some more digging and ended up attending training to start a group in her own community. She soon learned that Ashleigh Wyble, a neighbor of hers who she'd never actually met, was in the same training.

Together, they created the original Severna Park Buy Nothing group, which blanketed the community from Veterans Highway to Ritchie Highway.

Every post in a Buy Nothing group centers around one of these three tenants: give, ask or gratitude. Members are either giving or requesting an item, service or their time, or sharing their thanks for a prior request that was fulfilled by the group. "No gift is too small, too weird, too niche, too special," Rodriguez explained.

The original founders of the Buy Nothing Project coined the phrase "people over things," and the Severna Park members have followed through on that edict since the group's inception.

One facet of life that was put on pause in the spring of 2020 was birthday parties. A trendy substitute was drive-by celebrations, where friends and family would cruise by someone's home and honk, hold celebratory signs and offer well-wishes. Graves recalls birthday drive-by participants being a common ask in the Buy Nothing group during that time.

"You're driving by strangers' houses, beeping your horn for somebody's birthday because that was a way that you could still build community," Graves said, calling the group "a really magical little spot through COVID."

Rodriguez remembers a request from that era to retrieve a drone from a tree. Sure enough, a neighbor showed up with a ladder. "That was, I think, critically important to see people coming together in a really weird, weird time," Rodriguez said.

As needs change, so do the trending posts. When the largest supplier of infant formula in the country recalled products in 2022, it prompted a shortage that left families nationwide frantically searching for this essential need.

Cue Buy Nothing.

"All these people were like, 'I have samples of formula. Let's go,' recalled Rodriguez of the many formula gives during that stressful time for parents of babies.

Not every trend is quite so serious. Both Rodriguez and Graves referenced a holiday pet costume that made the rounds one year. Pet owners would claim it, snap the requisite photo and then pass it along through the group. "You can never predict what item is going to be the new trending commodity," Rodriguez said.

More recently, someone generously offered up an unneeded Yeti cooler, a post that garnered dozens of responses.

"It's shifted people's mentality of, 'This is a valuable item, but instead of selling it, I'm going to give it away,'" Graves said.

Graves has noted the mindset shift in her own home: her teenage stepdaughter will now request that she "check with the group" before buying her something new, she said.

Another teen was so interested in Buy Nothing posts, her mom used it as motivation for her to log some driving hours. Her daughter could request any giveaway she wanted, but she had to drive to retrieve them. This mom recently issued a gratitude post in her group; thanks in part to Buy Nothing giveaways, her daughter completed her practice hours and passed her driving test.

The Buy Nothing Project suggests that once a group outgrows the mission, it should "sprout" a new one. Local participation here has inspired quick and frequent sprouting.

Today, there are four Severna Park Buy Nothing groups: Benfield East, Benfield West, Old County Corridor and Severna Park East. Membership totals more than 4,000. Eight community volunteers manage these pages, which see dozens of posts per day. Admins are planning for the Benfield East group, which currently has a membership of over 1,400, to sprout again soon.

In an effort to keep these groups hyperlocal, members are required to live within set geographical boundaries. As requests piled up from people who lived near, but not in, Severna Park, Rodriguez tapped into her network to assist in getting groups started in Arnold, Cape St. Claire and Pasadena.

Rodriguez credits Buy Nothing with connecting her with many of her neighbors, and she lauds its ability to serve all people at any point in their lives - from growing families to downsizing retirees, and everyone in between.

"(It's) literally for everybody. It's awesome," she said. ■
